Agreement Between City And Bell Telephone Co. is Signed

Received by Company's Solicitor This Morning and Sent to City Authorities to be Signed and Sealed—Underground Work to Start at Once—Occupy Offices in February.

After nearly two years' fighting the Bell Telephone Co. and the city council of Peterborough have arrived at an agreement whereby the Bell Company will be able to put their wires under ground, in the business district. The agreement, which was drafted by the company's local manager and solicitor, and the mayor and city solicitor, and accepted by the company, then changed by the city council and sent to the head office of the company, was received by the local solicitor, Mr. F. D. Kerr, all signed and completed so far as the Bell people are concerned. Mr. Kerr sent the agreement to the civic authorities, to be signed and sealed with the corporation's seal.

The agreement has been published in these columns, but the main features will be of interest at this time. The company are to put their wires in conduits, under the ground and are bound to leave the roads in as good condition when they have finished as when they started. They are to remove their wires off the poles and to remove all oles which poles and to remove all poles which they own and control on the streets or portions of streets affected.

The city gives the company permission to use the streets for an indefinite period, but do not forfeit any control over the streets which the council now has or may receive in the future, either by legislation or through the railway commission.

The latter clause was the point on which the company stuck, and the council this year deserves credit in winning the big corporation over.

Mr F. W. Doan, when asked, by the Review, what would be the next step, replied that the company would in all probability send a construction gang to the city as soon as possible. The engineers will come in a few days and lay out the work which will extend from Sherbrooke street to Brock street on George and for a short distance east and west on Charlotte, Simcoe, Hunter and Brock streets. Then the construction gang will come and put down the trenches and lay the conduits and cables. For the excavation work as many local men will be engaged as possible, as the company adopts that policy in every city and town.

To lay the underground work will take about two months, and it is necessary to start at once, as it is desirable to commence installing the switchboard in the new office building by October and to connect it with the wires. The whole job is to be done early in the new year and the offices are to be occupied in February.

More Arrests Have Been Made In the Counterfeiting Case

One Effected in Lindsay and the Other in Port Hope—The Excitement is Still at Fever Heat—Authorities Have Widened Their Case to Include Forgeries of Two Years Back more arrests

A Lindsay despatch says.—Another arrest has been made in connection with the alleged counterfeiting case. This time it is Mr. George Miller, a highly respected young man, press room superintendent and a shareholder in the Watchman-Warder. The information on which he was taken is vague and covers the widest possible kind of alleged offence, and a time extending back some years. It appears now that the authorities claim that the present issue of forged money is a follower of the bad money of the Montreal and Dominion Banks a couple of years ago, and that the same parties are implicated.

SPENDING HIS VACATION.

Mr. Miller was at Pleasant Point on his holidays when taken in charge Friday night by Constable Thornbury. He was before County Magistrate Moore and remanded until Thursday next. A strong effort is being made to secure bail for him, and so strong is the belief in his innocence that almost any amount would be forthcoming.

OF EXEMPLARY CHARACTER.

Just what evidence the police pretend to have against Mr. Miller is not known, but his life has been a particularly exemplary one, and in general there is a strong disinclination to entertain even a suspicion of his implication in such an affair. He is very popular in town, a well-known local baseball player, being in charge of the Oriental Baseball team and generally esteemed. Great sympathy is felt for his wife, and for his own people in the trouble that has come upon them.

ARRESTS YET TO COME.

The authorities are quoted as being about to make further arrests today, and the widening of the case to the forgeries of two years ago, is said to bring in several other suspected persons. The counterfeiters of two years ago, were on the Bank of Montreal and the Dominion Bank.

There were several suspects in Lindsay, and investigation was made here, but nothing came of it. No arrests were made here on that occasion. The matter apparently has been revived and it is said that the five Lindsay men, now under arrest have made such confessions as to lead to the belief that the counterfeits on this occasion and the previous occasion were from the same source.

TO APPEAR MONDAY.

Before Police Magistrate Jackson here on Monday, all the men charged with being implicated in the circulation of counterfeit money will be arraigned. Charles Burke, the alleged ringleader, was arrested here; Robert Logie was brought down from Toronto Thursday; Evelegigh will arrive from Montreal today, and Boyeau and Wynn will reach here from the Sault tomorrow. It is probable that the accused will be further remanded for a week.

ARRESTED AT PORT HOPE.

Port Hope, July 13.—Jack Goslin, well-known in Port Hope, was arrested here this morning by Chief on a warrant issued in Lindsay, charged with passing counterfeit notes. He is believed to be concerned in the Lindsay gang of counterfeiters. The Chief of the Lindsay police force will take him to Lindsay this afternoon. Goslin is a former resident of Lindsay.

Sensational Developments In the Trial of Wm. Haywood

State Brings Startling Rebuttal Evidence in Haywood Trial.

Witnesses For Accused Miner Scored By Prosecution—Confess to Participation In Various Crimes—One Was Insane—Warrant Issued Against Physician For Perjury—Orchard's Partner On the Stand.

Boise, Idaho, July 15.—There were startling developments in the trial of William Haywood for the murder of Frand Steunenberg when the state began its rebuttal Saturday.

One witness confessed to participating in a labor riot resulting in the death of two men, and the record of a witness for the defence, showing his conviction for murder in the second degree, was introduced, and the proof of another having been sent to the insane asylum on the information of his neighbors, was offered. The admissibility of this last was argued, and the court will hand down a decision this morning.

Finally shortly after court adjourned for the day, information was sworn to and a warrant for perjury was issued against Dr. I. L. McGee, a physician at Wallace, Idaho, who was one of the witnesses for the defence.

A crowded courtroom showed close attention to the second session of the trial, when William Dewey, a witness, in rebuttal for the state, confessed to active, armed participation in the destruction of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan concentrators at Wardner on April 2, last, 1899, when two men were killed in a riot of a thousand men. Harry Orchard began his series of crimes at Wardner, where, he said, he lighted one of the fuses which started the explosion, and he swore that William F. Davis, known among his fellows as "Big Bill" Davis, led the mob.

Witnesses for the defence, however, swore that Orchard was not at Wardner on April 29, 1889. Davis himself has sworn that he was elsewhere, and has positively denied any connection with the crime, for complicity in which Paul Corcoran was tried and convicted and some dozen men, including Davis himself, were indicted. Davis on the stand admitted that he went into hiding immediately after the rioting.

Dewey swore that not only did Davis accompany the mob to Wardner, but that he served out guns and ammunition to the union men gathered in the hall at Burke before they went to Wardner, and was one of the leaders of the column that advanced on the concentrator before the work of destruction began.

With downcast eyes and fingers nervously picking at the braiding around the rim of a gray sombrero, Dewey told it all. He was repeatedly requested to raise his voice, and with a quick glance at counsel, he complied, only to relapse into almost inaudible tones.

Under the provocation of a sneering cross-examination by E. J. Richardson, Dewey rallied and even became combatative; but throughout the recital, he gave evidence of remorse. Under the same cross-examination Dewey told why he had come to Boise to confess after eight years of silence. He had been a miner in Colorado for several years, he said, and had even risen to a town marshalship.

"What promise of immunity of punishment was given you, before you decided to make confession of the crime? What reward will you receive? What induced you to make this statement now after all these years?" were some of Richardson's questions.

"None," was the laconic reply to the first two questions, but to the last one, "I read Orchard's confession."

"You saw how well he was treated and decided to get a little of it?" sneered Mr. Richardson.

"It was nothing of that kind," responded Dewey quietly. "I thought I ought to help along with the doing of justice."

Dr. McGee was also one of the witnesses who swore that Orchard was at Mullin on the day of the explosion at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan concentrator.

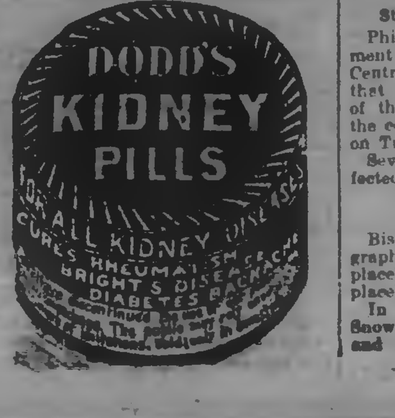
Ten witnesses in rebuttal were examined. Most of them were called to disprove statements as to Orchard's movements in North Idaho, and as to the disposal of his interests in the Hercules Mines.

One of the most interesting witnesses was August Paulson, once a poor miner partner of Orchard's in the Hercules Mine. He retained his interest in the mine for five years until the mine became one of the richest in the country and is now rich. Orchard swore that he planned to kidnap Paulson's children and extort a ransom of $30,000. Paulson was called to show that Orchard disposed of his interest in the mine some time before he left Idaho.

Counsel for the state expect to finish the rebuttal by Tuesday evening or Wednesday at the latest.

Orchard's Grandfather Insane.

Boise, Idaho, July 15.—Last night the Haywood defence says it has discovered new evidence to show that Orchard's maternal grandfather, formerly a resident of Canada, was a maniac on the subject of crime.



LAVERGNE NOT A MANNIKIN.

Defends His Independent Attitude—Eloquent Tribute By Mr. Bourassa.

Montmagny, Que., July 15.—Bad roads and threatening weather did their very best to spoil the Bourassa-Lavergne meeting at Montmagny Saturday. The town itself is devoted to the Laurier cult, but the county is strong for independent thought, and yesterday afternoon fully 2,000 people assembled in the triangular plaza flanked by the church and school, which forms the public square of Montmagny.

The crowd stood patiently for hours, at times beneath a hot sun and at times beneath a shower of rain, and gave to the speakers close attention and loud applause.

Mr. Lavergne spoke with unusual force and vigor. He was loudly cheered when he said that he was not a mannikin, and no voting machine for any Government.

Mr. Bourassa is, if possible, more fluent in French than in English, and stirred the crowd to great enthusiasm. He paid an eloquent tribute to the people of Ontario and to the British crown.

It must be admitted that Mr. Bourassa did not add any news to the rumors respecting his entering provincial politics. It is clear that he intends to do so, and it is said that he will contest Terrebonne against Hon. Jean Prevost.

A large crowd came from the City of Quebec and Levis, and it is generally admitted that many young Liberals of Quebec will support Bourassa and Lavergne against the Gouin Government.

SOLD PHONEY WATCHES.

Suspect In Counterfeiting Case Has Bad Record.

Lindsay, July 15.—Telegrams have been sent to a number of places in the northwest where it is suspected an attempt is to be made to "shove" some of the counterfeit productions of Burke et al.

There are no new developments locally. John Goslin has been brought here from Port Hope, where he was arrested Saturday. He is the only one under arrest who bears a bad record, having served a term for selling phoney watches. He is also known as an operator at fall fairs with an elusive pea and a mystifying walnut shell.

George Miller, the foreman printer arrested Friday night, may be charged with circulating bogus bills some three years ago, when he visited Belleville and Peterboro. At the time he was questioned by the police and his stories then are declared to have been conflicting.

DROWNS WHILE SWIMMING.

Brother Saw Body In River But Could Not Recover It.

Wroxeter, July 15.—Yesterday morning, while Joseph and William Casemore, of this place, were bathing under Day's Bridge, Joseph took cramps and sunk. William not being able to swim could render no assistance, and it was sometime before any assistance could be obtained. The body lay in about ten feet of water, and was plainly visible from the bridge.

At last Harry Brown arrived. He stripped immediately and dived and brought up the body, but it was too late.

Two doctors were upon the grounds and did all that could be done.

The body was under water about 25 minutes, and was chilled through, as the water was spring water.

The drowned man was well-known and highly respected. He was about 20 years of age and unmarried.

Standard Oil Firemen Strike.

Philadelphia, July 15.—Announcement was made at a meeting of the Central Labor Union here yesterday, that all firemen in the employment of the Standard Oil Co. throughout the country would go out on a strike on Tuesday.

Several thousand men will be affected throughout the country.

More Bisley Winnings.

Bisley, July 15.—In the "Telegraph" match, Corpl. Snowball (25th place) and Staff-Sergt. Bayles (29th place) won 60 shillings each.

In the "Stock Exchange" match, Snowball (25th) wins 60 shillings, and Bayles (31st) 40 shillings.

FRANCO-ITALIAN ALLIANCE.

Garibaldi's Statue Unveiled in Paris With Significant Remarks.

Paris, July 15.—The statue of Garibaldi, Italy's tribute to the City of Paris, was unveiled Saturday in Lowendal square with imposing civil and military ceremonies, in the presence of President Fallieres, the Cabinet Ministers, the diplomatic corps, and other distinguished persons. Foreign Minister Pichon and Gen. Canzio, Garibaldi's son-in-law, made the principal addresses.

The feature of the occasion was a defile before the monument of the French veterans of the Army of the Vosges and deputations of Italian veterans who fought with Garibaldi in the defence of France during the Franco-German War of 1870-71.

M. Pichon in the course of his speech referred to the "wonderful career" of Garibaldi, and called him a "true son of the French revolution—a patriot belonging less to Italy than to the whole world," adding, "How fitting it is that this monument should be erected to his memory in Paris, where the statues of Washington and Franklin attest the gratitude of the French democracy for those who abroad nobly served the cause of liberty. Even after death Garibaldi is rendering new service to Italy and France, since the present occasion permits the two nations, as well as the two Governments, to solemnly reaffirm their friendship."

ANARCHISTS ARE BUSY.

Crowd Throw Fireworks Among Troopers' Horses, Causing Panic.

Toulon, France, July 15.—Eight thousand workmen, including a number of anarchists, had a meeting Saturday and demonstrated against the Government.

Towards midnight a collision occurred between the police and the workmen, several being injured on both sides.

The paraders were struggling for positions at a public concert when the police charged them.

Later it was necessary to call upon the soldiers to aid the police.

The crowd threw fireworks among the troopers' horses causing a panic.

At Montpelier marching workmen and their sympathizers, singing anarchistic airs, stopped in front of the barracks and acclaimed the soldiers, whom they invited to join in the procession and demonstration. The troops were not allowed to mingle with the celebrators, who were not disorderly.

At a mass meeting the workmen condemned the Government and expressed sympathy with the South of France.

EXPLOSION HURTS FIREMEN.

Five Windsor Men More Or Less Hurt At Early Blaze.

Windsor, July 15.—Two loud explosions at the plant of the Windsor Gas Company, on McDougall street, early yesterday morning, startled the residents of that locality and incidentally singed and shook up three firemen and two spectators, in addition to shattering a number of windows.

The first explosion was being investigated by the fire department when the second occurred, due to an open lantern in the hands of one of the firemen.

Assistant Chief Defields, Firemen Cakebread and Doumouchelle, William Crick, a stoker at the gas works, and Dennis Reddins, a spectator, were all badly scorched. Reddins was blown from the sidewalk out into the middle of the street and did not recover consciousness for many hours.

Leaking pipes and a lighted lamp are blamed for the explosions, but an investigation will probably be ordered.

Deliberate Attack on Fallieries; A Maniac Fired Two Shots

Attempted Assassination of President of French Republic.

Miscreant Fired Two Shots In Rapid Succession—Escape Was Miraculous—Bullets Went Wide and Nobody Was Hit—Would-Be Assassin Nearly Lynched—Thirty-Nine Anti-Militarists Arrested.

Paris, July 15.—The national fete day was marred by an attempt on the life of President Fallieres by Leon Maile, a naval reservist of Havre, who, it is believed, is suffering from the mania of persecution. Maille fired two shots at the President, but did not hit him. He was at once placed under arrest.

On account of the activity of the anti-militarists, who tried to organize a demonstration throughout France yesterday, exceptional precautions were taken to safeguard the President.

The attempt on his life occurred on Avenue des Champs Elysees, while the President was returning to the palace from Longchamps, where he had reviewed the garrison of Paris in the presence of 250,000 people.

Premier Clemenceau and M. Lanes, the President's secretary, were with the President in his landau, which was escorted by a squadron of cuirassiers.

Saved as by Miracle.

The carriage had safely emerged from the Bois de Boulogne, where the anti-militarists had stationed themselves, with the intention of hooting the soldiers, and was descending the broad Champs Elysees amid the acclamations of the crowds thronging the sidewalks, who were shouting "Vive Fallieres," "Vive l'Armee," when Maille, from the curb at the corner of Lesuer street, fired two shots point blank at the President in quick succession.

As by a miracle no one was hit. President Fallieres was cool and collected when the cortege stopped. The diplomats who were following the President's landau, alighted from their carriages and hurried to his side. Finding nobody had been injured, the President ordered the cortege to move on.

Prisoner Nearly Lynched.

In the meantime two policemen seized Maille, who made no resistance. But the police with difficulty prevented the irate crowds from lynching the prisoner, until a cordon of reserves came up and conducted him to the station. There Maille refused to give any reasons for his act, saying: "The revelations I have are so grave and serious that I will only make them before a magistrate for transmission to the chief of state. It is a matter between the Government and me. I am the victim of many villianies."

Some of the witnesses of the shooting said that Maille fired in the air.

It is believed that the man participated in the recent seamen's strike and that his mind has been unhinged by fancied grievances. It is believed also that he aided in the revolutionary agitation of the general federation of labor and the anti-militarists.

There is no reason to suspect a plot, as Maille only arrived here from Rouen the night previous.

Mind Affected.

Maille appeared before an examining magistrate last night, but the authorities succeeded only in extracting from him a rambling statement about family persecution directed against him. It was in order to draw public attention to his grievances, he said, that he fired the shots. The prisoner terminated the examination by announcing his intention to give no further explanations, as he believed the magistrate would do nothing to remedy his wrongs.

President Fallieres has received numerous telegrams of congratulations from the rulers of many countries on his fortunate escape.

The attempt on the life of President Fallieres probably will strengthen the Government's intention to put a stop to the anti-militarist propaganda, which already is demoralizing the army and becoming a menace to the republic.

Thirty-nine ringleaders were arrested yesterday for hissing soldiers who were returning from the review. Other arrests were made at the Place de la Concorde, where the League of Patriots held its annual ceremony.

NO TRAINING SHIPS FOR LAKES.

Peace Society Officials Say Rumor Is Incorrect.

Toronto, July 15.—Concerning the report that training ships of war might be introduced on the great lakes by the United States, Rev. A. C. Courtice, secretary of the Canadian Peace and Arbitration Society, has a letter from Dr. Banjamin F. Brueblood, secretary of the American Peace Society, with this assurance:

"Direct information from the State Department at Washington assures us that the report had no real foundation."

British Columbia Lumber.

Vancouver, July 15.—The British Columbia coast lumber cut for the year ending June reached three hundred and forty million feet, June alone being thirty-nine million with nearly every mill behind in their orders. The total cut for the entire province, including Dominion lands, is estimated to reach double the coast output, or six hundred and seventy-eight million feet.

Mine Managers at Cobalt Refuse to Agree to Demands.

Claim Can Get All Labor They Need—Scale Ratified at Mass Meeting of Miners—Managers Think Present Rates Equitable—Western Federation Cause of the Trouble — What the Men Want.

Cobalt, July 15.—A prolonged strike is evidently in store for Cobalt, though several mine managers declare they will be able to bring in all the labor they require.

The committee of the Miners' Union was prepared to modify their schedule of daily wages as follows: Carpenters $3.50, carpenters' helpers $2.75, mechanics $3.50, pipe fitters $3, blacksmiths $3.75, helpers $3, engineers 32 1-2 cents an hour, firemen 27 1-2 cents per hour, ore sorters $3, hammermen $3, teamsters $2.50, hoistmen $2.75, cage or buckers $3, surface laborers $2.50, underground labor and cage or bucketers $2.75, machine helpers $3, machine men and timbermen $3.50.

The union also asked for a nine-hour shift all round, and not more than 60 cents per day for board.

The above scale was prepared by the union committee and is said to have been ratified by a mass meeting of union men, but this cannot be confirmed. However, the six union and non-union men on the miners' committee were prepared to recommend the above scale.

Managers' Statement.

The mine managers handed out the following statement: "At a meeting of the representatives of the undersigned mines, in session, the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"That this body of mine managers and superintendents firmly believe that the schedule of wages offered to the employes of the Cobalt mines is eminently just and fair, and is higher than any other wage scale at present in force in Ontario, unanimously adhere to the agreement and scale of wages and hours, published by themselves, and that no deviation be made from the same."

Want to Fight Now.

The fact that the Cobalt union is a branch of the Western Federation is the cause of the trouble. The mine managers believe a struggle with this body has to come, and the sooner the better. Some mine managers who have been engaged in prior contests with this federation have strongly impressed this feeling among other managers and to-day some Canadian managers of small companies are believed to have fallen in line rather out of a dislike to fight with other managers than from a dislike to the proposed schedule. Some, however, of the superintendents of small companies are as emphatic as any in their determination to give no increase.

The mine managers are now busy preparing scales, which, they say, will be uniform, and claim that the union has taken the maximum paid at any mine in camp for each particular class of labor and used it as the minimum in their schedule.

COMES TO BE CONVINCED.

Keir Hardie Not Favorable to Emigration to Canada.

London, July 15.—Keir Hardie, who sailed Saturday, said he was going to find out whether the efforts which are being made to induce people to go to Canada are justified by the facts.

Prima facie he is a strong opponent of organized emigration, and refused to be charmed by the prospect of Canada's empty territories so long as there are three million of acres of good land in England idle for want of men to till them.

Five Cents Starts a Riot.

Roanoke, Va., July 15.—Roanoke is quiet after four hours of rioting Saturday night, when a mob wrecked nine Greek restaurants and three Greek bootblack establishments and two Syrian shops.

The riot was caused by a dispute about 5 cents between a Greek employed in a Greek restaurant and an American who went there to buy a sandwich.

Humor and Philosophy

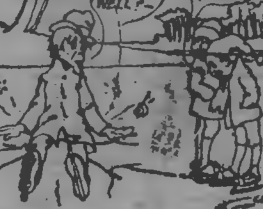
By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Candidates are engaged in knocking the snow off their boomlets and getting ready for spring.

When a pretty girl is indignant all the men in her vicinity sit up and take notice.

We all feel that it is a blessing to have tactful friends.



WELL?
YESSIR!

Seeing an old duffer skate is more fun than a debating society.

You wonder if there are ethics of the dust on a dusty day.

Do you notice that it never makes woman feel bad to have man write a book proving that he is superior to her?

Anybody can grumble, but it requires some understanding to avoid the necessity for grumbling.

If a young man mixes dates with his boss and his girl he may have to fall back on prunes.

The average man is optimistic for himself and lets his wife be pessimistic for him.

Being cowardly is the only salvation of lots of folks.

The rubbish heap in the alley is the answer to the question why so many people are hard up in January.

Absence of the Head.

When mother is away from home
To stay a day or so
The others notice pretty soon
That several things don't go;
At least, not in the channel smooth
In which they lightly glide
When she is home and running things
And sewing on the side.

The family says she needs a rest,
And so they pack her grip
And send her off to Cousin Jane's
Just for a pleasant trip.
They say that they can run the place
Without her standing by,
And so they really think they can
Until they come to try.

It's all right for a half a day
Till something goes awry,
And then there's several things to pay
At which the printers shy.
Some one can't find his overshoes,
Some one has lost his hat,
And there is no one round to ask,
"Ma, where is this and that?"

The family really is a sight
To see when she gets back,
With dispositions out of plumb
And tempers out of whack.
Though topsy turvy is the house,
Upset and hopeless quite,
It only takes her half a day
To get things running right.

Darning Table Linen.

To darn table damask use a raveling from the cloth. If there is an actual hole, put under it a piece of the same damask, matching the pattern to a thread. Then darn backward and forward with the raveling. If the work is done right, the patch will not show after laundering except by careful scrutiny. In the past skill in such needlecraft was considered a necessary accomplishment for the "finished young lady."

Sudden Death of Miss Isabella Rose

Found Dead by Her Brother Sunday Morning—Was Down Street Saturday

The friends and relatives of Miss Isabelle Rose, were shocked to learn Sunday morning that she had been found dead in bed by her brother, Mr. Edward Rose. The deceased had suffered from heart disease, and a month ago, Dr. Halliday was called to attend her. But since then she has been in good health and able to attend to her household duties as usual. On Saturday she was down street at the market and that evening when she went to bed was very cheerful and appeared to be as well as usual.

She kept house for her two brothers, Mr. Edward Rose, and Alex. Rose at 400 Downie street, near the corner of Hunter street. During the night, neither of them heard any disturbance and got up as usual. The sister was called about nine o'clock, and one of the brothers thought he heard someone moving about, but about half-past nine he went upstairs to call her again, as she had not come down. Upon opening the door he saw his sister still in bed and apparently asleep. He went over to the bed and to his horror found her dead, although how long she had been he could not say. Assistance was summoned but there was no hope of restoring life. She had passed away peacefully and without a struggle. Dr. Gray, coroner, was notified, but he did not think an inquest was necessary, and the funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon to Little Lake Cemetery.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Alexander and Mrs. Rose, and had lived in the city for many years, and had many warm friends. She was 57 years of age and since the death of her parents, has kept the home for her two brothers. Those left to mourn her loss are Edward and Alex. at home; Mr. James Rose, Park street; Mrs. John Gillespie, Sherbrooke street; and Miss Mary Rose of Kingston. The late Stewart Rose, who died about a month ago, was a brother.

Two Young Men Nearly Drowned

While Sailing in a Canoe They Were Upset

A double drowning catastrophe was narrowly averted the other day near Viamede, Stoney Lake, and as a result two young men have decided not to try sailing in a canoe again. It was a very windy day, and two guests at Viamede, Mr. Silcox of Rochester and Mr. Cooper of Toronto thought they would enjoy the rough lake. They hoisted a sail on their canoe and started out. They travelled along pretty fast, and safely until they reached Otter island, and then there was trouble.

Neither gentleman knew very much about controlling a sail, and in turning around the canoe was upset and the occupants were soon struggling in the water. They could be seen from Viamede. A number of ladies standing on the wharf were frantic, thinking sure the men would be drowned. Finally Mr. Young and Mr. Ralph Lawrence heard them and rowed to their assistance. The canoeists were brought to land. They received a good ducking and vowed never to again go sailing in a canoe.

Charles Slaght of Hamilton, died yesterday after a day's illness.

Body of Jack Lefebvre Found Floating at Quaker Oats Dam

Came to the Top of the Water and Was Stopped by the Boom—Found by Two Boys Who Were Crossing the Bridge—Funeral Was Held This Morning.

The body of little Jack Lefebvre was found floating in the Otonabee River about ten o'clock Sunday morning, after being in the water three days. The little fellow was only 12 years old and was fishing off the Auburn dam Thursday morning, but just what time he fell in or how the accident happened is unknown.

His uncle, Hosanna Brion, was the first to notice the lad's disappearance, and he made a search and then gave the alarm. All afternoon and until late in the evening a large number of people looked in vain for the body of the boy. All day Saturday and Saturday evening the search continued, but no trace was found until about ten o'clock Sunday morning by two little boys from Ashburnham, who were walking over the bridge at the dam. The little corpse was floating and had been stopped by the boom across the river, just above the Quaker Oats Co dam.

There is no doubt but that Lefebvre fell in off the Auburn dam as that is where he was fishing not many minutes before his uncle missed him. The current in the river between the two dams is very strong, as will be understood when it is known that the Auburn dam and the Quaker Oats dam are about three quarters of a mile apart.

Mr. Edward Vinnette of 881 Water street, notified Messrs. Lane & Eana undertakers, and they went up and brought the body down to their undertaking rooms on Hunter-st.

Coroner Dr. Gray was notified but when he learned the circumstances he decided that the boy's death was purely accidental and no inquest was necessary.

The funeral was held this morning at nine o'clock from the residence of the deceased's parents, 872 George street to St. Peter's Cathedral. Interment took place in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, July 15.—Further improvement was recorded by the active stocks this morning. Some realizing was met, but the short covering took a great deal of it. After so fast a recovery some slowing down is natural, as the tendency seems to be merely interrupted and there appears to be a tendency to gradual improvement under specialty leadership. Union Pacific was the strong feature rising nearly 3 points, but Copper Smelters and Reading were not far behind. In the last hour the market sold off rapidly and nearly all the early gains were lost. The closing was rather weak and irregular.

NEARLY DROWNED WHILE SAILING

Young Man Sailing in Little Lake Had Experiences Yesterday

A drowning was narrowly averted in Little Lake yesterday afternoon when a young man was saved in the nick of time. He had gone out sailing early in the afternoon and for several hours he enjoyed great fun. But about five o'clock a gust of wind caught his sail and overturned the light craft. Being alone he was unable to right the boat on account of the wet sail and he undertook to do the next best thing, viz., tow his boat to shore. The young fellow was about the middle of the lake and he kicked and paddled until he was nearly exhausted. A couple of other fellows saw the predicament he was in and they pulled their boat to him and helped him to shore.

After resting for a while he started up town. His clothes were dripping all along the walk, laying the dust as effectively as if one of the big carts had been over. When he reached the corner of Charlotte and George streets he began to feel faint again, and went into Spence's restaurant (McCallum's old stand) and ordered a good steak and a glass of fresh milk. After partaking of an excellent meal the unfortunate fellow's strength returned and he was able to go home and change his clothes. He said afterwards that he would not go sailing alone any more.

BOYS' CAMP AT SANDY BEACH

Tents Pitched in the Rain—Pillow Fight the First Night—Baseball

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Clear Lake.
July 13th, 1907.

Special to the Review.

The 10th Y.M.C.A. boy's camp is again in full swing. The campers arrived here on Thursday afternoon in a downpour of rain and the boys went to work with a will and soon the tents were up and supper served, with the fellows all good and ready for it. There was not much sleep the first night. In spite of the rain, a fierce pillow fight took place and raged until all, or nearly all, were glad to quit. Sections 1 and 2 were pitted against 3 and 4. Finally all but two were satisfied that they had had enough of it, so to satisfy these two a ring was formed and at it they went with their pillows. At the end of two rounds it was declared a draw and all were satisfied. Then the boys sang camp songs for quite awhile. Friday was rather a disagreeable day, but the arrival of Tom Arnott, the cook, seemed to clear the weather, and today it is fine. A baseball league is formed and Monday morning the games begin. The members and leaders of the sections are as follows:—

Section 1—Leader, Physical Director Dingman (Soap,), W. Fortye (Fifty), G. Minorgan, (Minnow) D. Layfield, (Buster,) C. Dean. (Beany,) B. Mills, (Boo-Boo,) F. Patterson, (Pudgie,) W. Parks, (Friggie.)

Section 2.—Leader, Sec. Williamson, (Jimmy,) Finnigan,) Tom Arnott, (Taffy,) Stevenson, (Sleepy,) E. Thornton, (Ginney.) C. Thornton, (Skin,) and E. Cross, (Patch.)

Section 3.—Leader, G. Manning, (Gold Tooth,) E. Hatton, (Toady,) D. Hatton, (Fiery Steed,) W. Stratton, (Daisy,) R. Stratton, (Midget,) W. Eastwood (Doctor,) H. Eastwood, (Pale Face,) A. McIntosh (Fido.)

Section 4.—Leader, G. Martin, (Cheeky,) W. Browett, (Rip,) B. Webb (Bloky,) W. Flowers. (Blooming,) L. Stevens, (Steve,) M. Hartley, (Buck.)

PLEASANT SAIL TO IDYL WYLD

Large Number Went Down on the Saturday Afternoon Trip

Theer was a good crowd of citizens on board the steamer Otonabee when she pulled away from Wolfe street wharf Saturday afternoon. It was the regular Saturday afternoon trip down to Idyl Wyld and the excursionists were out for fresh air and a trip on the water. They got all that they desired. The weather was ideal and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the fresh breeze which blew across the stream. Probably one of the most pleasant features of the outing is the sail across Rice Lake where there is always a delightful breeze. Idyl Wyld is a very pretty place and well adapted to picnic parties, and the Otonabee Navigation Co. should do a big business. The boat leaves the city and also Idyl Wyld sharp on time and travels at a good speed, making the trip in a little less than three hours and landing the passengers at home at nine o'clock in the evening.

West Ends Win Review Cup And League Championship

Defeated Strathconas at Nicholls Oval on Saturday 10 Runs to 3—Big Crowd Saw the Game.

The West End baseball team are the winners of the Review cup, emblematic of the championship of the Intermediate Baseball League of Peterborough. They won their right to claim the coveted trophy and to be styled the champs of 1907 when they defeated the Strathconas at Nicholls Oval on Saturday afternoon.

The score was 10—3 and the match was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators, whose support was about evenly divided between the two teams. Great interest has been taken in the league games all season, and as Saturday's contest was the crux of the situation, the interest was at fever heat.

The Strathconas got away to a poor start at the beginning of the season, but they had better luck as the season advanced, and wound up by being on an even basis with the West Ends for first place. The latter team had been playing good ball all season and went on the field Saturday confident of victory. It was a fine game, although the winners had it on the Straths in nearly all departments. They had nine runs to the losers' five, but it was their errors that lost the game for the Strathconas. Nine black marks were chalked up against them while the West Enders did fine work in the field and only had four fumbles recorded against them. Both batteries did good work, but the Strathcona pair did not receive the support that was given Butcher and McNern. The Straths started out strong and scored two runs in the first innings, but after that they were not able to do much and with the exception of one tally in the fifth, were blanked for the rest of the game. The only innings in which the West Ends failed to tally were the second, fifth and seventh.

The teams and scores were as follows:

Newmarket's Tooted Team Took a Tumble Before Locals

Six to Four Was the Score at Riverside Park on Saturday—Peterborough Secured Good Lead in First Quarter and Never Were Headed—Story of the Game.

The Peterborough intermediate lacrosse team won their first victory this season on Saturday afternoon, and incidentally gave the championship aspirations of the Newmarket Talagoos a severe jolt. Newmarket's dozen of imports came, they saw but they did not conquer. The locals had it on them in nearly every department, and the score should have been larger than it was—6—4.

Riverside Park was the scene of the struggle and the attendance was gratifying. About 800 spectators viewed the game, 300 of them coming from Newmarket. An excursion was run to Peterborough and about 300 supporters accompanied the visiting team. They sported large bunches of the Newmarket colors, and evidently expected that the Talagoos would make a sorry sight of the Peterborough team. But they bumped up against a hard proposition and bit the dust.

It is too bad that the Peterborough team did not get down to work earlier in the season. If they had they would be now right in the running for the district championship. On the form they showed Saturday they should easily hold their own with any of the intermediate C.L.A. teams, and then, too, it must be taken into consideration that the players have not been hurting themselves with practice. Peterborough has the material for one of the fastest lacrosse teams in Ontario, outside of the N.L.U. teams in Toronto, but plenty of practice is wanted. A good coach is also needed, and one should have been secured at the beginning of the season. It's somewhat late now to try to make up for the past, but the same mistakes should not be made again next year.

Saturday's match was a good exhibition of lacrosse, and the spectators were well pleased. The afternoon was hot and the sun shone fiercely, so it was no wonder that the players became fagged and the play somewhat loose towards the close of the match. Peterborough started out strong and secured a big lead in the first quarter being three goals to the good at the end of this period. Newmarket got the only goal scored in the second quarter, and both teams scored a goal in each of the last two quarters, making the final tally 6—4.

The game had a tendency to be rough, and F. C. Waghorne, who did good work as referee, handed out quite a list of penalties. And sad to relate, Peterborough had the big share of them. This should not be. Every man on the local team can play good lacrosse, and should confine himself to a display of this talent when on the lacrosse field. It is more effective in the end and helps to promote good sport. A man who spends half his time on the fence is of little use to a lacrosse team, or any other team for that matter.

The Newmarket team on Saturday was not particularly dangerous, and the locals should have doubled the score. Three times at least it looked as if Peterborough could not help but score, but some way or other the ball would not go in. The Peterborough team had it on the visitors in all departments, on the defence, in the field and on the home. The superiority of the homesters was especially noticeable around centre field, Meagher, Smith and McGrath being much faster than their checks. McGrath was the fastest man on the field, and played a dashing game. McDonough also distinguished himself, especially in the first half, and showed no fear of the opposing defence. Best broke his stick just after the game started, and was somewhat handicapped by the new one he secured. When a man has played with the same stick for several years he finds a new one awkward to handle, and his shooting and passing are almost sure to be below the average until he is used to it. Glover played an effective and heady game, and McLean was in fine form, and showed up well all afternoon. Regan, Morgan, Derocher and Mein made a strong defence, while Backus made several fine stops in the flags.

Manning and Graves were the pick of the Newmarket defense, while Skelding shone on the home end. The visitors' home lobbed the ball to one another instead of using the short, quick pass, and as a result lost the ball time and again. The visitors had plenty of weight and speed, but their stick handling was not up to that of the locals. Both teams lost many good opportunities to score by poor passing and muffing the ball—results of the lack of practice.

The match started at 3.15, and it was after five when it was over, owing to delays from players being injured.

9 Newmarket, Skelding, 6 minutes
10 Peterborough, Best—3 minutes

GOOD LEAD SECURED

Newmarket scored the first game, so quickly that the umpire's hand was up before anybody knew what had happened. Van Dusen got the draw and the sphere travelled down the field until it was in Skelding's stick, and then the nets shook behind Backus. The ball hit the goal keeper on the hand, and bounced off into the curtains.

Newmarket 1; Peterborough 1.

Peterborough took a hand in the game when play was resumed, and several times the ball was dangerously close to the Newmarket citadel. Play was fast and nearly every man on the field was tearing around at a lively clip. The checking was as hard as the pace was fast, and McGrath came under Waghorne's inspection during a mix-up with one of the visitors' defence men and rested five minutes 'neath the shade of the grandstand. Morgan soon came in to keep him company and spend a five minute spell with the time keepers. Dunnmore came along for a similar period and, with ten men against eleven Peterborough was putting it over the visitors. McDonough did a dodging stunt with the Newmarket goal as his objective point, passed to Best, but Hurst stopped the latter's shot. The ball went down field, but came back in a minute, and Best and McDonough did some nice combination work, and the latter scored. Time, 6 minutes.

Peterborough, 1; Newmarket, 1.

The Peterborough home was giving the visitors' defence a merry time, and several times the chances for a tally looked good. The locals were also showing up well on the defence and kept the Newmarket home at a safe distance. McDonough and Best again came into the limelight in a nice bit of passing, and Pat notched another one for Peterborough in 6 minutes.

Peterborough, 2; Newmarket, 1

The play was still fast, with the Peterborough home circling around the Talagoos' defence and causing them all kinds of anxiety. Best scored for the locals in 4 mins .

Peterborough; 3; Newmarket, 1.

When Morgan and McGrath were off Glover had fallen back to help out the defence, but with the twelve men on the field had moved down to his position on outside home. He ho was doing good work and scored Peterborough's fourth goal on a well directed shot from about 40 feet out. That made the tally:

Peterborough, 4; Newmarket, 1.

And the quarter ended a minute or so later.

The score looked good to the Peterborough fans.

SECOND QUARTER .

The second quarter was not quite as fast Peterborough commenced strong, but Newmarket was now playing a better defence game, and it was not as easy get in one the nets as in the first quarter. The Newmarket home handled the ball nicely and Skelding scored in 3 minutes .

Peterborough, 4; Newmarket, 2.

Regan was penalized for 5 minutes for too strenuous work on the defence, and Morgan came in to keep him company, having got the usual five. But with twelve men to ten Newmarket could not score, and the second quarter ended without any additioYnal tallies being recorded

THIRD QUARTER .

McLean had been playing fine lacrosse all afternoon and was doing effective work, though not figuring in the scoring. Three minutes after the commencement of the quarter he loomed up large, however, and scored Peterborough's fifth goal.

Peterborough, 5; Newmarket, 2.

Regan and Skelding got ten minutes each for becoming too intimate during a rush on the local's goal, and while they were off Campbell scored for Newmarket. Time, 7 minutes.

Peterborough, 5; Newmarket, 3.

This ended the third quarter ,

FORTUH QARUTER

The Newmarket portion of the grand stand whooped it up in great shape when Skelding scored for the visitors in six minutes after the last quarter had been started, making the tally ;—

Peterborough, 5; Newmarket, 4.

The jubilation was short lived, however, for three minutes later Best scored on a pass from McDonough. Soon after play was resumed Campbell had to retire from the game, having received a crack on the mouth during a scrimmage in midfield Best was dropped to even up.

Both teams were tiring and the play was getting somewhat ragged. Peterborough had a safe lead, and the players contented themselves by passing the ball from one man to another as long as they kept it from the Newmarket grasp. Several times the visitors got the sphere, but could not get in on the locals' defence. Morgan was ruled off for five minutes and McLean was treated to a similar penalty. Manning, too, became naughty and also got five minutes. With one man to the good Newmarket tried hard to score, and at this stage Regan did great work and relieved splendidly on several occasions. The visitors began to realize that their task was hopeless, and the match ended without any further scoring .

CAUGHT IN THE NET.

George Lynch was field captain of the Peterborough team.

Painful silence reigned among the Newmarket contingent at the close of the game.

None of the local players received any injuries worth speaking of.

Fred Whitcroft held one of the watches. He is an efficient and accurate timekeeper.

Too bad the locals did not win that Beaverton game on Dominion Day. Things would now be brighter.

Good lacrosse would pay well in Peterborough. The attendance on Saturday was very gratifying.

McGrath covered more ground than any man on the field. He has speed to burn.

Considerable money changed hands on the game. Some good Newmarket coin remained in Peterborough.

Mr. R. Underhill, provincial Liberal candidate for North York, faced the ball at the commencement of the match. He accompanied the Newmarket team to Peterborough.

The Daily Review

MONDAY, JULY 15, 1907.

ANOTHER PROMISE KEPT

Hon. J. P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, is to be congratulated upon the reduced price of school readers which now obtains in his province. For years when he was leader of an opposition, he maintained that the Government was allowing an alleged "ring" to charge prices out of proportion to the value of the readers supplied for the use of the school children of the province. He promised if he was made a premier he would give the people cheaper books. He appointed a commission to investigate, and when the old contract expired inaugurated a new era with lower prices. He has fulfilled his promise, says the Canadian Courier.

Perhaps Mr. Whitney and his colleagues have not yet accomplished all they hoped for; they may yet have work to do along the same line. It is possible also that at one or two points they made blunders, especially in the method of making the new contract. Be these circumstances as they may, the Ontario Ministry has accomplished something after a strenuous fight. On this they are to be congratulated; for this they must be praised.

They still have much work ahead of them. A new set of readers must be prepared or selected within the next year and a half. This is a task of some magnitude and will require much careful direction on the part of the Cabinet and the Minister of Education. A new contract must be made and this will require much careful attention to see that the best books are secured at a reasonable figure. Further, the prices of all other public and high school books must be revised, including those of the drawing and writing books and other "extras" on the authorized list. In this work, the Ministry must be fair to the authors and publishers, and yet see that the public gets the best value obtainable.

All this is for the benefit of the poorer classes of the community. The poorer a man is, the larger his family as a rule and the greater number of public school books he has to buy. In reducing the price of public school books, the Ontario Ministry is working to help the man with the large family. If the ministry will go so far as to supply the more generally used books at cost or free to rural and village schools, it will be carrying its reform a long distance, but no farther than it has been carried in Manitoba, in the leading Ontario cities, and in about two-thirds of the United States. Judging by the present spirit of the Ministry, it will go as far as the public will justify them—or as they think the public can be induced to justify them.

PEN POINTS.

It's nice camping at some delightful cosy, elysian retreat down the river these days—if it were not for the mosquitoes.

One of the new concrete crossings in the city — that has not been put down yet, is the one in front of the Review office.

Just watch for the big 12th of July parade Peterborough will have next year. Local Orangemen are already preparing for the great event.

This is the time of the year when a sail down the river is richly enjoyed and a treat long to be remembered.

Canada's population is now reckoned to be 6,500,000—a growth of over a million in the last five years. If this keeps up the Dominion will be suffering from growing pains.

A New York scientist estimates that if the gases now going to waste at the Pittsburg blast furnaces were utilized to produce electricity, power would be available to carry all the steel product of the city to tidewater. In this age we are wonderfully prodigal in wasting coal and wood.

This is a peculiar world. Some men are dying to get married, others are literally dying to become unyoked. Here is another man excessively anxious to buy a house while his neighbor, perhaps, would give his right hand if he could only get rid of his property. Some old persons clamor for admission to the House of Refuge, and others are trying in every way possible to escape, as instanced in the following; "Several inmates of the House of Refuge, Cobourg, have escaped lately. Mike Fitzpatrick, of Port Hope, and Jas. Bradley, of Bailieboro were brought back to the House. Sam Lane took a day off on Wednesday—and—after rolling around his old haunts was run in by Chief Ruse, of Port Hope. It takes all kinds of people to make a world.

The Lord's Day Act is felt to be a severe hardship to the cheese and butter factory interests, and it is said that Cowansville Dairy Board has determined to come to the defence of any factory in its district that may be charged under the act. It is just possible that the exceptions under the head of unavoidable work, may cover the operations in question. If the Act legalizes Sunday operations connected with the making of maple sugar and maple syrup, it might be supposed that it would extend to the saving of milk, by the necessary factory work. It would be a pity to earn the hostility of the cheese and butter interests, if reasonable allowances will avoid it.

How long is the sort of nonsense of placing a head tax upon all foreigners who enter Uncle Sam's domains to continue? The great republic to the south often boasts that is "the land of the free and the home of the brave," whereas it might more aptly be called "the land of the rich and the home of the slave." A despatch from Kingston contains a paragraph which is not an unusual experience of those crossing into the land of liberty. Here it is; "William A. Craig, of Kingston, complains that Miss Freeman, a young English lady, who came here to visit his family, had been refused admittance to the United States, last week, when she went across on an excursion to Rochester, N.Y. The immigrant inspector at Charlotte held her up for the two dollar tax, levied upon all foreigners, excepting Canadians and Mexicans. Miss Freeman had not been long enough in Canada to claim its nationality. The young lady had to pay the tax or be turned back to this country. The immigrant official would not allow her admittance to "the land of liberty" without the entrance fee. It's about time that this obnoxious fee levied upon the blood from which the best of the United States inhabitants sprang, was wiped out. It is only a nuisance, because it doesn't keep the Britishers out, and the revenue from it cannot be great."

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt at Chemong Park

Conducted the First Service This Season Sunday Afternoon

At the various summer resorts surrounding Peterborough one of the greatest features of the week is the Sunday service. There are, it is true, quite a number of people at the resorts, who do not attend church regularly when in the city, but there are very few who are not glad to go to divine worship at the summer resorts. Those who are in the habit of going to church are lost in the summer without it. The first service held at Chemong Park this year was yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, rector of St Luke's church, conducted the service and it was very largely attended and greatly appreciated. The cottagers turned out in large numbers and everyone took part in the service. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt has been invited by the Cottagers' Association to take charge of the service every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock during the season.

This will be greatly appreciated by the hundreds of people who are spending the summer at the park. In the past it has been customary to hold a service on Sunday which was conducted by one of the cottagers, but to have the rector of St Luke's with them will be much better.

Inquest Opened at Millbrook "Col" Schultz's Death a Mystery

Manager of Hargreaves Circus, Wm. Campbell, Did Not Know How Deceased Came to His Death—Schultz's Wife on the Same Car—Investigation to Continue To-day.

Manager Wm. Campbell of the Hargreaves Shows says he has not the slightest idea of how "Col." Schultz came to his death Thursday night or early Friday morning. Schultz was the man who either fell or was thrown off the circus train just east of Cavanville and Coroner Dr. Gray ordered an inquest held at Millbrook town hall.

The coroner telegraphed Mr. Campbell at Lindsay to appear before him at Millbrook on Saturday afternoon and when the investigation was opened he was on hand to give his evidence, although he was unable to throw any light on the subject. It was learned, however, that Schultz was a married man and his wife was in the car, and filled the duties of porter on the car. She missed her husband about one o'clock Thursday night, but she did not go to Millbrook to look after the body or to give any evidence as to how the deceased came to his death.

Mr. Campbell was the only witness called Saturday afternoon and his evidence is given below. The coroner's jury was empanelled with Mr. John McNeil, a farmer of Cavanville, as foreman. Dr. Turner was the physician, and Dr. McGomery was appointed assistant by the jury.

MANAGER'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. Wm. Campbell, manager of the Hargreaves Shows, was the first witness called. Hargreaves Shows are making a tour of Canada, and on Thursday were in Havelock, Friday in Lindsay, and Saturday in Orangeville and will be in Fergus on Monday. The tour will last yet, about two or three weeks. The witness said that there were five sleeping cars on the train and the manager was in the second to last one. The deceased was in car No. 2, with his wife, who is the porter on the car.

Asked as to what his supposition was as to how Schultz met his death Mr. Campbell said that he had none. The first he knew of the man being missed was when deceased's wife told him about one o'clock. Deceased was a dog trainer and was showing in the main tent. He was a valuable man, although his absence would only leave off one act from the show. There were thirteen other persons in the car with Schultz and his wife. His wife did not consider it necessary for her to come to the inquest.

Upon being questioned closer as to how Schultz came to his death, the manager of the show said that the deceased must have got up during the night and gone out on the platform of the car. There was no general lavatory on the car, and the witness said it was possible that Schultz, while standing on the platform, was thrown off by the motion of the train.

This was all the evidence taken by the coroner and the inquest was adjourned until today at one o'clock when the train crew on the circus train and four C.P.R. detectives will be called to give evidence. It is expected that some interesting information will be brought out at this hearing and on Tuesday or Wednesday if the coroner thinks necessary, he will call all occupants of the car in which Schultz was sleeping.

The attention of County Crown Attorney Kerr of Cobourg, will be drawn to the story told by the people of Ashburnham, in reference to the fight on the train as it passed through there on Thursday night.

County Crown Attorney Kerr of Cobourg, is looking after the case in the interests of the Crown, and Mr. W. H. Moore is at the inquest today in the interest of the C.P.R.

Drunken Man With Butcher Knife Caused Excitement

Mr. John Reid, who resides on Rink street, sipped too long of that which was strong on Saturday night, and as a result created a disturbance in the vicinity where he lives. Someone went for the police and P. C. McDonald went to the scene of the fray and took Reid into custody. He faced Magistrate Dumble this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was taxed $2 and costs, amounting in all to $5.75, which he paid. A large butcher knife, which Reid was said to have flourished during his merry period was shown His Worship, and commented on by him, as being a dangerous weapon for a drunken man.

The chief stated that Reid had been flourishing the big knife and making threats against some person who apparently he had a grievance against. There was much excitement in the vicinity at the time.

A young woman from East city pleaded not guilty when charged with being a vagrant and unable to give a satisfactory account of herself. The girl was well dressed as she appeared in police court today. As P. C. Meharry, who took her into custody, was not present, the case was enlarged until this afternoon at two o'clock.

"Any witnesses that are here be present at that hour," said His Worship, "the rest of you are not invited."

Flower Sunday at Knox Church

Impressive Service Conducted by the Pastor, Rev. H. J. Keith

Flower Sunday was observed yesterday morning in Knox church. The sacred edifice was prettily decorated for the impressive occasion. On Saturday afternoon the children brought bouquets, and under the direction of Mrs. (Rev.) Keith, the floral emblems were most artistically and attractively arranged and the interior of the church, on Sunday morning, presented a bright picture, the decorations winning many expressions of admiration. Mrs. Keith and those who assisted her, certainly deserve much credit.

In the morning the children occupied central row of chairs. Rev. H. J. Keith, the pastor, delivered an appropriate and most instructive address. Excellent musical numbers were contributed. Miss Jessie Miller sang "Jesus wants me for a sunbeam." Miss Clara Bartley's solo was "Why Not Now," and Miss McDougall of Montreal rendered, "I think when I read that sweet story of old." All the solos were much appreciated.

After the service the flowers were taken by the children and left at the homes of the sick and the poor.

Flower Sunday will long be remembered in Knox church, for its pleasant and inspiring memories and associations

The verse parts were taken by a small choir, the treble being sung by Cyril Devey, and Arthur Horsfield, Mrs. Seward, alto, Mr. Geo. Chandler, tenor, Messrs. Bass and Lunge Captured Without Hook or Line

A number of persons who reside in the vicinity of Auburn had some mighty good luck while fishing on Saturday afternoon. Several fine bass and lunge were caught without the use of hook, line, rod or bait, which is somewhat remarkable it will have to be admitted. When the water was shut off at the Auburn dam on Saturday afternoon to permit a search for the body of Jack Lafebvre, several fish remained in the shallow pools in the bottom of the river. A number of boys waded in through the sand and mud and several fine bass and lunge were captured. Leslie Gilgour was among the fortunate ones, two bass and a lunge being his portion of the day's capture.

Some Notes From Chemong Park

The summer resort is now in full swing at Chemong. There are only a few vacant cottages and these will be occupied within the next few days. The hotel has quite a list of guests many of them being from across the border, as are also a good portion of the cottagers. The park is looking its prettiest just now, and the boating and fishing are excellent.

Services will be held in the pavilion every Sunday afternoon during the summer and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Langfeldt. The cottagers feel that the day of rest is not properly spent unless they can attend divine service, and as a result Dr. Langfeldt has been asked to conduct a service every Sunday afternoon.

Many Peterborough people drove out to Chemong yesterday and enjoyed the fine shade and cool breezes from the lake.

Harry McWhinney, six-years-old, near Strathroy, fell under a waggon and was killed.

OSHAWA WON ON SATURDAY

Defeated Peterboro' Team, 9 Runs to 5.

The Peterborough baseball team lost their game at Oshawa on Saturday afternoon, the score being 9—5 in favor of the the home nine. The match was witnessed by a big crowd who were of course greatly elated with the victory of the home nine. Burns and Burridge were the Peterborough battery, while Smith did the twirling and Andrews the receiving for Oshawa. The visiting nine had a bunch of errors, about a dozen being chalked up against them. Both batteries did good work and had it not been for the fumbles the visitors would have won. The Oshawa team fielded perfectly and gave their pitcher great support.

Wilson of Oshawa was umpire and gave satisfaction to both teams.

The Peterborough team was as follows,—Burns, p, Callaghan rf, Burridge c, Connors cf, Quinlan 3b, Haliburton 2b, Cheatham ss, Graham 1b, Flaherty lf.

Oshawa plays here next Saturday.

TO FIX DATE FOR THE REGATTA

The date of the Chemong regatta will be fixed at a meeting of the house committee of the Yacht Club at Chemong tonight. Several other matters will also be dealt with.

LACROSSE

NEWMARKET SQUEALING

Newmarket is squealing as a result of the defeat of the Talagoos at Peterborough on Saturday. The following appears in today's Toronto papers.;

"Newmarket, July 14.—The Talagoo Lacrosse Club have earned a reputation in past seasons for being good losers, taking defeat when it fell to their lot, without any kicking. Today, however, indignation is not a strong enough term to express the feelings of the Newmarket people. The treatment received at Peterborough yesterday, was the most brutal in the experience of lacrosse here. and Newmarket is one of the oldest lacrosse centres in Ontario. With two exceptions, the whole team are battered from their knees to their heads. There are three seriously injured, one with a broken jaw, one with a broken cheek bone, and Dunsmore with a gash in the scalp requiring four stitches, and no penalty inflicted on the player who did it. It is time for the C.L.A. to act. Waghorne's work as referee is said to have been very bad."

Those who saw the game no how much truth, or rather, how much falsehood, there is in the above wail of anguish. The whole thing is grossly exaggerated. The Peterborough team received every bit as much hard usage as the visitors, but they didn't make such a fuss about it.

Waghorne's work as a strict and impartial referee is too well known to be discredited by a bunch of sore losers from Newmarket.

IN THIRD PALCE

Miss Birdie Thompson's High Standing in Toronto World Contest.

In the competition for the Toronto World trip to London and Paris, out of the twenty-two candidates in the Province of Ontario, Miss Birdie Thompson, of this city, stands third, having 253,505 votes, to her credit. The contest closes on July 22nd, and it looks as if Miss Thompson will be one of the four fortunate winners in the contest in Ontario.

Annual Outing of C.G.E. Angling Club

The annual outing of the members of the C.G.E. Angling Club and their friends will be held down the river to the new Club House, on Saturday afternoon, August 3rd. It is expected that the outing will be largely patronized. The steamer Otonabee has been engaged for the trip.

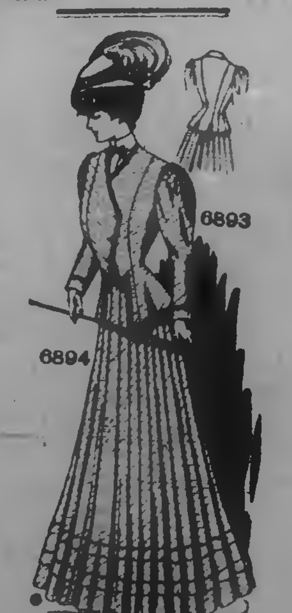
BASEBALL

PORT HOPE LEADS

Port Hope, July 13.— Cobourg and Port Hope today battled for the lead in the Midland Baseball League. Cobourg's win from Oshawa last night placed them a tie with Port Hope. For the third time this season Port Hope administered defeat to the Cobourg nine, winning easily by a score of 14 to 4. Surphlis, in Port Hope's box, was in excellent form, and only allowed 4 hits and struck out 9 men.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMEMT

Mr J. Londerville, who has been conducting the hotel at Idyl Wyld, Rice Lake, has resigned from the management. This well known summer resort is now in charge of Mr and Mrs. Lee. The Idyl Wyld hotel has already a large number of guests and many parties have been booked for accommodation during the coming four weeks. The fishing at Idyl Wyld is reported to be excellent.



6893, 6894.—A SMART SUIT IN MOHAIR.

Mohair is one of the most practical materials for suits for this season of the year and a suit made in this material is shown. The jacket is not elaborate yet full of style and good lines. The fronts are fanciful in outline and closing while the sleeves are long as best suited for general wear. The skirt is side-pleated and in round length, with a very smart ripple at the hem. A narrow Braid or folds of the material may serve as trimming with buttons of the same. For the medium size the coat requires 5-8 yards of 54 inch material and the skirt 7 3-4 yards of 44 inch.

Two Patterns.—6893—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6894—Sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.

Congregation Will Meet This Evening

A congregational meeting of St. Paul's church will be held this evening at eight o'clock to consider several important matters. Among them will be the handing over of the congregation's interest in the Knox church property to the trustees, of that church, the advisability of holding divine service at stated intervals in Stewart's settlement, Otonabee, and the placing of a mortgage on the church property to cover, the necessary expense for the alteration and renovation of the interior of St. Paul's church, as well as other improvements that have been carried out, or are about to be carried out.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Ross of Erie, Pa., preached at both services in St. Paul's church on Sunday. The services, owing to the repairing going on in the auditorium, were held in the Sunday school room. In the morning, Dr. Ross spoke from the words, St. Matthew, 28th chapter, 9th verse, "And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All Hail. And they came and held Him by the feet and worshipped Him." Dr. Ross' subject was, "Cling fast to Christ." He gave a thoughtful, earnest and helpful discourse.

A congregational meeting will be held this evening, at which it is expected there will be a large and representative attendance.

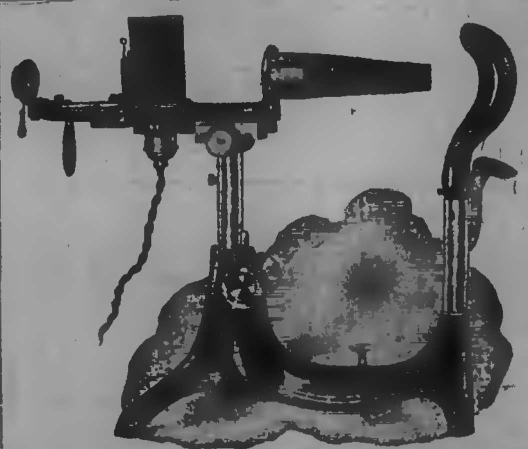
The regular weekly prayer service and young people's meeting will be combined and will be held on Wednesday evening.

WILL ELECT AS TO THEIR TRIAL

Alleged Pickpockets to Come up This Afternoon

The four alleged pickpockets, who are now lodged at Castle Nesbitt, will come up before His Honor Judge Weller this afternoon at five o'clock to elect whether they will be tried by judge or jury. If they are tried by judge, which is altogether probable, their case will be disposed of at once, but if they prefer trial by jury, they will not come up until the fall assizes.

Paddy Wallace of London, was run down by a train at Ingersoll, and may not recover.



COMING FROM FAR AND NEAR

From the surrounding towns and villages and county as well as the city, persons are coming every day and have the benefit of the skill and experience of our specialist, who is kept busy examining eyes for glasses and fitting artificial eyes. Mr. Browitt's work is a great success, his methods, his instruments and the years of experience which he has enjoyed in the United States and Canada, qualify him in a manner which few Canadians can equal and we do not wonder now that Mr. Browitt has made Peterboro' his home, that his work is appreciated and that he is meeting with the success he deserves.

HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES.

Good Things to Know in Cases of Emergency.

To remove a porous plaster quickly and painlessly use an application of alcohol.

To cleanse linoleum first wash in cold tea, then polish with linseed oil.

To slip the rod of a freshly starched curtain into place dampen the hem.

In sewing on buttons put a pin across the top and allow the thread to pass over it each time, after which remove the pin, pull the button toward you and wind the thread under it a few times, then end the thread.

To remove shine from black cloth rub with a piece of flannel dipped in turpentine.

If cooked meat is ready for the table before it is required, place in a dish and set over a pan of boiling water placed on the back of the range and cover with a cloth. The steam will keep the meat hot without drying it or drawing the juices out.

A white kitchen floor is obtained only by the use of cold water and soap. Hot water and washing powders tend to yellow the boards.

Rubber corset laces used in place of tape or elastic in boy's blouses are much cheaper and stronger than the common elastic.

Rub stain on hands made from vegetables with tomato. If out of season, use a little canned tomato. This is better than lemon.

The tender leaves and small ends of celery should never be thrown away. If dried they are found excellent for flavoring soups.

In making a meringue for pie if powdered sugar is used in place of granulated the meringue will not be watery.

ON HOME NURSING.

Cleanliness and Pure Air of Prime Importance to Invalids.

The first rule in nursing, the first essential to the patient, without which all else you do is as nothing, is to keep the air he breathes as pure as the external air without chilling him.

Always have the window of your patient's room open, but not a window on a passage just outside.

The best bedding is an iron bedstead, a hair mattress, no curtains or valance, very light blankets for a covering, as weak patients are always distressed by weight of bedclothes.

Cleanliness of the skin in almost all diseases is of the utmost importance.

Care should be taken in sponging or washing not to expose too great a surface at once so as to check perspiration.

Never allow a patient to be waked out of sleep either intentionally or accidentally, as this does serious harm.

Do not whisper or walk on tiptoe, as this is peculiarly painful to the sick.

Remember never to lean against, sit upon, shake or even touch the bed upon which your patient lies. This is always an annoyance.

Do not talk to your patient while he is taking his meal.

Veal Friccadellen.

Chop finely some cold veal and a little cooked ham, mix with it a few breadcrumbs, a little lemon peel and season with pepper, salt, mace and a small quantity of chopped parsley.

Moisten with milk and then form into little balls. Dip in egg, roll in breadcrumbs and fry till brown.

Heat a little gravy saved from joint, pour around balls and serve garnished with parsley and lemon.

She Surely Liked It.

He—Are you fond of the opera?

She—I should say I am.

He—You don't make it a pretext for talking, then?

She—I should say not. Every time any one puts an operatic piece upon the phonograph I just stop everything to listen.

Antiquity of Slavery.

Slavery is pretty nearly as old as the race. It began so far back that the memory of man, assisted by the still greater memory of history, can recall no time when it did not exist. It would be difficult to say who were the first slaves. In all the nations around the Mediterranean, where civilization is supposed to have started, the institution began early to flourish and held on right down through feudalism to modern times.

Vote of Censure Was Proposed; Rejected by a Large Majority

Preference Criticized in British House of Commons.

Lyttleton's Motion to Censure Government Is Rejected—Favored Tax on Raw Materials—Scores Churchill's Attitude Toward Colonial Premiers—Basis of Taxation Must Be Broadened Says Balfour.

London, July 16.—(C.A.P.)—In the House of Commons, Lyttleton, moving for a vote of censure on the Government for its attitude towards the preference proposals, declared that some advantage should be given the citizens of the Empire as against foreigners. To let the matter pass would be deplorable ingratitude on the part of the opposition towards the colonial statesmen who had advocated the cause Chamberlain had made his own. He countenanced no tax on raw materials.

He commented on Churchill's lecture to the Coloniol Premiers on their duty as guests of the nation.

An amendment was moved by Soares, M.P., to the effect that the permanent unity of the Empire would not be secured by preferential duties based on protective taxation of food.

Churchill said the motion was really a vote of censure on the general election. He objected to vicious discrimination between one class of producers and another.

Chaplin prophesied the success of Chamberlain's policy.

Lord R. Cecil said the Government's attitude in the House of Lords had forced him to vote in favor of the motion.

Lloyd-George urged that Britain was increasing its exports to protected countries far more than to the colonies. The vote of censure was really meant for Balfour. This was a protectionist dodge from beginning to end. He would like to bring the Empire closer together, but the motion would rend it asunder.

Balfour twitted Lloyd-George on evading the real issue before the House. The amendment was very ambiguous. It was manifest the Government wanted to run away from the question as to whether we should or should not use such fiscal system as we possessed for the purpose of preferential trade.

Balfour, continuing, said the basis of taxation must be broadened. How, it was not now his business to say. All he asked, all colonies asked, was that the Government should use the taxation which existed on its present narrow basis for the purpose of giving such preference as was possible to the colonies.

Asquith, in a contemptuously brief speech, asked how the basis of taxation was to be broadened. Was Balfour going to tax wheat, butter, meal and wool? There was no answer to the question.

The motion was rejected 440 to 111, and the amendment carried without division.

Awful Explosion on Warship; Case of Powder Blown Up

Six Sailors Killed and Fifteen Injured on Battleship Georgia

Gun Crew In Turret Mowed Down—Three Very Seriously Hurt—Vessel Was at Target Practice—Case of Powder Burst—No Damage Done to Ship—Was Ignited by a Spark—One of Newest Battleships.

Boston, Mass., July 16.—By the explosion of a case of powder in the hands of a gunner in the after superimposed turret of the battleship Georgia, in Massachusetts Bay yesterday, six men were killed and 15 injured. Not one of those in the turret escaped injury.

Three of the injured, Lieut. Goodrich and Seamen Fair and Walsh, were in a very critical condition when brought to the hospital here, and it was announced that their injuries were probably fatal.

Lieut. Goodrich has undoubtedly lost the sight of both eyes and is horribly burned.

Lieut. Goodrich and Seaman Mallick jumped overboard immediately after the explosion, to end their terrible sufferings apparently. Both were quickly rescued by uninjured comrades.

The accident happened while the Georgia was several miles off Provincetown, engaged in target practice with other vessels of the battleship squadron of the Atlantic fleet.

The powder had just been taken from the ammunition hoist to load an eight-inch gun.

It was seen at once it was burning and in an instant it exploded in the very face of the gunloader.

As the powder was unconfined, it caused no damage to the ship, but fire and heat, together with the concussion, caused injury to every person in the turret at the time. The theory of naval men here is that the powder became ignited from a spark from the smokestack of the battleship.

No damage was done to the vessel, because the powder was not confined, and early yesterday morning, under orders from Washington, the Georgia sailed to the target grounds off Provincetown.

Directly after the accident the Georgia headed for the Charleston navy yard. There the dead and injured were taken ashore. The wounded were conveyed to the naval hospital at Chelsea.

The second division of the Atlantic fleet has been at target practice off Provincetown for the last three weeks.

She is one of the newest battleships of the navy, having been in commission only about ten months. She is commanded by Capt. Henry McRea.

BALLOONIST DROWNS.

Fatal Ending to First Ascent—Descended In Lake.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 16.—Chas. Sann, aged 20, of Battle Creek, was drowned in Gull Lake Sunday on making a parachute drop from his first attempt at a balloon ascension.

Small boats reached the parachute quickly, but Sann's body had gone to the bottom.

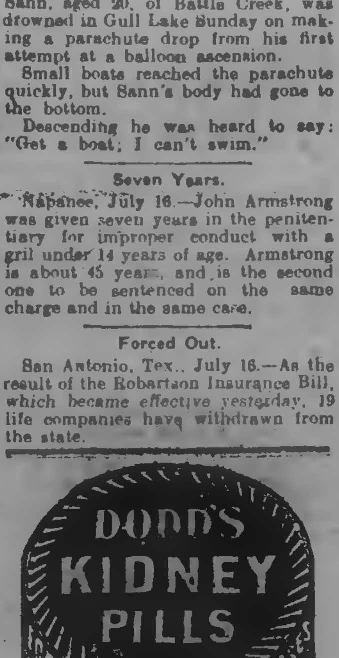
Descending he was heard to say: "Get a boat; I can't swim."

Seven Years.

Napanee, July 16.—John Armstrong was given seven years in the penitentiary for improper conduct with a gril under 14 years of age. Armstrong is about 45 years, and is the second one to be sentenced on the same charge and in the same case.

Forced Out.

San Antonio, Tex., July 16.—As the result of the Robertson Insurance Bill, which became effective yesterday, 19 life companies have withdrawn from the state.



LT.-GOVERNOR TAKES HOLIDAY.

Chief Justice Moss to Act In His Honor's Absence.

Toronto, July 16.—His Honor Sir Mortimer Clark left last night on his vacation, which he will spend at Cushings Island, in the State of Maine.

Chief Justice Moss will act as administrator of the province during the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor and will be sworn in for that purpose this morning, the clerk of the Privy Council attending specially from Ottawa to take his oath.

Hon. Frank Cochrane and Hon. Dr. Resume are expected back from the north to-day. Hon. Nelson Monteith leaves for England in a few days.

INCENDIARIES' DIRE WORK.

Over 200 Buildings In Russian Town Destroyed, and Lives Lost.

Moghilevi, Russia, July 16.—Smolyany, a small town in this neighborhood, has suffered severely at the hands of incendiaries.

One hundred and fourteen Jewish and 15 Christian houses, as well as 70 shops, were burned down.

A number of people perished in the flames.

Alleged Spy Ill-Treated.

Dauphin, Man., July 16. The Government is investigating the mobbing of R. Fairbrother, a N. R. fireman, and an alleged Thiel Detective Agency spotter on Saturday. Fairbrother was decoyed to the railway shops and bound by a rope to the end of a truck. He was then wheeled to within a short distance of the force pump, and the hose turned on him.

Michael D. McEvery, well known in Cornwall, is dead, aged 73.

Paddy Wallace of London, was run down by a train at Ingersoll.

BARTELS AGAIN CAPTURED.

Wealthy Brewer Who Escaped From Osgoode Hall Is Re-Arrested.

Toronto, July 16.—While brushing his teeth in a house in McMillan street yesterday afternoon Herman Bartels, the wealthy Syracuse brewer, was taken into custody by Detectives Robert Moffatt and Ben Anderson. Bartels, under the name of Barnes, had a flat in the house on July 9 and had not since been out on the street. He was unshaven and looked worried and sick.

He is lodged in No. 3 police station with a special guard standing watch over him, as the detectives fear he will attempt suicide.

The story of his flight from Osgoode Hall at noon July 4, and of his movements since that time, as supplied by himself and the information in the hands of the detectives, while incomplete, is one of alternate bold dashes in the open and periods of hiding.

When taken into custody Bartels could only gasp and the detectives feared that he would collapse. He begged to be taken to headquarters in a cab, and his request was granted.

At the detective office he was searched and $28 was found in his pockets. A suitcase was his only baggage, and it was searched.

A further search of Bartels person disclosed, cunningly sewn into the lining of his vest, a draft drawn June 14 by the National City Bank, 52 Wall street, New York, on the Dominion Bank here in favor of Amale Bauer for $650. In addition to this two American treasury $100 notes were found and a Providence National and Gloucester National Bank note, each of $100 denomination, together with four $20 treasury notes, making $1,158 in all.

He had in addition in his room a new suit of clothes.

Makes His Will.

Bartels was allowed an interview with Norman Sommerville, his solicitor, who later saw him in No. 3 police station. There he drew Bartels' will, but on communication with Inspector Duncan permission for Bartels to sign the document was refused.

H. H. Dewart, K. C., will appear for Bartels in police court this morning, when he is arraigned on the warrant of Provincial Chief Mains, charging him with escaping from legal custody.

FOUGHT TO KISS IKON.

Remarkable Scenes In the Streets of St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—The arrival of the famous Ikon of the Resurrection, brought from Palestine by the Patriach of Jerusalem for presentation to the Emperor, was made the occasion of a remarkable anti-revolution demonstration.

It was borne along Nesny Prospect, in procession by a dozen bishops. A long train of ecclesiastics followed, and there were several hundred people in the cortege. The Ikon was guarded by squadrons of Cossacks, and was deposited in Kazan Cathedral, the Metropolitan of St. Petersburg officiating.

There were no disorders, but the moving shrine was besieged in its passage by crowds of devotees, who fought for a chance to kiss the Ikon. Many persons fainted. Subsequently a great mass meeting was held, and was addressed by reactionary leaders, including Dr. Drubovin, president of the League of Russian People, and Prince Volkonsky, who, in violent language, denounced the second Douma, and called upon his hearers to register a vow that not a single Jew be allowed to enter the portals of the third Douma.

The vow was taken amid great enthusiasm.

LINDSAY QUIETS DOWN.

Alleged Counterfeiters Will Appear In Court On Monday Next.

Lindsay, July 16.—Charles Burke was remanded yesterday morning until Monday next. He did not appear in court, the formality being gone through in the jail by Magistrate Jackson. None of the other prisoners appeared.

Interest in the case is waning somewhat. The wholesale "shoving of the queer," alleged by the officers, is now thought to be exaggerated. The detectives still assume a mysterious air and speak of startling revelations to come, but the consensus of opinion is that the case is practically closed. The man who made the plates said to be a resident in Toronto, is wanted, but he has got across the border.

The suspicion cast on Lindsay men who went west, has developed nothing. The Soo prisoners, Wynn and Boyeau, will be brought home Wednesday, and Eveleigh will come from Montreal Thursday or Friday.

They will all be remanded until Monday next, when the preliminary investigation will be held.

Killed Between Cars.

Chatham, July 16.—J. Saunders, aged 40, an employe of the Wallaceburg Sugar Refinery, was killed yesterday while engaged in uncoupling Pere Marquette freight cars in the factory grounds.

He was on the end of a car when the engine stopped suddenly, and then started, hurling him between two cars. His body was cut in two.

He leaves a widow and family.

Revolutionists Sentenced.

Kiev, July 16. The court-martial of a hundred soldiers, who participated in a revolutionary meeting on June 17, after the dissolution of the Douma, has been concluded. Six of the men were sentenced to death and the others to long terms of imprisonment.

Steamer Corunna Damaged.

Port Colborne, July 16.—The steamer Corunna of the Canadian Lake and Ocean Navigation Co., arrived here at 4.30 p. m. yesterday from Port Arthur to Montreal, and will be delayed here about 24 hours till repairs can be made to her machinery.

Explosion in Drug Store.

St. Thomas, July 16.—While T. H. Duncombe, druggist, was experimenting with chemicals an explosion occurred and the store was badly gutted by fire.

Peter Gibson, a coal dock employee at St. Thomas, was killed at Montrose by a train.

TORTURED BY BURGLARS

Coachman Refuses to Give Up Keys of Master's House.

Buffalo Man Has Terrible Experience—Masked Men Slit His Tongue With Knives—Slashed Soles of His Feet—Was Thrown Downstairs and Left For Dead—Police Make One Arrest.

Buffalo, July 16.—Because he would not deliver to two burglars the keys of his employer's house, Frank Smith, 45 years old, a coachman in the employ of John Gehm, a wholesale meat dealer, was horribly tortured Sunday morning and left for dead by his assailants.

Smith slept in a room above the barn at the rear of Gehm's house. He was awakened shortly after midnight by two masked men, who demanded the keys of the house. Smith refused to give them up and the burglars then began a series of revolting tortures.

Smith's tongue was slit with a knife and the soles of his feet were slashed in a score of places until he became unconscious. The men then threw Smith down the stairs, where he was found the next morning.

The matter was kept a secret by the police until yesterday, when one arrest was made. The prisoner gives his name as Taylor.

WOODYATT DISMISSED.

W. C. Livington Appointed Police Magistrate In His Stead.

Toronto, July 16.—"In the public interest." Police Magistrate Woodyatt of Brantford has been removed from office and W. Churchill Livington reigns in his stead. The order-in-council was signed yesterday and those interested officially notified.

Ex-Mayor Thomas Elliott had been recommended for the position by the local Conservative Association, he having been selected from several other candidates, of whom Mr. Livington was second choice. The Government prefered Mr. Livington, however, on account of his legal training. He is a comparatively young man, and is very popular in Brantford.

Mr. Elliott, it is rumored, will be provided for otherwise.

The "Sailor Boy" brand of canned goods are the best that are put up. They never fail to please. Try a few cans.

Galt, July 16.—Lillian Cooper, a young girl of 16, with a mania for horse stealing, has made some remarkable drives since last Wednesday evening, when she hired a horse from Lawrason's livery stable, Preston, and started on a tour of the country.

The girl was traced as far as Hamilton, from which city she returned and drove to Puslinch Lakes Sunday.

The girl is still defying the officers, who have a warrant for her arrest as a horse thief.

THE OFFICE BOY.

He rose at dawn and viewed the sky
And cried, "It must not rain today!"
His heart with hope was beating high.
"I'm sure," he said, "that they will play!"

He swept the office clean and neat;
He dusted high, he dusted low.
His thoughts were on a bleacher seat.
He hoped the boss would let him go.

"And how's your grandma's health today?"
The smiling boss inquired of him,
Then added in his merry way,
"Suppose we go together, Jim?"

Feats of Memory.

It was universally acknowledged that Mr. Gladstone's memory was prodigious, but there was a certain lord chief justice of England who thought the statesman's memory of his feats of memory more prodigious still.

On one occasion after listening to what seemed to him a "tall story" of some happening of the great man's early years the lord chief justice determined to go him one better.

So he said that he remembered when he was only six months old, and, lying in his cradle, he saw his nurse surreptitiously help herself to a glass of brandy and said to himself:

"As soon as I can speak shan't I tell my mother!"

"The thing is absolutely impossible," was Mr. Gladstone's comment in his gravest tone.

The lord chief justice said afterward that he had been beaten because he had reckoned on Mr. Gladstone's having a gleam of humor.

"I was mistaken," he said sadly.

QUAKER PICNIC WAS BIG SUCCESS

Enjoyable Day Spent by Employees and Their Friends at Jackson's Point

The 5th annual picnic of the Quaker Oats Co. employees was held yesterday to Jackson Point, and proved to be a decided success. The day passed off very pleasantly and the picnicers were delighted with the attractive resort on Lake Simcoe.

The sports during the afternoon were of course the feature of the stay at the Point, and were considered to be the best which have yet been held. Many also enjoyed themselves at the dancing pavilion, on the grounds, where excellent music was provided by an orchestra composed of employees of the company. A large number went sailing and canoeing on the lake which was not the least of the pleasant ways of enjoying the day at Jackson Point.

The excursion train which left the Grand Trunk station at 8.45 o'clock carried about 400 passengers and arrived at Lake Simcoe at mid-day. Returning the train left the Point at 6 o'clock and drew into Peterborough about 0.45.

The feature of the sports was the baseball game between the office and packing departments, the former winning easily by the score of 8 runs to 2, in six innings, with an innings to the good. The captains of the teams were F. Heaslip and O. Callander respectively, and both did good work for their teams. Heaslip did the slab work for the winners and was certainly all to the good. The Packers got their two runs in the first innings, and in the fourth and fifth Heaslip retired the others in one, two, three order. Patterson was the other half of the battery for the winners. Ferguson pitched for the vanquished and did himself justice, but the support from the field was not very encouraging. Rightmyer acted as back stop very acceptably.

Mr. Douglas Stewart umpired the game and proved himself second to none in that capacity. His decisions were of the "Silk" O'Laughlin calibre and never disputed.

The results of the races were as follows;

Girls' race, 50 yards, for girls under 15 — L Grady, S Hyde, M O'Reilly.

Young ladies' race, 75 yards — Misses V LeGros, M McIntee, and L Grady.

Boys' race, 100 yards, under 15 years—Eman Miller, Jas O'Brien.

Boys' race 50 yards, under 12 years—H Godfrey, W Wallace.

Girls' race, 50 yards, under 12 years—L Murphy, C McMahon.

Girls' race, under 7 years. — E Sims, M Walsh.

Boys' race, under 7 years. — L Walsh.

Men's race, 100 yards. D Hillier, T Connor.

Ladies' sack race.—Miss L. Dunsford.

A SCURRILOUS ARTICLE

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—A scurrilous article appeared in last night's Examiner, in reference to the St. John's rectory site and Rev. Canon Davidson. This is rather unfortunate, as the press of Peterborough has a far better reputation than the publication of this article would imply.

The matter is not a public one and will be settled in the natural course of things.

Rev. Canon Davidson requires no defence, as he stands high, not only with his own people, but with the public at large.

Yours,
COMMITTEE MEMBER.

Iron Mines at Blairton May Soon be in Operation Again

Story of the Rise and Fall of This Interesting Village—Now Comes Word That the Mines Are to be Re-Opened.

Special to the Review.
Havelock, July 15.

When a town, once lively and business-like, and known for miles around, has become quiet, with nothing doing at all, and has sunken into entire obscurity, and all at once is brightened by news that it may become known once more, there is great excitement among the inhabitants. This is the case with the village of Blairton, once one of the most prosperous villages in the district, when the iron mines were in operation there, but of late has been reduced to only a few inhabitants. But now, those who reside in that small, yet picturesque village, wear smiles on their faces, and the hearts of property owners in that place are filled with gladness, for, in all probability, the iron mines situated there, will be opened in the near future. When the mines was in operation before, Blairton was one of the most prosperous and gayest towns to be seen. At that time there was a large population, and, although men with their families were continually flocking in, still there was a demand for more laborers.

The village soon grew from a few houses to fifty, some of them very large and of the latest design. Stores, blacksmith shops, harness shops and other buildings sprang up as if by magic, and it is said that a person who was away for a month did not know the village when they returned. Saw mills were scarce in the district, and although there was lots of timber, lumber could not be cut fast enough to supply the demand.

A railroad connected Blairton with Trent River, the railroad running to the docks at the village of Trent Bridge. This railroad was kept in continual action, even on Sunday, for when there was not ore to ship, there was something else. Machinery for the mines came in daily, and supplies of groceries and provisions could not be got in fast enough. On the whole it was as hard to get goods to Blairton as it is to Cobalt at the present time.

Nor was it all work, for nearly every week during the summer there was an excursion of some kind to Trent River, and from there to wherever they wished by steamboat. Although the school and church were of a fair size, they were not nearly large enough to accommodate the large number who attended. Every evening after work the lake near by was crowded with boats, filled by the happiest people that ever lived in America. But there is a fall to greatness. The end must come. And thus was it with Blairton when operations were discontinued. There was a general exodus of people, and although quite a number remained, they kept dwindling down till now there is only a few left. There is no weekly excursion, no crowded church or school, no great demand for laborers, and as any person visiting the town would say, it is practically dead to the world. But now it is stated on good authority that the mines will re-open once more. A few weeks ago two men representing a large mining company visited Blairton, looked over the site of the iron mines, made several experiments and expressed themselves as highly pleased, as far as they had investigated. They are expected to arrive in a few days with a diamond drill to locate the mineral, which, if all reports are true, forms a large portion of the rock. According to statements of Blairton residents, Messrs. Pearce, of Marmora, who own the mine, have refused a large offer, but it is likely that a bargain will be reached after the mine has been better examined. The mines are situated in the near neighborhood of Blairton, about 3 miles north-east of Blairton station, and 7 miles east of of Havelock. They cover about 25 acres.

If the purchase is made and the mines re-opened, it is likely that a siding will be laid from Blairton station or from Havelock. If it is laid to Blairton station it will be necessary for an operator to be placed there and for all trains to stop at that place.

FINE ADDRESS ON REVELATION

At the Gospel Hall last night Mr. Henry Turner, of Richmond, Virginia continued his address on the Book of Revelation. He said the reason why people did not know the book was, that they did not read it and if they read it once and did not understand it, therefore no one could understand the several mystical teachings. He drew attention to the first verse, which says; "The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show unto His servants, things which are shortly to come to pass." Mr. Turner also drew attention specially to the 5th verse. Only those who could join in the song of the fifth verse could understand God's revelation, as given in this wonderful book. After this introduction, the evangelist took up the seven churches or letters to the Angel of the Seven Churches. He said, although the letters were written to inhabitants of Asia, yet they were prophetic, forecasts of the seven stages of the entire church period. Ephesus, represented the first hundred years about Smyrna, a period following, when intense persecution and bloodshed was rampant. Then Pergamos, meaning marriage, that is the church and the world intermingling and the church going in with the worldly pleasures, which continued until the 6th century; Thyatira, representing Romanism, which lasted until Luther's time when Sardis—Protestantism—came on the scene, and Philadelphia, about one hundred years ago when Christians in the Old Country came to find out that in all denominations there were some really saved people and they formed the real church of God.

Mr. Turner is a most interesting speaker. He will continue the addresses all this week.

A GENEROUS OFFER

Mr. McNamara Will Give the City Several Acres for a Public Park.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Mr. M. A. McNamara, the well-known contractor, has made a splendid offer to the city of a large block of land, two and a half miles south of the C.G.E. works, and like them, situated between two railways. Mr. McNamara's object no doubt is to make a profit out of the remaining land. But we need not go so far as to look the gift horse in the mouth, for a present to the city of a large level piece of land in every way suitable for manufactories is worth accepting without delay. The land in question is parts of lots 9 in the 9th, and 9 in the 10th, of North Monaghan. These lots run back from the river, by which their fronts are broken, about a mile to a mile and a half. Originally they belonged to Dr. Kincaid, but they were purchased a few years ago, by the present owners, who looks to the expansion of the city in that direction. Lots now outside the city boundary in North Monaghan sell for $300 a fifty-foot lot and if Peterborough increases in the next five years to the same extent, and in the same direction, that she has increased the past five years, lots on McNamara's 240 acre farm will fetch that price also. Electric power is now easily carried, but as a matter of fact, it is a shorter distance from the Cereal dam and the locks dam to Mr. McNamara's farm than from the Nassau power house to the C.G.E. by at least half a mile. Twenty thousand of a population is not too much to look forward to in three years if our Mayor and Council continue energetically their beginning in the acquirement of power. There is no better site in Ontario than McNamara's land with the T.V.C., and two rival railways alongside. It was less than that brought the C. G. E. and the Cereal Works here. Let us accept a generous offer with gratitude. Yours, etc.,

TAXPAYER.

ROY'S

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, July 16.—Opening prices were generally lower than last night, the chief weakness being shown in Copper with a loss of 3-4. After a few minute's hesitation prices began to strengthen. There was a very good support in The Harriman and Hill issues which rose sharply under a good demand for shorts. Atchison seemed to be for sale while Reading did not show any bullish tendency. By the end of the first hour the market was generally a little above yesterday's closing level, but dullness ensued and very little business was doing. However, Union Pacific crept up to within a fraction of yesterday's high.

After noon a break in raw Copper of 1-2 to 3-4 a pound caused the copper stocks to decline a point, but the general list resisted well. In the last half hour a sensational rise in Union Pacific and a drive at the shorts in C.P.R. woke the market up and it advanced sharply, closing strong, at the best for the day.

Newmarket is Still Squealing

Loud Hollering From the Den of the Talagoos

Newmarket has several full-fledged, unprincipled liars, who have Ananias beaten a block, yea, they have that ancient unworthy looking cheap, and worse than that Today's Toronto World contains a latter signed "Anti-Slugger," whose place of abode is apparently Newmarket, who raises a great howl about rough play at Peterborough on Saturday, and among other things gets off the following stuff, which contains a falsehood in every sentence and malicious untruths at that;—

"On Saturday last at Peterborough was another exhibition of brutality and discourtesy to a visiting team. Newmarket scored the first goal, and then the Peterborough defence began to rough it, cutting and slashing in most deliberate fashion.

In the last quarter particularly the game degenerated into a "butchery." One of the Newmarket home, a most courteous and gentlemanly player, had several of a fine set of teeth knocked from his jaw when he was examining a wounded thumb, and the ball nowhere near him. The blow was a most cowardly one, and no penalty was given.

The Peterborough players boasted that they would either win the game or kill their opponents. The referee shivered with fear during the whole progress of the match.

I am not in any way particularly interested in the Newmarket team, but am simply an onlooker who dearly loves to see our national game played in a courteous manner.

Those who saw the game know that the above in nothing but a parcel of lies. That second paragraph is the king pin of them all. The Newmarket man who had his teeth injured, not knocked out, received the injury by falling and striking his mouth on a Peterborough man's knee. No blows was struck, and we leave it to Campbell, the man who was hurt, to testify as to the truth of this statement.

Newmarket expected a victory, and their team was outplayed. They are sore as a result and are squealing long and loud. The public know the cause of their whining and will treat it as it deserves.

ZAM-BUK
SAVED THIS BABY

Mrs. M. Barrett, 620 Mercan St., Montreal, says—"A horrid rash came out all over my baby's face and spread until it had totally covered his scalp. It was irritating and painful, and caused the little one hours of suffering. We tried soaps and powders and salves, but he got no better. He was so fretful all day long that it made it very hard for me. He refused his food, got quite thin and worn, and was reduced to a very serious condition. I was one day advised to try Zam-Buk, and did so. It was wonderful how it seemed to cool and ease the child's burning, painful skin. He gradually became more easy and able to sleep. Zam-Buk from the very commencement seemed to go right to the spot, and the pimples and sores and the irritation grew less and less. Within a few weeks my baby's skin was healed completely. He has now not a trace of rash, or eruptions, or eczema, or burning sore. Not only so, but cured of the tormenting skin trouble, he has improved in general health. He has got fat and plump, weighs no less than 32 lbs., although only 7 months old, and is in first-class condition."

Zam-Buk is sold at all stores and medicine vendors, 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. 6 boxes for $2.50.

Coroner's Inquest at Millbrook is Making Slow Progressive — Sit on Wednesday

The second session of the inquest at Millbrook was held yesterday afternoon, when the conductor and two brakemen on the circus train were examined. They could not, however, tell anything about how "Col." Schultz came to his death. Dr. Turner made an examination of the body and reported to the jury. The inquest was adjourned until Wednesday, when Mrs Schultz will be put in the witness box.

DR. TURNER'S REPORT.

Dr H A. Turner, of Millbrook, made the following statement of his examination of "Col." Schultz:—The body was that of a man 5 feet 7 inches in height, and about 60 or 65 years old; light hair, gray moustache. There were no special marks of identification. There was a small fracture on the scalp, a 2 3-4 inch wound on the right side of the head; also a small punctured wound back of the ear, a couple of wounds on the face. There was an abrasion on the back and left hip, and thigh. There were traces of a hemorrhage on the brain. On the inside of the skull there were clots of blood. Several ribs on the right side were badly fractured; the colar bone was fractured. The internal organs were in bad condition.

John McGill, conductor on the show train, was the first witness called. He said his train left Havelock about 8.55 Thursday night. Just east of the Semaphore at Peterborough the train stopped for a minute or two. When it started again he heard a man yelling to stop the train. He opened the caboose door and saw a man with his foot caught in the cattle guard. The man was middle aged and under the influence of liquor. He said he had been shoved off the circus train. Witness did not hear or see any carousing on the train. He did not go through the cars at all. A report of the man missing was made at Lindsay. He never saw the deceased before until he saw him at Millbrook.

Mr Campbell was put in the box again, but he could give no further information. He still believed the man went out to urinate and fell off. Could not think it was foul play.

Herbert Cornahan, a brakeman on the train, was called. He did not go through the cars at night. He did not know of any drinking or quarreling.

Alfred Coulter, another brakeman, was called, but he could throw no light on the subject.

The inquest was then adjourned until Wednesday, when Schultz's wife will testify.

The Board of Managers of Knox church met last evening and considered the matter of adding a gallery to the church. Mr. David Hamilton presided. Counterfeiters at Lindsay May Turn King's Evidence

It is Said That Burke and Logie Have Confessed to the Counterfeiting and Have Implicated Others Who Have Been Placed in Custody—Given Goods Out West.

Lindsay, July 15.—Charles Burke, the alleged counterfeiter, was remanded for a week this morning in the police court. Burke did not appear, Chief of Police Vincent merely coming before Police Magistrate Jackson and asking for the remand. The prisoners Wynn and Boyeau are expected to be brought from Sault Ste. Marie tomorrow, and Eveleigh, it is expected, will arrive from Montreal on Thursday.

"It will probably be next week before the case is formally opened," said Magistrate Jackson yesterday.

HAVE THEY CONFESSED?

That Charles Burke and Robt. Logie have confessed and will plead guilty to the charges which have been laid against them; that it was on the information obtained from them that George Miller and Jack Goslin were arrested, and that other sensational arrests of prominent citizens are likely to follow, are the outstanding features of the counterfeiters' case here, according to rumor of an authentic nature. That these are not far from the facts of the case was admitted by one of the officials this morning.

It is understood that the confessions point to Miller in a case of two years ago. At that time Miller, it is said, went to Belleville ostensibly for the purpose of purchasing a small printing press with which to start a job printing business here with his brother.

It was alleged that while he was there he passed several counterfeit bills, but when the merchants who had been victimised were confronted with a picture of Millar, they failed to identify him. Owing to insufficient evidence the case was dropped.

Now, however, Burke and Logie are claimed to have stated that Millar not only assisted them with their presses, but at one time sent them a package of copying ink from Toronto.

It is also said that Jack Goslin was an accomplice of Millar's at that time.

SYMPATHY FOR MILLAR.

Great sympathy is felt here for young Millar.

"If bail had been granted," said a prominent citizen, "fifty thousand dollars could hav been raised easily."

Millar was one of the owners of the Watchman-Warder, in company with other prominent business men. His father is a retired farmer and was one time reeve of Emily township, in Victoria County.

APPARENTLY OF GOOD HABITS.

A remarkable feature of the case is the fact that of the several men who have been arrested, six have never been known to drink liquor, and none of them, it is said, have any pronounced bad habits.

GOSLIN'S STATEMENT.

In conversation with a reporter of the News, Goslin stated that his arrest and come as a complete surprise to him.

"I have been all over Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific," he said, and as far as I know, never did a wrong act in my life."

"Did you know this man Burke?" he was asked.

"Lived within forty rods of him all my life," was the reply, "and I never saw anything wrong."

Goslin did not seem to be at all worried over his arrest, but laughed and chatted with his friends as if nothing had happened.

"They'll have to prove it, that's all," he said. "A man can't get through life without a little trouble."

"Who gave the game away?" one of his friends asked.

"Oh, I don't know," was the reply. "I've been handling quite a lot of money lately, and often had $1,200 and $1,500 in my pocket, and when this came out someone who had a grudge against me must have got talking about it."

MR LOGIE'S BROTHER.

Robert Logie's brother, Henry, has very little to say regarding his brother's arrest. "I have seen nothing suspicious whatever," he said to a reporter of the News yesterday.

"Did you know your brother contemplated going to Buffalo?" he was asked.

"That was his intention when he left here," was the reply. "We have friends in Buffalo and he said he was going to visit them."

Neighbors speak very highly of both the Logie brothers, particularly of Robt. Henry is of a retiring disposition, is a hard worker and very seldom leaves the farm, but Robert was fond of a good time, and often drove around the country with his horse and rig.

"But I never knew him to be a spendthrift or have any bad habits," said Mr. Herb. Williamson, who lives on the adjoining farm.

"Did you ever see anything suspicious," he was asked.

"Never," was the emphatic reply. "I hadn't the least suspicion anything was wrong until I heard of his arrest. He had promised to sow buckwheat for me," he said. "I went over one night intending to ask him when he could do it, but his brother told me he had gone away four days ago. That was the first I heard that he was going away. Then I heard of his arrest."

The neighbors say, that the two Logie brothers, while they would always stand up for each other and lived in the same house, each had his own section of the farm, his own barn and stables, and his own implements, and that the generally had very little to do with each other's business. This and the fact that Robert Logie's farm, one of the places where the counterfeiting was supposed to have been carried on, is some distance from the house, and screened from it by trees, would make it quite possible for one to carry on operations without the knowledge of the other.

MRS. BOYEAU'S STATEMENT.

Mrs. Boyeau, when asked by The News if she had any statement to make regarding her husband's arrest, said:—

"Yes, I have. I haven't been reading the papers very much, but from what I hear they have made a great mistake. The papers say that Mr. Boyeau has been out of work since the fire at Kennedy & Davis' mill where he worked; but that is not so. He worked until the first of July.

"He was a man who never was in the habit of going away from home, and there hasn't been a stain on his character, all the forty years we have lived here. When he was arrested, he had arranged to take a week off, because he was not very well. He left on Tuesday, and I expected him home on the following Saturday night. If he was guilty," went on Mrs. Boyeau, "I am firmly convinced that he didn't leave here with the intention of carrying on that sort of business, and I could take my oath that he never had a bit of that bogus money in the house. He always gave me his pay every two weeks, only keeping out enough for pocket money.

"If he did try to pass any counterfeits he is the most foolish man that ever lived. Why, he was partially blind, was no scholar, and while he knew the difference between a five and ten dollar bill, he couldn't tell you what bank it was on."

"Did you ever see him talking to Burke," she was asked.

"One night just before he left he was mowing the lawn, and Burke called him across the road and talked to him awhile. Besides, a man has come to me, since his arrest and says that he saw Burke over at the mill talking to my husband, and he seemed to be laying down the law to him and the neighbors were wondering what Charlie Burke was doing over at the mill talking to Boyeau."

"Oh, it's a terrible thing," went on Mrs. Boyeau. "My daughter fainted twice this afternoon. If I had my choice I should have preferred death rather than this."

OPERATING IN WEST.

Lindsay, July 15.—How widespread have been the operations of the gang of counterfeiters, whose headquarters were discovered in this town, and how equally searching has been the work of the police was demonstrated yesterday, when telegrams were sent to several places in the Northwest, where it is understood former Lindsay residents have gone for the purpose of passing counterfeit bills.

That the man at the head of the gang was careful, is well shown, as is the fact that the gang comprised many more than was at first supposed, each of whom was given a bunch of the "green goods" and sent out to isolated places to dispose of it.

A number of prominent citizens, among whom were J. O. Flavelle, Mayor Vrooman and others, tried to secure bail for Miller, who was arrested, Saturday, but were unsuccessful. Miller was a constant companion of Charles Burke.

There are rumors of more arrests to follow, and names are mentioned in a vague manner, but the police are reticent and adroit and do not verify or deny rumors.

The men already arrested will not likely be up for preliminary trial before the end of the week.

Open Air Meeting of Epworth League

Interesting Gathering Held in Jackson Park Last Evening

An open meeting of the Epworth League of George Street Methodist Church was held last evening in Jackson Park. A choice tea, which was provided and served by the ladies, was enjoyed on the green, and, afterwards an interesting meeting was held. About one hundred young people were present. Mr. Cain, president, presided. After singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," the 23rd Psalm was repeated in concert, and then the Glory Song, was sung. Rev. E. A. Pearson, the pastor, delivered a brief address, after which several young men delivered one minute impromptu speeches on subjects which were handed to them. Among those who spoke were Mr. Percy Might of Toronto; Messrs. Galley, Ivey, Middleton, Young and Snider. At the close, each speaker was presented with a "bouquet" which consisted in some case of a layer cake, a burdock stalk, a bunch of leaves, etc. At the close the Leaguers sang "God Save the King" and a very unique gathering was brought to a close.

Safest Medicine for Women's Complaints

Women certainly do neglect themselves. They work too hard—over-tax their strength—and then wonder why they suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex.

Most cases of female trouble start when the bowels become inactive—the kidneys strained—and the skin not cared for. Poisons, which should leave the system by these organs, are taken up by the blood and inflame the delicate female organs.

MUST NUMBER ALL THE HOUSES

And Put Name Plates on Street Corners Before Street Delivery is Given

His Worship Mayor McWilliams received a letter from the assistant Deputy Postmaster-General at Ottawa, which will force the Council to act at once, in a matter that has been advocated by the press for a long time. The letter is as follows, and needs no explanation.—

"In connection with the proposed extension of the letter carrier delivery system to the City of Peterborough, I beg to enquire whether the streets are labelled at intersecting points, and the houses numbered? Unless this is done, it will not be possible to put the letter carrier delivery into operation, and I would be glad, therefore, to hear from you in regard to the matter, at your earliest convenience."

If the City Council wants the street delivery system put into force at an early date it is up to them to number the houses and name the streets. This should have been done years ago for the benefit of citizens and strangers and everyone will be glad to know the time has come when the council must act.

OBITUARY

GEORGE VANZANT.

It will be learned with much regret by the many friends of Mrs. George Vanzant, that Mr. Vanzant died on Sunday morning at his home in Toronto, as the result of an accident on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. Vanzant and family lived in Peterborough for some time, and a few month ago their house on Lansdowne-st. was burned down. Shortly after that Mr. Vanzant got his hand caught in a machine and had several fingers taken off. After that he went to Toronto and secured a position, and soon moved his family there.

On Wednesday the deceased was helping to excavate a cellar. A wagon was backed up to the edge of the bank and one of the men took out a few shovelfuls, undermining the waggon and allowed it to slide back. Before Mr. Vanzant could get out of the way the hind wheel caught him across the stomach. The unfortunate man was badly injured and suffered severely until early Sunday morning, when he passed away.

He leaves to mourn him a young wife and two daughters, aged 17 years and 12 years. The funeral was held today and interment took place at Pefferlaw, York county.

The Daily Review

TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1907

THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Once more an agitation is on foot to change the name of this University of Toronto and thus deprive it of a historicity of nearly three-quarters of a century. The causa causans of this agitation is a mysterious one. No general demand has arisen for it. In fact the plebiscite of a few years ago was all against it. Analogy is all the other way. State-aided universities are in very few instances given a state name. The argument against retaining the name of the University of Toronto is therefore weak. That in favor of it is very strong. In this part of the province there is positively no demand for "a change." It will take 25 years to advise the learned world of the change. We hope it will not be made.

DOING A GOOD WORK

The Children's Aid Society is doing an excellent work in Peterborough—a work which should appeal to all. The recent donation of $1,000 by the trustees of the Nicholls estate is an acceptable and timely gift and will aid materially in providing a new shelter. The present building, which has been used for some years is advertised for sale by its owner. The price asked makes it utterly impossible for the society to purchase the property which however, is a very valuable one for residential purposes. In a building which it is proposed to acquire there will be proposed to acquire there will be accommodation for at least ten children, where two classes can be looked after—the waifs and the incorrigibles. These are the two classes which the society is desirous of helping. The corrective influence has to be brought to bear on many boys in this city, some of whom are rapidly going to the bad. It is not desirable that juveniles should be confined in a penal institution but if detained at the shelter for a few weeks and put to work it is believed it would have a good moral effect on them. For this reason a property should be acquired which has some land attached. There incorrigible lads could be set to work and the society would doubtless find that labor is a good antidote for mischief. The lads would be glad to be freed on condition of future good behaviour.

The Children's Aid Society certainly deserves every success and encouragement and the sympathy and co-operation of all the citizens should be enlisted in its work and in the effort to obtain suitable shelter where operations may be carried on to the best possible advantage.

A meeting of the officers and board of managers of the society will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the City Council chamber when the question will be fully considered.

Ald R. H. Leary is Mowing Hay

Got 3 Tons per Acre—Says Crop All Through District is Good

Hay in this district is a good average crop this year, in spite of the late season and other drawbacks. The farmers have been mowing for several days and it has turned out much better than was expected. The price on the market dropped from $15 to $12 a ton and there were many offers yesterday of $11 a ton.

Ald. R. H. Leary was down on his farm near Crawford's Grove for a couple of days and he was delighted with the crop which he says will run three tons per acre.

New Church Will be Organized In Stewart Settlement, Otonabee

St. Paul's Congregation Offers no Objection—Decides to Hand Over Knox Church Property Free of Charge—Minister Will be Engaged as Regular Supply Until Permanent Pastor is Called—Other Business Done.

A congregational meeting of St. Paul's church was held last night to consider several important matters. There was a good attendance. Rev. Dr. Marsh, interim moderator of session, presided, and conducted the opening devotional exercises, after which business was proceeded with.

It was decided to deed the Knox church property over to that congregation free of charge (except a consideration of $1 to make the transfer legal) as soon as Knox church elects trustees. A proposition to ask Knox people to pay to St. Paul's $1,000 for the property, was defeated as it was felt that Knox church, had in view of the rapid growth of that section of the city and the career of usefulness opening out before it all the financial obligations that it could carry.

TO MORTGAGE ST. PAUL'S.

The Presbytery of Peterborough at its last meeting, gave its consent, to St. Paul's church, to mortgage the church property for a sum not exceeding $5,000. The congregation last night decided to place a mortgage on the property, not to exceed this amount. This sum will cover the present mortgage indebtedness of over $1,000 and provide for the repairs and renovation of the church building, which will be carried out at once.

A NEW CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Marsh was appointed a commissioner by The Presbytery to ascertain if St. Paul's had any objection to the organization of a new church in the Stewart settlement in Otonabee.

Mr. Alex. Stewart was present, and explained that it was the desire of several families in that locality that regular service should be held every Sunday. Many Presbyterian families do not go to church at all now, the distance to the city being too great and they seriously felt the need of regular service in the settlement.

Rev. Dr. Marsh explained that the organization of a church there would mean the taking away of a few families from St. Paul's church, a few from St. Andrew's, one or two from Knox and some from Centreville. Commissioners had been appointed by Presbytery to ascertain if these congregations had any objection to raise to the organization of a church at Stewart's settlement, and, so far as he could learn they had not. He would like to learn the views and interest of St. Paul's church in the matter so that he could report to Presbytery.

It was decided, after some discussion to offer no objection to a church being formed and regular service held at Stewart's Settlement and Dr. Marsh will so report to the Presbytery at its next meeting.

In the meantime, Rev. Mr. McKenzie of Centreville, who has been conducting services in the new hall there every second Sunday will continue his ministrations.

PULPIT SUPPLY.

It was reported that a committee of three members from the session and three from the Board of Managers of St. Paul's church had been appointed a pulpit supply committee and that Rev. Mr. Currie of Forest, Ont., would occupy the pulpit for the next two weeks. No clergyman preaching with a view to the call to the vacant pastorate of the church will be heard until the holiday season is over, or until early in September.

In the meantime, as St. Paul's has a large number of families, and, pending the selection of a successor to Rev. Dr. Torrance, a permanent supply will be obtained to visit the sick, conduct funerals and occupy the pulpit, when men with a view to preaching for a call are not present. Such a man will, in reality be a temporary pastor. An arrangement such as this is made in many large churches, without a permanent pastor until one is called. St. Paul's will follow this precedent, as it will likely be some months before a choice of a minister is made.

In the meantime a permanent supply will be engaged. The committee have several names under consideration.

Mr. J. C. Shook presided at the meeting and Mr. William Pringle acted as secretary.

The gathering, which was harharmonious and enthusiastic, throughout, was closed by prayer by Rev. Dr. Marsh.

Elect Peterboro's Representative

Will Peterborough have a representative among those who will be fortunate enough to take in the Toronto World's trip to Europe?

This is the question that is interesting many people and there seems little doubt but that Peterborough's representative, Miss Birdie Thompson, will be successful if she receives the support she should from the people of the city. It would be an honor for Peterborough to have one of its young ladies win in a contest of this kind, more so than it would be to several other towns and cities that have representatives in the competition, because Miss Thompson was six weeks behind the majority of the other contestants in getting into the competition. She is now in third place in the list of those from outside Toronto and Hamilton and if she will have that position when the votes are counted after midnight on July 22nd she will be one of those to take the trip. It's up to Peterborough to have her in either second or third place when the votes are all counted.

As is generally known, the contest is to be decided by popular vote. A new subscription to the World or a renewal, is good for 1,500 votes. Any subscriptions, or renewals, or arrears paid since May 1st of the present year, will count just the same as a new subscription or a renewal if a note is sent to the World office or given to Miss Thompson, requesting the World to give Peterborough's representative credit for same. Each year paid for, counts for $1,500 votes.

With proper support during the present week, Miss Thompson should be successful when the contest closes next Monday night.

Rushing Work on G.T.R. Line Between Edmonton and Saskatoon

Edmonton, Alta., July 15.—The progress made during the past two months on the Garnd Trunk Pacific road between Saskatoon and Edmonton, gives more reassuring prospects of an early completion than the work hitherto indicated. About 1,200 men and 900 teams of horses are employed on the work. Seventy-five miles of road is graded from Saskatoon west and with a large force employed now it is expected that over 100 miles west from Saskatoon will be completed by August 5. Then a large force of men at work on the Battle river crossing will be moved up between Battle river and Edmonton. This addition to the number of men already employed on this section of road will ensure that the line into Edmonton will be graded during the present year. Many large trestles and culverts have been built during the past six weeks and many more, will be completed before the end of this month. Work on the larger bridges of steel construction at Saskatoon, Battle River and Clover Bar is going ahead rapidly.

The Grand Trunk Pacific right of way through Clover Bar presents a scene of great activity at the present time. Peter Dukelow & Sons, who have the grading contract for ten mile east of the Saskatchewan river, have about one hundred teams at work and have about four miles of earthwork of the road almost completed. Work on the bridges over the Saskatchewan is going ahead, and it will be ready for the rails when grade is completed. The company is carrying out its determination to make the Grand Trunk Pacific roadbed the finest on the American continent.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Short Sighted Policy of Some Local Fishermen

Complaint is being made that some fishermen in the vicinity of Peterborough, who unfortunately cannot be called sportsmen, are catching and retaining bass smaller than the limit specified in the game laws of the province. According to the statutes, bass that are not over nine inches in length must not be taken. If they are hooked they must be thrown back into the water again. A gentleman stated to the Review, today that the other evening, he saw a man who was fishing in Little Lake pull in several bass, that were not more than six inches in length and instead of putting them back in the water again he carefully placed them in the bottom of his boat.

Probably the fellow was not aware of the law on this point, but if he is he should take warning before the fish inspector gets after him and he is called upon to face the magistrate.

There is no doubt but that fishing of this kind is depleting the waters around Peterborough of game fish. Throw back in the water any bass that are not nine inches or over in length. To retain fish smaller than this is a very short-sighted policy.

Express Companies Will Close Early

The early closing movement is gaining ground. The Canadian Express Co and the Dominion Express Company have decided to close their offices at seven o'clock every evening during the months of July and August, except on Saturday evenings, when the companies will keep open until 8 o'clock.

Lacrosse Team to Practice Hard

An Exhibition Game Will be Arranged—Poor Support From Public

The Peterborough lacrosse team does not play another schedule game until August 5th, when the Young Torontos come here. Monday, Aug. 5th, is Toronto's civic holiday, and a big excursion will be run from Toronto that day to see the match. The locals have not forgotten that afternoon at Rosedale when the Toronto aggregation put it over them to some extent, and they are leaving nothing undone to take a fall out of Jimmy Murphy's proteges when they come to Peterborough. Practices will be held regularly and the locals will step on the field in the best of shape. It is likely that an exhibition game will be arranged for the near future. Some fast team will be brought to Peterborough, and a good game should result.

Those who are behind local sporting organizations are of the opinion that when it comes to paying 25 cents to see a good game of lacrosse or baseball, the public of Peterborough are not very enthusiastic. In a city of 15,000 people there should be from 1,500 and 2,000 persons at the baseball and lacrosse matches that are being played at Riverside Park this summer. Peterborough people, as a rule, are on hand by the thousand when anything that can be seen free of expense is going on, but they are mighty wary when it comes to planking down a 25 cent piece.

It is hard to run a lacrosse or baseball team without funds. One would travel a long distance to see better lacrosse or baseball than are being played in Peterborough this summer. Why don't the people turn out and help the boys along instead of sitting on the back steps and pouring over the dope in some Toronto newspaper, and trying to impress themselves that they are pretty sporty individuals?

Quinlan to Pitch Saturday's Game

Will Do the Twirling Against Oshawa—Fast Game is Expected

Oshawa comes here next Saturday to play a Midland League game against the Peterborough baseball team and a great contest is assured the fans. The lake front town nine are quite cocky over their victory over the locals on Saturday, and will come to Peterborough accompanied by a big bunch of rooters. The local team will have two or three practices this week and expect to put it over the visitors. Quinlan will do the twirling, with Burridge behind the bat, and the local battery should keep the Oshawa ball jugglers guessing. Several men on the Peterborough team were not in position to do themselves justice on Saturday, owing to having played hard games the day before, but everybody will be in the best of shape for the coming contest.

Great ball is being played in the Midland League and a record crowd should witness Saturday's game.

MADE MILE IN LIVELY TIME

Will Jayes Hit a Fast Pace at Oshawa, Saturday

Mr Jack Jayes yesterday was unaware of the fact that he had a runner in his family. But today he knows better. At Oshawa on Saturday, Mr. Will Jayes, a former Peterborough boy, won a mile race, that was participated in by a large number of contestants. Mr. Jayes is now employed by a large furniture manufacturing concern in Toronto and the race was held in connection with their annual outing to Oshawa. A silver cup was the prize for the mile run, which was one of the most interesting events on the programme. The former Peterborough boy won handily, covering the distance in five minutes and three quarters of a second.

NOTICE EARLY CLOSING

During July and August the Canadian Express Co. and Dominion Express Co. will close their city offices at 7 o'clock, excepting Saturdays when they will be open until 8 p. m.

T.A.S. Purchase Park Down River

Acquire Ten Acres From Mr. M. A. McNamara

It is understood that negotiations are about completed whereby St. Peter's T.A.S. have purchased from Mr. M. A. McNamara ten acres of the old Kincaid farm down the river. This was the delightful spot where the T.A.S. held their picnic this year on July 1st. No prettier point lies along the banks of the Otonabee. The T.A.S. will use the land acquired, as a permanent picnic ground, and next year the property will be made even more attractive than it is at present.

The June output of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co. was 6,000 tons, the record so far.

WEDDING BELLS

IRWIN—BRECKENRIDGE

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Rev. H. J. Keith, pastor of Knox church, on Wednesday night last when Mr. Geo. C. Irwin, of the firm of Lake & Irwin, Charlotte-st., was united in marriage to Miss Annie Breckenridge, of Albert street. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin have taken up their residence at 198 Charlotte st.

SLIGHTE—SPENCELY

A very pretty event was solemnized this afternoon at half past two o'clock when Rev. J. G. Potter performed the ceremony which united Miss Carrie Spencley, daughter of Mr. M. H. Spencley, and Mr. Ernest Slighte, in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's father and was witnessed by only a very few friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly dressed in a beautiful cream nun's-veiling Princess gown, trimmed with lace, and carried a bridal bouquet. Miss Ada Strain was bridesmaid, and she wore a pretty white dotted muslin gown, trimmed with lace. Mr. Wilbert Spencley, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Etta Kemp played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a reception was held at three o'clock at which some sixty guests were present, including a number from out of town. The house was artistically decorated with marguerites and ferns, and presented a very pretty scene. At five o'clock the wedding party sat down to a dainty supper and the happy couple left on the G.T.R. train for Port Hope and Toronto. On their return they will reside at No. 7 John street. Both the bride and groom are well known in the city, and have many friends, as was evidenced by the large number of handsome gifts received by the bride.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. George Street, the bride's sister and Miss Irene and Master Earl Street, of Galt; Misses Dougan, of Lakefield and Mrs. Spencley, of Ottawa.

YOUNG WOMAN ALLOWED TO GO

The young woman from east city who was in police court yesterday, charged with vagrancy, came up before Magistrate Dumble at a special session of the court yesterday afternoon, and was allowed to go, on promising that she would be more careful of her conduct in future, and not wander around the streets. It was the first time that she had appeared in court, hence the leniency shown.

WHEAT CROP IS BACKWARD

But the Outlook Throughout the World is Considered Fair

Liverpool, June 16. — Broomhall's weekly foreign crop report says,—

United Kingdom—The weather is favorable, being fine and hot. The wheat plant, however, is backward.

France.—In the northwest and east the plant has large ears and appears very healthy, while elsewhere the outlook is fair, but the crop is late. Supplies are very small.

Germany.—The outlook is fair, but the crop is late, supplies are very small. Oats, on the whole, are satisfactory.

Hungary—All reports confirm additional damage as a result of heat and rust.

Roumania—The maximum yield for wheat will only be half a crop with the quality good. Light rains have fallen which were beneficial.

Russia—In the southwest of Russia the damage is feared to spring wheat owing to the great heat, but a fair harvest is expected. The outlook for winter crops is poor. In the southeast, the year's harvesting of the crops with the exception of some districts in the Azoff, which are poor. In the east the condition is less favorable, owing to drought.

Italy—Harvesting returns are satisfactory.

Spain—Reports received are of a more favorable nature and no more deterioration is heard.

The Seamy Side in Police Court

Somewhat Unsavoury Evidence Was Forth-coming at To-day's Session

Persons looking for the seamy side of life could not have asked for anything much spicier than the case that occupied the attention of Police Magistrate Dumble at the police court this morning. Mrs. Annie Davey, Annie Whittaker, Wellington Cannon and Harry Thompson were charged with being keepers of a house of ill-fame at 24 Parnell street. The court room was crowded with a bunch of curious spectators, who no doubt would have paid a liberal admission fee to hear what was going on if such had been charged.

The quartette had appeared in police court Saturday morning and were remanded until today. The house was raided by the police on Friday night when six persons were taken into custody. The two women and two men referred to above were found in the house, while two more young men were seeking admission to the place when the police swooped down upon it. The two latter were fined at Saturday's session of the court but the other quartette pleaded not guilty.

A large amount of evidence was taken, the first three or four witnesses who were called being persons who live in the neighborhood of the house in question. In the main their evidence went to show that the house at 24 Parnell street, was a pretty busy spot both day and night, but particularly the latter. Men had been seen entering the house late at night, and frequently there was a rumpus on the premises. The general impression in the neighborhood seemed to be that the house was one of ill-fame.

P. C. Newhall, who had been assigned by the Chief of Police, to watch the house, told a straight story of what he had seen and heard while watching the premises on the nights of July 8th, 9th, 10th 11th and 12th, the last being the night on which the house was raided. What he saw and heard cannot be printed but it made clear to the magistrate that some very improper things were going on at the place referred to.

While Constable Newhall was giving his evidence he was the object for a constant volley of hot stuff from the two women in the prisoner's box. "It's false, it's a lie,' they chimed in unison and they had to be told to be quiet several times.

The defence called two witnesses and endeavored to under-rate the testimony of P. C. Newhall, but his story looked too straight to be shaken.

The court adjourned at 12 o'clock, the four prisoners being remanded until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

It was brought out in the evidence that Mrs. Davey's husband had been away for about a year, his health having been impaired. The Whittaker girl has been living with her for some time and according to the evidence the man Cannon has been staying with them for three or four months, and the youth Thompson, two or three weeks.

The Americans are Badly Dressed

Chicago, July 15th.—That sartorial purist, "The Tailor and Cutter," which edged its critic into the crowd at Ambassador Reid's reception at Dorchester House on July 4, to-day prints the result of his observations. Here is one of his complaints: "We saw two or three flat braided morning coats, and at least one frock coat with bone buttons in place of the more artistic silk top buttons." In regard to women's tailored American garments, the journal says: "They are built too much on the principle of an iron clad vessel, with layer upon layer of plate." The outer garment has a heavy shapeless appearance, giving its wearer a square, squat look, which detracts greatly from the stylish appearance which the general build of American women places at the disposal of the tailor to enhance and beautify.

Peterboro' Man Achieves Great Success in West

Mr. J. J. Heaslip Was One of the First to Locate in Manitoba—Has Embarked in Many Enterprises and Won Foremost Place in All—Head of Many Large Concerns.

The Quill, of Quill Lake, Sask., contains in its last issue, an appreciative reference to Mr. J. J. Heaslip, a former resident of Peterborough, who has achieved great success in the west. The Quill says in part;

Mr. J. J. Heaslip, who has recently disposed of his newspaper, the Alameda Dispatch, and retired, temporarily, at least, from active newspaper work, is a striking example of the successful western publisher. He belongs to that rare class of men who enter the journalistic field late in a business career, and without previous training are enabled, through a combination of latent literary ability and keen business insight, to conduct a newspaper, with every degree of success.

The subject of this sketch is a native of Ontario, his birthplace, being near the city of Peterborough. His early education was secured at the Public schools of Peterborough, and was later supplemented by a course in a Business College at Toronto. Commencing life as a farmer, Mr Heaslip was attracted by the glowing possibilities that awaited the settler in the west and in 1881 he made his first trip to the prairie province. At that time Portage la Prairie was the railway terminus, and leaving the train at this point, he travelled through several districts to obtain an accurate idea of the quality of the land and to secure information about the country before returning east. The following spring—1882—he decided to move to the west, and coming out with a party of fifteen settlers, he reached Brandon on the 16th of April, 1882. After leaving Brandon the party travelled by ox team, the objective point being adjacent to the confluence of the Moose Creek and Souris River. After a leisurely trip, made for the purpose of looking over the country, Mr. Heaslip finally settled at a point four miles west of the present town of Alameda. It was the life of the pioneers in those days for there were no other settlers within a radius of 100 miles and the nearest postoffice was Brandon. In the latter part of 1882 the railway was extended to Moosomin, which was the wheat market for the next ten years. Of the original party who came west with Mr. Heaslip only three or four returned to the east. The rest remained and are now prosperous residents of the district. But one death, and that recently, has occurred to diminish the number.

Abandoning work on the farm, Mr. Heaslip opened a lumber yard in Oxbow in 1891 and in 1892 established a hardware and implement business in Alameda. The first shipment of freight to be forwarded west of Oxbow was consigned to Mr Heaslip and consisted of two carloads of lumber. With this material he erected the first building in Alameda which is now occupied by Messrs. Cook & Deyell, hardware merchants.

Shortly after becoming established in Alameda, Mr. Heaslip sold his lumber business in Oxbow, and after a successful career, in both the hardware and implement business, these were also disposed of, and a private bank opened.

It was in July, 1893, that Mr Heaslip entered the field of journalism, and acquired the Alameda Dispatch. In the same manner in which he had thrown his talents and energies into the previous enterprises with which he had been connected, Mr. Heaslip at once entered with zest into the work of producing a newspaper that would reflect in the truest sense the growing importance of the town and district it served. In typographical finish and mechanical make-up, the Dispatch was brought to the highest point of excellence. The publisher was prompt in the introduction of improved methods and devices. The newspaper office was thoroughly equipped with machinery of the most modern pattern, which included a type-setting machine and high grade presses. This resulted in the production of a paper that was neat and tidy in style of print and appearance. While Mr Heaslip is a Conservative in politics the Dispatch has been conducted on strictly independent lines, although never neutral.

Mr. Heaslip has been a notary public and justice of the peace for fifteen years, and for the past three years has served at the head of municipal affairs. He is head of the Crown Lumber & Coal Company, with yards at Alameda and Frobisher, and also conducts a private bank, where a general banking business is transacted.

With characteristic enterprise, Mr Heaslip installed the telephone system in Alameda, which gives a satisfactory service, and now has connections with the leading business and private residences in town. He also installed the first acetylene plant in Alameda.

Mr. Heaslip has always taken a keen interest in all healthy, manly sports. He is an enthusiastic patron of hockey and lacrosse, and a large shareholder in the local skating rink. Last summer he purchased a motor car, and motoring forms his chic diversion during the summer months. He has become familiarized with the mechanical parts of the machine to a detail, and is thoroughly conversant with the principles underlying propulsion.

It is but natural to assume that Mr. Heaslip has a splendid residence. His home is a large stone building, the largest in fact in the district, and is beautifully enclosed.

In religion Mr Heaslip is a Presbyterian, is an elder in the church and one of its warmest supporters.

KOREA FEARS CONFLICT

Feeling Roused by Return of Pretender to the Throne.

Scheme to Precipitate Conflict—Dethronement of Emperor Is Possible—Japanese Ignore Treaty Rights—Said to Be Ill Treating Koreans—Artillery Despatched—Jap Admiral Arrives At Montreal.

Seoul, July 17.—Information has reached the palace from Japanese sources that Prince Yi Chung Ong, once pretender to the throne, and for several years an exile in Japan, has reached Fusan, and has the imperial permission to return to Seoul.

His coming, following on the return of Prince Pak Yong Hi, is construed by Koreans as significant of all sorts of possibilities.

While no step has yet been taken, the Emperor's people still fear his dethronement; hence the return to Korea of two men looked upon as possible pretenders is regarded as indicative either of such a step or a scheme to precipitate a conflict between the contending forces of Koreans which might give the Japanese an excuse to exercise their force.

In view of the uncertainties, all the leading Koreans are afraid to give expression to their views.

Japs Exclude Foreigners.

London, July 17.—Homer B. Hulburt, an American, who has held several prominent educational positions in Seoul, Korea, is now in London on his way to the United States.

In an interview Mr. Hulburt complained strongly of what he termed the unfair and illegal treatment of the Koreans by the Japanese. Every office in Korea, he said, has been given to the Japanese. Land is being seized without sufficient compensation, and all trades and commerce has been gathered in the hands of the Japanese to the exclusion of the Americans and British.

Mr. Hulburt considers that Japan is ignoring the treaty rights which Korea established with Great Britain and the United States. He intends, he says, to appeal to the Chambers of Commerce and similar bodies throughout the United States to oppose this condition of affairs.

He does not accuse the officials in high authority in Japan who seemingly desire to do the right thing, but he says the officials find it impossible to get the proper men to carry out their intentions.

Artillery For Phillipines.

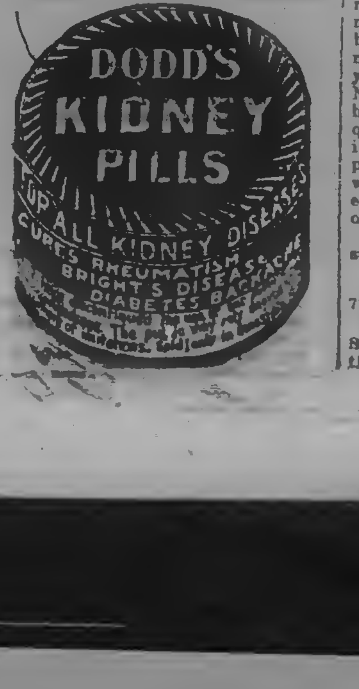
Washington, July 17.—Orders have been issued by the war department for the 5th Field Artillery to proceed from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., to San Francisco for embarkation for the Philippines on transport sailing Sept. 5.

Yamamato At Montreal.

Montreal, July 17.—The flag of the Rising Sun floated over the Windsor Hotel yesterday, denoting the presence in the city of a Japanese official of high rank, in the person of Admiral Yamamato, who arrived in the city yesterday morning for Boston.

No official reception has been prepared for the visitor, as the present is an informal call, but his stay is being made pleasant at the Mount Royal Club and by a trip up Mount Royal.

In an interview, the admiral characterised the war rumors as absurd.



JAPS ARE GRATEFUL.

Admiral Yamamoto Refers to Prince Fushimi's Recent Visit.

Montreal, July 17.—The Japanese Admiral Yamamoto and his party were guests of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy at luncheon at Mount Royal Club yesterday, and left last evening for the west.

Regarding the visit of Prince Fushimi to Canada recently, the admiral, through his interpreter, said:

"I can hardly tell how much the Japanese people have appreciated the kindness shown the representative of the Emperor during his stay in your beautiful country. His trip across the continent was carefully followed by the authorities at home, and from what I know your hospitality will never be forgotten by our people. We had no reason to expect so much from Canadians, but it simply showed us what a splendid and generous people you have in the Dominion. Remember this, the Japanese are always grateful for courtesies extended.

"Our relationship with England is of the closest, and we only hope that the present friendship will long continue to exist. We fully appreciate the free institutions of the British Empire, and we certainly love and admire the freedom enjoyed by the people."

TO LOOK AFTER EMIGRATION.

Hon. Nelson Monteith Will Go to England This Week.

Toronto, July 17.—Hon. Nelson Monteith had a prolonged interview yesterday with E. D. Smith, M.P., North Wentworth. Co-operation in spraying and the care of fruit was under discussion, and the methods to be adopted on the Jordan Model Farm.

Mr. Smith described the successful results attained at Simcoe by a thorough spraying treatment, and the enhanced profit derived thereby.

Secretary Murray of the Manufacturers' Association; J. W. Walker and J. W. McCullough of Hamilton also saw the Minister of Agriculture during the morning.

Hon. Mr. Monteith will sail on the Dominion from Montreal on Saturday for England, where he will look into emigration and other matters in Britain in which Ontario is interested.

He stated that ex-Mayor Thomas Elliott, Brantford, had been appointed a commissioner to the Dublin Exhibition for the months of August, September and October. Mr. Elliott, who is a shrewd business man, will collect information on transportation and other matters, and will have an opportunity of interesting intending emigrants in Ontario. The salary was not stated, but former precedents would indicate $125 a month and expenses as probable.

ONE MAN KILLED IN WRECK.

Passengers Have Miraculous Escape In Southern Head-on Collision.

Kansas City, Mo., July 17.—A Chicago Great Western passenger train ran into and damaged the rear Pullman on a Burlington passenger train, both northbound, at Bethel Janse, 10 miles north of Kansas City, early yesterday. Fritz Ulrici of Rochester, N. Y., traveling salesman for a paper box manufactory, whose western headquarters are at Chicago, was so badly injured that he died later. The other passengers on the Burlington train were slightly hurt. The Great Western engine was damaged, but no one on that train was hurt.

The collision is believed to have resulted from confusion of train orders.

Andrew Faricy of Thorold, aged 71, committed suicide yesterday

The June output of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co. was 6,000 tons, the record so far.

REBUTTAL EVIDENCE.

State Offers Newspaper Report of Outrage as Evidence.

Boise, Idaho, July 17.—The rebuttal evidence during the forenoon session yesterday covered a wide range.

It started in California, returned to Idaho, and finished the session in Colorado.

Four witnesses supported the general attack now being made by the prosecution on the evidence by which the defence hopes to prove perjury against Harry Orchard.

The defence by consent recalled Guibinny, the San Francisco grocer who testified that it was possible for Orchard to have climbed from the Bradley porch to an adjoining roof. The San Francisco depositions assert that the roof Orchard says he hid on was not built for six months after the Bradley explosion. Guibinny got mixed upon this testimony.

T. C. Coggswell of Wallace was called to testify to alleged mis-statements by Dr. L. C. McGee, who arrived here yesterday morning under arrest on a charge of perjury. The state offered in evidence a copy of The Idaho Tribune of May 20, 1899, which contains an account of the blowing up of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine.

Richardson started Hawley spluttering by calling this the rawest thing ever attempted in court.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

Officer Despatched to Bring Back Wife of Circus Man.

Millbrook, Ont., July 17.—At the inquest held yesterday on the circus man who was killed by a train at Cavanville, considerable suspicion was aroused by the non-appearance of the man's wife, who was to have given evidence, and the report of the doctors who made the post-mortem examination, that the body was badly marked and cut giving every indication of foul play.

The circus manager, who was present, said the deceased was employed as the dog trainer, and suggested that the man fell off the train owing to being intoxicated. This did not satisfy the coroner and jury, and the enquiry was adjourned for fuller investigation into the cause of death.

The coroner despatched an officer with the necessary papers to compel the wife's attendance. The body was sent to New York for interment.

SUSPECT MURDER.

Italian Feud May Be at Bottom of Woman's Disappearance.

Sarnia, July 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Eddy, parents of Mrs. Ethel Scarlata, whose body was found in the river last week, are not reconciled to the suicide theory held by the Port Huron authorities. They believe that there was foul play, because of the fact that they objected to their daughter's marriage, and that Scarlata's Italian friends also strenuously objected to his marriage to Miss Eddy, and it is said that they hated her. After the quarrel, which ended in Scarlata stabbing a man, for which the former will have to serve three years, his friends were more than ever incensed against Mrs. Scarlata.

Murder Over Chickens.

Oswego, N.Y., July 17.—A quarrel over the trespass of a farmer's chickens upon the garden of his neighbor ended yesterday in the death of Murphy Cook, an Italian. On Sunday Cook shooed out of his garden a lot of chickens belonging to James Reitz, whereupon, it is alleged, Reitz opened fire with a shotgun yesterday.

Found Dead In Bush.

New York, July 17.—The body of William D. Wines, an aged and retired merchant of Brooklyn, was found in the woods at Mount Kisco, N.Y., yesterday, after his son had received a Black Hand letter demanding that a ransom of $3,000 be paid for his father.

Back In Lindsay.

Lindsay, July 17.—Wynne & Boyeau, who arrived here yesterday morning in charge of Detectives Parkinson and Rogers, were committed to jail. Their arrival was unexpected and few were at the station when they got off.

Henry Baker a civic employee of Montreal, was drowned in a sewer yesterday.

TRAIN DITCHED, KILLS FOUR.

Fatal Disaster on Erie Train Near Marion, Ohio.

Toledo, O., July 17.—Four persons were fatally, and a number of other passengers badly, injured last night, when an Erie passenger train, No. 11, running between Marion, O., and Huntington, Ind., jumped the track near Foraker, O., the entire train turning over in the ditch.

The fatally injured are: Baggagemaster McDowell of Marion, O.; the fireman, Pearl Coff of Kenton, O., and Frank Verhart, Kenton, O.

It is thought a split rail caused the wreck.

Drowned at Collingwood.

Collingwood, July 17.—The body of Robert Kennedy was found floating in the harbor yesterday. He was drowned by falling from a tug of the Collins Inlet Lumber Co. eight days ago.

Deceased was a son of R. H. Kennedy, 741 West King street, Toronto, and was 24 years of age. He arrived at the inlet July 7 from Toronto, and was engaged scaling logs.

The body was taken in charge by Chief of Police Wilde. His brother will come for the body.

Richard Allen Drowned.

Fergus, July 17.—A drowning accident took place at Aboyne, one and one-half miles below here, in the Grand River.

Richard Allan, second son of Col. Allan, was in bathing, and getting below his depth, was drowned. His brother and other companions were along, but were unable to save him.

It was over an hour before the body was recovered.

Killed During His First Turn.

St. Thomas, July 17.—Peter Solirianos, a Greek, aged 18 years, was instantly killed in the Pere Marquette yards early yesterday morning. He was under an engine cleaning out the ashes when another locomotive came up slowly and moved the one the young fellow was under. He was cut in two. Deceased had only started to work Monday night.

Goes Down for Five Years.

Montreal, July 17.—Joseph E. Costin, a Montreal insurance agent, who was found guilty of forging a cheque for $3,000 on the Mutual Insurance Co., was sentenced by Judge Choquette yesterday morning to five years in the St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary.

Amendments Pass.

London, July 17.—(C. A. P.)—The amendments to the British North America Act have passed through the lords' committee.

Toronto Sports Got Nasty Slap

Thomas Longboat Re-instated by C.A.A.U.

Toronto, July 16.—The Registration Committee of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union today took up the appeal against the suspension of Thomas Longboat by the Y.M.C.A. League, which governs Y.M.C.A. athletics, and decided in favor of the runner. In other words, his suspension which was, in any case, only a suspension by an affiliated body, was not concurred in by the C.A.A.U., and Longboat is now free to run unattached, against J. J. Daley, of New York, the Irish runner, four miles, at the island Saturday.

This is a cold slap in the face for the West End Y.M.C.A. and for some of the other sore sports in Toronto, who had a grudge against the Indian because he would not stay with them. It was merely a common case of Toronto sports. While everything is coming their way they live in the air, but the minute they lose, they begin to squeal and kick and will not stop at anything to remove the cause of their grief from their path. Never mind, Hogtown, you can educate some of your own sports and give them an honorable career.

BASEBALL

GOING TO LINDSAY

Yes, Peterborough's finest will play ball in Lindsay early next week. Owing to their having played three games out of town, last week, it was impossible for them to appear here this week, but just as sure as the sneeze comes after the pinch of snuff, Peterborough's "best" with their strong battery will try to trim the hard hitters in Lindsay's local league. So put away a shilling in your Sunday vest pocket and have it ready when "the umpire calls "play ball."

FALSE ALARMS TOO FREQUENT

City Council Called Upon to Take Action to Stop the Practice

Another false alarm was sent in last night and the fire brigade was given another run, only to make fools of themselves, the City Council and the citizens generally. This time the alarm came from Box 35, which is at the corner of Park and Hunter streets. It is now up to the City Council to stop this practice of sending in false alarms. It has been carried on now about long enough. Everyone has had an opportunity to see the fire horses run, and the boxes are all working well. Further inactivity on the part of the council will only encourage the feeble minded persons who cannot resist ringing the fire bell. The brigade have a right to demand the council to act, and if they fail to heed their demand, to all resign. The city has a police force and this is an excellent opportunity to develop or keep in practice the detective tendencies. The council can offer a reward of $100 or even $500 for information that will convict the guilty parties. With a good big reward it will not be long before someone is landed, or the false alarm artist will be afraid to try his game.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BOGUS $5 BILL PASSED IN CITY

C.P.R. Night Man Got it and it Passed Through Several Hands Before Detected

Speaking of the counterfeiters case in Lindsay, Dr. Gray recalled an occasion a year ago last New Year's when he received a bogus $5.00 on the Bank of Montreal. The doctor received $30 from the C.P.R. on the Monday following New Year's day. It was paid him by the night man at the station in $5.00 bills. The doctor walked directly to Mr. T. Barrie's store and paid it to Mr. Barrie and Mr. Barrie took it to the bank to deposit it. At the bank it was detected and the bill travelled back to the C.P.R. station, where the night man redeemed it. He remembered the bill, but did not know at the time that it was bogus, although it appeared different from the other Bank of Montreal bills.

He had no trouble in recalling who paid him the bill. He said he got it on Saturday night previous, just before the midnight train pulled in. A man had been hanging around the station from eleven o'clock, and just as the train was coming in he bought a ticket for Montreal. The next time the fellow came to the city the C.P.R. man presented the bogus bill to him, but he denied having ever had it in his possession and refused to make good.

Strawberry Social Held in Otonabee

Most Successful Event on the Grounds of Mr. Joshua Smithson

Last night the annual strawberry festival, under the auspices of St. Marks' church, Otonabee, took place.

The weather during the day had been very unfavorable, but during the afternoon and evening, most excellent weather conditions prevailed, and helped to make the attendance at the festival a record-breaker. Mr. and Mrs. John Smithson had most generously placed their spacious and beautiful grounds at the disposal of St. Marks' congregation and the central location of their home, as well as their popularity in the community, attracted a large number of people. It is estimated that about four hundred people were present. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns, the tables were tastefully arranged, and all the surroundings gave a festive character to the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Smithson were not sparing in giving everyone a hearty welcome. A refreshment booth, in which ice cream, bananas, candies and lemonade were sold, was in charge of Miss Thorne and Miss Emma Dixon, and the attraction of this place was so great that everything was sold out before the entertainment was over. Mr. Perry, Rev. Dr. Langfeldt's assistant had done everything possible to attain to a high standard of the entertainment, and to him and his co-workers, the unprecedented success is due.

The ladies of St. Marks church have attained a reputation in providing excellent repasts and on this occasion, they sustained their reputation. Strawberries and cream, bread and butter, cake and tea, were daintily served on large tables put up for the occasion. A large contingent from Peterborough was present, among them being Mr. J. H. Burnham, Mr. Dawson Kennedy, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Langfeldt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kingdon, Mr. Charles Crane, Mr. Jas. Ball, Mr. Sam Whittaker, Mr. Chester Taylor, Mr. Charles Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Devey, Misses Ruth and Birdie Dawson, Miss Gillespie and many others. The Mayor of Peterborough and Mr. E. A. Peck sent their regrets at being unable to be present.

Keene was also largely represented, Rev. Mr. Harrison and Mr. A. St. A. Smith, manager of the Bank of Toronto, being present. Rev. D. D. McDonald sent his regrets at being prevented from attending.

It was about ten o'clock when the programme began, which was given from the verandah. Mr. Wilson's orchestra was present, and rendered several selections during the evening.

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt acted as chairman. In his opening remarks, he expressed his great appreciation of Mr. Smithson's kindness, in giving his grounds to hold the festival on. He also thanked the people for their generous support.

The programme was as follows,—

1. Vocal Solo—Miss Ruth Dawson
2. Recitation, "Them Oxen," by Miss Payne.
3. Vocal Solo, "Sailor Song" by Master Cyril Devey.
4. Orchestral Selection.
5. Recitation, "Aunt Jemima's Courtship," by Miss Robinson.
6. Vocal Solo, Miss Ruth Dawson.
7. God Save the King.

Rev. Mr. Harrison, pastor of the Methodist church, responded being called upon for a speech. His remarks were highly appreciated: he exhorted the people to be kind one toward another and to heartily cooperate and unite in their common cause, striving for the divine ideal.

Mr. J. H. Burnham also responded to being called upon for an address. He complimented the ladies on their good work, and paid a high tribute to the generosity, and broadmindedness of his friend, Mr. Smithson, whom to honor he was present. It gave him great pleasure to witness such hearty co-operation and fellowship. Mr. T. H. Perry, who is in charge of St. Marks church, thanked the people for their support, and Mr. and Mrs. Smithson for their great help and kindness.

Mr. Smithson being called upon said that he welcomed the people most heartily and that he and Mrs. Smithson hoped they would all so enjoy themselves, that they would come again.

The evening's entertainment then closed with the singing of the National Anthem. Mr. R. J. Devey acted as accompanist.

Assessment in South Ward High

Resident Complains About the Assessor Raising the Assessment

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—I have always looked upon Peterborough as destined sooner or later to become one of the most important industrial cities on the American continent. Bountifully endowed by nature, and inhabited by such a sturdy and thrifty citizenship, there is no reason why our beautiful and prosperous young city should not advance by leaps and bounds towards the goal for which nature intended, if our municipal governors and their officials would only keep within the bounds of reason and common sense. There are several rocks, however, which it will be necessary to avoid by those having in charge the municipal ship, if all our hopes are to be realized and our city fathers escape from finding themselves driven shattered and dismasted on the seashore of indelible disgrace. One of these rocks is the action of the assessor at present at work in the south part of the city who I am told is increasing the taxes on the working people to such an extent that they will find it impossible, owing to this and other increases in the necessaries of life to live in Peterborough. This official states, I understand, that he is going to increase the assessment in this part of the town to the extent of a million dollars. If this is so, the question arises, is he acting on his own responsibility or has he received instructions from the powers that be?

I ask, is this the way to build up a great city and make it a desirable place to live in? Was it not partly to escape such oppression in Europe that our fellows forsook their homes and, through untold hardships and sufferings, succeeded in carving out homes for their families in the Canadian wilderness? And is it possible now that we will have to dispose of these homes in order to escape the enormous burden of taxation which has been increasing from year to year until it is almost impossible to meet it, and endeavor to build up homes for ourselves and families in the Canadian Northwest, or seek shelter on some foreign soil?

I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,

P. J. FULLER.

Peterborough, July 16th, 1907.

All Saints S S. Big Excursion

Over Four Hundred Passengers on Steamer Otonabee—Good Races

The most successful excursion ever run by the Sunday school of All Saint's church, was the one to Idyl Wyld yesterday. Over four hundred scholars with their friends and parents got on board the steamer Otonabee at half-past eight in the morning and thoroughly enjoyed the sail down the river. At Idyl there was a delightful breeze and while the people in the city were melting with the heat the excursionists were cool and comfortable.

Besides a programme of races, which were exciting and funny, there was a game of baseball that made the crowd laugh until they were sore. The two teams were mixed with old men and young boys, but they all played professional ball.

The races were as follows,—

BOYS' RACES.

Infants,—1, Oliver Taylor; 2, Leonard Adlum; 3, Frank Lundy.

Age 8 to 10.—Frank Taylor; Gordon Grewer.

Age 11 to 13.—Bolton Walton, Searle Haskill.

GIRLS' RACES.

Infant Class—Vera Hill, Victoria Allen, Tilly LeCerf.

Age 8 to 10.—Ruby Cranfield, Geraldine Hooper, Maggie Myers.

New Bridge on Charlotte St.

Commissioner Evans Started His Men to Work This Morning

Street Commissioner Harry Evans started his men to work this morning on the Charlotte street bridge over the creek. This work has been hanging fire for over two years, and for a year it was delayed on account of the contractors being unable to get the steel superstructure. Messrs Hill & Co., of Chatham, have the contract for the steel work, and they have assured the city engineer that the steel material would be here by the 1st of August. The concrete piers and abutments will be built by Mr. Evans by day labor, and he is starting now so as to have it ready by the time the superstructure arrives. Charlotte street will therefore be closed for some time while the work is being carried on. When it is completed, however, the bridge will be permanent, and will also be creditable to the city.

GROCERS WANT TO HOLD PICNIC

Mention Civic Holiday as the Date for the Big Outing

A movement is on foot, says the Canadian Grocer, among some of the local grocers to hold a grocers' picnic on Civic Holiday. Since the grocery stores do not close for the Thursday half holiday during the summer, this idea should meet with general approval. In many cities the grocers or grocers' clerks hold very successful outings of this kind and they are joined by all the business men. The idea proposed is to ask the dry goods and other merchants to co-operate, and have one big day on which every merchant and clerk in the city would have a jolly time. There are many very pretty spots around Peterborough, where such an event could be pulled off, successfully. If the merchants could get together and appoint a small committee, or if the clerks got together, they could run the thing first rate.

THREE BLOWN TO PIECES

Revolutionists Kill Former Governor, His Wife and Coachman.

Threw Bomb Into Carriage While Driving In St. Petersburg—Second Attempt Successful—Victim Injured a Year Ago But Recovered—Gen. Alikhanoff Had Aroused the Enmity by His Rigorous Discipline.

Alexandropol, July 17.—Gen. Alikhanoff, former governor-general of Tiflis, Madame Glieboff, wife of Gen. Glieboff, and the coachman, who was driving their carriage, were blown to pieces by bombs thrown at their conveyance at half-past two o'clock yesterday morning.

A son of Gen. Alikhanoff and a daughter of Gen. Glieboff sustained serious injuries.

The party was returning to the residence of Gen. Alikhanoff from his club. The bombs were hurled in Beboulоff street.

Gen. Alikhanoff was nicknamed "the wild beast" by the Caucasian members of the Lower House of Parliament, who often referred to his cruelties in the Kutais district, where he had led a number of punitive expeditions to stamp out disorders. His rigorous methods to this end brought down upon him the enmity of the revolutionists.

Gen. Alikhanoff was seriously injured by a bomb at Borjam May 30 of last year. This bomb was thrown just as he was about to take a train for Tiflis. Its explosion, seriously wounded, in addition to the general, a number of his staff and several Cossacks. The remainder of the Cossacks fired into the crowd, killing many persons, and then burned to the ground the buildings into which the people had fled.

RED CROSS IN MARITIME WAR.

Hague Conference Reaches Important Decision for Lessening Losses.

The Hague, July 17.—It has been definitely decided that at the next plenary sitting of the conference Sir Edward Fry (Great Britain) will present a proposition regarding the limitation of armaments. This proposition will be a repetition, in a more energetic form, of the order of the day on the same subject presented by M. Bourgeoise by the conference of 1891 and approved by that body.

T. M. C. Asser (Netherlands) will propose that the limitation of armaments be brought about in a practical way through the permanent court of arbitration by broadening the scope of this court, and, so far as possible, making its findings compulsory.

A plenary sitting of the committee on maritime warfare, Count Torrelli presiding, was held over. After a lively discussion the committee reached the first important conclusion arrived at since the conference began its labors; it approved the project of a convention providing for the adaptation of Red Cross regulations to maritime warfare.

The clause most discussed was the use of wireless telegraphy on board hospital ships; with some guarantees this was finally admitted.

Lied for His Lady Love.

Windsor, July 17.—Earl Leslie Mitts, aged 17 years, of Detroit, was before Magistrate Bartlett yesterday, charged with perjury in having obtained a marriage license by swearing falsely to his age, and that of the young girl whom he wished to marry, as well as giving fictitious names for both. They were afterwards married here. On going home the young wife was locked up by her parents.

Nothing New in the Lindsay Case

Prisoner From Montreal Will Arrive in the Morning

A fool rumor was floating about the streets here last night and to-day that a well known Lindsay politician had been implicated in the counterfeiters case. Such a rumor is utterly without foundation The gentleman referred to is as far above suspicion as the sun is above the earth, and only a political enemy could have started the story.

A despatch to the Review to-day stated that nothing new had developed in the Lindsay case and nothing more was expected, for the present at least. Eveleigh, the prisoner from Montreal, will arrive in the town tomorrow morning and then the bunch will be complete.

THIEVING AT JACKSON PARK

Box of Cigars Stolen From Yeotes Bros. Gallery

Petty thieving still continues in various parts of the city and from the events that are passing it looks as if Peterborough had a large number of bad boys. A few nights ago, some person or persons forced their way into the shooting gallery of Yeotes Bros., at Jackson Park, and stole a box of cigars, the only thing of any value that they could lay their hands on. No money is left in the gallery at night. If any coin had been on the premises there is no doubt but that it would have been purloined. The proprietors of the shooting gallery, don't even leave cigars there now.

Wheat Crop in Saskatchewan Likely to Surpass Last Year

Mr. R. P. Langford Says Conditions Are Most Promising—Fifteen Per Cent. More of Coarse Grains Sown—Wheat Will be 85 Cents Per Bushel—Good Growing Weather in June—Peterboro' Boy Talks Interestingly of Western Conditions.

"Saskatchewan will have fully as good a crop as last year, if not better; the yield in Alberta is most promising, but the prospects are that the harvest in Manitoba will not be quite up to the average. The weather there has been somewhat unfavorable."

Such was the summary of the western prospects so far as the grain yield is concerned, made to the Review today by Mr. R. Percival Langford, of the firm of McLeod & Langford, general merchants, Wolseley, Sask., who arrived in the city last evening on a visit to his parents, Major Wm. and Mrs. Langford, Water street.

Mr Langford is accompanied by his wife and two children. They will spend a few weeks visiting in this vicinity. He is a most enthusiastic Westerner, and believes in the continued bright future of that illimitable country.

"Yes, sir," he continued, "in Saskatchewan fully as much wheat has been sown as last year, while there will be an increase of fifteen per cent in the acreage of coarse grain In 1906 there were 750,000 bushels of wheat shipped from our district, and I think, this record will be surpassed this year.

"The crop was late in being put in, but, when I left Wolseley on June 29, wheat that had been sown on May 18th was twenty inches high. A growth of this extent in five weeks is a pretty good record. The seeding generally was about three weeks behind last season. This was caused by the cool nights, the frost remaining in the ground, so that even the drills were not able to get into the soil. The weather has of late weeks been fine for growing purposes in Saskatchewan. During June I do not think there was twenty-four hours when we did not get some rain, and everything is now most promising."

"What will be the yield per acre in your district?" was asked.

"Well, in the last nine years the average has been 28 bushels, which is considerably higher than in Manitoba. Wolseley is really the hub of the great Indian Head wheat district The centre of the district is about four miles out of our town. We have seven elevators in Wolseley, which have a combined storage, capacity of about 225,000 bushels Wolseley has a population of 1,200 it is situated about sixty miles east of Regina. Indian Head is about 17 or 18 miles west of us."

"What figure will the price of wheat reach this year?"

"If we do not get any hard frosts until after the middle of September, the wheat yield in Saskatchewan will, as I said, likely be greater than last year, while the price will be higher. Last year No. 1 hard was sold at 60 cents. Now it is quoted at 80, and I fully expect that the price will reach 85 cents this fall, while wheat which may not escape the frost will bring no less than 65 cents per bushel. There are in Saskatchewan sixteen grades of wheat according to the standard of the Grain Growers' Association. The first grade is No.1 hard, then comes No. 1 northern and so on.

"Wolseley is a good growing town. There was a large amount of building done last year, including the erection of a $22,000 city hall. There is no great boom in property, but real estate sells at a good figure"

Mr. Ed. Scriver, formerly editor and proprietor of the Hastings Star, is proprietor of the newspaper in Wolseley, and is doing well.

Mr Langford says that there is not as much building going on generally in the west this year as last. This is owing to money not being as plentiful on account of a large portion of last year's crop still being tied up. Grain which was in the elevators at Wolseley in October last was not sent forward this year until April. However, the railways are doing their best and rushing it out as rapidly as possible.

Mr Langford is an old Peterborough boy and his many friends are pleased to meet him. On the way east he spent a few days in Winnipeg, Chicago, Cleveland and other cities. He was for some years traveller for a large grocery house in Winnipeg, but over a year ago he went into business in Wolseley, where he has done remarkably well. He knows conditions of the West thoroughly, and says that there will be no drawback so far as the wheat yield is concerned, providing the weather continues favorable until the middle of September. The reason that the crop in Manitoba will not be quite up to the average is owing to lack of rain, but, as already stated, weather conditions in Saskatchewan and Alberta, particularly in the former province, have been highly favorable so far."

Nearly $50,000 Worth of Cheese Sold Here To-day

Magnitude of the Business Transacted on the Local Cheese Board—Big Sum Goes Into Pockets of the Farmers.

Do the people of Peterborough appreciate the magnitude of the business transacted on the Peterborough Cheese Board?

Take to-day for instance. Nearly $50,000 worth of cheese changed hands and this money will go into the pockets of the farmers within a radius of twenty miles of Peterborough.

At the meeting of the Board to-day 5000 boxes of cheese were offered for sale. The average box of cheese weighs about 80 pounds. Thus it will be seen that 400,000 pounds of cheese were offered for sale. Valuing this cheese at 11 5-16c per pound, the ruling figure to-day, it is found that the value of the cheese sold is $45,250—a splendid sum it will have to be admitted. One is almost safe in saying that the average box of cheese will weigh 85 pounds and to figure out the value of the cheese offered for sale on this basis would give practically $50,000.

This sum gives a fair idea of the money that the dairy industry is bringing to the farmers of the Peterborough district. Fifty thousand dollars for two weeks product is not half bad and goes to show the magnitude of the cheese business. The industry even brings the farmers of the district a larger sum than this for there are a number of factories in the surrounding country that do not sell on the Peterborough Board They dispose of their cheese at the factory and thus their product is not included in the above estimation.

Cobalt may be rich, Standard Oil may be a money maker, but cheese is king these days alright.

Cheese Making on Sabbath is an Absolute Necessity

Messrs. C. C. James, Deputy-Minister of Agriculture; George A. Putnam, Director Dairy Instruction, and G. G. Publow, Chief Instructor, Eastern Ontario, have prepared a report for Premier Whitney on the question of Sunday work in connection with the manufacture of cheese. They say in part,—

"In Western Ontario, out of 218 factories, 68 are manufacturing cheese on Saturday night; in Eastern Ontario less than one-quarter of the one thousand factories are taking in milk on Saturday night and manufacturing it into cheese. In the majority of cases, where milk is taken in on Saturday night, it is found impossible to properly complete the work before twelve o'clock. The work is, therefore, continued for a period of from one to four or five hours in the beginning of Sunday. It will be seen that, in the future, to handle the milk at present made up on Saturday night and Sunday, either the factory must be reconstructed or equipped with better facilities, or the patrons must put in additional appliances at home, and provide ice supplies.

"If the law against doing any work in cheese factories during any of the hours of Sunday were strictly enforced at once, there would of necessity, be a very large waste of milk on the farm in addition to the increasing of the Sunday work on the part of the producer to a very large extent.

"Having considered the question from all standpoints and obtained opinions from many persons interested in the question, we beg to recommend, that for the present year, permission be granted to continue the Saturday night work in cheese factories, until not later than 5 a.m. Sunday morning. In this connection we might state that in the great majority of cases the work can easily be completed by 2 a.m., but in some cases, beyond the control of the maker, it may be found impossible to make up the cheese at so early a time."

"Further, we would suggest that early notification be given to the dairymen of the province (owners of cheese factories, makers and patrons) that it will be necessary next year to fully comply with the requirements of the Sunday Observance Law, and that they should now make arrangements, whereby either the patrons of factories shall now begin to make provision to keep the milk at home under proper conditions or utilize it at home, or that the factories shall make such provision as may be necessary to enable them to handle the milk on Monday morning."

Two Victims of London's Horror

Were Friends of Miss Beek of R. Fair & Co's.—Has a Sister in London

The news of the awful disaster at London yesterday afternoon, when received in the city, was a shock to everyone, but particularly to Miss Beek, head of the dress making department of Robert Fair & Co. Miss Beek lived in London for eight years before coming to Peterborough, and she knew many of the residents there, and has a sister there now. She was very much alarmed about many of her friends, and the news that two of them were among the dead was a severe shock to her Miss Beek was acquainted with Mr. W. J. Hamilton, of Hamilton & Long, and Mr. and Mrs. Tanton Howett, who were among the dead, were great friends. Her sister however, is safe, as she was not in the affected district.

Miss Beek telephoned her sister this morning to have the news confirmed, and learned that the newspaper reports were too true. The city of London is in a great state of excitement and business is almost at a standstill. The people are wondering that the killed and injured did not number up in the hundreds, as those stores do a large business and frequently are crowded.

Fire destroyed a sawmill near Maxwell, Ont., owned by Irish & Scott and the insurance of $1,000 partly covers the loss.

Kingston Alderman Rode in Procession

On July 12th and Now There is Trouble in Store for Him

Kingston, Ont., July 16.—Alderman Timothy J. Rigney, lawyer, on July 12th attended at the mayor's office to the welcome extended visiting Orangemen, and later with other aldermen rode in a cab at the end of the procession. He is being criticised for his action, a writer in the Catholic Freeman calls his act "the most contemptible ever perpetrated, and merits the universal reprobation it is receiving. His act can be viewed in no other light than as repudiating his religion and casting an indelible stain on an honored name. He labored under a mistake to think it a means to political or professional success." The writer says the Catholic societies to which Alderman Rigney belongs will deal with him in due time and in a proper manner.

The 10,000 Club, deceased, certainly missed its opportunity. Yesterday our population was largely increased but the credit of this is due to Mr. E. A. Powers. Mr. Powers said there was a large number of children, but in the hustle and bustle he was unable to count them. He believes the contingent would number about sixty.— Port Hope Guide.

GOOD FISHING.

Mr. Alex. Paton doesn't go fishing as often as in the olden days, but when he does, he generally gets the goods. Last week, while trolling in the old river channel, he caught a 14 pound lunge. About the same time his son Scott, who was fishing off an old scow, landed, after a short struggle, a small-mouthed black bass that tipped the scales at 5 1-2 pounds and measured 18 1-2 by 13 inches. The fish were shipped to friends in Toronto. The bass will probably be entered in the Toronto Daily Star's bass competition.—Lindsay Post.

Eight Persons Crushed to Death In Collapse of Stores in London

Terrible Disaster Plunges London, Ont., Into Mourning.

Large Business House Wrecked—Steel Beams Snapped—Adjoining Building Crushed—Employes and Customers Had No Chance to Escape—Many Rescued From Debris—Number of Dead Not Yet Known.

London, July 17.—Causing one of the most horrible disasters which London has ever known, the building occupied by W. J. Reid & Co., on Dundas street, collapsed like a thing of cards, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

In the ruins were at once buried, under tons of debris, a number of employes and customers. The exact number is not yet known and, indeed, may not be for several days, until the debris is cleared away.

Not only was the famous Crystal Hall completely gutted and demolished, but the store of Hamilton & Long, and of Brewster, the "five and ten-cent" establishment, suffered greatly.

Both Messrs. Hamilton and Long are numbered among the dead.

It is said that there were in the neighborhood of 20 people at work on the building of Reid & Co., the gangs of Contractors Richardson and Wilson.

The work of rescue was commenced immediately after the cloud of dust had cleared away. The fire wagons and patrol, as well as the ambulance, were brought into service, and all did good work in helping in the work of rescue.

The first to be taken from the ruins was John Loney of 75 Cartwright street, who was immediately removed to Victoria Hospital in the ambulance, where it was found that he was suffering from deep scalp wounds, and is perhaps hurt internally.

Reid Building Collapsed.

From all appearances the east wall of the Reid building was the first to give way, and falling out with tremendous force went across the laneway separating the building from the photograph gallery, where it smashed into the five and ten-cent store, completely demolishing it and letting down the photograph gallery, which had just been moved into the second floor.

Fortunately fire did not add its horrors to the collapse.

Had this dread feature been added to the horror the extent of it would have been far worse, and many more lives might have been lost.

The cause of the disaster is given out to have been the weakening of the centre wall on the second storey. The steel beams are said to have been too weak and snapped, allowing the brickwork and masonry to give way and fall like a mighty avalanche from the west wall toward the east, sweeping toward the other stores, and carrying down an enormous weight of masonry and crockery from the Crystal Hall.

A Tremendous Crash.

Howard Houston was one of the survivors, and he said that the experience was an awful one.

Frank Smith escaped from under the wreckage.

J. Loney, W. Langham, E. Pinch and E. Fauler all fell three storeys and escaped death miraculously.

Immediately following the disaster a great crowd surged down from all the streets in the vicinity, and swept past the policemen and joined in the work of rescue.

Frank Reid, manager of W. J. Reid & Co., said that he and Mr. Dromgole were standing inside the store when he heard a terrific crash, as though tons of dynamite had been exploded. He immediately ran to the back of the store, and was caught for a short time, but managed to work his way out. Mr. Dromgole escaped through the front of the store.

Howard Houston was one of those employed at Reid's, who had a narrow escape. He was seen following the accident, and described the scenes as the worst he had ever seen.

He did not know how he escaped, and saw people struggling everywhere about him. On the sidewalk he thought there were several people caught.

Thrilling Scenes.

One stout woman was caught under two feet of bricks. She was brave as a lion when several persons, including E. Pennick, ran up to her and pulled her out by the shoulders.

Girls Caught In Ruins.

Shortly after 5 o'clock cries could be heard from the cellar of the Brewster store, and rescuing parties immediately rushed into the cellar of the Graves store, and there they found that three girls were imprisoned in the adjoining cellar, but could not move. They said they were not seriously hurt, but wanted fresh air and water.

From the rear of the Hamilton-Long stores cries could be heard from a lady and her small babe, who were pinned fast in the debris. It was thought she was the wife of Mr. Hamilton of the firm of Hamilton & Long. The babe was still alive, but all efforts to release them seemed to be of no avail.

They were all removed in safety within an hour.

The walls of the Graves store were condemned immediately by the city engineer, as they were in a most precarious state, and were liable to fall at any minute, placing the lives of all those in the neighborhood in a most dangerous condition.

The Dead.

John Robinson of Hamilton & Long.

Jos. Long of Hamilton & Long.

Mr. Hamilton of Hamilton & Long.

Mr. Lane of Hamilton & Long.

Said that there were ten customers in Hamilton store.

Probably six of gang at work on building.

Searching the Ruins.

Police lines stretched for a block on either side of the collapsed buildings last night.

The scenes of the disaster was wierdly lighted by improvised clusters of electric lights. The scene was as bright as day. Ropes, ladders, teams, and men united in tearing down and pulling away threatening portions of walls.

Shouts of warning came from the workmen as they dragged piles of lumber and plaster from the ruins. Men ran with heavy planks, calling out to their fellows to clear the path. Every man of them worked as if his own life was at stake.

Nothing was more striking in connection with the calamity than the escape of the pedestrians on Dundas street. It is believed that only two women were injured, although a large pile of debris still remains to be cleared away from the sidewalk immediately in front of the demolished buildings, and which may reveal a most gruesome story. But from all indications no more than two were injured seriously. One of them was Mrs. G. Crabb, King street. She was struck down by the cloud of bricks which fell and buried in a pile over two feet deep. She was rescued with difficulty by W. J. McLeod and a number of citizens. She was taken into the store of Gammage & Sons.

FORMER DISASTERS

This is not the first disaster of this kind that London has witnessed. In fact the Forest City and district has attained an unenviable notoriety in this regard. There was in the seventies the Komoka horror, in which many people were killed or injured in a burning train. Then in the eighties there was the Queen Victoria disaster, in which a flat-bottomed river steamer of that name, turned turtle on the Thames and drowned scores of the most prominent citizens and their families. The steamer went out loaded with passengers on May 24, and in order to witness a sculling match on the river, the passengers crowded to one side of the steamer. The officers tried to get some back, but before this could be done, the boat turned over, carrying her living freight down, the upper decks pinning scores of people down below water, who might have escaped had they been free. The rescuers worked all night, and as bodies were recovered they were laid in a long row on the bank, forming, when morning broke, one of the most gruesome and awful sights London has been called upon to witness. In the next decade the floor of the City Hall gave way during the holding of a crowded public meeting, precipitating several hundred people into the into the ground floor and passage-way below. To add to the horror a heavy iron safe in one corner slid down the slanting floor and dropped into the hole on top of the struggling mass of humanity below. This disaster most nearly resembled the present, and it left its trail of suffering and horror until this day. The last notable accident near London, was the Wanstead collision, two years ago last winter, when thirty were killed. With these all fresh and indelibly printed in the memory the people of Canada wait in fear and trembling to hear what may be the outcome of this present event.

THE MOON WILL BE ECLIPSED

On Wednesday Evening of Next Week—Astronomical Notes

The moon will undergo a partial eclipse on the evening of July 24. The first appearance of the shadow will be a little after ten o'clock and about an hour and a half later, the eclipse will have attained its greatest magnitude, the shadow darkening about two-thirds of the moon's face. The spectacle will be highly interesting and well worthy of an hour's attention. A peculiarly pleasing feature on such occasions is the coming out of multitudes of stars which had been lost during the brighter moonlight. The moon will pass near Saturn on the 1st and again on the 28th, and near Mars on the 23rd. Jupiter, Venus and Mercury are now too near the sun to be satisfactorily seen. The earth was at its greatest distance from the sun on July 5th.

The Way of the Transgressor

Magistrate Dumble Shows No Leniency With Those Found in House of Ill-fame

Evidently His Worship Magistrate Dumble intends keeping Peterborough free from houses of ill-fame.

The two women, Mrs. Davey and Annie Whittaker, and the man and youth, Wellington Cannon and Harry Thompson, were meted out severe sentences at the police court this morning. They were taken into custdoy as a result of the raid by the police at 24 Parnell street, last Friday night.

In brief the magistrate's finding and sentences imposed were as follows:—

Annie Whittaker was adjudged an inmate of a house of ill-fame and was sentenced to the Mercer reformatory for one year.

Harry Thompson was fined $20 without costs or one month in jail on failure of the fine to be paid forthwith.

Mrs. Annie Davey and Wellington Cannon were adjudged keepers of a house of ill-fame and were fined $50 each and in addition to that the woman gets one year in the Mercer reformatory, and Cannon three months in jail at hard labor. On failure to pay the fine he will have to put in three months more in jail.

The lawyer who appeared for the prisoners made a plea for lighter sentences on the ground that it was the first time that any of the quartette had appeared in court and that the Whittaker girl was willing to leave the city and the two men to go to work. The magistrate was firm, however, and would make no change.

The two women wailed loudly as they left the court room.

MARRIED

WALKER—HAMILTON—On Thursday evening, July 11th, at the residence of the bride's brother, Rev. J. C. Speer, Toronto, Mrs. Carrie Hamilton to Cecil P. Walker, eldest son of Mr. Joseph Walker, of Berlin. Dr. Speer performed the ceremony.

Invitations will be issued to the different public bodies in the city and to several prominent citizens to take part in the proceedings on August 2nd.

OLD RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Harrison, Age 95 Years Died Tuesday

Special to the Review.

Havelock, July 17.—One of the oldest residents of this district died recently in the person of Mrs. Harrison, an old and much respected lady, at the residence of her son, Mr. Jas. Harrison. She was 95 years old and up to a year ago, was as hale and hearty as others are at sixty years. She came to this county when there were neither roads, nor railroads, and when they had to carry their grain for fifty miles to have it ground, and then come home with their load much lighter on account of the miller's charge. Her death will be regretted by large numbers in this town as she had many fast friends here.

Havelock, July 17. — Mrs. James Mack of Blairton, died at the family residence, Blairton, on July 15th, after a lingering illness of two years at the age of thirty-one years. The funeral will take place to the cemetery at Blairton, on Thursday afternoon.

OBITUARY

MRS. WM. MULLIGAN

A sad death occurred in Omemee yesterday, when Victoria Mulligan, relict of the late William Mulligan, passed away.

Two weeks ago last Thursday, the deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis which was the fourth attack. From the last stroke she never regained consciousness and her death was a great relief, although sad. She had lived in Omemee for over 20 years and was known and beloved by all. She was a faithful adherent of the Methodist church, was 65 years of age, and was born in Scotland, coming to Canada when a young lady. The surviving family are George W. Mulligan, 804 George street; Robert, of Omemee. Harry, of Rochester; Dr. Mulligan and Howard, of Ft. Coulonge, Que., and Mrs Adams of Lindsay.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Peterboro' Team to Play at Ottawa

In all probability the Peterborough baseball team will go to Ottawa during the week of the Old Boys' reunion to take part in a tournament for which a trophy valued at a large sum is offered for the prize. In connection with this matter, the Ottawa Citizen says:—

"Dr. Baird and George Taylor of the baseball committee yesterday handed in their list of teams to compete in the tourney. This list includes Montreal Reserves, Kingston Ponies, Valleyfield, Tupper Lake, Ottawa and Peterborough."

SEED COMPETITIONS

Messrs. Simpson, Rennie, Elliott and Raynor Will Likely be Judges.

There are 360 entries in the free seed competitions, which are being held this year under the auspices of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, says the Toronto News. Prizes to the amount of $1000 have been offered by the Government, and the judging of the barley and clover will commence in a few days. The judges will be selected by the Dominion Seed Commissioner, subject to the approval of Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture. It is expected that the following gentlemen will act: Mr. Simpson Rennie, Mr. Elliot, of Galt; and Mr. Raynor, of the Seed Department at Ottawa.

The judging will be done on a score card system, the awards being as follows: Freedom from weeds, 30; freedom from other varieties and other kinds of grain, 20; freedom from attack from smut, rust or insects, 15; apparent yield considering vigor of growth and uniformity; size of head, stiffness of straw, thickness of stand and state of maturity, 35. Total 100;

SERIOUS BLAZE AT MAYNOOTH

The village of Maynooth was visited at an early hour on Tuesday morning by the most disastrous fire in its history. Eight buildings were destroyed, representing a loss of about $20,000. The fire started in the building owned by Patrick Flynn, part of which was occupied by Jas. Stoneburg as a barber shop and pool room. Its origin is unknown, as the room in which it was first noticed was unoccupied, but was being fitted up for a store by Mr. Flynn. The village has practically no water supply, and as there was a strong northwest wind blowing it was impossible to check the progress of the flames. Wooton's store and Smith's hotel were reduced to ashes in an incredibly short space of time. Across the street Geo. Weaver's residence, in which the Metropolitan Bank had an office, was soon on fire, and also the house owned and occupied by Simon House. Everything on the north side of the street as far east as Miss Annie George's residence, was cleaned out, and it was only by almost superhuman efforts that the Presbyterian church was saved. Father McInerney, who was the first to notice the fire, hitched up his team and drove with all speed to W. G. Gibson's railway camp, about a mile and a quarter away, and gave the alarm. About 200 Bulgarians were soon on the scene, and it was due to their efforts that the village was not wiped out of existence. Doyle's hotel had a close call and it got a slight scorching as it was.

Mr. Wooton carried an insurance of $5,000 on his stock, but this will not nearly cover his loss. The contents of Smith's hotel were insured for $1,000, but we have not heard what insurance there was on the buildings, which was owned by Sam and Philip Green.

Mr. Weaver had $800 insurance, Miss George $300, and S. Rouse, $500. James Stoneburg is a heavy loser. He carried no insurance and lost everything.

Smith's hotel was crowded with borders, and they were obliged to beat a quick retreat.

Thousands of Women

ARE MADE WELL AND STRONG

Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Rests Upon the Fact that It Really Does Make Sick Women Well.

Thousands upon thousands of Canadian women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office, and prove this statement to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such widespread results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a century.

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine in the world so good for women's ills.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the female system, positively curing disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience that it will effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), falling, inflammation, ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration, or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Anyway, write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It's free and always helpful.

NUMBERING OF HOUSES

It is now recognized that, before the street delivery of mail matter can be inaugurated in Peterborough, there must be a proper and complete numbering of all the houses, while the names of the different streets will have to be posted prominently on each corner.

This work is absolutely necessary before the delivery system can be started. The city council cannot have the task attended to any too soon The post office department at Ottawa insists on such a condition being complied with, before undertaking the work that it has in view in Peterborough. This city is no exception to the regulation. In Guelph, Stratford and Windsor, the mail delivery system was to have been in operation during the first week in July. Stratford and Windsor will soon have regular delivery as it is understood that in these cities the houses have been properly numbered and the streets' names put up on each corner, as required.

In Guelph, the council was notified in January last that these stipulations must be met. Another notification was received in April, followed by still another in June. Yet the civic authorities appear to have been inactive and now Stratford and Windsor will have the delivery from door to door, before the Royal City.

Definite action should be taken in Peterborough at once. This city can profit by the experience of Guelph. It is morally certain that nothing will be effected in the direction of this great convenience and most modern method of mail distribution until all the dwellings in Peterbor- accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Calthe street names placed up at each intersection. It is not an unmixed blessing that such is the case, as it is high time that all the residences in this city were properly numbered.

At present many are not numbered at all, while the numerals on others are not correct. Street naming also needs attention. One, who is not familiar with the city, can go whole blocks and not see a street sign. It is often necessary for the stranger to make many inquiries before being able to locate the spot which he or she desires to visit This necessitates delay and inconvenience, while the information received from those who pretend to know, is not always reliable.

By all means let the city council undertake the work of properly numbering the houses, and naming the streets, with all possible speed.

PEN POINTS

It might be noticed that the Bell Telephone Company's poles are being painted, and the work will all be completed, provided the summer is long enough.

It is time that the old plank sidewalk inside the new granolithic walk on Water street, between Dublin and Antrim streets, was removed. It serves no good purpose and is rather an eye sore.

It is stated that street delivery of mail will be inaugurated in Peterborough by December 25th—a sort of Christmas present then.

Never mind the matter of a strike among the miners in Cobalt. The glad tidings are received that the Blairton iron mines are again to be worked. The many residents of Peterborough County sincerely hope that the report is well founded.

The Guelph City Council sat until 12.15 o'clock on Monday night before adjourning, and the Herald says that is a record breaker. In Peterborough a session of the civic daddies which terminated by twelve o'clock would be a brief one indeed.

The false alarm fire fiend is still at work in Peterborough. Another fake summons was sent in last evening. It is too bad that the perpetrators cannot be caught and an example made of them. They should be visited with the full penalty of the law. It is hoped that the police and firemen will be successful in their efforts to catch the villain. A long term in a penal institution, would, perhaps, cool the ardor of any one who thinks it smart to call out the brigade "just for a lark." Such a penalty would also act as a deterrent on others, who may be like-minded.

Inspector J. L. Hughes, of Toronto who recently returned from a trip to Great Britain, gives two remarkable incidents, indicating the need of educating the people of the old land in regard to Canada.

"Two English Public school teachers," he said, "who knew that I was from Canada, actually supposed that our flag was the Stars and Stripes. "Another case was that of a leading manufacturer, the largest, in fact in England, in his line, who stated that on account of the customs tariff he had been obliged to start a branch in Washington. 'By the way,' he said, 'Washington is in Canada, isn't it?'" Mr. Hughes was so thunderstruck that he was at a loss what to say, and concluded it was better not to say anything.

The City of Woodstock is to have a Board of Education to take the place of the present Collegiate Institute and Public school Boards. The city council unanimously adopted the idea, although the change was opposed by the members of the Collegiate Institute Board. The new Board of Education will be composed of ten members, nine to be elected by the people and one to be chosen by the Separate School Board. The new arrangement will take effect next January. In Peterborough one Board has looked after the Collegiate Institute and Public schools for years, and the arrangement has worked well. Where two boards exist there is apt to be friction, jealousy and strife, and anyway, the work in the smaller centres is not so laborious that it requires two public bodies to supervise the educational interests.

What every town needs are loyalty, public spirit and confidence. Without these no place can make progress. They are important factors in upbuilding any community, and the following from the Woodstock Express will apply with equal force to Peterborough, as well as other centres of activity; "Berlin is recognized as one of the most progressive towns of the west, and what is the secret of its success? Here it is; The citizens of Berlin patronize home industries, and thus contribute in a practical, co-operative manner in building up the town. It is essential to the town's well being that the citizens of Woodstock should be more loyal to their home institutions. They should make all their purchases from local houses and thus leave their money in Woodstock. It is money that makes the town go. It is like grist to the mill. Leave your money in Woodstock and you help to make the town. Leave it elsewhere and you aid in making other towns go, and thus take a retrograde step as far as your home town is concerned. The men who conduct our mercantile and industrial establishments are helping to build up the town. Their very existence is similar to that of a propeller to a boat. They leave their money here and are contributing through wage earning devices towards the maintenance of the majority of homes. Thus it is that they should in return receive a kindly sympathy and support at the hands of the public."

Splitting Wood; Struck His Foot

Mr. Ed. Minicolo Met With Painful Accident

Mr. Ed. Minicolo met with a painful accident one day last week while engaged in splitting wood at his place in North Monaghan. The axe glanced and struck his right foot, splitting the big toe to such an extent that it required five stitches to close the opening. Mr. Minicolo suffered considerable pain. He was able to drive up street today for the first time in several days.

Rumors Implicate Women in Lindsay's Sensational Case

Miller's Arrest Said to be on Suspicion Only—Question as to Who Will Try the Case—Many Stories Afloat—Prisoners Arrived From the Soo.

Lindsay, July 16.—Prominent citizens deplore the unenviable notoriety forced on the town by the recent arrests on charges of counterfeiting. From end to end of the fair stretch of farmland known as Victoria county, the story of the alleged counterfeiters is on everyone's lips. "Disgraceful," a business man remarked concerning the undesirable prominence being given Lindsay. Last evening was band night at Victoria park. Every group on the park it would be safe to say, discussed the remarkable developments of the past week. One young man vouched for it that he was afraid to leave the town to go on his holidays for fear of creating suspicion. This merely instances the number of rumors spread and how easily they are formed.

ARE WOMEN IMPLICATED.

A report spread yesterday stated that two or more women were implicated. This has not been confirmed. Other wild rumors are flying.

Regarding the detention of Miller, some say that it is merely on suspicion. His almost irreproachable character previous to his arrest makes it hard for his acquaintances to imagine him guilty. He had rented a cottage for the summer at Pretty Pleasant Point on Sturgeon, and there he lived with his wife and child, coming up on the boat in the morning and going back again after his day's work was done.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Counterfeit bills are scarce around town, but are eagerly sought after as souvenirs. Some of the bills are a trifle shorter than the real bills. It is thought that expert lithographers and photographers might have been implicated.

Four of the prisoners probably will appear before County Police Magistrate Moore, and the others before Town Police Magistrate Jackson. All depends on whether the offence, if any was in the town or in the county. Burke's house is in the town limits and Logie's just outside. If cases are made out against the prisoners in the preliminary hearing, they will probably be remanded to the fall Assizes, commencing on September 15th.

SAULT PRISONERS ARRIVE.

Lindsay, Ont., July 166.—Wynn and Bouyea unexpectedly arrived from Sault Ste. Marie this morning on the 11 o'clock train from Toronto. Detectives Parkinson and Rogers accompanied them. There was no scene as on the occasion of Logie's home-coming, as contrary reports were thrown out as to their arrival. Both looked dejected as they alighted at the G.T.R. station, and walked to the hack in waiting. They were not recognized until they were ready to get in the hack, when a flurry of excitement occurred among the few present. They were not handcuffed, but walked quietly beside the detectives. Wynn was dressed in brown corduroy velveteens and wore a slouch hat. He looked a typical farmer with his long black beard. Bouyea had his cap pulled down over his eyes and wore glasses.

They were immediately driven up back streets to the county jail. There are now in the Lindsay jail Burke, Logie, Miller, Goslin, Bouyea and Wynn. Eveleigh will complete the septet. He will be here shortly. The train was late in arriving, being delayed on the way by an accident to the engine.

The Horse is Still King of the Highway Hereabouts

Local Doctor and Man Driving Auto Had Lively Argument Near the City—Later Came Out Second Best

The man with the auto is not king of the highway around Peterborough. The man behind the horse whether it be a $1000 racer or a $35 dray plug takes preference over him who rides in gilded car. That this is so was demonstrated on a road near the city a couple of days ago, when a local doctor who was driving along the highway with a spirited colt met another Peterborough man who owns an auto and who was out for a spin in the country. The doctor was accompanied by a friend and when he saw the auto approaching and the colt started to pick up its ears, he stopped jumped out of the buggy, and standing in the middle of the road, motioned to the man who was driving the car to stop. But the auto came on steadily although the speed had been slackened. Meanwhile the colt pranced. The doctor's ire was aroused; he picked up a large stone and shouted to the chauffeur that if he didn't stop he would hurl the rock at the car and its driver The medical man stood in the middle of the road and the car was brought to a standstill about five feet from him.

"What are you going to do with the stone?" asked one of the motoring party.

"Let it fly at you and the auto," was the reply.

The doctor still held down the middle of the road, and no doubt would have made good his threat. "Now turn off that gasoline," he continued and the chauffeur hastened to do so. The chug-chug of the machine stopped.

"Now stay quiet until I go past" said the doctor. He jumped into his buggy and drove the prancing colt by the gasoline craft and continued on his way triumphant. The auto party also continued on their trip.

According to the law, the doctor was well within his rights in demanding that the automobile be stopped. The horse is still king of the highway and the chauffeur must stop just as soon as a person driving a horse signals him to do so. Persons driving autos should bear this in mind.

LETTERS OF CONDOLENCE

President Riddell referred in feeling terms to the death of two late members of the board in the persons of Jas. A. Young of Smith, and Robt. Tudhope, of Birdsall, vice-president of the board, both of whom have passed away within the past few days. On motion it was decided that a letter of condolence be sent to the families of the deceased.

Mr. Tudhope's death having made vacant the position of vice-president, Mr. John Coughlin, salesman for Ormonde factorry, was unanimously elected to the position.

The president called attention to the fact that the board fee of $1 per member was now payable and would be gladly received by the treasurer, Mr Hawthorne.

The Board adjourned for two weeks.

Ten Bodies Taken From Wreckage

Latest in the Awful Disaster in London—Appalling Scene

Special to the Review.

London, Ont., July 17.—The bodies of Messrs Hamilton and Long have been removed from the wreckage of Reid & Co's store, after one of the most memorable struggles ever fought by human hands. This makes ten bodies taken out so far.

The remains of Mr. Long were extricated with difficulty shortly after 3.30 o'clock this morning. The head had been terribly crushed and the body was recognized only by rings on the fingers.

Mr. Hamilton's body also was found at an early hour. It was stated this morning it had been discovered that the bodies of three young men still remain in the wreckage, but this report could not be confirmed. This would leave the number still missing to be five.

The patients at the hospitals are all doing as well as could be expected, but the physicians in attendance say there is danger of reaction from nervous shock

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, July 17.—Opening prices in the stock market was unchanged to a fraction higher with the exception of the Hill stocks, which were up 1-2 to 3-4. Immediately after the opening heavy buying of Union Pacific and Northern Pacific advanced them over a point, and the general market rose in sympathy. The metal shares were laggards, however, and after the first bullish demonstration was over, Copper and Steel sagged off and brought a small reaction in the railway list.

Reading was manipulated and held strong by buying from Philadelphia, the stock being tipped for an advance from different quarters. Pacific Mail rose to new high fence figures again. The buying seemed persistent, although there was no news accompanying it. The Levy crowd was reported buying Canadian Pacific in an effort to force on old short interest, to cover which carried the stock to 178 1-2, and then it reacted to 177. London sent over irregular prices mostly below parity. The rise in U.P. was accompanied by the story that the earnings to be made public today would show over 16 per cent earned on the stock.

The continued weakness of Steel, Common and Amalgamated Copper in the afternoon gave the market a heavy tone, and it sold off sharply. The close was heavy.

George Armstrong Found Dead In Old House Back of His Farm

Was Missed Sunday Morning and Was Not Found Until Monday Evening—No Marks of Violence—Paris Green in Another Room—Dr. Gray Holding Inquest

The people of Havelock and the district surrounding that village, have a sensation of their own, in the mysterious death of George Armstrong, who lived on a farm about six miles north east of the village, on the Norwood road. The deceased was a single man and lived with his father, on the farm. He was missed by the members of the family Sunday morning, and enquiries were made all day and evening and a search carried on, but no trace of him was found. On Monday the search was continued and late that afternoon he was found by his brother, William, in an old house on the back of the farm, which had been vacated for years He was sitting on the floor against the wall and was dead and had been for some time.

The family and neighbors were greatly shocked, and could not imagine what had happened to him. Dr. Crawford, of the village, was notified, and he saw the body within an hour after it had been discovered. The old house was searched and in another room was found a tin in which was some Paris Green and a spoon and on the floor were signs of some one having been sick from taking Paris Green The doctor examined the man's mouth and throat, but could find no traces of poison, neither could any marks of violence be found upon the body. The death was a most mysterious one, and none of the members of the family could give any reason for it.

If it was a case of suicide, the cause is unknown, as Armstrong had always been a good, steady fellow and, according to the family, always got along without any trouble with anyone. He had never shown any signs of melancholy and when last seen alive was no different than usual.

Dr Crawford notified Coroner Dr Gray yesterday morning about ten o'clock, and he left on the noon train for Havelock, and from there drove out to the farm, where he ordered an inquest to be held. A jury was got together, with Mr. John Sexsmith as foreman.

Only one witness, Dr. Crawford, was examined, and the hearing was adjourned until Monday at one o'clock in the town hall, Havelock. In the meantime Dr. Crawford and Dr. Kindred will perform a post mortem after which the remains will be buried in the Havelock cemetery.

Besides an aged father, a stepmother and several half brothers and sisters, are left to mourn his loss.

Steamer Kawartha Won Board of Trade Prize

Special to the Review.

Orillia, July 16.—The Steamer Kawartha, Captain Burgoyne, brought an excursion party into Orillia from Fenelon Falls today, thereby winning the flag offered by the Board of Trade, to the first steamer to bring an excursion into this port from the Kawartha Lakes by way of the Trent Valley Canal. The Kawartha started from Fenelon Falls at 7.30 a. m. and reached here at 5.30 p.m., stopping for two hours at Kirkfield lift lock. She had twenty passengers on board including several ladies. The excursion was organized by Mr. R J. Moore of the Fenelon Falls Star, an old Orillian. The Kawartha will make the return trip tomorrow.

Many Cases on Blotter At the Police Court To-day

Wife Told Sad Story of Non-support by Her Husband —Youths Fined for Bad Behaviour at Jackson Park—Other Cases.

There was a big grist to grind at the police court this morning, but Magistrate Dumble kept the wheels turning rapidly and cleared the docket in less than an hour.

A NEW TILE.

R H. Tile, a stranger in town, appeared in court, with his left optic in deep mourning.

"You are charged with being drunk and disorderly in a public place," read the charge.

"Guilty," was the answer.

"You are fined $2 and costs, $5.75 in all," was the magistrate's verdice "or, if not paid forthwith, ten days in jail."

Some one in the court room produced the necessary coin to pay the fine and Tile departed, a free man.

HARRY IN TROUBLE.

Harry Seddon, who hails from England's fair shores, was charged with vagrancy. He pleaded not guilty and while it was shown that he had not been making the best use of his talents, the magistrate allowed him to go, on a promise from Seddon that he would go to work It appears that Seddon was married a short time ago, but for some reason or other, his wife left him, and he has been drinking considerably of late. Harry appeared deeply penitent, and promised to go to work at once.

CUT UP AT THE PARK

Three youths, David Smith, Alfred Pittsburg and Ernest Emmerson, were charged with being disorderly at Jackson Park on the night of July 9th. Smith and Pittsburg put in a plea of not guilty, but Emmerson acknowledged his wrong doing.

P. C. Newhall, who arrested the boys stated that the trio before the magistrate, along with several other young men, had made themselves a nuisance at the park on the night in question, by throwing grass and lumps of earth down among those who were watching the moving pictures and also by using foul language.

Smith and Pittsburg denied using foul language or throwing grass, but Emmerson admitted that he had tossed some of the verdant sward around.

Each of the three was fined $2 and costs, amounting to $4.60 apiece and at the same time His Worship gave them some advice as to how to conduct themselves at the park in future. All paid up.

NON-SUPPORT OF WIFE

A strong, able looking man, of about 35 years of age, pleaded not guilty to a charge of non-support of his wife and family. His wife was put into the box and told a sad story of neglect by her husband. He had not been working for two weeks and had not brought any food to the house in that time. There is a family of several small children and for the past few days they had to depend on outside assistance for their meals. The husband had been laid off at the Cordage Company two weeks ago, but was to have gone back to work on Monday of this week. He got drunk instead, leaving his wife and children without food or money.

The magistrate remanded the accused for one week, on condition that he go to work at once, and provide for his family in a proper manner. If he does what is right in the meantime, he will likely be allowed to go.

AN OLD FRIEND

Wm. Richards, who has become quite a familiar figure in police circles, again faced the bench, having been remanded one week ago.

Richards is almost deaf and had to draw nigh unto the magistrate "to hear what he might say."

"You're always getting drunk, and you're a nuisance in the community," shouted His Worship in Richard's right ear.

"Eh!" said Richards, unable to catch the complimentary things that were being said about him.

Whereupon His Worship gave the accused some forcible advice, delivered in stentorian tones. Richards promised faithfully to go to work at once and stop drinking, and he was allowed to go. Richards' wife is now in jail.

EXCURSION TO NIAGARA FALLS

Foresters Had a Good Day and a Big Crowd—Many for Toronto

The Forester's Excursion to Toronto and Niagara Falls this morning started off with every indication of being a huge success. When the train pulled into the C.P.R. there were about four hundred people waiting to get up and those with those already on, packed the coaches to their limit. Arrangements were made however, to put on more cars at Burketon, so that the journey would be made in comfort from that point on. When Toronto was reached the crowd divided, some staying in the city, but it was such a pleasant day that the majority took the trip across the lake to Niagara and the electric cars to Niagara Falls and Victoria Park.

.WEAK MEN AND WOMEN

The Most Perfect Restorative Known and Invigorating Tonic Vitalizer —Greatest Health-Renewer

Nature's greatest cure for weak, pale men and women is Ferrozone. It is invaluable for run-down, overworked, delicate people, and will restore them to robust health more quickly, at smaller expense, than any other tonic you can select.

We quote the following cases to show what Ferrozone has done for others. In your case it will act just as efficiently:—

FOR BUSINESS MEN
The Experience of a Well-known Lawyer Proves Ferrozone an Ideal Tonic.

Mr. N. W. Burks, a well known lawyer in Meriden, says:—"When I first took Ferrozone I was in a nervous run-down condition, almost sick enough to give up work. I lacked strength, and felt as if I could not get down to work. Ferrozone at once gave me a good appetite, and drove away the nervous, apprehensive feelings that formerly made my life miserable. As I continued the use of Ferrozone I grew stronger, and am glad to say it has brought me back to perfect health. I know that Ferrozone is an excellent tonic for business men and people inclined to a sedentary life. I can recommend it to such."

FOR NERVOUS WOMEN
Nothing Compares With the Nerve-Strengthening Power of Ferrozone.

Mrs. E. D. Emmerson, of Centreville, says:—"I am glad to think that there is at least one honest remedy for nervous people. No one can imagine what I suffered with my nerves, and I sometimes wonder at the number of useless prescriptions and medicines I took. But Ferrozone acted differently from all the rest. It built up my system, and gradually the irritability left my nerves, and I got well. Ferrozone cured me by removing the cause of my trouble, and by giving me enough additional strength to overthrow the attack of nervousness. I can recommend Ferrozone strongly."

THOUSANDS ANNUALLY CURED BY FERROZONE

If you want to get well and keep well, by all means use Ferrozone. If you suffer from insomnia, nervousness, debility, loss of appetite, poor digestion, or any other symptom of disordered blood, nothing will tone up and vitalize your system like Ferrozone. Latest on the London Disaster; Seven Bodies Taken From Ruins

Brave Men Worked in Peril to Reach Them.

Statement by Owner of Building—Inquest Next Week—Will Be Most Searching Enquiry—Calamity Said to Be Due to Carelessness—Trying to Fix Blame—Suits For Damages Will Be Entered.

London, July 18.—After a day and a night of terrifying struggle for the victims of Tuesday's frightful and ruinous distress, when Reid's Crystal Palace crashed, carrying calamity and death, seven bodies have been taken from the ruins of the chaotic wreckage.

The last body taken out was that of Clara Mullins, the beautiful girl victim, which was recovered exactly 24 hours after the shock shook London. This completes the list of dead.

Yesterday, under the direction of Alex. MacCallum, an investigation, which will be most searching, was instituted. The following well-known citizens and business men were sworn in as jurors to conduct an inquest into the death of William J. Tamblin and W. T. Hamilton, and fix the blame; Fred Wood, dentist; William J. Curran, salesman; William Gibson, clothing manager; H. A. Sabine, furrier; B. C. Brown, shoe merchant; Robert Kingsmill, dry goods merchant; George Andrews, salesman; N. W. Emerson, druggist; Fred Crabb, manufacturer; John Friend, confectioner; F. J. Darch, seed merchant; John Graham, gent's furnisher; B. J. Wright, hat manufacturer; Finlay Marshall, insurance manager.

The inquest will be opened next Wednesday evening.

That the calamity was a carelessness everyone believes. City Engineer Graydon is blamed. Why had he not inspected the building and seen to it that the work of renovation was rendered absolutely safe? Then the contractors are blamed. They, in turn, say that they followed the plans of the architect. Peter Simolies, the Greek who had rented the building, is blamed for urging on the work. And, last of all, W. J. Reid, the wealthy proprietor of the store, is censured because of the amount of crockery piled on the third storey.

Mr. Reid's Statement.

Mr. Reid, owner of the building, was not at home when the accident happened.

"I did not know a thing about it," he said, "until nine o'clock this morning, when I picked up a Toronto paper. I would not care about the money, but to think of the lives lost is too horrible. It can't be the fault of the building. It was built about 25 years ago. The best material was used. It was very strongly built. Only the other day several old citizens happened to remark on it, and their one verdict was that it was one of the best built structures in the city. As for being overloaded, that must be a mistake, as only small stock was carried under the circumstances."

Will Claim Damages.

Engineer Graydon is said to have prophesied there would be trouble if the plans were adhered to. His duties are not those of building inspector, although he did inspect them and granted permits.

The matter of damages is creating talk. Brewster has already declared that he will sue for damages for his losses. Friends of the deceased are bitter, and declare they will seek restitution for the loss and suffering.

In the meantime, the authorities have ordered the rest of the building torn down. So far it has been impossible to get men to undertake the job. Other buildings may be endangered in the process.

The millionaire shoe-shine king, Peter Simolies of Grand Rapids, lessee of the Reid building, will be on hand at the investigation. Simolies is inclined to take a lenient view of the disaster, in the fact that the contractors took all the necessary precautions. To this man it seems attention is not turned. Simolies leased the building from Reid, to take effect July 15, at $8,000 a year, and Mr. Reid, it is said, will claim that he had vacated the building and also that it was against his specific instructions that alterations were made at the point where the building collapsed.

The body of Miss Mullins was found at 4.30 yesterday. She was found sitting with pencil in hand, just as if marking down a sale. Several of her relatives were at the scene, having kept their vigil since the building collapsed.

Verdict of Murder.

Quebec, July 18.—It now appears that the man, Anselem Gaudreau, or Bernier, who was found Tuesday at St. Eugenie, L'Islet, with his head crushed and bearing other marks of violence was murdered.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of unpremediated murder against Edouard Bernier of St. Eugenie.

A Broken Pledge.

London, July 18.—Some remark has been occasioned by the ease with which Lord Elgin's amendments to the British North American bill went through the Lords Tuesday night.

Not a single word of objection was raised, nor a single protest against securing the abandonment of Winston Churchill's pledge to British Columbia.

Died From Blows.

Ottawa, July 18.—The inquest on Edward Roylan, who died at St. Luke's Hospital July 1 last, was concluded last night.

The jury rendered a verdict that the man died from the effects of blows given by Hunter, the bartender at the Vendome Hotel, Haileybury, on June 12.

Lynched for Assault.

Oklahoma, July 18.—Frank Bailey, a negro, was lynched by a mob at a small town 25 miles northeast of here, for assaulting a railroad man.

HAYWOOD SIDE TO RETALIATE.

May Have Certain State Witnesses Arrested For Perjury.

Boise, Idaho, July 18.—Haywood's attorneys are likely to retaliate on the State by having certain witnesses arrested for perjury. At the opening of the court yesterday morning the defence requested that Detective D. C. Scott, Sheriff Rutan of Telluride and Wm. Dewey, a non-union miner, be held within the jurisdiction of the court.

Prosecutor Hawley complained of slight illness and asked for recess, which the Court denied.

The taking of rebuttal evidence was resumed, O. M. Hackett of Telluride being called to tell of the labor troubles that existed At Chicago.

SEEKS MODUS VIVENDI

Newfoundland Controversy Still in Unsatisfactory Shape.

Future Friction Is Feared As New Season Draws Near—Permanent Settlement Difficult — Newfoundlanders Want Hague Tribunal to Deal With Matter—Mutual Concession Needed.

Washington, July 18.—The approach of the first of August, marking the beginning of the new herring fishing season on the coast of Newfoundland, is a matter of great concern to the State Department, for it finds the fisheries controversy between America and Great Britain in a most confused and unsatisfactory shape. The modus vivendi entered into last year, by the terms of which, and greatly against the wishes of the Newfoundlanders, American fishermen were permitted to ply their vocation unmolested off the shore of that island, expired with the close of the fishing season.

It was the expectation of both the American and British Governments that before the opening of the next season some permanent arrangement could be reached that would remove all future friction on this score. The Newfoundlanders, however, were insistent upon their right to legislate locally for the fisheries so long as they did not in terms discriminate against Americans, claiming that in so doing they were not infringing the treaty rights of the Americans. The British Government has apparently been driven finally to concede the soundness of this contention, or at least it has been negotiated through Ambassador Reid on that basis.

Indications yesterday were that it will be difficult to reach any kind of a permanent settlement of the trouble, and the whole effort of the negotiators is apparently concentrated for the moment on the drafting of some form of modus vivendi to guard against the development of friction on the fishing shore that might in the end mean serious results. The fact is that the occasion is one that calls for much mutual concession if there is to be a new modus vivendi, and the Newfoundlanders are not anxious that should be until they have some sufficient assurance that they can have a satisfactory permanent arrangement. To that end they have suggested a reference of the whole subject of conflicting treaty and legislative rights to the permanent Hague tribunal.

CAID MACLEAN'S PREDICAMENT.

Tribesmen Decide to Hold Him Captive For the Time.

Tangier, July 18.—Alarmed at the news of the elaborate military preparations of the Moroccan officials, the Elkmes tribesmen were on the point of handing over to the imperial authorities the brigand, Raisuli, and Caid Sir Harry MacLean, whom he is holding in bondage, when they finally decided to refer the case to two Ulemas renowned for their wisdom.

The two sages happened to be friends of Raisuli, and pointed out that the brigand acted only in the interests of the tribes in capturing Caid MacLean.

They advised the tribesmen to do nothing but leave the matter in the hands of time and God, which the tribesmen decided to do.

ROYAL VISIT TO ICELAND.

King Frederick to Call On His Disturbed Subjects.

Copenhagen, July 18.—King Frederick of Denmark is soon to make a notable trip to Iceland for the purpose of trying to improve the relations between Iceland and the mother country.

The Home Government recognizes that for a long time there has been a strong movement among Icelanders for a separation.

One of the points on which the separists insist is a special Icelandic flag, and the members of this party propose to raise the flag on public buildings during the royal visit.

King Frederick will leave Copenhagen on July 24. The whole trip will last a month.

FALLS FROM SEVENTH FLOOR.

Hits Man on Sidewalk Who May Also Die.

Utica, N. Y., July 18.—Chas. Stucka, a well-to-do Pole, fell or jumped from a window of the seventh storey of the Mann Building, in this city, yesterday and was almost instantly killed.

The body in its descent struck Joseph Matthews of Macy, who was passing. Matthews was taken to an hospital with a lacerated skull, a sprained angle and internal injuries. His recovery is doubtful.

Stucka may have seated himself on the window sill and fallen out, or he may have jumped. He leaves a wife and three children.

Arctic Weather In Austria.

Vienna, July 18.—A sudden cold wave has struck Austria-Hungary. Ten degrees of frost was registered here yesterday, and severe floods are reported from various places.

A cold rain is falling and there is much snow in the mountain districts. Summer visitors at mountain hotels are snowed in. The mountain railways are not working.

Such conditions have not prevailed before in 130 years.

Herd of Buffalo Decamp.

Winnipeg, July 18.—The ten buffalo in the city park stampeded yesterday and broke through the wire fencing. They swam the Assiniboine and returned to Silver Heights, their old stamping grounds, where they were kept for years.

Venezuela Won't Pay.

Brussels, July 18.—Venezuela has intimated that it will refuse to pay the $2,000,000 debt to its Belgian creditors. This decision is contrary to the finding of The Hague tribunal.

Lillian Cooper, a Galt girl of 16, is defying officers who have a warrant for her arrest as a horse thief.

14 HURT IN CAR CRASH.

Trolley Runs Loose Down Grade Colliding With Another.

Butler, Pa., July 18.—Fourteen persons were injured, seven seriously, in a street car collision yesterday on the lines of the Butler passenger railway at the Standard Steel Car Works terminal.

The cars were running close down a sharp grade, both being crowded with workmen, when suddenly the brakes of the rear car let go and the motorman was powerless. The runaway car plunged down the incline, crashing into the forward car.

Carl W. Baxter had his left leg severed below the knee and right leg badly crushed, and Carl Krepps had both legs cut off below the knees.

MENELIK MAY FIGHT ITALY.

Abyssinia Preparing For War on the Italian Border.

Turin, Italy, July 18.—Despatches from the Italian colony of Erythrea, in Africa, state that it is feared that King Menelik of Abyssinia, is preparing to make war on Italy. He is organizing an army of 20,000, ostensibly for the purpose of restoring order in that part of Abyssinia close to the Italian border, but as his instalment of $2,000,000 to the king for the care of the Italian prisoners of the last war, had been paid, Menelik has now nothing to expect from Italy, and the pacifactory expedition is regarded as the merest pretext.

Dufferin Nominations.

Orangeville, July 18.—Nominations for the bye-election to fill the vacancy for Dufferin in the Legislature, caused by the death of Dr. Lewis, M.P.P., were held yesterday. The town hall was crowded. While eleven names were recorded with Returning Officer Patterson, only two, Mayor C. R. McKeown, the Conservative nominee, and Woods, Independent, remain in the running.

Mr. Woods, although endorsed by a convention of prohibitionists, appealed for support as farmers' representative. His friends last night were saying that he would carry the riding by 200. The Conservative organization, while not apprehensive, is not taking any chance of an "over confidence" apathy, and will work hard in getting out the vote a week hence.

Murdered by Italians.

Binghamton, N.Y., July 18.—A special from Norwich, N.Y., says:

Thomas Knapp, aged about 25, was murdered in this place Tuesday night and his body thrown down a steep embankment near the Chenango River bridge, where it was found yesterday morning. Two Italians are suspected.

Hot Baseball At Boys' Camp

"Pen Pusher" Writes Breezy Letter of What is Transpiring There

Y.M.C.A. Camp,
Clear Lake.
July 17th, 1907.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir.—Just a line to your estimable paper to tell you that things are still sizzling at our camp here, on Sandy Beach. This is without doubt the finest spot on the lakes for a camp of this kind. There is always something for the boys to do, and they always do it with a will.

The Baseball League is getting more interesting every day. The Chippewas still lead the League with four straight wins, and it is now a struggle between the other teams to see which will be the first to take the Chippewas' measure. They won from the Capitals last night after a hair-raising contest, by the score of 11—8. At the last innings the score stood 11—2 for the Chips, but the Caps dug in to win, and scored six runs, with a couple of men on bases, when the third man struck out and the game was over. Then the Chips won again this morning in what was easily the fastest and best game of the series, defeating the Tecumseh's 3—0. The game was a pitcher's battle, and had Fortye had as good support as Minorgan, the score might have been different. The batteries for the teams are,

Chips, "Minnow" Minorgan and "Buster" Layfield.

Caps., "Soap" Dingman, and "Cheeky" Martin.

Tecumsehs, "Fifty" Fortye and "Freggie" Parks.

When the boys are not playing ball they are amusing themselves in different ways.

A couple of nice 'lunge have been caught and sampled at table, and pronounced to be the best in the lake. Credit for this is due to Cook Arnott. He is certainly a wonder, and has surprises for the fellows every day.

Yesterday a large fruit cake was given to the campers by a lady across the lake, in one of the cottages. This was divided into four parts, a part for each section, and devoured before retiring. Thursday the boys will have a trip up the lake and Friday is visiting day, when the friends of the boys will be at camp. A couple of ball games are scheduled for that day and will be good ones.

The hours set apart for bathing are especially delightful for the boys. They are always anxious for their swim and perform all kinds of antics in water. One or two of the leaders are always in the water with them to guard against all danger of accidents.

A couple of young ladies across the lake have challenged No. 1 section to a boat race which will take place soon. They also sent a challenge to anyone in camp, with the exception of "Soap," whom they seemed to be afraid to row. But as he is a woman hater, anyway, it does not matter.

The cottages down the line are still a source of attraction for Buck, Cheeky, and Gold-tooth. In fact, things have come to such a pass that Buck and Gold-tooth are seriously contemplating spending a week extra on Sandy Point. As long as they do not desert the camp it will be all right. But then, as the lemonade and cake are very good down that way, they are not to be blamed for staying with it an extra week.

Well, I must close for this time, so thanking you for your valuable space, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
PEN PUSHER.

OSHAWA LOOKS FOR VICTORY

Will be Represented by Strong Team in Saturday's Game

Oshawa is bringing the strongest nine that has represented that town to Peterborough on Saturday, when they stack up against the locals in a Midland League game. The contest takes place at Riverside Park, and should be one of the best ever played here. That 9—5 touch still rankles in the breasts of the Peterborough team and they will go on the field for the coming game, prepared to take the measure of the visitors and in no half-hearted manner either. Oshawa is strengthening up for this game and intends to duplicate last Saturday's performance. Will they? That is the question which the local fans will flock in large numbers to Riverside Park to see decided. Quinlan and Burridge will be the Peterborough battery, which is a guarantee that Oshawa will have to go some to win.

Great ball is being played in the Midland league and the biggest crowd of the season should witness Saturday's match.

PIRACY UP TO DATE.

Dozen Men Hold Up Russian Steamer and Get Off With Good Booty.

Odessa, July 18.—The passenger steamer Sophia, which sailed from here on Saturday for Chorli, was held up 60 miles from port by armed robbers on board, who made a successful raid and escaped.

While the captain and passengers were at supper three pirates overawed them with revolvers. Two other stood alongside the wheelman and ordered him to lay his course for Odessa or be shot. About a dozen others went through the saloon and cabins and secured a cashbox containing $25,000 which the cashier of the Russian Bank of Foreign Trade was taking to Chorli, besides $500 belonging to passengers.

When nearing Odessa, the robbers disabled the engines, let off steam, destroyed one of the steamer's boats, launched the two others and escaped ashore. There is no trace of them.

MR. COCHRANE HOME.

Well Pleased With Results of His Trip to North.

Toronto, July 18.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines, returned yesterday from his trip to the north. His colleague, Hon. Dr. Reaume, stopped off for a day at Algonquin Park and will be home this morning.

Mr. Cochrane expressed himself as delighted with the results of the tour. The secession talk was confined to a very few individuals, but that the settlers had real grievances must be admitted. The nature of these grievances Mr. Cochrane and Mr. Reaume had learned and where possible a remedy would be applied.

The tour of the Ministers was no holiday jaunt. They held nine meetings in the two weeks in Rainy River and Lake of the Woods, and heard the representations of several hundred deputations.

WILL PUNSH SLANDERERS.

Legislation to Prevent Wilful Misstatements About Canada.

Ottawa, July 18.—The Minister of Justice will introduce legislation at the next session of Parliament to impose a penalty on anyone who wilfully and publicly slanders Canada.

The Immigration Department is already tired of the constant misstatements of dissatisfied immigrants.

There has been one prosecution already and a persistent policy of tracking down those who publish false statements concerning the country has been initiated.

British Admiral Falls Dead.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 18.—Admiral J. P. McLear, R.N. dropped dead on the piazza of the Clifton Hotel at Niagara Falls yesterday afternoon. Heart disease was the cause.

Admiral McLear, with his wife and niece, came to the Falls ten days ago to sojourn for a time for the benefit of his health. On Tuesday he accompanied Col. Cruikshank to the Lundy's Lane battle ground and it is supposed the emotion was too great.

The admiral collapsed while commenting with a party of hotel guests upon the beauty of the view from the piazza, and quite a commotion resulted among the ladies.

The remains will be shipped to England.

WHY TAKE HALF?

Mr. Choate's Query After Vote On U. S. Proposition At Hague.

The Hague, July 18.—The peace conference yesterday voted on the United States' proposition on the inviolability of property in war time.

Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy, Switzerland, Turkey, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Luxenbourg, Cuba, Brazil, Uruguay, Ecuador, Hayti, Dominica, China, Siam and Persia voted with the United States.

Great Britain, France, Russia, Spain, Portugal, Montenegro, Japan, Mexico, Columbia, Salvador and Panama voted against. Chile abstained from voting.

The population of the countries favoring the American proposition amounts to 804,000,000, that of the countries against it to 729,000,000 people.

Prof. De Martens said further that the United States' proposal did not have a majority of population if China was subtracted.

Several of the delegates then proposed the discussion of intermediary propositions made by Belgium, Holland and Brazil. To this Mr. Choate said:

"We carried the vote with an enormous majority; having had the whole, why should we take half?"

HEAVY LIBEL DAMAGE.

Soap Man Wins $250,000 From Two London Newspapers.

Liverpool, July 18.—The attempt made in the fall of 1906 to organize a huge soap combine in the United Kingdom, which rapidly came to an end under the pressure of adverse public opinion, had a sensational sequel in the Assize Court yesterday, when William Hasketh Lever, Liberal member of Parliament for the Wyrrall division of Cheshire, secured judgment for damages of $250,000 and costs against the Harmsworth newspapers, The Daily Mail and The Evening News, for libels published by them during the course of the controversy that followed the attempt to bring about the combination.

After a hearing that has lasted for two days, the defendants suddenly withdrew their plea of justification and agreed to pay the amount demanded.

Mr. Lever, it is declared, took a leading part in the efforts to establish the soap combine.

ASKED TO ABDICATE.

Korea's Emperor Charged With Imperilling Nation's Affairs.

Seoul, July 18.—The Korean Premier has asked the Emperor to abdicate because of his action in sending a deputation to The Hague.

The Premier was in audience with the Emperor for three hours. He made a strongly-worded representation of the gravity of the situation caused by his majesty's sending a delegation to the peace conference at The Hague. He boldly pointed out the necessity for the Emperor's abdication in favor of the crown prince, and of his proceeding to Tokio and apologizing to the Emperor of Japan. The Korean Emperor made no definite reply.

Although Korea is under an absolute monarchy, the democratic custom has existed since olden days of demanding the retirement from the throne of a sovereign whose conduct endangers the national welfare.

Liberal Wins In Hants.

Halifax, N.S., July 18.—The election to fill the vacancy in the local Legislature in Hants County, caused by the elevation of Hon. Arthur Drysdale, formerly Attorney-General, to the Supreme Court bench, resulted in the return of James O'Brien (Liberal) by a majority of 158 over Everett O'Brien (Conservative).

Drysdale's majority at the last general election over Everett O'Brien was 134.

Provincial prohibition and clean elections were the leading planks in the Conservative candidate's platform.

The fight was bitterly contested and a larger vote polled than at the general elections a year ago.

DORMITORIES FOR THE Y.M.C.A.

Carpenters Converting Two Class Rooms Into Four Bedrooms

The suggestion made at the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. a short time ago, to convert two of the rooms on the second floor, formerly used as class rooms into dormitories is being carried out. Men started to work this week, and the two rooms north of the lecture hall are being converted into four dormitories. This will give accommodation to four more young men, and as there are always many applications for rooms, the income of the association will be increased materially.

All City Property Should be Assessed at its Actual Value

Mr. Thomas McKee Explains His Method of Making Assessments—Values Generally Are Being Raised This Year--He is Prepared to Substantiate the Correctness of His Figures--Work Being Done in a Most Thorough Manner.

In reference to the letter of Mr. P. J. Fuller, which appeared in last night's Review, stating that Assessor McKee was raising the values of property in the south ward, without any warrant, and asking if he (Mr McKee) was instructed by the council or civic authorities to do so that gentleman was seen last evening.

"Yes," Mr. McKee replied, "I have read Mr. Fuller's letter, and I am not very much agitated over it. He inquires if I was instructed by the city council to raise the assessment on property. To this, I would reply that I received no instructions whatever from the council. I was not anxious for the position of assessor this year, and only when urged by several friends did I consent to put in an application. I am endeavoring to live up to an assessor's declaration of assessing property at its actual value, and I do not care who knows it. I am not going about it in any underhand method.

"I also admit that many properties have been raised in value, but I believe that very few of the parties complaining would care to sell at what they are assessed for. I am doing my work in a thorough and conscientious manner and following out the spirit and meaning of the new Assessment Act. I could have carried out the assessment this year with one-third of the work that I am doing, if the values were made along the same lines as in previous years. The closer you assess to the actual value, the more particular you have to be, as there is no danger of the man, who is assessed low, appealing, and, as you know, the fewer appeals, the less work for the assessor. I have gone over nearly every place in Wards 1 and 2, and measured each house. I also have plans of many of the dwellings both interior and exterior, and I know pretty well what property is selling for on each street, and what owners are asking for it. I am also familiar with the equipment of nearly every house, and what it possesses in the line of plumbing, cement flooring, etc.

"Now, if any property holder feels that he is assessed too high, he has perfect liberty to appeal to the Court of Revision or the judge. I think I am in a position to substantiate my figures, and establish the correctness of the values which I am putting on property. Our assessment slips read 'actual value of land, 'value of buildings,' 'total actual value of real property.' It is far better that a man should enter an appeal against his own assessment being too high, than that he should appeal against his neighbor's valuation being too low. I do not make the values. They are regulated by the demand, location, etc., and the Court of Revision cannot lower the assessment unless the owner can prove the assessed figure is above the actual value. I am not making fish of one and flesh of another. All are being treated alike. Another thing,—should a man be assessed for the full amount on his income and another on only two-thirds value of his property? Is it fair or just? Not a bit of it. Then should a man be deprived of his vote because he may be assessed too low. The law states that it requires $400 assessment to entitle a man to vote, and some have complained of losing their right to vote by reason of their property not being assessed at its actual value. If the man whose property is worth only $400 should be assessed at its actual value, then why not the man with much larger interests at stake. An assessor, if he can go twenty per cent, below the actual value with one man, can go fifty per cent, for that matter with another. His business is however, to assess property at what he believes is its actual value, and this is what I am honestly endeavoring to carry out. I believe in hewing to the line of actual valuation as nearly as possible and letting the chips fall where they will, whether in the Court of Revision or elsewhere."

NAVIGATION ON TRENT CANAL

Seven Boats Over New Lift Lock at Kirkfield

Yesterday was a record day for the Kirkfield lift lock. At least seven boats passed over, including several passenger boats.

The tug Bob Hall is at present in dry dock at Bobcaygeon, undergoing repairs to its propellor shaft which was slightly bent on the boat's last trip.

Capt. R. M. Roy is enjoying a holiday cruise in his boat R. M. Roy, liday cruise in his boat Rob Roy, around Stony Lake.

NEW SIGNS

All the lock houses along the Trent Canal have been supplied with new gilt lettered signs, designating the station and the number of the lock. It might be stated that this was really necessary at Young's Point lock, as many people passing through there on the boats, scarcely realized that it was the same village they saw there last year. A very great change has been wrought in the neighborhood of the lock by the department of railways and canals. In addition to the new piers, a new steel bridge and new rip-rapping, etc, all the government property has been neatly sodded and the lock house been painted, giving the whole neighborhood a very neat appearance, so much so that the general public cannot help but comment favorably upon it.

Mr Payne, of Lakefield, who has been appointed foreman on the construction of the new wharf at Wallace's Point, is now making preliminary arrangements for starting the work at an early date.

The tug Bob Hall recently made its first trip from Kirkfield to Holland's Landing, and towed with her several scows, which will be used on the work of the Holland Landing, and Newmarket branch of the Trent canal. Mr. Frank Morin, the capable captain of the tug, took his boat across Lake Simcoe and down Holland River without a pilot although this stretch of water is entirely new to the steamboat men of the Kawartha Lakes section of the canal. The people from Toronto, who are at Jackson Point and Roach's Point were interested in seeing a boat from Peterborough navigating the waters so close to Toronto.

London sent over irregular quotations of Americans, mostly below parity, but later on firmed up a bit. The overnight news was not sufficiently important to cause an increase of business and after the professionals had taken a position during the first hour the market became quiet.

HE FORGOT HIMSELF

Teacher Got in the Wrong Buggy But it Was of No Avail.

A good story is being told of a certain city teacher who drove up to a hardware store yesterday to make a purchase. There were three rigs in front of the establishment, and the pedagogue in coming out, appeared to be abstracted in his purchase. He did not notice where he was going and started to get in another buggy in which a woman was seated. She would not have it so, and reaching out her hand, gave the teacher a shove that suddenly brought him to a realization of his mistake. He made a hasty retreat for his own carriage where his wife was seated, and drove off rapidly, evidently feeling pretty sheepish.

DELIGHTFUL SPOT.

Speaking of the Hastings Methodist church Sunday school picnic to Jubilee Point, the Hastings Star says. "The grounds at Jubilee are in fine shape this year, and the management made no mistake in selecting the Point for their picnic, as everyone on the excursion seemed to be enjoying themselves, and Mr. Gilmour did everything in his power to accommodate everyone and help the picnic along."

NEW GASOLINE BOAT

Mr Robert Wright launched his new gasoline boat at the Otonabee boat house shipyards last night. He had a number of his friends down with him, and as the craft started to slide he stood upon the deck and exclaimed, "I pronounce the name of this boat 'The Bessie,'" and as he did so broke a bottle of beer on the bow. Then the boys all followed suit, but only one bottle of the ice cold liquid was wasted.

THAT MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Before the public support the excursion to be held on Friday next on behalf of the Children's Aid Society and Sick Children's hospital, it should be ascertained how the receipts are to be divided. The management of the Otonabee Navigation Company takes for itself 80 per cent. of the total receipts, and doles out 20 per cent. to the respective societies, Sunday schools, etc., under whose auspices the excursion is being held. If only 20 per cent. is to be given to aid these worthy institutions, the money to be spent on the proposed excursion under conditions as outlined above, might be spent to better advantage, on the two societies.

CHARITY.

COMMENDS THE MAGISTRATE

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Allow me to use your valuable columns to express my hearty gratitude to our worthy Police Magistrate Mr. Dumble, for the severe sentence he has given to the inmates of one of the houses of ill repute. If I am informed rightly there are many places like this in the city. Our police are doing their best in rooting these places out, and their efforts are appreciated by the good element of Peterborough. The action of Mr. Dumble is highly commendable, as it is in the best interests of the morality of our city.

Col. Scholtz's Death Was Purely Accidental, Said Coroner's Jury

Inquest Came to an End Yesterday—Mrs. Scholtz Was the Chief Witness—No One Knew Anything of the Man Getting Up—His Wife Missed Him at Midnight.

The inquest at Millbrook held to ascertain the cause of Col. Schultz's death on the night of July 12, came to a close yesterday, when the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death. Col. Schultz was the dog trainer for the Hargreaves cicus and about midnight Schultz fell off the train. He was found the next morning lying dead alongside the track about a mile and a half east of Cavanville.

Coroner Dr. Gray ordered an inquest and several witnesses were called, but none could give any information and how the man came to his end was a mystery to all on board the train. It looked at one time as if an interesting case would develop but no evidence was produced to verify the suspicions and the jury was dismissed yesterday afternoon.

YESTERDAY'S EVIDENCE.

The following witnesses were called and gave evidence yesterday afternoon.

Albert Elliott, the section foreman who found Schultz was the first witness called. He described the finding, which took place about nine o'clock on the morning of the 13th. He reported the matter to the station agent at Cavanville.

J. R. Robson, watchman for C. P. R. on the circus train was called but he could give no new evidence.

Mrs. Schultz, wife of the deceased was called. She said her husband's name was Magnus Schultz. On the night of the accident they went to bed a little after eight o'clock, and occupied the same berth. She did not hear him get up. She awoke at one o'clock and he was gone. She woke up several people and told them that her husband was gone but no one saw him get up. She did not know he was dead until the telegram arrived in Lindsay next day. She wanted to come to see him but the manager would not allow her to.

Constable Raper was sworn and said he examined the car, but could find no traces of blood or of any foul play.

This completed the evidence and the jury retired to consider the evidence. They were out about half an hour and returned with a verdict of accidental death.

Contractor in London Was Warned by the City Engineer

He Foresaw the Disaster But Had no Authority as City Has no Building By-law—People Seem Hypnotized

London, July 17.—At an early hour this morning a headless body was taken from the ruins. It is supposed to be that of Miss Mullins. With this the work of rescue seemed to slacken disappointingly. The day is unusually sultry and the night gang are wearied out. While there are plenty to take their places there seems no one to direct the work, though the body of at least one unknown man is still in the ruins. It is feared that there will be a further collapse of walls when more of the debris is removed.

The lad who was killed is not a son of Dr. Tamblin, Oxford street, as at first reported, but of Wm. E. Tambling, a carpenter, who resides on the same street.

People are still watching the ruins who stood there most of the night. London seems hypnotized by the disaster.

"MYSTERY," SAYS ARCHITECT

"It's a mystery to me," said Architect Wm. G. Murray, who drew the plan for the alterations. Contractor Wilson is thoroughly reliable, and I don't see where there was anything wrong with the plans. Of course, the building was an old one, and some say that the walls were not rebuilt at the time of the last fire. Our alterations involved was the removing of a 30 foot wall. This replaced by 4 iron pillars five inches in diameter and three-quarters of an inch thick. We used 15 inch eye beams. We also took out three or four windows on the second floor. I do not think that any of this work which had been done about a week, should have weakened the building sufficiently to cause the disaster."

Mr. Murray was just going into to building when the crash came, but was unhurt.

PROPHESIED IT.

City Engineer Graydon prophesied the disaster just the other day. He was going through the lane which separated the Hamilton and Long store from Brewester's. He says that three windows were being removed on the ground floor and three on the floor above, all fronting on this lane. He said to a brick contractor: "If you don't put steel girders in those windows, that wall will come down." The contractor said he would speak to some one about it.

"I believe," said Mr. Graydon, today, "that it was the wall fronting on the lane that fell first. It fell across the lane and smashed in the wall of the Brewester building. I do not think the weight of the crockery ware caused the accident. It was almost certainly the weakened wall

NO BUILDING BY-LAW

"London has practically no building restrictions outside of those preventing the building of frame structures in a certain district. There is therefore no inspection and only a general responsibility."

The visit of Mr. Graydon to the doomed building was made because of a frame elevator which was being constructed there. He told the contractor that this must be bricked in. His having warned the other contractor as to the danger of the wall collapsing puts the matter in a rather serious light.

A TIP TO THE CITY COUNCIL

The Peterborough Children's Aid Society is out after a new Shelter. As the present home on Charlotte street may have to be vacated on short notice, it is necessary that a new location shall be obtained in order that the good work which is being done may continue to progress. The society has about $1,000 that it can devote to the purchase of a new Shelter, and several prominent citizens have offered to assist the Society if it is decided to purchase a Shelter. With the money already on hand and the promised assistance there seems little doubt but that a building suitable for the purpose required could be erected and furnished if the property upon which to build it was available. A fairly large plot of land is necessary, as the children must have room to play.

The city corporation owns the Hilliard farm at the north end of the city. It is not far from the street car lines and is convenient in most respects. As far as can be learned it would make a good location for a Shelter for the Children's Aid Society. The city should be able to spare an acre or so, which would be all the Society would require for a site for the home. The city council will meet with the approbation of citizen generally if it will come forward with an offer to donate to the society sufficient land to provide a site for a Children's Shelter. The Review makes this as a suggestion. It is worth consideration at least.

Were Stranded In Trent Canal

Passenger Steamer Stuck at Lock No. 3

Barrie, July 17.—Two hundred excursionists left here yesterday morning on board the Islay for the Trent Valley Canal. When passing through Lock Three the shaft broke. The steamer was tied up all night. Provisions were scarce, some going without food until the boat landed here at 11.30 today. The passengers slept on the decks, the floors and tables. Food was bought from neighboring farmers by Captain McInnis who did everything for the comfort of the crowd. On reaching Barrie he was cheered lustily by the returned passengers and several hundred people who were anxiously awaiting the arrival of the boat.

Calm Follows Stormy Times

Only One Case at the Police Court To-day Which Was Somewhat of a Change

After the storm there comes the calm. Today's proceedings in the police court were of short duration, and appeared insignificant after the busy times of the three preceding days.

Several moons ago, on June 13th, to be precise, John Ryan, and John O'Brien, of Douro, met at the American House, and events led up to a fistic battle that started in the hall and wound up on the street in front of the hostelry. A policeman came along at the time and arrested the two Johns for being disorderly in a public place.

The case came up before Magistrate Dumble today and resulted in O'Brien being fined $1.50 and costs, amounting to $6.10 in all, while Ryan was discharged. O'Brien did not appear in court, having previously pleaded guilty. The fine was imposed as a result. Ryan was on hand and gave evidence, which showed that the other John was the aggressor and that he had merely defended himself. He did not want to fight, but O'Brien had made it impossible for him to avoid an altercation.

The Magistrate discharged him, saying there were times when it was necessary for a man to defend himself.

Lawn Tennis Club Held Fine Social

Brotherhood of St. Andrew Meeting—Several Picnics—Personal Notes

Special to the Review.

Lakefield, July 17.—The lawn social of the Lakefield Lawn Tennis Club was held on Friday night at the club grounds on Queen street. It was a great success in every way. The net profits amounted to over $30. The Citizens' band, which had been in Millbrook during the day with the local Orange lodge, returned in time to render excellent service at the social.

Friday last was a red letter day for the Orangemen of this vicinity, a large number taking part in the trip to Millbrook, to which place they were accompanied by the Citizens' Band. Everyone reports having had an excellent time at the gathering.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

A meeting to arrange for the establishment of a branch of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood was held at St. John's church on Friday last. It was decided that a tentative effort should be made for a short time before definitely forming a branch, along the lines laid down by the Brotherhood, with the object of determining more clearly the scope and character of the work required in the parish.

Mr and Mrs. B. R. Tate, Miss Gwyneth Tate, Miss Blomfield, and Messrs Clifford and Dunn, with a few Toronto friends, are enjoying the balmy breezes of Stony Lake at Mr. R. C. Strickland's cottage at Burleigh.

Mrs. R. C. Strickland is staying for a few days at the Burleigh Falls Hotel.

RECOVERING.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Butchart's young son, Frank, who sustained a bad fracture a fortnight ago by the falling of a heavy cement block on his leg, is getting along as good as possibly could be expected. It is hoped that in a few week she will have completely recovered from his accident.

The date of the annual picnic of St. John's church has been set for July 23rd. The holiday seekers will go by steamer Empress to Sandy Point, where the day will be spent. All are cordially invited to the picnic.

Mr. W. Strickland, Jr., of Toronto, was in the village on Friday last, paying a visit to his sister, Miss Strickland.

ANNIVERSARY.

On Thursday, July 25th, the anniversary tea will take place at Carmel Methodist church, near Gore's Landing, Stony Lake. Prior to that, on Sunday, July 21st, the anniversary service will be held. Rev. G. F. Metzler, of Bridgenorth, will preach the sermon. He will also take the regular service at Zion on that date. The annual tea will be quite a noteworthy affair, and addresses will be delivered by various ministers residing in the district. Stony Lake will send its quota of talented singers and musicians, and Miss O. Hunter, of Lakefield, will also assist in the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Jas. Campbell is building a new residence for himself and family at the corner of Queen and Regent streets.

Miss Percival, of Toronto, is staying in the village, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Langley.

Miss Reid, of Peterborough, and Miss Wood, of Bailieboro, are at present in the village, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tanner.

Miss Ethel Hayward, of Cobourg, arrived in Lakefield on Saturday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Hayward.

Mr. C. S. Tanner has purchased the house and property lately owned by Mr. Orlando Rogers, on Water street.

Miss Kenneally, one of our popular public school staff, left on Monday for Ottawa, to attend the Old Boys' reunion in that city. Whilst there she will be the guest of Mrs. J. C. Howard.

Miss A. R. Sewell, another member of the public school staff, is spending the summer with her family at McCracken's Landing.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC.

A most enjoyable picnic to Chemong on Saturday last was given by Mrs Wills to a number of her friends in Lakefield, prior to her departure with her family for the Northwest. About seventeen people partook of Mrs. Mills' hospitality, spending the afternoon on Chemong Lake, and returning home about 10.30 p.m. Mrs. Mills, who has been a resident of Lakefield for several months, left on Tuesday with her family for La Voie, near Edmonton, Alta.

Mr. Gerald Wilkes left Lakefield Friday last for Peterborough, where he is spending a few days' visiting friends.

Rev. A. W. Mackenzie and Mrs. Mackenzie returned to Lakefield on Friday last, after a pleasant two weeks' sojourn at Bobcaygeon. Mr. MacKenzie speaks in the highest terms of the hospitality and goaheadativeness of the northern village.

Mr. Grant, of the firm of John McKay & Co., chartered accountants, of Toronto, was in the village on Monday last, making the annual audit of the books of the Lakefield Preparatory School.

OTHER NOTES.

Mr. M. Quigley, of the Traders' Bank staff, who has been spending his holidays in Oshawa, returned to Lakefield on Monday last.

Mr. W. H. Bravender, of Hudson, N.Y., arrived in the village on a visit to his family on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bravender and family, of Syracuse, N.Y., are in Lakefield on a visit to the home of Mrs Bravender's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brown.

We are very sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mr. J. G. Brown. A few days ago he was was taken very seriously ill with pleurisy and had to be removed to the Nicholls Hospital in Peterborough. There is some improvement noticeable in his condition, but he is still in a dangerous state.

Notes From the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp

Baseball League Has Been Organized—Boys are Having Great Fun

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Clear Lake.—These are great days for the Boys' Y.M.C.A. Camp at Clear Lake. Every boy in camp is having the time of his life. There is always some to do, never an idle moment. A baseball league of three teams has been organized and everybody in camp, including the secretary, physical director and cook, is playing on one or another of the teams. Three games have been played so far, and although the scores are rather large, still the rivalry is keen, and the games provide fun galore. The teams are named Chippewas, Captain Buster Layfield; Tecumsehs, Captain Froggie Parks, and Capitals, Captain, Stevey Stevens. At present the Chippewas lead the league and Buster is elated. The Capitals come next, and hope to have a few more scalps on their belt by defeating the Chippewas in their game tonight. Next come the Tecumsehs, who though they have warriors, have worked so far under difficulties.

Boating, bathing and fishing are popular sports and enjoyed by all. The daily trip to the Juniper Island store, by boat every afternoon, is about four miles each way, and makes a good row. At night there is an occasional bonfire on the beach games are played on the athletic field and music provided by the cook, and his gramophone. The boys get to bed about 9.30, but not always to sleep. Camp may be very quiet one minute, and a fierce battle with pillows may be raging the next. Down the beach about a mile and a half are a couple of cottages, which seem to have a particular attraction for a few of the campers. Those who are affected the worst are Cheeky, Gold Tooth and Buck. Indeed, so infatuated are those mentioned that once in a while one may be seen coming in late for dinner or tea. But then this all belongs to camp life. On Sunday morning a number of boys with a couple of leaders rowed over to church at Juniper Island. Then in the evening a floating song service was held on the lake in front of the Y. M. C. A. tents to which a number of the cottagers around the lake were invited. Quite a number of families attended, and the service was very much enjoyed. A cabinet organ was placed in on one of the boats, so the singers were not without music. Altogether camp life is very enjoyable. The boys are always ready for grub, and all will be sorry when it is ended. Visitors' day will be on Friday of this week, and it is expected that quite a number of people will be up to the camp to see how the boys are enjoying themselves

Experiences Under an Old Apple Tree

A correspondent writes the Review, as follows:

To embalm one's experiences in verse is, I know, not commendable to a certain section of the reading public, but in spite of this, I am sending you the following to show that in the shade of the old apple tree other features in life crop up than luxury or romance. Features in life occasionally crop up, which are far removed from luxury or romance;

In the shade of an old apple tree,
I am told it is charming to be.
To sit in one's chair,
In the midsummer air,
In a fervor of rapturous glee,
Or deliciously drowse,
'Neath the sheltering boughs,
Till the angel called slumber, ah me!
Transports one to Asphodel's lea,
Where the wings of the blest,
Ever lull one to rest
As they flit o'er the mirror —like sea!—
To the deuce with the old apple tree.

I have sat 'neath the old apple tree
And have slumbered as sound as could be.
But I waked with a jump
When I got a big thump,
From an apple on nose and on knee,
And the wings I had heard,
It was really absurd—
Were the wings of mosquito and bee
And the hobits who climb,
In their sloth and their slime,
O'er the leaves of the old apple tree,
Had held a reunion on me.
The language I used
Will I hope, be excused,
Tho' I feel it was shockingly free.
And unfitted for Asphodel's lea,
But the purest young child
Would, I know, be beguiled,
From the pathway of virtuous glee,
If he got such a crack,
On his nose as, alack—
I sustained 'neath the old apple tree.

THE LONDON DISASTER

The sympathy of all Canadians will go out to the many homes in London that have been plunged in deepest sorrow owing to the collapse of a large mercantile building. The Forest City has, during the last thirty years, been visited by three appalling catastrophes, in which the loss of life has been most distressing. In consequence, the city has been called a calamity centre. The losses of life in the upsetting of the steamer Queen Victoria, on the Thames River in the early eighties the giving way of the city hall floor some years later, and now the wreckage of the Reid building, have been very heavy. In all cases, the heroism of the citizens in rescuing the dead and the dying, has been the only bright memory in connection with the affliction. The prompt actions of the spectators on Tuesday and on the previous occasions, have demonstrated that the spirit of gallantry and self-sacrifice, is not dead; that the surviving are prepared to risk life and limb for the saving of the helpless, and that there is in mankind, a deep and abiding desire to share in the suffering of the afflicted, and aid in the relief of those overtaken, as it were by the band of fate.

But, after all, this is poor consolation, and the question of fixing the responsibility for the disaster will have to be determined. If negligence or indifference can be shown on the part of the contractor, who was making alterations to the building, the architect, or the civic authorities, the punishment should be swift and severe.

The coroner is resolved to have a most searching inquiry, but the wonder remains that, after the floor giving away in the city hall building some years ago, that warning was not taken and building bylaws of a rigid character enforced to prevent a repetition of the disaster. But the previous fatality appears to have had no beneficial effect. The city engineer declares that London has practically no building restrictions outside of those preventing the erection of frame structures in a certain district. He further declares that there is no inspection and only a general responsibility. This is indeed a peculiar state of affairs, if true. The coroner also asserts the loose structure of the building was the cause of the terrible mishap, while the city engineer goes further and maintains that he has all along been trying to get a decent bylaw passed for the inspection of buildings.

To say that the building was an old one is no palliation. The alterations, it appears, involved the removing of a thirty-foot wall to be replaced by four iron pillars, five inches in diameter, and three-quarters of an inch thick. Three or four windows on the second floor were taken out. The city engineer says that he prophesied the collapse, and spoke to the brick contractor about the weakness of the wall fronting on the lane. Three windows were also removed on the ground floor and the contractor was advised to put steel girders in the windows. The contractor remarked that he would speak to some one about it, and that is apparently all that was done, nothing effective being carried out, although this discussion took place several days before the disaster. Human life is too precious to permit of such slip shod methods and violent deaths in all cities appear to be growing in number, instead of decreasing. The inquiry which will take in the building end of the disaster cannot be too rigid or too searching. Other cities may learn a timely and profitable lesson from the terrible visitation in the Forest City and give prompt and complete attention to the building regulations and the inspection of the structures in course of construction or undergoing renovation.

MUNICIPAL FINANCING

Guelph is not the only city having trouble in selling debentures, for the same difficulty appears to be general, says the Guelph Herald. The cities of Halifax and Winnipeg have both found that in these days of tight money it is easier to propose a few million dollars' loan than to effect it. Winnipeg has has been hawking her credit in every probable part of eastern Canada, and has, it is believed, also tried to place a loan in England, but with indifferent success. The city of Halifax has also had difficulty in securing favorable bids for her debentures, and, as a consequence, has decided to do the bond-broking business herself. She has, therefore, advertised thirty-three-year four per cent. bonds at $95, and no doubt expects to succeed by that measure where the practiced bond houses have failed. The authorities who decided to take this very doubtful step are evidently not too familiar with the prevailing state of the bond, or money, market, and the recent disappointments of American railways in floating bond issues at anything like a profitable price. The purchasers of the Halifax debentures will receive a return on the investment of a fraction less than four and a half per cent, an inducement which is not likely to cause a great rush to secure the scrip. Recently a Montreal private banking house offered ninety-four for Winnipeg's $3,000,000 thirty-year four per cent. debenture bonds, the last of the recent series put out by the city, less a half per cent, commission to the brokers. Negotiations have fallen through for one reason or another, and Winnipeg is understood to be still looking for a buyer.

The New York City fiasco is still fresh in the minds of the financial interests of both countries. Boston recently decided to sell her own bonds, with what success is not yet known. This bond selling 'over the counter" is naturally enough, much deprecated by the bond brokers. On this point the Financial Post of Canada, has pinted an interesting interview with a prominent bond broker in Toronto, showing that it is mistaken policy of a city to endeavor to sell its bonds in such retail manner. This interview sets forth the opinion that, while only a small proportion of the entire issue can possibly be taken up in that unusual manner the bond houses will, in the meantime, be placing the debentures of other cities. There is only a fixed market for bonds of the high class municipal sort, and the bond houses have built up a permanent, and, it might be said, a personal, clientele, with the bond buyers, most of whom are of the conservative type, which is not easily moved from a regular course of purchases, especially when the retail issue of debentures offers no more facilities than in the four and a quarter per cent returns given in the Halifax securities.

PEN POINTS

Another weekly half holiday is here. How quickly the weeks pass.

Keep a sharp lookout for the false fire alarm field and if you catch him show him no mercy until he evidences genuine repentance.

A report is published in London to the effect that the Government Committee has decided against the All Red Route. The report is based on lobby rumors.

The city is inviting tenders for debentures, which will be received up to August 10th. The following debentures are now on the market and the attention of residents of Peterborough, city and county, is invited to this sage and profitable investment:—$29,999.84 ,payable at the end of 20 years, bearing 4 1-2 per cent. interest and $63,943.95, payable at the end of 30 years, bearing 4 per cent. interest, the interest payable half yearly.

Check for $116,000, O'Brien Mine Royalty

The Payment Made to the Ontario Government by a Cobalt Concern To-day

A check for $116,548.31 was received from the O'Brien Silver Mine at Cobalt this morning, by Colonel Matheson. This is the royalty due the Government for the quarter ending July 1, 1907. The Government receives twenty-five per cent. of the total output of the mine at the pit's mouth. Charges for transportation, smelting and refining are the only dues to be deducted from this amount to give the net profit to the Government. Previous payments were about $15,000 in the last quarter of 1906, and $39,000 for the first three months of this year.

The Allan line turbine steamer Victorian, which reached Montreal yesterday, was delayed more than 00 hours by a fog.

Dufferin-st. to be Extended To South of Nicholls Oval

Estate Bought a Lot and City Will Grade it and Fix it Up for Traffic—Boundary Roads Between City and Douro—Downie St. Creek and Many Other Old Matters Cleaned Up.

The Board of Works cleaned up a lot of small matters last night, which have been hanging fire for several months and some for years. There was very little, if any new business brought up, but the old things will be good news to many people.

The members present were Ald. Duncan, chairman; Ald. McIntyre, Johnston and Wilson and Mayor McWilliams.

Mr Angus McIntosh appeared before the Board again looking for the city to rectify his sewer connection. It appears that Mr. McIntosh wants to lower his cellar and the sewer is too shallow.

Ald Wilson moved that the city engineer go to Mr. McIntosh's and have the sewer from the main to the street line lowered a foot or two. Ald. Johnston seconded the motion.

Mr McIntosh kicked about having to pay for relaying the sewer from the street line to the house but the board could do nothing better and the motion carried.

BOUNDARY ROADS

Mr. Moher, reeve of Douro, was present and addressed the board in connection with the boundary road between the city and the township of Douro. Mr. Moher said that as far as he knew there was no arrangement between the city and township in regard to the road running east and west. Three years ago there was an arrangement whereby the city took the south half and the township the north half, but so far the city had done nothing.

Mr. Moher said he would like the city to do sufficient work on the road east and west to make up for the work which should have been done on the north road.

The chairman objected to this and said it would pay the city to stay by the first agreement and each municipality pay half of the cost of repairing the east and west roads. The cost of this would be about $100.00.

Moved by Mayor McWilliams that Commissioner Fitzgerald be authorized to go ahead and fix up the road in question, not to exceed $100 and the township pay one half the cost Ald. Johnston seconded the motion and it carried.

DOWNIE STREET CREEK

Mr. A. W. Tamlin, of Downie-st., once more appeared before the Board to ask that the Downie street creek be altered, as he was in difficulties. He said Mr. Blodgett would sign the agreement if he was assured that the creek would be cribbed. He said he would do the cribbing if the city supplied the timber.

Moved by the mayor that the city engineer be authorized to allow Mr Tamlin the use of timbers for the purpose of cribbing the Downie-st. creek through Mr. Blodgett's property but nothing is to be done until Mr. Blodgett signs the agreement Ald. McIntyre seconded it.—Carried.

SIDEWALKS

The people on Sherbrooke street, south side, from Bethune to Rubidge street, want a sidewalk inside the tree line, also on Bonacord street, north side, from Park street to the boundary. Both these were granted as they were in lots of time and were laid aside.

The people on the south side of Dalhousie street to Rubidge street were also granted a sidewalk.

Moved by Ald. Johnston that a wooden walk be laid on the east side of Jackson avenue, from Mr. Wright's house to Albert street. It was seconded by Ald. Wilson and carried.

NEW FOOT BRIDGE.

In connection with the petition from the people of Ashburnham for a foot bridge across the Otonabee River on a line from Maria street, the Board thought the C.P.R. should be communicated with and see if an arrangement could not be made to build a foot path across the railway bridge.

Ald. Wilson moved that the City Clerk communicate with the C.P.R. general superintendent and ask him to confer with the council in reference to the foot bridge. The motion was seconded by Ald. Johnston and carried.

PAINT BRIDGES

Chairman Duncan drew the attention of the board to the fact that the steel work on the bridges over the creek on Hunter and Simcoe-sts. was rusting away and needed painting. This was authorized last year, but was put off until too late.

Street Commissioner Evans said all the bridges should be painted.

It was moved that the chairman look after the work.—Carried.

FILLING IN WATER STREET

When Chairman Duncan mentioned the filling in of the old sidewalk alongside the old goose pond, there were some strong arguments used.

Ald Wilson strongly opposed the city doing anything. He said that everyone else had to fill in their property, and the owners of the goose pond got the property cheap and could well afford to fill it up.

Ald McIntyre spoke with emphasis when he said that Mr. Ruth and the others concerned, had spent a lot of money on that property and were entitled to have this work done.

Moved by Mayor McWilliams that the engineer remove the old sidewalk between London and Antrim streets on Water street, and the city fill in to the level of the ground and the people fill in the balance. Seconded by Ald. McIntyre and carried.

On motion by Ald. Wilson, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, a sewer will be built on Roger street, 190 feet south of Hunter street.

NICHOLLS OVAL.

The mayor notified the Board that Mr. Richard Hall had purchased, on behalf of the Nicholls estate, a lot between the end of Dufferin street and the Nicholls Oval, for the purpose of giving an entrance at the south end, to the park. He requested the city to grade and put into shape that lot, and make it an extension to Dufferin street. The estate would fix up the driveways inside the park.

Moved by the mayor, seconded by Ald Wilson, that the engineer be authorized to grade the extension of Dufferin street to the Nicholls Oval.—Carried.

Children's Aid Society is Arranging for New Shelter

Committee Appointed at Meeting Yesterday Afternoon to Secure Information—They Will Report Later—Expressions of Opinion.

The Peterborough Children's Aid Society, is face to face with the problem of securing a new shelter. As is generally known, the present home on Charlotte street, is owned by ex-Mayor Best, who for the past ten years has given it to the Society at a very small rental. All the society had to pay Mr. Best for the use of the house and grounds during that time has been $400 or about $40 per year. Mr. Best is now desirous of selling the property and as it is worth considerably more than the society can afford to pay, it has become necessary to make arrangements to secure a new shelter.

For this purpose a meeting of the Board of Management of the Children's Aid Society was held in the Council Chamber at the City Hall yesterday afternoon, when the question was discussed and steps taken with a view to purchasing or in some other way procuring a new shelter. In addition to the members of the Board of Management, several prominent citizens were also present, there being quite a representative attendance.

The president of the society, Mr. J. H. Burnham, occupied the chair, and in opening the meeting explained why it had been called, in the following words,—

"The Board of Management is called together today to consider a question of very great importance to the county and city, as well as the Children's Aid Society, viz., the purchase of a shelter. We have asked the Mayor, the Warden, the Police Magistrates, the Chief of Police and others to be present also, in order that we may have the benefit of their experience and advice. It will probably be in order, after we have heard the views of those who may wish to express them, to appoint a sub-committee to look up a suitable place for a shelter, and to see how the financial part of the question may best be dealt with. When in the course of a month or so this sub-committee is ready to report, we shall call the whole society together to submit the question to it for final consideration. Of course, it is known that the owner of the present shelter, Mr. Best, has put it up for sale, and as a consequence the society must be prepared to vacate it at short notice if necessary. This season of the year is best suited for the consideration of the purchase of a shelter, and it has been deemed advisable in view of our recent gift of $1,000 by the trustee of the Nicholls Estate, Mr. Hall, and what we already have in hand for the same purpose, to proceed both with energy and deliberation in a matter of such paramount importance. It is necessary to have a shelter with plenty of ground attached and as the Chief of Police is not averse to his men, giving some assistance in case of necessity with waifs and strays picked up at night, as they sometimes are, there seems to be no great obstacle to the acquirement of spacious premises, at a reasonable rate."

Mr. Geo. Cochrane, agent for the society, said that the main point to be considered at the present time was whether the Children's Aid would buy a new shelter, or continue the payment of rent as they had been doing in the past. If it was decided to buy, the financing would be the chief matter to be considered.

Mr. Peter Campbell stated that the society now had about $1,300 on hand which could be devoted to the purchase of a shelter, and he had been informed by several citizens before coming to the meeting that they would grant monetary assistance, if it was decided to buy. He was not at liberty to state the amounts promised.

Mayor McWilliams pointed out that the best way to proceed, would be to appoint a small committee, say composed of the officers of the society, whose duty it would be to secure all possible information, regarding the cost of a new shelter, where a suitable location could be found, how the financing can be done, etc. He favored a small committee as he had found that a small committee was usually much more effective than a large one.

Rev. Canon Davidson and Rev. Dr. Langfeldt were present, and expressed their hearty co-operation with any movement to secure a new shelter.

Police Magistrate D. W. Dumble considered that it would be advisable to buy a new shelter, if the financing could be properly arranged. The cost would be large, however, as the shelter would need to have considerable land attached in order that the children would have room to play. However, the committee which he understood, was to be appointed, could see what was to be done.

County Police Magistrate Edmison spoke of the advisability of having a shelter and would give his support to any movement with the object in viewing of purchasing or otherwise procuring suitable premises.

Mr. E. L. Goodwill, secretary and solicitor of the society, wanted an opinion from those present, as to the location of a new shelter, and the amount they thought advisable to spend on one, but the general impression was that this should be left to the committee.

After some discussion of a general nature it was moved by Mr. George Dumble, seconded by Mr. D. W. Cochrane, seconded by Mr. D. W. Dumble, "that a committee composed of the following, the Mayor, the Warden, President of the Society (convenor), Police Magistrate Dumble, Police Magistrate Edmison, Rev. Father McColl, T. F. Matthews, vice-president of the society; E. L. Goodwill, solicitor of the society; Peter Campbell, treasurer of the society; Mesdames Best and Birdsall, be appointed to consider the advisability of buying a shelter or of otherwise procuring it, and of its locality, and that they report to a meeting of the Children's Aid Society, called at a convenient date."

Adjournment then took place.

Much Owing to Their Forefathers

They Were Sturdy, Simple and Thoughtful Patriots

Lucerne, Switzerland, July 4. —At noon at the large banquet given by Americans on the Fourth of July at the National Hotel, Lucerne, to celebrate the anniversary of the Independence of the United States, the American Consul, Mr. Mansfield, invited Mr. Louis Lombard, of Trevano Castle and New York City to reply to the toast, "Our Fathers," Mr Lombard spoke as follows,

"Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen;

"We eagerly scan the horizon for the new idea; that, we think, is the only path to a higher civilization, and we forget many good old ideas in the search for the new.

"This day should evoke vividly the achievements of the past. It ought to suggest oftener to us to follow the fathers, who, with their statesmanship and industry created this New Star in the west and preserved it with their heroism.

"Due credit must be given our modern citizen, great or humble, whose efforts add daily to the might and glory of our nation, but let us not forget the sturdy, simple, thoughtful patriots, who laid the enduring corner stone of God's Country. This retrospective view will perhaps instill into our new ideals a little less of the materialism we so blindly boast.

"How few among the foreigners seeking liberty in our land, can measure the wisdom with which the forefathers framed the laws for free thought and action! I wish every discontented person, native or alien, could read the declaration of independence over and over and appreciate its practical altruism. To help stem the tide of anarchism which threatens to submerge the modern social world, may the spiritual meaning of that Heaven-inspired document burn clearer into the soul of each man, as our predestined new race grows richer in matter and in mind!

"Let us drink to our Forefathers!"

Developments in Lindsay Case

Said to Have Been Counterfeiting Bills Two Years Ago

Lindsay, July 17.—Police investigation into the Lindsay counterfeiting case is now centering about the manufacture and circulation of Dominion Bank and Bank of Montreal notes in this section two years prior to the recent discovery of the manufacture of Traders Bank notes.

It is in connection with the alleged events of two years ago that George Miller, the employee of the Lindsay Watchman-Warder office is held, and it is upon the allegation of one of the men now under arrest that he was arrested.

Some idea of the extent of the operations of the gang is had from the finding of 180 $5 Traders Bank notes upon Archibald Bayeau and Richard Wynn, the two men arrested at the Soo and brought down on Monday. About the same number, it is claimed, was handed over to John Eveleigh, the Englishman caught in Montreal, and upon whose statement all the others were taken into custody.

Robert Logie, the farmer who was stopped in Toronto with the ticket for Black Rock upon him, was, so the police say, in Montreal with Eveleigh when the latter was taken into custody for passing the bad bills. The two lots represent $2,000 in counterfeit bills.

Eveleigh left Montreal to-night in charge of Provincial Detective J. E. Rogers and is expected here at eight o'clock to-morrow morning. All the prisoners will be further remanded to-morrow until Monday, when the Crown is expected to go and reveal some of the evidence they have in their possession.

Constable Cobeen of the Soo, a former Lindsay man, is assisting Dominion Detective Parkinson here to-day. Although the two prisoners were well acquainted with Cobeen years ago, neither of them recognized him on the way down.

The officers to-day made a search of a building frequented by some of the prisoners under arrest, and this action indicated that at least some of the men are assisting the police in the investigation.

No more arrests are expected.

Bail Refused in Lindsay Cases

Lindsay, July 17.—The accused in the present counterfeiting case will not lack for legal advice. The best lawyers in town have been engaged to defend them. Burke will be defended by Mr. T. Stewart; Goslin by Mr J. E. Weldon; Miller by Mr. G H Hopkins and Logie by Mr. R J McLaughlin, K.C. The defence of the other prisoners is not as yet known.

That the name of Logie has been a well respected one, is illustrated by the fact that a street in Lindsay is named Logie street. The prisoner was a well known figure around town and drove a high-stepping horse.

Great sympathy is felt for the families and friends of the accused in Lindsay and vicinity.

Bail was refused by instructions received from the Attorney-General's Department, Toronto.

Well Known Dry Goods Man Wet

Took Two Fair Friends for a Paddle and Tumbled Into the River

Those who were at the Otonabee boat house about half-past nine last night had a good hearty laugh at the expense of a young man well known in both business and social circles Early in the evening he took a couple of young lady friends for a paddle down the river. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and everything went lovely until the last step was to be taken, then there was something doing.

It was about half-past nine, or a quarter to ten when the trio returned to the big boat, greatly pleased with their paddle and themselves. The young man got out first, and from the wharf assisted his fair friends to get out. Then he stooped over to pull the canoe up to the snubbing post, but the little craft was not there, and the son of one of the leading merchants went head first into the deep waters of the river. There was a splash and a smothered "Oh!" from the young man, a wild shriek, followed by hearty laughter from the ladies, and then the paddler was seen kicking and waddling in the water, making for the wharf.

Unfortunately for him, there were quite a number of his friends in the immediate neighborhood, and, while they were a little sympathetic, they also laughed heartily. This did not bother the dry goods man nearly so much as the thought that the boys in town would get wise, and, worst of all, it might get into the newspapers. To guard against this he instructed the publicity man in the store to keep it out of the advertisement, and he requested all his friends at the boathouse not to tell a reporter. But the half drowned man did not notice the reporter coming up the river just behind him, and, sitting in a canoe, watched the whole show.

OBITUARY

COL. MacBETH.

Col. John MacBeth, registrar of the surrogate court, and county clerk of London, Ont., is dead, aged 71. He lived in that city for over 50 years, but was born in the Red River settlement, the son of George MacBeth, a native of Kildonan, Scotland. He was educated in London and called to the bar in 1860. Deceased was connected with the militia from 1854 to 1877, and was at one time in command of the 7th battalion. Herbert and Hugh MacBeth, of Toronto; Charles MacBeth, of Ottawa; Frank, of Calgary, and Mrs. E .C. Complin, of Orangeville, are children. Mrs. Complin formerly resided in Peterborough, and many friends will sympathize with her in the loss of her father

Small Boy Fell in Deep Water

Father Jumped in to Rescue Him From Drowning

What might have terminated in a drowning fatality occurred at the docks on Saturday evening, when the little son of Mr. Robt. Bateman of Belleville, who is a guest at the Clarendon House, fell in the river, at the west side of the lock gates, says the Hastings Star. The little fellow was crossing the lock on the gate, holding his father's hand and on arriving at the further side let go and jumped out to reach the landing but jumped short and landed in the water at the head of the lock His father, who could not swim a stroke, at once plunged in to his rescue and with the aid of Messrs John and James Welsh and Edward Lynch, got the little lad and himself out of the water. As the water is almost twenty feet deep at this spot, it was certainly a heroic act of Bateman's as, had there been no one close at hand, he would likely have had a very hard time saving himself and the boy.

Bar Blaze at Fenelon Falls

A Lindsay despatch says:—The fire field again visited the village of Fenelon Falls last night and wrought considerable havoc on the east side of the river between the locks and the railway bridge. Five boathouses were burned, but their contents were saved.

Docked along the shore were two launches—one gasoline, the other steam. Both were destroyed by the flames, and the loss will be considerable.

The cause of the fire and other particulars are not available. The village has been frequently visited by fires during the past few years.

BIG SEIZURE OF FURS

Ottawa, July 17. — Four hundred beaver skins were seized by Provincial Inspector Loveday on Saturday at Hull station. The skins ~~had been~~ shipped from Maniwaki and were bound for Montreal, when the Government men made the seizure. The fur, which is very valuable, is now in cold storage.

LACROSSE

YOUNG TORONTOS SWAMPED.

Beaverton, July 17. — The Young Torontos and the home team met here today in a game in the intermediate series, district No 10. Beaverton had expected a hard fight, when this team played here, and they were not disappointed, the visitors fighting hard until the last quarter, when they faded away and the fast working Beaverton home notched goal after goal, almost at will. The final score was 17—6. The game was the cleanest over seen in Beaverton.

BASEBALL

PORT HOPE WON AGAIN.

Barrie, July 17. — The Port Hope team of the Midland League, played an exhibition game with Barrie here today and won easily. Surphlis was too good a pitcher for the locals.

Score,—	R.	H.	E.

S. S. Excursion Was Marred By Unfortunate Incident

Government Official Refused to Let Barge in Connection With Steamer Monarch Carry Passengers as it Had Not Been Inspected.

That "someone had blundered" was plainly evident today, in connection with the annual excursion of the Park Street Church Sunday School. The outing was to have been held to Jubilee Point and the steamer Monarch and barge had been chartered for the occasion. Last night the Monarch, in charge of Captain Harris, and the barge came up the river in order to be on hand to carry the excursion this morning. The barge was left at the street railway wharf while the steamer came up to the Wolfe street landing. The excursionists had gathered at both wharves and everything went lovely until the Monarch called at the Street Railway landing to secure the barge which was well loaded with passengers. But then came the rub. Acting on instructions from the Marine Department, Mr. Robert Hall, collector of Customs, forbid Capt. Harris to take the barge out, as it had not been inspected by the government inspector. The government is very strict on this point and there is a heavy penalty attached to a violation of this law. At any rate the barge could not leave the wharf and the excursionists were in a bad predicament. The Monarch could only carry about 185 persons and there were three hundred on hand to enjoy the outing. After some discussion it was decided to have the picnic at Chamber's grove, a few miles down the river, instead of to Jubilee as intended. The steamer carried as many as possible down on the first trip and then came back and took the remainder, who were waiting at the street railway wharf. Some, however, did not prefer waiting for the boat to call a second time and went home.

The unfortunate affair was greatly regretted by everybody concerned, and especially by those in charge of the arrangements for the excursion.

It appears that the Government has decided that no boat or barge can carry passengers unless they have undergone government inspection. Mr. Hall has been instructed to watch local conditions very carefully and to see that the law is carried out.

It might be mentioned incidentally that a steamer cannot put out with a barge or scow in tow by her side. This is a criminal offence and there is a heavy penalty attached. The scow or barge must be towed a certain distance behind the boat.

The barge which the Monarch was using seemed a first-class one in every respect but it had not been inspected by the government official and consequently could not be allowed to carry passengers.

Accident to Mr. E.C. Attrill Terminated Fatally To-day

Sad Death of Goderich Man at Local Hospital—Fell From Hammock at Chemong.

The accident to Mr Edward C. Attrill, the Goderich man, who was severely injured by falling from a hammock at Chemong, a week ago last Sunday, terminated fatally today, when the victim of this peculiar mishap passed away at Nicholls hospital. The particulars of the accident are still fresh in the minds of Review readers. Mr Attrill was staying at the cottage of his sister, Mrs. Heaton, at Chemong, and on Sunday, July 7th, he received severe injuries by falling from a hammock, and alighting on a sharp stump which protruded from the ground undr the hammock. Mr. Attrill's spine was severely injured and he became unconscious. He was taken to Nicholls hospital the same night, but never rallied to any extent. At times he was conscious, but never for a very long period. Everything was done for him, but he gradually sank until death came at noon today. Deceased was a son of the late H. Y. Attrill of Goderich, and is survived by one brother, Mr. Jas. B. Attrill, and two sisters, Mrs. Heaton of Chemong and Mrs. Gilbert Wright of Los Angeles, Cal. He was 36 years of age and unmarried. His home was at Goderich, where he was highly esteemed and where his death will be deeply regretted. He is a nephew of Mr. T. P. Attrill of Water street, Peterborough. The remains will be taken to Goderich for interment, leaving Peterborough tomorrow.

He Met Death by Drowning

Mr. M. Willoughby, Formerly of Peterboro', Dead in Ohio

Mr. W. J. Green received a letter yesterday announcing the death by drowning of Mr Martin Willoughby, at Vermillion Lake, a summer resort in Ohio. Mr. Willoughby was formerly in the employ of Mr. W. R. G. Higgins, hardware merchant, of this city. The deceased was about 29 years old, and left here about a year ago. He was a member of Orangeville Lodge, I.O.O.F., and also of the Oddfellows' Relief Association of Kingston. No further particulars as to Mr. Willoughby's death have yet been received. The deceased was a very popular young man and made ~~many~~ friends while here.

Will Close Sharp At Ten O'Clock

Grafton & Co. Will Shorten Hours of Labor on Saturday

Col. J. J. Grafton of the big clothing firm of Grafton & Co., Limited, of Dundas, was in the city yesterday on a visit to the large local establishment.

It is a year and a half since Col. Grafton's last visit to Peterborough. He believes that there is no place making more progress than this thriving city. In conversation with the Review, the Colonel said he noticed decided changes and many improvements since his last trip here.

Discussing business matters he expressed the view that the hours of labor on Saturday were too long in Peterborough and left instructions to have the local store closed at ten o'clock henceforth. Heretofore it has been as late as eleven and even later before the big staff of clerks got away on Saturday nights. It is the intention of Grafton & Co. to close promptly at ten on that evening and it is understood a campaign may shortly be inaugurated for a still shorter working day at the end of the week. The many customers and friends of Grafton & Co., are kindly asked to do their purchasing as early as possible on Saturday night.

Col. Grafton was much pleased with the splendid business progress and expansion of the Peterborough branch.

Splendid Report Was Presented

By Mr. J. A. Tully at Oddfellows Relief Association Meeting

The annual meeting of the Oddfellows' Relief Association, was held in Kingston on Wednesday and most encouraging reports were presented. Mr. J. A. Tully of Peterborough, was in attendance. The report of Mr. J. A. Tully, superintendent of agencies, showed the growth in membership during the year. It had been almost as good as in 1906. The applications numbered 2,412, and it was predicted that within a reasonable time, the total would reach 25,000. His travels during the year covered a mileage of 16,579. The superintendent reported that in Ontario sixteen new lodges had been instituted, of which fourteen were instituted by officials of the Relief Association. He made a review of the field work generally and pictured a most hopeful outlook for the association.

Excursion Was Great Success

Foresters are Well Pleased With Their Outing to Niagara Falls

The Foresters' Excursion on the C.P.R. to Toronto and Niagara Falls yesterday was a big success in every way. The railway authorities put on lots of cars so that there was no crowding, whatever, and this was a great feature on such a hot day. The special train going ran sharp on time and the excursionists arrived at the Falls just at the time advertised. This gave them about five hours to see that great cataract, and to visit Queen Victoria Park and the city. The sail across Lake Ontario was exceptionally pleasant. The lake was not rough and yet a good breeze prevented the suns rays being felt too keenly. Coming home, the train left the Yonge street wharf at 11.20 and arrived here at 1.25. The Foresters are delighted with the outing, and they have a good sum to add to their treasury.

More About London Tragedy; The Funeral of the Victims

Two of London's Injured in Very Serious Condition.

Loney May Die of His Injuries—Miss Hardingham Also Worse—Remainder of Crystal Hall to Be Demolished—Workmen Remove Dangerous Cornice—Citizens Still Excited Over Disaster.

London, Ont., July 19.—Interest in the Dundas street catastrophe has now been transferred to the injured in Victoria Hospital, one or two of whom are reported to be in a very critical condition. Inquirers yesterday were informed that John Loney, who sustained a fracture of the skull, was in a comatose state, and, although it is not thought that he is beyond hope, his condition is such to to give rise to the gravest fears. Attempts made to rouse him have so far proved unsuccessful, and to all questions he replies in a kind of murmur, "I don't know." A change for the worse was also noted in the case of Miss May Hardingham. She is suffering considerable pain, and the doctors are afraid of internal developments. Mrs. Peters, too, has not yet passed the critical stage. She is still feeling the effects of the shock, but it is hoped that once these have passed away she will make a rapid recovery. Miss Peters is progressing satisfactorily, and Ethel Earl, Libbie Smith and James Clugnon are all doing well. Percy Robinson, it is expected, will be able to leave the hospital in a day or two.

A Feeling of Insecurity.

That someone blundered is still the feeling of the community. There is even talk of criminal responsibility. One result of the disaster has been to draw attention to the condition of other buildings in the city. The fact is that the people have been badly scared, and many gave credit to a story circulated Wednesday that there were no fewer than fifty buildings in the town that were absolutely unsafe. Mr. Graydon, the city engineer, describes the story as about forty-nine degrees exaggerated. One or two buildings, he said, had recently received his attention, and in these cases he had given warning to the parties concerned.

Crystal Hall to be Razed.

A satisfactory development was the announcement by the City Engineer that the remaining portion of Crystal Hall would be demolished. This was the result of a conference held with Mr. W. J. Reid, the proprietor of the store, and others interested, yesterday morning, and it will have the effect of removing what was obviously a serious danger. Mr. Reid, who was out of town when the disaster occurred, stated that he also had cautioned those making the alterations against doing anything that would in any way injure the building.

Searching operations having ceased, there was nothing to be seen on Dundas street yesterday forenoon, but the yawning gap, extending some 60 or 70 feet, and piles of debris which have still to be removed.

Funerals Yesterday Afternoon.

The funerals of all the victims but one took place in the afternoon. Miss Clara Mullin's remains will be interred to-day. Messages of condolence have been received by Mayor Judd from, among others, Mayor Coatsworth, Toronto, and Hon. Adam Beck.

Rains Cause Much Damage; Streams Overflow Their Banks

Heavy Losses in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia.

Many Lives Lost — Families Driven From Home—Live Stock Drowned—Railway Tracks and Bridges Washed Away—Town Almost Submerged—Rivers Rise Many Feet—Loss Estimated at Millions.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 19.—The loss of several lives and great monetary damage has resulted from heavy rains throughout Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia during the last 24 hours. The rivers and mountain streams are out of their banks, live stock have been drowned, bridges and building washed away, railroad tracks swept off or undermined, trolley systems demoralized, electric light plants put out of commission, and hundreds of families compelled to abandon their homes and take refuge on higher ground.

About this city the rivers have risen over six feet in ten hours. Reports from above the city say that recurring storms during the past 48 hours have resulted in a precipitation of from 3 to 4 inches, which, being at the head waters, when they reach this city, may cause some damage unlooked for at this time of the year.

The interior of West Virginia has sustained heavy damages. Miles of trackage of the Western Maryland, and the coal and iron railroads in Lucker and Barbour counties have been washed away. The service on these roads is said to be at a standstill. The Dry Fork and Baltimore & Ohio railroads are under water for many miles, and no trains can be operated in the Tygarts Valley, the towns of Grafton, Rowlesburg and Tunnelton are almost submerged the property damage amounting to nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

At McCombs, W. Va., the home of Mrs. Mary Ballard was wrecked by the high water, and three young children of Mrs. Ballard were drowned. The bodies were washed away.

Lives Lost.

Baltimore, July 19.—A special to The News from Grafton, W. Va., says that from three to five lives have been lost and half a million dollars damage is the result of a cloudburst and heavy storm Wednesday between Grafton and Tunnelton. Among the dead are Claudius Wolfe of Evansville and Frank Gibbons of Newburg

Damage by Cloudburst.

Clarksburg, W. Va., July 19.—More than half a million dollars damage resulted from cloudbursts, storms and floods Wednesday night at Newburg, and along the Cheat River valley in Preston County and this vicinity.

Houses were washed away, the main line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad is out of commission, and telegraph and telephone wires are all down. Much damage has been done to property along the Monongahela River, at Fairmont, Kingwood and Evansville.

The sudden rise in the Monongahela River wrecked the new bridge between Monessen, Pa., and Charleroi. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

At Papineauville Alex. Hume fell from a Government dredge into the river and was drowned.

Herbert Boyle, an English carpenter at Galt, was drowned in the Grand River while bathing last night.

WOULD KILL THE JAPS

Inflammatory Posters in Seoul Call For Death of Officials.

Ministers Taking Precautions to Prevent Riots — Emperor Leaves the Throne—Too Worried to Eat or Sleep—Takes Advantage of Rival Factions — Fears Attempts Upon His Life—Crowd Gathers at Palace.

Seoul, July 19.—The Cabinet Ministers, including the newly-appointed Household Minister, have resigned. It is reported that the Emperor was very angry at his Ministers on account of their having advised him to abdicate. He said to them that he occupied the throne by right inherited from his ancestors, and that his subjects had no authority to advise his dethronement, much less to do so with the support of foreigners.

Placards were posted yesterday in one of the thoroughfares calling for the death of all Japanese officials in Seoul. The Ministers are strongly guarded, and every precaution has been takn to prevent riots and attacks upon officials. The Emperor is reported to be too warried to take food or to sleep, but this report is considered to be one of his usual manoeuvres to enlist the sympathy of his people.

The Emperor's loss of loyal adherence of a large portion of his subjects will, it is believed, result in the gradual development of his policy to always play one Minister or faction against another so as to prevent the concentration of power in any single body. The Emperor himself is constantly distrustful of all about him, and haunted with the fear of an attempt on his life.

The Il Ching Hoi, a progressive association, claiming a membership of over a million, is now openly hostile to the Emperor, and it is doubtful even if the few now standing by him will continue their support until the last.

Tokio, July 19.—A despatch from Seoul says that the Emperor convened the elder statesmen at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The Cabinet Ministers waited in an adjoining room while the Emperor conferred with the elder statesmen.

After a two hours' conference His Majesty finally yielded and made up his mind to abdicate.

It was decided to hold abdication ceremonies at 10 o'clock this morning.

Much unrest prevails about the palace and at another place a crowd of 2,000 is assembled. A portion of this crowd assaulted the office of The Daily Kokumin, but the mob was dispersed before heavy damage was inflicted.

SWEPT OVER THE FALLS.

Cripple Waves His Hand as He Disappeared From View.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., July 19.—An unknown man, so badly crippled that a crutch and cane were necessary to enable him to get about, committed suicide by jumping from the Goat Island bridge, passing over the American Falls at 7.40 o'clock last night.

The man was about 60 years old, baldheaded and poorly dressed.

He was seen to pass over the falls by C. W. McKee, night watchman on the reservation, and as he swept by he waved his hand to McKee, showing that he was alive as he reached the brink.

PEASANTS SHOT DOWN.

Russian Police Exact Lives for Cutting of Grass.

Riazan, Russia, July 19.—Peasant disorders on the Kholschevnikoff estate resulted Wednesday in a sanguinary conflict with the rural police.

A number of policemen were despatched to the estate upon receipt of news that the peasants had begun arbitrarily to cut down the grass on the meadows.

Upon their refusal to desist the police fired a volley, which killed or wounded a total of 11 of the countrymen.

Surrendered Ringleaders.

Kazan, Russia, July 19.—The Cortaloff estate, the buildings of which were burned down by peasants recently, was visited yesterday by Gov. Snizhewsky.

He found the peasants in a penitent mood and they surrendered to the authorities a score of the ringleaders in the disorders.

Drowns In 18 Inches of Water.

Brockville, July 19.—At Thousand Island Park Rutherford Brown, the two-year-old son of Capt. and Mrs. George Brown, fell from the pier into 18 inches of water. He was discovered about 15 minutes later and carried quickly to his home.

Five physicians worked over the child for an hour and a quarter in a vain attempt at resuscitation.

Girl Drowns From Canoe.

Ottawa, July 19.—Irene Haldane, 20 years of age, who lived with her mother on Rideau street, was drowned in the canal yesterday afternoon.

She was canoeing alone, and the canoe upset.

She was in the water 20 minutes before she was taken out.

Guy Bicknell Drowns.

Wallaceburg, July 19.—Guy Bicknall, 12 years old, son of George Bicknall, was drowned near the electric light power house here yesterday morning He was bathing in the river and got into deep water.

William T. Benson Suicides.

Mexico, July 19.—William Townley Benson, a Canadian artist, was found dead in a public park at Saltillo, Mexico, with a bullet hole through his head. It is believed he committed suicide.

Verdict Murder.

Hamilton, July 19. The coroner's jury in the Rodzyk shooting affair early yesterday morning brought in a verdict of wilful murder against the accused Sunfeld.

F. Morkin, of London, was injured at Preston, by a horse

GALT BURGLARIES CLEARED.

Arrested For Guelph "Job" Confesses to Other Crimes.

Galt, July 19.—The mystery surrounding five daring robberies committed on East Main street residences on the night of May 22, has been cleared up.

Yesterday there was in the police cells in Galt a man who has confessed that he did the burglaries. He adds, however, that he did not himself force entry into the houses, but that part of the work was done by a pal. whose whereabout he does not know. The police have this man's name and know enough about him to justify the belief that he, too, will presently be in custody.

Yesterday morning Chief Gorman got a wire from Guelph, ordering the arrest of Louis Sevenski, alias Macdonald and other names. In arresting him the chief mentioned that he was wanted for burglaries, whereupon the prisoner, not thinking of Guelph, proceeded to make a clean breast of the East Main street affairs.

OVERCOME BY GAS.

Harold Burkhart of Delhi Loses Life at Galt.

Galt, July 19.—The Dominion Natural Gas Co.'s regulator on Kerr street was the scene of a fatality yesterday afternoon

Harold Burkhart of Delhi, Ont., an employe of the company, had been sent up to the building to adjust the pressure. There are two tanks, one of which, the air tank, reduces the pressure on the gas tank, when the latter has become too great.

The gas must have been escaping very freely from the exhaust, or safety, valve, and it is supposed that Burkhart entered the building and proceeded to regulate the air tank without first shutting off the valve on the gas tank. He was overcome. The position in which he was found, with his head under the air tank, indicated this.

Falls Asleep on Track.

Barrie, July 19.—W. Knapp of Allandale, a brakeman on the northern division of the G. T. R., was seriously injured on Tuesday. He went to flag passenger train No. 51, and, as it was an hour late, he fell asleep on the track and was struck by passenger No. 64. One arm rested on the rail, and his head on his arm. The arm was severed at the shoulder, one ear was cut off, and his nose broken. He was taken to Barrie Hospital, where he is not expected to live.

It is said that Knapp was on duty for 24 hours before the accident He had two years' experience as brakeman.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Laurier Arrives Home.

Quebec, July 19.—The Empress of Britain, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on board, reached Quebec at 10 o'clock last night.

A number of steamers went down the river as far as Grosse Isle to meet the Empress, but the big liner was coming along at a very rapid gait. She did not stop but came right through.

Sir Wilfrid was taken off at the harbor and landed at the King's Wharf.

A very large crowd were assembled on the wharf and along the route, and the Premier was given a great ovation all along the route up to the Chateau Frontenac.

Girl's Dramatic Suicide.

Chicago, July 19.—While talking to friends on the fifteenth floor of the Masonic Temple, Miss Anna Normoyle, a stenographer deliberately walked to an open court window and, without a word of warning, threw herself to the stone pavement of the rotunda, 250 feet below.

The girl was mutilated almost beyond recognition. No cause is known for the suicide.

POCKETED THE FARES

Several Kingston Conductors Have Quit the Job.

Kingston, July 19.—For some time the Street Railway management has suspected that the fares collected were not coming into the treasury.

A detective was brought here from Montreal, and in a couple of days he was able to report where the leakage was. He found that several of the conductors were accustomed to collect the three cent fares from the children, and instead of putting a yellow ticket into the fare box, as they were instructed to do, they withheld it and, in each case, were, of course, three cents ahead.

Some of the guilty have resigned and the assistant superintendent has been dismissed because he, it is said, screened, a defaulting conductor.

ACID EXPLOSION KILLS TWO.

Midland Woollen Mills Wrecked—Man May Lose Eyesight.

Midland, July 19.—An explosion which caused the death of two men and the injury of another occurred yesterday in O'Hara's woollen mills.

The dead are Edward O'Hara of Midland, and Elmer Hewson of Thornbury. John O'Hara, brother of the dead man, was seriously injured and will probably lose his eyesight.

John O'Hara was examining a tank of acid when the gas became ignited. A violent explosion followed, partially wrecking the building and killing the two men.

SEVEN YEARS FOR THEFT.

Man Who Grabbed Lady's Watch Gets Severe Sentence.

Montreal, July 19.—"You will go to the penitentiary for seven years," were the concluding words of a scathing judgment rendered by Judge Choquet on Alfred Beauchamp, who snatched a gold watch pinned to the breast of Miss Blanche Hardy on Tuesday afternoon, and made a desperate attempt to escape up City Hall avenue.

He was overhauled and captured by the gentleman who was with the lady at the time of the robbery.

CAID MACLEAN ESCAPES.

Sir Harry Takes Refuge On Sacred Marabout Territory.

Tangier, July 19.—Aided by sections of the Elkmes, the Beniarrous and the Benimansour tribes, Caid Sir Harry MacLean has succeeded in escaping from the hands of the bandit, Raisuli.

He has taken refuge in the inviolable sanctuary of the territory of the Marabout of Zaouia Yonstidi.

It is suggested that Raisuli connived in the escape of the Caid as the best way out of a difficult situation.

Gus French, of Aylmer, while staying at a Tilsonburg hotel, began walking in the night and fell 35 feet

BRITAIN THANKS U. STATES.

Note Intimates That Swettenham's Allegations Were Unfounded.

Washington, July 19.—Formal thanks and recognition for the efficient aid rendered to stricken Kingston at the time of the earthquake last January by Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, U. S. N., and the officers and men of the Missouri, the Indiana and the gunboat Yankton, has been received by Secretary Root. These were conveyed in a note from Esme Howard, counsellor of the British Embassy, to Secretary Root.

The message conveys the thanks of the present Governor of Jamaica in behalf of the Jamaican Government, and serves to repudiate the action of former Governor Alexander Swettenham, who peremptorily requested Rear Admiral Davis to withdraw his men from their work of clearing the debris and rescuing victims at Kingston. The letter from the counsellor of the British Embassy, which was yesterday made public by Acting Secretary of the Navy Truman H. Newberry, says:

"I have the honor to state that your note of May 1, intimating to me on behalf of the navy department that no charges lie against the Government of Jamaica for the stores sent to Kingston by the American Atlantic Fleet at the time of the earthquake was communicated by the embassy to the Governor of the island.

"The Governor has now requested me to convey to you and through you to the United States Government the thanks of the Government and the sufferers for the articles so generously and promptly supplied and to express his grateful appreciation of the action taken by the president and the congress in declaring that no charge would lie against the Colonial Government in consequence of the issue of these stores."

SCORES AT BISLEY.

Corporal Snowball Second In Shoot-Off For $500 Prize.

Bisley Camp, July 18.—(C. A. P.)—In the "St. George's Challenge Vase," at 500 yards, first stage, the Canadians scored as follows: Caven 30, Carr 35, Converse 33, Creegan 31, Fisher 32, Graham 33, Kerr 31, MacKay 28, McHarg 30, McVittie 33, Milligan 30, Moore 33, Moscrop 33, Morris 32, Stevenson 34, Snowball 33, Smith 33, Wetmore 32, Tom Mitchell 31.

Snowball, who tied with four others for the Prince of Wales' prize, won second place in the shoot-off yesterday. Prior to shooting off, an Australian, who made the proposition, petitors, proposed that they divide the prize. All agreed but Snowball, who demanded all or nothing. The Australian, who made the proposition, won first place and the prize of £100. Snowball's prize is £20.

In the Handsworth, seven shots at 900 yards, for a prize of £60, given by Col. Wilkinson, Lieut. J. McVittie made 32.

In the "Henry" competition, seven shots at 1,000 yards, Capt. McHarg scored 33 out of a possible 35.

Splendid weather favored the garden party held at the Canadian camp.

MUTILATED BY TRAIN.

Body of Cook Found on Track Near Clarkson

Port Credit, July 19.—The mutilated body of W. H. Seal was discovered by sectionmen from Clarkson on the railway tracks near here early yesterday morning. It was also seen by the engineer of passenger train No. 4, from Hamilton, who drew up until the body was removed.

The body was in a terribly mutilated condition. Almost all the clothing had been torn off, one leg and one arm were severed and the trunk was cut in two.

It is rather difficult to explain the accident. Wednesday was payday at Clarkson, and Seal, who was cook in the boarding-car at that place, should have drawn $37. His purse was found by the sectionmen a short distance from the body and contained only 75c. The unfortunate man was very steady and reliable, and was never known to touch liquor. He was about 27 years of age, and has a brother living in Montreal.

The Port Credit coroner investigated the case and decided that an inquest was unnecessary

STRUGGLE ON TRAIN.

Man Slashes Himself With Knife While Demented.

Kenora, July 19.—An exciting incident occurred yesterday in the third section of No. 1 train. When approaching Dryden a man named Hugh McArthur became demented and commenced slashing himself with a knife.

The occupants of his car after a severe struggle disarmed the man, but only after he had inflicted four severe gashes in his abdomen, which bled profusely.

The man was removed in charge of a doctor to Dryden Hospital, where he lies in a precarious state. He is unmarried and booked for Edmonton, where his brother was expecting him. Some of his relatives live at Paisley, Ont.

BOY SHOOTS MOTHER.

Little Fellow Had Got Revolver From Open Drawer.

Moncton, N.B., July 19.—Shot by a revolver in the hands of her five-year-old son, Mrs. Sanford Anderson of Edgett's Landing will die.

Mrs. Anderson, who was in delicate state of health, was sitting at a desk, in which her husband kept a loaded revolver. In securing writing material, she left the drawer containing the revolver open, and her little son took the weapon out.

His mother turned and saw him. As she reached to take it the little fellow pulled the trigger and the bullet entered his mother's abdomen.

Kills With One Blows.

Springfield, Ill., July 19.—With one blow of his fist on the jaw, Harry McGurk, a prize fighter, known as "Red" McGurk, Wednesday night broke the neck of David Brennan, a miner in the house of Annie Vancil.

Two years ago Dominion Bank and Bank of Montreal notes were counterfeited at Lindsay.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, July 18.—Receipts of live stock, as reported by the railways since Tuesday, were 115 car loads, consisting of 2272 cattle, 2004 hogs, 1439 sheep and lambs, and 232 calves.

Exporters.

There was little doing in this department of the cattle trade, as there were no straight loads of shipping cattle reported, and prices for these would be nominal.

Butchers.

George Rowntree, buyer for the Harris Abattoir Company, who bought 14 car-loads on Wednesday and Thursday, reported prices as follows: A few prime picked lots of stall-fed cattle at $5.25 to $5.75 per cwt; these cattle were well finished and weighed 1150 to 1200 lbs. each, and equal in quality to the best exporters; loads of good, $4.75 to $5.12 1-2; medium cattle and strong heavy steers, $4.35 to $4.65; common cattle and good cows $4 to $4.35; common rough canners and cows, $2.25 to $3.65 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

Harry Murby reports few feeders and stockers on sale, and generally of poor quality. Mr. Murby bought two car-loads, 500 to 800 lbs. each at $3 to $3.50 per cwt. He sold one load of butchers' steers, 1100 lbs. each, at $4.50 per cwt.

Milch Cows.

Trade in milkers was the dullest of the season. Prime quality milkers always sell, but the common to medium classes were almost unsaleable. Some of the dealers having cows on hand reported that they could not dispose of them at prices paid for them a few days ago. Prices for those sold ranged from $25 to $50 each.

Veal Calves.

Good to prime quality veal calves sell readily at $5 to $6.50 per cwt., with an odd new milk-fed calf at $7 per cwt.; buttermilks and grass calves, $3 to $4 per cwt., and there are too many of the latter classes being offered for the good of all concerned.

Sheep and Lambs.

Trade in sheep and lambs remains good, with prices as follows: Export ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; bucks, $3.75 to $4.25; lambs sold at $7.75 to $8.75 per cwt., or, in other words, 7 3-4 to 8 3-4 cents per lb.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris got over 2000 hogs to-day, and reports the market as being easy at present prices, as follows: Selects, $6.90; lights and fats, $6.65 per cwt.

PHOTO FRAMES.

A Way to Utilize Old Pocketbook Corner Ornaments.

Instead of throwing away the silver corners of old pocketbooks or selling them for old silver and securing thereby a painfully small sum of money clever women are now using them for making most attractive picture frames. These corners are indeed easily stripped from an old pocketbook and mounted on a velvet background conforming with their size and shape. The opening for the photograph can naturally be made small or large. It is the outside of the frame alone which is controlled by the silver corners.

When the old pocketbook has but two silver pieces they should be put on the diagonal corners of the velvet frame. In such cases it can be made to fit some particular picture, as the corners are then but a decoration and without effect on the size of the frame. Of course a prettier frame can be made when the old pocketbook has four silver corners. Cardcases, portfolios and men's notebooks have usually this number.

Dark maroon and peacock blue are attractive colors on which to mount massive, heavy corners of pocketbooks, while turquoise and apple green make daintier backgrounds for light, open designs in silver. The reason velvet is chosen as the background is because the metal sinks into its depth and therefore appears better than if mounted on satin or some other materials of smooth surface.

Heavy cardboard is first of all used, being covered with the velvet, and in doing this work a strong glue is essential. The silver corners are also held to the frame with glue.

FOR THE CROUP.

A Simple Remedy That Is Said to Be Very Effective.

When a doctor cannot be secured promptly in an emergency it is necessary to have a good remedy always on hand when children are inclined to be croupy.

A mother who will provide herself with half a pint of raw linseed oil can fight the worst case of croup she may meet with. It is said to be an unfailing remedy, and for quick results it beats anything else which can be given for that dread disease.

Half a teaspoonful is a dose unless the child is choking very badly. Then give a teaspoonful.

It acts two ways. In the first stage of croup, where there is not much mucus, it is loosened and carried off through the bowels.

In the second stage it causes vomiting; but, unlike ipecac, it leaves no soreness of the throat as an after difficulty.

It is rarely necessary to give more than one dose, when the child will get relief and go to sleep again.

This simple remedy is one that is within the reach of every mother and one that can be kept in the house at all times, and while it is in the house the dread membranous croup need cause no terrors.—Boston Traveler.

CULINARY CONCEITS.

Leftovers of cold chicken make delicious fritters when mixed with an ordinary fritter batter and fried in deep fat.

Melted butter used for basting is used in the proportion of one tablespoonful of butter melted to one cupful of hot water. Keep hot while using.

Celery salt is nice with fried apples, and so is a bit of onion. Use this dish as a vegetable, relish or appetizer with cold meat and bread and butter. It can be quickly made.

For a savory potato dish slice uncooked potatoes thin, sprinkle them lightly with minced onion, cover with milk, season with salt and pepper and bake until very tender, adding milk from time to time as it boils away.

An excellent way to bake codfish, which breaks into flakes so readily, is to butter a sheet of white paper, lay the steak on it, butter it, sprinkle it with lemon and onion juices, salt and pepper, wrap securely and bake on the rack of the dish pan for half an hour.

A Useless Door.

Where there is a useless door, which for various reasons must be continually closed, its unsightly appearance may be artistically treated by nailing burlap across it, selecting a color harmonizing as closely as possible with that of the wall paper in the room. When this has been put in place put shelves across for books, so filling up the entire doorway. By allowing the top shelf to project beyond its fellows a rod may be put across below it and curtains hung to the floor, the widest shelf also permitting a row of ornaments or jardinieres to complete the cabinet effect. In a bedroom a closed door to another apartment may be converted into a wardrobe by nailing a shelf above the lintel of the door and putting hooks underneath this and also along the closed door beneath. Hang cretonne curtains from the shelf to the door and tack them on the sides to the door jambs to keep out the dust.

To Whiten the Hands.

This is a liquid whitener for the hands: Take one quart of water, previously boiled and strained; alcohol, thirty drops; oxide of zinc, one ounce; bichloride of mercury, eight grains, glycerin, twenty drops. Take four ounces of the water and heat it to boiling, dissolve the bichloride of mercury in this and add the alcohol. Mix the zinc and glycerin together in a bowl, pour the larger portion of the quart of water in, stir, then add all the diluted bichloride of mercury and alcohol. Bottle and shake always before using. Apply the liquid with a small soft velvet sponge.

Committee Replies to "Charity's" Letter

And Explains Matters in Connection With This Eeening's Excursion

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In reference to the article in your issue of last night, signed "Charity," regarding the moonlight excursion to be held this evening under the auspices of a Committee of young ladies of the leading churches, (proceeds to be equally divided between Children's Aid Society, and Sick Children's Hospital), the Committee think it would be more "charitable" if the writer had waited for the statement of proceeds, which it is intended to publish after the excursion. We notice by the Examiner that they asked the management of the Navigation Company for information before publishing the article regarding the arrangement with the Committee and the answer given that we are to have 20 per cent. of the proceeds is correct. The O. N. Co. evidently believe in not publishing their "good deeds" before they do them, as they also suggested in this particular case, purely on account of the cause, (as they explained their methods are to use all Sunday schools and Societies alike), to give us a subscription to the fund. This was agreeable to all, as we preferred to engage the Otonabee in preference to the Water Lily which they offered at a reduced price. We are business-like enough to know that the larger boat was not built nor is not run on "charity." As we wanted to accomplish some charitable work during the summer months and as "every little helps" we had courage to undertake this, and think it may not be a dead failure. Had we known "Charity" we might have suggestions anent spending our time to "better advantage."

"Charity" leaves the impression that we are asking 25 cents from the public for the above Societies without giving any value, but conveniently forgets that everyone is getting the worth of his or her money and helping a good cause at the same time. We think the only harm (thanks for free advertising) will be with the narrow-minded people like the writer of the article who is ever ready to criticize and try to hinder the good and honest intention of others. We also imagine that there is some personal grudge against the O. N. Co.

Regretting that this explanation is necessary and thanking you for your valuable space, I am,

Yours very truly,
ONE OF THE COMMITTEE.

P. S.—Perhaps "Charity" would like to contribute to this fund by buying some tickets and not using them, thus the O. N. Co. would not get any benefit.

Prisoners May Plead Guilty

Rumors Regarding the Counterfeiters' Trial on Monday

A Lindsay despatch says;

A plea of guilty entered by five of the seven prisoners now at the jail would simplify matters in the counterfeiting case. Next Monday afternoon at two o'clock all seven will be formally arraigned before Magistrates Jackson and Moore for the preliminary hearing, their Worships having decided that, no matter what plea is recorded, they will simply hear enough evidence to send them for trial before His Honor Judge J. E. Harding, or at the Criminal Assizes. Separate and distinct informations have been prepared against each of the men charging them with having counterfeit money in their possession. The maximum sentence for having bad bank bills is the same as for the actual making of the notes, fourteen years in Kingston Penitentiary.

ONLY TWO PROTEST INNOCENCE

For the hearing on Monday afternoon Mr. Edward Bayley solicitor to the Attorney-General, will be brought from Toronto to assist Crown Attorney A. P. Devlin in the prosecution. Of the seven men who are to be tried, John Goslin, the horse owner, arrested at Port Hope, and George Miller, the printing pressman, are the only two who to-day are prepared to go into court on Monday protesting their innocence of any wrong-doing. The charge against Miller dates back two years ago when, it is alleged, certain Dominion Bank and Bank of Montreal notes were circulated. Mr G H Hopkins is defending Miller, and Mr. I. E. Weldon, the prisoner Goslin. The other five prisoners have also legal representatives.

The Bell Telephone Co. have purchased a block in Montreal on which to construct a new north end exchange.

Why I Advertise

I believe that seven-tenths of all headaches have their origin in strained vision. I also know that correctly-fitted glasses will entirely relieve the headache by removing the cause. Scarcely a day passes but I relieve some sufferer through my knowledge of making and fitting glasses; I am anxious that all sufferers should know there is a remedy so simple; this is one reason why I advertise.

The Interests of Trent Canal Are Apparently Neglected

Lindsay Post Charges That Sunken Logs and Other Obstructions Still Block Scugog River and Asks Whose Fault is it That the Matter is Not Remedied—Life of Passengers Jeopardized.

The Scugog river between Lindsay and Sturgeon Lake is in a dangerous state owing to sunken logs and other obstructions, says the Lindsay Post. A disaster, attended with loss of life, may occur any day or any evening. It may be an excursion steamer, crowded with happy pleasure seekers that will have a gaping hole punched in her side or bottom, or it may be one of the many power launches constantly seen passing up or down the river, with from two to a dozen passengers on board. There have been numerous narrow escapes in both instances, already this season. The dangers are so many and the number of steamers and gasoline launches are so numerous, that the dreaded fatality is almost sure to happen—the only point about which there may be said to be any doubt is as to the number of precious lives to be sacrificed.

And why? Because of somebody's neglect. The river is under the control of Superintendent McClellan of the Trent Canal, Peterborough, who has a staff of overseers and assistants, also of Peterborough. It is, perhaps, unfortunate, that authority is so centralized—under other circumstances some weight might be attached to the fact that almost, if not fully 90 per cent. of the entire traffic on the Trent Canal waterway occurs on the stretches between Fenelon Falls village and Lindsay, and Bobcaygeon village, and Lindsay. Four tugs are busy day and night from the opening till the closing of navigation towing logs and other freight to this town, twelve passenger steamers plying between Lindsay and the lake ports, arrive and depart from our wharf daily and many excursion steamers and large pleasure crafts from points on the lower and upper waters call here at intervals. The best interests of all engaged in this trade, and the lives of thousands of passengers carried in a season, are jeopardized by the continuance of the present state of affairs a day longer than is absolutely necessary.

We have referred to the risk of life—we also wish to mention an instance of the monetary loss the state of the river imposes on vessel owners. For two weeks the water has been falling and the passenger steamers have been striking sunken logs in the channel on every trip. Tuesday morning the steamer Kathleen struck a sunken log in a long cut, and lost her wheel, the impact snapping the shaft. The wheel sank in sixteen feet of water and was not recovered until last evening; the shaft cannot be repaired until Saturday, so that estimating the expenses and loss of passenger rates, the proprietors will lose nearly $200. If these sunken logs were picked up regularly the loss would not have occurred. There are thousands of such obstructions, no doubt, on the river bottom and they become dangerous when the water is allowed to fall beyond a certain point. Half-sunken logs are even more dangerous—it was one of these that caused the Kathleen accident, and which may sink the next craft that runs against it if it happens to be tilted at the right angle.

Peterborough Man on All Canadian Battery Team

The 24th Field Battery of Peterborough, will be represented on the picked Canadian team that will compete against the crack English Artillery team, who are now on their way to Canada. The English artillerymen are the best England can produce and great interest centres in the contest with the Canadian marksmen at Petewawa, commencing next week. The Canadian teams will be composed of representatives of the Canadian batteries and its strength will be twenty-six, officers and men.

Bomb. Thos. Edwards, of this city, who is a member of the 24th Field Battery, has been chosen as one of the Canadian team and leaves for Petewawa tomorrow night. The contest between the two teams will last ten days, commencing on Monday or Tuesday of next week. The competition will be of such a nature as to test the marksmen in all phases of handling the big guns.

Bomb. Edwards is probably the best shot in the local battery and no doubt will make a good showing.

GOOD SPECIMEN OF CRINOIDEA

Was Found in Bed of the Creek West of Parker's Dye Works

A crinoidea was found yesterday in the bed of the creek just west of Parker's Dye Works, which has created considerable interest among local geologists. The crinoidea was on a piece of flat limestone about 14 inches wide, and the stem was very distinctly embodied. Mr. G. M. Roger was consulted, and he readily recognised the animal-like flower. His father found a head which was a very good specimen and is of value as a relic. Centuries ago the crinoidea was a living plant. The root was usually fastened on a piece of rock and the head was not unlike this animal. It had several arms which were moved for the purpose of collecting food. Generally speaking, the plant was thought extinct but in some parts it is found living yet. To find the fossil is quite common in the quarries of the Trent Valley, and several specimens are known to have been kept.

Mr. Roger and a Review man called upon Librarian Peters and looked up the encyclopaedia, which gives the following description of the crinoidea:—

Crinoidea (Gr. Lily-like) a class of sea lilies and well known in fossil forms as encrinites or stone lillies, while agreeing in general structure to starfishes and other Echinoderms, the crinoids present many peculiarities. They are fixed permanently or temporarily, mouth upwards, by a stalk, which is usually jointed. The visceral mass is enclosed in at the apex of the stalk. As in most other Echinoderms, there are numerous limy plants, forming the stalk the supporting cup, the frame work of the arms, etc. The arms, though typically five in number, may be very much multiplied (towards 200) by branching. they usually bear lateral pinnules, which produce a feathered appearance."

The draft regulations for the enforcement of the Meats Inspection Act were approved at a conference of packers at Ottawa yesterday.

ANNUAL MEETING NOW IN PROGRESS

Afterwards the Kingston Women's Art Association held a reception and served refreshments. At this evening's session President Rogers gave his address, and Mr. W. S. Ellis, B.A., of Kingston, gave a sketch of Kingston's history. It is the intention of the society to request the Dominion Government to put and keep Fort Henry in repair, and the Ontario Government to mark and preserve many historic spots about Kingston.

Idlers Frequent the Police Court

Dispensing of Justice Seems to Have Curious Fascination for Many

"There must be a lot of idle people in Peterborough," remarked Chief Roszel today, as he viewed the crowd of men and boys that filed into police court. There were probably fifty in the bunch, and they appeared to be deeply interested in the province. Nearly every day this throng fills the public part of the police court room. If the tip is passed around that there is going to be something spicy on the docket the place is always crowded with men and boys, who apparently have nothing to do, but frequent the somewhat dingy building on Water street, where the police magistrate dispenses justice.

Horse Stopped in Middle of Street

Somewhat Amusing Incident on George Street To-day

The unostentatious red horse attached to Hetherington's milk delivery van had the honor of tying up traffic on George street at noon to-day. The animal was left standing at the side of the street near the Bell Telephone office while the driver went into a store in the vicinity. Becoming impatient the horse started across the street and stopped when the vehicle was standing on the street railway tracks. A car came along and had to stop, the nag showing no signs of moving. The conductor led the horse to the side of the street and the threatened disorganization of traffic was averted.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

SHOULD BE CHARITABLE

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I see by your yesterday's issue that the militant Rev. Dr. Langfeldt has put on his war paint and expresses his hearty gratitude for the "severe sentence" imposed by "our worthy Police Magistrate" on the inmates of an alleged house of ill repute. How uncharitable to gloat over those unfortunates, and what a striking contrast with our blessed Saviour while on earth, when He gave utterance diametrically opposed to that of the learned doctor under similar conditions. If Christ came to Peterborough I am afraid that our newly fledged Doctor would not cast the first stone. The next time he reads the Litany let him be fully impressed with the significence of that part, which reads: "From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain glory, and hypocrisy; from every hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness, Good Lord, deliver us."

Yours, etc.,
CHARITY.

THE RECTORY SITE

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—The Rectory Committee and Advisory Board of St. John's church, who met in representative number on Tuesday evening, were a unit in expressing their strong disapproval of the article that appeared in the Examiner of Monday evening last, headed, "Trouble over a Rectory Site."

The Vestry and congregation of St. John's church are loyal enough to Canon Davidson and the Church, to erect a Rectory on a site satisfactory to all parties concerned, and do not desire any outside interference in the matter, through the public press, or otherwise.

Yours truly,

Splendid Pictures At Jackson Park

The Series Shown This Week are the Best Yet

"His first Camera," "Burglars at the ball," "The Squatters Daughter" and "The Ski-ing competition," were among the really excellent moving pictures at Jackson park last night. The temperature was just right, not too hot nor too cold, and a large number assembled thoroughly enjoying the pictoral presentation. These were voted the best yet and the street railway company certainly deserves praise for putting on such a pleasing and amusing programme. The band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music.

The moving pictures will be continued every night. There is no flicker or blur, the delineations and movements in every case being clear and distinct. There are no long waits, as soon as darkness sets in the entertainment begins and it is all over a few minutes before 10 o'clock The car service is prompt and satisfactory.

BOY WAS TRYING TO SELL WATCH

As Chief of Police Roazel was passing along George street yesterday afternoon, the suspicious actions of a boy at once attracted his attention. The boy in question was trying to dispose of a silver watch in a local jewellery store. The chief at once made inquiries and investigations. The boy said his sister had purhased the watch in Millbrook and had given it to him for sale. For the protection of the public and by request of Chief Roazel, we might say that the silver watch in question has 17 jewels, has the name across the dial of John Steele, Millbrook and is stamped No. 12,711,012.

When you buy a pair of shoes buy also the polish that will preserve and keep them in good shape, as well as give a brilliant and lasting shine. 2 in 1 Shoe Polish is a true leather food, causing it to remain soft and last longer.

More School Accommodation Needed for Village of Havelock

By-Law Being Prepared for Ratepayers to Vote on—Want to Raise $1000—Plans Prepared by Peterborough Architect—Many Different Views.

Havelock, July 18.—A bylaw is at present being prepared by the solicitor to raise $1000 for the purpose of building an addition to the present school building, which is thought by the school board to be too small to accommodate the large number of pupils who are at present attending. This bylaw will be submitted to the ratepayers of Havelock in about a month and it lies with them to say whether this addition shall be built. Considerable interest is being taken in the matter and numerous are the arguments given for and against the proposed plan.

There are many different views which can be taken of the matter, as can be seen by spending half an hour listening to the older people of this village discussing the proposal There are certain people in this village who have children attending school at present and who wish them to have every advantage of obtaining the best education to be had, no matter what the taxes are, while there are others who have no children attending school, who take a still more selfish view of the matter, and who are trying with all their power to prevent any improvements whatever in the line of education, so as to keep down the taxes and thus help their personal interest. But there are others who look squarely at the matter, and who are trying to serve the public in the best way, and still with the least expense, regardless of all personal interests and who discuss one side of the matter and then the other and then contrast the two ideas, and pick out which ever is best suited. This is the square and upright way of looking at the matter and those who act in this manner are those whose ideas are worth the most to the ratepayers, who have not a clear understanding of the matter.

The present school building on Mathison street consists of five fair sized rooms, two of which are down stairs and three upstairs, with a staff of five teachers. Besides there is the primary department, which occupies a small building on George street. The primary department is so overcrowded that one-half of the pupils have to go in the forenoon, and the other half in the afternoon.

The plan which has been prepared by a Peterborough architect is for a building some where about 33 feet square, to be of brick veneer, or cement, though the material has not yet been decided on ,but most are in favor of brick veneer. This addition is to adjoin and be south of a wing on the front of the present building.

Besides affording better accommodation for the public school pupils, the school board intends this building to have rooms enough so that 1st 2nd and 3rd form High School work may be taught to a few pupils so that they may be able to obtain their second class and matriculation certificates without leaving their homes in Havelock.

For the purpose of teaching this High school work a teacher has already been engaged at a salary of $800 per year.

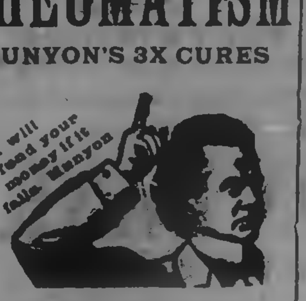
Some think that a whole new building should be built in place of the addition proposed. A new brick school large enough to accommodate the Public school pupils easily, could be built for $12,000 while the addition will cost $4,000, a third as much. The debenture could be made to cover a large number of years, so that the tax rate would only be about the same as with a debenture of $4,000 for a shorter time. If only an addition is built, in the course of a few more years, the old part of the building will not be fit for school purposes and a new building will have to be built then, so it is thought that they might as well build the new structure now as two or three years hence. If a whole new building is erected, it would be a good idea to build it adjoining the public park, so that the park could be used by the children for a play-ground.

Others suggest that some other building which is not being used at the present time, be purchased at a low price which will accommodate enough scholars so that the present building will not be overcrowded. A number have suggested the old Baptist church, which is not in use now as a good place, which might be bought or rented for this purpose for a few years, until the town sees fit to build a new school and until the debt is paid off the present building. The expenses of the village are very high this year, as a number of new sidewalks have been built, and in addition to this is the park debt. The tax rate last year was 25 mills on the dollar, and over half of the taxes went towards school purposes ,and if there are any heavy additional expenses, taxes will become unbearable. The value of the church building proposed as a school building is about $600 and it is large enough to make two large rooms. It is thought that these two buildings would serve the purpose of the board did not try to teach High school work also. What the Board would pay a teacher for High school work would more than pay for an additional building, like the Baptist church. There is a High school in Norwood, only six miles from here and the fees for attending are very small—only $6 a year. There were only about seven pupils in the continuation class last term, and when you have to pay a teacher $800 for teaching seven pupils High School work, it would pay much better to pay their way to the High School at Norwood or some other place. If High school work is taught it will be necessary to get apparatus so that the same may be thoroughly done. Pupils could also get a much better education at other schools where there are more teachers and better equipment.

But the idea of the school board should not be overlooked, for it too is a good one. They propose to build this square building now and when the old part becomes unfit for school purposes, to tear it down and erect another part adjoining the good building.

In the present building there are three rooms upstairs and only two downstairs. It is thought by some of our citizens, as both up and down stairs are of the same area, that the downstairs could be made into three rooms as well as the upstairs.

But the ratepayers will have a chance to decide what will be done, and it is hoped they will act so as to benefit the town and not themselves



I will refund your money if it fails. Munyon

There was no election in the contest for the deputy grand master, none of the three candidates obtaining a majority. One thousand and thirty-three votes were cast, Judge D. F. MacWatt of Sarnia leading with 470, Aubrey White of Toronto 405, and Shaw of Kingston 158. The latter retired and the votes will be divided between MacWatt and White.

Niagara Falls was chosen over Windsor as the next place of meeting, by a large vote.

On motion of R. L. Gunn of Hamilton, and E. T. Malone, a resolution was unanimously passed protesting against the inconvenience caused by the Passenger Agents' Association for failure to provide the proper facilities for handling the certificates and tickets of members.

J. K. Bryden's motion to increase the representation of grand lodge was snowed under.

Fire Brigade's Busy Afternoon

Hard Work to Extinguish Fire in Sawdust Embankment

The fire brigade had a busy time yesterday afternoon. About four o'clock they were called to put out a fire that was burning in the sawdust on the east shore of the Otonabee river, and when they set to work, they found the task a much more difficult one than was at first apparent. As is generally known the east bank of the river in the vicinity of London street, is almost one solid composition of sawdust, a momento of the days when the Dickson Co.'s mill was in operation in that locality.

The fire had been burning in the sawdust since the first of the week but how it started no one seems to know. Not much attention was paid it, as it was thought that the rain would extinguish it, but such was not the case. There was some danger of the fire creeping over and igniting the old wooden bridge across the river and so the fire brigade was called out. It took the firemen from four o'clock to seven to get the fire out, the sawdust having to be soaked through and through before the fire ceased burning. Several streams of water were kept turned on the bank for three hours, and it is not likely that it will smoke again, unless the fire is started again.

BIG MAIL

The British mail reaching Winnipeg increases in volume weekly. This is in part due to the increasing number of Britishers who have permanently taken up residence in the city, but it is in great measure a direct result of the reduced rate on mails from the British Isles, which became effective at the beginning of April. The growing number of British magazines and periodicals of a high order is chiefly accountable for the increase, the monthly receipts being about fifty per cent. over those of the corresponding period of last year.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Baptists Project Radical Change

May Hold Dominion Convention Instead of Provincial Ones

A Montreal despatch says; — The question of the advisability of holding a Dominion convention of Baptists, in place of the present provincial convention, yesterday occupied the attention of a committee of Baptists from various parts of the Dominion, which held its sessions in Strathconas Hall.

The combined committee, which discussed at length the matter of organizing a Baptist Dominion convention, has power to make recommendations to the various provincial conventions with regard to the result of its deliberations. Progress was made in regard to the name of the proposed organization, viz.; "The Baptist Union of Canada." With reference to the scope of its work, it was determined that foreign missions and Canadian missions should be included. Sub-committees were appointed to draw up articles with regard to these two departments. Sessions will be continued today in Strathcona Hall, when the sub-committees will consider and report on the subjects named.

More New Seats in Legislature

Redistribution Bill Will be Introduced Next Session

A Toronto despatch says,—Probabilities shape towards an appeal to the Province by the Whitney Administration early in the autumn of next year. The Provincial elections will, it is reported, take place ,at the end of September, or during the the early part of October, 1908. They may follow the completion of the harvest of that year.

The Government, it is said, has practically decided that only one more session of the legislature will be held. This, of course, will meet in the early days of next year, and promises to be an exceptionally long one. Among the important government measures to be submitted will be extensive reforms along the line of public and separate school legislation and the consideration of the reduced prices of the new text books. A big programme affecting the development of New Ontario is likely to be forthcoming. Important prison labor legislation will follow the work of the special legislative committee recently appointed. The attorney-general will submit the report of the committee on the revision of the statutes and his long-looked-for measure of law reform.

Moreover the Redistribution Bill will be brought down. This bill will be much less radical in its changes than has been supposed. It is said that the prime minister, Hon. Mr. Whitney, has taken strong grounds against the wholesale gerrymander for purely party purposes. County lines will be closely followed, and where counties are sub-divided municipal or natural geographical lines must be followed.

An appeal for ten members in Toronto will probably be denied. An understanding has been reached, it is thought, whereby the representation of the Queen City will be doubled within the present constituencies. The four ridings will each elect two members, instead of one, as at present.

Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines, will emphatically urge increased representation for Northern Ontario. It is believed he thoroughly concurs in the plea of many of the northern residents that they are entitled to more members. The ground is taken that it is unjust alike to members and constituents for a man to be called upon to properly and personally represent the people of a district extending hundreds of miles in length.

Throughout the rural constituencies comparatively little change is anticipated. In South-western Ontario there is likely to be practically none.

It is anticipated that the government will confer with the individual members at the end of the present year, prior to the informal draft of the bill, which will be committed to a special legislative committee composed of members on both sides of the house. The members will likely utilize the coming four months in determining upon their recommendations.

A total increase of about fifteen seats is predicted if the bill goes through according to the present outline of principles to be followed in its framing.

The Daily Review

FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1907.

PETTY SPITE

The Laurier Government, evidently, can carry petty spite in picayune affairs as far as any jealous minded or pessimistic individual in Canada. It does some pretty small things to gratify its desire for revenge. Because Mr. Armand Lavergne, M. P., has not kept step with the music of the Laurier aggregation, having been elected as a Liberal, but has freely criticized certain unjustifiable acts of the administration, his newspaper has been cut off from the patronage list. This is certainly a most petty piece of business.

And now comes another evidence of this same trivial and envious sort of dealing. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, he of "two mouth canal fame," was deservedly turned down by the electors of Durham in the last campaign. It is a sore touch for the Minister of Justice," a canker which he cannot forget. He believes in retribution and is ostensibly bound to have it carried out at any possible cost, no matter in what trifling manner. It appears that extensive repairs and alterations are now being made to the Gull light house. In former years when repairs have been made to the light house, iron and other material necessary for the work and supplies for the men engaged have been purchased in Port Hope. This year the government has issued an order that no purchases of any kind are to be made in Port Hope. This order is being strictly obeyed, and all lumber, iron, groceries, and other supplies are being purchased in Cobourg. Mr. McMahon's gasoline launch is engaged to transport the material from Cobourg to the lighthouse. No suitable vessel for the purpose could be procured in Cobourg.

The Liberals of Port Hope are thoroughly disgusted at the latest display on the part of Mr. Aylesworth and the Laurier Government and do not take any pains to conceal their chagrin. But what else can be expected from the self-seeking, time-serving and pledge-breaking aggregation of opportunists at the capital.

Referring to the latest exhibition of malice the Port Hope Times remarks: A Government that would stoop to so trifling a revenge deserves only contempt. If it imagines that its display of spite will add to the chances of its candidate at the next election it is vastly mistaken; Mr. Aylesworth may congratulate himself that he is punishing Port Hope for its contumacy in rejecting his candidature. He mistakes the temper of the people of Durham if he imagines that his utmost efforts will have any other effect than to increase the contempt in which he and his colleagues are now held.

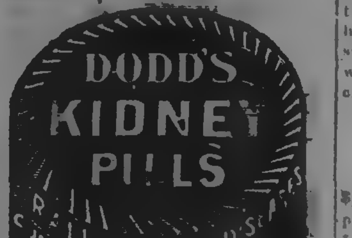
EXPORTING LOGS

The Hamilton Spectator calls attention to the arrival in Michigan of 3,000,000 feet of pine logs cut from Indian lands in Ontario. These logs were under the control of the Dominion Government, to which the provincial regulations do not apply. Another raft is expected to arrive at Bay City next week.

"The question has been asked a thousand times," says the Spectator, "How long is the Dominion Government going to permit this sort of thing?" But there has never been an enlightening answer—there has never been any answer. The only person in all Canada who can benefit by existing conditions in the matter of pine, are a few lumbermen who supply the American market. These men are rich, and should now be satisfied with the money they have made out of the loss of the Canadian people. They should now be willing to give a chance to the rest of the population of this country.

"The great bulk of the people of Canada would have the import of unsound pine prohibited, that the people of Canada might enjoy a monopoly which has been given to her among many other good things.

"There is positively no excuse for the government's delay in this matter—except, of course the election subscription — for there cannot be any doubt whatever, that the prohibition of its export of pine logs would be of vast advantage to the people of Canada. The experiment made by Mr. Ross in Ontario has done a great good to this province, and there is no room for the supposition that on a larger scale a similar regulation would not work work well for the whole of Canada."



PEN POINTS

Read the new serial story which will begin in tomorrow's issue of this paper. It is well worthy of perusal.

The Port Hope Times says that the Orange demonstration for this district will be held in the lakeside town next year. This is certainly reckoning without your host. The lodges have already decided to celebrate in Peterborough on July 12th 1908 and no one has ever thought of Port Hope.

Another sign of an approaching Federal election. The Lindsay post-office building is being re-painted and renovated. It is a political axiom that money for improvements is always ready just before elections. Elections are not won by prayers; and most decidedly, most emphatically they are not won by fastings! Little straws show how the wind blows—Lindsay Watchman-Warder.

It is understood that representations are being made to the Government with a view of having the day on which the national holiday of Thanksgiving is celebrated, changed from Thursday to Monday. It is pointed out that the public generally would much prefer to have the holiday fixed for the second day in the week, instead of breaking it in the middle, as is done when it is held on Thursday. Some opposition to the change is developing, chiefly from the railways, it is said.

The C.P.R. is of age. Twenty-one years ago, it had only 4,651 miles of track; today it has roughly speaking 12,000 miles. Then it had one through train a day, five days in the week, going to Vancouver in five days and a half. Today there is a double daily transcontinental service, the Over-seas mail every month, and the trans-Canada, Limited, running three times a week during July and August, and each making the trip in two days less time than the one took twenty-one years ago.

What Canada needs, according to the Toronto Telegram, in order to the beginning of a literature is;—"Canadians need the Seeing Eye and the Understanding Heart if they are to work out the everlasting truth that there is glory in the life of the country round about them. Canadians want more true courage, more pride of country, more of the culture that exhibits itself in affection for principles, and indifference to platitudes, and then their country will be at the beginning of a literature."

Take a holiday. As you are not a mere machine, but a human body, with a nervous system sensitive to long and weary labor, be sure and freshen up by a vacation, however short it may be; it is poor economy to do without one. You may save twenty dollars by staying at home, and lose fifty in the process. Your clerks are equally entitled to a rest. They will work all the better for a change. These are times when a man must keep bright and up-to-date and summer is the best period for vacation. When taking one do not feel that you are robbing the business by so doing. It is as good an investment as you can make. In deciding to let the clerks go, also arrange it so as to make them feel that you want them to go and are pleased that they will be the better for it. They say that a dog is the only creature that will take a bone thankfully when it is thrown to him. What is Happening at Stony Lake During July's Hot Days

Houseboat Party is Having a Jolly Time—Several People have Unpremeditated Dips in the Lake—Visitors From Peterborough and Elsewhere.

Special to the Review.

Stony Lake, July 19.—Mr. Walter Currie, of Toronto, who is summering at "Ballyraggit," is having some rather unpleasant experiences these days, and several times lately he has had a good ducking in the lake. On Tuesday morning when the supply boat called at their island, Mr. Currie was examining its engine. He was leaning over looking into the yacht, and his attention was so taken up with it, it being untied, the yacht soon drifted out quite a distance from the wharf unnoticed by Mr. Currie. When he went to put his foot on to the wharf he fell into the lake and had to swim to shore. It was just a few days ago that he was upset in his sail boat.

On Monday evening a young lady and gentlemen were returning to their cottage, and it being quite dark, it was almost impossible for one to see where the wharf was. However, they found the wharf, or at least they thought they had, and the young lady was sure she had struck it, but on stepping from her boat she found the bottom of the lake instead of the wharf. Fortunately the water was not beyond the young lady's depth. She received a good ducking, while her friends on the wharf had a good laugh at her expense.

NIGHTLY HOPS.

The dances at the pavilion are now nightly occurrences, and a good number gather each evening to enjoy an hour or two at this pastime. The first dance at the "Viamede" pavilion was held on Monday evening, and was enjoyed by the guests and a number of the cottagers.

HOUSE BOAT PARTY.

One of the joliest house parties that ever toured the Kawartha lake is that which now is enjoying a two weeks' outing on the house boat "Lotus," owned by Mr. R. B. Rogers. The party consists of fourteen gentlemen of the Calina Oil Co., of Franklin, Pa. Mr D. Mallory is the head man of the party. Other members are Messrs. Elgo, B. Prince, A. Prince, F. Prince, Miller, Dunn, Dr. Swartz, Borland, Keen, Dale, and Clarkson, all residents of Franklin. They took the houseboat a week ago last Wednesday at Bobcaygeon, and since then have been touring the lakes. They came as far as Burleigh Falls on Saturday, returning to Sturgeon Point on Monday. The steam yacht "Victoria," is towing the boat. Several guides accompany the party, and at different points the boat is anchored and the bunch go fishing. They have been exceedingly lucky, and many good catches have been made. A negro cook looks after the catering. The members are all good singers, and a piano on board, brought especially from Toronto for the party, adds greatly to the pleasure of the splendid outing. Every one apparently is enjoying himself and will be sorry when it is time to go home. They return to Franklin the first of the week, taking with them a goodly number of the finny tribe.

City Treasurer Frank Adams and family are occupying "Fairy Lake Villa" for a few weeks.

Miss Jessie Cressman is at "Medawawbuk."

Mr. W. G. Cameron, of New York City, is spending his holidays at "Boschink."

Mr. Gordon Kline, of Toronto, is holidaying at the lakes.

Mr. C. W. Meadick is a guest at "Buena Vista."

Miss Mabel Price, of Toronto, is a guest at "Grassy Island."

Mrs. A. G. Tallant, of Pittsburg, is a guest at "Old Kimo."

Mr. John G. McCall, New York, is at "Ballyraggit" for a holiday.

Miss Eva Crane is the guest of Miss Claras Adams at "Fairy Lake Villa."

Messrs. Gordon Miller and Harry Cressman were at "Fern Rock" for a couple of days this week.

The "Rob Roy" came up to the lakes on Wednesday from Peterborough.

Misses Lillian Roger and Dorothy Langfeldt came to "Kawartha Lodge" on Tuesday evening.

A drive of logs belonging to the McDonald Lumber Co., and two to the Peterborough Lumber Co., are passing through Stony Lake, and during the few days the cooks have been largely patronized by the cottagers.

"Two Years Less One Day" Was Sentence Imposed on Woman

Who Was Found With Men at Jackson Park Yesterday—Vag. Wanted Six Months in the Central and Her Wish Was Gratified.

Edward Herron and Nellie Drain went for a walk in Jackson Park yesterday afternoon accompanied by a gentleman friend named Sutherland. Someone, however, seemed to object to their presence among the tall pines and notified the police. As a result P. C. Newhall and P. C. Meharry went out to the park and took Herron and Nellie Drain into custody, but Sutherland apparently escaped, as he did not feel the arm of the law;

"Edward Herron, you are charged with vagrancy, with having no mean of subsistence," read out Magistrate Dumble, and the accused rose in the prisoner's box.

"Not guilty," was the reply, "I've got a home to go to."

P. C. Newhall replied that in response to a message he and P. C. Meharry had gone to Jackson Park yesterday afternoon shortly before two o'clock and after searching the grounds found Herron and Nellie Drain lying on the grass in that portion of the park east of the G.T.R track. On noticing the bluecoats they got up and started down Smith street and along the Grand Trunk track. A man named Sutherland was with them. The policemen took Herron and the woman into custody and as this was being done, the man with the fish-like name remarked that they "had just came out to the park for a walk." Herron had been in court before and had served a month in jail for theft. He had no money on him when searched at the police station.

The prisoner went in the box and pleaded for one more chance. He stated that he was 27 years of age and had a wife, but had not lived with her for five years. They had two children but they were dead. He informed his Worship that he had been employed as a river driver until four days ago, when he came to Peterborough.

"I am not worthy of being sent to prison," he said. "Give me a chance and I'll get out of town. I've got a job as guide with the Americans at Buckhorn, and will go there right away."

"I don't want to prevent you from earning an honest living, said the magistrate, "I'll give you a chance, but don't come back here again, or it will be Central Prison for yours. This is a fair warning."

Herron disappeared down the stairs with great avidity and declared his intention of hiking for the tall timbers at Buckhorn.

NELLIE'S HARD SENTENCE

Nellie Drain was also accused of vagrancy. Nellie's place of abode is at Norwood, but life there is evidently too quiet for her disposition.

P. C. Newhall testified as to finding her at the park with two men. When she was arrested she told the officer that she had just come up from Norwood on the morning train having had a quarrel with her husband. She has just been out of jail for ten days, after serving a month beyond the slopes of Victoria Park.

Nellie pleaded hard for a chance. "I had a return ticket for Norwood," she said, "and was going back on the evening train, if I hadn't been arrested. I have been trying to do right since I got out of jail.

The woman's previous character has been shady. About six weeks ago she was found in the barn of a local hotel with three men and was given a month for the offence.

"I'm afraid you're beyond hope," said His Worship, "and I'll send you to the Mercer."

"Two years less one day," was the sentence and Nellie was taken from the court room.

GOT WHAT HE WANTED

Harry Watters came to the police station last night and asked for a night's lodging. He also told the chief that he would welcome six months in the Central Prison. He got it.

Henry faced the bench this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy. He told the magistrate that he had been out from the Old Country three years.

"Do you still want six months in the Central," asked His Worship.

"Yes, sir," was the meek response and Watters joined the laugh that went around the court room.

Accordingly he will have his Christmas cards sent to him at the Central Prison this year.

"Skiddoo Night" at Roller Rink

Will be Observed on Thursday Evening Next

On Thursday night next, the Charlotte street roller rink will close for the season. It will be known as "Skiddoo Night," and everything will be run on the 23 line. It will take 23 cents to gain admission, the band will number 23 pieces, and there will be twenty-three prizes given for different events. It will certainly be skiddoo all around.

Last evening there was a contest for the best lady skater, and the prize was captured by Miss Irene Craig. There was a large crowd of skaters. The judges were Messrs Harry Beal, Joseph Armstrong, and T. H. G. Boyd. The rink will be open to the public on Saturday night.

Through the good offices of Hon. Adam Beck, a compromise agreement has been effected between the city of Ottawa and the Ottawa and Hull Electric Co.

Summer Visitors: Guests at Viamede

Enjoyable Progressive Euchre Party Held on Tuesday Night

On Tuesday evening a progressive euchre, was held at Viamede, Stony Lake, which proved even more enjoyable than the dance, as the older people could enter into it, as well as the young folks. Smaltz, of Philadelphia, won the ladies' prize and Mr. Dwyer, of St. Catharines, won the gentlemen's prize. Mr Wickett won the booby prize.

Mr. Smaltz has been a very successful fisherman this week, every day bringing in a good catch of bass.

On Monday evening the first dance of the season was held in the pavilion at Viamede. Mr. and Mrs Murton kindly provided the music. One of the features of the evening was a comic set of lancers, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Big Rush to the Summer Resorts

Many Americans are Passing Through City to the Lakes

There is a big rush to Kawarthadom these days. The lure of the lakes cannot be resisted by the man or woman who has once spent a summer in those delightful regions, with their cool breezes, charming lakes and wealth of verdure. The hot weather of the past few days has been driving people in large numbers to Chemong, Stoney Lake and the other summer resorts around Peterborough. Many of those who are answering the "call of the wild," are from the United States and in the majority of cases, those who come from over the line have summered here in other years. They come back again, bringing some friends and relatives with them and thus add to the popularity of the resorts in this vicinity.

This morning a party of Americans left on the auto bus for Chemong on their route to Buckhorn, where they will spend several weeks at Eastwood's. Those who composed the party, were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Band and daughter, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Ketchum, of Victor, N. Y.; C. W. Congdon and Miss Esther Congdon, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Yesterday a party of gentlemen from Buffalo, left for Stoney Lake, where they will spend a couple of weeks. The party was composed of Messrs. Wm. Hume, G. F. Glover, Jas. Chalmers, Charles H. Gotwalt, Robert Wilkenson, and L. L. Glover, all of Buffalo.

FROM ORILLIA TO HASTINGS

First Boat to Make the Trip Arrived in Peterboro' To-day at Noon

The first boat from Orillia to reach Peterborough through the Trent Canal, arrived in the city at noon today and was let down over the big lift lock with great success. The boat was a gasoline launch, "The Idyler," owned by Mr. Thompson, the lumber king of the northern town, and he and Mrs Thompson are making a tour of the Trent canal from one end to the other, as far as it is open for navigation. They have been on the water for several days and are thoroughly enjoying the outing. Everything went fine all the way down. They got across Lake Simcoe and up the canal to Kirkfield, over the lift lock, and through the various locks, rivers and lakes until they struck Lakefield last night. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson spent the night in the village and early this morning started for Peterborough. Progress down the Otonabee and through this stretch of canal was very slow on account of the weeds, which grow right out into the channel. A short stop was made here for supplies and provisions, and then the handsome little craft continued its journey down the Otonabee to Rice Lake, and on to Hastings. The pioneer navigators of the Trent Canal are taking their time and after a few days will start on the return journey.

HOT WEATHER HERE TO STAY

Thermometer Will Not Likely go Below 80 at Noon for Some Days

There is a hot time coming. At least the hot brand of weather having reached here is going to stay for a time. Today and tomorrow threaten to be regular scorchers, and the weather man predicts that the temperature is likely to touch above the 80 mark for some little time to come. All Canada seems to be enjoying the same degree of temperature.

The above despatch, which comes from Toronto, will be very good news to the people, no doubt. Warm weather is very pleasant and greatly enjoyed by those who do not have to work, and lucky are those who are rusticating on the breeze swept islands of Stony Lake, or on the cool hills around Rice Lake and at Chemong. Those who have to stay in the city and keep the wheels of commerce going, feel the heat this week, as it has been greater than at any time all summer and more oppressive. Yesterday the official thermometer registered 82 degrees in the shade and today it registered 84 again. Mr. Peters was afraid to put the thermometer in the sun and is unable to say just how hot it really is on the streets.

New Home for Children's Aid

Council Favorably Inclined to Grant Site on Hilliard Farm

A few days ago a suggestion was made in these columns that the city grant the Children's Aid Society a free site on the Hilliard farm for the erection of the new home. This idea has met with favor from many of the members of the council and the mayor stated this morning that it would be taken up at the next council meeting which will likely be on July 29th. The council will likely request the city trust commissioners to grant a portion of the farm to the society as the commissioners are in charge of it. The council has, however, the right to erect a building and lease any part of the farm free of charge and without seeking permission, but the former way will likely be the one followed.

SESSION NOVEMBER 14?

Latest Report Regarding the Meeting of Parliament.

Ottawa, July 18.—It is now said that Parliament will be called together for Thursday, November 14.

Complaints of Missing Trains

Mayor McWilliams Has Drawn Attention of G.T.R. Agent to Lack of System

Several complaints have been made about the way in which trains arrive and depart at the local Grand Trunk depot. It is not an uncommon occurrence for a person to miss or get on the wrong train, for no other reason than that there is no way to tell one train from another. Mayor McWilliams was at the station yesterday and saw a man miss his train because he did not know which one to get on and there was no one around to tell him. His Worship has written Mr. Sandy, the local agent and asked him to provide a means of announcing trains, and suggested that a placard be attached to the side of each train designating the direction in which it is going.

Plans are Ready for City Hall

Council Will Likely Spend a Whole Night on Them Before They are Accepted

Architect John E. Belcher has completed the plans for remodelling the city hall and they are ready for the council to take up. The plans provide radical changes in the building and if carried out will occupy the entire floor space of two flats. The council committee room will be greatly enlarged, a sub-committee room added and the city clerk's office will be moved over to where the treasurer now is, while the treasurer will have part of the old fire hall along with the tax collector. The city engineer, plumbing inspector, assessors, street commissioner and other officials will be upstairs. Splendid apartments are provided for the engineer and if carried out, he will be able to accomplish much more work.

The plans will be taken up by the committee of the whole council and it is expected that a whole night will be taken up with them. Nearly everyone has a different idea, and by the time the plans are changed to suit all, the architect will not recognize his own sketch.

Extending Gas Mains on Streets

Gas Company Has Many New Consumers and Many More Want the Service

The Peterborough Gas Co. are extending their mains on several new streets this season. The use of gas for cooking in summer is rapidly increasing in popularity. Residents find it convenient in preparing a meal and as it requires no labor in making a fire, and does not heat the house, many are putting in gas ranges. So far this summer two hundred new consumers have been added, and there will be nearly as many more before the season is over. Then not a few who are building new houses are heating the kitchens with the furnace and use gas for cooking the year round. It is found even cheaper than coal and much nicer for the women in the house.

At the present time the company are putting their mains out Gilmour street, where there is a great demand for the gas; also on Waters street between Dublin and Smith streets, on Charlotte street, and on Boswel, and Pearl avenues. Other extensions will also be made.

PARK STREET SUNDAY SCHOOL

Enjoyable Time Spent Down the River at Chambers' Point

A very large and good tempered crowd from Park street church Sunday school gathered yesterday morning at the Wolfe street wharf, and also below the locks and after the first shock of disappointment by the spacious scow being ruled out of business by the Government Inspector till it was examined, proceeded down the river on the steamer Mongrel.

The party settled down to the new arrangements fully intent on a good day's enjoyment, in which they succeeded right royally. The new objective point, Chambers' Point, in two trips and a sail up and down the river during the afternoon, was done to the heart's content of young and old. Swings were put up and the spacious grounds afforded ample shade. The change was even more satisfactory than the lower journey to Idyl Wyld as the whole party were given more time instead of leaving for home at five o'clock, they were able to continue the fun until eight o'clock, and then return in good time. The refreshment department, including the ice cream freezers were well manned and the sports committee were experienced athletes, as the following programme will show:

Walking the slippery pole for the dollar bill at end was very exciting and caught the great crowd, who lined the river bank and the decks of the steamers. The young men and boys had provided themselves with bathing suits and went into the affair in a businesslike manner, again and again tumbling headlong into the deep waters. The winners were Frank Barrie, Charles Pogue and Norman Barrie.

Baseball match captained by John Pilling a tie. The shorter journey allowed time for canoeing, and a number were hired, and the river programme tended to increased enjoyment. Fares were reduced to 25 cents for the round trip, including the sails in the afternoon. Altogether the change of programm etended to increased enjoyment, and a balance, it is hoped, for the school fund.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Brace were present and looked after the comfort and safety of the party generally.

SALVATION ARMY HAVE BIG PICNIC

Will Close Sharp At Ten O'clock

Grafton & Co. Will Shorten Hours of Labor on Saturday

Col. J. J. Graton, of the big clothing firm of Grafton & Co., Limited, of Dundas, was in the city yesterday on a visit to the large local establishment.

It is a year and a half since Col. Grafton's last visit to Peterborough. He believes that there is no place making more progress than this thriving city. In conversation with the Review, the Colonel said he noticed decided changes and many improvements since his last trip here.

Discussing business matters he expressed the view that the hours of labor on Saturday were too long in Peterborough and left instructions to have the local store closed at ten o'clock henceforth. Heretofore it has been as late as eleven and even later before the big staff of clerks got away on Saturday nights. It is the intention of Grafton & Co. to close promptly at ten on that evening and it is understood a campaign may shortly be inaugurated for a still shorter working day at the end of the week. The many customers and friends of Grafton & Co. are kindly asked to do their purchases as early as possible on Saturday night.

Col. Grafton was much pleased with the splendid business progress and expansion of the Peterborough branch.

He Will Conduct Tent Meetings

Mr. Henry Turner, of Richmond, Virginia, who has been conducting services in Gospel Hall, corner of Brock and George streets, left today for Belleville where, in company with Mr. Irving of that c he will hold a series of tent meetings. Mr. Fleming May will be at Gospel Hall tomorrow at 3 and 7 o'clock.

Police Court Business on the Increase Since Jan. 1st

Up to July 19th There Were 151 Cases More Than During the Same Period Last Year—Mostly Minor Offences—Receipts $723.06, and Expenditures $2930.06.

Many times and in many ways the people of the city have been told of the very rapid increase in the population and the growth of the commercial interests. The stores are doing more business, the factories are turning out more goods, the churches have increased their membership and everyone is doing better. But the police court is also doing more business and the increase there is as great as anywhere else. Last year up to July 19th, there were 292 cases heard by the police magistrate and that was the greatest number of cases recorded in any year. The population too was the greatest in the city's history. This year with a still greater population and with many changes in the people, the police court record has increased also. From the first of January to the 19th of July, the magistrate had heard 443 cases, or an increase over the same period last year of 151.

It is, in spite of the large increase in the number of cases, creditable to the people of the city that the great majority of the cases were for minor offences, such as being drunk, vagrancy, etc., Very few serious offences have been committed, and the fines have, generally, been small.

To note what it costs the city to have law and order prevail will be interesting at this time also. From the first of January to June 30th, 1907, the city has received in fines from the police court, $723.06: and for the administration of justice, including the magistrate's salary and the salary of the police force, and all other expenses connected with it, the city has paid out $2,930.06. As the number of cases are given up to July 19, and the expenses only to June 30th, a correct statement as to the average cost per case cannot be given.

Terrible Explosion on Yacht; Loss of Life and Property

Gasoline Tank Burst—Kills One, Injures Three.

Terrible Accident On the Bay At Toronto—Woman Burned to Death In Cabin—Engineer's Arm Broken In Three Places—Boat Sank In Several Feet of Water—Crew Had Narrow Escape.

Toronto, July 20.—Death and severe injury accompanied by a considerable property loss were caused by a gasoline explosion on Amelius Jarvis' big auxiliary yacht the Sitarah in the Yonge street slip yesterday at noon.

Mrs. Valberg Backenstein, was burned to death, and Mrs. Christina Johnston lies in St. Michael's Hospital in a critical condition, being frightfully burned; while Nels Olsen, engineer of the ill-fated boat; Alf. Johnson, 15 years, cabin boy, and Ernest Johnson, 7 years, sons of Mrs. Johnson, are in the hospital suffering from lesser injuries.

The women, whose husbands work upon other yachts of the R.C.Y.C. fleet of which the Sitarah, a barge ketch, was the queen, had asked and secured permission to cross to the island in the boat, and First Mate Jack Jorgenson had given the signal for the boat to start when a deafening explosion took place.

Terrific Force.

So great was the force of this that the cabin top was lifted from its fastenings and one of the tenders was blown from the davits to the dock. Immediately there was a rush for the dock as flames leaped from the lower portion of the vessel.

Jorgenson, who was at the wheel on deck, reached the shore in safety, and Nels Olsen, who was standing by the engines, made his way on deck with his collarbone broken and his clothing alight. Charles Backenstein, a deckhand, who was on the deck, also jumped ashore.

At this point one of the Johnson boys was discovered on deck, and Patrick Rawlings, a young bystander, leaped upon the burning craft and seizing the lad in his arms made his way to the dock in safety amid the cheers of the onlookers.

Dived For Boy.

Frederick L. Faulkner, saw the other lad in the water, and instantly dived. He brought him to the dock after a struggle.

Mrs. Johnson appeared in the companionway. Her clothing was ablaze. She gained the deck and ran screaming to the dock, where her clothing was extinguished.

Falls Into Flames.

When Mrs. Backenstein came from the cabin several stepped forward to help her, but just as the hands of the rescuers were upon her she threw up her hands and fell back into the flames.

Meanwhile the Bay street and Lombard street divisions of the fire department and the fire tug Nelly Bly appeared upon the scene. Stretching hose from the Esplanade the firemen soon had two lines playing on the blazing boat, while an equal number played upon her from the fire tug, which had steamed alongside.

The Bay street chemical engine was brought into play and seemed to be the only thing which had any effect upon the burning gasoline, which was now escaping in large quantities from the 55-gallon tank within the boat.

Feared Second Explosion.

This tank was the great fear in fighting the flames. It had not exploded, and no one could say at what moment it might ignite, causing a still more serious explosion than the first.

When word of this danger spread among the crowds upon the dock, the police had little trouble in keeping the idly curious at a safe distance.

Nevertheless, the firemen worked on determinedly, and at last the supply of the chemical engine was exhausted, and it was sent away to be recharged, which took half an hour.

Vessel Scuttled.

At last it became apparent that to extinguish the flames the vessel must be sunk, and at the word of Mr. Jarvis, large streams were turned into the boat and at 1 o'clock she grounded in the slip, where she now lies.

Meanwhile the injured had been removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where they were instantly attended.

Horribly Burned.

Mrs. Backenstein's body was horribly burned, and even the firemen were sickened. All the clothing except a garter, and a gold chain, and the ears, nose, fingers and toes were burned away.

When the yacht began to sink half a dozen of the firemen had to make a hurried scramble for the dock.

Mr. Jarvis valued the boat at $18,000. She was purchased at Detroit in 1905 from Russell Alger, Jr., since which time she has been fitted with her auxiliary engine. She was insured with the Federal Lloyds Company for $5,000, which will nearly cover the loss on her.

Five Dead In New York.

New York, July 20.—Three children and two men died yesterday as the result of the tropical heat wave which has been sweeping over this city for several days.

Francis Allison, a longshoreman, crazed with the heat, jumped from the third-storey of Governeur Hospital, and was killed.

Burned to Death.

Yreka, Calif., July 20.—The depot and depot hotel at Sisson, at the base of Mount Shasta, were burned to the ground at an early hour yesterday as the result of the explosion of a lamp. Miss Laura Savie, a school teacher, who had just arrived there from New York, was burned to death.

Killed By Colt's Kick.

Brampton, July 20.—The 12-year-old son of Nathaniel Carter, a prosperous farmer, living just outside the town, was instantly killed while assisting his father in the hay fields. A young unbroken colt entered the field, and in attempting to lead it out the boy was kicked in the loins.

CAID STILL CAPTIVE.

Deep Ditch Dug Around Tent to Prevent Escape.

Tangier, July 20.—The reports brought in here by courier that Caid Sir Harry MacLean had succeeded in escaping from the hands of the bandit Raisuli, appear to be untrue. The latest letter received from the Caid is dated July 13.

It says among other things, that a deep ditch had been dug around his tent in order to prevent his escape.

Begging Their Way Along.

McCreary, Man., July 20.—About 35 Doukhobors arrived here on the march. All were very aged, except the leader, who is quite young.

They are from the Thunder Hill country, from Yorkton, begging their way as they go, and marching four abreast, singing chants. They do not seem to have any particular place in view to go to. Last seen they were heading for Neepawa.

Reports are that there were about 200 of them when they started, but a lot of them dropped out on the way on account of old age, not being equal to the journey.

One Question Too Much.

The servant problem was under discussion, and "experiences" were being related. Several women stopped talking at the same moment, and the silence, which had lasted nearly two seconds, was broken by a young matron, who said: "But, ladies, that's all nothing to what happened to me last week. My cook left me, you know, for no earthly reason except that she told the chambermaid we starved the help. The idea! Well, I went to the intelligence office and after a long search found the girl I wanted to take Maggie's place. She answered every question to my satisfaction until I asked her, 'Why did you leave your last place?' Then she got red in the face, threw her head back and said in an angry tone: 'Because I wanted a change. Why did your last cook leave?' And before I could answer she turned away, saying, 'You'll not suit.' Now, isn't that dreadful?" And then all the other women told "dreadful" stories.

SIGNED AWAY CROWN

Dramatic Scene at Korean Emperor's Palace.

His Majesty Abdicates With Suppressed Sigh—Elders Upheld Ministers—Council Agreed as to Necessity For Their Ruler's Retirement—Serious Disorders in Seoul—Crowd of 5,000 Gather In Streets.

Seoul, Korea, July 20.—It is reported that a most dramatic scene occurred at the palace Thursday night, when the ministers, headed by Premier Wang Yong, appeared before His Majesty and made the Cabinet's final representation in urging the Emperor's abdication.

His Majesty was in a high state of excitement, but the Premier, in the most humble but firm tone dwelt at length upon want of precaution and prudence of the Emperor's policies hitherto, especially in diplomatic affairs, whereby he was endangering the safety of the nation. The Premier enumerated the facts of His Majesty's duplicities, which culminated in the despatch of a deputation to The Hague peace conference, and forcibly reasoned the uselessness of the Emperor's disavowal of his relation with The Hague affair.

Unable to successfully combat the logic of the Premier's representation, the Emperor sought a last refuge in the council of older statesmen, doubtless anticipating their sympathies. The council immediately convened. Four elders quickly responded and appeared before His Majesty at one o'clock yesterday morning.

The Emperor's disappointment and surprise was boundless when they unanimously agreed with the Minister's advice. His Majesty's mind was finally made up, and he consented to the draft for an imperial rescript announcing his abdication, which was placed before him for his signature.

The Emperor's condition was indescribable. Greatly agitated and perturbed, he signed the document and the seal was affixed amid an impressive silence. A suppressed sigh from the Emperor was the only sound which broke the death-like stillness that reigned throughout the memorable scene.

Briefly, the Emperor, in the imperial rescript of abdication, expressed his regret that during the 44 years of his reign, national calamities have followed in rapid succession and the people's distress has become so aggravated that he esteemed it now time to transfer the crown to the heir-apparent in conformity with ancestral usages.

Last night serious disorders occurred. A crowd of 5,000 Koreans had been beaten back from the palace gates. During the audience with the Cabinet, when the Emperor acquiesced to the demand for abdication, a number of students attempted to present a petition to the Emperor, but the police prevented them from doing so, driving them back east of the palace, where they remained all night, making speeches. At midnight Chief of Police Maruyama distributed carbines to the police, the crowd continued to increase but remained orderly.

Some shops were closed because of the sympathy of their proprietors with the Emperor, and the streets around the palace were filled with people. The Japanese papers have published some sensational rumors, but there is little indication of a revolt.

FOUND HUSBAND DYING.

Wife Asked Policeman For Name of Men Injured.

Detroit, July 20.—Allan Cowan of Ottawa, Ont., a stone mason, who has been working on the new Hotel Ponchartrain since last October, was caught at the bottom of an elevator shaft and terribly crushed by the elevator loaded with workmen descending to the basement. He died in a few minutes while on the way to the hospital.

His wife, on her way to Belle Isle, passed the hotel just after the ambulance left the building, and asked a policeman the cause of the crowd gathering and then for the injured man.

With a wild cry she and a visiting sister from London, Ont., rushed to a street car, and were at the hospital before the ambulance arrived with the dead body of her husband.

Fake Detectives Fined.

Niagara Falls, July 20.—Two young men, named King and Comfort, who attempted to blackmail Mrs. Horn of the Queen's Hotel, Fort Erie, by claiming to be detectives from the Provincial Secretary's office, and saying they had secured evidence to convict her of infraction of the license act, offering to drop prosecution on payment of $25, came before Magistrate Redford yesterday. After hearing the evidence, the magistrate fined the men $35.30 each, or 60 days each in default.

Six local hotel men were convicted and fined for selling liquor on Sunday.

Bullet For Theft.

Kingston, July 20.—The paymaster at the Bedford-Feldspar mines shot a man in the leg at an early hour while trying to climb through a screened window, evidently with the intention of securing a pay packet containing $1,500.

The marauder was captured. When brought to Kingston, H. W. Richardson, owner of the mines, declined to prosecute.

Farmer Instantly Killed.

Kincardine, July 20.—John Miller, a farmer living on the south line of Kincardine Township, was accidentally killed while unloading some hay into his barn. The trip rope broke, throwing him backwards, his head striking the ground, fracturing the skull.

He was about 60 years of age and leaves a widow and two children.

Herbert Boyle, an English carpenter at Galt, was drowned in the Grand River while bathing last night.

That Blacksod Scheme.

London, Eng., July 20.—Sir Thos. Trowbridge and the other promoters of the Black Sod-Halifax scheme, having this week carried through Parliament, their bill for harbor and railway connections in County Mayo, are making definite proposals to Lloyd George and Winston Churchill next week.

They guarantee to place three 25-knot steamers on the route reaching Halifax under four days for a total subsidy of one and one-half million dollars from the British and Canadian Governments together.

They express confidence in the success of their project, especially in view of the warm Irish support.

KILLS FAMILY OF SIX

Poisoned Father and Five Children For Insurance Money.

Murderer to Pay the Death Penalty—Was Friend of the Family—Told Their Fortunes and Administered Fatal Medicine — Wife of Victim Also Dead — Suicided When Her Lover Was Arrested.

Chicago, July 20.—Herman Bilik Thursday night was found guilty of killing with poison Adolph Vrzal and five of his children. The jury fixed the penalty at death.

Vrzal and his children all died within a few weeks of each other under suspicious circumstances. Bilik had been a friend of the family for years, and in his capacity of fortune-teller had administered medicine to the children.

Testimony was submitted by the state charging Bilik with having disposed of Vrzal and his children in order to collect the life insurance they carried. Mrs Vrzal was shown to have been under the influence of Bilik, whom she loved.

The day after his arrest she committed suicide by taking poison.

COLLEGE MAN BAD BURGLAR.

Highly Talented But With Mania For Stealing.

Edmundston, N.B., July 20.—Reginald Forsythe, a college man, and a particularly gifted speaker, was found guilty of breaking into and robbing railway stations, stealing horses and various other thefts, and was yesterday sentenced by Judge Carleton to six years and six months in the penitentiary.

Forsythe is a native of Windsor, N.S., where his parents are among the most prominent people in town. He attended King's University, but always had a mania for stealing. After graduating, he left home and went to Montana, where he escaped lynching for horse stealing.

His family refused to aid him in his recent escapades, but he conducted his own case with great ability and succeeded in convincing the jury of his innocence in three different courts.

His career in college was exceptionally brilliant.

THREAD TO BE DEARER.

Price of Cotton Thread to Be Raised to 10 Cents a Spool.

New York, July 20.—Cotton thread, until a short time ago the most stable in price of all the staples, selling the country over for five cents a spool, is to be advanced again so that the retail price will be ten cents. On May 29 there was an advance which brought the retail price to 6 and 7 cents.

Increased cost of raw material and an advance in wages are the reasons given for the contemplated increase in price.

Independent manufacturers declare that neither of these reasons is a good one, for when cotton was selling much higher than it is now thread retailed for 5 cents.

SAVED FROM SUICIDE.

St. Thomas Man Almost Leaped From Niagara Bridge.

Buffalo, N.Y., July 20.—Customs inspectors, after a terrific hand to hand struggle with a drink-crazed man, succeeded in preventing him from hurling himself over the lower bridge on the Canadian side at Niagara Falls.

The man was James Smith, who gave him home as St. Thomas, Ont., and said he was a fireman on the Michigan Central.

He stood on the edge of the bridge tottering to and fro, just where the cars recently jumped the bridge, near the lower steel arch.

A companion was with him, and when he saw that Smith intended to jump to his death 200 feet below, he called for assistance, and Inspector Latta and Immigration Inspector Fulson by a ruse in pretending they wanted to fight Smith, deterred him.

He was taken in charge by a Canadian policeman and placed in jail.

TORONTO NURSE ACCUSED.

Said to Have Stolen $40 to Play the Races.

New York, July 20.—Sadie Sackett, a trained nurse from Toronto, aged 32, a tall and good-looking blonde, who came here three weeks ago with credentials from a Toronto nurses' training school, was arrested and held under $200 bail for trial on the charge of stealing $40 from Katherine Bravin, matron of the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities office.

She had lost the money playing the Sheepshead Bay races.

Irish Whip Resigning.

QUEBEC'S RECEPTION.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Officially Welcomed Home.

Quebec, July 20.—The grand demonstration in honor of Sir Wilfrid's homecoming took place last evening at 8 o'clock.

Sir Wilfrid was escorted in triumphal procession from the Chateau Frontenac through the most important thoroughfares in the city to St. Peter's market place in St. Sauveur.

The procession left the Chateau Frontenac headed by a cavalry escort and the carriages containing members of the following Liberal clubs: Jacques Cartier, Laurier, and Quebec Centre and a band.

The Premier was accompanied by the Hon. Mr. Gouin, Provincial Premier; Dr. Cote, president of the reception committee, and His Worship Mayor J. G. Garneau.

The other members of the reception committee, the press and citizens followed in some sixty carriages.

Four bands were in the procession:

Needless to say the streets through which the procession passed were crowded. The route of march was profusely and appropriately decorated, the display of bunting being very profuse and the electric light mottoes numerous and very gorgeous.

At St. Peter's market place, in St. Sauveur, an address of welcome was presented to Sir Wilfrid by Dr. Cote, M.P.P., general president of the reception committee. To this Sir Wilfrid replied in his usual very eloquent manner. Other speeches were made by Hon. Messrs. Paterson, Aylesworth, Lemieux, Bureau, Gouin and Turgeon.

The demonstration was not considered as political. It was considered as of a civic or national character.

Sir Wilfrid leaves to-morrow morning for Three Rivers, Sorel and Montreal on board the steamer Lady Grey.

WAS READY TO SHOOT.

So Says Galt Burglar Sent Down for Twenty-Three Months.

Galt, July 20.—"I stood out on the lawn with a good and loaded gun in my hands, while my partner went into the houses and got the stuff."

"And if some one had come along?"

"They would have got the gun's contents if they monkeyed with me."

This was part of the dialogue which took place at the Police Court yesterday morning, the characters being Malcolm McDonald, self-confessed aider and abettor of the burglar who operated at the East Main street residences on the 23rd of May last, and Chief Gorman, who, at the trial of the prisoner, acted as prosecutor and cross-examiner.

He pleaded guilty to the three charges of burglary. He was arrested at Guelph a while ago, where he said that he had set fire to the grand stand at the Exhibition grounds at Toronto. Later he was arrested in Kingston for stealing a bike.

Police Magistrate Blake sentenced McDonald to 23 months in the Central Prison.

SOCIALIST WINS.

Liberal Seat In Yorkshire Is Lost at Bye-Election.

London, July 20.—The Socialists have gained a notable political victory in the bye-election for a member of Parliament from the Colne Valley division, Yorkshire. Victor Grayson, the Socialist candidate, was returned at the head of the poll. Colne Valley has been Liberal for many years.

The votes of all the candidates this time were very close; the Liberal aspirant was only 153 behind the winner, while the Unionist candidate was a good third.

Mr. Grayson, who is a Manchester journalist and lecturer at Owens College, Manchester, was largely supported by the Laborites.

The fighting lasted for one hour. The independents were finally defeated, several of their number being killed or wounded.

The local residence of President Rifaro also was attacked. The revolutionaries purposed to kill the president, but he succeeded in coming out of the conflict uninjured.

Quayaquill has been placed under martial law.

The court required Green to promise not to sell tickets at the illegal rate. Green made the promise and paid the fine.

GIRL'S HEROISM.

Miss Lytell of Cardinal Saves Boy From Drowning.

Brockville, July 20.—Helen Lytell of Cardinal won the plaudits of a picnic party at Lotus Island by the bravery displayed in rescuing a lad named Arthur Locke from drowning. He swam out into the river, and, getting into the swift current running towards the rapids close by, he found himself unable to reach the shore. Miss Lytell saw this, and, notwithstanding that she had never swam beyond her depth without her father's aid, she struck bravely out to his assistance, and brought him ashore.

AN OLD STAGE LINE.

It Ran From Kansas to California in Thirty-five Days.

"Atchison to California in thirty-five days; fare, only $200 in gold."

This was the heading of an old handbill, yellow with age, which a traveler laid upon the counter in a railway ticket office the other day. It was an advertisement of a line of stagecoaches that ran from Atchison, Kan., to San Francisco during the gold excitement of years ago.

"People seldom stop to think what their poor ancestors had to put up with in the old days," the man said. He was comparing the old time table with a modern railway time table, which told of the luxuries one could have by traveling on that road, no dust, no jarring and all other disagreeable features eliminated.

The old time table was a double sheet of paper, torn and yellow with age. It was issued by the Atchison and California stagecoach line in 1857. The inducements it held forth were in strange contrast with those of the modern railroad advertisement. The stagecoach line advertised that it had recently refurnished the entire "road" with absolutely new wagonettes, and it told what kind of coaches they were, how the springs were made and of what strength they were. It even said that the coaches were painted in the "best manner possible." The horses that drew the coaches were described, too, as the best.

An inducement that was held out on the time table to prospective passengers was a stop over privilege.

"Passengers who had paid their entire fare from Atchison or other points to their destination," the paper said, "may register with our agents. A stop over privilege is then given for any place on the road."

The time of the stop over was unlimited. The time table provided that a passenger might resume the journey whenever there was an empty seat in the stagecoach.

"We make quicker time to California than any other stagecoach line and at a cheaper rate," the pamphlet stated. It went on to say that for $200 a person could ride all the way from Atchison, Kan., to the gold fields of California.

"The distance is 1,913 miles," was stated on the time table, "the longest distance ever attempted by a stagecoach line. Atchison to California in thirty-five days."

A boast was made that there were twelve telegraph stations on the road to California and that eating places had been established along the road where good meals could be had at the nominal price of $3. Every passenger was allowed twenty-five pounds of baggage, consisting of wearing apparel and other necessary baggage. All over that amount must be paid for at a rate of 50 cents a pound.

It was advertised that the risk on the return trip was very great on account of the amount of gold dust and nuggets being brought back from California. The company employed only the bravest men, fully armed all the time. But it declined to carry gold dust unless paid for at the rate of $3 a pound. The company refused to be held responsible for the loss of the gold dust by robbers, Indians or other means.

The pamphlet also advertised a fast freight line between Atchison and Denver. The round trip was made in the short space of twenty days. To ship by this method all merchandise had to be wrapped in waterproof packages. A package weighing ten pounds could be sent by that route for $5. All over that weight was sent at the reduced rate of $2 for five pounds.

In its advertisement for passengers to California the pamphlet, as stated before, allowed every passenger twenty-five pounds of baggage. However, it advised that as many persons wished to take more baggage than the weight limit it would be safer to send it to California by sea.

"And to think that we can get on a train tonight and be in Denver tomorrow," the railroad man said as he compared the time tables.

Mistook Scripture For Science.

They were passing one of the Fifth avenue churches when the bulletin board caught her eye. "The Rev. Dr. —— will speak this evening on Deuteronomy." She stopped short and carefully read it a second time. "Well," she snapped, "I wish these preachers s-c-e-e-n-r-r-rl

This is not for you, because you never snore. No one ever does snore himself. It is always the other fellow. But you can read this and then tell that guilty other fellow how to break himself of his bad habit, for snoring is merely a bad habit and as such can be overcome. It is caused primarily by improper breathing—that is, breathing through the mouth instead of through the nostrils—so, first of all, care should be taken during waking hours to breathe correctly. The habit once formed of keeping the mouth as firmly closed as possible, he will be less likely to sleep with it open. Then see that your troublesome snorer has a proper pillow. He should sleep with his head as flat as possible, for if his head is pushed forward and the neck bent the tongue drops back against the soft palate and forms an obstruction which makes all the unmusical sounds we hear when the air is forced past it.

Save Your Old China.

It is an annoying thing to break a valuable china ornament, and the following simple way of mending it may be useful: By applying a little carriage varnish carefully with a camel's hair brush to the edges of broken china, the parts being neatly joined together, the fracture will, when thoroughly dry, be hardly perceptible.

MOONLIGHT WAS MUCH ENJOYED

Steamer Otonabee Carried Large Crowd of Merry Makers

The moonlight excursion down the river last night under the auspices of a committee of young ladies from several of the city churches, was a most enjoyable and successful event. The splendid new steamer, the "Otonabee," left the Wolfe street wharf shortly after seven o'clock and called at the Ashburnham and Wolfe street wharf on its way down the river. There were about 250 on board and the night being ideal for an event of this kind, it is needless to say that the sail over the beautiful moonlit water was greatly enjoyed. Excellent arrangements had been made by the committee in charge and everything passed off most successfully.

A fine programme of vocal and instrumental music was given on board the boat, under the chairmanship of Rev. J. G. Potter, who gave a short address in opening. He complimented the young ladies who had arranged the excursion on the excellent arrangements they had made and the enterprise they had displayed. The charitable object of the event was also referred to and highly commended. Mr. Potter stated that Peterborough should be proud to have a steamer of the class of the Otonabee. Such boats, however, were not run on nothing and he agreed with the management of the Navigation Company in conducting everything on a strictly business basis. The programme was one of much merit and was greatly enjoyed. It included instrumentals by Miss Pollock and Mr. Davenport, vocal solos by Mr. Vernon Morphet, Mr. Duncan Campbeel and Mr. G. A. Biggs and a recitation by Miss E. Hill.

The boat went about seven miles down the river and the return trip was as much enjoyed as the one going down.

A statement of the receipts and their disposition will appear in the Review on Monday. As is generally known the committees' share of the proceeds willl go towards the Children's Aid Society and Sick Children's Hospital.

The Emerald Has Been Discovered

Vessel on Which Father of Two Peterboro' Residents Lost His Life

The schooner Emerald, which was wrecked in November 1893, on Lake Ontario and seven lives lost has evidently been discovered at the bottom of the lake near where the dredge Sir Wilfrid Laurier was sunk. In the disaster, which befell the Emerald, Mr. Slighte, father of Messrs. Thos. and Ernest Slighte, of this city, lost his life.

A Port Hope despatch gives the following account of the discovery of the hulk of the Emerald and tells about the wreck:

Port Hope, July 18.—Several persons who have visited the place where the sunken dredge Sir Wilfrid lies, report having seen on the bottom of the lake the wreck of a schooner. The schooner, they say, lies a short distance west of where the Sir Wilfrid is lying and can be seen distinctly. It is supposed that the wreck is the schooner Emerald of 700 tons burden, which disappeared in November, 1903, and has never since been heard of. The Emerald left Toronto on November 3, 1903. She went to Fairhaven and took a cargo of coal for Toronto. When within 25 miles of Toronto she encountered heavy storms and was forced back to Charlotte. The schooner left Charlotte and was afterwards sighted by the steambarge Van Allen off Broaderick's Point, 10 miles west of Charlotte. She was then under full sail. A gale, accompanied by snow, soon afterwards arose and the schooner was never seen again. Two weeks afterwards wreckage was found. It was positively identified as part of the missing schooner. No bodies were ever found. The Emerald carried a crew of seven men.

The Working Out of the Half Holiday System in Peterborough

Merchants State That They Are Doing as Much Business as Ever—Movement is Constantly Growing—Grafton & Co's Progresse Step.

It only looks to be a matter of time until every business house in the city will be giving its employees a weekly half-holiday. In this respect, Peterborough is following in the footsteps of the larger cities in the province, where the half-holiday rule has been in effect for many years. In the majority of places the half holiday is given on Saturday, but in Peterborough, the conditions are such that a relaxation from business on Saturday afternoon is not feasible. Thursday afternoon seems to be the most suitable for the business establishments to give their employees, a half-holiday to enjoy the many pleasures of the summer season and the Review makes the prediction that next season the Thursday half-holiday rule will be more largely in operation than ever before. Indications point that way and the trend of the times cannot be mistaken.

THE INCEPTION.

Last year practically saw the inception of the half-holiday system among the stores of Peterborough. A movement in this direction had frequently been agitated by employees in former years, but nothing ever came of it till last year. The reason for this was that the majority of the business men of the city did not look upon the half-holiday proposition in a favorable light. Such a thing had not been done before; was there any necessity for a change? They imagined that the curtailing of business hours meant a loss in trade and a falling off in profits as a result.

Last summer the employees of several stores, especially the dry goods establishments, took definite action towards securing a weekly half-holiday, and fortunately for them there were several business men who were not afraid to leave the beaten paths of the past. They were progressive enough to give the proposition a trial at least. When they signed the agreement calling for a Thursday afternoon half-holiday, others followed suit and the result was that the employees of practically all the leading stores enjoyed a relaxation from labor on Thursday afternoon, during July and August.

At the close of last season, the majority of those who had granted the half-holiday expressed themselves as well pleased with the working out of the system. The thing they feared the most—the shortage in revenue—had not materialized, when there was not much room for complaint. It is almost safe to say that the stores of Peterborough did a larger business last summer than ever before.

When the agitation was commenced for the half-holiday rule this season there was practically no opposition, in fact, it scarcely needed any agitation to secure what was asked for. Since the first of July there has been a marked increase in the number of business places in the city closing on Thursday afternoon. At the present time practically all the dry goods, gentlemen's furnishings, clothing and stationery stores are having the half holiday. One grocer, has fallen into line and closes his place of business on Thursday afternoon, and his progressive step in this regard will likely be followed by the leading grocers of the city next year. The George Matthews Co. is closing their retail stores on Thursday afternoon and the public library and several other institutions of this kind are also taking the half-holiday.

IS WORKING WELL.

A Review representative yesterday afternoon asked several of the prominent merchants, at whose places of business the half-holiday system is in vogue, how the closing of their stores on Thursday afternoon affected their trade. The opinion was unanimously expressed that they were selling as much goods as ever and in many case were getting better service from their employees.

"By advertising a special sale on Thursday forenoon," said one, "we find that we sell practically the same extent of goods before dinner, as we did all day in the olden days. The people appreciate the fact that the employees are being benefitted and are co-operating heartily in the movement."

"The half-holdiay is a fine thing" said one of the members of a firm dealing in men's clothing and gents' furnishings. "We are going to follow it up next year, no matter what the others will do.

GO ONE BETTER.

The firm of Richard Hall & Son have gone one better than the other merchants in the city, in letting their employees off at twelve o'clock on Thursday instead of at one, which was the hour for closing when the half-holiday movement commenced.

GRAFTON'S GOOD MOVE.

The tendency of the times seems to be in the direction of shorter hours for employees. The general impression seems to be that clerks in stores have always had to work too long on Saturday. The firm of Grafton & Co., Limited, who have a branch in the city, have come to this conclusion and have decided to close sharp at ten o'clock on Saturday night. They are to be congratulated. Henceforth the Grafton store on George street will close sharp at ten o'clock at the week end. No more eleven and twelve o'clock stunts for their clerks on Saturday night. No doubt the public will govern themselves in keeping with the new regulation.

Notes of Interest From Cool and Beautiful Chemong

Special to the Review.

Chemong Park as a summer resort is proving exceedingly popular and presents quite a gay appearance despite the extreme heat. Nearly all the cottages are occupied and the next few weeks will see the park cottages and hotel filled with jolly guests and out of town folk.

The hotel is once more under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Brown and is an objective point for many pleasure seekers.

An amusing entertainment was given in the ball room of the hotel a couple of evenings ago, when one of the guests at the park displayed to the large audience assembled, his wonderful hypnotic and clairvoyant powers. His efforts to secure control of his subjects were very successful and many amusing little incidents added to the enjoyment of those present.

Mr. Jas. Long's cottage promises to be one of the prettiest in the park, and is rapidly nearing completion.

Mrs. Tolly had as her guests yesterday Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Donald Potter.

Mrs Frank Foster and little son, of New York, Mrs. Stewart, Mr. R. H. Leary and Miss Leary, were all guests of Mrs. C. McClelland last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. K Eardley-Wilmot of Perth, are the guests of Mrs Archer for a few days.

Mrs. E. E. Best and the Misses Best, of Winnipeg, are occupying Mr. Hollingshead's new cottage.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

THAT SHOOTING GALLERY

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Can you tell me who allowed that shooting gallery to be erected in beautiful Jackson Park and how much the owners pay for the privilege?

I am sure this cheap, wooden rough structure is no ornament, and yet it is placed in one of the most conspicuous parts of this popular resort. I have no objection to a shooting gallery in itself, but the park is no place for it. The banging of the rifles goes on constantly when the band is playing, interrupting the enjoyment of the music. I appreciate melody, but not of the kind furnished by that shooting gallery.

Then the constant peppering at a target causes many women and children, who happen to be near, to feel nervous.

Although there may be no danger, still it creates a feeling of unrest and uneasiness when the moving pictures are being presented. It is certainly neither an attraction nor a drawing card, and I would like to see it removed—if not from the park altogether, at least to a distance of 300 or 400 yards from the band stand and moving pictures. To hear the incessant "crack," "crack" of the rifles is not pleasant by any means.

Yours, etc.,
QUIET.

ORIENTAL LABOR.

The Vancouver World declares that the day of cheap domestic Oriental labor on the Pacific Coast has gone, never to return. Housewives in the East find the servant problem a difficult one, but they are much better off than their sisters on the Pacific Coast. They pay double price for the same inefficiency.

A GOOD CROP

Farmers in this vicinity have begun their hay harvest and in many cases find it better than was anticipated. The grain crop in most localities will be fair. In sections which the local showers failed to touch the crop will be light. If the weather is favorable for the corn crop and roots there wil be no scarcity of fodder crops this year.

HAND BADLY DAMAGED

An accident occurred at the Campbellford Paper Mill on Monday morning to Mr. Walter Irvine, who narrowly escaped losing his left hand. While enlaged in oiling one of the machines his thumb was caught in the cogs of a wheel, and in his endeavor to free himself, the top of the thumb was almost torn off, the top of the index and big fingers were badly crushed and the hand somewhat jammed.

A PLEASING SPEAKER

On Sunday evening last Rev. Mr. Seccombe, formerly of Keene, came before his congregation for the first time as pastor of the Marmora Methodist church. He is an earnest and forceful preacher and his sermons was listened to with amrked attention. In closing he made a strong plea for the co-operation of every member of the congregation, and said that he wished to be a friend of all and that all may be friends of his.—Marmora Herald.

Programme of Much Excellence

Given by 57th Band at Victoria Park Last Evening

For the seventh consecutive time this season fine weather prevailed for the Friday evening band concert in Victoria Park, given by the 57th Regiment band. There has not not been a wet Friday night in Peterborough since the first of June. The word "wet" is used with reference to the atmospherical conditions. This is a big change from last season, when there was rain nearly every Friday night, and the band concerts were marred as a result.

Last night's programme was an excellent one for the hot weather season, nearly every number being of the popular variety. Every selection was a good one, and the rendition was splendid. Probably the two most popular numbers on the programme were the "Hunting Scene" and the serenade, "Baby's Sweetheart," with whistling chorus. The first selection is of the descriptive variety, and the way it was given by Bandmaster Gliddon and his musicians left nothing to be desired. The hymn, "A Few More Years," was also rendered.

TWO CLASSES OF PEOPLE

Rev. J. G. Potter Will Preach on "People Who are Tired" and "People Who are Soured."

In the morning his topic will be "People who are tired." In the evening he will preach on "People who are soured," dealing particularly with those who have met with reverses and disappointments in life.

Placard System Should be Used; Persons Get on Wrong Trains

How Confusion and Pell Mell Rush May Be Avoided at G.T.R. Station Where Several Trains Pull Out Within a Few Minutes of One Another—Time That Complaints Were Given Heed to.

Peterborough is getting to be a busy city, a very live railway centre and the railway companies might as well recognise it.

Changes have recently been aid against both G.T.R. and C.P.R., conductors for blocking the crossings of leading thoroughfares with their trains. The detention in certain cases was considerably over the time—five minutes allowed by law—and the companies were given warning. Business must go on and those who use the highways are not bound to sit around and wait for an indefinite period, while the railways hunt cars, make connections, take in water or unload freight, which previously was frequently the case. There has been a decided improvement of late.

Complaints of another kind have been coming in. Between the hours of eight and nine o'clock in the morning, five to six o'clock in the evening as well as to a certain extent before the noon hour, it is a case of confusion and mix-up generally at the G.T.R. station there owing to the departure of several trains. The company has an excellent depot, a fine broad platform, good waiting rooms and an excellent train service, but why there is not some system in directing the people, many of whom during the tourist season are strangers—to the right trains is something that it is difficult to understand. Numerous persons in the course of a week got on the wrong train. They are not familiar with the direction to Port Hope, Lindsay and Belleville. They make inquiries, often being given wrong information. Within ten minutes in the morning, trains leave for Port Hope, Lakefield and Toronto, all lying in different directions, and how is the comparative stranger to know which one to take since they all depart at practically the same time. If information is sought, some wise acre who imagines that he knows all about railway arranagements, when he perhaps knows nothing, is very apt, quite unintentionally no doubt—to give the inquirer erroneous information.

At 5.30 o'clock in the evening the same state of affairs again exists, trains leaving in opposite directions and in the maze of tracks it is impossible to tell which is which. The same condition prevails shortly before nine o'clock in the evening, when trains arrive from Lindsay and Toronto and Belleville.

There is absolutely no way for the visitor to distinguish one train from another. How many are familiar with directions such as north, south, east and west when rushing around a station platform, in the hustle and bustle of departing on a holiday trip or going on an excursion.

It is certainly time that the G.T.R. adopted some system here to remedy the muddle complained of on the part of the travelling public. An official to give information would not do as he could not be all over, and would not be always available.

Why are not large placards put up on each train announcing where it is bound for. Then the people could see for themselves. They would not have to rush around like mad making all sorts of inquiries, haunted by a fear that they may get on the wrong train. Mayor McWilliams, in response to complaints, has written the local G.T.R. authorities about the matter and some definite action should be taken.

The confusion at the station, particularly when two or three trains pull out within five minutes of one another for different points, has been referred to before, but nothing has been done to overcome it. It is hoped that the civic authorities will take this matter up and press it to a conclusion.

Placards should certainly be attached to each train at the station here, designating the direction in which it is going. This is done in nearly every city of importance and the marvel is that it has not been introduced here long ago.

Positions of Letter Carrier go A Begging in Peterborough

Young Men Will Not Work for $400 Per Year—Service Ready to Inaugurate as Soon as the Men are Available—Other Cities Have the Same Trouble.

For several weeks the people of Peterborough and several other cities have been assured that a free mail delivery service would be given almost immediately. So far as can be learned, arrangements for carrying out the promise have been made to a certain point and have suddenly stopped. Progress is now very slow.

Some time ago all the extra distribution boxes for the post office, the uniforms for six men, and all the paraphernalia necessary for six letter carriers arrived. There was to be given one delivery in all parts of the city and two deliveries in the central portion. This would be, it was thought, a satisfactory service. The city was divided into districts, and each man would cover about fifteen miles a day. That would be a good day's work as the carrier would have with him a big bag full of letters and papers which is no light weight.

Applications for the positions were asked for, and it is understood a large number were received. But any particulars in this regard are not forthcoming. The government in handing out the plums — carrying mail—stipulated the men's duties, the kind of men wanted, and what the department was willing to pay for the service. In the first place the letter carrier distributes or arranges all his own mail in streets so that he will not cover the ground twice on the one trip. He gets his mail out of one of the big boxes, and does his work before he leaves the office. Then he starts out on his long tramp, no matter what the weather is or what day it is, except Sunday. He is to take the cross words from those who do not get letters, and he is to take the abuse of those who get too many dunners. It is a nice job for a good natured person.

The applicant, to be successful in getting the soft job must be under 30 years of age, well educated, good address, active, alert and free from all marks and blemishes. For the services of this exceptional man the post office department of the Dominion of Canada, it is understood, are willing to pay $400 a year, or nearl $7.70 per week, or $1.28 1-3c. per day, which is less than received by the poorest paid laborer on the streets.

Since the applications were asked for there has been nothing doing in completing the arrangements for the free postal delivery in Peterborough, Windsor, Guelph and other cities. The assistant deputy postmaster has sent out letters to the local postmasters, stating that until the city council properly numbered all the houses, and put up good plain name plates on the street corners, the department would be unable to proceed with free mail delivery. It was only a short time ago that the mayor of the city received such a missive and it will be taken up at the next council meeting.

This excuse may be genuine so far as it goes, but the general feeling in the city is that a little thing like that would not interfere with the inauguration of the service. It is stated openly that the proper class of men have not applied. Young men with an education, who are strong and active, cannot see their way clear to give up a job in a store office or factory, where they are sheltered from the storms, where they sit down or stand up, as they wish, and where they draw a salary of from $10 to $15 per week, to take a soft government job at $7.70 a week, 52 weeks a year, and 6 days a week. Young men with an education are not working this year for $1.28 1-3 per day. The majority of them have very fair health, and none of them are such loyal citizens that they would give their services gratis to enable the ministers at Ottawa to keep down the expenditure of the Dominion. Until the postmaster-general can see his way clear to pay letter carriers who come up to his standard, more than $400 a year, this city will not enjoy a free postal delivery.

The same state of affairs exists at Windsor, where the houses are all numbered, the streets named, and every is ready. The first free everything is ready. The first free delivery was to have been made on July 1st. But the young men refused to work for $400 per year.

Electric Plant Changes Hands

Smith's Falls Men Have Bought Out Business in Millbrook

Now that the electric light plant has changed hands, having been purchased by Messrs. John and Jas. Davidson, of Smith's Falls it is earnestly hoped that every citizen, merchant and church will aid in every way the success of the undertaking. To get satisfactory results in a small town from an electric light plant everyone must help it along. The new proprietors are men of experience and, we have no doubt, will do their part if our people do their's. —Millbrook Reporter.

LACROSSE

THE AUSTRALIAN TOUR.

Mr. C. J. Miller has received a letter from his son, Mr. J. C. Miller, manager of the All-Canada Lacrosse team, posted at Honolulu, says the Orillia Packet. Mr Miller says the trip across the Pacific, has been most enjoyable so far. Most of the boys have suffered somewhat from seasickness, but so far he had escaped. They are on excellent terms with the captain and crew, and have been given the free run of the decks for exercise. They spend an hour each morning and evening in exercising, under the direction of Captain Bill Hanley. Jack has been joining the others in the daily exercise, and says he is feeling the better for it. The ship reached Honolulu ahead of her scheduled time. Att Victoria, where they spent several hours, Mr. Miller met Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar Gilchrist, former residents of Orillia, who still take an interest in the old town and were glad to hear of old friends.

PRICE OF EGGS GOES UPWARD

Nineteen Cents Was Ruling Figure To-day—Market Was Small

Eggs are going up, as the hen remarked when she flew up into the mow to lay. Everybody wanted 19c per dozen for hen fruit on today's market and some even asked as high as 20c, but without success. Nineteen cents was the ruling figure and nearly all sales were made on this basis. The supply was not large and a buyer remarked to the Review that he would not be surprised if eggs were 20c per dozen next week.

The advance in eggs was about the only feature of the market. The attendance of sellers was not as large as usual and business was not any too lively. Butter sold at 24c to 26c per pound, and chickens changed hands at 80c to $1.00 per pair. Good birds were scarce.

On the square there was not much doing. A few lots of new potatoes were offered for sale and sales were made at 40c to 50c per peck. The majority of buyers considered this figure too high and the demand was not as active as it would have been if prices were lower. Old potatoes were quoted at 90c to $1.00 per bushel.

There was very little fruit or vegetables for sale and business was quiet in these lines.

Anselin Guadrien, found dead at St. Eugenie L'Islet, was murdered by Edouard Bernier, the coroner's jury found.

Writ Issued for $2,000 Damages

Slander Suit Arising Out of the Lindsay Counterfeit Cases

The Lindsay Post says,—Mr. Fremont Crandell, who has been in the West for some months, today issued a writ through Messrs. Weldon & Knight, against Mr. and Mrs. April Mills, claiming two thousand dollars damages for slander and defamation of character for allegations said to have been made concerning Mr. Crandell by the defendants, arising out of the counterfeit case. We do not know anything about the merits of this particular case, and, therefore, do not feel justified in criticising the matter, but a great many unwarranted rumors and reports have been in circulation concerning some of our citizens during the last few days. This, of course, is very disagreeable to those about whom the report is circulated, but not nearly so much as it is to the wives and children about whom defamatory statements are made. It would be well for us all to hold our peace in these matters until all rumors are verified by substantial facts.

New Serial Story Begins To-day

"The Manager of the B. & A." is Thrilling Tale

The Review has secured a new copyright serial story for its readers—one of the very best that it has ever been the good fortune of this journal to corrall. It is entitled "The Manager of the B. & A.," and there is not a dull chapter in this charming and romantic narrative from beginning to end. It is full of humor, interest, pathos and every day experiences that one meets on the journey of life.

Mr. Vaughan Kester is the well known author. The opening chapters appear in to-day's Review on page ten.

Read every word of the serial. It will well repay you.

Saw Father's Death Though Miles Away

Weird Story of New York Man's Vision Borne Out by Letter

Anyone who has read one of the most recent works of fiction, "Karl Grier," by Louis B. Tracy, will be interested in the following item, which appears in a recent issue of the Toronto Star.—

New York, N.Y., July 16.—What appears to be a remarkable psychological experience has been undergone it is said, by Rev. Henry Rollings, now taking a special course in the New York Homeopathy College, in that he saw as in a vision the death of his father, although three thousand miles separated father and son at the time. Moreover, the death bed scene as the young clergyman saw it was corroborated in every detail in a letter two weeks' later.

The letter from England said that the elder Rollings died on the exact day and at the exact hour that the younger Rollings had had his death pictured to him. Not only that, the letter said, but the elder Rollings, said just before he passed away that he could see his son standing by the bedside. The strange room in the vision explained by the statement that the family had moved from the old homestead to another house in Bedfordshire, and the absence of the sister from the room was explained by the statement, that at the time she was ill.

Rev. Mr. Rollings received his theological education in England. He came to America and for a time was curate of St. Andrew's parish of Rochester, N.Y., of which the Rev Algernon S. Crapsey, was then rector.

THE PRICE OF BREAD

The following letter appears this week in the Campbellford Herald,—

"Dear Sir,—The other day I read in your paper that the bakers of Peterborough send bread down to Keene, and men who handle it there pay the railway for carrying it and sell it at nine cents a loaf. If they can make it in Peterborough and sell it at less than nine cents to men in Keene, why can't it be done right here? In Peterborough rents are higher, they pay more for wages and the cost of living is greater than in smaller places, and on that account bread should be cheaper in smaller places. Flour is cheap now, and it is said that the wages paid to bakers are no more than were paid ten years ago, and water and salt have not gone up in price. I remember some years ago, that a baker in Campbellford paid 50 cents a hundred more for flour than bakers pay now, he paid as much in wages as they do now, he had not as much business as they have now, and he sold his bread at twelve loaves for one dollar and his loaves were four pounds in weight—a little more than eight cents a loaf and he was satisfied. Now the high-toned bakers have gone up to ten cents, and again added one-quarter to the price by cutting down to a measly three-pound loaf. In the town where I came from we got the plump four-pound loaf, and we ought to get it here. Don't you think so too, Mr. Editor? But if I am wrong, sit on me.

Yours truly,
A BREAD EATER.

FOR THE HOSTESS.

Piazza Teas Are Popular and May Be Ornamental.

Now that the warm days are at hand a very enjoyable form of afternoon entertainment is the piazza tea. Let your own circle of friends know that upon a certain afternoon of the week you will be glad to receive them and that a cup of tea and a "bite" may be expected and see how generally your invitation will be accepted.

It is no longer merely a cup of tea and a slice of thin bread and butter that may be expected between 4 and 5:30 o'clock. Jam has been added to the list, and often hot Scotch scones and English muffins. Beside the tea table proper there stands usually a sort of rack table, pyramidal in shape and having three shelves, one above the other and round like plates. Each one is then covered with attractive china holding some fascinating biscuit or cake. Jam of one or two kinds is suggested in between them, and after the hostess has ascertained which jam and biscuit her guest prefers she spreads it for him herself before passing it on a small plate. This little attention appears very gracious.

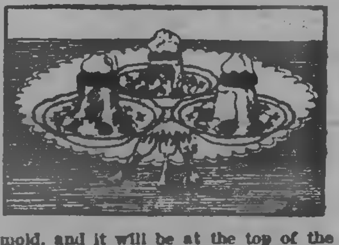
Among the biscuits those of "health food" reputation are often found, and the jam is spread over them to add to their somewhat questionable tastiness. Other hostesses have fine, small flat wafers of whole wheat covered with chocolate in their own kitchens before serving. They are then above reproach to pass with tea. The biscuit itself is digestible, the chocolate tasty and nourishing. Biscuits covered with cheese, on the contrary, while highly agreeable to the taste, are avoided by those hypercareful about their diet.

Sliced lemon, which is preferred in general to cream or milk with afternoon tea, has also a little extra trimming. From two to three cloves are stuck in the soft part of each slice with the object of giving an extra flavor to the tea. It is desirable, however, to test the brand of tea with the cloves before serving it to friends, as some blends of tea are affected much more agreeably by the addition of cloves than others. Again, sliced limes are served instead of lemon with delicately flavored teas. By many they are liked exceedingly, while others regard the innovation leniently as one of the season's novelties.

When cake appears at afternoon tea, the fashion rages for a rich pound-cake, showing through it many large raisins. Europeans invariably refer to it as "American plum cake" and regard it as a specialty of this country. In entertaining foreigners, therefore, it is perhaps the most acceptable cake to offer.

Strawberry Ice Cream Panache.

The term panache is given to a preparation made up of two kinds or more of the principal article, in this case ice cream and whipped cream. This dish might also be called individual strawberry charlotte glace, the ice cream being molded with lady fingers. To prepare this dish, cut lady fingers in halves crosswise; set five pieces or more into a paper case, then fill the case with ice cream to the top of the lady fingers (put the rounded end of the lady fingers at the bottom of the mold, and it will be at the top of the cream when unmolded). Set the filled cases into a mold or pail from which salt water may be excluded. By putting a paper between two or more layers of cases can be put into one mold. Cover carefully and pack in equal measures of ice and salt. In about an hour unmold the cases on to small plates. Have ready (for eight) a cup of cream, half a teaspoonful of vanilla and three level tablespoonfuls of sugar, beaten firm. Pipe a little cream on to the top of each mold of ice cream. On this set a macaroon and pipe a little cream above it. Also pipe cream around the base of the ice and decorate the cream with whole strawberries or slices of strawberries.



Breakfast on One Burner.

A particularly convenient contrivance for housekeepers who get their breakfast over one burner stoves is a little toaster which costs 25 cents and holds on its sides four slices of bread.

On top of the invention a pot of coffee can be made or eggs cooked, and it may be stated that an excellent imitation of the poached egg of the chef may be had by boiling an egg soft, breaking it on top of a well buttered piece of toast slightly softened by hot water and sprinkling pepper, salt and tiny bits of butter over the egg, says Gas Logic. It does not look just like a poached egg, but tastes just the same and is far less troublesome.

Care of Brooms.

Brooms dipped for a few minutes in boiling suds once a week will last much longer than they otherwise would.

They should immediately afterward be plunged into cold water to stiffen the straw. This weekly bath is an excellent thing, for it so thoroughly cleans this dust gathering implement. If a housekeeper will take the trouble occasionally to clip the edges of the straws, the cleansing powers will be improved. This is because constant use sharpens the ends, and they do not gather the dust as well as when square, their first condition.

UPON EVIL DAYS

The scandals, both large and small, that have of late years characterized the Laurier aggregation, have compelled several Grit journals to speak out in stern condemnation and to sound a warning note.

The better element of the Grit party realize that corruption and malfeasance of office, the trafficing in lands and contracts, the reckless expenditure, the wholesale jobbery, and the loose moral character of some of the members of the Cabinet must be eliminated—and speedily so—is Liberalism is not to become a by-word and stigma in the political history of Canada.

The Montreal Witness, a staunch Liberal journal, is one of the newspapers that feels something is radically wrong, and that a halt must be called. It intimates that some of the time servers who are holding down fat portfolios, are to be "fired" since Sir Wilfrid has returned, and that the augean stable must be cleaned. It admits that the Premier is confronted by a heavy task, and adds;

"There were reasons for his having been very unwilling to forsake his place at the helm at home. No one can deny that the Canadian Liberal party has fallen upon evil days. No doubt it is largely responsible for our present condition of prosperity, but nations and parties, as well as men sometimes, in gaining the whole world, lose their own souls.

"Once the Liberal party was the foe of privilege, the enemy of corruption, the friend of all the sturdy virtues that go to the upbuilding of a nation's character. It came into power in support of these ideals. He is a bold man who would deny that of late there have been many departures from them and a general lowering of tone, which acts as a dry rot.

"Once before, when Sir Wilfrid returned from a European triumph, he found a distinguished member of his Cabinet endeavoring to lead the party in ways outside the path of its true political faith. When he came he did not shrink from risking a personal friendship and the loss of a lieutenant who had aided him again and again in victory."

PEN POINTS

Are you reading the new story in the Review?

How would yo ulike the job of letter carrier at $400 a year?

The early closing movement is growing. Help it along.

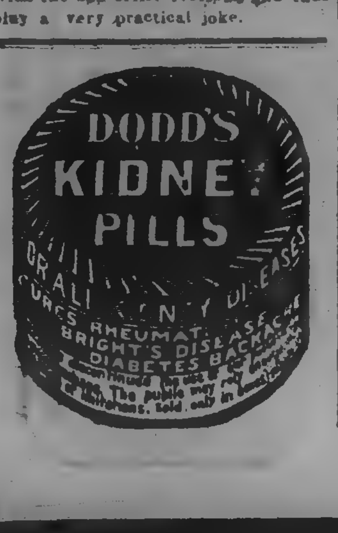
In what respect do buildings resemble individuals? Well, they both collapse in warm weather.

Cheer up! The prospects are that the warm weather will continue for some days. It is pleasant to know it before hand.

The suggestion to place the Children's Shelter on the Hilliard farm seems to have much to commend it. The site will not cost the city or the Children's Aid Society anything.

Freight rates on short hauls have now taken a tumble, thanks to the action of the railway commission. The reform is so startling that it has scarcely yet dawned on the people of the province.

Next Thursday night will be skiddoo night at the roller rink. The management will also have to look out that someone does not skiddoo with the box office receipts, and thus play a very practical joke.



What is the matter with placing a few more benches in Central and Victoria Parks. These popular retreats are visited during the hot weather by large numbers of citizens and visitors, and yet there are not nearly as many seats in the two of them as at Inverlea Park. It is time this problem received attention.

Mr. Bourassa spoke at Montmagny the other day and declared that there is more corruption at Ottawa today than under the Conservative regime. If this be true, then it is well that leading Liberals speak out. In so doing, they may give the Conservative press the text for many editorials, but that should not deter them. They must do right, regardless of what the other side will say. It is the only policy which right-minded men can pursue and it is the policy which will entitle them to national confidence and esteem. At a time when cabinet reorganization is in the air, such utterances are as timely as they are beneficial. The most effective criticism of any party is that which comes from within and which comes in the period when that party is girding its loins for a great battle.—Canadian Courier, an independent national weekly.

The better element of the community is pleased that Magistrate Dumble is determined to put a stop to all houses of ill repute, and all lecherous characters, who are caught misdemeaning themselves in public places. The clergyman, who came out and signed his name, endorsing the attitude of the magistrate, deserves credit for his stand. Would that many more gentlemen took an active, aggressive interest in the moral uplift of the community and shew by their colors that they are right in the firing line, against all evil encroachment and all tendency to lower the standard of strict morality, purity and cleanliness. The magistrate and the police authorities in their attempts to stamp out the "social evil" as it is often called, certainly deserves commendation. Anyone can cast shafts from behind the barricade of an anonymous contribution, but it requires courage and virility to come out in the open and leave no uncertainty as to where you stand.

Mrs. Perkins Still After the Papers

Writs Issued Yesterday Against 28 Newspapers Amounting to $280,000

Toronto, July 18.—This morning at Osgoode Hall, a batch of writs, totalling 28 in number and $280,000, in amount, were issued against various publishing houses for libel in connection with the Perkins' murder trial, by Mrs. Mattie Perkins and Ralph Currie, of Cayuga, and Thos. MacDonald of Canfield.

The three of them issued writs for $10,000 each against the following papers; The German Printing and Publishing Co., of Berlin; the Record Printing Co. of Windsor; J. J. McIntosh, of Guelph; the Sentinel Review, of Woodstock; the Niagara Falls Printing and Advertising Co., and S. Stephenson, of Chatham.

Mattie Perkins and Thos. McDonald issued similar writs against the following; George Reeves, of Cayuga; W. A. Fry, of Dunnville; and the Standard Printing Co., of Windsor.

Mrs. Perkins also entered the following writs for the same amount against Henry Gorman, of Mimico; H. Gummer, of Guelph; the Woodstock Express, and Jaffray Bros., Limited, of Galt.

THE ASSESSMENT OF NORWOOD

Decrease of Over $9,000 Shown by Assessor's Returns

Last week, says the Norwood Register, we published a summary of the assessment statistics for the village for the current year, together with the figures for 1906. The latter were taken from the Assessor's blotter for that year, but changes made by the Court of Revision were not taken into account. The difference in the total assessment for the two years is therefore, $9,002.00 Part of this reduction is due to a change in the assessment act, by which the minimum business assessment is lowered from $250 to $100.

Give People Credit for The Good There is in Them

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir.—In the Examiner of Wednesday last a writer signing himself "Reader" criticizes my correction of "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

It is evident from "Reader's" remarks that his ambition was to get a knock at me; in so doing he lost sight of the true object of my correction, which was to acknowledge my mistake, of which many others are guilty and to show the necessity of recognizing and of giving credit to the good anyone may have expressed for this good was the true individuality.

If you will allow me space I will try and be more explicit.

I am pleased to know my little effort has not been in vain, some of our most intelligent citizens profiting by it. One of our bank managers states that he had always thought the statement was scriptural.

Our "Reader" seems to think he has convinced everybody as to John Wesley being the author of the quotation. No yet! Some college graduates are still of the opinion that Shakespeare is its author. A minister of the Gospel and a medical doctor still hold that it was Shakespeare who first said it. No person will doubt but John Wesley used the expression, as scores of others have done, without giving credit. To myself it sounds as if Wesley were emphasizing what had already been said.

If it be true that Wesley is the author of this statement he has been robbed of what belonged to him. I have heard it used many times, but never before that it was John Wesley's thought; therefore it adds to my claim of the necessity of ascribing to each one the good he expresses.

The tendency of mortals is to magnify the evil they see in their fellow beings, instead of giving him credit for even the little spark of good manifested by him. Since the good reflected is the true man, we are often found burying our brother alive by thinking and speaking of his faults.

A few years ago I listened to a sermon by a man who had earlier spoken against Mrs. M. B. G. Eddy. In this sermon, however, he quoted a whole paragraph from "Science, and Health, with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary B. G. Eddy, without giving her credit. This thought added much to the strength of the sermon. I may have been the only one in the audience familiar with the quotation, consequently the people were deceived. They, to a certain extent were listening to and following Mrs Eddy, whom the same speaker denounced as a bad woman.

This is the thought that I wish to convey in my correction—that the real man is the good, the mortal reflected. By recognizing the good, thinking and speaking of it, we would develop our own concept of good and thus aid in bringing more of Heaven—Harmony—on earth.

Hoping that I have not trespassed too greatly on your valuable space, and again thanking you, I am,

Sincerely yours,
R. J. TODD

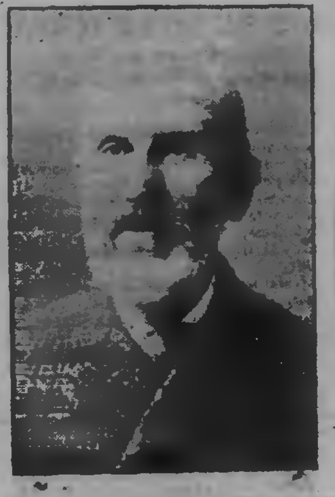
Children's Aid Society to go to Hilliard Farm Very Soon

Have Enjoyed Present Shelter for Ten Years for Paltry Sum of $50 a Year—Mr. H. Best is Selling the Property—Generosity Greatly Appreciated.

Some things have been said about a new home for the Children's Aid Society, and it appears so far, that a plot of ground on the Hilliard farm is about the most likely place. The Hilliard farm is no doubt a good place, so far as the city and the society are concerned financially, but it will be a long time before they get a home so convenient for all purposes as the present shelter.



MR. HENRY BEST
Who Has Given Children's Aid Society a Shelter for 10 Years

Ex-Mayor H. Best some years ago purchased that block of valuable land at the corner of Charlotte and Stewart streets, and handed it over to the Children's Aid Society for an exceptionally small rental, viz., $50 per year, not equal to one per cent. per annum. In other words he as good as handed the society $1,000 of his own money. For this Mr. Best is worthy of the esteem and respect of every man, woman and child in the city and county, and he has it too. Everyone has a good word to say of the man who has been so generous towards homeless children.

Ten years ago, Mr. Best paid some $5,000 for the property in question and now he has an opportunity to dispose of it, and as he has done all or even more, than could reasonably be expected of one man, no one can blame him for desiring to sell. The Children's Aid Society is now in better condition financially, than it has been since it was inaugurated, and as there is a more general support given it it does not require to depend upon any individual for support.

The Children's Aid Society will, however, deeply regret, leaving their present shelter. During the many years they have been there the place has become like a permanent home and everyone in the city and county has become acquainted with it as such. To move to the Hilliard farm or to some other site will be a great undertaking. In the first place the society will not get a site so centrally located without paying a high price for it, and this cannot be done without funds. Under the circumstances the best location, is, no doubt, on the farm. The children will have lots of room to play and the locality is healthy, and there will be, it is understood, less trouble in securing a site there, as most of the council favor granting it.

Douks are Again on a Crazy Trek

Several Dozen of Them Spent a Night in Dauphin City

Dauphin, Man., July 17.—Doukhobor pilgrims were the centre of attraction in town last night and this morning. During the evening dozens of wild-eyed Douks., both men and women, took up a position in front of the Public school on Burrows avenue and chanted their hymns. Hundreds of townspeople visited them. Later they were given quarters for the night in a big stable belonging to T. Gordon.

They were about early in the morning soliciting breakfast for themselves and children, and were generously treated by the people. In some instances money was given them, and they took it. About ten o'clock the party was gathered together and set off in the direction of the Ochre River. They presented a hard sight. The women and children were fatigued and in no shape to continue their journey. Some of the men and several of the women had no boots on their feet. It will be a miracle if they do not die on the roadside from exposure. They have not yet begun to strip off all their clothes, as they did two years ago.

Pupils From County Who Have Passed the Entrance Exams.

Sixty Eight Per Cent of Those Who Wrote at the Seven Different Points Were Successful—Belmont Pupil Won the County Prize of Ten Dollars—Other Prize Winners

The result of the entrance examinations in the County of Peterborough, are announced today.

Candidates wrote at seven different centres — Apsley, Ennismore, Hall's Bridge, Havelock, Keene, Lakefield and Norwood. There were 204 who tried and out of this number 138 passed or over 68 per cent. This is a highly creditable showing and a record of which both teachers and pupils may well feel proud. The inspectors are highly pleased with the intelligence and general knowledge shown by the students, evidencing careful and conscientious study on the part of the former and faithful instruction on the part of the latter.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The county prize of 10 dollars goes to Lillian Brock, of S. S. No. 9 Belmont.

A prize of five dollars given by Rev. Father Phalen, goes to Victor Bullock of Lakefield.

Another prize of five dollars by the same generous donor goes to Catherine Windsor of Young's Point.—

A good second for the county prize was made by Clara Young of School Section No 2. Smith. A good third was made by William Kerr of 11 Smith. This arithmetic paper was admirable, both as to the correctness of the solution and the neatness of the work.

In No. 1 of the arithmetic paper there was a good opportunity for cancelling. Few took advantage of it. Part 1 of No. 2, when reduced became thirty-seven thirty-sixths divided by thirty-seven thirty-sixths plus six-fifths divided by six-fifths. This was considered by several as equal to naught plus naught equals naught, thus showing that the proper relations between the divisor, dividend and quotient were not understood. Perhaps the greatest failure in the arithmetical solution was in No. 6, an example in compound division, involving square measure.

FRUIT MARKET GETTING BUSY

Strawberries are About Done and Raspberries are Coming in

The fruit market is the centre of attraction just now and the local dealers have no trouble in disposing of all they can get. The volume of business done in strawberries was small compared with other years on account of the small crop and the great demand kept the prices up. Those berries are now about done. There may be one more small shipment but that is all. Raspberries are coming in in small quantities and today are worth 15c per box, and it is not likely that they will be much cheaper as the season is late and the crop small. Cherries are also offered at $1.00 and $1.50 per basket and they are being sold at that price.

Supply Boat "Bobs" Ran on Rock; Had Difficult Time Getting Away

The "Rob Roy" Came to Her Rescue—Mr. Roy Taking Views of Quaint Spots Up the Lakes—Two Gentlemen's Sailing Experience—More Visitors Come.

Special to the Review.

Stony Lake, July 20.—A great convenience to the many cottagers at the lakes this year is the supply boat "Bobs," which goes around every day, calling at all the cottages.

This steam yacht was purchased by Mr. Dunsford, who resides on a farm at the head of Stony Lake, from the Peterborough Canoe Co. early last spring. He sells such supplies as milk, bread, butter and other farm products. The other day a large number of the cottagers were passed and were forced to look somewhere else for their daily wants.

On Thursday shortly after dinner when the "Bobs" was returning from Burleigh, and was calling at Elliott's island, it was landed high and dry on a large rock a few feet from the wharf. A couple of gentlemen from the island came to its assistance and tried to shove it off, but to no avail. The steamer then gave the distress signal, and Mr. Jas. Acton's yacht, the "Hiawatha," and Mr. W. H. Meldrum's launch, the "Viking," were soon on the scene, but all efforts to relieve the "Bobs" from its stronghold on the rock were useless. Despite the fact that the boats pulled at it for over three hours, it never moved an inch. The distress signal was again given, and this time the "Rob Roy," which was tied at Juniper Island, heard the alarm and started out to help. It soon reached the "Bobs," and after two or three hard pulls the "Bobs" was again in deep water. A good deal of time having been spent in endeavoring to release it, the supply boat was unable to make all its calls, and on Friday it was unable to go around, having to go to Lakefield for inspection.

A SLOW SAIL.

The other day two young gentlemen, one from the Y.M.C.A. camp and the other from an island not far from the "Y" camp, thought they would like to go for a sail in yacht. Thereupon they procured one from one of their neighbors and started out early in the afternoon to enjoy a sail. There was very little wind blowing at the start, but, before they got back there was less, and it was well on to the wee sma' hours before the two got back again.

On the return trip, when quite a distance from home, the wind dropped and there was a dead calm. Taking their unlucky situation rather good naturedly, they took turns in standing at the stern of the yacht and rowing the boat with a broken oar, which they were fortunate enough in having with them. After travelling very slowly by this means for some time, they finally reached an island where they anchored their craft for the night. The residents on the island lent them a skiff, and they reached home very late, feeling none the worse of their experience save a little hungry.

PERSONAL NOTES

The "Rob Roy," with Messrs. R. M. Roy, Arthur Weekes, Donald Denham and engineer on board, will spend a week at the lakes. Mr. Roy will take photos and tour the lakes.

The steamer "Rainbow," from Rice Lake, passed through Stony Lake on Thursday.

Mr. John Carlisle and family, who are summering at "Kawartha Park," Clear Lake, have probably been the most fortunate of any in the fishing line. Since they came up the first week in July they have landed sixty bass and a few 'lunge. The fishing this year is exceptionally good.

Mr. W. F. Nelson and family moved into their handsome new cottage on Clear Lake yesterday. It is a very fine structure and commands a splendid view of the lake from where it is situated.

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt and family spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rogers at "Kawartha Lodge."

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar, of Toronto, are holiday at "Woodside," Kawartha Park.

Mr. Jack Adams, of Sault Ste. Marie, is a guest at "Fairy Lake Villa."

AT BURLEIGH.

The Park Hotel, Burleigh Falls, is one of the most popular spots on the lake, and about eighty guests are there at the present time. The fishing at Burleigh is exceptionally good, and every day little fishing expeditions go from the hotel up to Lovesick Lake and Deer Bay. Among the guests registered at the Falls hotel are: D J McNaughton and wife, Cleveland; Mrs J P Cunningham and daughters, and Mrs Wm Montgomery, J R Webb and wife, Peterborough; Wm Tyer and Geo W Smith, of Rochester, N.Y.; C P Patterson, G H Rider, Buffalo, N. Y.; Wm Davis and wife, Cincinnatti; Wm Cresswell and sons, Peterborough; Wm Thompson and wife, Orillia; E W McCabe, Pittsburg; M. F. Meeklem, Rochester; M A Jameson, Peterborough; J Helpert, Toronto; F F Hazlett, Toronto; J H Yelland, Peterborough; Neil Corrie, Quebec; Robt. Young, Peterborough, and W. C. Brown, Lakefield.

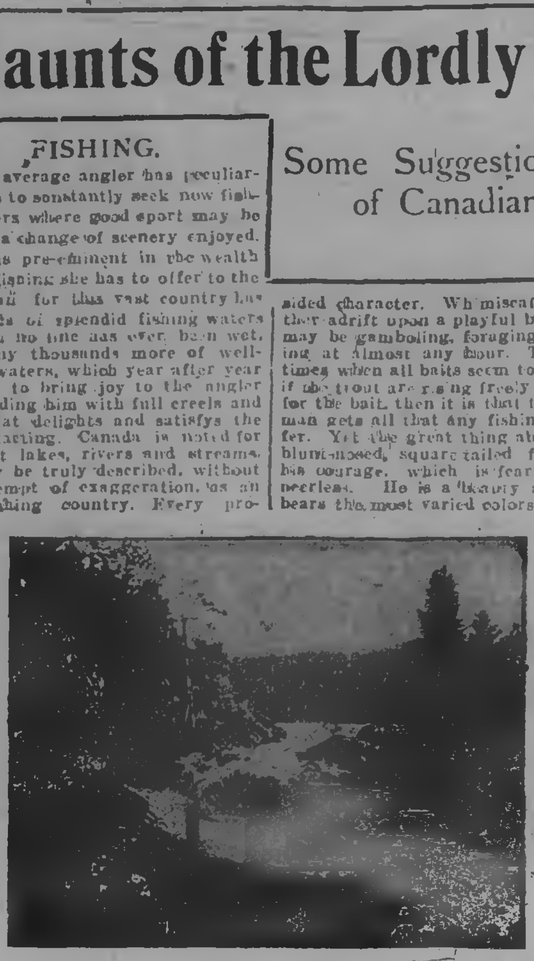
Haunts of the Lordly 'Lunge, the Gamey Bass and Others of the Finny Tribe

Some Suggestions as to Canoe Trips and Camping—Illustrations Showing Attractiveness of Canadian Waters, Near as Well as at Some Distance from Peterborough—How to Reach Some of These Elysian Retreats.

FISHING.

If the average angler has peculiarities it is to constantly seek new fishing waters where good sport may be had and a change of scenery enjoyed. Canada is pre-eminent in the wealth of good fishing she has to offer to the sportsman for this vast country has thousands of splendid fishing waters in which no line has ever been wet, and many thousands more of well-known waters, which year after year continue to bring joy to the angler by providing him with full creels and sport that delights and satisfys the most exacting. Canada is noted for its great lakes, rivers and streams, and may be truly described, without any attempt of exaggeration, as an ideal fishing country. Every province has good sport to offer, and each year new lakes, rivers and streams are being discovered by exploring sportsmen, who relate their wonderful catches as fishermen are wont to do, or else endeavor by their silence to keep the discovery as a close preserve for themselves and their friends. Meanwhile the well-known resorts have been restocked, and by an enforcement of just laws the fishing is yearly maintained up to its high standard.



Waiting for a Strike

It is, indeed, a hopeless task to attempt to select the best fishing places from the thousands of particularly good localities in the great Dominion of Canada. All that can be done is to briefly mention some few places, leaving the angler to decide for himself into which waters he will cast his line. Only a very small portion of the fishing resources of Canada have been exploited, yet the value of the fish taken in the waters of the Dominion exceeded twenty-three million dollars per annum. Of course, for the best fishing it is necessary in some instances to go a considerable distance from the larger cities, but excellent sport may be frequently obtained by the angler and yet be constantly in communication with the commercial world by rail and telegraph. It is, however, by visiting scenes of primeval simplicity, where Nature abounds in all her wild and rugged grandeur that the angler and sportsman gets all the profit, pleasure and enjoyment from his vacation, and it is in splendid sport, combined with picturesque surroundings, that Canada excels all other countries in the world.

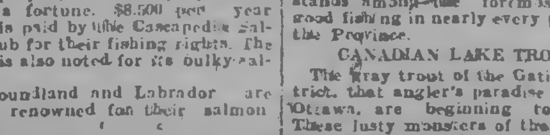
SALMON.

This magnificent fish is deserving of its splendid reputation because of its fine proportions, unsurpassed vigor and the spirit that it puts into its fight for liberty, while as regards the quality of its flesh it is simply delicious. Salmon angling has been called the rich man's sport because of the large amounts paid by sportsmen for fishing rights in well-known rivers. The prices paid for some of these rivers range from $5,000 to $35,000, and are constantly increasing in value. In such well-known rivers in New Brunswick as the Miramichi, Restigouche, Metapedia, Cascapedia and the Nepisquit, the fishing rights are worth a fortune. $8,500 per year rental is paid by the Cascapedia Salmon Club for their fishing rights. The Moisie is also noted for its bulky salmon.

Newfoundland and Labrador are greatly renowned for their salmon fishing.

In Quebec every tributary of the St. Lawrence, both on the north and south shores below Quebec City, and all the rivers emptying in the Bay of Chaleurs, unless impeded at or near their mouths by impassable falls, are resorted to by salmon. Many of these rivers enjoy an international reputation for the magnificent sport they yield, and some noted clubs own and lease rivers in this Province.

British Columbia is famous throughout the world for its salmon fishing, and anglers from India, England and the United States are attracted yearly by the magnificent sport this province affords



Maskinonge

TROUT.

Probably no outdoor sport combines so many fascinations as that of fishing for brook trout. This is due to the fact that more than any other fishing it has action. There is a dash and go about it that is peculiarly its own. The occasional uncertainty, too, lends an additional zest, for no sportsman could enthuse over a dead certainty. A shift of wind, a change of temperature, a driving cloud, a glare of sunshine, a storm, a calm, and each and all may afford an exhibition for a new phase of the trout's many-sided character. Whimsical as a feather adrift upon a playful breeze, he may be gamboling, foraging or sulking at almost any hour. There are times when all baits seem to fail. But if the trout are rising freely and eager for the bait, then it is that the sportsman gets all that any fishing can offer. Yet the great thing about this blunt-nosed, square tailed fighter is his courage, which is fearless and peerless. He is a beauty also, and bears the most varied colors of the dainties, shades. Then the trout's habit of raising after his prey renders possible all the finer tactics of the [illegible] an assortment of flies especially designed to tempt the capricious appetite of this fish. These scientific methods of fishing which are employed in the taking of this spangled acrobat of the fresh waters endear this fish to every angler.

Now, more than ever, women are taking up this delicate, picturesque and fascinating sport. Tours among the fishing resorts of Canada reveal every year an increasing number of women who are learning the delights of fly fishing for trout. There is every argument in favor of the sport as an ideal one for women. It is graceful, requires little strength, does not employ grotesque or undignified costume or action, and brings rewards of health, knowledge of nature and wholesome physical fatigue comparable with few other outdoor pastimes.

It is a hopeless task to attempt to give a list of the thousands of many places in Canada where trout may be caught. New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Labrador, Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia have each hundreds of trout streams and rivers where the angler may be sure of finding good sport. In Ontario, best of all districts is the wonderful north shore of Lake Superior, where the Canadian Pacific railway runs across trout waters that have gained an international reputation.

Here are a few of the waters, truly an imposing list: Wahnapitaeping River, Onaping, Spanish River, Mississaga, Apiskkaugama, Michipicoten, Steel, Magpie, White, Little Pic, Mink, Black, Maggo.., Gravel, Cress, Prairie, Jack Pine, Trout Creek, Wolfe, Mackenzie and Current Rivers. Every one of these is a trout water, and by this is meant the real thing, such as untravelled sportsmen never saw. Then we must not forget far-famed Nipigon, with its fish from two to eight pounds, which delight the heart of the angler, the reputation of which has spread to many lands.

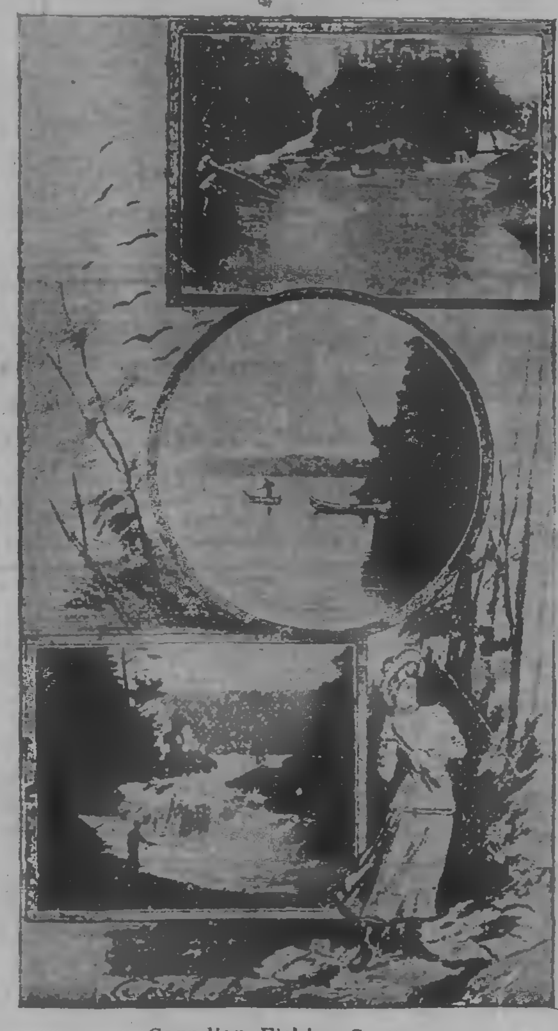
Many lakes and streams in the Canadian Rockies, easily reached from Banff, Field and Glacier, have been restocked, and very fishing may now be enjoyed.

For trout fishing, British Columbia stands among the foremost with good fishing in nearly every part of the Province.

CANADIAN LAKE TROUT.

The gray trout of the Gatineau district, that angler's paradise north of Ottawa, are beginning to "bite." These lusty monsters of the ice cold lakes that make the Gatineau region famous, grow to enormous sizes, but it requires high skill to land the big ones. The ordinary angler, however, will have no difficulty in making catches, the memory of which will stay with him as long as he lives. As little as the Gatineau is known to the average American, to the Candaian it is a well beloved spot, and many of its lakes are already controlled by individuals and clubs under leases from the Government. Of course public fishing in such waters is prohibited, but it is easy to obtain the necessary permission to try a favored lake, and the consent of the owner is gladly accorded to any visitor other than the market fisherman.

The gray trout is the "early bird" of the Canadian lakes. He can be caught through the ice all winter long and jerked to the surface with a chalk line like a piece of wood. This is how the Indians and the 'habitants" get him, but when the ice is out of the lakes he comes to the surface and is ready for a battle with anything that he encounters. Usually he is trolled for, with a spoon bait. He is taken also with minnows, and has been known to fall to the fly. winged insects to be seen, and he but at this early season there are few knows it, and refuses the gaudy feathered counterfeit offered him. Probably the best results, nine times out of ten, are obtained with the troll.



Canadian Fishing Scenes

Equipped with a stiff rod of nine or ten ounces, a moderately heavy line and a quadruple bass reel, the lake trout fisherman engages the services of a guide who knows the lake, gets into a bark canoe, and is ready for business. Shallow water is best for this fishing early in the season, and the canoe will not have gone far before a vicious lunge and a shock that almost stops the boat proclaim that the angler has business on hand. The gray trout is a bulldog in disposition. His big fins and broad forked tail are built for strength and speed, and he [illegible] when hooked. Down he flies towards the bottom, boring as far as he can get, and then around in circles that make the angler hold his breath in fear that his tackle will break. A dozen times the fish is drawn toward the boat. As many times the trout breaks from control and repeats his first performance. Finally if the angler be cool and skilful, the prize is drawn alongside the canoe, a quick thrust with the gaff, and the noble prey lies gasping at his feet. Then the angler finds that his hand is trembling and his arm aching from the struggle. The guide prosaically thumps the trout on the head, stows the fish away and takes up the paddle again. If the day is right, and luck holds good, the morning's catch will show from six to twelve trout, running from five to twenty pounds, and even more. And the fighting qualities of the big fellows are not to be underestimated. Woe betide the man who is careless, or whose tackle is not of the best. One lunge and the rod is snapped or the line broken. But with close attention these accidents are few. It will be noon before the angler knows it. Then the guide will beach the canoe on one of the many islands that dot the lake, and while the fisherman sits in blissful content, a fire will be started, one of the trout prepared, and put on the fire in a pan of burning hot fat. The physician may rail at fried food, but the man who has put under his waistcoat a couple of pounds of the most delicious fish in the world, fried under the clear sky of a Canadian spring day, will let them rail. He feels alright, and if a fried trout is to kill him, he cannot conceive a happier death, under present circumstances.

Memphremagog Lake, easily reached from Magog, has excellent lake trout fishing.

Lake St. Charles, near Quebec City, is noted for its great grey fork-tailed fish, which grow to an immense size in its clear, cold waters. Lake Megantic, reached from Megantic on the Canadian Pacific Railway, is famous for big lake trout.

BASS.

Henshall says: "Inch for inch and pound for pound the black bass is the gamest fish that swims." Its favorite abode is in fast and cold water abounding in gravel or rocky bottom. It is often found in company with its near relative, the large-mouthed or green bass, with this difference, that the large-mouthed bass will thrive in shallower and warmer water. The food of this fish is minnows, frogs, crawfish and insects.

Camping at Karwatha Lakes Point.

There is no fiercer, pluckier or harder fighter than the black bass. They may be fly fished, bait fished and trolled for. Their preference in the way of flies runs to bright colors. Scarlet Ibis, Parmacheene Belle and Yellow Salley are good; sometimes a black, brown or white fly is taken with avidity. Shiners, minnows, crawfish, grasshoppers, worms and frogs are usually successful, but no angler can ever tell to a certainty just what bait will prove best with black bass. At almost any spoon or bright contrivance will this fish bite, on the end of light tackle, and then the sport begins in earnest, for the black bass is not a quitter until he is in the landing net. This gamey fish is found in abundance in Canada. Ontario has hundreds of places where good bass fishing may be enjoyed. Only a few need be mentioned, as the angler will soon discover others in close proximity, and in addition some of the waters here mentioned cover such a large area that a sportsman might easily go to the same chain of lakes for twenty seasons' bass fishing and then not know all the places where the bass love to hide.

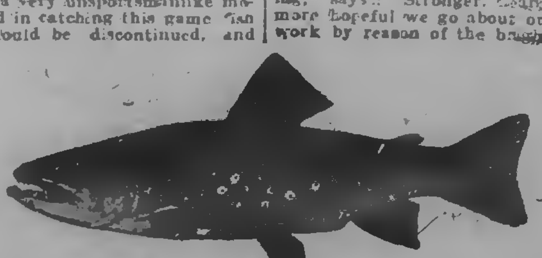
Bobcaygeon, reached by the Canadian Pacific railway, is a central point for the Kawartha Lakes and from here may be easily reached over one hundred miles of lakes and rivers that are noted for their big bass. Smith's Falls, Sharbot Lake, and the waters of the Trent, reached at Havelock, Ontario, offer splendid bass fishing. The Mississippi River, reached from Carleton Junction and Mississippi Lake, have many excellent pools, rocky ledges and eddies in which lurk plenty of rock and black bass. Lake Nipissing and the French River and the islands of Georgian Bay are noted for their big fish of this species. All along the transcontinental line of the Canadian Pacific from Pembroke to Sault Ste. Marie is abundance of good bass fishing.

A Six Pound Bass

MASKINONGE.

The maskinonge is by far the largest game fish in fresh water, and is well called the "water tiger," "the monarch of the inland seas," and popularly known in the United States as the "musky" and in Canada as the lunge. They have been taken to exceed one hundred pounds in weight and sometimes over five feet in length. The head is large and flat, and they have a mouth which will open wide enough to swallow a fish of their own size. The lower jaw protrudes beyond the upper, giving the savage undershot expression of the bull dog, and is provided with a formidable array of keen teeth, sometimes half an inch in length. These teeth will dent a metal spoon and play havoc with an artificial minnow. They are invariably savage fighters, and will never surrender as long as life lasts. They are as full of tricks as a fox, and will resort to endless expedients to rid themselves of the hook. No two maskinonges will act alike when hooked, and in this diversity of tactics lies the great charm of this fish. Catching a maskinonge is to an angler what shooting a grizzly is to a hunter. If you are a true sportsman and love a contest that demands the highest degree of skill and adroitness, take your canoe to the beautiful crystal lakes of Canada and there meet his lordship, the maskinonge, in mortal combat.

There is never any doubt on the fisherman's part when he has a bite. He can always see as well as feel it. There is no hesitation about the matter, he simply pounces upon the bait and goes off with it. When the fish is hooked the battle has begun with chances almost even. Be on your guard every moment, and never relax your vigilance or you will surely lose in the struggle. Make him fight for every inch of the line he takes and keep him in the deep water away from the weeds; watch when he turns for the boat and leaps clear out of the water. Now he will go down and sulk at the bottom and your steady reeling brings him sullenly toward the boat, shaking his head from side to side like an unwilling colt. Still he comes, and an abortive attempt to leap delays his progress, but he is now in plain sight at the side of the boat; you must act quickly, for he regains his strength with surprising rapidity. Be careful or he will suddenly dive under the boat and upset your canoe. At no time is he so dangerous as just before landing. Don't try a landing net, he is much too heavy a fish to land with a net and is also most difficult to gaff. The Indians always hit this fish with a club; other fishermen use a revolver and shoot him just back of the eyes. As soon as you get him in the boat take a sharp knife and insert the blade between the base of the brain and the spinal vertebrae, severing the spinal cord, or else put him in a sack, otherwise there will be trouble to keep him in the canoe. He is too big a fish to take any chances with, and he can create more trouble for the fisherman in one minute than any other fresh water fish in existence. There is a very unsportsmanlike method used in catching this game fish which should be discontinued, and that is trolling with a heavy hand line. The spoon or minnow bait should be on a fine line used with reel and rod, and the angler who cannot master the fish caught in that way deserves to lose it. When the sportsman has tried this more skilful method and has abandoned the crude practice of yanking this fish in hand over hand with a line big enough for a clothes line he will regret the sport he has missed and the good fish he has maltreated by this old method of dealing with mashinonge.



Brook Trout

OUANANICHE.

Marvelous tales have been told of this species, which are found in but few waters, and it is admitted that they are as game, strong and hard fighting fish as ever tested skill and tackle.

This magnificent member of the salmon family is an inhabitant of Lake St. John, Quebec, its tributary waters and the Grand Decharge.

THE GREAT CANADIAN PIKE

The great Canadian pike is the fish commonly called pickerel in the West, though correctly speaking, it Woods district, and around Winnebago specimens of this fish have been taken weighing fifty and sixty lbs. A good sized pike attains a weight of about fifty pounds and shows splendid sporting qualities. It makes long and powerful rushes, and is very apt to break the tackle of any but the expert angler. The ordinary lure is that of the trolling spoon, though it also takes large bait like maskinonge, and is sometimes caught by still fishing; whereas the body color of the maskinonge is sometimes marked with dark blotches, the markings of the great Canadian pike are in the form of oblong white spots regularly arranged upon the pale green body color. It is not difficult to distinguish this fish from the maskinonge.

is the true pike. In the Lake of the is famous for its large pike. At Vaudreuil and Ste Anne de Bellevue, near Montreal, good sport may be enjoyed, as large fish are taken in these waters.

OTHER FISH.

Sturgeon, white fish, dore, perch, suckers, carp and eels. These and many other varieties of fish are found in the waters in Canada, and there is no difficulty in finding numerous places where each of these species of fish may be obtained.

CANOE TRIPS

"Canada, the home of the canoe" has been the theme of many writers. Centuries before the white man came came to this favored land it was the principal means of travel; in it the dusky red man threaded the many intricate waterways of the country; with its assistance he procured his supply of fish and game; in it he went forth to spread death and destruction to his enemies, and when the tribal warfare ceased he used the canoe to peacefully take to the trading post his furs. They were the necessary equipment of every explorer, of every trader and of every settler. What need of roads in a country with waterways so numerous? Their lightness, durability and simplicity of structure fit them peculiarly for traversing unknown waters. The occupants seeing and facing the direction they are travelling, danger is easily averted and the scenery is better enjoyed when viewed from the easy rhythmical motion of a canoe, as compared with the receding view obtained from the more jerky row boat. To the uninitiated a canoe is dreaded and feared, but this feeling rapidly disappears with acquaintance, for in reality it is the safest craft of its size that floats upon water. The danger of canoeing is due generally to carelessness, timidity and unfamiliarity.

James Edmund Jones, in his charming little work, "Camping and Canoeing," says: "Stronger, healthier and more hopeful we go about our daily work by reason of the bright brief experiences of a very pleasant canoe trip. Hard work in plenty, frequent opportunity for self-forgetfulness and self-denial, spurs for the lazy and curbs for the over eager, the hot sun and chilling rain, straining paddle and wearying portage, like all such outings will undoubtedly be supplied. But it gave us other things than these. Manlier heart and tougher muscle, the glory of the sunset and the freshness of the dawn, the moon-lit stillness of the lake and the sweep of the river as it flashed and gurgled among the stones, the solitude of the forest fastness and the comradeship of friends whom here we learn to know as nowhere else—these are our rewards; a brief return to the crudeness of Nature; a brief renunciation of the artificiality of business and social life; a brief enjoyment of skies and lakes and rocks and pine trees, at their freshest and best. Then with firmer grip and steadier purpose back to the work of waiting back to the rush and bustle of the city, to brush shoulders again with your fellows, in whom we

A Proven Cure For Indigestion

A healthy stomach does two things.

1st—gives up enough gastric juice to digest food—and —2nd—churns food, by means of its muscular action, until digestive juice and food are thoroughly mixed.

An unhealthy stomach is either too weak to properly churn the food or it does not give up enough gastric juice to make digestion complete.

Then you have Indigestion—Heartburn—Distress after Eating—Sour Stomach—Headaches—and finally chronic Dyspepsia.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia because they give you a healthy stomach.

"Fruit-a-tives" actually strengthen the muscles of the stomach—increase the power of the churning movement—and also enable the stomach to excrete sufficient gastric juice to completely digest every meal.

"Fruit-a-tives" also cure the Constipation and Biliousness with which so many Dyspeptics suffer.

Thousands have been cured of Indigestion and Dyspepsia by "Fruit-a-tives" alone.

"Fruit-a-tives" are intensified fruit juices, combined with tonics and antiseptics—and are an infallible cure for all Stomach Troubles. Try them. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Manager Of the B. & A.

CHAPTER I.

OAKLEY was alone in the bare general offices of the Huckleberry line, as the Buckhorn and Antioch railroad was commonly called by the public, which it betrayed in the matter of meals and connections. He was lolling lazily over his desk with a copy of the local paper before him and the stem of a disreputable cob pipe between his teeth.

The business of the day was done, and the noise and hurry attending its doing had given way to a sudden hush. Other sounds than those that had filled the ear since morning grew out of the stillness. Big drops of rain driven by the wind splashed softly against the unpainted pine door which led into the yards or fell with a gay patter on the corrugated tin roof overhead. No. 7, due at 5:40, had just pulled out with twenty minutes to make up between Antioch and Harrison, the western terminus of the line. The 6 o'clock whistle had blown, and the men from the car shops, a dingy, one story building that joined the general offices on the east, were straggling off home. Across the tracks at the ugly little depot the ticket agent and telegraph operator had locked up and hurried away under one umbrella the moment No. 7 was clear of the platform. From the yards every one was gone but Milton McClintock, the master mechanic, and Dutch Pete, the yard boss. Protected by dripping yellow oilskins, they were busy repairing a wheezy switch engine that had been incontinently backed into a siding and the caboose of a freight.

Oakley was waiting the return of Clarence, the office boy, whom he had sent uptown to the postoffice. Having read the two columns of local and personal gossip arranged under the heading "People You Know," he swept his newspaper into the wastebasket and pushed back his chair. The window nearest his desk overlooked the yards and a long line of shabby day coaches and battered freight cars on one of the sidings. They were there to be rebuilt or repaired. This meant a new lease of life to the shops, which had never proved profitable.

Oakley had been with the Huckleberry two months. The first intimation the office force received that the new man whom they had been expecting for over a week had arrived in Antioch and was prepared to take hold was when he walked into the office and quietly introduced himself to Kerr and Holt. Former general managers had arrived by special after much preliminary wiring. The manner of their going had been less spectacular. They one and all failed, and General Cornish cut short the days of their pride and display.

Naturally the office had been the least bit skeptical concerning Oakley and his capabilities, but within a week a change was patent to every one connected with the road. The trains began to regard their schedules, and the slackness and unthrift in the yards gave place to an ordered prosperity. Without any apparent effort he found work for the shops, a few extra men even were taken on, and there was no hint as yet of half time for the summer months.

He was a broad shouldered, long limbed, energetic young fellow, with frank blue eyes that looked one squarely in the face. Men liked him because he was straightforward, alert and able, with an indefinite personal charm that lifted him out of the ordinary. These were the qualities Cornish had recognized when he put him in control of his interests at Antioch, and Oakley, who enjoyed hard work, had earned his salary several times over and was really doing wonders.

He put down his pipe, which was smoked out, and glanced at the clock. "What's the matter with that boy?" he muttered.

The matter was that Clarence had concluded to take a brief vacation. After leaving the postoffice he skirted a vacant lot and retired behind his father's red barn, where he applied himself diligently to a cigarette.

When the cigarette was finished the urchin bethought him of the purpose of his errand. This so worked upon his fears that he bolted for the office with all the speed of his short legs. As he ran he promised himself emotionally that "the boss" was likely to "skin" him. But whatever his fears he dashed into Oakley's presence panting and in hot haste. "Just two letters for you, Mr. Oakley!" he gasped. "That was all there was!"

He went over to the superintendent and handed him the letters. Oakley observed him critically and with a dry smile. For an instant the boy hung his head sheepishly, then his face brightened.

"It's an awfully wet day—it's just sopping!"

Oakley waived this bit of gratuitous information.

"Did you run all the way?"

"Yep, every step," with the impudent mendacity that comes of long practice.

"It's rather curious you didn't get back sooner."

Clarence looked at the clock.

"Was I gone long? It didn't seem long to me, he added, with a candor he intended should disarm criticism.

"Only a little over half an hour, Clarence. I guess you may as well go home now."

"Good night, Mr. Oakley," with happy alacrity.

"Good night, Clarence."

The door into the yards closed with a bang, and Clarence, gleefully skipping the mud puddles which lay in his path, hurried his small person off through the rain and mist.

Oakley glanced at his letters. One he saw was from General Cornish. It proved to be a brief note, scribbed in pencil on the back of a telegram blank. The general would arrive in Antioch that night on the late train. He wished Oakley to meet him.

The other letter was in an unfamiliar hand. Oakley opened it. Like the first, it was brief and to the point, but he did not at once grasp its meaning. This is what he read:

> Dear Sir—I inclose two newspaper clippings which fully explain themselves. Your father is much interested in knowing your whereabouts. I have not furnished him with any definite information on this point, as I have not felt at liberty to do so. However, I was able to tell him I believed you were doing well. Should you desire to write him, I will gladly undertake to see that any communication you may send care of this office will reach him. Very sincerely yours,
>
> EZRA HART.

It was like a bolt from a clear sky. He drew a deep, quick breath. Then he took up the newspaper clippings. One was a florid column and a half account of a fire in the hospital ward of the Massachusetts state prison and dealt particularly with the heroism of Roger Oakley, a life prisoner, in leading a rescue. The other clipping, merely a paragraph, was of more recent date. It announced that Roger Oakley had been pardoned.

Oakley had scarcely thought of his father in years. The man and his concerns—his crime and his tragic atonement—had passed completely out of his life, but now he was free, if he chose, to enter it again. There was such suddenness in the thought that he turned sick on the moment; a great wave of self pity enveloped him, the recollection of his struggles and his shame—the bitter, helpless shame of a child—returned. He felt only resentment toward this man whose crime had blasted his youth, robbing him of every ordinary advantage, and clearly the end was not yet.

True, by degrees, he had grown away from the memory of it all. He had long since freed himself of the fear that his secret might be discovered. With success he had even acquired a certain complacency. Without knowing his history, the good or the bad of it, his world had accepted him for what he was really worth. He was neither cowardly nor selfish. It was not alone the memory of his own hardships that embittered him and turned his heart against his father. His mother's face, with its hunted, fugitive look, rose up before him in protest. He recalled their wanderings in search of some place where their story was not known and where they could begin life anew, their return to Burton, and then her death.

For years it had been like a dream, and now he saw only the slouching figure of the old convict, which seemed to menace him, and remembered only the evil consequent upon his crime.

Next he fell to wondering what sort of a man this Roger Oakley was who had seemed so curiously remote, who had been as a shadow in his way preceding the presence, and suddenly he found his heart softening toward him. It was infinitely pathetic to the young man, with his abundant strength and splendid energy, this imprisonment that had endured for almost a quarter of a century. He fancied his father as broken and friendless, as dazed and confused by his unexpected freedom, with his place in the world forever lost. After all, he could not sit in judgment or avenge.

So far as he knew he had never seen his father but once. First there had been a hot, dusty journey by stage; then he had gone through a massive iron gate and down a narrow passage, where he had trotted by his mother's side, holding fast to her hand.

All this came back in a jerky, disconnected fashion, with wide gaps and lapses he could not fill, but the impression made upon his mind by his father had been lasting and vivid. He still saw him as he was then, with the chalky prison pallor on his haggard face—a clumsily made man of tremendous bone and muscle who had spoken with them through the bars of his cell door while his mother cried softly behind her shawl. The boy had thought of him as a man in a cage.

He wondered who Ezra Hart was, for the name seemed familiar. At length he placed him. He was the lawyer who had defended his father. He was puzzled that Hart knew where he was. He had hoped the little New England village had lost all track of him, but the fact that Hart did know convinced him it would be quite useless to try to keep his whereabouts a secret from his father even if he wished to. Since Hart knew, there must be others also who knew.

He took up the newspaper clippings again. By an odd coincidence they had reached him on the very day the governor of Massachusetts had set apart for his father's release.

CHAPTER II.

OAKLEY drew down the top of his desk and left the office. Before locking the door, on which some predecessor had caused the words, "Department of Transportation and Maintenance; No Admittance Except on Business," to be stenciled in black letters, he called to McClintock, who, with Dutch Pete, was still fussing over the wheezy switch engine.

"Will you want in the office for anything, Milt?"

The master mechanic, who had been swearing at a rusted nut, got up from his knees and, dangling a big wrench in one hand, bawled back, "No, I guess not."

After turning the key on the department of transportation and maintenance, Oakley crossed the tracks to the station and made briskly off uptown, with the wind and rain blowing in his face.

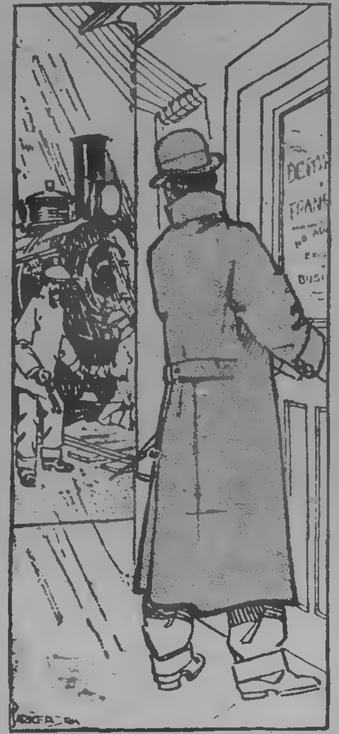
He lived at the American House, the best hotel the place could boast.

In Antioch Oakley was something of a figure. He was the first manager of the road to make the town his permanent headquarters, and the town was grateful. It would have swamped him with kindly attention, but he had studiously ignored all advances, preferring not to make friends. In this he had not entirely succeeded. The richest man in the county, Dr. Emory, who was a good deal of a patrician, had taken a fancy to him and had insisted upon entertaining him at a formal dinner. It was the most impressive function Oakley had ever attended, and even to think of it still sent the cold chills coursing down his spine.

That morning he had chanced to meet Dr. Emory on the street, and the doctor, who could always be trusted to say exactly what he thought, had taken him to task for not calling. There was a reason why Oakley had not done so. The doctor's daughter had just returned from the east, and vague rumors were current concerning her beauty and elegance. Now, women were altogether beyond Oakley's ken. However, since some responsive courtesy was evidently expected of him, he determined to have it over with at once. Imbued with this idea, he went to his room after supper to dress. As he arrayed himself for the ordeal he sought to recall a past experience in line with the present. Barring the recent dinner, his most ambitious social experiment had been a brakeman's ball in Denver years before when he was conductor on a freight.

It was still raining, a discouragingly persistent drizzle, when Oakley left his hotel and turned from the public square into Main street. This Main street was never an imposing thoroughfare, and a week of steady downpour made it from curb to curb a river of quaking mud. It was lit at long intervals by flickering gas lamps that glowed like corpulent fireflies in the misty darkness beneath the dripping maple boughs. As in the case of most western towns, Antioch had known dreams of greatness, dreams which had not been realized. It stood stock still in all its raw, ugly youth, with the rigid angularity its founders had imposed upon it when they hacked and hewed a spot for it in the pine woods, whose stunted second growth encircled it on every side.

The Emory home had once been a farmhouse of the better class. Various additions and improvements gave it an air of solid and substantial comfort unusual in a community where the prevailing style of architecture was a square wooden box built close to the street end of a narrow lot.



"Will you want in the office for anything, Milt?"

The doctor himself answered Oakley's ring and led the way into the parlor after relieving him of his hat and umbrella.

"My wife you know, Mr. Oakley. This is my daughter."

Constance Emory rose from her seat before the wood fire that smoldered on the wide, old fashioned hearth and gave Oakley her hand. He saw a stately, fair haired girl, trimly gowned in an evening dress that to his unsophisticated gaze seemed astonishingly elaborate. But he could not have imagined anything more becoming. He decided that she was very pretty. Later he changed his mind. She was more than pretty.

For her part Miss Emory saw merely a tall young fellow, rather good looking than otherwise, who was feeling nervously for his cuffs. Beyond this there was not much to be said in his favor, but she was willing to be amused.

She had been absent from Antioch four years. These years had been spent in the east and in travel abroad with a widowed and childless sister of her father's. She was, on the whole, glad to be home again. As yet she was not disturbed by any thoughts of the future. She looked on the world with serene eyes. They were a limpid blue and veiled by long dark lashes. She possessed the poise and unshaken self confidence that come of position and experience. Her father and mother were not so well satisfied with the situation; they already recognized that it held the elements of a tragedy. In their desire to give her every opportunity they had overreached themselves. She had outgrown Antioch as surely as she had outgrown her childhood, and it was as impossible to take her back to the one as to the other.

The doctor patted Oakley on the shoulder.

"I am glad you've dropped in. I hope, now you have made a beginning, we shall see more of you."

He was a portly man of fifty, with kindly eyes and an easy, gracious manner. Mrs. Emory was sedate and placid, a handsome, well kept woman, who administered her husband's affairs with a steadiness and economy that had made it possible for him to amass a comfortable fortune from his straggling country practice.

Constance soon decided that Oakley was not at all like the young men of Antioch as she recalled them, nor was he like the men she had known while under her aunt's tutelage—the leisurely idlers who drifted with the social tide, apparently without responsibility or care.

He proved hopelessly dense on those matters with which they had been perfectly familiar. It seemed to her that pleasure and accomplishment, as she understood them, had found no place in his life. The practical quality in his mind showed at every turn of the conversation. He appeared to hunger after hard facts, and the harder these facts were the better he liked them. But he offended in more glaring ways. He was too intense, and his speech too careful and precise, as if he were uncertain as to his grammar, as, indeed, he was.

Poor Oakley was vaguely aware that he was not getting on, and the strain told. It slowly dawned upon him that he was not her sort, that where he was concerned she was quite alien, quite foreign, with interests he could not comprehend, but which gave him a rankling sense of inferiority.

He had been moderately well satisfied with himself, as, indeed, he had good reason to be, but her manner was calculated to rob him of undue pride. He was not accustomed to being treated with mixed indifference and patronage. He asked himself resentfully how it happened that he had never before met such a girl. She fascinated him. The charm of her presence seemed to suddenly create and satisfy a love for the beautiful. With generous enthusiasm he set to work to be entertaining. Then a realization of the awful mental poverty in which he dwelt burst upon him for the first time. He longed for some light and graceful talent with which to bridge the wide gaps between the stubborn heights of his professional erudition.

He was profoundly versed on rates, grades, ballast, motive power and rolling stock, but this solid information was of no avail. He could on occasion talk to a swearing section boss with a grievance and a brogue in a way to make that man his friend for life. He also possessed the happy gift of inspiring his subordinates with a zealous sense of duty, but his social responsibilities numbed his faculties and left him a bankrupt for words.

The others gave him no assistance. Mrs. Emory, smiling and good humored, but silent, bent above her sewing. She was not an acute person, and the situation was lost upon her, while the doctor took only the most casual part in the conversation.

Oakley was wondering how he could make his escape when the doorbell rang. The doctor slipped from the parlor. When he returned he was not alone. He was preceded by a dark young man of one or two and thirty. This was Griffith Ryder, the owner of the Antioch Herald.

"My dear," said he, "Mr. Ryder." Ryder shook hands with the two ladies and nodded carelessly to Oakley. Then, with an easy, careless compliment, he lounged down in the chair at Miss Emory's side.

Constance had turned from the strenuous Oakley to the newcomer with a sense of unmistakable relief. Her mother, too, brightened visibly. She did not entirely approve of Ryder, but he was always entertaining in a lazy, indifferent fashion of his own.

"I see, Griff," the doctor said, "that you are going to support Kenyon. I declare it shakes my confidence in you," and he drew forward his chair. Like most Americans, the physician was something of a politician, and, as is also true of most Americans not professionally concerned in the hunt for office, this interest fluctuated between the two extremes of party enthusiasm before and nonpartisan disgust after elections.

Ryder smiled faintly. "Yes, we know just how much of a rascal Kenyon is, and we know nothing at all about the other fellow except that he wants the nomination, which is a bad sign. Suppose he should turn out a greater scamp! Really it's too much of a risk," he drawled, with an affectation of contempt.

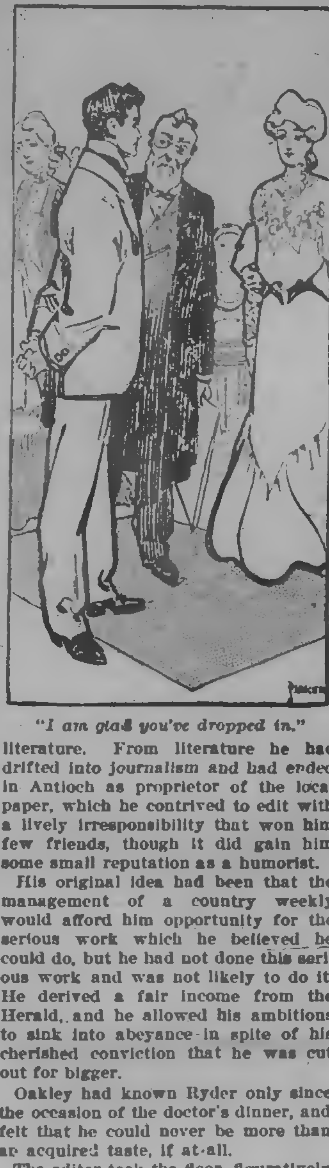
"Your politics always were a shock to your friends, but this serves to explain them," remarked the doctor, with latent combativeness. But Ryder was not to be beguiled into argument. He turned again to Miss Emory.

"Your father is not a practical politician or he would realize that it is only common thrift to send Kenyon back, for I take it he has served his country not without profit to himself. Besides, he is clamorous and persistent, and there seems no other way to dispose of him. It's either that or the penitentiary."

Constance laughed softly. "And so you think he can afford to be honest now? What shocking ethics!"

"That is my theory. Anyhow I don't see why your father should wish me to forego the mild excitement of assisting to re-elect my more or less disreputable friend. Antioch has had very little to offer one until you came," he added, with gentle deference. Miss Emory accepted the compliment with the utmost composure. Once she had been rather flattered by his attentions, but four years make a great difference. Either he had lost in cleverness or she had gained in knowledge.

He was a very tired young man. At one time he had possessed some expectations and numerous pretensions. The expectation had faded out of his life, but the pretense remained in the absence of any vital achievement. He was college bred and had gone in for literature. From literature he had drifted into journalism and had ended in Antioch as proprietor of the local paper, which he contrived to edit with a lively irresponsibility that won him few friends, though it did gain him some small reputation as a humorist.



"I am glad you've dropped in."

His original idea had been that the management of a country weekly would afford him opportunity for the serious work which he believed he could do, but he had not done this serious work and was not likely to do it. He derived a fair income from the Herald, and he allowed his ambitions to sink into abeyance in spite of his cherished conviction that he was cut out for bigger.

Oakley had known Ryder only since the occasion of the doctor's dinner, and felt that he could never be more than an acquired taste, if at all.

The editor took the floor, figuratively speaking, for Miss Emory's presence made the effort seem worth his while. He promptly relieved Oakley of the necessity to do more than listen, an act of charity for which the latter was hardly as grateful as he should have been. He was no fool, but there were wide realms of enlightenment where he was an absolute stranger, so when Constance and Ryder came to talk of books and music, as they did finally, his only refuge was in silence and he went into a sort of intellectual quarantine. His reading had been strictly limited to scientific works and to the half dozen trade and technical journals to which he subscribed and from which he drew the larger part of his mental sustenance. As for music, he was familiar with the airs from the latest popular operas, but the masterpieces were utterly unknown, except such as had been brought to his notice by having sleeping cars named in their honor, a practice he considered very complimentary and possessing value as a strong commercial indorsement.

He felt more and more lonely and aloof as the evening wore on, and it was a relief when the doctor took him into the library to examine specimens of iron ore he had picked up west of Antioch, where there were undeveloped mineral lands for which he was trying to secure capital. This was a matter Oakley was interested in, since it might mean business for the road. He promptly forgot about Miss Emory and the objectionable Ryder and in ten minutes gave the doctor a better comprehension of the mode of procedure necessary to success than that gentleman had been able to learn in ten years of unfruitful attempting. He also supplied him with a few definite facts and figures in lieu of the multitude of glittering generalities on which he had been pinning his faith as a means of getting money into the scheme.

When at last they returned to the parlor they found another caller had arrived during their absence, a small, shabbily dressed man, with a high, bald head and weak, nearsighted eyes. It was Turner Joyce. Oakley knew him just as he was beginning to know every other man, woman and child in the town.

Joyce rose hastily, or, rather, stumbled to his feet as the doctor and Oakley entered the room.

"I told you I was coming up, doctor," he said apologetically. "Miss Constance has been very kind. She has been telling me of the galleries and studios. What a glorious experience!"

A cynical smile parted Ryder's thin lips.

"Mr. Joyce feels the isolation of his art here."

The little man blinked doubtfully at the speaker and then said, with a gentle, deprecatory gesture, "I don't call it art."

"You are far too modest. I have heard my foreman speak in the most complimentary terms of the portrait you did of his wife. He was especially pleased with the frame. You must know, Miss Constance, that Mr. Joyce usually furnishes the frames, and his pictures go home ready to the wire to hang on the wall."

Mr. Joyce continued to blink doubtfully at Ryder. He scarcely knew how to take the allusion to the frames. It was a sore point with him.

Constance turned with a displeased air from Ryder to the little artist. There was a faint, wistful smile on her lips. He was a rather pathetic figure to her, and she could not understand how Ryder dared or had the heart to make fun.

"I shall enjoy seeing all that you have done, Mr. Joyce, and of course I wish to see Ruth. Why didn't she come with you tonight?"

"Her cousin, Lou Bentick's wife, is dead, and she has been over at his house all day. She was quite worn out, but she sent you her love."

Ryder glanced again at Miss Emory and said, with hard cynicism: "The notice will appear in Saturday's Herald, with a tribute from her pastor. I never refuse his verse. It invariably contains some scathing comment on the uncertainty of the Baptist faith as a means of salvation."

But this was wasted on Joyce. Ryder rose, with a sigh.

"Well, we toilers must think of the morrow."

Oakley accepted this as a sign that it was time to go. Joyce, too, stumbled across the room to the door, and the three men took their leave together. As they stood on the steps the doctor said cordially, "I hope you will both come again soon, and you, too, Turner," he added kindly.

Ryder moved off quickly with Oakley. Joyce would have dropped behind, but the latter made room for him at his side. No one spoke until Ryder, halting on a street corner, said, "Sorry, but it's out of my way to go any farther unless you'll play a game of billiards with me at the hotel, Oakley."

"Thanks," curtly. "I don't play billiards."

"No? Well, it is a waste of time, I suppose. Good night!" And he turned down the side street, whispering softly.

"A very extraordinary young man," murmured Joyce, rubbing the tip of his nose meditatively with a painty forefinger "And with quite an extraordinary opinion of himself."

A sudden feeling of friendliness prompted Oakley to tuck his hand through the little artist's arm. "How is Bentick bearing the loss of his wife?" he asked. "You said she was your cousin."

"No, not mine; my wife's. Poor fellow! He feels it keenly. They had not been married long, you know."

CHAPTER III.

OAKLEY took the satchel from General Cornish's hand as the latter stepped from his private car.

"You got my note, I see," he said. "I think I'll go to the hotel for the rest of the night."

He glanced back over his shoulder as he turned with Dan toward the bus which was waiting for them at the end of the platform.

"I guess no one else got off here. It's not much of a railroad center."

"No," agreed Oakley impartially; "there are towns where the traffic is heavier."

Arrived at the hotel, Oakley led the way upstairs to the general's room. It adjoined his own. Cornish paused on the threshold until he had lighted the gas.

"Light the other burner, will you?" he requested. "There, thanks, that's better."

He was a portly man of sixty, with a large head and heavy face. His father had been a Vermont farmer, a man of position and means according to the easy standard of his times. When the civil war broke out young Cornish, who was just commencing the practice of the law, had enlisted as a private in one of the first regiments raised by his state. Prior to this he had overflowed with fervid oratory and had tried hard to look like Daniel Webster, but a skirmish or two opened his eyes to the fact that the waging of war was a sober business and the polishing off of his sentences not nearly as important as the polishing off of the enemy. He was still willing to die for the Union if there was need of it, but while his life was spared it was well to get on. The numerical importance of number one was a belief too firmly implanted in his nature to be overthrown by any patriotic aberration.

His own merits, which he was among the first to recognize, and the solid backing his father was able to give won him promotion. He had risen to the command of a regiment, and when the war ended was brevetted a brigadier general of volunteers along with a score of other anxious warriors who wished to carry the title of general back into civil life, for he was an amiable sort of a Shylock, who seldom overlooked his pound of flesh, and he usually got all and a little more than was coming to him.

After the war he married and went west, where he resumed the practice of his profession, but he soon abandoned it for a commercial career. It was not long until he was ranked as one of the rich men of his state. Then he turned his attention to politics. He was twice elected to congress and served one term as governor. One of his daughters had married an Italian prince, a meek, prosaic little creature exactly five feet three inches tall. Another was engaged to an English earl, whose debts were a remarkable achievement for so young a man. His wife now divided her time between Paris and London. She didn't think much of New York, which had thought even less of her. He managed to see her once or twice a year. Any oftener would have been superfluous.

There were moments, however, when he felt his life to be wholly unsatisfactory. He derived very little pleasure from all the luxury that had accumulated about him and which he accepted with a curious placid indifference. He would have liked the affection of his children, to have had them at home, and there was a remote period in his past when his wife had inspired him with a sentiment at which he could only wonder. He held it against her that she had not understood.

He lurched down solidly into the chair Oakley placed for him. "I hope you are comfortable here," he said kindly.

"Oh, yes." He still stood.

"Sit down," said Cornish. "I don't, as a rule, believe in staying up after midnight to talk business, but I must start east tomorrow."

He slipped out of his chair and began to pace the floor, with his hands thrust deep in his trousers pockets. "I want to talk over the situation here. I don't see that the road is ever going to make a dollar. I've an opportunity to sell it to the M. and W. Of course this is extremely confidential. It must not go any further. I am told they will discontinue it beyond this point, and of course they will either move the shops away or close them." He paused in his rapid walk. "It's too bad it never paid. It was the first thing I did when I came west. I thought it a pretty big thing then. I have always hoped it would justify my judgment, and it promised to for awhile until the lumber interests played out. Now, what do you advise, Oakley? I want to get your ideas. You understand if I sell I won't lose much. The price offered will just about meet the mortgage I hold, but I guess the stockholders will come out at the little end of the horn."

Oakley understood exactly what was ahead of the stockholders if the road changed hands. Perhaps his face showed that he was thinking of this, for the general observed charitably:

"It's unfortunate, but you can't mix sentiment in a transaction of this sort. I'd like to see them all get their money back, and more too."

His mental attitude toward the world was one of generous liberality, but he had such excellent control over his impulses that, while he always seemed about to embark in some large philanthropy, he had never been known to take even the first step in that direction. In short, he was hard and unemotional, but with a deceptive, unswerving kindliness of manner which, while it had probably never involved a dollar of his riches, had at divers times cost the unwary and the indiscreet much money.

"I am sure the road could be put on a paying basis," said Oakley. "Certain quite possible economies would do that. Of course we can't create business; there is just so much of it, and we get it all as it is. But the shops might be made very profitable. I have secured a good deal of work for them and I shall secure more. I had intended to propose a number of reforms, but if you are going to sell, why, there's no use of going into the matter"— He paused.

The general meditated in silence for a moment.

"I'd hate to sacrifice my interests if I thought you could even make the road pay expenses. Now, just what do you intend to do?"

"I'll get my order book and show you what's been done for the shops," said Oakley, rising with alacrity. "I have figured out the changes, too, and you can see at a glance just what I propose doing."

The road and the shops employed some 500 men, most of whom had their homes in Antioch. Oakley knew that if the property was sold it would practically wipe the town out of existence. The situation was full of interest for him. If Cornish approved and told him to go ahead with his reforms, it would be an opportunity such as he had never known.

He went into his own room, which opened off Cornish's, and got his order book and table of figures, which he had carried up from the office that afternoon.

He had taken a great deal of pains with his figures, and they seemed to satisfy Cornish that the road if properly managed was not such a hopeless proposition after all. Something might be done with it.

Oakley rose in his good esteem. He had liked him, and he was justifying his good opinion. He beamed benevolently on the young man and thawed out of his habitual reserve into a genial, ponderous frankness.

"You have done well," he said, glancing through the order book, with evident satisfaction.

"Of course," explained Oakley, "I am going to make a cut in wages this spring if you agree to it, but I haven't the figures for this yet." The general nodded. He approved of cuts on principle.

"That's always a wise move," he said. "Will they stand it?"

"They'll have to." And Oakley laughed rather nervously. He appreciated that his reforms were likely to make him very unpopular in Antioch. "They shouldn't object. If the road changes hands it will kill their town."

"I suppose so," agreed Cornish indifferently.

"And half a loaf is lots better than no bread," added Oakley. Again the general nodded his approval.

"What sort of shape is the shop in?" he asked after a moment's silence.

"Very good on the whole."

"I am glad to hear you say so. I spent over a hundred thousand dollars on the plant originally."

"Of course the equipment can hardly be called modern, but it will do for the sort of work for which I am bidding," Oakley explained.

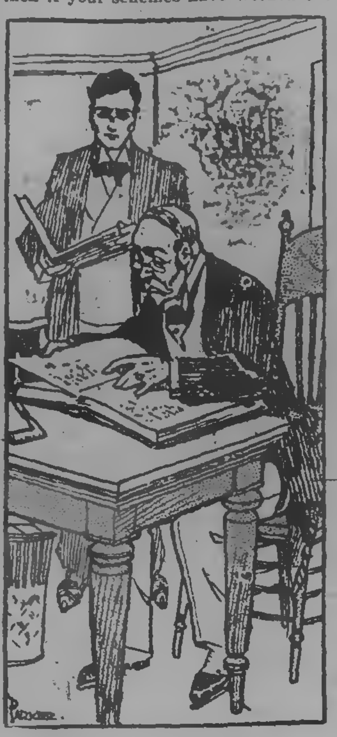
"Well, it will be an interesting problem for a young man, Oakley. If you pull the property up it will be greatly to your credit. I was going to offer you another position, but we will let that go over for the present. I am very much pleased, though, with all you have done; very much pleased indeed. I go abroad in about two weeks. My youngest daughter is to be married in London to the Earl of Minchester." The title rolled glibly from the great man's lips. "So you'll have the fight, if it is a fight, all to yourself. I'll see that Holloway does what you say. He's the only one you'll have to look to in my absence, but you won't be able to count on him for anything. He gets limp in a crisis. Just don't make the mistake of asking his advice."

"I'd rather have no advice," interrupted Dan hastily, "unless it's yours," he added.

"I'll see that you are not bothered. You are the sort of fellow who will do better with a free hand, and that is what I intend you shall have."

"Thank you," said Oakley, his heart warming with the other's praise.

"I shall be back in three months, and then if your schemes have worked out at all as we expect, why, we can consider putting the property in better shape." (A part of Oakley's plan.) "As you say, it's gone down so there won't be much but the right of way presently."



"You have done well," he said.

"I hope that eventually there'll be profits," said Oakley, whose mind was beginning to reach out into the future.

"I guess the stockholders will drop dead if we ever earn a dividend. That's the last thing they are looking forward to," remarked Cornish dryly. "Will you leave a 6:30 call at the office for me? I forgot, and I must take the first train. Good night."

The Americans are Badly Dressed

Chicago, July 15th.—That sartorial purist, "The Tailor and Caterer," which edged its critic into the crowd at Ambassador Reid's reception at Dorchester House on July 4, to-day prints the result of his observations. Here is one of his complaints: "We saw two or three flat braided morning coats, and at least one frock coat with bone buttons in place of the more artistic silk top buttons." In regard to women's tailored American garments, the journal says: "They are built too much on the principle of an iron clad vessel, with layer upon layer of plate." The outer garment has a heavy shapeless appearance, giving its wearer a square, squat look, which detracts greatly from the stylish appearance which the general build of American women places at the disposal of the tailor to enhance and beautify.

The waist is one suited to a variety of developments, the centre front panel being applied and trimmed with stitching and buttons. Narrow tucks over the shoulder terminate at yoke depth in front and at the belt in back. The sleeves may be in full length or shorter, the latter being the popular choice. A silk, pongee or tub fabric would develop the waist becomingly while a lace or contrasting material may serve as adornment. For the medium size 3 3-8 yards of 27 inch material are needed.

HUMOR

DEPRAVITY OF MAN.

How a Chicago Husband Proved Himself the Meanest of Men.

"I've just heard of the meanest man in this town."

"What did he do—break open some child's bank?"

"It was worse than that. His wife had made him promise to help her pick out a new spring hat, and a few hours before the time at which he had agreed to meet her in the millinery department of one of the big stores he went to the place, made a few complimentary remarks to one of the young women on duty there and then told her what he had agreed to do.

"'The woman who lives next door to us,' he explained, 'has a new hat which cost $33. Now my wife will want one which is worth at least $5 or $10 more.'

"Then he whispered some instructions to the bewitching saleslady and departed. When he returned with his wife, he skillfully managed it so that she was waited on by the young woman with whom he had arranged matters. A number of hats were brought out for inspection, but only one of them seemed to be satisfactory. There was a hat marked $42 which the victim of the plot liked pretty well, but her husband threw up his hands and declared that it was outrageous for her to expect a man in his circumstances to pay any such price for a wisp of straw and a feather.

"'But, Henry, you want me to look respectable, don't you?' the wife pleaded.

"'That's all right. If I could afford it, nothing would give me greater pleasure than to buy this hat for you. But $42! That's more than I pay for a whole suit of clothes. No. You must take something cheaper.'

"Well, they looked at every hat in the store, but always the lady got back to the one which was marked $42. At last Henry found that he would have to go. He couldn't neglect his business all day to help his wife pick out a hat, and he went away, desperately informing her that she might go ahead and select anything she wanted.

"When he got home that night his wife put her arms around his neck and said:

"'I suppose it was awfully extravagant of me, Henry, but I really could not find anything else that I would wear. I had the forty-two dollar hat charged to you. You won't think I'm silly, will you, dear?'

"Do you know what that wretch had done? He'd induced the young woman in the millinery department to take a twenty-one dollar hat and put a forty-two dollar price tag on it, and there his poor wife is with a hat which actually cost $12 less than the woman next door paid for hers. The depravity of some men is incomprehensible."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Utilitarianism.

"Some people," said Dr. Wallace Wood of the University of New York, "carry utilitarianism so far that the value of beauty is forgotten and nothing appeals to them but usefulness. They are like the barber who was cutting a young man's hair when his shears made an unfortunate snip.

"His victim leaped from the chair. 'Oh,' he cried in pain and dismay, 'you've cut a piece of my ear off!'

"'Sho,' returned the barber soothingly, 'don't carry on so, boss. 'Tain't nuff to affec' yo' hearin'.'"—Woman's Home Companion.

Long Time Between Calls.

"You used to wear a Vandyke beard," she pouted. "I don't like you without it. The next time you come to see me wear one again."

He looked at her reproachfully.

"Do you know how long it takes to grow a respectable Vandyke?" he asked her.

"No," said she. "How long?"

"About six months," he answered plaintively.—Ohio State Journal.

A Remote Contingency.

"What's the matter with your dog, ma'am?" the doctor inquired.

"He's worrying me terribly," the agitated lady replied. "He ran out on the porch this morning when his nurse opened the door and bit a hole in the mail man's letter bag, and I'm so afraid he may have poisoned himself on a dead letter." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

approve the good and censure the selfishness with the greater charity because we have been ourselves ourhbgt cause we have been ourselves brought nearer to the trust and truthfulness of our childhood. That is what a canoe trip in Canada will do for men and women."

Canoeing as a pastime is general in in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Every province presents a great choice of routes to the cruiser. New Brunswick from north to south, Quebec from east to west from Montreal to James Bay, Ontario with her chains of inland lakes, Muskoka and Kawartha, and the islands of Georgian Bay with their thousands of miles of waterway between rocky islands of all sizes and conditions. The prairie provinces and British Columbia have also many delightful trips to offer, and the great rivers of Canada need to be dealt with in detail in order to see what they have to present in this delightful form of vacation and recreation.

In the endeavor to be of assistance in the selection of a new trip to where Nature may be seen in all her primeval loveliness and excellent sport may be enjoyed without hardship, these celebrated regions are suggested:

The St. John River, as described by the late Rev. De Witt Talmage as "the Rhine and the Hudson commingled in one scene of beauty and grandeur." The length of this river is 450 miles. The Grand Falls divide this river in half, and the journey down to the city of Fredericton is an ideal canoe trip, with just enough excitement in the quick water to please all but the fool-hardy. Grand Falls, which are reached by the Canadian Pacific railway, are most beautiful, and this enormous volume of water falling over seventy-five feet is a very fine sight, and one worth travelling many miles to see.

THE OTTAWA RIVER.

The Ottawa River, from its source Lake Capemochagama, only 32 miles south of the height of land between the St. Lawrence waters and those flowing into Hudson Bay, is 780 miles long to its mouth at the lower end of the Island of Montreal. From Lake Exhwabam, from which one of its branches takes its origin, the river is over 800 miles to its mouth. This river and its tributary waters drain an area of no less than 60,180 square miles of which 40,324 are in the Province of Quebec. The Ottawa is almost as long as the Rhine, but has three times its volume of water. From its head waters it is possible to pass by comparatively short portages into almost any of the great northern rivers of the Province of Quebec.

A glance at the map will show the Canadian Pacific railway as following this river for hundreds of miles, and according to the time at the canoeist's disposal he can enjoy a cruise upon these famous waters.

KAWARTHA LAKES.

Take the Lindsay branch of the Canadian Pacific railway. Put canoes in the water at Scugog Lake, then down Scugog river through Lindsay to Sturgeon Lake, then eastward to Bobcaygeon and Pigeon Lake, Buckhorn Lake, Deer Lake and Clear Lake to River Otonabee, Lakefield and Peterborough. A fine trip, with good fishing. Time from one to two weeks. Easily reached from Toronto, Buffalo, Pittsburg and Rochester.

MOON RIVER TRIP.

The Moon River starts at Bala, in the Muskoka Lakes, and flows into Georgian Bay. From Bala, where supplies and guides may be secured, many excellent canoe trips may be enjoyed through the famous Muskoka Lakes and also into Georgian Bay, which is noted for its islands, scenery and splendid bass fishing—a combination that always appeals strongly to canoeists.

TIMISKAMING AND KIPAWA.

Haileybury is in truth situated at one of the most favored spots in the Dominion from the canoeist's point of view. It is only necessary to decide the direction and the length of time to be expended to plan paddling excursions of the utmost variety and charm. One of the most popular is to make a short portage from Haileybury to a chain of lakes that leads into the Montreal River and then through Lakes Evelyn, Timagami and a thousand others to the same rivers again. It traverses the district famed among the Algonquins as the true Happy Hunting Grounds and still known to the sportsmen of to-day as one of the most delightful of holiday resorts. Its forests are virgin, its scenery is lovely and its fishing superb, and the tourist may wander among its islands and explore its reaches for days, always finding something fresh to admire and ever enjoying the best of sport. Canoe trips of every sort may be undertaken and it would fill a lifetime to exhaust the wonders of this land.

From Haileybury one can come south on the Timagami & Northern railway to Lake Timagami and the Canadian Pacific at North Bay, making a delightful round trip.

HUDSON AND JAMES BAY.

This great inland ocean is reached three routes.

From Missanabie via Missanaibe river. Time, four to five weeks for round trip;

From Mattawa through Lakes Timiskaming and Abitibi and Abitibi river. Time, from four to six weeks for trip from Mattawa to James Bay and return.

Another route, from Winnipeg to York Factory, on Hudson Bay. Take steamboat across Lake Winnipeg, from thence by canoe. Time required, from six to seven weeks.

LAKE OF THE WOODS.

Kenora is a splendid point for a canoe trip, and offers a large number of excellent cruises through a territory but little known to the average lover of that kind of summer enjoyment. A canoe trip from Kenora to Lake Winnipeg will content all but incurable grumblers.

CAMPING IN CANADA

Canada above all the countries in the world is pre-eminently fitted for camping. Its genial summers and beautiful lakes, rivers and forests teeming with fish and game make it an ideal country in which to enjoy the free life of the woods. It is impossible to recommend or enumerate particular places or provinces, for practically all the vast Dominion of Canada and every province has hundreds of beauty spots, and delightful waters where the camper will find everything that is required to make is vacation enjoyable.

An Ideal Camping Spot

There are a number of good reasons why people in increasing numbers go camping each year. It is the most economical of all outings. Nature supplies most of the essentials of life free—wood, water, food, with no rent to pay, while the fresh air, change of scenery and a beautiful rest, frequently, make the doctor lose a customer.

Camping in the Rockies

To go camping a few years ago, it was considered suffering a hardship; now, with modern conveniences, women and children may enjoy this form of vacation without experiencing any discomfort, and be greatly benefited thereby.

CAMPING IN CANADIAN ROCKIES.

The Canadian Rockies excel all other places for a camping trip, and are rapidly growing in the favor of all classes, because there is so much to see that is interesting, novel and exhilarating. Blest, indeed, are those that can get away from the turmoil of the city and spend some time among these matchless mountains and see Nature in all her grandeur of towering peaks and glittering glacier, wild and weird canyons, picturesque mountain lakes and tarns, spacious valleys and enchanting streams.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS.

Supplies.—You must be guided by the nature of the country in which you are to camp. When these can be obtained from adjacent villages or farmers on your trip, the amount carried may be small. On longer trips to the wild, consult authorities

Camp Site.—Put up your tent where water cannot lie, avoid hollow spots, secure a shaded spot if possible, but near the open. Don't camp in damp places, and keep not too far away from dead timber to have it for fuel.

Clothing.—Sacrifice appearances for comfort. Serviceable old clothing is preferable to new; it gives freedom of action. Two complete changes are ample or an ordinary outing. A sweater is always handy to have along. Avoid white and fawn colors, white because it soils easily, and fawn is a dangerous color in the woods. Dark green colored are safe colors. A waterproof coat should always be included, or rain cape, also a soft hat or peak cap. Take underclothing to suit the climate, always soft shirts. Take light wool clothing in preference to cotton. Moccasins are good footwear when in a canoe; never take new boots camping; a pair or two of worn but serviceable shoes are always handy to have with you.

Bed and Bedding.—Good grey wool blankets are best for camping. A down comforter in a sateen bag is good in the far north. Another good bed is made as follows: Use a piece of canvas 40 inches wide and seven feet long, on each side turn a hem nine inches deep, sewing it securely, leaving the two ends of the hem open. Through each of these thrust a pole heavy enough to carry your weight, spreader made of crotched stick under each end of the poles makes a good bed. To make a bed of boughs or branches, cut off the ends of branches and lay them with the ends down make it about six inches deep, and put a log or stick at the ends to hold in place. This makes a very comfortable bed. A number of special camp beds are offered to the public, each of which have merit. The camper must be guided by his individual taste and purse in buying.

Cooking Utensils.—Do not take light, cheap tinware that will almost fall to pieces on a camping trip. Some good, solid, serviceable tin or aluminum in nest sets especially manufactured for camping.

Provisions.—Each party have ideas of their own on this subject, and the supply needed depends upon the nature of the country to be visited. Have everything put up in cotton, nothing in paper bags. Avoid glass that is likely to be broken in transit.

The Camp Fire.—Best of friends—of enemies—around which at the close of day, hearts unite in friendship, with song and story, while ruddy faces smile and eyes sparkle as the flames leap and the wood crackles. Ah, the camp fire is the most social spot on earth, while outside of that magic circle of light all is darkness and gloom, silence except for the cry of night bird and the music of the breeze among the trees.

Do not sit or lie on bare ground; it is harmful and likely to cause sickness.

Take along a few yards of mosquito netting. It is easy to carry and means comfort at times.

SEED GROWERS ANNUAL MEETING

The Field Competition of Crops Approved of

A special meeting of the Executive Council of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, was held on July 5th, at Macdonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue, Que. for the purpose of transacting the business of the annual meeting for the Association year, ending June 30th, 1907.

Heretofore the annual meeting of the Association has been held at Ottawa during the month of June, but this year it was decided to change the date for holding this meeting to some time earlier in the year when Parliament would be in session and when, for various other good reasons it would be more desirable to convene. The next regular meeting will therefore be held some time in January or February.

The members of the executive who were present at the above meeting were President Dr. Jas. W. Robertson, Secretary L. H. Newman, Professors C. A. Zavitz and L. S. Klinck and Messrs. G. A. Gigault, and W. L. Davidson. The seed commissioner, Mr. G. H. Clark and Messrs J. C. Cote and T. G. Raynor, of the seed branch were also present as were also several members of the college staff.

The president, in welcoming the officers of the Association to Macdonald College and to Ste. Anne, expressed the hope that the Association and the College would cooperate as far as possible in the future in promoting the interests of good seed.

The report of the secretary as presented before this meeting, was a comprehensive treatise, dealing with the work in each of the six districts into which the Dominion has, for convenience, been divided.

The report gave the following summary of those affiliated with the Association at the present time as follows, viz.,

Total number of applicants, 461.

Number of old members reporting satisfactorily, 57.

Number of old members failing to report, 15.

Number of applicants reporting satisfactorily, 24.

Total number of members in full standing, 96.

Total number now affiliated with the Association, 557.

While the above list is a substantial one, yet it was explained that the list does not give an adequate idea of the actual place which the work of the Association is taking in the rural districts of Canada, as many farmers are carrying out the work themselves, independent of direct affiliation with the organization.

Reference was made to the general awakening of thought and practice along the lines which the Association sought to encourage, and the various agencies, which were responsible for this, were designated.

During the year the principles of plant improvement have been applied under the direction of the Association, in connection with practically all cultivated crops, and in all provinces. The results which have been realized from the system and which have been given in the report in question are noteworthy. While this report will be published in bulletin form, yet the matter contained therein was considered worthy of publication by the press. It was, therefore, resolved, that extracts dealing with certain portions of the report, which are of special interest, be offered the public through the press, from time to time during the summer. The first of these will be entitled 'Work done in the improvement of small grains under the direction of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association.' The second extract will deal with "Seed Fairs." The third, appearing some time in August, will deal with the question of "Corn Breeding," while the fourth, appearing some [illegible] time later, will discuss the matter of "Potato Improvement."

Many important matters were discussed at the meeting, and a progressive policy was adopted for the ensuing year. The matter of field competitions and the utility of such in creating a greater interest in better crops, was discussed, and the following resolution was passed, viz. that the council approves of the principle of holding field competitions of crops, and commends the action of those agricultural societies which have arranged for such competitions, as being one of the excellent means for encouraging the improvement of crops. It was also decided to prepare a collection of special selections to be placed on exhibition at the Dominion Exhibition to be held at Sherbrooke, Que., between September 2nd and 14th, with a view to demonstrating the system followed by the Association,

ROQUEFORT CHEESE.

How the Green Mold and the Flavor Are Produced.

A cheese expert has the following to say about Roquefort cheese:

"To make Roquefort cheese we must have the proper raw material—sheep's milk. Of course we have sheep in America, but show me a Yankee farmer who would go to the trouble of milking sheep! It is even too much for him to milk cows, and it is the standard lamentation of all our farmers that the boys, even if they stay on the farm, do not want to do any milking. Before they do such kind of work they would rather go to a business school or a college where they study agriculture, chemistry, etc.

"How is Roquefort cheese cured? The mold in the cheese is produced by moldy breadcrumbs which are ground to a green dust and mixed in the cheese curd. The country around Roquefort is very rocky. The limestone rocks are full of crevices and caves, which draw in the warm air in summer, give it out in winter, and vice versa.

"These caves have been provided by nature and improved by cellars that have been built in such a way that these natural currents of warm and cold air pass through them, where Roquefort cheese is cured. This is the way that Roquefort cheese is ripened and gets its peculiar flavor and character. It is all very well for the scientists to study the chemical process which the cheese is undergoing, but to produce this process in an artificial way is another question. Nature is the best chemist.

"The manufacture of Roquefort cheese has been tried in America, but the manufacturers did not make much of a success. Nobody manufactures Roquefort in America at present. We know of one manufacturer who tried to make Roquefort cheese of goats' milk. He boasted especially that he would use only the milk of 'imported' goats. Just think of the idea! Imported goats grazing on American pastures were expected to give better flavored milk than domestic goats. It is the climate, the special soil, atmospheric influences, etc., which produce the fine fragrant grass. The milk of the cows or goats or sheep is naturally the product of the grass they are eating, the water they are drinking, and neither this nor the climate nor the country can be imported to America—only the product which the climate or country produces. That is why neither the American Camembert nor Roquefort ever has the flavor or fragrance of the imported article in spite of all the imported goats or imported cattle or even of imported microbes."

BOOMERANG INVENTIONS.

Clisthenes introduced the custom of ostracism and was the first to be banished thereby.

Matthew Hopkins, the witch finder, was himself tried by his own tests and put to death as a wizard.

Ludovico Sforza, who invented the iron shroud, was the first to suffer death by this horrible torture.

Perillos, who invented the brazen bull for Phalaris, tyrant of Agrigentum, was the first person baked to death in the horrible monster.

The Regent Morton of Scotland, who invented the maiden, a sort of guillotine, was the first to be beheaded thereby. This was in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

The bishop of Verdun, who invented the iron cages, too small to allow the person confined in them to stand upright or lie at full length, was the first to be shut up in one.

The perriere was an instrument for throwing stones of 3,000 pounds in weight, and the inventor fell a victim to his own invention by the accidental discharge of a perriere against a wall.

Old Time Bank Sinecures.

In the old days the Bank of England was paternal in its treatment of its clerks. One young fellow was distinguished only for his zeal as a member of the volunteer corps which now is defunct. His clerkly services were negligible and neglected, but when it was brought to the notice of the directors they remembered his martial ardor and gave him a nice little sinecure. Another clerk was reported to them as a really clever amateur painter. They saw his pictures. "It is a pity that such talent should be wasted over ledgers," was the kindly verdict. So they gave him a room at the bank for use as a studio and appointed him to the post of superintending the burning of canceled bank notes every Friday afternoon.—London Chronicle.

The Greek Figure.

Greek figures of men appear taller and more graceful than those of moderns. Modern artists make the upright figure seven and one-half times the length of the head. The Greeks made it eight times, lengthening the shin, and the longer sweep from knee to heel gave the figure increased grace and dignity. The same plan was frequently adopted by Lord Leighton, in whose paintings the same effect is obtained.

Made a Difference.

Teacher—If one servant girl could clean two rooms in two hours, how long would it take two servant girls to do it? Little Girl—Four hours. Teacher—Wrong. It would only take one hour. Little Girl—Oh, I didn't know you was talking about servant girls that wasn't on speaking terms!—London Tit-Bits.

Kept His Contract.

Patient—I thought you extracted teeth without pain. Dentist—Well, you still have the pain, haven't you?—Life.

At Papineauville Alex. Hume fell from a Government dredge into the river and was drowned.

The Breeding of Good Milkers

Mr. T. H. Binnie Writes Interestingly on Important Topic

Mr. T. H. Binnie, who is in charge of the cow testing work in this district, writes the Review, as follows, on a matter of much interest to all dairymen,—

"While talking with a very well-informed farmer, the other day, our conversation drifted to the principles of breeding. It was this conversation, which led me to prepare the following notes on this very important branch of agriculture.

"It is a recognized fact that heredity is the corner stone upon which the breeder builds. In other words, he mates his animals, knowing that "like begets like." In the vegetable kingdom we do not get apples from plum trees, nor potatoes from cherry trees. In the human family we find that generations have kept the Teutonic races, large-framed and blonde, while the negro races are dark and curly-haired. In building up the dairy breeds we also see this law brought to the front. Many Jersey bulls have been advertised as "butter bulls", because their dams were excellent yielders of butter, and they transmitted this progeny to their progeny.

The breeders of dairy cattle should mate their best yielders to bulls from a good milking strain if they wish to get the best results and build up a good dairy herd.

"The term 'reversion' in breeding means to return to the type of some remote ancestor. It is quite possible that in a herd of excellent milkers a poor bull was used for only one season some years ago. Even with the use of the best animals, which can be procured, it will be found that a poor milker will appear. This shows how important it is to use the best, and nothing but the best kind of a bull at the head of the dairy herd.

"It sometimes happens that one cow is a good milker while all her relatives are poor yielders. Occasionally we find a poor milk producer in a family of good cows. This may be due to variation, which does not play such an important part as heredity, and reversion in practical breeding.

"It must always be remembered that to obtain good dairy herds they should be headed by the best bull obtainable. This bull should come from a family that conforms to "dairy" type and performs at the pail."

Yours, etc.—
T. H. BINNIE.

BOLD BURGLARS ARE ARRESTED

Bancroft, Ont., July 19.—The trio of daring burglars who robbed the jewellery store of H. R. Cudden, Alexandria, of cash and jewellery to the value of $2,000, and who, three weeks after that robbery, visited Bancroft, where, upon the attempt of the constable and villagers to arrest them, shot their way to liberty, have been arrested at Depot Harbor near Parry Sound.

A photograph of the two younger men under arrest at Depot Harbor, has been received here by the town constable, who positively identifies them as the men with whom he had his exciting encounter a few weeks ago. They are also identified by other villagers who saw them.

It is supposed the men struck west from here, striking the G.T.R. track near Whitney and following it to the terminal at Depot Harbor, where they were arrested.

Herbert Boyle, an English carpenter at Galt, was drowned in the Grand River while bathing last night.

Weeds in Canal Cause Trouble

Superintendent Says the Boats Should Keep in the Channel

On Saturday morning Mr. Stratton's yacht, the Alberta, was being taken up the canal to Stony lake. On the canal reach between Norwood road and Nassau, the craft got caught in the weeds and after several hours trial the propeller was broken and Mr Rye, of the Otonabee boat house was sent for to fix it. This took most of the morning, but the yacht succeeded in getting out of its difficulty.

Many complaints have been made by owners of small boats about the weeds in the canal and a number of the launches have had much trouble to get through. When the superintendent of the canal was seen he said that if the boats would keep in the channel there would be no trouble. He admitted that there were a great many weeds in that stretch, but he also stated that the channel was free of weeds.

McNamara, well known as a contractor, believes that Peterborough is going to grow very fast and become a big manufacturing centre. A party of eighty-four Barnardo girls arrived in the city on Sunday morning, and the members are now at "Hazel Brae." The girls, who range from 6 to 16 years came out in the steamer Kensington and landed in Quebec on Saturday morning. A large party of boys also crossed on the same vessel. Mr. Owen, superintendent of Barnardo Homes in Ontario, was in charge of both the girls and boys.

The girls are a healthy, happy and jolly lot and had a pretty fair passage across. They will all leave for various points in Ontario this week.

New City Hall More Desirable Than Remodelling the Old One

Professional Man Does Not Favor Spending Several Thousand Dollars on Temporary Work—New Hall Would Cost $100,000—Where to Place it—Wants a Vote Taken.

What is the council doing in reference to the remodelling of the city hall? asked a well known professional man. If the aldermen really consider spending several thousand dollars on the old building to make it last a few years longer, I think they are making a mistake. Personally I feel strongly in favor of an entirely new building, and I would like to see a vote of the people taken as to whether they want a new building or renew the old one.

There is no doubt but that a fine big city hall here would pay for itself by the number of people it would attract to the city to settle. Good roads and sidewalks, clean streets, fine public buildings, all attract people to the city. They are a good asset and make a fine impression upon strangers coming in, and thus they advertise the city. Go to the western towns and see the fine public buildings there. Many places much smaller than Peterborough have city halls and other buildings that put this city away in the shade.

It would cost the city something like $100,000 for the city hall and at 4 per cent the interest would amount to $4,000; in addition to this would be the sinking fund. To meet the amount for interest the present hall rented as offices or for other purposes would go a long way. The old hall is well situated for offices of all kinds, and should rent quickly and at good prices, while the third floor is just the place for lodge rooms.

The council could hardly do any building this year, and as there are so many large contracts on now, it would be expensive, but next year all the large buildings, except the armories, will be completed, and a new city hall would be the means of steadying the building trade. As there are no large factories or public institutions in sight for next year, the building trade is liable to go a little flat. The city needs a new hall. It will have to come in a few years, and the city's credit is just as good today as it ever was. It is hardly worth while to spend $5,000 remodelling a place that will not be permanent, and then have to remodel it again for offices when the council moves out.

As for a site, the Central Park was mentioned, and also that strip of land belonging to the Chamberlain estate, just east of the National Hotel. If a good foundation could be had a better location could hardly be found. It is very central and faces both Charlotte and Water streets, and commands a beautiful view of the river, and a large section of the city. When the canal is opened, the concrete pier built along the west bank of the river, and ships are coming up the canal to the cereal mills with cargoes of grain and going back with cargoes of Quaker Oats and Canada Flakes, this site will be an important one. The city owns the filled-in land and can do with it whatever it pleases. There are several other places in the city which would answer the purpose just as well, but this is one suggestion.

The mines at Michel, B. C., are closed for want of cars.

Another Horrible Disaster; An Appalling Loss of Life

Thirty-One Killed and Half Hundred Badly Injured.

Railway Employes' Excursion Crashes Into Freight Train—Eleven Cars of Pleasure-Seekers In Awful Disaster—Three Coaches Telescoped—Killed Are Nearly All Men—Crew of Freight Disobeyed Orders.

Detroit, July 22.—Thirty-one killed and half a hundred seriously, some probably fatally, injured, is the result of a head-on collision Saturday morning, near Salem, Mich., 31 miles west of this city. Those killed and hurt were some of the 800 passengers on the annual excursion of the Pere Marquette Railway employes from Iona to Detroit, leaving that town at 6 p.m.

The freight train running behind its orders was the cause of the wreck.

Westward from Plymouth, in a serpentine, gradually sloping path, runs the track along which the heavy freight thundered to meet the ill-fated excursion train. Rounding one of these sudden turns, and leaving the level, one plunges into a deep, chasm-like cut, with sheer walls of earth some 15 feet high on either side. It was here that the two trains came together without warning until both had rounded the curves to be seen too late for any earthly power to prevent a collision.

The passenger train of eleven cars, carrying employes of the Pere Marquette shops at Iona and their families to the Michigan metropolis for their annual excursion, was running probably fifty miles down a steep grade.

It struck the lighter locomotive of the freight train with such terrific force as to turn the freight engine completely around.

Both locomotives were wrecked, but only a few of the freight cars were smashed.

Six cars of the passenger train were piled up in a mass.

Four of the coaches remained on the track undamaged, and were used to convey the dead and injured to Iona.

One coach was entirely undamaged, with only its forward trucks off the rails.

Two coaches were thrown crosswise on the track and lay from bank to bank, five feet above the rails.

Of the bagage car, not enough remained to show where it had been tossed. Portions of baggage-car and freight cars were mere debris.

Freight Crew Blamed.

Responsibility for the wreck is placed upon the crew of the freight train by officials of the road. Officers who arrived at the scene soon after it happened, obtained from the crew of the freight the orders under which it was running, which clearly show that the freight encroached upon the other train's running time.

The excursion left Iona crowded with men, women and children at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. Every family had its lunch basket, and many of the excursionists were eating when the trains collided.

The impact was so great that a number of passengers sitting near the windows of the rear coach were thrown out of the windows to the ground.

There was a panic among the passengers in the undamaged coaches for a few moments.

Then, when the uninjured realised that they had not been hurt they rushed from the cars to the rescue of their friends and relatives, who were pinioned in the wreckage.

Families were scattered among different cars, and there was frenzied searching for missing relatives.

The sight was sickening. People were running around as though mad. For a few minutes it seemed as though they had all gone crazy. Then they began digging the bodies out. Perhaps it was an arm or a leg that was found. One man in his excitement grabbed an arm that protruded from the mass, gave a slight pull, only to find that it was free at the other end.

A young man about 18 years of age was found with both of his legs nearly off and his right arm hanging by the skin. The man begged his rescuers to kill him, and said: "For God's sake, shoot me. I can't stand this." Two men worked for an hour before the unfortunate man was gotten out, and he died five minutes later.

Rescuers took out a woman of middle age terribly mangled, with the left leg completely severed above the knee. As she lay on the blood-soaked grass faintly breathing her last, a little boy of a dozen years sank beside her, crying: "Mother, mother," but she died without recognizing him.

After the wreck one woman with her arm nearly severed from her body and the clothes nearly stripped from her body was moaning for her child. "If my baby is killed then let me die, too," she kept repeating, "for my little girl is all that I have left in the world."

Soon after the wreck farmers gathered from all over the surrounding country, bringing food, water and liquor with them, and soon there was a crowd of over 1,000 people on hand. Everyone was busy, either attending to the wants of the injured or assisting in getting injured or dead from the demolished cars. Cushions were strewn along the banks alongside the track and the dead and injured were placed on them.

Progress of Haywood Trial; Orchard Told Only the Truth

Claims Counsel For State in the Haywood Trial.

Concludes Arraignment—Does Not Defend Orchard's Double-Dealing—Counsel Denounces Witnesses as Perjurers—Not Many Miners Are Criminals—Condemns Evil Influences as Curse of Labor Unions.

Boise, Idaho, July 22.—James Hawley, leading counsel for the State of Idaho, presenting the first argument to the jury in the case against William D. Haywood, charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, spoke for nearly eight hours, distributed over three sessions of the court. Even when the session Saturday had extended beyond the customary limit every seat in the court room was occupied and remained so till the last word was spoken.

None listened more attentively to the argument than Haywood. From time to time he took copious notes in a small book and frequently made suggestions to one or the other of his lawyers, seven of whom were in court. Throughout the day Mr. Hawley assumed an almost conversational tone.

The analysis of testimony in contradiction of Orchard's story concluded frequently with the denunciation of witness after witness as a wilful perjuror or intentional falsifier.

Mr. Hawley, in speaking of Orchard's alleged dealings with the mine operators' detectives, said:

"Orchard undoubtedly was trying to secure money from all the sources he could, and I am not going to defend him for his double dealing in taking money from both the Western Federation of Miners and the railroad company. I am not here to paint Harry Orchard in anything but his true colors. There is but one claim we make for him, and that is that he has told you the truth."

When he had spoken nearly six hours, Mr. Hawley reached Caldwell, where, in December, 1905, the preparations for the assassination of Steunenberg with a bomb were afoot. His voice now found a sympathetic note, and as he told of the last moments of the former governor, the crowd leaned forward to catch the speaker's every word.

Mr. Hawley's peroration was impressive. There was no attempt at oratory, but only a strong note of deep sincerity and great earnestness when he pleaded for an honest judgment.

Mr. Hawley did not charge that a majority, or even that many of the members of the Western Federation of Miners were criminals, but that the evil deeds of the officers and of the scum of the organization had brought discredit on the rank and file. The time had come when decent men should rise and make war on the evil influences that were the curse of all labor organizations.

On the adjournment of court until this morning, Mr. Hawley was showered with congratulations.

Fall Six Storeys.

Troy, N.Y., July 22.—Two men were killed Saturday afternoon when the flooring of a temporary elevator in the Caldwell, a new apartment house in progress of erection, gave way and precipitated the building material that was being carried to the roof, and the men to the cellar, a distance of six storeys.

Belgian's Suicide.

St. Jean, Man., July 22.—A young Belgian, by name J. Vanberger, shot himself a mile outside this village on Saturday, while suffering from mental derangement.

BLOODSHED AT SEOUL.

Jap Troops On Guard—May Annex the Country.

Seoul, July 22.—A proclamation was published at 5 o'clock Saturday evening warning the people to remain in their houses. At dusk machine guns were entrenched behind breastworks built in the streets approaching the palace, in anticipation of a night attack, which did not, however, materialize.

There was some outward improvement in the situatioin yesterday and Gen. Hazegawa, commander of the Japanese troops in Korea, withdrew one of the machine guns from the palace square. He regards the situation now as being well in hand.

The two Government arsenals are guarded by Japanese soldiers, although the number is not large, and they are under orders to explode the magazines if they find themselves unable to defend them.

The Korean troops are frequently harangued by civilian agitators at the entrances to the barracks. The Koreans possess 90,000 rounds of ammunition, of which Gen. Hazegawa, who has only 2,300 troops in Seoul, has been unable to demand the surrender.

The Japanese commander is not yet able to assure safety in the streets, but he is making the best use possible of his men, while awaiting reinforcements, which are now on their way from Shimonoseki.

Marquis Ito, the resident general at Seoul, will not consent to the enforcement of marital law, but he is regarrisoning the country so far as possible as a precaution.

The new Emperor's first edict orders the punishment of the Korean deputation to The Hague.

The new Emperor is performing his duties in a purely perfunctory manner. He is said to show little strength of character, and the outlook for his administration of public affairs is not promising.

Reign of Terror.

Tokio, July 22.—Late advices from Seoul say that the rioting is growing in magnitude. Attempts to burn the railway station and the police building were frustrated by prompt action by the Japanese police and gendarmes.

Rioters are shooting widely out of windows, and two Japanese are reported to have been killed.

Murderous assaults are frequent and the city is verging almost on a reign of terror. Business is completely suspended.

The feeling is growing that the time has come to put a finishing touch to Japanese superiority over Korea.

CONFIDENCE IN CONFERENCE.

Expressed By Petitions Presented At The Hague.

The Hague, July 22.—At the third plenary sitting of the peace conference on Saturday M. DeBeaufort read a long list of the associations which had sent in addresses and mentioned an offer of a portrait of Emperor Nicholas of Russia to be placed in the hall of knights as the founder of the conference. This was greeted with applause.

President Nelidorff then mentioned by name individuals received by him personally for the presentation of petitions. He added that such manifestations show the confidence the peace conference is inspiring throughout the world, and he expressed the hope that some other generous donator, imitating Andrew Carnegie, would give the means to found an institute of international law.

Louis Renault (France) then read a report on the adoption of the red cross regulations to naval warfare, which was unanimously approved.

FACTORY GIRLS FIGHT.

Canadian and English Operatives Had Fierce Battle.

Kingston, July 22.—The branch of the Dominion Cotton Mills here has been receiving accessories to its working force from the English immigrants arriving at intervals this season. The newcomers were engaged at lower wages than those given the natives, and this fact has had a tendency toward crowding the latter out.

Ill-feeling was engendered, and this culminated in a pitched battle between the English and Canadian girls.

The fight was earnest, and soon got beyond the ability of the management to stop it. The police were brought on the scene, and order was finally restored.

RAILWAY MAN KILLED.

Albert Brockway, Young Englishman, Caught Between Cars.

North Bay, July 22.—Albert Brockway, a young Englishman, was almost instantly killed in the C.P.R. yards here Saturday night. Brockway was boss car cleaner, and at the time of the accident was assisting a switchman coupling cars. He was caught and crushed between two cars.

Brockway recently brought his mother from the old country to keep house for him and was a quiet, hard-working chap.

Japs to Be Tried.

Washington, July 22.—The Department of Justice has directed that the sixty-five Japanese arrested recently at Ounalaska on the charge of illegal killing of seals in Behring Sea, be taken to Valdez, Alaska, to be tried.

"All-Red" Will Go Through.

London, Eng., July 22.—The usually reliable Weekly Sun prognosticates that the all-red route will go through. It points out the papers publishing rumors to the contrary are bitter opponents of the Government.

Bad Men In Toils.

Belleville, July 22.—Two men wanted as members of the gang who committed burglaries and "shot up" Bancroft last spring, have been arrested at Depot Harbor.

Governor of Bombay.

London, July 22.—Sir G. S. Clarke has been appointed governor of Bombay.

LAURIER AT MONTREAL.

Sir Wilfrid Hailed as Canada's Uncrowned King.

Montreal, July 22.—After a triumphal tour by river from Quebec to Montreal, Sir Wilfrid Laurier arrived here Saturday night at 10 o'clock.

At Sorel, which was reached at 3 in the afternoon, the place was filled with people. It presented, as someone remarked, acres of faces. The enthusiasm was unbounded and the Premier spoke with unusual force. An address was presented to Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, acclaiming the Premier as the uncrowned king of Canada. Sir Wilfrid referred to the fact that the Ursoxabert had wintered in Sorel in 1793, and paid an eloquent tribute to the sense of fair play that characterized the English people.

Sir Wilfrid spoke at the City Hall somewhat along the same line as at Quebec. At the Windsor he spoke but few words, thanking his friends and neighbors and rejoicing to be once more in Canada.

The Premier goes to-day to Ottawa, where there is to be another welcome and demonstration.

AUSTRALIAN WINS KING'S.

Coveted Prize At Bisley Goes to the Antipodes.

Bisley, Eng., July 22.—The King's Prize, the most coveted shooting trophy in the United Kingdom, has been won by Lieut. Addison of Australia with a score of 318. Armourer Sergt. Padgett of the Volunteers' Battalian of the East Yorkshire Regiment, scored 319, but was disqualified.

Blake to Resign.

Dublin, July 22.—Edward Blake, member of Parliament for the south division of Longford, is about to resign his seat, owing to ill-health.

Hon. S. H. Blake, who was asked concerning his brother's condition, said he was slowly improving, and his physicians have consented to his sailing for Canada on Aug. 10.

As to the member for South Longford resigning his seat in the British Parliament, Hon. S. H. Blake would say nothing.

Killed on Railway.

London, Ont., July 22.—The body of an unknown man was found on the P. M. tracks yesterday by farmers.

He was evidently a tramp.

The initials "E.H." were tattooed on his arm.

Railway to Hudson Bay.

Winnipeg, July 22.—William Mackenzie, president of the Canadian Northern, said yesterday that he expected his road would be built out as far as the Hudson Bay in about three years.

FIRED ON STREET CARS

Dastardly Attack With Revolvers in San Francisco Streets.

Three Men Were In Ambush—Conductor and Motorman Badly Wounded—Second Trolley Let Loose—Wrecks Store and Injures Woman and Child—Police Charge the Crowd—Batons Freely Used.

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.—A car of the United Railroads in charge of J. Talakeng and Motorman Fellel at Twenty-Ninth and Noe streets yesterday was ready to start on a trip when three men standing in the darkness fifteen yards away opened fire on it with revolvers.

Talakeng had just raised his arm to signal the motorman to go ahead when a bullet smashed his elbow. Almost at the same moment Fellel dropped with a bullet in his thigh.

Another car drew up at the time. The crew left it and took the car with the wounded men to the car barns at 29th and Mission streets. As they turned the corner at that point they saw their car coming down the hill at high speed.

At the turn the runaway car jumped the track and plunged into a haberdashers store, wrecking the building. Sophie Bernstein, daughter of the proprietor of the store, and Ralph D. Hoff, and his wife and child, customers, were painfully cut and bruised by breaking glass and falling timbers.

An immense crowd immediately gathered, and fire and riot calls were turned in. The police reserves charged the crowd and used clubs freely. Twenty arrests were made for rioting. Police Sergeant Lane was hit on the head with a stone and seriously hurt. He fired three shots at the man who threw the missile.

It is supposed that the men who attacked the crew released the brake on the other car and started it down the hill.

STRIKE AT PAPER MILLS.

Employes of Imperial Co. At Sturgeon Falls Go Out.

North Bay, July 22.—The Imperial Paper Mills at Sturgeon Falls are closed on account of labor troubles which have been brewing for some time.

The paper-makers were discharged some time ago for refusing to do Sunday work unless paid time and one-half, which they claim was part of the Paper-makers' Union agreement with the mill.

The mill management sent Superintendent Ballinger to the United States to engage non-union paper-makers, and were successful in securing enough to start up one machine.

The introduction of non-union labor in the paper mill caused the union pulp workers to walk out and the entire plant is shut down.

The mill management have made no statement of their position, beyond saying in the local paper, owned by officials of the paper company, that the men do not know what they are striking for. Virtually the paper makers are locked out, and the pulp workers walked out.

President Carey of the Paper-makers' Union is on his way to Sturgeon Falls, and it is hoped for the good of the town that the trouble will be adjusted.

The strike or lockout is a very peaceable one, with no disturbance whatever.

Sensational Rumors Afloat Concerning Dublin Castle Theft.

Dublin, July 22.—Sensational rumors are current here in regard to the theft from Dublin Castle a few weeks ago of a portion of the state regalia, valued at $250,000.

Hints are now being thrown out that the gems may soon be "discovered" without any explanation as to where they have been or who returned them.

It is said they have been deposited as security for a loan, and the name of the alleged depositor is freely mentioned in private with hints of a tragic social and semi-political scandal.

Sir A. Conan Doyle, author of the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, is trying to carry out in this case his theories on the detection of crimes by deduction.

OCEAN LINER TURNS OVER.

Kaiser Wilhelm II. Meets With Accident While Coaling.

Bremen, July 22.—The North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II., while coaling Saturday evening, suddenly listed.

The water poured into her bunkers and boiler compartments through the open coal ports, and the vessel careened and lay on her side on the bottom.

When the tide was low her bow rested on a bank, but with the rising of the tide she slipped from that position and keeled over.

Steam Yacht Wrecked.

Cornwall, July 22.—The big steam yacht "Say When" of Cleveland, Ohio, owned by J. A. Jacobs of Montreal, the Cobalt millionaire, is high and dry on her beam ends on Baker's shoal, opposite Aultsville, where she was driven during the big storm on Saturday.

The "Say When" was bound for Detroit, with Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs and a party of friends, who, along with the crew of 12 men, were rescued by a tug. The Donnelly Wrecking Co. of Kingston have been asked to pull off the wrecked yacht.

Spain and Switzerland.

Madrid, July 22.—Spain and Switzerland have signed a treaty under the terms of which they agree to submit all questions arising between them that cannot be settled through diplomatic channels to The Hague arbitration tribunal.

The Chocolate Cure.

In an obscure but picturesque little village of faroff Germany there is a place called the "Chocolate Cure," where thin people go to become stout. The patients eat and drink cocoa and chocolate all the time while they rest, admire the scenery, gossip and grow fatter every day. The true secret of the great success of this treatment is the happy way chocolate has of fattening just the right places, settling in the hands, the arms, the neck and the shoulders, making the fair patient prettier and plumper all the time. The really effective part of this cure may be tried at home by any persevering woman, and the medicine is so very palatable and the method so simple that there is actually, it seems, no reason why all of us should not be of just the desired weight; anyway, the suggestion deserves an honest trial, and even if nothing be gained, why, surely nothing can be lost.

Stairway Closets.

A woman who found her steep back stairs as little ornamental as they were useful has had them converted into two closets, one opening out of her dining room, the other on the second floor. The steps were removed bodily and a glass door opened into the dining room from where they had been. The space inside she had paneled, and rows of shelves were built in well up to the ceiling. The lower ones were used for china and the upper ones for preserves. A small window cut into the side yard admitted light into what was really a small shelf lined room. The whole cost little. Upstairs a capacious linen closet filled in the vacant space. Another woman who did not wish to have the stairs actually taken out had the upper landing converted into a closet, but left the stairs underneath, using them from the first floor as a store closet for brooms, bags and the like.

SLAYS FAMILY WITH AN AXE.

Michigan Farmer Runs Amuck Killing All In His Way.

Nuncie, Mich., July 22.—Henry Scutcheon, a farmer about 50 years of age, living near this village, ran amuck with an axe yesterday, killing his invalid son, his wife and her foster father.

Scutcheon was afterwards shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor, whom the crazed murderer also attacked.

The dead are: Henry Scutcheon, Polly Scutcheon, his wife, and the 10-year-old son. George Anning, Mrs. Scutcheon's foster-father.

The Scutcheon family had always been a happy one, except for the cloud which the son's invalidism cast over the family.

Yesterday, with no warning, as far as known, Scutcheon murderously attacked his son with an axe. He crushed the boy's head frightfully. When his wife interfered he turned on her and pursued the screaming woman from their house to the road, where he knocked her dead with the implement. He then rushed back to the house and murdered Anning.

Next he tried to destroy himself. He gashed his throat and wrists with a razor and took paris green. His wounds did not weaken him and the poison did not take immediate effect. Axe in hand he returned to the road where he had felled his wife a few moments before. The first blow did not kill her, and she had been carried into the house of Henry McClellan nearby. McClellan rushed to another neighbor's for help.

When Scutcheon found that his wife was in the McClellan home alive he smashed in a window with the axe, jumped through it and again attacked her. This time he crushed her skull. He left the McClellan home and returned to his own home, but when McClellan returned from his search for help, the crazed man came out and started toward him, saying: "I want you, too."

"I will shoot you if you come across the road," replied McClellan, who had armed himself with a shotgun.

Despite the warning Scutcheon came across with murder in his glance. Thereupon McClellan shot him dead.

JUMPS FROM 12TH STOREY.

Another Victim of Skyscraper Suicide Mania.

Chicago, July 22.—Henry C. Berg, 3,016 Groveland avenue, plunged to his death from the twelfth floor of the Chamber of Commerce building on Saturday.

The suicide occurred while an inquest was being held over the remains of Miss Anna Normoyle, who leaped to death from the fourteenth floor.

The latest victim of "sky-scraper suicide mania" was a retired grocer, 50 years old, who courted death because of business worry. He leaped from almost the same spot where F. M. Mitmann, a dancing teacher, stood ten years ago, when after putting a bullet through his brain, he toppled off the railing to death below,

STRANGLES AND DROWNS.

Was Swimming Behind Rowboat With Rope Tied About Neck.

St. Johns, Que., July 22.—Two men named Gamache and Dextras started to row to Isle Aux Noix, 12 miles south of here. When about a mile and a half out Gamache suggested to his comrade that he would swim behind the boat. He then tied a small rope around his neck and got into the water, the rope tied to the boat. Gamache was swimming behind the boat when the rope broke and Gamache sank to the bottom, strangled, and drowned.

Man Shoots His Wife.

Sunderland, July 22.—Adam Lodwick of Vallentyne's Corners, about 4 1-2 miles west of this place, shot and killed his wife on Saturday. Lodwick has been in a low state of health during the last few months.

While his wife was in bed with a four weeks old infant in her arms, he procured a shotgun and placed the muzzle close to his wife's face and literally blew off the top of her head. The baby was not injured. Lodwick was found in an unconscious condition, seated in an arm chair.

Dr. Blanchard was sent for, and after a few hours Lodwick recovered sufficiently from a bottle which the doctor found to be a preparation he had left for Lodwick to take for his nerves.

He was lodged in jail here in the evening and will be brought before Magistrate Glendinning to-day at 4 o'clock.

Found Body With Revolver.

Hamilton, July 22.—Yesterday afternoon two small boys found the body of a respectably-dressed man on the mountain, not far from the head of Sherman avenue. The body had been lying there for several weeks, and was badly decomposed. A revolver had been thrust under one of his legs. There were three discharged cartridges and one undischarged in the revolver. The body was in such a state that it could not be recognized, and the clothes could not be searched. It was apparently that of a man between 50 and 60 years of age, and was dressed in a grey suit. Coroner White will hold an inquest. The clothes will be searched to-day. No one could be found who would tackle the job yesterday.

Completes His Destruction.

Kenora, July 22.—Hugh McArthur, the Paisley, Ont., man who became suddenly demented on Thursday last, seriously stabbing himself with a large jack-knife in four places, threw himself out of the upper storey of the hospital Saturday night and was instantly killed.

Struck by Freight Train.

Ingersoll, July 22.—The Thames street crossing of the Grand Trunk was the scene of a fatal accident Saturday night, the victim being William McIntyre, about 30 years of age, a recent arrival from the old country. He was struck by an east-bound freight train.

Rev. Mr. Little of Bothwell, has been called to Flesherton to succeed Rev. E. W. Thom.

SEVEN TO ONE

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidentally killed as die of old age.

Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy.

Old Land Marks Burned Down Corner London and Bethune Sts.

Fire at Midnight Turned Three Families Out of Their Beds Into the Streets—Houses Were Total Wrecks —Built About 1851 and Owned by Mr. Wm. Langford.

One of the oldest houses in the city and probably one of the most substantially built, was completely destroyed by fire last night at midnight. The premises, which were purchased some time ago, by Mr. Wm. Langford, Jr., are situated on the corner of London and Bethune streets. Both buildings were rough cast, and at the rear of one was a large frame shed or barn and it is there where the fire started.. The alarm was sound just at twelve o'clock, when the flames had gained considerable headway in the frame building. The firemen responded promptly and soon had two big streams of water playing on the flames, but the wood was so dry that it was very difficult to quench them.

Some of the neighbors said that they smelled wood burning as early as ten o'clock in the evening. If that is so the fire had a good start before discovered and it is believed that it was caused from ashes being thrown out in the shed.

The premises consisted of a double house facing London street, which was occupied by three large families. The front part was rented by one family and the back part by two families of English immigrants, who had recently arrived in the city and had very little money. Most of their furniture was taken but a lot of clothing was destroyed, and one mother had to call upon some of the neighbors for clothes for a baby. At the back of the occupied house was another rough cast building, not occupied. It was also destroyed.

The fire was a big one and the flames shot many feet into the air, and were so hot that they could be felt across the street. The firemen worked hard, but it was half-past one o'clock before the blaze was out. and very little of the buildings were left. They were partially covered by insurance in the Royal Insurance Co. of which the Davis-Thompson Co. are agents. The loss will be about $700. There is an insurance of $375. The supposition is that Mr. Langford will tear away the ruins and in the near future, erect a number of modern houses on the property.

PIONEER HOUSES.

The two buildings destroyed, were among the first erected in Peterborough, and have had a checkered career. They were put up by an old army veteran, about 1851, and the front part of one was used for many years as a shoe shop by "Father" Staulker. In those days lumber and timber were not scarce and the very best wood was used in the house so that it was well built and very warm. The place on Bethune street was also used as a polling booth, in the days of open voting, and many a lively contest has been fought there. The corner building was used for a long time as a store, and for some nineteen or twenty years, Mr. Mark Wainwright made his home there. For many years, however, the structures have been an eyesore to the community, and from a monetary and picturesque standpoint their destruction will be no loss. The families living there, however, will suffer considerably as a result.

The north building on Bethune street, was occupied some forty years ago, as a match factory by Edmund Allen, and of late years, it has been unoccupied.

Drowned in the Otonabee; Sad Death of Local Woman

Body of Mrs. F. R. Clarke Discovered Floating in the River a Short Distance Above the Peterboro' Lock About Eleven O'clock This Morning—Inquest To-Night.

The body of Mrs. Frank R. Clarke, whose home is at 591-2 Boliver-st., was found floating in the Otonabee river about 200 feet above the Peterborough lock at the south end of the city, at 11 o'clock this morning. The unfortunate lady had only been in the water a few hours when found, and thee remains were recognized as those of Mrs. Clarke after they had been taken to Belleghem's undertaking establishment. An inquest will be held in order to ascertain the cause of death.

The body was first noticed by Gus Rose, a young man who resides on Lansdowne street. He was walking south on the cement bank on the west side of the canal a short distance above the locks, and on looking down into the water was startled to see the body of a woman floating right up against the wall. The water is practically without motion at this point and the corpse was stationary. Mr. Rose notified Lockmaster Collins, who telephoned the police. Coroner Gray was just leaving for Havelock when he was notified of the finding of the body and left orders that a jury be empanelled and an inquest held tonight at seven o'clock. When P. C. Newhall arrived about 11.45 the body was taken from the water and removed to Belleghem's undertaking parlors, where it was identified as that of Mrs. Clarke, and Mr. Clarke was notified and confirmed the identification when he saw the remains.

In addition to her ordinary clothing, Mrs. Clarke had on a black raincoat and a brown straw hat when she went into the water. She also wore rubbers over her shoes.

It appears that the unfortunate lady had not been in the best of health for some time, and at times was inclined to become mentally deranged. She appeared no worse than usual when Mr. Clarke left the house about eight o'clock this morning, and was up and prepared the breakfast. The news that the body had been found in the river came as a great shock. Mr. Clarke went home about 10.30 and found the house locked but did not pay much attention to this as his wife frequently went for a walk in the forenoon.

Deceased was forty-four years of age, and is survived by her husband, Mr. Frank R. Clarke, jeweller, and one son, Harry W., who is associated with his father in the business conducted at the corner of George and Brock streets. Her death, under such sad circumstances. will be learned with deep regret by many friends. Her maiden name was Jennie Whitehair, the family formerly residing on Sherbrooke street.

How and where Mrs. Clarke got into the river is not known. Mr. Trennum, who is employed on the erection of a house on the west bank of thee canal, just at the end of the locks bridge, noticed something floating down the stream shortly after ten o'clock this morning, but paid no particular attention to the object as there is so many things of various kinds floats down the river. He now has little doubt but that the object was the body of Mrs. Clarke.

An inquest will be held tonight at seven o'clock at Belleghem's undertaking establishment. Dr. Gray, coroner, will be home from Havelock in time to conduct the inquest.

AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Mr. Cooley & Son Stepped into the River Instead of the Punt

A little excitement was created just below the street railway wharf on Saturday evening when the steamer Otonabee was returning from its regular trip down the river. Some distance down Mr. Cooley, an employee of the Canadian General, and his son who had been down the river fishing in their punt, got on the boat and towed their punt behind. Then just below the railway wharf the two men went to get into the punt again, but as they stepped from the boat they drop on the side of the little craft and went overboard into the water. A call for help was sent out from the steamer and Mr. H. Rye of the Otonabee boat house, put out with a skiff and a canoe and helped the two men to shore. Fortunately they could both swim well and there was no great danger. A life line was also thrown out from the steamer. Beyong a good wetting the two men are none the worse for their experience.

Marconi will shortly return to Canada to perfect his apparatus at Glace Bay.

A man who has nothing better to do than to worry an old lady at night should certainly be punished in such a manner that he would cease his practice.

LOTS OF WILD RASPBERRIES

Ald. Stevenson Back From Week's Trip Through Back Country

Ald. Arthur Stevenson returned to the city Saturday evening after a week's trip to the various lumber camps in the back country. He spent most of his time in the woods but the sections of farming country that he passed through, he said, were looking well. One thing is certain, he added, and that is that there will be a very large crop of wild raspberries. The alderman said that he never saw so many berries on the bushes and he never saw so many [illegible].

How the Boys at Y.M.C.A. Camp Pass the Long Summer Days

Some Features of the Baseball Matches—Mock Trial Held—Pen Pusher Writes Interestingly on Various Pastimes.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Here are a few more lines from your correspondent at the Y.M.C.A. boys' camp at Clear Lake. We had quite a day here Friday. It was visitors' day here, ad quite a number of the boys' parents and friends were up to camp and brought a number of good things for the boys to eat. The chief item of interest during the day was the baseball match between the Chippewas, leaders of the camp baseball league, and the All Star team, which was picked from the two teams. The game was replete with good plays by both teams, and both were cheered on by the spectators. The Chips went to bat first and failed to score. Then the All Stars came to bat and tallied three runs. But the Chips settled down and played stellar ball, and gradully pulled away from the All Stars, and then the Stars came to bat for their last innings, the score stood 11—6 in favor of the Chips. But the Stars settled down in the last innings to win. Fortye came to bat and got to 1st on a nice hit; then stole second and third almost immediately. Then Stratton landed on the ball and Fortye came in. The Stars kept up the good work until they had brought the score up to 11—10, with nobody out. Then two men were put out in succession, and Fortye again came to bat. Strike two had been called on him, the ball again sped over the plate, and crack! He landed on it good and hard, and two men came tearing in and won the game for the All Stars by the score of 12—11, with two men out. The winners were presented with a watermelon by Soap and Gold Tooth. The batteries were both good, and were:—Chips, Minnow Morgan, pitcher, and Buster Layfield, catcher; All Stars, pitcher, Bearay Dean; catcher, Cheeky Martin. During the afternoon some music was provided by a lady visitor from Toronto, and by King Billie's gramaphone, which was much appreciated. The young lady was to have opened the game by pitching the first ball, but as she was rather nervous, she was let off.

After supper the campers held a mock trial, which provided a great deal of fun. Beany Dean was judge, and opened court with the words, "Play Ball." The first prisoner to be tried was King Billie. He was up on a charge of perjury, for saying that in his younger days he played baseball, and when the ball was thrown at him by the pitcher, he turned around and struck it the other way and scored a home run. He was found guilty, although he was brilliantly defended by Lawyer Soap, who endevored to prove that the ball was an iron one, weighing three pounds, and as it could only be thrown slowly, he had plenty of time to turn around and hit it the other way. He was sentenced to be laid over a log and fanned with three baseball bats.

Soap was also up on a charge of stealing chickens, and the judge threw a cup full of cold water at him as his sentence, but he dodged and thee spectators got the most of it.

A number of other cases were tried. Buster, who caught a fowl (foul) in the baseball game, was also served with a summons for stealing chickens.

After the game in the afternoon Gold Tooth had to skiddoo good and fast to keep from being thrown in the drink (lake), but he will surely be thrown in yet unless he amends his ways. He was up on a certain charge at the trail, and sentenced to stay away from cottages on the lake shore down the line. But there is so much to tell that I have not time nor room in this paper, so will close and send more news later.

Thanking you for your valuable space, I am, sincerely,

PEN PUSHER.

Electric Storm Did Some Damage

Rocked the Big Chimney on Bridge Works—Stunned Motorman LeGrandre

During the electric storm Saturday noon a couple of well known citizens who happened to be in the vicinity of the old bridge works received quite a start. Everyone in the city will recall that particular vivid flash of lightning. One of the citizens referred to was looking towards the chimney of the old bridge works and he felt sure that it had been struck by the lightning and he was just as sure that he saw the chimney rock. He fully expected to see it come down and prepared himself for the shock. But the chimney did not fall and the property thereabouts is safe for a little longer.

Speaking of it afterwards to several other citizens the general opinion was that the chimney should be taken down. It has not been used for years and it is not likely to be used for several more years and if it should fall at any time it will do all kinds of damage and may cause the death of one or more people.

MOTORMAN STUNNED.

During the storm Mr. Louis LeGrandre, a motorman with the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, was knocked unconscious by the lightning. He was running on the exhibition car with Conductor H. T. W. Bradburn and at the C.P.R. station he fixed the brake before crossing and just as he did so the lightning ran along the wire, down the trolly pole into the motor. LeGrandre received a severe shock and it was several minutes before he came around.

TELEPHONES OUT.

The Bell Telephone Co. had some trouble as a result of the very vivid lightning. A few lines in the city were put out of business, but it was not at all serious. But the long distance lines to Port Hope and Toronto were cut off all afternoon. A big tree some place between this city and Millbrook was struck and fell across the wires breaking them down. As soon as the company discovered that there was trouble a gang of linemen were at once despatched and about seven o'clock in the evening connections could be made again.

The power companies escaped very fortunately. The Otonabee Power Co. lost one or two fuses and a transformer at the Matthews Co's. works. The Peterborough Light & Power Co. only had two or three fuses knocked out.

OBITUARY

MRS. RICHARD THORNTON.

There passed away at five o'clock this morning, Mary G. Larke, relict of the late Richard Thornton, at her late residence, 600 George Street. The deceased has been ailing for a long time.

The late Mrs. Thornton was 73 years old and was born in Cornwall, England. When eight years of age she came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Larke, to Canada, and located in Reach township, back of Oshawa. About fifty-two years ago she was married to Richard Thornton, who died a year ago last October, in this city. After her marriage, they removed to Orono, where they lived some years. About thirty-five years ago, they went to Hope township to reside. In 1892, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton took up their residence in Peterborough. The late Mrs. Thornton, was a lady, who was highly respected and had a large number of friends. She was a life-long member of the Methodist church. She leaves a family of three sons and three daughters to mourn her departure. The sons are Messrs. J. T. and C. B. Thornton of this city, and Wesley of Orono. Mrs. A. W. Callendar, Water street, Mrs. John Little, Dublin street, and Miss Kate residing at home are the daughters. Mr. J. S. Larke, of Oshawa, Canadian trade commissioner to Australia, and Mr. Charles Larke, manager of the Standard Bank, Colborne, are cousins of the deceased, while Mr. Daniel Larke, of Woodstock, is an uncle.

Service will be conducted at the home, 600 George street, on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, by Rev. B. A. Pearson, pastor of George street Methodist church and the funeral will leave the house at eleven o'clock for the G.T.R. station, where the remains will be forwarded on the 11.45 train to Orono. Has Been Appointed Surveyor of Ships

Mr. W. M. Lang Succeeds Mr. R. W. Errett at This Port

Mr. Wm. M. Lang, most popularly known as "Pete," of the Customs House staff, has been appointed by the Dominion Government as Measuring Surveyor of Ships for the port of Peterborough. This is the position formerly held by Mr. R. W. Errett, now of Toronto.

Mr Lang's new appointment will in no way interfere with his present duties at the customs house.

WHO BEARS THE LOSS?

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—A. Receives a bank bill. He gets it changed at a shop. The merchange deposits it. The bank sends the bill to the bank whose name it bears. Three days afterwards A. is told that the bill is counterfeit. The passer, after the lapse of two days from the passing of the bill departs. Who is stuck for the bill? Does the question of delay come in?

Yours,

TREX.

Perhaps some expert financial authority may answer the foregoing query, on which there is a wide difference of opinion expressed.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

THE PANTOGRAPH.

It Will Aid You In Copying Maps or Drawings.

An instrument that can be used to copy maps or drawings or to enlarge or reduce them is called the pantograph, and you can make one yourself with just a little care.

You can use four flat pieces of wood, as shown in the illustration, or four plain flat rules, which you can buy for a cent apiece. The rules are better, for they have the inches and smaller divisions already marked on them, whereas if you use the pieces of wood you will have to make those marks yourself.

The four pieces must be so fastened together at B, C, G and H that they can turn freely on each other, and all parts of the pantograph must be supported at the same distance from the table, so that the motion will be an even one. If you use ordinary screw eyes to fasten the joints G, B and H from below they will lift the pantograph to an equal level.

A lead pencil is fastened at A, and a screw eye should be put in from underneath just next to it to hold it level also. At C a steel nail is used of such a length that its point just clears the table when the pantograph rests on the screw eyes. F is fastened to a block of wood screwed on the table by means of a steel nail, on which it must move freely. It is well to shape this block like K, so that the screws that hold it to the table will not prevent the stick from moving freely on the nail at F.

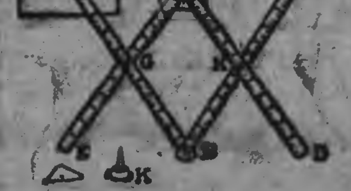

DIAGRAM OF PANTOGRAPH.

If now you place a map or a picture under C and a piece of blank paper under A and then move the steel nail at C along the lines of the picture the pencil at A will draw a similar picture twice the size of the one at C. If you put the pencil at C and steel nail at A the picture drawn will be one-half the original size.

The proportions may be made different by changing the position of the joints G and H, where the pieces of wood are fastened together, but the opposite sides of the figures CG and HB must be kept equal.

You can regulate the size of the drawing by remembering that the line drawn by A will always be as much larger than that drawn by C as the line AB is larger than CH, so that if you wish to enlarge the picture or map to four times its size move the hinge halfway up to C. And since the opposite sides of the diamond must be kept equal G must also be moved halfway down to B.

If you make the pantograph carefully it will more than repay all your trouble.

Happened on Friday.

You have all heard that Friday is an "unlucky" day, and many persons have so firm a belief in the superstition that they would not on any consideration begin any work or start on a journey on that day. Here is a partial list of important historical events that happened on Friday; read it and then make up your mind whether or not the day deserves its "unlucky" reputation: The Mayflower landed; the Bastile was burned; Moscow was burned; Washington was born; America was discovered; Shakespeare was born; Lincoln was assassinated; Queen Victoria was married; the battle of Marengo was fought; Charles I. was beheaded; the battle of Waterloo was fought; Julius Caesar was assassinated; the battle of New Orleans was fought; Joan of Arc was burned at the stake; the Declaration of Independence was signed—all on Friday. Now, what do you think about the day?

Magical Increase.

Have you tried what they call magical increase?

Take a large drinking glass, conical in shape—that is, small at bottom and large at top. Put in it a quarter, half fill with water, then place a plate on top and turn quickly over so that the water may not escape.

A piece of silver as large as half a dollar will immediately appear on the plate, and somewhat higher up will be another piece of the size of a quarter.

Curious phenomenon, isn't it?

An Amusing Trick.

Here is an extremely amusing trick: Place two persons on their knees opposite to one another. Each is to kneel on one knee, with the other leg in the air. Give one of them a lighted candle, requesting him to light that of the other person. This is exceedingly difficult to do, both being poised delicately on one knee and liable to tumble on the slightest movement.

Early and Late.

Go to bed early—wake up with joy;
Go to bed late—cross girl or boy.

Go to bed early—ready for play;
Go to bed late—moping all day.

Go to bed early—no pains or ills;
Go to bed late—doctors and pills.

Go to bed early—grow very tall;
Go to bed late—stay very small.
—W. S. Reed in St. Nicholas.

At Papineauville Alex. Hume fell from a Government dredge into the river and was drowned.

Particular women appreciate the trimness of a costume perhaps more than any other feature. It is the effect of the whole which counts in one's appearance and the artist in dress recognizes good taste here before anything else. This gown shown is especially attractive for afternoon or morning wear, for paying calls or wearing to church. The waist has its tucks becomingly placed in front and back and sleeve. A chimisette of lace or contrasting material lends a pretty touch at the neck. The long collar outlining the V neck effect may introduce a dark silk or velvet. The skirt, 6933, is a nine gored one laid in tuck-pleats and very graceful. It is not difficult to make and is suitable to cloth, voile, chiffon cloth, taffetas, pongee or another seasonable fabric. For the medium size 7 3-4 yards 44 inches wide are needed.

Two Patterns, 6934—6 Sizes. 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6933—7 sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.

The price of these patterns is 20c. but either will be sent upon receipt of 10c.

Leave your order and 10c. at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will will be sent you by mail.

SUNDAY FISHING

The Review has been asked by one of our subscribers to publish the following item as a guide to any who may be in doubt as to the legality of Sunday fishing.—

C. M. G., St. Catharines.—Question, A number of people are camping along the lake shore at Port Dalhousie. They have requested me to inquire whether it would no be legal to fish with rod and line on Sunday. We have ascertained that the Fishery Department has nothing to do with it; but would like to know if the Lord's Day Act, which was passed in 1906 by the Dominion Parliament prohibits such fishing on Sunday!

Answer,—The Lord's Day Act is chapter 153 of R. S. C., 1906. There is no special clause in the Act, prohibiting fishing with rod and line on Sunday. Section 10 says, "It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot with any gun, rifle or any similar engine, either for gain, or in such a manner or in such places as to disturb other persons in attendance at public worship, or in the observance of that day." But section 16 says, "Nothing herein shall be construed too repeal or in any way affect any provision of any Act or law, relating in any way to the observance of the Lord's Day, in force in any province of Canada, when this act comes into force." It is quite clear that fishing with rod and line on Sunday as a pastime by persons who are not fishermen is not a violation of this Lord's Day Act. But it will be contended and has been held by Judges that the old Lord's Day Act, which is chapter 104 of the Consolidated Statutes of Upper Canada of 1859 is still in force. Section 5 of that Act says, "It is not lawful for any person on that day to go out fishing, or to take, kill or destroy any fish, or to use any common fishing rod, net or other engine for that purpose."

Where a complaint is laid before a justice of the peace of a violation of this provision of the Act, the offender, if convicted, may be fined any sum not exceeding $40, and not less than $1. The prosecution must be commenced within one month of the commission of the offence, and not afterwards, and there is an appeal to the quarter sessions of the peace.

PEN POINTS

The prosperity of any country depends upon the character of its people. The children of today, will, if spared, become the men and women of the future. Their character is being moulded from day to day to the home, the school and the church. Next to the influence of the parents no influence is so dominant, so far-reaching as that of the teacher. Few parents realize the influence of the school on the characters of their children. The teachers make the school. How many have an adequate conception of the great importance of securing the right kind of teachers. Relatively is the same care taken in the selection of a teacher as in the choosing of a cheesemaker? Are our children less important than cheese? Are their intellectual, moral, and spiritual natures of less value than milk? No more important duty has to be performed by any class of men than by school trustees in the selection of teachers. Character should be considered first, then proved, attested efficiency. The Legislature and the Education Department are doing much to encourage trustees to secure teachers of the right stamp. A special grant of $20 is given to any school whose teacher holds a First or Second Class Professional Certificate. In addition, a further grant of 40 per cent., of the excess of the teacher's salary over a sum ranging from $150 to $300 according to the average assessment of the school sections of the township given.

Saturday's Score Makes One Think of a Cricket Match

Oshawa Baseball Team Given Bad Trimming by the Locals—Score Was 16—2 With Home Nine Always in the Lead.

"The Slaughter of the Innocents," or "Won in a Walk" would be appropriate titles for a picturesque little affair that happened at Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon with the Peterborough and Oshawa baseball teams, and a 16-2 score as component features. The average reader will hardly be mistaken but to be on the safe side it might be stated that Peterborough had the 16 and Oshawa the 2. It was almost a shame to take the money but the thing is done now, and there is not much use crying over it.

The fact that Oshawa had trimmed Peterborough to the tune of 9 to 5 in the Oshawa town last Saturday gave prospects for a good game at Riverside Park at the week end but such was not the case. About 500 spectators journeyed over the bridge to see the game, and while they did not see Eastern League baseball they had plenty of fun and of course were pleased to see the home team pile up such a respectable-looking score. It was no fault of the Peterborough nine that better ball was not played. The opposition was not strong enough to make the game interesting. Manager Johnson's bunch having the match in hand at all stages. About the only thing that can be said about the Oshawa team is that they probably did the best they could under the circumstances. With a couple of eruptions they were pretty much to the bad and never exhibited anything like Midland league form. A gentleman with the somewhat aristocratic name of Smith started out to do the twirling but he was batted so freely that in the fifth innings a south-paw named Powers went into the box and essayed to pitch some curves. But the powers that be had evidently ruled that Powers was not to have the necessary powers for a pitcher, and the locals pounded him hard. He had some speed and several curves but lacked control of the latter. As a rag-chewing artist Powers has them all beaten, however, and he deserves credit for his ability in this connection. There was no one on the field who could have done it better—or more frequently. Smith distinguished himself with the hickory, having three hits to his credit, one a two-bagger. Ralph, Bowden and Hamley were the only other men to connect with the leather. The fielding of the visitors was pretty ragged, eight errors being recorded against them. Bowden, the first baseman, had three or more, and incidentally came in for a lot of chaffing from the fans, which was all taken good-naturedly. With a good pitcher it would not have been so bad. There is no danger of Smith or Powers being drafted into any of the big leagues.

"Yebbie" Flaherty did the twirling for the locals with Harry Burridge behind the home plate. "Yeb" did not have to exert himself much but as it was he only allowed the visitors four hits, and always managed to drive them to the field just when their chances for scoring looked good. Flaherty has one advantage over the average pitcher, he never loses his head no matter how bad the situation looks. And that counts a whole lot with a pitcher. Burridge was as reliable as ever, while Cornie Burns led the batting with four singles out of six times up. Only three errors were recorded against the locals, the fielding being good throughout. Everybody played well and it was seen early in the game that it was going to be a cinch for Peterborough.

The diamond was rather soft owing to the rain at noon as a result of which the game did not start till four o'clock. A few drops of rain fell while play was in progress but no harm was done.

Wallie Parnell was umpire and did good work in this position. Some of his decisions were objected to by the visitors but this was to be expected. Powers, who apparently is captain of the Oshawa team, called his men off the field in the sixth innings, alleging that Cawker was interfered with by Connors at third base. Connors was at the third sack with Callaghan at bat. The bateman knocked out a third fly to the third base region and Cawker failed to catch it, giving as his reason for not doing so that Connors had interfeered with him. The Oshawa team quit the diamond but returned again upon the umpire agreeing to count Callaghan out.

When Powers replaced Smith as pitcher the latter went to second base, Garrow being dropped from the team.

Oshawa started off pretty well, and it looked at first as if they might give the locals a close run. As the game proceeded they got worse, however, and after the fourth innings did not have a look-in. The second and seventh innings were the only ones in which the local nine did not tally.

Following is the story of the affair in brief form:

BY INNINGS.

Bowden led off for the visitors, made first on an error by Burns, Hamley popped one up in the air and it was caught by Burridge, Garrow and Hooper went on balls, Cawker knocked the ball out to Cheatham who transferred it to Burridge and Bowden was caught trying to come home. Burridge then threw it back to Haliburton who tagged Garrow at third, retiring the side without any scoring.

Burns started the works for Peterborough by a nice single, Cheatham went on balls and Burridge pounded the sphere out, scoring Burns and Cheatham. Connors was walked and Haliburton made first on Bowden's error and at the same time, Burridge and Connors came home, giving Peterborough four runs. Haliburton was caught trying to steal second, Callaghan struck out, Graham singled but Quinlan struck out and there was nothing further doing.

Cawker came up for Oshawa in the second and made first on Cheatham's error, Ralph struck out, but Smith pounded the ball for two bases and scored Cawker. Sweet was walked and Bowden went out on a fly to Haliburton. Hamley pounded out a fly that was caught by Burns. Peterborough failed to score in their period at bat.

Oshawa was blanked in their third but Peterborough annexed one. Haliburton knocked the ball to Smith but was beaten in getting to second, Callaghan went on balls and scored on a sacrifice hit by Graham. Quinlan struck out.

Oshawa scored their second and last run in the fourth. Cawker led off and tapped the ball out to Flaherty, who tossed it to Graham and the batter was out. Ralph made first on account of Connors failing to hang onto a drive. Smith and Sweet both singled and Ralph scored. Bowden also hammered the sphere for a safe hit and the bases were filled. Hamley went out on a fly to Haliburton and Garrow struck out, leaving Smith, Sweet and Bowden on bases. Peterborough took three more in the fourth. Flaherty went to first on balls, Burns singled, Cheatham went out on a fly to Smith, Burridge hit safely and Burns came in. Connors duplicated Burridge's performance, and scored the local catcher. Haliburton was walked and Callaghan reached first on fielder's choice, Connors being caught at third. Graham tapped the ball but could not make first. This retired the side.

Only three men faced Flaherty in the fifth. Andrews and Hooper struck out and Cawker was beaten out at first. Quinlan was first up for Peterborough and fanned. Flaherty got first on Bowden's error. Burns hammered out a single and scored Flaherty. Cheatham was again beaten out in trying to make first but Burns was able to get home. Burridge was caught by Hamley and there was nothing doing.

Oshawa were again blanked in the sixth but the locals added three more. Connors started the fireworks with a two baser, Haliburton was sent to first complimentary, and Callaghan went out on a fly to Cawker. Graham also connected for two cushions, scoring Connors and Haliburton. Flaherty singled but Burns went out on a fly that was neatly pulled down by Bowden and the innings was over.

Hamley, Powers and Andrews faced Flaherty in the seventh but all died before reaching first. Peterborough also failed to score in this period. It was the same old story for Oshawa in the eighth, while the locals tallied three more. Callaghan singled, Graham went on balls, Quinlan struck out and Flaherty went out on a fly to Cawker. Burns hammered out a nice single and scored Callaghan and Graham. With Cheatham at bat, he managed to make the home plate while the Oshawa infield was trying to catch Callaghan and Graham. Cheatham struck out and Peterborough was through for the day, Oshawa failing to do anything in the ninth.

Two Jims Caught 18 Pound Lunge

Were Fishing in the River Between the Bridges

Fishing has charms which very few can resist, even those who have never tried their hand in landing the game fish. One of the common sights upon Little Lake, and the Otonabee river is two men in a canoe, one paddling and the other holding the end of a line which trails behind fifteen to twenty yards and every few seconds pulls it in a little and then lets it out again. These men are trolling and they paddle around, hour after hour, perhaps, without even a bite, and the broiling rays of a July sun pouring down upon them. Yet it is not hot, at least they do not complain. Their mind is not on themselves. It is upon the active fish dodging about in the water, and the only hope of the two men is that one of the finny tribe takes a good hold on the hook. Many men go fishing and fish all afternoon without even a bite; still, the next day or the next afternoon they are free, down to the water they go for another fish. In time they are rewarded for their patience, and when they least expect it, a strong jerk comes on the line and they are nearly thrown out of their canoe. Then follows a few exciting moments while the fish is being played, and until it is landed safely in the bottom of the boat.

The above is some of the experiences of Jas. Johnston and Jas. Weir on Saturday afternoon. They were fishing around the lakes and up the river to Hunter street bridge. Several hours passed without any sign of reward. Then the first Jim took the paddle, and the second Jim held the trowling line. They were coming up the river in the deep channel, and just before they reached the derrick, which unloads the scows, James II felt a terrific tug on the line, and between jubilation and excitement he nearly capsized the canoe, and nearly lost his fish. It was his first experience and he was at a loss to know what to do. It was different from catching sunfish or perch, and he had to call for James I, to assist him. It took nearly ten minutes before the sea monster was landed; and when Mr. Johnston got it in the boat he found it was a 'lunge weighing nearly 18 pounds.

Then followed a dispute as to who caught it. Mr. Weir said it was his and he was going to take it right home. He wouldn't wait for another. He got his way, and the two men started for the boathouse, and then up town to show the boys the luck they had. That night for supper fresh fish was the chief item on the bill-of-fare.

Improvements to County Buildings

Plate Glass Windows, Heating System, Hardwood Floors, New Furnishings

It is pretty nearly up to the County Council to get busy now and fix up the county buildings, said a prominent citizen this morning. The county has a splendid site and a substantial structure, but the architecture is very antique. Some plate glass windows, new hardwood floors, new furnishings, a heating system and a few things like that would make a wonderful improvement and give the crest of Victoria Park hill a reputation to be proud of. The county is in a pretty good financial position, and $5,000 or $10,000 would make great changes to the court house and county buildings.

Come Forth, Ye Sleepers, Come!

Will the Examiner Baseball Team Toe the Scratch ?

If that bunch of ink-slingers, type jugglers and press-wipers who live and have their being in that narrow area between Stratton's book store and Wrighton's grocery store (we refer to the disciples of Grittism and Lemonism who draw their pay from the Examiner printing company), has anything in the shape of a baseball team stored away around their premises, the Review nine would like to have a crack at them at the big Printers' Picnic at Idyl Wyld on civic holiday, Monday, Aug. 12th

Without wishing to appear boastful the Review makes the declaration that this year it can put a team on the field that will make the Examiner outfit look like a parcel of cancelled counterfeit greenbacks, the kind they manufacture in Lindsay.

If the Grit outfit can be tempted coaxed, persuaded or driven to take the bait and meet the Review balltossers at Idyl Wyld, the George-st. misfits will contain such notables as M. J Hutchinson, a graduate of the Bowmanville Correspondence School for the Teaching of Refined Baseball "Jonah" Craig, the Longboat of the local Indians; Jas. Dreary Clarke, the Boy Wonder; George Paxman, the greatest has-been ever gazed upon the ann spots; Bernard Tin-horn Huston, who earned thee game with the Otonabee Fishing Club; Harold Theobald, who was recently deposed as manager of the Lakeviews; and other celebrities who will be inflicted upon the public in due timee.

Here we rest our case. If Jonah Craig will peek out of his eggshell and give us a hint of what he can produce, the Review staff from basement to attic will be heartily obliged.

Ennismore Pupils' Splendid Showing

76 per cent of Those Who Wrote Passed the Entrance

Out of the twenty-one pupils from the five schools in Ennismore who wrote on the entrance examinations, sixteen passed. This is a splendid showing and a record of over 76 per cent. Such a result speaks volumes for the cleverness of the pupils and the thoroughness of the teachers.

In the Continuation classes, which are conducted in the T.A.S. Hall, Ennismore, there will be fully forty pupils during the coming term taking up the work.

Another room has been fitted up for their accommodation, and Rev. Father Fitzpatrick stated today that in the near future a second teacher would be added. Ennismore is certainly making splendid progress educationally, as well as in every other way.

OBITUARY

MRS. THOS. CLARK.

The death occurred at Nicholls hospital Saturday night, of Mrs. Thos. Clarke, who passed away at the age of 38 years. Deceased, whose home was on Wolsely street, had been in the hospital for several days, and her death will be greatly regretted.

The funeral took place at 1.30 o'clock today from the residence of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Archie Davidson, 222 Rubidge street, to Westwood cemetery.

PASSED AWAY AT AN ADVANCED AGE

James Nevin, One of the Pioneers, of This District Dead, Aged 98 Years.

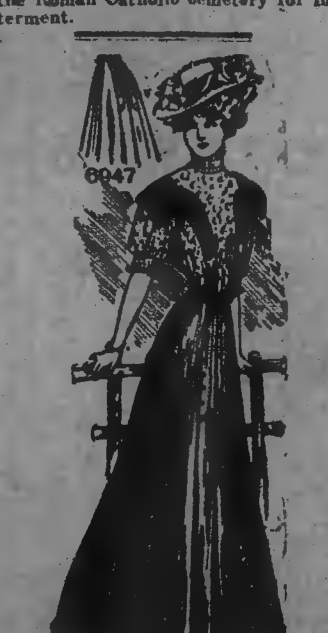
An old and highly respected resident of Peterborough, passed away at 12.30 o'clock today, in the person of Mr. James Nevin, 213 Simcoe street. The deceased, who resided with his son-in-law, Mr. Chris. Rutherford had attained the advanced age of 98 years. He had always enjoyed good health until Friday afternoon last, when he was seized with a chill and had to take to his bed. He was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and came to Canada at an early age. He was one of the pioneers of this district and could recall many interesting reminiscences of days gone by, when Peterborough was a very small place instead of a prosperous city. For very many years he followed farming but of late had lived retired.

He was of a quiet, earnest disposition and made many friends. His wife died about three years ago.

A family of two sons and five daughters survive. The sons are Mr. Patrick Nevin, of Schenectady, N. Y., and Mr. Bernard Nevin, who resides on the old homestead in North Monaghan. The daughters are Mrs. Chris. Rutherford, 213 Simcoe street, Mrs. Thomas McQuillan, 215 Simcoe street, Mrs. Martinack of Detroit, Miss Mary Nevin, 213 Simcoe street, and Miss Maggie, who resides with her brother in North Monaghan.

The late Mr. Nevin was a Conservative in politics, and a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church. The sympathy of many will be extended to the members of the family in the loss of a kind and loving father.

The funeral will take place from Mr. Chris. Rutherford's residence, 213 Simcoe street, on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock and proceed to the St. Peter's Cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery for interment.



6947.—AN ATTRACTIVE BRETELLE DRESS.

The fashion for bretelle dresses is a very economical one and the woman who must make ends meet by remodelling her last year's dress or using a left-over skirt with shirt waists by combining it with bretelles, will appreciate the pattern sketched. The skirt is a seven-gored one showing inverted box pleats at centre front and back and three backward turning tuck-plaits at each side seam. Very neat trimming sections are inset at front and back, or may be omitted. The shoulder straps or bretelles are of the material of the skirt and finished with stitching or a narrow braid. Such a costume may be worn with any lingerie or silk shirt waist and prove very smart. For the medium size 5 3-8 yards of 44 inch material are needed.

6947.—7 sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

FAST WALKING FROM CHEMONG

Two Local Boys Make the Distance in 1 hr. and 19 Mins.

Don Linden, George Donbag and other speedy walkers, had better look to their laurels or Peterborough will get a corner on the pedestrian championships. This morning Ernie and Ray Best walked to the city from Chemong and although they did not start out with the intention of tramping the 6 1-2 miles that separate Chemong from Peterborough, they made the distance in the remarkably good time of 1 hour, 19 mins. The bus was late coming in and the two "Happy Thought" disciples started to walk in, with the idea that the bus would overtake them. The big car never got within hailing distance of the pair of walkers. It was 7.43 when they left Chemong and the minute hand pointed 2 minutes after 8 when Peterborough was reached.

The fast pace of the two pedestrians attracted considerable attention from the farmers along the road. Some were of the opinion that Jimmy Reynolds was on the warpath again, but this proved to be a fallacy.

"My but them fellers was taking her along in great shape," a Smith farmer's hired man was heard to remark to-day, "it was a kybbotin' good thing we had rain yesterday or the country wouldn't have been able to stand the dust they would have raised."

Generous Gift to Wycliffe College

An Addition to the Building Being Erected at Cost of $30,000

Rev. Dr. O'Meara, Principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, has just returned from his annual trip to England which he took upon invitation from the friends of Wycliffe College in England, in its interest. The usual donations to the funds of the College have amounted to about $10,000. This year, however, they were so much pleased with the work of the College that they gave $25,000. The attendance of students at Wycliffe College is so large that an addition to the building has to be built at an expense of $30,000. Last year 76 divinity students were in residence.

PRICE OF BEEF IS DECEASING

Drop of Two and Three Cents on the Best Steak

It will be good news to the house wives of Peterborough that the price of beefsteak has been reduced by some of the meat merchants the decrease going into effect yesterday. Sirloin and porterhouse steak which has sold for some weeks at 20 cents per pound, is now going at 17 cents, while round steak is now 15 cents, whereas it has been 17 cents. Shoulder steak is selling at 12 1-2 cents per pound the same as before.

Grass fed beef is now coming in and this is the reason for the decline. It is expected that the reduction will become general and the citizens who daily consult the meat merchants will be in a happy frame of mind.

New Wharf to be Started at Once

John Robson Will Build it at the End of Railway Line

Work will start this week on the new wharf at the end of the street car line for the Otonabee Navigation Company, and in future this will be the main landing place for the steamers plying up and down the river. The wharf will be 40 feet long by 30 feet wide, and will be built in such a way that it can be extended further at any time. An appropriation of $1200 was put in the estimates last session, and plans were prepared some time ago. Mr. John Robson has been instructed to proceed with the work at once and it is understood that actual operations will be commenced tomorrow. [illegible]

Five Have Pleaded Guilty in the Counterfeiting Case

Opening of Trial at Lindsay—Logie, Miller and Goslin Passed Some of the Bogus Bills in Peterborough—Miller and Goslin Appear To-day—Five Will be Sentenced on Friday.

A Lindsay despatch says. — With five hundred of their former fellow-citizens crowding the limited capacity of the Court room, the gang of alleged counterfeiters appeared in the prisoners' docket this afternoon at two o'clock for their preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Alex. Jackson, and County Police Magistrate Moore. For fully an hour before the proceedings opened people had been pouring into the Court House. Never in Lindsay Police Court annals has a trial created such a furore.

Nearing the appointed hour, Richard Wynn and Arch. Bouyea, sr., were quietly and unostentatiously led into the Court room through the western door by Chief Vincent and Turnkey Andrews. Immediately they were the cynosure of all eyes. They were escorted to the prisoners' docket. Several "snap shot fiends" trained their cameras on the accused, but Mr. G. H. Hopkins, Miller's defence, put up a decided objection, promising to "smash them" if they were used.

Twenty minutes after the appointed time the lawyers for the defence assembled, and a little later Magistrates Moore and Jackson entered.

Crown Attorney Devlin — "Miller and Gostlin, we propose to try at the end of the case. Call Bouyea first, Wynne second, and Logie and Burke in turn."

THE EVIDENCE.

A. Bouyea, was the first called, and was given his choice of trials. The old man rose to his feet. His lawyer in answering, stated his desire to be tried by Police Magistrate Jackson. Magistrate Jackson then read the charge of passing $5 counterfeit Traders' Bank bills to which the prisoner pleaded guilty. He was remanded to gaol until Friday next.

J. E. Rogers, detective, was then called as a witness for the Crown, and was examined by Crown Attorney Bailey. In repeating to the Magistrate, his conversation in gaol with Bouyea, he said,—

"After cautioning the prisoners, Bouyea said that on one occasion, Burke wished to see Wynn. Burke told him he had counterfeit money and wanted him to pass it. He wanted Bouyea to put up $100 at first, then Burke gave both Wynn and Bouyea $1,000 in Traders' notes and told them to go to the Michigan Sault. They were not to pass any notes until they reached North Bay. One or the other was to carry the notes bundled, and give one or two at the most to the other, who was to go out and pass them. They were not to travel together on the street, so that in case one passing them was detected, there would be no connection. Burke told him the notes were made in Toronto. They left Lindsay and went to North Bay. Burke also told them to get to the American Sault so that they could do business on the fourth of July.

"Bouyea passed three notes in North Bay, and at Sudbury two notes. At the American Sault each passed three notes and were arrested. There were 180 of the notes found in a valise left at the Sault. Voluntarily they came across to the Canadian side. They had some genuine money. They wished me (Rogers) to find the notes in Sudbury and in North Bay and pay their good money for them. They had not been in trouble of any kind before. Knew of not other confederate—it was through his persuasive ways that they were brought in."

Bouyea, Wynn, Burke, Logie and Eveleigh pleaded guilty and having elected to be tried by Magistrate Jackson, were remanded till Friday next.

GOOD CROWD PRESENT.

The court room was jammed almost to suffocation by curious spectators, and hundreds were turned away. Many wandered about the corridors, returning to the doorways at intervals in order to learn if anything of interest had leaked out from the court room.

MILLER AND GOSTLIN'S PART.

In giving evidence against Eveleigh Detective Rogers said the latter had told him that two or three years before, Burke had printed Dominion and Montreal $2 bank bills in Logie's barn using the letter press. George Miller, a printer, printed the $5 bills and Logie, Miller and Gostlin passed some of them in Peterborough, but became afraid and returned.

Miller and Gostlin, against whom Logie had given incriminating evidence in his disclosures to Detective Rogers, will appear in court today. The remaining prisoners come up for sentence on Friday next at 10 o'clock.

ANOTHER REPORT

Lindsay, July 23.—Charles Burke, Robert Logie, Richard Wynn, Archie Boyeau and John Eveleigh appeared before Police Magistrates Moore and Jackson in the Court House here yesterday afternoon, confessed through Provincial Inspector Rogers their counterfeiting campaign, pleaded guilty to the charge of having bogus notes in their possession, and were remanded until Friday for sentence.

Robert Miller and John Goslin, who, by the confessions of Burke and Logie, are implicated in the game, did not appear. They will be called to-day on the arrival of the Toronto train, and through their counsel will plead not guilty.

The report that the story of the crime would prove sensational drew a large crowd, which completely filled the court room and corridors, and the interest was intense.

Burke's statement was not given out, nor will it be until the trial of Miller and Goslin. Counsel for Burke, the prisoner himself and the crown, will be present when the magistrate will hear Burke's story.

The confession of Logie clearly shows that there was a master mind above the whole scheme. Orillia, Burke told Logie, was where the plate was manufactured; Toronto he told Wynn and Boyeau. The plates were placed in Logie's barn loft by Burke and printed there on a letter press by Burke, Eveleigh and Logie.

Ed. Bayly, solicitor to the Attorney-General's Department, conducted the cases, assisted by Crown Attorney Devlin.

"Archie" Boyeau and "Dick" Wynn were placed in the prisoner's box sharp at two o'clock. Wynn was very nervous and clutched at the railing. Boyeau looked eminently respectable and was cool.

The former was called first and after Magistrate Jackson had read the charge he elected to be tried summarily. A moment lated, in a low voice, he pleaded "guilty."

The magistrate then asked for some evidence to guide him in passing sentence. In the meantime Boyeau was removed to jail until Friday morning at ten o'clock, when he will appear for sentence.

Mr. Bayly called Inspector Jos. E. Rogers. After being sworn the officer gave Boyeau's confession to him on the C.P.R. train between the Soo and Sudbury, when he was being brought back to Lindsay.

"After cautioning Boyeau and Wynn," said the detective, "he told me that his first connection with the matter was when Wynn told him that Charlie Burke wished to see him. Boyeau saw Burke, who told him that he had counterfeit money and wanted him to go out with Wynn and pass it off. Burke wanted Boyeau to put up $100, but Boyeau could not do that. Then Burke gave the two of them $1,000 in $5 Traders' Bank bills, and told him to go with Wynn to the Michigan Soo and pass them. They were not to pass any of the notes until they reached North Bay. One or the other was to carry the notes—the bundle—and give one or two at the most to the other, who was to go out and pass them.

"They were not to travel together on the street, so that in case the person passing the note was arrested, there would be no connection.

"Burke was then to get to the Soo, to do business on the 4th of July. Burke told him the notes were made in Toronto. They got to North Bay, where Boyeau passed three notes. Then they went to Sudbury, where Boyeau passed two notes. Then to the American Soo, where they passed three notes each and were arrested. They redeemed the notes passed in the Soo and in a valise which they jointly owned and which Wynn had left with his nephew, a saloonkeeper, 180 odd notes were found. They came across to the Canadian side voluntarily. They had some genuine money, that they handed to the jailer."

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Conner the detective stated that the statement was made to the police magistrate at the Soo.

"Did you have any trouble getting this confession?"

"No. They both wanted to tell. They passed eleven bills, six of which they redeemed."

Burke and Eveleigh were then brought into the court. Burke stood up and sat down several times apparently very nervous. When asked how he wished to be tried, he pointed to his counsel with the word "Him."

Mr. Bayly told their worships that for reasons, the crown wished at the present time Burke's statement would not be made public.

Robert Logie, who was most intimately connected with Burke, in the manufacture of the "green," looked ten years older than when he was arrested in Toronto a week or so ago. R. J. McLaughlin appeared for him, and in the same way Logie admitted his guilt.

Logie's statement as given to Inspector Rogers, was as follows:

"Logie was arrested in Toronto. I saw him at police headquarters. Inspectors Duncan and Parkinson, and Detectives Wallace and Tipton were present. Logie was warned and made a statement that he and John Eveleigh had received from Burke $900 of Trader's Bank notes; that he knew the notes were bad and that Burke told him they were made in Orillia. He saw by the papers that Eveleigh had been arrested. He took the notes in his possession to the City Hall, tore them up in small pieces and put them in a closet. He bought another ticket for Buffalo, and was arrested at the depot.

"On the way between Toronto and Lindsay he intimated that he wished to tell the whole story in connection with the counterfeiting. He told us that the notes he had were finished in his stable, in the loft; that he and Burke were present; that Burke rubbed each note with parafin candle; that he put glycerine on the rollers of a wringer and the notes were put through this wringer; that he saw the plates of Trader's Bank bills, with metal fronts and wooden backs. Burke had got them. Two or three years before Burke also had a plate of two bills, one Bank of Montreal $5 and a Dominion five. And they made notes from these plates, using a letter press to do the printing. Burke supplied the press. George Miller did the printing of Montreal $5 notes and Dominion $5 note at that time. Miller and John Goslin had gone with those notes to pass them. They went to Peterboro.

Logie said he had never passed any bad money himself.

New York, July 23.—While walking in Madison square yesterday, H. S. Tavshanjian, a rug importer, who is said to have been a commissioner for Persia to the World's Fair at Chicago, was shot and instantly killed.

The assassin, who approached him from the rear and shot him without warning, was pursued by bystanders for several blocks and turned and wounded one of them with a shot from his revolver. He was overtaken and arrested.

One of Tavshanjian's employes said the assassin had been trying to extort money from the merchant, to be used to finance an Armenian revolution.

The man arrested and accused of killing the merchant told the police his name was Beros Hanpaszonmian of Chicago. The police say he declared that he killed the man to save his country.

The work had been completed, and with two prisoners, Turner was taken to the yard to hang out the clothes. Turnkey Wright was in charge and first assigned Turner to emptying a pail of ashes. He obeyed the command, but throwing the bucket on the pile, took advantage of the yard through a gate into the street.

Steamers Collided at Sea; 100 Passengers Were Drowned

Steamer Columbia Sinks in Five Minutes Off Californian Coast.

Terrible Midnight Catastrophe Blights Many Homes—Vessel Was Struck By a Lumber Boat and Cut to the Water's Edge—Eighty Persons Saved After Hours In the Water—Captain Was Drowned.

San Francisco, July 23.—More than 100 lives were lost last Saturday night when the steamer Columbia, bound north from this port for Portland, collided with the lumber steamer San Pedro off Shelter Cove, Mendocino County.

Eighty other persons who were on the Columbia were rescued after being in the water several hours.

There was a heavy fog at the time, and the San Pedro, heavily laden with lumber, struck the Columbia on the port bow with such terrific force that she was cut down to the water and sank in about five minutes.

Of the 180 passengers many succeeded in reaching the San Pedro, which remained afloat. Only 80 of them remained, however, when after many hours the steamer Roanoke came up to their rescue.

Captain P. A. Doran of the Columbia went down with his vessel.

The San Pedro was picked up by the steamer George W. Elder, and is now being towed into Eureka.

The collision occurred at midnight when all on board save the lookout and officers on the bridge were asleep in their berths.

The Columbia was steaming north at an easy rate, having left here at noon Saturday.

Suddenly out of the fog loomed the dark hulk of the San Pedro, southbound, which was evidently out of her course.

Whistles were blown and frantic efforts made by the helmsman of each vessel to avert the collision, but they were of no avail.

The San Pedro struck the steamer in the port bow, tearing an immense hole in her side, through which the water rushed in great volume.

Alarms were sounded throughout the passenger ship, and the terrified passengers scrambled from their staterooms in an effort to escape from the doomed vessel.

But the time was too short to aid the life savers. The vessel sank within five minutes of the time of the collision.

A life raft was launched with a number of passengers on board, but only a few of the entire number on board were saved.

During the earthquake and fire the Columbia was lying at the drydock of the Union Iron Works, and the shock loosened some of her blocks, with the result that the vessel was capsized. But she was entirely refitted and when she left here Saturday she carried a full list of passengers.

The assistant to President Frey of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Co. yesterday gave out the following figures:

"Cabin passengers upon the Columbia 168; steerage passengers 21; total passengers 189; crew 60. This makes a total of 249 souls on board.

"Reported saved 98; unaccounted for 151.

Except for the lists of those on board, Mr. Frey would not vouch for the accuracy of these figures. He said:

"We have made every effort by wire to confirm from Eureka and other points along the coast, but all that we learned thus far has come from the Roanoke and the newspapers."

According to J. C. Flynn, a rescued passenger of the Columbia, every woman passenger on board was lost.

The steamer Roanoke spoke to the steamer George W. Elder, and the latter had on board eighty-eight passengers and crew from the Columbia.

The San Pedro is in a water-logged condition. Her stern is gone, her main mast broken off, and her foremast sprung. The San Pedro's cargo was lost.

When spoken by the Roanoke the Elder was trying to tow her to Eureka, but was making slow progress.

The Merchants' Exchange of this city has been besieged by anxious relatives and friends of the Columbia passengers since yesterday morning.

The Columbia was owned by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co., and hailed from Portland, Ore. She is 310 feet long, registers 1,746 tons, and was built in Chester, Pa., in 1880.

The San Pedro hails from San Francisco, and is 163 feet long, registers 550 tons, and was built in 1899 at Aberdeen, Washington.

Boy Burned to Death.

Brockville, July 23.—From injuries received by being burned with gasoline H. Cubley, aged 10 years, died at the home of his father, W. H. Cubley. He was accompanying his parents in a skiff to their summer home on the river when the gasoline became ignited, spreading to Cubley's clothing. To escape being burned to death he jumped into the water and was afterwards rescued. The flames had burned deeply into the flesh, and he lived only a short time.

China Ready For Rebellion.

New York, July 23.—A letter just received at the headquarters of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian Church, describing the conditions around Canton, says that only a leader is necessary for a widespread rebellion in that part of China.

Killed by Lightning.

Rochester, N.Y., July 23.—Lightning Sunday night struck and killed Peter Ovenier, 14 years old, at East Williamson. The lad with his father sought shelter from the storm under a tree. The elder Ovenier was shocked, but recovered.

Ottawa Hotelmen Summoned.

Ottawa, July 23.—The hotelmen of Ottawa are evidently not obeying the law. Charges of selling during prohibited hours have been laid by the provincial license inspector against fourteen hotelmen.

Miniature War.

Palermo, July 23.—Hundreds of persons were wounded Sunday in a clash between the police and crowds that were demonstrating in behalf of Nunzio Nasi, the former Minister of Public Instruction, now under arrest for embezzlement.

Elaborate measures have been taken to secure order, which include the mounting of artillery in the streets and the concentration of battleships in the roadstead.

Laborer Killed.

Ottawa, July 23.—Rod Sparyk, a Galician laborer, while walking on the C.P.R. tracks last night at Britannia station, was run down by a light engine, receiving injuries which resulted in almost instant death. An inquest will be held.

Madonna Procession Broken Up.

Rome, July 23.—The anti-clerical agitation was expressed yesterday in a demonstration against the "Madonna procession," which was hissed and finally broken up. A bishop and several priests were maltreated by the rioters.

OPPOSE NATIONALISTS

Sinn Fein Movement Invades Irish Bye-Elections.

Advocates Will Precipitate Exciting Struggle With the Irish Party—Mr. Blake's Seat to Be Fought—Member for North Wexford Boldly Declared Himself a Sinn Feiner—The Outcome Uncertain.

Dublin, July 23.—The Sinn Fein Society evidently is preparing for a trial of strength against the Irish Nationalist party in the pending miniature Irish general elections. The resignation of Edward Blake, Irish Nationalist, for the south division of Longford, makes the fourth vacancy, and if the Nationalists challenge Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmonde's contest in North Wexford, five seats will be vacated.

Sir Thomas has declared himself flatly as a Sinn Feiner. At a big Sinn Fein demonstration held by his constituency at Enniscorthy yesterday, a letter from him was read denouncing parliamentary agitation as worthless, "since England would never give Home Rule or any other concession for the asking."

"Ireland," the letter continued, "is no colony, she is a sovereign nation, and should give up begging with bated breath and whimpering humbleness in a foreign Legislature for the restoration of her stolen liberties."

A meeting was arranged to be held in Phoenix Park, here, Sunday, to support the Sinn Fein policy. It was attended by only five hundred persons, although the park was crowded with Sunday visitors.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Irish League, at Manor Hamilton, the centre of Charles J. Dolan's constituency, Mr. Dolan's action in joining the Sinn Fein Society was condemned, and resolutions were adopted calling upon him to resign his seat in Parliament. The present prospects of the Sinn Feiners carrying any constituency except North Wexford are remote.

PASTORS FIGHT IN PULPIT.

Wild and Disorderly Scenes In a Windsor Church.

Windsor, July 23.—The presence of the police was all that prevented trouble Sunday morning and evening at the services of the B. M. E. church between the Rev. McGowan and Rev. David, recently appointed to succeed Mr. McGowan, and the respective adherents of the two pastors.

Rev. David secured possession of the pulpit in the morning. When Rev. McGowan came and and started towards the pulpit pandemonium ensued. The police interfered, and finally they quieted the large congregation.

In the evening Rev. McGowan was on hand early and held the fort. The police were on hand and prevented any trouble.

The dispute will have to be settled by the courts.

SYMPATHY WITH BLAKE.

English Papers Lay Tribute to Retiring Statesman.

London, July 23.—Sympathetic reference to the cause of Hon. Edward Blake's retirement is widely made. Great appreciation is shown of his influence in the Irish party.

The Westminster Gazette eulogizes his moderation and says: "His sound judgment has been frequently valuable to the Commons. He represented a connection with Canadian political thought, which it is well for the House to have."

A weaker feeling has developed in the market for cattle since this day week, and prices show a decline of ¼c to ½c per lb. This is due to increased supplies coming from Ontario and the northwest, coupled with the continued warm weather and the weaker advices from abroad.

Sales of selected lots were made at $7.25 to $7.50, and heavy at $6.90 to $7.10 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars. Owing to the increased receipts of sheep of late, a weaker feeling has prevailed in the market, and the price is ¼c per lb. lower. The demand for export account continues good, and sales were made at 4c per lb. Supplies of lambs continue to be small, and, as there is an active demand for local consumption, prices rule firm at $4 to $5 each. A fair trade was done in calves, and, as supplies are none too plentiful, prices are sustained at $2 to $10 each.

SEVEN TO ONE

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidentally killed as die of old age.

Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy.

Over 800,000 Votes for Peterboro' Lady

Miss Birdie Thompson Likely to be Winner in World Contest

In the contest conducted by the Toronto World for a free trip to eleven young ladies to London and Paris, which closed last evening, great interest was manifested.

Miss Birdie Thompson, Peterborough's nominee, will, it is expected, be one of the four successful ones to be selected from the province of Ontario.

Yesterday morning she had nearly 400,000 votes, and during the day over 400,000 more were forwarded, so that she will have over 800,000 to her credit.

Up to the hour of going to press the result had not yet been announced and no tidings was forthcoming from the world office. It is expected, however, that the result will be made known by the World tomorrow morning, and it is believed that Miss Thompson will be one of the four lucky winners of the trip offered to ladies outside of Toronto. Many of her friends expect that she will head the poll. Describing the great interest taken in the closing of the contest today, the world says:

Yesterday, however, the whole province began to move. The city presented a seething turmoil of sleuth-like ballot-seekers. All day long parcels and bundles of ballots were brought into the office, as to the staff headquarters. Details rushed about from one centre of strife to another, and collected the spoil. The Street Railway Company enlisted itlisted itself under a bright particular gage, and about 10 o'clock toted in 20,000 captives from the columns of Sunday and Monday alone. A wholesale surrender was accomplished by one skilful strategist, and 800,000 fell the prey to a brilliant stroke of generalship. Then the heavy battalions began to roll in. Men rushed upstairs with great loads of ballots. Others rushed in from the railway stations with grips, suit cases, packages of all kinds, stuffed with ballots. From the north country, where silver is dug like potatoes, bags of ballots were borne down by the hundred thousand.

Individuals did deeds of deering-do on the foughten field. One enthusiastic hero, with the faith that removes mountains and builds up great political reforms, put down $50 for ten years' subscription in advance to The World. He could bank on The World, and he might help someone to London to see the King.

Another indefatigable sharpshooter brought down 392,500 votes with his own little gun, and never turned a hair.

It was reported that a company of men in the city got up a ten-cent pool and, raising $45, raffled the amount for subscriptions to The World, and for votes for their favorite.

And such favorites! Ontario has the reputation o fbeing the fairest province in the Empire of King Edward. Her fair towns had selected their fairest, and it was small wonder that such enthusiasm should be elicited over the result of the great contest. Other girls in other lands may be sweet and fair, but nowhere can the charm of youth and beauty and grace, as The World has had the fortune to gather it together, be surpassed.

The scene in The World Office last night was such as only occurs on the nights of great political contests. Crowds of interested friends and relatives, and not a few of the fair competitors themselves, filled the editorial halls, waiting their turn to deposit their booty of ballots.

Long before the closing hour it was estimated that ten millions of ballots had been brought in. To count these is herculean task, and it will be impossible to announce the final result until tomorrow morning. Another day of heart-throbbing suspense must unfortunately elapse before the joy and pain of the tale can be told

Why I Advertise

I believe that seven-tenths of all headaches have their origin in strained vision. I also know that correctly-fitted glasses will entirely relieve the headache by removing the cause. Scarcely a day passes but I relieve some sufferer through my knowledge of making and fitting glasses; I am anxious that all sufferers should know there is a remedy so simple; this is one reason why I advertise.

Clear Case of Self Destruction, Was Verdict of Havelock Jury

Inquest into Death of George Armstrong Who Was Found Dead on Monday—Dr. Crawford Performed Post-mortem—Found Paris Green in the Stomach.

Special to the Review.

Havelock, July 23.—The adjourned inquest into the death of George Armstrong, whose body was found in an old log house on the road from Havelock to Blairton, about three miles east of Havelock, and which was supposed to be caused from Paris green and aconite, was continued here today in the Havelock town hall by Coroner Gray, of Peterborough.

Mr. Thos. Armstrong, when sworn, said that the deceased was his son, and that his mother had died about 40 years ago, and that he had married a second time. He said that his son had worked on the farm with him most of his life, occasionally doing a few days' work for neighbors, who were short of help; that he last saw him on Sunday morning about nine o'clock. He said that there had been no quarrel or hard feeling between the deceased and any member of the family, and that, although he was not quite downhearted, he never mixed up with the neighboring people, staying at home most of the time. Mr. Armstrong said that he knew of no reason why his son should end his life

Wm. Armstrong, brother of the deceased, was next called, and said that he had heard his brother say on Saturday night, that he was going over to a near relation's house the next morning. On Sunday morning he (Wm.) went over to the old log house to see if the cattle were in the grain, and while there entered the house. On his way back he met the deceased picking berries. He said he might have carried the poison with him at the time as he was not in a position to see. The family all thought he had gone to this relatives, and when he did not return they were not in the least alarmed. Wm. was cultivating turnips near the old house on Monday afternoon, and happening to enter the house, he saw his brother sleeping, as he thought, in the corner of the room. He yelled at him, and when he did not answer he went up to him and, kneeling down, he saw that he was dead. He did not touch him, but ran swiftly home and reported. Those that went to investigate found the body as if he had sat down and died without a struggle.

Dr. Crawford was called, and said that he first saw the body at 9 o'clock on Monday night. It was in the same position as when found. A half box of Paris green, and a bottle, which had contained aconite, and which had been given to the horses as medicine. The Paris green was perfectly dry, and there was no trace of any sprinkled on the floor. In speaking of the post-mortem held on the body by himself, and Dr. Kindred, he said that there was brusies on both hips, but they were not recently got. In examining the stomach he said that the berries were either eaten before the Paris green or with it. There was no Paris green on the mouth. He said that he was of the opinion that death was caused by poison administered by himself.

The verdict brought in by the jury was as follows:—"That death came to George Armstrong through poison, consisting of Paris green and aconite combined, administered by his own hands, and for some unknown reason."

Only Eight Days to Pay Taxes; Collector Getting Very Bnsy

Slips Are All Delivered—How the Taxes are Divided—Many Properties Have Changed Since the Assessment Was Made—Getting Them Adjusted.

The most familiar piece of paper and the piece that is most generally and thoroughly read and studied just now is the tax slip. Collector W. J. Green has been a long time getting them ready and delivered. The number is rapidly increasing every year, which means more work. There have also been a great many changes of ownership, and to get the tax slips to the proper persons is no small job. For several days a continual stream of people has poured into the collector's office for the purpose of straightening out their assessments. One man, for instance, owned a piece of land 200 feet frontage, when the assessors were around. Since then he has sold 30 feet to one man and 26 feet to another, and he doesn't want to be assessed for the whole thing. To get out of paying the taxes he has a whole lot of hustling to do, and it is surprising how he will hustle, too.

Your taxes are due to be paid on or before Aug. 1st, 1907, which is only eight more days. If you do not pay it before that day you lose the discount. Go early and avoid the rush. Do not leave it until the last day and be crowded out.

The notice so familiar to everyone is as follows:—

"Take notice, that the taxes mentioned below for the year 1907, are payable by you at my office, in accordance with Bylaw No. 1286."

Then follows a list of the items for which one is assessed, viz.:—

An Unrestrained Tongue Can Cause Great Deal of Trouble

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt Refers to the Effect of Evil Speaking—Persons Should Not Listen to Vile Insinuations—Gossiping Creates Much Discord and Heart Burnings.

an unrestrained tongue.

The weekly cottage meeting which Rev. Dr. Langfeldt conducts on Wednesday evenings at different homes throughout Otonabee and Douro, grows in popularity and is always largely attended. Sometimes when the weather permits the meeting is held in the open air. Dr. Langfeldt always speaks on subjects which are helpful in leading a consistent Christian life, dealing with practical Christianity and every-day religion. The subject at the last meeting was "The evil of the tongue, when not restrained." He based his address upon, 1 Peter III., 10. "Let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile." He referred to the mischief done by the unrestrained use of the tongue. It would be a thing altogether incredible, if it was not so terribly, so sadly true, that lives have been made desolate, that homes have been rendered sad, by that fire which is God's gift to man—the fire of the human tongue. The mischief has been done in countless ways.

Some like the wretched incendiary have been fooened with the burning spark of cruel slander, the hasty, the jealous, the inflammable disposition, and then stood aside to gloat over the mischief they have wrought. Homes have been broken up, family jars and strife have arisen, a mere misunderstanding has been widened into a hopeless breach, friends have been parted, foes have been embittered, just through the unrestrained tongue of some reckless talker, some cruel scandal monger, some mere chattering gossip. Lives have been spoiled, domestic happiness has been shattered by a few unthinking, unkind words.

There is much false witness borne at many a visit, where people are engaged in discussing their neighbors' affairs and their doings, their faults, their temptations and their sayings.

There are unhappily those in the world who are a positive danger to society, whose tongues are indeed a fire against which it is hardly possible to insure the peace and happiness of any who come in their way; who are never tired of reporting from house to house, the sayings of that most mysterious of all mischief makers, that intangible, impersonal personage, whom no one has ever seen, whose voice no one has ever heard, but on whose authority people are nevertheless, almost ready to swear away a character or to take the most violent dislikes—the mysterious authority known to gossips as "they say."

Dr. Langfeldt exhorted the people to make good and God-pleasing use of their tongue. He thought best to drive the gossip away from the home: never to listen to his vile insinuations because a gossip will cause trouble without end; many households have been ruined; his profession is that of a mischief-maker.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 31, at the residence of Mr. W. E. Chamberlain, Douro, at eight o'clock.

The steamers Columbia and San Pedro collided off Mendocino County, California, last night. The Columbia sank and 100 lives were lost.

Ald. Duncan Advocates Doing Much More Road Work Next Year

Says at Least 1,300 Cords of Broken Stone Should be Laid—Crossing Gang is Busy and the Painters are at the Bridges Over the Creek.

Ald. Duncan, chairman of the Board of Works, has, according to instructions from the Board, put a gang of painters working on different different bridges in the city over the creek this week. The Hunter street bridge has been completed and the men have moved down stream to Simcoe street. The job is one of the hardest that the men have been up against for a long time. It is very dark under the bridge and lanterns have to be used. Another serious drawback is the rust which in some places is half an inch thick. This all has to be scraped off first and should have been done last year. Had it been left for another year the condition would have been much worse.

CROSSING GANG.

The crossing gang under Street Commissioner Harry Evans is doing great work. They have now got some 50 crossings in and before the season closes they expect to have about 250. At present they are going up Hunter and Brock streets and around St. Peter's Cathedral and St. Andrew's church. From there they will come down Charlotte and Simcoe streets and then take Aylmer street north and south.

ROAD WORK NEEDED.

Speaking of road work Ald. Duncan this morning stated that it was surprising the amount of road work that should be done. The committee is doing a good job this year, but it will not begin to put the streets in the condition they should be, although when George street is done nearly a thousand cords of stone will have been laid. Next year said the chairman of the Board of Works the Council should stop building sidewalks, that is, only put down walks where there are none, and use all the money on road work. There are many miles of good cement walk now and for the past few years the committee has paid too much attention to this branch, and this year a great deal more is being done, so that next year the city can without unduly inconveniencing anyone, cut the sidewalk work short, and put at least 1300 cords of broken stone on the roads and keep the big roller and grader going all the time.

CHARLOTTE-ST. BRIDGE.

Considerable progress is being made made on the Charlotte street bridge and unless something unforseen turns up the concrete work should be ready by the time the steel superstructure arrives. The water in the creek of course, is a drawback and makes progress slower, but on the whole the men are doing well.

Detectives Are Hot Foot After the Fur Smugglers

Fur Bearing Animals in Algonquin Park are Being Slaughtered and the Furs Shipped to Toronto, it is Said, by Way of Lindsay—One Package of "Wool" Was Seized on the Train—The Pelts Mysteriously Disappeared From Railway Station at Lindsay.

Quiet peaceful Lindsay, the town looked upon as a sleeping beauty for so many years, is today the liveliest town in Ontario and is furnishing more real sensations that any other place in the province. They are not merely local nine days' wonders but are matters of greatest interest to all the country. The following despatch is from Lindsay to the Toronto News—

Lindsay, July 22nd. — Lindsay is looked on as a centre which game wardens of the province have been working to change the fur-bearing animals of the Algonquin park into cold cash.

Certain Grand Trunk Railway officials may also be asked for explanations.

FOLLOWING THE SCENT.

The scent is being followed hotly and detectives are at work trying to trace a connection between the Government preserves in the north, Lindsay as a stopping-off place for the furs and Toronto, as the end where the pelts illegally obtained were sold at figures that meant a fair profit to the original game men, the middle-men and the fur dealers.

The train has become so hot that a resident of the district is said to have disappeared. He is wanted very badly, and when he shows up, will be asked to explain his frequent trips north to secure "wool," and his equally frequent trips to Toronto to dispose of that "wool."

A CONSTABLE'S NOSE.

It was the nose of Chief Constable Jones that supplied the clue—from a bundle of this "wool" from the north country.

The Chief Constable hadn't travelled in these back districts for nothing. He knew the scent of a fresh pelt from the scent of the shearings of sheep.

Railway officials can't fool him either, and that is why they may be brought in to play a part on the centre of the stage before very long.

The clue was obtained in an interesting way, on a train running into Lindsay.

An arrest took place at Fenelon Falls a short time ago, and the prisoner was tried and sentenced to spend a term in the Central prison, Toronto.

Chief Constable Jones, as was his duty, took charge of the prisoner to convey him to the provincial capital and in the same train rode Police Magistrate Dixon and another man, the man who lives near Lindsay and goes wool-gathering. The latter was carrying a bundle of "wool."

DETECTED THE ODOR.

To those who know, a bundle of fresh pelts has an odor in no wise like that of sheep's outer covering, and the Chief Constable took another sniff and edged a little nearer.

"Wool, eh! Not much," said Mr. Jones to himself and took another whiff.

That bundle of "wool" was salted pelts!

There are times when it is quite proper to carry furs like these to Lindsay or any other place. For instance a bear, or a mink, or a marten skin from the wild forest is not limited to the "close season." A beaver or otter, however, must be left to itself until 1910, while a muskrat has a free life until the first of December.

There was something else, suspicious about it all. Chief Constable Jones had an idea that some of the furs were not only out of season, but dwelt originally in Algonquin Park, where every animal is held as sacred as the cat of Egypt.

The Chief Constable gathered in that woolly parcel and kept it near him until the train stopped at Lindsay. The owner of the parcel made him more suspicious, for when the town was reached, he was no where to be seen, nor has he yet appeared.

THE PARCEL WAS MISSING.

The package it was thought best to leave for safe-keeping at the railway station, and both the Constable and Police Magistrate, who was informed of his suspicions, instructed the railway officials to keep it safely guarded, and not let it out of their possession on any account.

The constable then journeyed to Toronto and had a conference with the superintendent, Mr. Tinsley, at the Parliament Buildings.

When he called for the parcel on his return to Lindsay, he found that it had been opened and the pelts extracted. There was some wool in the parcel. The original holder was still nowhere to be seen.

GOVERNMENT IS INVESTIGATING.

Then the Provincial Government started an investigation. They are after the hides that are lost, and the railway men who allowed them to be tampered with, for the missing "wool" gatherer and other intermediaries; and for the Government game wardens in the far north, who are suspected of destroying the very animals they were appointed to protect and carrying on a profitable deal by forwarding them to agents in Toronto. The latter it is understood are also under surveillance, and the whole case will be sifted to the bottom.

The town will not be surprised if several arrests are made.

The Provincial Superintendent of Game and Fisheries, Mr. Edwin Tinsley, when seen by the News this morning, admitted that the Government was investigating charges against several parties of killing animals in the Algonquin Park, and shipping the furs to Toronto by way of Lindsay. Pending developments which are hourly expected he declined to discuss the case.

ASSAULT CASE WAS DISMISSED

One Case at the Police Court This Morning

The police court mill was again in operation today, City Clerk Armstrong presiding in the absence of Magistrate Dumble. A gentleman bearing the aristocratic name of Campbell Hodgins was charged with assaulting Sam Angelesey, who lives on Reid street. Geo. Van Mere, who lives next door to Angelesey, was the only witness, Angelesey himself not appearing in court. Van Mere stated that Hodgins had come home drunk last night and got into an altercation with Angelesey, and raised "a row that could be heard all over the neighborhood." Witness told Hodgins to be still and the accused "gave him lip." He did not see the assault on Angelesey, but had been told about it.

The charge was dismissed and Hodgins was told to be more careful of his conduct in future, lest he might get into trouble that he would not get out of so easily.

This was the only case on the blotter.

2nd CONTINGENT ARRIVED HOME

From South Africa Five Years Ago Yesterday, July 22nd

It was just five years ago yesterday, July 22nd, that the second contingent of Canadians, or what was left of them, landed in Canada from South Africa, where they had fought side by side with England's greatest regiments, and won fame in the hottest battles. That home-coming was a great day for the boys. It has, perhaps, been forgotten by the vast majority of people; in fact the war in South Africa is seldom thought of, but to those boys that first sight of Canada will never be forgotten. They were warriors coming home from a real war to a land that welcomed them with open arms. They will not forget the date if they live for a thousand years.

There is one sure way to ease you sufferers from piles! Just apply a little Zam-Buk and lie down for a few hours! Do it before going to bed, and you will be grateful for the ease which follows.

Mrs. Wm. Vernon, of Whitemouth, Man., says: "I must admit that Zam-Buk is a wonderful balm for piles. I had piles so bad that I could hardly walk, and I suffered intense agony. I used several ointments but got no relief until I tried Zam-Buk. It cured me, and I have had no return of the trouble."

Mrs. E. Turner, of Greenwood Avenue, Toronto, writes: "For four years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on 'remedies' and doctors' prescriptions, but got no ease. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried, and it cured me."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for all diseased, suppurating, inflamed or ulcerated skin areas, ulcers, abscesses, eczema, old wounds, chafed places, cuts, burns, insect stings, sore feet, sunburn, etc. All stores and medicine vendors at 50c a box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price; 6 boxes for $2.50.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

THE PRICE OF RASBERRIES

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—You quote Alderman Stevenson as saying, after his trip in the country, that there will be lots of wild raspberries this year. I have heard the same report from other sources. You are wise in noting the fact so that our people may not be held up for high prices, as they were for strawberries, because of the fruit combine.

Yours, etc.,
HOUSEHOLDER.

OFFERS A SUGGESTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In your issue of yesterday you refer to the generous offer of Mr. McNamara. As he offers a portion of his land free of cost for manufacturing purposes, would it not be well for our council to take the matter into its serious consideration for the purpose of removing the packing house, which has been universally condemned as a nuisance in the centre of the city? As the present building has been extended over the continuation of water street along the bank of the river, and even beyond into the river itself, its removal would afford another avenue for traffic on George street, where the C.P.R. crosses, and thus reduce the dangers of that crossing. As it is, our wharf is cramped and its usefulness impaired. We know how delicate people and others who go down the river for a change of air get it at the wharf.

Yours,
COMMUNITY.

FISTIC BATTLE WAS ADJOURNED

Scrappers Made Haste Away When Police Were Called

Considerable excitement was caused at the corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, shortly after seven o'clock by the conduct of two young men who apparently had some grudge to settle. They sailed into each other in a most bellicose manner and a big crowd gathered to see the fun. Some one sent for the police and when the word of this reached the scrappers, they considered it was advisable to suspend operations, not having any desire to see the inside of the cells at the police station. It was said that they adjourned to Jackson Park to settle the affair, but it is not known if anything happened midst the tall pines.

Saved Little Boy From Drowning

Charlie Cook Pulled Out of the Water Just in Time by Mr. John Irwin jr.

Little Charlie Cook, about six or seven years of age, had a narrow escape from death by drowning in the Otonabee river this morning. He with another little chap were bathing in the irver at the rear of T. Kinnear & Co.'s wholesale warehouse, and he got beyond his depth, and almost went down. The little chap on the shore shouted to him how to get out and made so much noise that it attracted the attention of Mr. John Irwin of Roy's Studio, who happened to be passing on his way up town form the wharf. He ran down and caught the youngster as he came up for the second time. It took several minutes before consciousness was restored. Young Cook was badly scared and he dressed as quickly as possible and started for home.

Trouble in Store for These Boys

The police are on the trail of some boys who have been in the habit of throwing stones at and breaking windows in Bethany tabernacle. It is understood that they have secured the names of several of the guilty ones and a police court case will likely be the result. Boys who have no more sense of decency than to destroy property, and particularly that of a church, deserve a severe sentence and they will likely get it one of these days.

REV. MR. BASTOW HAS RESIGNED

Asks Congregation at Renfrew to Release Him as Their Pastor

Last week's Renfrew Mercury contains the following item that will be of much interest here, in view of the fact that Rev. Mr. Bastow was pastor of Murray street church previous to going to Renfrew:—

Rev. Jonathan Bastow gave his congregation here a painful surprise on Sunday last, when he announced his intention to resign the charge in the following letter;—

Renfrew, Ont., July 14, 1907.
To the Renfrew Baptist Church.

My Dear Brethren,—At the end of this month, it will be three years since I began my work as pastor of this church. It now seems to me that the time has come to surrender that responsibility. While I have been with you I have sought, to the best of my ability, to promote the welfare of the church. With what wisdom and success, you must be the judges. With what wisdom and success you must be the judges. I have been profoundly thankful for the hearty, substantial and effective co-operation of many of the members of the church and congregation. We have worked together with a warm, affectionate, family feeling, with the holiest of motives, and for the noblest ends, the glory of God, the edification of His people, and the salvation of the unsaved. Such work cannot be in vain. We have prayed and sung and studied the Bible together. Our hearts have inevitably been brought into close touch with each other, and I trust that the friendships thus formed will never be broken.

The great kindness you have shown to me and my wife, we shall always most gratefully remember.

I am desirous, if it will be convenient for you, to close my pastoral relation at the end of August. I shall always be deeply interested in you as individuals and as a church, and shall pray that the richest of our Heavenly Father's blessings may rest upon you.

Your brother in Christ,
JONATHAN BASTOW.

The Deacons were at once appointed a committee to endeavor to induce Rev. Mr. Bastow to reconsider his decision. Observant outsiders can well understand the reluctance with which the congregation heard the letter. To the citizens outside the congregation, Mr. Bastow has been known as a preacher of great clearness of thought and expression and command of fine language. To the congregation it has been known that he as well possessed of equal powers of methodical organization. During his pastorate the church's activities have been well organized, the roll revised, all indebtedness removed, the prayer meetings have been well attended, the Sunday School exceedingly prosperous, there has been great increase in the gifts for missions; an excellent start made towards the building of a parsonage—which will likely be built next summer—and even the grounds surrounding the church have shared in the general improvement. If Rev. Mr. Bastow adheres to his determination to resign, he can surely take with him the satisfaction that his service in Renfrew has been fruitful, none the less so because Mrs. Bastow is also of fine parts and has wound herself into the hearts of the congregation.

Will Get Rid of Weeds in Canal

The steamer Otonabee is making several trips between the lift lock and Nassau this afternoon, at the request of Superintendent McClellan, who is anxious to discover the extent of the weed nuisance, and if possible to get rid of the trouble in this portion of the canal.

WILL ADDRESS TWO MEETINGS

On Work of Cow Testing Association—Mr. N. G. Somerville in the City

Mr. N. G. Somerville, the Cow Testing Association man, is in the city today and registered at the Oriental hotel. He left this afternoon in company with Mr. Geo. A. Gillespie to deliver an address at Pine Grove. To-morrow he will address another meeting at Keene on the question of cow testing. So far the associations throughout the districts have been very successful and a marked improvement is noticed in the quality of milk and cheese. One interesting feature of the work is that one of the cows connected with the Central Smith Association led all the cows of the province in the production of milk, and there were 4000 cows tested. Mr. Somerville is well pleased with the work here and the progress being made and he hopes that in a short time Peterborough district will lead in the dairy industry.

DOCTOR BRIGHAM SAYS

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties.

"My eldest daughter found it very beneficial for female trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, bloating (or flatulence,) weakness of organs, displacements, inflammation or ulceration can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If advice is needed, write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. No other living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

MUST TELL THE TRUTH

If a resident does not like a city or country he is at perfect liberty to leave. If he is not a criminal no effort will be made to detain him. The world is large, air is free, and travelling cheap. Yet how many persons will remain in some centre and grouch, complain, knock, and censure the community from one years end to the other. They will constantly indulge in calumny and slander, misrepresentation, and falsehood, month in and month out and do not seem happy unless they are always at it.

Several of these are immigrants, who find nothing quite so good as at home. Then, why on earth did such disgruntled people ever leave their native spot. Happily, the number of this implacable class is not large but the department of immigration at Ottawa, is determined to put a stop to libels on Canada, engendered by socialistic new arrivals, unreliable press correspondents and others.

Some villainous statements regarding the Dominion have of late been made by certain journals in Great Britain, the United States and other countries in respect to climate, the hardships of immigrants, etc. Some of these stories, particularly those sent out last spring as to conditions prevailing in the Canadian West, were weirdly sensational and were of the wild and woolly variety. They were almost totally unsubstantiated by facts, and were calculated to seriously injure Canada's reputation abroad.

The first prosecution to punish these wilful slanderers of the Dominion has been reported to the department. In January last G. A. Hoagland of Taber, Alberta, had printed in the United States, circulars and fraudulent advertisements warning Americans that laborers were not wanted in Canada. The matter was taken up by Immigration Commissioner J. Obed Smith of Winnipeg and the Lethbridge Board of Trade and a prosecution was begun by the Attorney-General of Alberta. As a result Hoagland has been fined $200 for occasioning injury to the public interest.

The matter will be further looked into by the Minister of Justice, and legislation may be introduced at the next session of parliament to impose a substantial penalty on anyone who wilfully and publicly slanders Canada.

THE LAURIER LEGEND

Toronto Telegram.

Quebec and the French-Canadian constituencies outside of that province are still under the spell of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's name and fame.

Wherever Sir Wilfrid Laurier is strong beyond the communities in which his compatriots predominate the strength is not his own.

Quebec and the French-Canadian constituencies beyond Quebec would be sensitive to the magic of the Laurier legend if the hero and idol of his race was out of office.

How many seats could Laurier, out of office, carry west of Lake Superior?

How many seats could Laurier, out of office, carry in the maritime provinces?

How many seats could Laurier, out of office, carry in Ontario?

The Laurier strength in the west would go to any other premier just as readily as to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The name of Laurier means nothing and is worth nothing in the English-speaking constituencies of the maritime provinces that vote for a government just because it is a government.

The strength of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Ontario, apart from the districts where his compatriots are strong, is a strength that belongs to his party, not to himself.

The Laurier legend still survives in parliament which Sir Wilfrid rules with dexterity. The name still has power to charm Quebec and the French-Canadians outside Quebec. Beyond these limits the west and the maritime provinces vote for the government because it is the government, and Ontario votes Tory not that it loves Borden more, but that it loves Laurier less.

In stentorian tones, that almost made the windows rattle, in speaking at the reception in Montreal, accorded the Canadian Premier, Hon. Wm. Paterson, who is said to be thinking of retiring from the Cabinet, declared, according to the Ottawa Free Press that Sir Wilfrid remained the same unapproachable man as he had been at the beginning of his career. Sir Wilfrid certainly appears to be quite unapproachable just now. If you do not believe it, ask Hon. R. F. Sutherland, Archie Campbell, M. P., W. S. Calvert, M. Hot Weather Will Continue

Prophet Says That it Will Last Until November

Look out for extreme hot weather soon, which will extend clear into November, is the warning given by Amos Fuller, a West Schuylkill farmer. Fuller, who bases his weather predictions on a study of the habits of squirrels, birds and insects, deprecates the action of many farmers, who, in despair, of their early vegetable crops reaching maturity, are ploughing such crops under and sowing others. He declares that there will be plenty of time for the early crops to ripen, and that the farmers who are sacrificing them will regret it later on. Fuller says that large flocks of wild geese, which usually fly northward over the mountains early in April, just made their appearance this week. He declares these flocks are unfailing weather indicators, and that the season being two months late in starting, we will not have any fall frost until two months later than usual.

Song Service at Different Cottages

On Sunday Evenings are Very Popular—Many More Visitors at Lakes

Special to the Review.

Stony Lake, July 22.—The cottagers are flocking back to the lakes these days in large numbers, evidently glad to get away from the city to the refreshing breezes at the lakes. The Saturday evening boat brought a good crowd up to spend the week end, and the usual Saturday evening hop at the pavilion was attended by a large number. It was a delightfully cool evening for dancing, and it was kept up until about 11 o'clock, and then the merry dancers started off for their respective cottages. The illuminated cottages looked very pretty, and especially Mr. W. H. Hamilton's cottage opposite Juniper Island. It was opened on Thursday, and the large number of beautifully colored lanterns hung around the verandahs of it, makes it the most attractive on the lake. Music for the dance was provided by Misses Molly Meldrum, Julia Choate, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mr. Kenneth Shook.

SUNDAY SERVICE

Divine service was held at the pavilion Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A large number attended. Short addresses were given by Mr. Jas. Acton and Mr. R. J. Colville, Toronto. Miss Price, of Belleville, and Miss Shepley, of Toronto, gave excellently rendered vocal solos at the morning service. This summer, instead of holding a song service at Juniper Island on Sunday evening, one is held at different points of the lake. A week ago Sunday it was held at Mr Jas. Acton's cottage, "Bosehink." At these services short addresses are given.

On Friday evening Miss Molly Meldrum entertained a large number of her friends on the lake to a dance at her home, "Cairndhu." A pleasant time was spent and Miss Meldrum proved herself to be a charming hostess.

PICNIC PARTY.

Saturday morning Mr Henderson, of Toronto, who is at his cottage for the summer, took a picnic party up to Crowe's Landing, in his yacht, the "Keuatha."

Saturday afternoon a strong wind was blowing on the lake, making an ideal day for sailing boats. Several were seen speeding along at a great rate. Mr. Walter Currie was among the many sailors, and Saturday was about the sixteenth time he upset and received a good ducking.

Messrs. Kenneth and Donald Shook are spending a few weeks at Mr. G. M. Roger's cottage, on Juniper Island.

The "Alberta," Mr. J R. Stratton's handsome steam yacht, came up from Peterborough Saturday evening. Mr. Stratton and Miss Alberta Gooding came up on it. Mr. Stratton's cottage, "Strathormand-on-the-Lake," is now opened for the summer.

Miss Grace Denmark, of Campbellford, is a guest at "Kawartha Lodge," Clear Lake.

Miss Vance, of Millbrook, is a guest of Mrs. Robert Neill, at her cottage, Clear Lake.

Mr Robert Neill spent a few days last week at the lakes.

Mr W. Hartley spent Sunday at the lakes.

Mr Fred Roy came up the lakes on Saturday evening to spend a few days.

Messrs Ross Cameron and Graham Ferguson spent the week end at Syndicate Island, Bosehink.

Mr. George Burnham, of Toronto, spent Sunday at the lakes.

Mr Lincoln Brace is spending his holidays at the lakes.

Mr. Merton Adams came up to "Fairy Lake Villa" to spend his holidays.

"Isphеming," the summer home of Mr W. A. Elliot, was opened on Saturday for the season.

Messrs. W. G. Spinning and Jas. M. Spinning, of Rochester, are holidaying at "Glenwood."

Miss C. Delaney, of Cleveland, is also a guest at "Glenwood."

Mr Frank C. Teskey, of Toronto, is a guest at "Grassy Island."

Mr N. E. Bell, of Toronto, is holidaying at McCracken's Landing.

Mr. De La Fosse and family, of Lakefield, are occupying "Fair Haven" for a few weeks.

Mr. John G. Davis, of Pittsburg, is holidaying at Stony Lake.

Mr. R. B. Rogers spent Sunday at Bobcaygeon.

Mrs Gordon Smith, Mr. W. Smith and Mr. O. Baldwin, of Paris, and Miss Morson, of Toronto, are holidaying at "Shota."

Divine service is now being held in the "Viamede" pavilion every Sunday. Mr. C F. Battersby, of Young's Point, conducts the services. They are attended by a large number of the guests and the near by cottagers.

ROAD WORK IS PROGRESSING

From King St. South to Matthews Will be Put in Fine Shape

An excellent job is being made of George street south from King. The steam road roller and several teams drawing broken stone and sand have been busy for several days putting a new top on the west side. They have completed about three blocks and are now working at the C.P.R. yards and will continue south as far as the Matthews' Co.'s packing house. Then the men will turn their attention to the east side and will build as much of that as is possible with the stone left. There are now only 350 cords of stone in the yard, and when this runs out it is likely the money will be gone, too. But already a record has been established, and when the stone now in the yards has been used it will total nearly 1,000 cords this year, or the equal of nearly three other years.

As far as George street is concerned, there is probably no stretch which needed rebuilding more. From the C.P.R. north for several blocks it was really in a very bad condition, and as it is the main street it should be kept right. It will be alright when completed. The most important part is to get after the street railway company and make them fill in between their tracks so as to level the road off.

LINDSAY LOOKS ON IT AS A JOKE

But There's Little Sympathy for the Counterfeiters Except Miller

Lindsay, July 22.—Mr. Edward Bayley, solicitor to the Attorney-General, had a conference this morning with the Magistrates and the local Crown Attorney. Mr. A. P. Devlin. The maximum penalty for the crime charged is fourteen years in Kingston penitentiary.

To the town people the affair has developed to the borders of the farcical. There is little sympathy expressed for any of the prisoners except Miller. Col. Sam Hughes, who can be expected to express Lindsay opinion pretty accurately, regards the whole affair as a foolish escapade on the part of men old enough to know better.

But, as time passed, the town gossips have jokingly connected every prominent man in the community with the alleged counterfeiting, in some way or another. One well-known gentleman carried a rawhide in his pocket for several hours looking for the perpetrator of an alleged joke at the expense of his good name.

LOOK OUT FOR MR. CETEWAGO

Smooth-talking Zulu Does Not Pay His Debts

Chief of Police Rossel has received the following letter from Chief Vincent of Lindsay. It is self-explanatory:—"Some time since you mentioned you wanted a Zulu called Cetewago for stealing a nugget, I find that before he came to your neighborhood he was at Langford Mills, and he seems to have got into the good graces of the Free Masons there and finally cleared out, leaving several debts behind, and I am told took $40 of the funds of the Langford Mills lodge, and also an outfit of drills, hammers, etc. Did you ever get him? Perhaps it would be well to get the daily press to give warning about this man."

How Peterboro' Gets Good Prices?

This is What the Members of the Lindsay Cheese Board Want to Know

Reporting yesterday meeting of the Lindsay Cheese Board, the Post says:

At this morning's sale of Victoria County Cheese Buyers Flavelle and Brown of town, and Gillespie, of Peterborough, gazed on some glum looking countenances among the salesmen for the different factories when it became known that the price they were prepared to offer was well beneath the ruling figure of 11 1-4 paid at last week's Peterborough sale. For a time it looked as if an adjournment would be in order, but finally a better feeling prevailed and the Board was cleared.

When the President called on the buyers to make an offer, Mr. Gillespie called 10 1-4 and the salesmen emitted audible gasps of astonishment, some of them having expected that the initial bid would be 11c. at least. Mr. Brown called the half, and Mr. Flavelle made it 10 5-8c. Mr. Gillespie then raised to 10 3-4c., Mr. Flavelle 10 13-16c., and Mr. Gillespie 10 7-8c.

President Robertson — "Gentlemen you are evidently forgetting the price paid at the last two Peterborough sales was 11 1-4c., and 11 5-8c.

Mr. Flavelle—I'll venture to say that when the settlements are made for the last Peterborough sale, the price received will be a quarter lower than was quoted."

President Robertson — "They must be mean buyers then. It looks terrible bad to see Peterborough so far ahead of us every time."

Mr. Gillespie—"I've seen the time when Lindsay Board got better prices than Peterborough."

President Robertson—"Yes, we did for one season."

Mr. Gillespie—"The price in Peterborough last week should not have gone over 11 1-4c."

Judges Chosen for the Big Show

Peterboro' Agricultural Society is in Flourishing Condition—Success Assured

The Agricultural Society at a recent meeting in the president's office, selected the judges for the various departments at Peterborough's Industrial Exhibition on Sept. 26, 27 and 28. The best men in the province have been chosen, and Secretary F. J. A. Hall was instructed to write to them and secure their consent to act. A superintendent of grounds and a lady superintendent were also appointed and a committee was selected to arrange for railway accommodation and for the printing of the large posters. The directors of the society from all parts of the country bring in exceptionally favorable reports, and at this time of the year the prospects never looked so promising for a big successful show. The applications for prize-lists have been very encouraging, and the number of those who have become members, assures the society of a very large entry list.

Local Man for International

H. C. Hill of This City Chosen to Play on Cricket Team Against the United States

The Canadian Cricket Association met last night at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, and selected the team for the international match against the United States for week after next at Rosedale. The names of the men selected are given below, in alphabetical order: L. Black, of Grace Church; M. G. Bristow, of Ottawa; F. C. Evans of St. Alban's; C. Gausden of St. Simon's; H. C. Hill of Peterborough; E. G. Hull of St. Simon's; H. B. McGiverin, of Ottawa; D. W. Saunders, captain, of Toronto; F. W. Terry of Mimico; W. Whitaker of Mimico; H. G. Woohey, of Rosedale. Reserves,—1, L. J. Shether, of Toronto; 2, F. Hamilton of St. Alban's; 3, A. Heighington, of Toronto; 4, H. S. Reid, of Rosedale. The team thus includes only one Toronto club player, Ottawa two, Mimico two, St. Simon's two, and Grace Church, St. Alban's, Rosedale and Peterborough one each.

Band and Moving Pictures at Jackson Park tonight.

BASEBALL

MIDLAND LEAGUE STANDING.

The following is the official standing of the clubs in the Midland League,—

	Won	Lost	To play	p.c.
Port Hope	8	3	1	.727
Cobourg	6	3	3	.666
Peterborough ...	5	3	4	.625

Peterborough has four games to play, two against Cobourg in Peterborough, one against Cobourg at Cobourg, and one against Port Hope at Port Hope. The locals should be able to win the two home games against Cobourg and perhaps trim them on their own pasture. Port Hope will be a hard proposition on their own award, but the Peterborough team should be able to take a fall out of the leaders if everything goes well. It will thus be seen that the locals have a good chance of winning the league and they intend taking no chances.

MEETING TONIGHT.

A meeting of the Midland League is being held at Cobourg tonight to deal with several important matters. Harry Burridge is representing the Peterborough club, and while at Cobourg, will endeavor to have Cobourg play here on Saturday instead of the locals going to Cobourg as scheduled. The Polson Iron Company of Toronto is running a big excursion to Peterborough on Saturday and it is desirable that the game should be played here.

Review Cup to be Presented To West Ends, Thursday Night

The Review cup, emblematic of the championship of the intermediate city baseball league, will be presented to the West Ends, who won the championship by defeating the Strathconas in the final game at a meeting of the league at the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday evening. All the officers and members of the league, players on the different teams, and everyone interested in baseball, are invited to be present.

Mr. Jas. Lang has been appointed trustee of the Review trophy and will be in charge of the cup after it has been formally presented to the winning club on Thursday night.

The officers of the West Ends and the players connected with this club are especially requested to be present at the meeting. In winning the championship they have accomplished something, of which they may well feel proud and deserve hearty congratulations. The league has had a most successful season, and the officers deserve great credit for the way everything was conducted. Next year the league will be better than ever and the different teams are already discussing their prospects.

Until the Review cup becomes the permanent property of one club, Trustee Lang shall have full control of the trophy. The Review believes that he is well qualified to have charge of the cup and that he will discharge the duties in connection with the position in a manner satisfactory to all.

C.L.A. EXECUTIVE MEETS FRIDAY

A meeting of the C.L.A. executive will be held on Friday night, when among other things, the protest of the Young Torontos against Beaverton will be considered. It is claimed that Marrin and Curran were not eligible to play in the C.L.A. and from here it looks as if the Young Torontos had a good case. Curran and Marrin both played against Peterborough and there is a probability that the executive will declare these games void.

Mr. Ambrose Regan will be in attendance at the meeting.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 82, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are, it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Free Drinks and No Taxes There

Municipal Ownership in Norway is Great Success—Everything is Free

Does Municipal Ownership pay? is a question which has occupied the attention of every man who has at any time been interested in municipal politics. There are a great many strongly in favor of it and others are opposed to it. But in some towns and cities it has proved a howling success, although in others it has been as great a failure. In Falcide, Norway, the people would not be without it, according to the following paragraph taken from the Canadian Municipal Journal;—

"A very successful example of municipal ownership is reported from Falcide, Norway. The municipality has a large area of timber land which it has handled so skilfully that it sold lumber to the value of $5,000,000, and by taking care of the trees, will have the same amount to sell every 30 years. In consequence, there are no taxes, free railways, free telephones and—on the King's birthday—free drinks!"

Alex. Deroches, who escaped from the Hamilton asylum on Saturday, is still at large.

DECORATING OTTAWA CITY

Nearly Fifty Blocks in the Capital Being Made Bright by Turner & Sons

The contract for decorating the city of Ottawa for the Old Boys' Reunion and Summer Carnival, which was awarded to J. J. Turner & Sons of this city is probably the greatest ever undertaken by a Canadian firm. Some extent of the work to be done can be gleaned from the fact that nearly fifty blocks are being decorated with streamers, flags and bunting. Word was received at the office of the Turner company here today that last night the workmen at Ottawa had fourteen blocks decorated and were making fine progress. Messrs. Reginald and Webber Turner are superintending the work. The carnival committee have decided to decorate five more blocks than at first intended, and as a result another big supply of flags and other decorating material had to be shipped to Ottawa today.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

HIGH TAXES

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In comparing this year's taxes with that of 1906, I find the advance to be 24 per cent., and the best that I can say, "God help the widows and orphans and the city of Peterborough."

THE EVILS OF THE TONGUE

To the Editor of The Review.

Sir,—While not always in accord with the sentiments of the Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, I must now congratulate him upon the vigorous onslaught he has made upon idle gossips and scandal-mongers. Many a home has been broken up and the friendships of years severed by such persons. It seems almost incredible that such coarseness and vileness should pervade the human family, but pity 'tis, 'tis true. It behooves people to be on their guard against tattlers and to forever down all their insidious attempts to destroy the welfare of the community.

Yours, &c.,
PEACE.

Big Fire in City of Victoria; Flames Sweeping Down Streets

For Over a Mile the Western City Was Fire Swept.

Many Houses, a Church and School Wiped Out—Fire Has Got Beyond Control and There Is No Adequate Supply of Water—Residential Portion of the City Attacked — Loss Over Quarter of a Million Dollars.

Victoria, B.C., July 24.—The western portion of Victoria is in flames. There is no adequate supply of water.

Victoria is a city of 35,000, and extends east and west along James Bay, an inlet from the ocean running into the lower extremity of Vancouver Island.

The western portion of the town is residential. In the centre stands the Government buildings and the new C.P.R. hotel.

One of the most disastrous fires in the history of Victoria is taking place and a strip of the city, almost a mile in length has been wiped out by fire. The conflagration broke out in the middle of the afternoon in a blacksmith shop on Store street, on the waterfront, and the strong wind from the southwest carried the fire across the city. Two whole blocks bounded by Store, Herald, Douglas and Chatham streets were wiped out. Most of the buildings burned in this area were not of much value, but leaping a block, the fire swept up the southern side of Herald street between Douglas and Blanchard, burning all the residences on that side, and destroying the Calvary Baptist Church and a number of dwellings opposite. The fire then continued along Green and several adjoining streets, until stopped by the open spaces and by the volunteer brigades, which tore down the buildings to stop the flames. Last night the fire was practically checked, but the loss will be a quarter of a million dollars. The water pressure was lamentably low, and the strong wind and dryness of materials, together with inflammable character of most of the buildings, completed a set of conditions which helped to fan the flames.

TO RELEASE THE CAID.

Two Military Expeditions Have Started After Raisuli.

Tangier, July 24.—The mission of Sheriff Ouezzan to obtain the freedom of Caid Sir Henry MacLean, who is a prisoner of the bandit Raisuli, has proved a complete failure.

Consequently Caid Mehalla at the head of 1,270 men has started for the Elknes territory, where Raisuli is hiding with his prisoner to bring about his release by force.

Another body of men under the command of Caid Bagdadi has left Tetuan to co-operate with Caid Mehalla.

Russian Registration.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—The period of time allowed officially for the registration of intention to take part in the elections of delegates to the third Russian douma expired yesterday, and indicates a profound indifference. In Odessa there were only 48 registrations out of a vote of 20,000.

Killed in Runaway.

Peterboro, July 24.—In a runaway yesterday John Allen of Nassau, a teamster, fell between the horses and the whiffletree and sustained internal injuries, which resulted in his death at St Joseph's Hospital three hours later. He was 50 years old and leaves a wife and family.

Attacks Wife; Kills Self.

Ottawa, July 24.—Freres Deronin, an employe of the E. B. Eddy Co., for unknown reasons attacked his wife and daughter with a knife, but they escaped him by flight. He then shot himself near the heart.

ARRESTED IN ENGLAND.

Notorious Dess de Bar Believed to Be Masquerading There.

Detroit, July 24.—It has just been discovered that Dess de Bar, who posed in Detroit and Windsor as Mother Elinor, head of the Flying Rollers, had plans laid to swindle Col. Lewis F. Newman, a mining stock broker, with offices in Toronto, out of $50,000 worth of Cobalt mining stock, by representing herself as a sister of J. Pierpont Morgan.

She would have succeeded, members of the Flying Rollers say, had they not refused to go into the game.

Trustee Preston of the Flying Rollers says that Miss Josephine Leslie, arrested in Newmarket, England, for using the name of J. Pierpont Morgan to defraud prominent people out of large sums of fictitious stock deals, is no other than Dess de Bar, and will sail for England at once to identify her.

Two Toronto Suicides.

Toronto, July 25.—Peter Foley, 70 years of age, for 16 years shoemaker at the House of Industry, committed suicide by jumping into the bay at the foot of Frederick street at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. The act was apparently the result of despondency, caused by excessive drinking, he having been detained at No. 1 police station Monday night for drunkenness.

Frank Stephen, 29 Cowan avenue, Parkdale, committed suicide last evening about 7.30 by taking cyamid of potassium, a deadly poison. Mr. Stephens had been despondent, and was thought to be brooding over financial affairs, as all was harmony in his domestic life.

Shot Brother.

Kingston, July 24.—Monday at Olden Station, a lad named Wayne, put his hand into the pocket of an older brother and drew out a revolver. Then he began fooling with it, with the result that it was accidentally discharged and a bullet went through the body of a younger brother, instantly killing him.

French Officers Resign.

Paris, July 24.—It is reported that Gen. L. F. H. Metzinger and Gen. N. C. C. L. Michal, members of the general staff, will follow the example of Gen. Hagron, who last week resigned as commander-in-chief of the French army, because he disapproved in the proposed reduction of the strength of the army.

David Haugh, of North Augusta, Ont., was blown from a load of hay on Saturday and killed.

GRANTED A RESPITE.

Governor Folk Grants Thirty Days to Barrington, the Murderer.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 24.—Governor Folk yesterday granted a respite of thirty days to "Lord Frederick Seymour Barrington," under sentence to be hanged at Clayton, Mo., on July 25, for the murder of James P. McCann.

Many communications have been received by Governor Folk urging executive clemency for "Lord" Seymour Barrington, under sentence to be hanged at Clayton, Mo., Thursday, for the murder of James P. McCann. Two were received Monday night from Judges Valliant and Graves, of the Missouri Supreme Court, asking for a commutation of sentence.

The first was the following telegram from Judge Valliant:

"In my opinion, the State of Missouri cannot face the world with that record and say she gave Barrington a fair trial.

(Signed) "L. B. VALLIANT."

The second is in the form of a petition by Judges Valliant and Graves. It says:

"We believe the ends of justice will be better served by a commutation of the death sentence imposed upon F. Seymour Barrington to imprisonment for life than would be his execution, and we therefore recommend such commutation."

Judges Valliant and Graves were the judges who handed in a dissenting opinion when Barrington's case came before the court. Governor Folk promises a decision in the matter today.

PROVIDENTIAL EXPLOSION.

Strange Freak Saves Many Lives on the Doomed Steamer Columbia.

San Francisco, July 24.—The steamer Pomana arrived in San Francisco from Eureka yesterday with one of the surviving passengers of the wrecked vessel Columbia, and the 32 members of the Coumbia's crew, who were saved out of her total complement of 59. The passenger is Miss A. Leidell of this city. There were 107 survivors landed at Eureka Monday.

Just before the Columbia went down Miss Leidell said Captain Doran tied down the whistlecord and, throwing his hands up, cried: "Good-bye, God bless you!"

That so many escaped death when the Columbia sank is accredited, strange to say, to the fact that the explosion of the boilers when the steamer was sinking counteracted the tremendous suction and saved many from being drawn into the vortex and down with the wreckage. The back wave from the sinking steamer threw many who were swimming for their lives back from the point of danger and gave them a chance to escape. Not a few of the passengers on board the Columbia were teachers and their friends, who had been attending the National Educational Association in Los Angeles.

Stabbed With Butcher Knife.

Toronto, July 24.—John Cornacchia, 18 years, an Italian porter at the St. Charles' Cafe, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday, charged with stabbing James Ferry, English, a fellow-porter, with a butcher knife. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded for a week. Ferry is in St. Michael's Hospital, painfully wounded. The dispute occurred at 7.30 o'clock yesterday morning. The Italian wanted the freight hoist to take down supplies from the storeroom at the top of the building, while the Englishman wanted it to remove the garbage. The discussion waxed hot and the hoist was being shot from one floor to another when, it is said, that the Italian stabbed Ferry.

Presentiment of Death.

Woodslee, July 24.—Crushed beneath the wheels of a wagon heavily loaded with timbers, Mr. E. Dupius, 81 years old, employed as a teamster, met death while at work in the woods near here. Two weeks ago he had a presentiment that he was going to meet death by accident and within the last few days the feeling became so strong that, being a devout Catholic, he sought absolution. It is supposed that he was knocked off the load and fell between the wheels.

Troops Fire On Strikers.

Moscow, July 24.—The strike of the men employed in the cotton mills of the Sava Morosoff Co., situated at Oriekovozne in Vladimir Province, has assumed dangerous proportions. Over 40,000 men are out.

The movement is accompanied by violent political agitations. Troops were summoned, and had to fire before the crowds would disperse.

Hangs Six Children.

Copenhagen, July 24.—Grief stricken by the receipt of a notification that her services would not be required after the end of this month, Mrs. Nielsen, a housekeeper for a land-owner named Uilkjaer of Jutland, hanged three of her employers' children as well as three of her own, and then killed herself by hanging.

For His Country's Cause.

New York, July 24.—The Armenian, who Monday shot the rug merchant, Tavshanjian, in Madison Square, in court yesterday said:

"What I have done I have done for the sake of my country and am ready to receive the consequences."

Chasing Goat; Is Killed.

Grenfell, Sask., July 24.—Ten Syrian pedlars held a meeting here yesterday. Their leader's attention was distracted by a stray goat, which he tried to chase off. A railway train came along, knocked him down and cut off his head.

The Douk Tramps.

Winnipeg, July 24.—The Doukhobors on the march refuse to accept bread unless it's buttered, and, contrary to their claim, that they do not eat meat, showed a fondness for it.

Girl's Mind Affected.

Richmond, Que., July 24.—Lily Lynn, the young girl who was attacked and assaulted three weeks ago, is still seriously ill. Her mind is also affected.

Mr. H. P. Bigar, a native of Belleville, has been appointed Dominion architect in Paris.

ROUTED THE GANG.

Blind Man and Small Boy Clean Out Band of Five Burglars.

Thousand Island Park, July 24.—Totally blind and with his 14-year-old son armed with a tiny yacht cannon, as his only aid, Robert M. Jones of New York, a summer resident, routed a band of five burglars.

Blank shells were used, but the burglars fled pell mell at the sound of the first shot.

Canonizes Priest.

Rome, July 24.—The Pope has decreed the canonization of Joseph Oriol, a pious priest who lived his life in Barcelona.

He has also sanctioned the miracles attributed to Marie Madelaine Postel, the founder of a religious order for women, who recently was canonized.

Egypt's Khedive Incog.

Paris, July 24.—The Khedive of Egypt, Abbas Hilmi, has spent two days in Paris, in such strict incognito that his presence did not become known until after his departure for Switzerland Monday night.

He will visit England before returning to Egypt.

Tunnel in the Alps.

Vienna, July 24.—The work of piercing the five and a half mile tunnel through the Tauern Mountains in Tyrol, has just been completed. The work has occupied six years, and it is the last important work in the completion of the Alpine railways.

Sings Hymn on Way to Scaffold.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 24.—Dowling Green, a negro was hanged here yesterday for the murder of his wife.

Dowling marched cheerfully to the scaffold singing "In the Cross I Know I'm Anchored."

Leprosy in Boston.

Boston, July 24.—A case of leprosy discovered at one of the hospitals of the city was reported to the city board of health yesterday. The victim is a young woman.

Warns Against the Peril.

Ottawa, July 24.—R. G. MacPherson, M.P., of Vancouver, has notified the Government that it is desirable to stop the influx of Japanese into British Columbia.

Ends Life With Strychnine.

Stratford, July 24.—James Kinsman, aged 45, committed suicide yesterday by taking 20 grains of strychnine. He leaves a wife and three children.

Vancouver labor men are planning an anti-Japanese demonstration.

PINKERTONS IN A PLOT

Counsel For Defence Makes Charge in Haywood Case.

Allege Detectives of the Agency Conspired to Hang the Accused—Defence Abandons Theory of Vengeance as Orchard's Motive—Prosecution Witnesses Severely Arraigned.

Boise, Idaho, July 24.—Forsaking the theory of vengeance as Orchard's motive for the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, E. F. Richardson argued yesterday that Orchard was in the employ of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, when he killed Steunenberg, and that the murder was a part of a conspiracy to hang Haywood.

This sudden departure was followed by a tremendous denunciation of Captain James McParland and the Pinkertons and passionate vituperation of Orchard, Governor Gooding of Idaho, Senator Borah, Governor Peabody of Colorado, and in fact all who have acted on the side of the prosecution of Haywood came in for a share of the avalanche of Richardson's peroration.

Mr. Richardson denounced and charge the Pinkerton Detective Agency with a systematic plot to secure the conviction of Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone as a means to the desired extermination of the Western Federation of Miners.

POPULACE SIDE WITH HAU.

Police Protection Now Needed For Relatives of Victim.

Karlsruhe, Germany, July 24.—The excitement over the Hau case is subsiding. The people, however, continue to crowd the newspaper offices to buy pamphlets issued by the press, which contain a full report of the proceedings.

The women of the Molitor family, fearing violence at the hands of the street rabble, remained in one of the rooms of the court house until 12.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, awaiting a favorable opportunity to drive to the railroad station. Fourteen policemen in carriages finally came to the rescue.

During the disorders a crowd demolished the windows in the rooms occupied by the Molitor women at one of the hotels here.

This manifestation of popular anger arises from the conviction of the street rabble, that Olga Molitor, a sister of Hau's wife, left her gallant in the lurch by refusing to confirm the story that he returned to the continent to meet her.

German Opposition.

The Hague, July 24.—Baron Marschal Von Bieberstein, one of the German delegates to the peace conference, has received instructions from Berlin to oppose the wording of the British proposition regarding the limitation of armaments. Germany does not admit that this question is more urgent to-day than it was in 1899, and contends that it is impossible to acknowledge the urgency of disarmament when no practical scheme has yet been devised for the reduction of military burdens.

Police Chiefs' Officers.

Montreal, July 24.—At last night's session of the Chief Constables' Association the following officers were elected: President, Chief Campeau, Montreal; vice-president, Chief Roszel, Peterboro; secretary-treasurer, Inspector Stark, Toronto; executive committee, Capt. Trudel, Quebec; Sherwood, Ottawa; Slemin, Brantford; Dodds, Fort William, and Clautendais, Vancouver.

PLEA FOR HIS LIFE.

Haywood's Counsel Takes Up the Argument For the Defence At Boise.

Boise, Idaho, July 23.—For four and one-half hours yesterday, E. F. Richardson pleaded with the jury for the life of William D. Haywood.

Under order of the court the hours for the day's sessions were changed, and, instead of sitting in the afternoon, court met at 6 o'clock last night. Judge Wood was informed by the jury that the extreme heat of the courtroom was too trying on some of the jurors, and he complied with the request for a late evening session.

The preliminary hearing of the case of Dr. I. L. McGee, one of the witnesses for the defence, charged with perjury, came up yesterday afternoon, and will be continued to-day.

The excellent character and consistent philantrophy of the Western Federation of Miners; the patient suffering of the labor under the lash of capital, and the perjury and perfidy of Harry Orchard were the main points in the opening argument presented yesterday morning by Mr. Richardson.

In spite of the sweltering heat, every seat in the courtroom was occupied long before the opening of the session.

Mr. Richardson had sub-divided his argument under eleven heads, which he enumerated to the jury yesterday morning. At the evening session he said he would do all he could to abridge his remarks on account of the heat, and he believed he would be able to finish some time to-day.

As to the coming of militia to Cripple Creek, Mr Richardson said that they came at the behest of the Mine Owners' Association, whose members were assessed so much a month to buy the certificates of indebtedness issued by the state.

Mr. Richardson declared that while under the ruling of the court he was not allowed to discuss the deportations from Cripple Creek, or the detions from Cripple Creek, or the employment of detectives in the various miners unions, he wanted to dwell as much as possible on conditions in Colorado. He continued:

"I want to weave into your minds the thought that will come to you when you reach the tragic event at Caldwell; so you will understand why we have on the one side Harry Orchard, finely dressed and clothed in safety, although he is the confessed murderer of your late governor, and on the other, the efforts to take the blood of these men—to get them out of the way a the instigation and for the benefit of those whose names I shall mention hereafter. What I want you to know is that if these men were guilty of the crimes charged against them in Colorado they would long ago have been called to account to the Colorado law."

SHOT WHILE INSANE.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Vallentyne Tragedy.

Sunderland, July 23.—The inquest in connection with the Vallentyne tragedy was concluded yesterday afternoon.

Several witnesses were examined, the chief one being the eldest daughter of the family, a girl of 16, who testified to hearing the report of a gun at daylight on Saturday, and on arising to investigate found her mother laid on the bed, dressed, with the baby in her arms and the top of her head blown off.

The father pretended not to know of the affair at all.

The jury brought in a verdict to the effect that deceased had been shot by her husband, he being insane at the time.

Editor Will Break Combine.

Calgary, July 23.—The editor of The Weekly Chinook, published in Calgary, publishes an open letter to the members of the lumber combine, giving them until Aug. 31 to reduce the price of lumber, and says if same is not done at that time he will enter court and bring action against them as members of a combine to restrain competition.

Murder at Rochester.

Rochester, N.Y., July 23.—What will be, according to the physicians, the fourth Italian homicide in Rochester in seven weeks, took place last night when Matteo Parleone shot a two-year-old child, said to be the daughter of his wife and Guiseppe Kavaglia, a Calabrian, with whom his wife twice eloped.

Battling In Morocco.

Melilla, Morocco, July 23.—An engagement between forces of the Sultan and the pretender is in progress here.

Troops of the Sultan are attacking the forces of the pretender from the land side, while the gunboat Sidi El Turk is bombarding them from the sea.

Two Tragic Deaths.

Connellsville, Pa., July 23.—After having come from Elizabeth, N.J., to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Joseph Wright, who was killed on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad, Mrs. Bridget Farley, aged 63 years, met the same fate on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad yesterday.

War Balloon Drifts to Sea.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—The military balloon which ascended from the Aeronautic Park at Tsarkoe-Selo last Friday, manned by four army officers, has been picked up at sea in a waterlogged condition.

It is believed that the aeronauts perished.

Shot 18-Year-Old Wife.

Camden, N.J., July 23.—Following a quarrel, Mrs. Alice Bruce, aged 18 years, a bride of several weeks, was shot and killed at her home here yesterday by her husband, who then turned the revolver upon himself.

A Domestic Tragedy.

Rochester, N.Y., July 23.—Mrs. Walter H. McMullin died yesterday morning from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid, taken because her husband upbraided her for being out late.

King Victor Emmanuel, it is announced in Milan, is to visit England with a fleet.

SEVEN TO ONE

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidentally killed as die of old age.

Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy.

New Light House for Clear Lake

Work Will be Started at Once—More Arrivals at Stony Lake

Special to the Review.

Stony Lake, July 24.—The Government tug Empire brought up a load of lumber on Monday and left it at a small island north-east of "Big Island." in Clear Lake. The Government intend erecting a lighthouse on this island. Building operations, it is understood will be commenced at once. A white flag was placed where the lighthouse is to be situated. This move on the part of the Government will be much appreciated by the steamboat owners and also by boatmen. This lighthouse will always be lit and on account of there being numerous small islands in this part of the lake there is great danger of the steamboats running on a rock. A light will be of great service as a guide.

AN UPSET.

On Sunday evening two young men who are spending their holidays at the lakes, had a rather unpleasant experience when they were returning to their cottage. The two were paddling and when quite near their wharf the man in the bow turned around quickly and quite unexpectedly the canoe was upturned and the occupants thrown into the lake. The fellows managed to get to shore bringing their canoe with them. The two were in no danger and it was quite near the wharf. Both persons were good swimmers. Needless to say both received a good ducking and their friends on the wharf had a good laugh at their expense.

VISITORS.

Mrs. Crosby, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Crane, at "Glad-Hal-Ken," was out fishing on Monday and succeeded in landing an 8 pound lunge. Mrs. Crosby, who is an enthusiastic angler, was much elated over her catch.

Mr. Ted Darling, of Toronto, who is holidaying at Sandy Point, was fortunate in landing a number of fine bass on Monday.

The Largest Jack Manufacturer in the World Writes about Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

Injuries Sustained in Accident Proved Fatal

Sad Accident of John Allen of Nassau—Died at St. Joseph's Hospital—The Call Came Suddenly.

The injuries sustained by John Allen, of Nassau, in the runaway accident at the corner of Douro and Concession streets yesterday afternoon have proved fatal. The unfortunate man passed away in St. Joseph's hospital at six o'clock last evening, after suffering greatly from the time of the accident.

Deceased was teaming for the city and was unloading gravel at the corner of Douro and Concession streets when his team took fright. He fell between the horses and the whippletree, and was so badly injured that he had to be removed to the hospital, where death occurred. Mr. Allen's injuries consisted of several fractured ribs on the right side and internal injuries.

The deceased was 52 years of age, and was a son of the late Edward Allen, of Douro, one of the pioneer settlers of that township. He lived in Douro until about eight years ago, when he moved his family to Nassau, where he had lived since, working about ten acres of land and doing teaming as well. He is survived by his aged mother, a wife and ten children, the youngest being only four or five years of age. The children are Mrs Garvey, of the city; Misses Kate, Maggie, Laura, Lizzie, Theressa and Lena, Messrs. Garret, Patrick and Robert. Six brothers, Edward, of Douro; Patrick, Robert and Michael, of Lakefield; James, of this city, and William, and two sisters, Mrs. Scully, of the city, and Mrs. Kennedy, of Douro, also survive.

Miss Birdie Thompson Will be One of the Eleven Ladies Who Will Leave For Europe Next Week—Great Interest Taken in the Voting—Sister of Peterborough Man Leads the Race in Toronto.

A Peterborough lady will go to London and Paris next week, as the guest of the Toronto World. Miss Birdie Thompson of this city has been successful in winning second place in District No. 2, in the contest conducted for some weeks past by the World and many friends are today tendering hearty congratulations to the fortunate lady.

Miss Thompson is naturally delighted with the result, and, to the Review today, remarked, "I desire most heartily to thank all my friends. They stood loyally by me and I shall never forget their kindness. They could not do too much and I am indeed grateful."

Eleven ladies will go on the trip. The standing of those in District No. 3 which included all the province of Ontario, outside of Toronto and Hamilton, is,—

CITY OF TORONTO.

Out of twenty-nine competitors in the city of Toronto, the standing of the successful ones, was,—

Miss Lizzie McGregor, the Robert Simpson Co.	1,702,567
Miss Ida Vandemark, cashier Williams' Cafe	1,571,204
Miss Mabel Hodgson, 123 Roncesvalles avenue	1,457,591
Miss M. E. Virtue, the C.O.O.F., Manning Chambers	1,351,786
Miss Eleanor E. Skene, the I.O.F., Temple Building	1,281,606
Miss Florence L. Stephenson the Labor Temple	1,238,372

CITY OF HAMILTON.

Only one candidate was eligible from Hamilton, and she is Miss Olive Board, of Pearl street, who had 775,718 votes to her credit. There were six competitors.

WELL-KNOWN HERE.

Miss Lizzie McGregor of the Robert Simpson Company, Toronto, who heads the poll in Toronto, is well-known in Peterborough. She is a sister of Mr. T. D. McGregor, of the firm of McGregor & Reid, George street. Mr. McGregor is naturally elated at his sister's good fortune and splendid record.

A LONG JOURNEY.

The trip to London, means a long journey for the fortunate eleven. The distances approximately given are

Toronto to Montreal	330
Montreal to Quebec	190
Quebec to Liverpool	2600
Liverpool to London	185
	3305

The party with an escort from The Toronto World staff, will leave Toronto, Thursday morning, Aug. 1, in a special car attached to the C.P.R. nine o'clock express, arriving at Montreal at 6 p.m. A drive around that city will dispose of the time before going on board the Allan Liner, Virginian, in which the trip across the briny will be made.

In London the party will stay at the Hotel Cecil and will be given an opportunity to visit many of the famous spots in and around that wonderful city. A side-trip to Paris is also on the programme.

The return trip will be made so as to bring the ladies home, 22 days after having left Toronto.

The expenses of the party throughout the entire trip are defrayed by The Toronto World.

LATE IN STARTING.

In the contest, Miss Richardson, the Oshawa girl states what no doubt is the fact, that owing to the Whitby girl's quick action one got 50,000 votes out of Oshawa before the Oshawa girl got into the field, which otherwise would have gone to the Oshawa girl. That being the case the order would have been changed, thus (1) Miss Thompson; (2) Oshawa, (3) Whitby, and (4) Kingston. Miss Thompson would thus occupy first place, notwithstanding her five weeks' handicap in getting started. On the evening of the last day, Miss Thompson got 30,000 votes in four or five hours. One can readily see how, in another day she would have forged ahead to first place and had she added the five weeks handicap to her count it must be apparent to all how she would have distanced the field.

HOW SHE WON.

The Toronto World today contains the following despatch from Peterborough,—

Peterborough's representative, Miss Birdie Thompson has captured second place in the candidates for the province in connection with the World trip to London and Paris.

As the contest drew to a close the interest throughout the city became general and during the last two days it has grown intense. The chances of success of Miss Thompson became a topic of conversation on the street, and the enquiries are numerous. When it was bulletined from the newspaper offices this evening, that the local candidate, who was the last to enter the fray, being five weeks behind all other competitors in starting, had captured second place, the fortunate winner was showered with congratulations. During the last few weeks, nearly everybody was cutting out coupons and talking of the great World trip, while subscriptions poured in at the local bookstores.

Miss Thompson is a native of this city and has a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. For some years she has been one of the most popular and obliging salesladies in the stationery stores of the city, and for two years has been engaged with R. J. Soden. She comes of an old and respected family, her father being the late Elias Thompson, lumberman, one of Peterborough's honored citizens.

"Well, I am very pleased indeed," she remarked. "It is certainly a great source of satisfaction to have won out. I was the last to enter the contest—five weeks later than the others—but you see I have made up for lost time. My friends have one and all stood loyally by me, and I cannot thank them too deeply. I would particularly desire to express my gratitude to my employer, R J Soden, who has worked incessantly and most energetically on my behalf. His enthusiasm was infectious and spread to many others. I also desire to thank Chris. Graham, who is the representative of The Sunday World, A. H. Stratton, and F C Cubitt, stationers, have also been very kind. I could mention scores of others, many old subscribers of The World paying for it two and three years in advance. I attribute my victory to the large number of subscriptions received for the World. The coupons, of course, helped, but I could never have won out if it were not for the large number of subscription gathered in by men and others who were working in my behalf. I find that the World has hundreds of warm friends in Peterborough."

Capt. Callaghan of Canadian Scouts Visited His Old Home

Man Who Lead Famous Band in South Africa War Tells Some of His Experiences—Five Peterboro' Boys Were With Him for Eight Months—Verify the Story.

Capt. Thos. Callaghan, who won fame as leader of the Canadian scouts in the war in South Africa, is well known to the Peterborough boys who were out with the second contingent. The Canadian scouts were the most successful during the whole war and every man distinguished himself. There were five Peterborough boys who served under Capt. Callaghan for the last eight months of their service, as follows:—John R. Dundas, Percy Price, R. Boyle, Frank Craig and Fred McDonald, and one of those who read an interview in the Toronto Star Saturday night from their old captain, stated to The Review that the story was correct and that they were with him on several of the occasions. The story in the Star is as follows:—

Capt. Thomas Callaghan, who is spending the summer with his mother at the corner of Withrow and Pape avenue, after nearly 20 years of absence, has had a stirring career for a young man 32 years of age.

From taming a snake by feeding it frogs which he caught when three years of age, to taming wild horses as a youth on the western plains; taming fiercer Boers in South Africa, and now controlling flying machines and making balloon ascensions, and descending from unthinkable heights hanging by his feet, without straps, harness, or supports of any kind, there seems to be but a natural and gradual progress in an unique career.

HE RAN AWAY FROM HOME.

Captain Callaghan, most unassuming and friendly, told The Star some few of his experiences, which may be of interest.

"Here is a picture of me just after I had been released from jail, the first and only time I ever was in," he said, handing a picture of a little lad about ten or eleven years of age, which showed that as a boy he was a fearless and independent looking chap. "I ran away from home, and got as far as Buffalo, where my mother had me locked up, and came and brought me home.

"After a few escapades of that nature, but keeping out of the coop, I went to school for a while, and when fifteen years of age I went to the North-West. Here I spent the years before the Boer war, and learned to ride and shoot. To be able to shoot antelope at five hundred yards, off a horse, was good practice for the Boer war.

"I went out with the first contingent as a private in the Mounted Rifles, under Colonel Evans, and got my commission from him."

"How did you get your first rise?"

"I think the first lift I got was one night I took my little nigger, and went alone into the enemy's lines, to locate a bunch of Boers, who were making things nasty.

"I found twelve of them at a farm house sleeping in the house. I went into the house, captured and disarmed them, and made them give me pen and ink. I wrote a note to the Captain, asking for a squad of men, and sent the nigger boy with it to the camp.

A HAIR-RAISING SITUATION.

"I tell you," he went on, "it is a different thing rushing into a fight at full speed, to sitting in a house guarding a couple of Boers and knowing that every minute a dozen rifle bullets may be coming at you through the windows. However, they didn't come, and we got the whole bunch.

"I was put on to the Intelligence Department as sergeant and soon got my commission as lieutenant in the Canadian Scouts under the celebrated Gat Howard.

"Yes," he admitted, reminiscently, "I have had some close calls. One of the tightest place I was in, except of course in such general engagements as Harts River and the like when we didn't have time to know how dangerous it was, was once when I went ahead of our detachment of scouts down a hill about a mile, to find a place to water the horses.

THE ENEMY WAS NEAR.

"Behind a bluff and hidden by shrubbery was a Boer farmhouse. We did not think we were within miles of the enemy when just as I got to a corner of the shrubbery, a big Boer covered me with his rifle and ordered me to come on quietly or I would be killed. They hoped to thus draw the whole party into a trap.

"I hadn't time to think, and I didn't think. I just shot the Boer and wheeled my horse at the same time. The spurs sank into his flank, and only being a first-class rider enabled me to keep astride. Sixty rifles opened fire and bullets sang around my ears like a swarm of bees, neither the horse or I was touched.

"When I got back the Captain said, 'only the devil and you could get out of that mess.'"

Captain Callaghan says it took a day and a half fighting to dislodge that bunch and 21 of them were killed before they gave in.

SHOT A SECOND TIME.

"The second time I was shot," he went on, "was through the side. I was out with two others scouting, and we were fired on from a bush. We got away as fast as possible, but I got a bullet through my left side that sent me to the hospital for a few weeks.

"One of the worst jobs I had was carrying despatches from General French to General Smith Doran. It was 71 miles as the crow flies, but I do not know how far we went. We rode for three nights dodging bodies of Boers, and when we came upon Smith-Doran's camp we found the Boers preparing to attack. It was about two hours before daybreak and in a heavy fog. We got among the Boers and were under British fire for about three hours.

BURNED THE DESPATCHES.

"There were three of us, and I burned the despatches and we separated, thinking one at least would get through alive. That was ticklish work getting through these lines without letting them know we were British. But we got through all right, though Davis, one of my men, had to shoot one Boer, who got too close to him.

"After eighteen months I came home to Canada, but went back with the next contingent as captain in the Evans Scouts."

Geo. Miller Being Tried by the Magistrate in Lindsay Case

Pleaded Not Guilty to Possession of Forged Notes—Logie and Burke Both to Testify—Claim Miller Had a Hand in it.

Lindsay, July 23.—Jno. Gostlin and George Miller, the two men accused of handling counterfeit bills, who are making a fight for their innocence and liberty, were arraigned before Magistrates Moore and Jackson this morning. Miller is a very popular young man around town and the hearing of his case attracted a large crowd.

The townspeople are speculating on the length of sentence which will be imposed on the five men who yesterday afternoon pleaded guilty to the charges of having the bogus money in their possession. Recalling the Murphy counterfeiting cases here some years ago, it is remembered that each of the defendants at that time got from two to fourteen years' imprisonment. The general feeling about town is that the present case does not call for such drastic punishment.

Some consideration will probably be taken by the Magistrates of the facts that the five prisoners pleaded guilty, and saved the town and country from the suspense of a long drawn out trial.

TRIAL BY MAGISTRATE.

The proceedings this morning commenced with an argument between the counsel as to the course to be taken. Mr. Hopkins, defendant Miller's counsel, fenced for a while for first place. He wanted to know if there were any witnesses from out of town, or any corroborative evidence. If so, he desired trial by jury.

At length the lawyer was assured by Mr Bayley, for the Attorney-General that the only witnesses were Sergt. Parkinson, of the Dominion Police, Chief Vincent, of the Lindsay police and Logie and Burke, who are in jail. Mr. Hopkins consented to trial by the Magistrates.

PRISONER IS PRIVILEGED.

When brought into the court room Miller, the prisoner, took a seat beside his counsel at the lawyer's table.

Said Crown Attorney Devlin, "The other prisoners took seats in the dock, your Worship. Why should this prisoner be priviledged? I do not wish to be taken as being unkind to the prisoner," he added.

The magistrate consented, however, to allowing Miller to keep his seat beside his lawyer. The charge read was to the effect that two years ago about June, 1905, the prisoner had in his possession certain forged notes of the Dominion, and Bank of Montreal variety. A plea of not guilty was entered.

Parkinson, the Dominion detective, was the first witness. He told of a conversation with Logie when the latter implicated Miller, with the printing of counterfeit bills in Logie's statements of Burke and Logie. He denied having had anything to do with the counterfeiting operations in 1905.

CIRCULATION IN BELLEVILLE.

Logie told the detectives that Miller also assisted in the circulation of the bills.

Hopkins, counsel for Miller, objected to Mr. Bayley's questioning the witness about the circulation of bills in Belleville. "It is irrelevant to this case," declared Mr. Hopkins.

"Oh, I think it's evidence in this case," said the Magistrate.

Parkinson said Chief Vincent found a tin box containing Traders' Bank bills in Logie's house.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hopkins, the witness said that it was at Detective Roger's suggestion that Logie and Burke were taken to the jail to confront Miller with their story. Rogers suggested it and Miller said, "I should very much like to see them, and hear what they have to say.

This was when Miller denied the story of Logie, and the detectives wanted corroboration from Miller himself. When they all went in the jailer's office, Logie did not make his accusation direct. Rogers repeated Logie's story as told to him and Logie nodded his head in acquiescence.

"Why, you don't mean to say that all that's true?" said Miller, referring to Logie's story as repeated by Rogers.

THE DETECTIVE'S NOTE BOOK.

"Yes, George, it is true," said Logie.

Mr. Hopkin's, the prisoner's counsel insisted on seeing the detective's notebook, despite that officer's protestations.

The Magistrates permitted the lawyer to have a peep, however, in order to assure himself that he had noted the conversation as repeated this morning. Recalling previous investigations of 1905, Parkinson said he suspected Miller at that time.

"Anybody else?" queried the lawyer.

"Yes."

"Who?"

The witness declined to say, and the Magistrate supported him.

"If there are others implicated," said Mr. Moore, "we cannot have their names mentioned.

AN OLD SUSPICION.

Mr. Parkinson produced a specimen of a bogus Bank of Montreal note, that was in circulation at time. It was a good imitation, but he did not know whether they were photographed or engraved.

"You had a photograph of Miller some years ago?"

"Yes."

"And they did not recognize him as the man who passed the bills on them?"

"No."

This concluded the evidence for the morning and the court adjourned for lunch. On resuming at two o'clock Burke and Logie were called to the witness box in the Miller case. The case of John Gostlin will be heard later in the day.

Mr. T. E. Weldon, Gostlin's counsel, says that the evidence against Gostlin is practically the same as that of the Miller case. He wanted the two men tried together, but Mr. Bayley would not consent.

SAYS MILLER HELPED.

Robert Logie, who yesterday pleaded guilty to having counterfeit money in his possession was called this afternoon as a witness in the case against George Miller.

"Do you know the accused?" asked Mr. Bayley.

Witness said he did.

He stated that he had seen Miller out at his (Logie's) farm on several occasions. He recalled one time in particular, about two or three years ago.

"What were you three doing at the time?"

"Doing something in connection with the notes." Witness spoke very low and had to be cautioned by the Magistrate to speak up.

"What do you mean by 'connection with these notes'?"

"We were making five dollar Dominion Band and Bank of Montreal notes."

"In what way did you make these notes?"

"Burke fetched the press; I don't know who ran the press."

"What did you do in the manufacture of these notes?"

Witness was loath to say. He admitted that the materials were at his barn. Burke, Miller and himself all had a hand in their manufacture, he declared.

"When you constructed these notes who did they belong to?"

"They were supposed to belong to the three of us."

"MILLER AND I WENT."

"Then what was done with these notes?"

"Miller and I went out with them. I took them in the grip."

One of the Bank of Montreal five dollar notes was here produced. Logie identified it as resembling the notes made in his stable. He also thought he knew a Dominion counterfeit five dollar note.

Mr. Bayley asked Logie as to who owned the notes after they were made.

"The three of us I suppose. There was nothing very definite about it."

Mr. Hopkins, counsel for Miller, protested frequently that the witness did not speak loud enough.

"He can speak loud enough, if he tries," said the lawyer. "I've heard him speak at times."

Continuing his examination, Mr. Bayley asked the witness if Miller had any object in his visitations except the making of the counterfeit bills. Logie said they had been friends for some time.

"Where did you go, accompanied by Miller, with the bills in circulation?"

IN PETERBOROUGH AND BROCKVILLE.

"To Peterborough and Brockville."

Mr. Hopkins gave Logie a searching cross-examination.

"How long have you known Mr. Miller?" queried Mr. Hopkins.

"Five or six years."

"Other people besides Mr. Miller used to come up there, weren't there?"

"Oh, yes."

"Who were there?"

Mr. Bayley objected to respectable people's names being dragged into the trial. Mr. Hopkins did not press for an answer to his query.

"Did Mr. Miller bring any ink or paper to your place to help make these bills?"

"Not that I remember."

Logie said that there were not many of the bogus bills made in his barn at night.

"Were there any of those bills made at night?" demanded Mr. Hopkins.

"Yes some of them by lantern light."

Logie said Burke and Miller were present when the bills were made at night.

Chas. Burke, in the witness box this afternoon in the case against George Miller, said that Miller, Logie, and himself had been frequently in Logie's barn together making counterfeit money.

ANOTHER REPORT

Lindsay, July 24.—Cheers rang through the courtroom here yesterday when it was announced that the crown had withdrawn the charge against John Goslin, of having forged notes in his possession.

George Miller, who also appeared for trial, was let out on bail of $2,000 in five sureties. Magistrate Moore will give judgment on Friday, when he sentences the quintet—Burke, Logie, Wynn, Eveleigh and Boyean.

Miller went into the box immediately after Logie and Burke had sworn that he (Miller) had printed and procured paper and ink for the printing of $5 bills two years ago last January, and denied the whole business. He explained his trips to Logie's house, and the trips to Belleville and Peterboro, where Logie had sworn he went with Miller to pass the bad money.

Mr. Bayly examined the prisoner at length, but failed to shake his story, although in some slight unimportant instance their was corroboration of Logie's story. Miller could not account for Burke and Logie making up the yarn to blight his life.

Counsel for Miller pointed out that there was not a tittle of corroborative evidence on the story of the two accomplices, and that there must be further corroboration to have any case against Miller. The magistrate acquiesced and reserved judgment.

At the present time there will be no more arrests, although Burke has told where he got the bills and who made the plates. Detective Parkinson left for Peterboro last night on his way to Ottawa. Inspector Rogers goes to Toronto to-day.

Logie was the first witness. On one occasion Miller was at his farm with Charlie Burke two years ago.

"You were engaged with the prisoner in making bank notes — $5 notes?"

"Yes."

"Who brought the paper and ink out?"

"I don't know.

"Who worked the press?"

"The three of us—Burke, Miller and myself."

"When you struck the notes, who did they belong to?"

"They were supposed to belong to Burke."

He was always friendly with Miller. When he started out with him he had all the bad money. With the accused he went to Peterboro, Belleville and Kingston.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hopkins, witness said he had known Miller for two or three years, maybe five or six years, Miller used to visit him often.

"Who went with you to Peterboro?"

"Miller."

"You saw him on the train, and that's all you know?"

"Yes." (Laughter.) Miller, he said, did not pass any bills in Peterboro, Kingston or Belleville, and had nothing to do with the last lot of bills. He didn't know who made them. Burke had said he got them in Orillia. The Traders' Bank bills were gotten in the spring.

There was a rustle in the court-room when Burke, the ringleader, was brought in. He was smiling. Burke said that he knew Miller 10 or 15 years. He had dealings with him in this case three or four years ago up at Logie's, in connection with the counterfeiting. Miller and Logie were all who were engaged with him in making bad notes. Miller did the printing. The plates were made in London and sent to Logie.

"Miller was the printer; Logie did the biggest part and I was to help," he said. Miller supplied the paper and ink.

At this juncture the magistrates retired for a few minutes to decide whether they would try the case or not. On their return Mr. Hopkins addressed the court on the merits of the case.

More evidence was needed and Miller took the box. He stated that he was a married man, 27 years of age. He knew Burke all his life and Logie for several years.

"You heard what Logie and Burke said about the manufacture of bills at his place. Is it true?"

"It is not true."

"Were you in Peterboro or Belleville?"

"No."

"Did you ever have any arrangement with Goslin?"

"Never."

Miller stated to Mr. Bayly that he did not think Logie would tell a story like that, but that Burke would swear to anything. Witness thought that the story was invented to implicate him at any cost because he had turned down Burke, who had a hypnotic influence over him.

FELL 35 FEET TO PAVEMENT

Earl Taylor Touched Live Wire and Dropped—Seriously Injured

Referring to the accident which befell Earl Taylor of Young's Point, a reference to which was made yesterday, the Ottawa Journal furnishes fuller particulars of the mishap as follows:—A shock from an electric wire was the cause of Earl Taylor, of Peterborough, falling from the top of a telephone pole to the pavement at the corner of Bank street and Laurier avenue west at 8.30 this morning. Taylor now lies in a dangerous condition in the Protestant hospital, suffering from internal injuries.

J. J. Turner & Sons, of Peterborough, who have charge of decorating the city for the Old Boys' Re-union, put a number of men at work this morning on Bank street, and it was while erecting these decorations at the streets mentioned that the unfortunate man met with the accident. Flags had been arranged diagonally across the junction of the streets, and the men were putting up a couple of banners. In order to secure these, Taylor went up to the top of the southwest pole. He had been in his lofty position but a few moments, when in changing his position, it appears that he came in contact with a live wire, the shock, though not serious causing him to start. He immediately lost hold of the cross-bars on which he was and fell crashing to the pavement 35 feet below, landing squarely on his back. Assistance came swiftly, and in a moment both Drs. Baptie and Watterson were summoned. The unconscious man was then taken into the drug store across the street and quickly examined. It was at once seen that he was in a serious condition, and he was conveyed with all speed to the Protestant hospital, where it was ascertained that he was suffering from internal injuries. Taylor is a young man of but nineteen years, and a resident of Young's Point, near Peterborough. Whether his injuries will prove fatal or not cannot be determined for several days yet, but it is thought that he will be able to pull through.

CLUB TO HOLD A TOURNAMENT

The Nicholls Oval Tennis Club will hold a tournament in which play will be commenced next week. The matter was discussed at the Club's picnic last night and the proposition to have a tournament met with unanimous approval. The arranging of the schedule was left in charge of the executive committee, who will meet at the Y.M.C.A. tonight. No doubt the tournament will be very successful.

TENNIS CLUB'S MERRY PICNIC

Enjoyable Time Spent Down the River Last Evening

The Nicholls Oval Tennis Club held an enjoyable little picnic on the bank about two miles down stream last evening. About twenty were in the party and the trip to and from the picnic grounds, was made in skiffs and canoes. The "spread" was laid out in a pretty spot on the river bank, and was greatly enjoyed. The weather was ideal for such an event and everyone had a delightful time.

CANADA'S INTERESTS

For years we have boasted that the agricultural interests in Canada led all others, but this illusion is now dispelled.

According to the latest returns issued at Ottawa, Canadian manufactured products now take first place. In fact, their value is about double that coming from the farms. The factories have grown, the number of employees greatly increased and Canada is now taking her proper place as a splendid industrial, as well as agricultural country.

Agriculture and dairying interests are, however, by no means being neglected. In the United States, the output in manufactured products quadruples in value those from the farm, while in Canada, as yet, the value is only double, but, during the next decade, if depression does not overtake us, the lead now held by the factories will be greatly increased.

The earnings of Canadian railways during the past year were about $250,000,000. The value of the output of Canadian farms in the same year was about $375,000,000. We are approaching the situation now existing in the United States where the revenue of railways is equal to about half the annual output of the farms of the country.

The product of the mines of Canada, again, was valued a little over $30,000,000 in 1895; for 1905, the figure was nearly $70,000,000; in a year or two more the $100,000,000 mark will be reached.

Referring to this, the St. John Sun says: Under such circumstances agriculture can no longer depend on its overwhelming importance as a means of compelling attention to its just demands in matters for legislation. But the influence lost in this respect can be more than made good by means of organization. In New York State farm property represents only about 15 per cent of the State assessment. Still in that State not a single bill passes the legislature directly affecting agriculture, of which farmers disapprove. What is the explanation? In New York the Grange has 80,000 members and at the fortnightly winter meetings of the local Granges every bill pending before the State Assembly is as carefully studied as it is in the legislature itself."

PEN POINTS

It is time that London took some action to fix the responsibility of that recent disaster.

And still the weed crop on many streets and vacant lots flourishes. It is certainly time that somebody got busy.

At the close of the present season the crossings and sidewalks of Peterborough will be in a good condition. The roadways should certainly claim all the attention next year.

Encouraging reports of an abundant harvest are being received and the gentle daily rains add to the growth of the grain and root crops.

Referring to an Associated Press despatch announcing that the Salvation Army are sending this week 3,000 women and children, who come to join their husbands or fathers already settled there, the 'Canada' says, "It will thus be seen that the Salvation Army immigrants, are not all scamps, as some would make believe."

Hon. J. M. Gibson has been spoken of by the Hamilton Times, as the next occupant of the gubernatorial chair for the Province of Ontario. If a Hamilton man get that appointment, the residents of the Ambitious City, would scarcely be able to contain themselves in the exuberance of their delight. It would in a measure wipe out the feeling of resentment and disappointment of past years when visiting notables have not seen fit to take a side trip to Hamilton to view the mountain, the gore, and Dundurn Park.

The four members of the committee appointed by the National Civic Federation of Municipal Ownership to review the reports of the experts who investigated the subject of municipal ownership in America and Europe, have now sent in their reports, so far as the United States is concerned, and will review British municipalization later. The committee consists of Walton Clark, president of the United Gas Improvemnt Company of Philadelphia; Charles L. Edgar, president of the Edison Electric and Illuminating Company, of Boston; Professor Frank Parson of Boston, president of the National Public Ownership League; and Edward W. Bemis, superintendent of the Cleveland, Ohio, waterworks. The reports of the experts from which the committee took its data make more than a million words and were made to the Commission of National Civic Federation by technical experts, engineers, accountants, and statisticians who visited a large number of public and privately conducted enterprises in the United States and Europe. As was perhaps to be expected, Professor Parsons and Mr. Bemis uphold public ownership and operation and declare that a better, cheaper and more satisfactory condition of affairs exists where public ownership has control of the water, gas and electrical lighting plants of the cities visited; while Messrs. Clarke and Edgar, as was certainly to be expected, declare absolutely to the contrary.

Channel Cleared in Trent Canal

Steamer Otonabee Made Several Trips From Lift Lock to Nassau

In Monday's issue was published a statement from the superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal to the effect that if the boats kept in the channel in the canal between the Norwood road bride and Nassau there would be no trouble from weeds. It will be remembered that several complaints were made by owners of boats about the weeds in the canal, and the great difficulty experienced getting up and down. Reference was made to the Alberta being stuck in the weeds. Mr. Harold Rye, of the Otonabee boat house, was present when the Alberta was stuck, and he helped to release it. He stated to the Review that there was no channel in the canal between the high level bridge and Nassau. It was filled up with weeds right across and it was almost impossible to tell where the channel was supposed to be.

Mr. Thompson, the lumber king of Orillia, came down in his handsome gasoline launch from Lakefield to Peterborough a few days ago, and it took him just 20 hours to make the trip. He was very much disgusted with the stretch of canal referred to, and said it was disgraceful and not fit for navigation.

Yesterday Mr. Thompson was in the city again and left his boat at Rye's, where he put on a load of gasoline. He was returning from Hastings, and before he would attempt to go up the canal again he went up to interview the Superintendent, Mr. J. H. McClellan. After hearing the Orillia man's story, the superintendent decided to have a channel cut through the weeds, and accordingly the big steamer Otonabee, was engaged to run up and down the stretch all afternoon so that it would be possible for the smaller boats to get through.

INJURIES ARE NOT SERIOUS

Earl Taylor Will Soon be Out of Hospital

J J. Turner & Sons received word from Ottawa today that Ernie Taylor, the young man injured by falling from a pole yesterday, was not seriously hurt. He is in the hospital, but will be out again in a day or so. No bones were broken in the fall, and the young man was not injured, except for the shaking up.

Mr. Taylor's friends in Peterborough will be pleased to hear that he is recovering so rapidly.

Express Room Was Broken into

And Furs Stolen in Lindsay—G.T.R. Officials Indignant

Lindsay, July 23.—Interest here today is divided between the fur smugglers and the counterfeiters, and people are beginning to think that the town is getting more than its share of criminal notoriety.

The officials at the Grand Trunk station here are indignant at the imputation that they have been in league with the fur smugglers, and are prepared to give a full explanation of their conduct in the affair.

"In the first place," said one of them this morning, "the bundle was express matter, anyway, and therefore in the custody of the Canadian Express Company. The parcel was given to us for safe keeping by the constable, but no special stress was laid upon the necessity of keeping it out of reach of everybody. Nevertheless, when we found out what the circumstances were, we took it out of the baggage room, which is always open, and put it into the express room, which is kept locked. This was so that it would be out of reach of everybody in case the baggageman happened to be away for a minute. But the express room door was forced, the parcel opened, and whatever it contained taken out. We feel, however, that we are not responsible."

Two Fishermen Caught and Fined

For Taking Out Bass Less Than 10 Inches Long—Had Several of Them

Two well known men, who were always looked upon to be real sports, were caught taking away bass under size by Inspector Watt, who fined both of them! The inspector went up to Nassau to see that no fish were destroyed when the water was being drawn off the raceway the other day, and ran across two men. They were crossing the bridge and both had a good string of fish, and when Mr. Watt saw them he took out his rule and several of the bass were only five and six inches long. This is away below the minimum, and the two men should be ashamed of themselves for keeping them. They both lost their fish and paid their fine. The minimum length for bass is 10 inches, and the largest number to be caught is 8 in one day. The minimum size for lunge is 24 inches long, and the largest number to be taken in one day is four.

Trades and Labor Congress of Canada

Will Assemble in Winnipeg in September—Convention Call

The annual convention call of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, which meets this year in Winnipeg, beginning September 16th, has been issued.

Mr. P. M. Draper, Ottawa, secretary-treasurer of the Congress has sent out the following notice, which will be read with interest,—

To Officers and Members of Trades and Labor Councils, National Trades Unions, Federal Labor Unions, and International Local Trades Unions in the Dominion of Canada.

Greeting, Fellow Unionists and Brothers,—The twenty-third annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will convene in the Legislative Council Chamber, Broadway, City of Winnipeg, Province of Manitoba, beginning at ten o'clock, Monday morning, September 16th, 1907, and will continue in session from day to day until the business of the Convention has been completed.

Last year, notwithstanding the fact that the convention was held in the extreme west of Canada, namely, at Victoria, the convention, both in point of numbers and enthusiasm, excelled anything in the history of organized labor in Canada.

With the convention in Winnipeg, the future capital of the British Empire, and fairly accessible, both as to cost of transportation and time, all past records should be broken. The approaching convention is expected to be a climax of the great work of organization for the past twenty-five years in Canada. Your body cannot afford to be unrepresented.

While the organization of the workers has gone on most successfully, the efforts of our opponents have never been greater or more pronounced, and the necessity for close touch amongst all branches of labor in every part of Canada, has never been more marked. Matters affecting the every-day life of the toiler will be the subject of the discussion on each day of the convention, and the importance of your organization entitles it to be heard in the consideration of all these great questions.

The laws passed during the last session of the Dominion Parliament, as well as those enacted by the various Provincial Legislatures, will afford much room for discussion and will require the exercise of the best thought in the world of labor. See to it, therefore, that your delegates are on hand.

One of the most important questions to come before the convention will be the policy of the congress towards immigration. The advent of thousands of immigrants and the promise of thousands more have brought the immigration question to the forefront, and today it ranks as one of the most difficult problems confronting organized labor, affecting as it does, our wages, our hours, of labor, in fact every condition that surrounds us in the sale of labor. As every province has its own problems in this regard, every province should be well represented at the Convention.

So too, the reports of the Provincial Executives as to the progress of the political action, determined upon at the Victoria Convention, will be of great and enduring interest. The movements and utterances of the Liberal and Conservative parties indicate very clearly that we will have a General Election for the Dominion Parliament in 1908. This means that the Winnipeg Convention of the Annual Parliament of Labor will be the only chance that the representatives of Labor, through their Dominion Legislative Labor Body, will have of reviewing the work done by the Provincial Executives with respect to Independent political action, and taking such steps as they deem necessary to complete this work. Therefore, it is of paramount importance that at least every Trades and Labor Council, from Halifax in the east to Victoria in the west, should be represented by the very best men.

Don't be content to say that there will be enough there without you. Have your own delegates present. This is the growing time, and organized labor must keep up with the procession. It is useless for you to inveigh against unjust laws, or the methods of the employers, unless you do your part in passing upon the ways and means to better yourself. Isolation from the general labor movement not only weakens your own organization, but helps to destroy the movement itself.

Yours faithfully,
ALPHONSE VERVILLE, M.P.,
President, Montreal.
JAMES SIMPSON,
Vice-President, Toronto.
P. M. DRAPER,
Sec.-Treas., Ottawa.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 82, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are, it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Inspected Water Power at Locks

Special Power Committee Getting Information on Water Powers for Their Report

The special power committee this morning visited the Peterborough Locks dam to investigate the possibility of securing electric power there in paying quantities. Those present were Mayor McWilliams, Ald. W. H. Bradburn and Mr. A. Stevenson. Mr. J. H. Burnham, representing the J. M. Irwin estate, who offered the power to the city, was also present. The special power committee is investigating all the water powers in the district for the purpose of framing a report to the council.

BIG CROWD ON THE OTONABEE

First Excursion of New Boat to Kawartha Lakes

The steamer Otonabee left this morning from the Wolfe street wharf at 7.30 o'clock on its first trip to Stony Lake waters. A special excursion was run, going via the lift lock, which was passed about 8 o'clock, and the canal and river to Lakefield, and then on to Burleigh, where arrangements were made ahead of time for dinner for the crowd. There were about 200 passengers on board, which is very encouraging for the first trip to the northern waters.

Efficiency Pay for the Rangers

It is Expected That it Will Arrive Next Month

A meeting of the officers of the 57th Regiment was held last evening in the mess rooms.

Several matters of interest to the corps were discussed, but none of a public character.

Lieut.-Col. Miller presided, and there was a fair attendance.

The matter of efficiency pay was considered, and it is thought the pay will be here next month.

It is understood that about two-thirds of the men in the regiment will this year draw efficiency pay.

Single Fare on Both Railways

To Peterboro' Races on Aug. 12 and 13.—Big Day of Sport Promised

There will be no excursions out of the city on the railways Monday and Tuesday, August 12th and 13th. The Peterborough Turf club are holding their summer meet on those dates and have arranged for single fares on both the C.P.R. and G.T.R. into the city from all points where the single fare does not amount to more than $2.50. Thus people from as far as Toronto can come down for single fare. Tickets good for three days. This should mean that a large crowd from outside points will gather in the city to see the races.

The club have received great encouragement from horse owners and there will be a large number of entries in every event. Then the road races will be a great feature on both days. Strong inducements are being held out to Longboat to run there, either to give an exhibition or to enter a race. The latter is preferred as both Simpson and Howard, the two local Indian runners, would like to meet their fleetfooted brother and firmly believe that they can give him a good run for the prize. A whole lot of people in the city will back the home Indians too—not to win, but to give a good race.

OTHER MINES MAY ALSO OPEN

Good News Reaches People of Preneveau and Vicinity, Near Havelock

Special to The Review.

Havelock, July 24.—It is reported on good authority that the mining company that is about to buy the iron mines at Blairton, have been looking over the Seabrooke iron mines at Preneveau, three miles east of here on the Marmora road, with a view to purchasing.

Like the village of Blairton this settlement called Preneveau was one of great activity and business. If you visit it now, you will find only a post office, a school house, a church and a few dwellings. When the Seabrooke mines were in operation before there was a large hotel and general store run by a man by the name of Garrison, a crowded church and a school unable to accommodate the large number of pupils.

It will indeed be a welcome notice to the surrounding farmers to hear that the purchase has been made.

Old Man's First Ride on Railway

One of the pioneer residents of Buckhorn left this morning on a trip to Seattle where he will visit some of his family who have made their home out there. The old gentleman has seen at least 75 years roll by and this is the first time he has been on a railway train. In fact he has very seldom been outside his native county. He was enthusiastic over the prospects of his long journey and look forward to a very pleasant time. He could see in his imagination great pictures of the west, of which he has heard so much and he could hardly wait until the train was to get started. He will be away a couple of months.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH THREATENED HIS LIFE.

Finds Prompt Relief In Pe-ru-na, the Reliable Catarrh Remedy.

PROF. ALBERT J. SMITH.

A PROMINENT PROFESSOR OF DANCING, WELL-KNOWN IN AUSTRALIA, LONDON AND CANADA, RELATES HIS WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE WITH THE USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Albert J. Smith, the well-known professor of dancing, formerly of Ferndale Academy, Paddington, Sydney, after touring London and Canada, has now located in Carlton, Victoria, (Australia) at 485 Cardigan street.

He writes to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio, (U. S. A.), regarding his use of Peruna, as follows:

"I was troubled with catarrh of the stomach for a number of years, which finally resulted seriously.

"It was when the disease was at its worst and I could not sleep, eat nor work that I began using Peruna and found that it was doing me good every day.

"My stomach began to feel much better, my appetite increased, and I did not feel so nauseated upon rising in the morning.

"My bowels were soon in better condition, my sleep undisturbed, and the catarrh gone.

"Peruna is a perfectly wonderful medicine and I certainly recommend it for catarrh."

Some years ago it was thought that catarrh was confined to the head and nose. However, all the respiratory and digestive organs are lined by mucous membranes, and catarrh will attack these membranes at any point.

The most reliable remedy for catarrh, no matter where located, is Peruna, an internal, systemic catarrh remedy. It has proven its efficacy by years of use in thousands of families.

Cobourg Here Saturday; Fast Game is Assured

The Cobourg baseball team are coming to Peterborough on Saturday to meet the locals in a Midland League game. Harry Burridge arranged the transfer of the game while in Cobourg yesterday, and local fans can look forward to a contest brim full of excitement. Peterborough was to have gone to Cobourg Saturday and the southerners were to have played here a week later, but owing to the Polson Iron Works excursion here on Saturday of this week a transfer of the games was arranged. Port Hope, Cobourg and Peterborough are all in the running for the championship, each team having three losses. Port Hope has eight wins, Cobourg six and Peterborough five, but the locals have four games to play, whereas Cobourg has only three and Port Hope one. If Peterborough can win the three games from Cobourg and also defeat Port Hope, Manager Johnson's swatsmiths will have the championship. If they can defeat Cobourg twice and also defeat the present league leaders they will be tied with the Port Hopers for first place.

Cobourg has to defeat Peterborough to stay in the running and they are bringing up their strongest team on Saturday. This will be the first time these teams have met this season, and as both are playing great ball the contest should be one of the best of the season. The locals will practice steadily this week in preparation for the game and will go on the field in the best of shape. Quinlan will be on the rubber, with Burridge behind the bat.

At the meeting of the league at Cobourg yesterday Oshawa was thrown out for having defaulted a game to Cobourg. Several other matters were discussed, including an umpire for the Peterborough-Cobourg game here on Saturday. It is likely that Weeks of Bowmanville will handle the indicator.

Peterborough goes to Cobourg a week from Saturday and to Port Hope the Saturday after that. Excursions will be run to both places.

Crushed to Death by Fly Wheel

Tweed, July 23.—Joseph Chambers, an engineer at the sulphite mines near here, was fatally crushed in a fly wheel last evening. Chambers had shut off steam and had put his head and shoulders between the spokes to tighten a bolt, when the wheel slightly turned and crushed the man, so that he died in a few minutes. He leaves a widow and eight children.

AN APPEAL MAY BE ASKED FOR

Annie Davey's Husband is Here and Sees a Lawyer

Richard Davey, husband of Annie Davey, who was sentenced to a year in the Mercer reformatory, as a result of the raid by the police at 24 Parnell street, has arrived in the city from Winnipeg. He was a caller at the police station today and also saw a lawyer in connection with the matter. It is learned that he will endeavor to have Magistrate Dumble's opinion set aside as he is of the opinion that she did not deserve the sentence that was imposed on her.

The lawyer whom Davey consulted was as dumb as the proverbial oyster when spoken to regarding the matter but it was learned from an outside source that the above action was likely to be taken.

WEDDING BELLS

DAVIS—ALLAN

A quiet wedding took place at 505 Aylmer street this afternoon when Miss Jessie I. Allan, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Allan, was united in marriage to Mr. Amberson Davis, son of Mr. Wm. Davis of Young's Point. The ceremony took place at three o'clock and was performed by Rev. J. G. Potter in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bridal pair were unattended and the ceremony, though unmarked by display, was very pretty. The bride was attired in a handsome costume of navy blue taffeta silk.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding dinner was partaken of and hearty congratulations were tendered the happy bride and groom. They left on the 4.48 C.P.R. train for Regina, where they will reside. The bride received a large number of handsome presents—an evidence of her popularity.

Is Senator Cox Financing Big Colonization Project?

Reported That He is Backing the Salvation Army Scheme Which Has General Booth's Sanction—Some of the Details.

Toronto July 23.—It transpires that during his recent visit to Canada General Booth approved of the plans of local Salvation Army officers for a colonization scheme in New Ontario. On the occasion of the General's stay in Toronto there was published an outline of the proposition as then made by the Salvation Army to the Government. It is now said that the interested parties have practically agreed on the following terms:—

The Government to sell to the Salvation Army ten townships in the great clay belt, comprising some 230,000 acres. The land is in the districts of Nipissing and Algoma, north of the height of land. The price to be 25 cents per acre. The payment of the same to be spread over a period of ten years, without interest.

The Army to locate 144 settlers on every township—each having usual sized homestead, 160 acres. These settlers are to be under the supervision of Canadians experienced in clearing land for agricultural purposes, as well as of officials of the Army trained in settlement work.

It is surmised that the Army will sell the homesteads to the settlers at reasonable rates on easy terms as to time, so that eventually the settlers will have bought their own land, and the Army will have carried out one of its great principles in giving every man a chance to do something for himself. All the settlers will be selected with great care, both as to physical qualities and aptitude for agricultural life. The land on which they will be located will be tapped by the Transcontinental and T. & N. O. railways.

In connection with the project it is reported that Hon. Senator Cox has agreed to loan to the Salvation Army a sum in the neighborhood of $50,000. The Senator is out of town for a few days and a reporter was not, therefore, able to obtain a personal confirmation. It is known, however, that the plan had been hanging fire for some time, failing the raising by the Army of an amount which they deemed necessary to have in hand prior to entering upon it, in order that the chances of success would not be destroyed by a poor start financially. Recently it was reported that strong financial backing had been secured in Toronto from a gentleman who had great confidence in the Army and its methods and The Globe was assured last night that this was none other than Senator Cox.

WATCH THE MOON TO-NIGHT

Look out for the eclipse of the moon to-night.

Of course it is not going to cause you any harm, but it will be an interesting sight if the heavens are clear, so keep your eye on luna about ten o'clock.

The moon will only be partially eclipsed, but it will be interesting to watch just the same. The beginning of the eclipse will be visible generally in Central and Western Europe, Africa, South America, except the northwest portion, and the end visible generally in Western Africa, South America and North America, except the peninsula of Alaska.

Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville, has kindly furnished the Review with the exact time of the different phases of the eclipse at Peterborough, as follows:—

Moon enters penumbra 8.58.7.
Moon enters shadow 10.3.7.
Middle of eclipse 11.22.4.
Moon leaves shadow 12.41.1.
Moon leaves penumbra 1.46.

Penumbra means "partial shadow," and is caused during an eclipse by the shadow of the earth's atmosphere. The penumbra is not visible to the naked eye. The "shadow" is the reflection of the body of the earth on the moon. When the sun is eclipsed there is no penumbra as the moon has no atmosphere.

No doubt to-night's eclipse will attract a great deal of interest, especially to the members of the Astronomical Society, of which there is a flourishing branch here.

Wandering Musician Makes Boast About His Instrument

Says Harp Was Played Before Queen Victoria and Was Worth $1,000 When New—Offered to Sell it for $250

"That harp when new was worth $1,000 and was played before Queen Victoria at Buckingham Palace."

This was the statement made by a travelling harpist, who drifted into Peterborough yesterday and made a round of the hotels last night, playing for what might be given him. He was accompanied by a boy about twelve years of age, whom he said was his son and who passed the hat around to take up the nickles. The music turned out by the harpist as he thumped the gutted strings was good, unusually good, and the coins came the way of the player in a manner that must have pleased him greatly.

"Yes, gentlemen, that harp was worth $1,000 when it was new," the harpist explained, as he left his instrument to lean upon the bar for a drink. "That harp was one of the best in England and was played before Queen Victoria at Buckingham Palace several years before her death. But I'll sell it for $250 if anybody here wants to buy it."

The harp looked to be a good one alright but no one produced the necessary 250 greenbacks and no sale was made. To enquiries that were made the travelling musician stated that he had been willed the harp by a female relative who had died in Brantford. This woman was of English birth and had brought the harp with her to Canada. It appeared to be of much better quality than the instruments usually in the possession of wandering musicians and there might be something in the story that it was played before the late Queen Victoria. Strange things happen sometimes. Whether it was so or not, the harpist picked up a lot of loose change in Peterborough and no doubt will pay the city a return visit sometime.

One Member of the Gang of Tramps is in Custody

One of the gang of tramps who have been hanging around the city for some time, is now in the cells. Jas. Hardy is his name, and he was taken in charge by the blue coats yesterday afternoon. Monday night the police were notified that two or three criminal looking characters were loitering around in the vicinity of the corner of Park and Sherbrooke streets, and the people living in that locality were alarmed. An officer was despatched to the scene, but the hoboes had decamped and there was nothing doing. The police got on the trail, however, and yesterday afternoon one of the gang was arrested and placed in the cells.

This morning he came up in the police court before City Clerk Armstrong, who presided in the absence of Magistrate Dumble. Jas. Hardy is about [illegible] years of age, and was charged with having no visible means of existence and of wandering around without a place of abode. Hardy is about 35 years of age and is not at all an attractive personage. He apparently had not had a shave and a bath, or even a good wash, for some time, and certainly does not belong to the class of citizens Peterborough wants.

He pleaded not guilty to the charge against him. Constable Adams testified that Hardy had been loitering around the corner of Charlotte and Park streets, and also in Ashburnham. He had been sleeping out at nights and had no visible means of support.

The Acting Magistrate thought that it would be advisable to have evidence from some of the people who saw the gang of tramps at the corner of Charlotte and Park streets and enlarged the case until Monday.

This was the only case on the docket

COURT STANLEY IS PROGRESSING

Welcome News Received in Connection With Insurance Matters

The regular meeting of Court Stanley, A.O.F. was held last night in the S.O.E. hall. There was a fairly good attendance of members.

Bro. T. Hendry, C. R., was in the chair. Two candidates were duly initiated and one proposition was received for membership.

The court is still going ahead adding new members at every meeting. Bro. Secretary R. J. McWilliams had a pleasing letter to read to the policyholders in the insurance branch of the order in reference to the cash surrender or bonuses added to the policy. The present time being the end of the period of five years when the profits of the policy-holders are divided. This is the first time in the history of fraternal insurance that such a thing has occurred. It is extremely gratifying to members of the A.O.F. that this is the only society doing business on the straight life plan and sharing the profits with its members in Canada.

One member who has just returned from Montreal and other towns, Bro. T. Noakes, said the fact of the order being world-wide was vividly exemplified to him, in that both here and abroad he had no difficulty in obtaining admission into other and foreign courts. He was treated everywhere as well as at home. Several other members gave addresses and Chief Ranger Bro. T. Hendry, gave the newly elected members some encouraging remarks, hoping that they would attend the meetings regularly.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO PETERBORO' MAN

Christian Guardian's Appreciative Reference to Rev. Dr. Speer

The Christian Guardian of this week contains an excellent cut of Rev. Dr. J. C. Speer of Brampton, president of the Toronto Conference.

Dr. Speer is a native of Peterborough and has spent his summer holidays at Chemong Park for some years. He is a brother of Mrs. R. A. Hamilton of this city. The Guardian says,—

"On our first page this week, appears the picture of Rev. James Charles Speer, the new president of the Toronto Conference. Mr. Speer is of Scotch-Irish parentage, and was born in the County of Peterborough, Ont. His people were pioneers in the section, and for many years his father's house was the preacher's home. The section was certainly somewhat remarkable. From it came many preachers, the three Dewarts, the two Spences, Dr. Hannon, two of the Lewis family, Prof. Stephenson, and Dr. Speer. There was never a hotel in the vicinity, never a public crime committed and never any but Methodist preaching. Dr. Speer attended Wesleyan College and McGill, taking the Ald. Hood prize for oratory, and in 1903, he received his degree of D.D. from Wesleyan. He has been chairman of five different districts. His early ministry was spent by choice in Manitoulin Island, and Muskoka, where he learned something of pioneer life. Since then he has ably filled some of the most important pulpits in his conference. He is also well-known throughout Canada and in the United States as a popular lecturer. His consecration ability, and usefulness in the pulpit and in the church at large, have been fittingly recognized by his brethren in his recent election to the presidency of the Conference.

Band to-night at Jackson Park.

Improvements to Mark St. Church

Joint Meeting of Trustees Held —Ladies Aid Society Thanked

At a joint meeting of the trustees of the Mark street church, and of the Mark street parsonage held recently, it was decided to make several improvements to the walk and lawn in front of the church and manse. A new pavement has been put down on the street in front of the church and as it is outside the tree line it is necessary that the walks leading to the church and to the parsonage be added to in order to join the new pavement. The fence between the church and the Minister's home will also be taken down and the lawn surrounding the premises fixed up generally. The work will be commenced at once, the secretary being instructed to call for tenders.

A resolution of thanks was also passed to the Mark Street Ladies' Aid Society for the splendid work they have done during the year in looking after the church and manse and the valuable assistance they have given.

The meeting was of unusual interest being the first session of the trustees, during the pastorate of the new minister, Rev. Mr. Coon.

Many Pilgrims at St. Anne de Beaupre

Large Increase in the Number Carried by Rail

Many citizens from Peterborough and vicinity are at present, at the Shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre. In view of this the following figures as to the number who have gone on pilgrimages, so far this year will be of interests. The visitors have been greater in number than any ever before recorded and the shrine grows in popularity every year.

The Grand Trunk claims an increase of thirty per cent. in the number carried. Last year the number of pilgrims to the village shrine on the banks of the St. Lawrence numbered nearly 200,000. It is believed that the total this year will approach a quarter of a million.

The Canadian Pacific gives as the full number carried over their system to the shrine 14,000. Between 5,000 and 6,000 were from the City of Montreal. It is expected that before the close of the season the total will aggregate [illegible].

Inspector D. Walker Has Been Offered Important Position

Asked by the Department of Education to Accept an Appointment as Normal School Teacher—He Will Likely Take the Position.

Mr. D. Walker, B.A., Inspector of Public schools for Peterborough, has been offered a position as a Normal school teacher and it is likely that he will accept the appointment. He has not yet decided definitely what he will do, but as the new position will be more remunerative than his present one and will give scope for a wider exercise of his talents it is likely that Mr Walker will accept.

The following despatch from Toronto will be of interest in connection with this matter:—

"It was officially announced yesterday that the new Provincial Normal Schools would not be ready for opening until September, 1908. The three existing Normal schools at Toronto, London and Ottawa have been reorganized and new appointments have been made to each of them. Of the following two will go to each of the three schools as assistants:—S. J. Radcliffe, B.A., Principal of the London Collegiate Institute; S. A. Morgan, B.A., D. Paed., English master in the Hamilton Collegiate Institute; D. D. Moshier, B.A., B.Paed., public inspector for West Lambton; D. Walker, B.A., inspector of public schools, Peterborough; J. Silcox, B.A., D. Paed., inspector of public schools, St. Thomas; J. F. Power, M.A., inspector separate schools, London.

It is understood that the appointments to the new normal schools will not be made for some months. There is no foundation for the statement which has appeared in some of the Toronto papers that an inspector of public school inspectors is to be appointed according to authorities of the department. Mr. Cowley's name has been unwarrantably associated with the subject. Mr. Cowley's official position is that of inspector of continuation classes."

Mr. Walker has received official notice from the Department of Education offering him the appointment, but no information was given as to where he would be located, whether at Ottawa, London or Toronto. It is understood that the reason why the staffs of the three schools above referred to are being strengthened is on account of the closing of the Model schools in the province. As was announced at the time it was decided to build the new Normal schools, the Model schools are to be close and the work which they have been doing will be done at the Normal schools.

The educational interests of Peterborough will sustain a severe loss if Mr. Walker decides to accept the position which has been offered him. He has been an ideal inspector and during the eight or ten years he has held that position in Peterborough the public schools have made great progress, their efficiency has been increased and harmony has reigned in all quarters. The members of the Board of Education realize the fact that they will have hard work to secure a man who can fill Mr. Walker's place with equal satisfaction. However, they appreciate the fact that Mr. Walker's ability has been recognized and that he has been honored by the offer of such an important position.

If he accepts the appointment offered him he will commence his new duties when the Normal schools open for the fall term.

Lindsay Man Arrested on Charge of Attempting to Defraud

Chief of Police Vincent of Lindsay arrived in Toronto last night, and will return on the 7.55 a.m., train today, says the Mail and Empire, taking with him Wm. Cartmill, who was arrested at Lamaton on Tuesday by County Constable Burns. Cartmill is wanted in connection with the Moss and Henry case, in which conspiracy to defraud is alleged. Henry and he are said to have conspired to defraud the man Moss. Henry owned a farm near Kinmount, and negotiated the sale of it to Moss, alleging that it contained veins of gold and seams of coal. Cartmill is said to have put his signature and seal to certain documents which were deposited as security in the deal, and in this way became involved in the matter.

SMALL CYCLONE AT QUEENSBORO'

The electrical storm which passed through the greater part of the Province last Saturday, was especially severe at Queensboro. Hail fell in many places, but for about half a mile on the east side of that village it fell in pailfulls and did great damage. Many stones were the size of butternuts and some resembled pieces of ice. The corn and hay crops and even the potatoes were ruined. Young chickens were killed and other damage done. Twenty-two panes of glass were broken in the Presbyterian church and many panes in private houses. The lightning was severe and a few trees were struck and splintered, but no further casualties occurred. People agree that it was the worst storm of its kind known to have visited the village.

The O. and N.Y. railway employees held their annual excursion on Saturday, to Cornwall.

Eager Throng Waited All Night For the Arrival of Steamer

Pathetic Scenes When Columbia Survivors Were Landed.

Sixty-Seven People From the Ill-Fated Steamer Reach Astoria — Anxious Throng Waited All Night—No Lifeboats or Rafts Picked Up—Ninety-Three Are Unaccounted For—Attired in Misfit Garments.

Astoria, Ore., July 25.—The steamer George W. Elder arrived here yesterday morning, having on board 67 survivors of the wrecked steamer Columbia. The George W. Elder did not sight any of the missing rafts or boats of the Columbia, and picked up none of the victims after leaving Eureka.

All night long an eager throng waited on the docks for the steamer. Hundreds of friend and relatives of the survivors came from Portland and various towns on Oregon and Washington to greet their loved ones.

Shouts of greeting went back and forth as the Elder came to her dock, and cries of "How are you?" and "Are you all right?" and punctuated now and then with the cry of a mother or father appealing for news.

There were pitiful scenes when it was learned that the Elder had picked up none of the Columbia's life boats or rafts. All hope had departed for some, and they slipped away from the merrymakers to hide their sorrow best they might. It was a curious crowd that thronged down the gangplank, attired in all sorts of misfit garments.

On the dock every possible demonstration of joy continued for many hours. Some were overcome by the excitement of the meeting, and a number of women fainted. The people of Astoria distributed flowers, hot coffee and other good things plentifully to the survivors.

A revised list of the passengers shows 108 saved and 77 missing. Of the officers and crew forty were saved and 16 are missing. This makes a total of 93 unaccounted for.

Storm Caused Much Damage; Severe Electrical Visit

Played Havoc in Niagara Peninsula and Western Ontario.

Two Boys Shocked—Barns Burned In Beamsville and Elgin County—Trees Leveled In Pickering—Two Sailing Vessels Reported to Have Foundered Off Cleveland — Many Lives Were Imperilled.

Toronto, July 25.—A severe electrical storm visited the Niagara Peninsula, Western Ontario and the south shore of Lake Erie last evening. It had its effect in Toronto, when the car service was crippled between 6 and 6.30, owing to the absence of Niagara power, which was affected by the storm.

Two Boys Shocked.

At London the storm caused considerable damage, and almost resulted in the death of two days. Walter Claght of Park avenue and John Matthews of Empress avenue were in Victoria Park when the storm broke and sought shelter under a tree. A lightning ball struck the tree and both boys were knocked to the ground unconscious and their clothes were set on fire. Their moans were heard, and people running in their direction found them lying on the ground with their apparel on fire. The flames were smothered and the lads were carried to the home of Senator Coffey, where Dr. Eccles found that they had been terribly burned. Both will recover. Two Springbank cars collided in a rear end smash at the pump house during the storm. The crews and several passengers had narrow escapes. The cars were badly smashed.

Barns Burned.

Electrical storms played over the County of Elgin during the afternoon and did much damage. A barn at Hillcrest, Port Stanley, was destroyed, the damage amounting to $1,500, and another barn in East Elgin was reported in ruins.

At Beamsville, Price Conkle's fine barn, filled with new hay, was struck by lightning and burned.

At Brantford lightning was blamed for a fire in R. Robson's store on Water street. The loss was small.

At Pickering a terrific thunderstorm leveled trees and telegraph poles. The village school was struck by lightning and a hole two feet square burned in the roof. The fire was distinguished by the villagers. The wire connection and electric lighting was cut off for several hours.

Damage at Cleveland.

People at a summer resort on the lake just east of Cleveland, Ohio, reported that they saw two small sailing vessels foundet during the height of the storm. As soon as possible launches were sent out to the scene of the supposed wrecks, about three miles off shore. The launches searched in vain for wreckage. The lifesavers expressed the belief that the people on shore saw the two vessels disappear in the mist during the storm, and erroneously supposed they had foundered.

Many lives were, however, imperilled and thousands of dollars of damage was done in Cleveland itself by the storm. While the city was enveloped in almost total darkness for fifteen minutes, trees were uprooted, small buildings blown down, and all the loose and lighter structures along the lake front and at the amusement parks were blown from their places and smashed to pieces. Lightning struck numerous buildings.

At Middlemarch, near St. Thomas, there was almost a hurricane. A big barn owned by Barnes Bros., proprietors of the Iroquois Hotel, St. Thomas, was blown over and 35 loads of hay lost; loss $3,000. The gable of the Methodist Church was blown off and the driving sheds damaged. George Stratton's barn was damaged, and tree and fences blown over.

DARROW APPEALS FOR LABOR.

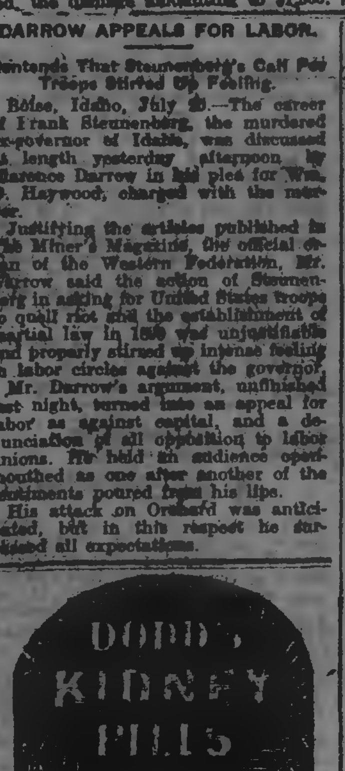
Contends That Steunenberg's Call For Troops Stirred Up Feeling.

Boise, Idaho, July 25.—The career of Frank Steunenberg, the murdered ex-governor of Idaho, was discussed at length yesterday afternoon by Clarence Darrow in his plea for Wm. D. Haywood, charged with the murder.

Justifying the articles published in The Miner's Magazine, the official organ of the Western Federation, Mr. Darrow said the action of Steunenberg in asking for United States troops to quell riot and the establishment of martial law in 1899 was unjustifiable and properly stirred up intense feeling in labor circles against the governor.

Mr. Darrow's argument, unfinished last night, turned into an appeal for labor as against capital, and a denunciation of all opposition to labor unions. He held an audience openmouthed as one after another of the sentiments poured from his lips.

His attack on Orchard was anticipated, but in this respect he surpassed all expectations.



Anti-Dynamite Movement.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The Novoe Vremya yesterday publishes details of an alleged anti-dynamite movement in Southern China, ascribing it to Japanese instigators, who, the paper says, are busily preparing for the Manchu dynasty in China the same fate which has overtaken the Emperor of Korea.

The apprehensions of The Novoe Vremya regarding the re-opening of the far eastern question are fully shared in Russian military circles, where the steady armament of China and Japan is viewed with alarm.

Big Strike in Galt.

Galt, July 25.—Because, in finishing up a job at the C. Turnbull's factory extension, a non-union man was hired, the masons and bricklayers were ordered out and the trouble has extended to carpenters, plumbers, and, in fact, all the departments of the building trade.

The trouble arose from the hiring of a quarryman to take the place of another laborer who had been knocked off.

Joint Tariff Agreements.

Ottawa, July 25.—The railway commission has sent out an order to railway companies asking for a return showing all joint tariff arrangements in force with other roads, the junction points of same and asking for reasons, if any, against the extensions of tariffs to other roads.

Will Make Money.

Ottawa, July 25.—Dr. James Bonar, master of the Canadian branch of the Royal Mint, has arrived from England and takes charge at once of the arrangements for the completion of the Mint in Ottawa, which is to be in operation before the close of the present year.

FRAUD NIPPED IN THE BUD.

Kingston Merchants Saved From Depredations of Live Swindlers.

Kingston, July 25.—During the past two days this city was visited by a couple of clever swindlers.

They put up at a hotel, registering as Frank Lloyd and wife. The first move in the game was by the man, who visited the Y. W. C. A. rooms and obtained the president's address. But after his departure those present remembered hearing of a swindle in St. Thomas worked ostensibly for the Y. W. C. A., so a word of caution was sent to the president. The man in due time made his appearance, represented himself to be getting out an attractive booklet in aid of the Y. W. C. A. Endorsation was, of course, refused temporarily.

The next place visited was the home of the women's national council, to whom he made the same representations, only substituting W.N.C. for Y.W.C.A. Here the swindler was successful in getting the president's endorsation.

The man and his companion then went to work at their "scheme." The merchants were visited and informed that they were getting out a booklet for the W.N.C. and advertisements were solicited, the "dummy" being divided into spaces, the charge for each being $5. Orders were numerous. After this a printing office was visited and arrangements made for the printing of the booklet.

The payment was to be made by an order on the president for the money. The merchants were to be asked to pay the canvassers, and with the money in their pockets they would quietly slip to other places, but the police were notified of their movements in the west and soon after their arrival they were shadowed.

They must have realized the situation, as they left this city Tuesday night.

G.T.R. NEW ROLLING STOCK.

Sixty Passenger Coaches, 100 Engines and 4,500 Freight Cars.

Montreal, July 25.—With the daily delivery of engines, passenger coaches and freight cars, the Grand Trunk Railway is rapidly approaching the day when the last of nearly $7,000,000 worth of rolling stock will have been received by them during the present year. There were in all about 60 passenger coaches ordered, costing about $12,000 each, laid down in Montreal, which makes a total of $720,000. Thirty of these have already been delivered.

There were 100 engines ordered, and of these 60 have been received. The average cost is $15,000 each, or an aggregate of $1,500,000.

The tremendous increase in freight traffic may be imagined by the delivery of 4,500 up-to-date cars. The order was for 5,200, and the average cost is $850 each, so that the great sum of $4,420,000 is being spent for freight cars alone.

THE CONSERVATIVE WINS.

Mayor McKeown of Orangeville Elected to Legislature by 100 Majority.

Orangeville, July 25.—Mayor C. R. McKeown (Conservative) was yesterday elected to the Legislature for the County of Dufferin, by a majority of 100 over J. R. Woods (Independent). Three of the polling places gave the latter the significant majority of 23. The majority of the late Dr. Lewis was 292.

The result was in doubt until the last returns were received, and as a consequence the excitement ran high.

The mayor addressed the electors from the balcony of the Queen's Hotel when his election was assured. He promised impartial representation.

The prohibition end of the fight was lost sight of in the campaign, which was "the lawyer against the farmer," and the cry became a serious one in the county.

MINERS FOUND STRANDED.

Men From St. Kitts Refused to Work In Coniagas Mine.

Cobalt, July 25.—Nearly 25 men were found stranded in Cobalt yesterday, because they refused to go to work on the Coniagas Mine after the company had paid their fares from St. Catharines to Cobalt.

Part of them are union men, but believed the strike was over. Finding it was not, they would not become strike-breakers. As a result they are now without means of getting back to their homes. Some of the party are married men.

The company is still holding their baggage.

Postcards for Roosevelt.

New York, July 25.—From all parts of the country President Roosevelt has, during the past few days, received postal cards urging him to re-consider his determination of 1904 and accept another nomination for the Presidency.

They are rather elaborately printed, containing a picture of the White House, under which is the inscription: "Uncle Sam will renew the lease."

Fatality at Midland.

Midland, July 25.—Yesterday morning J. G. Fellows was working on the G.T.R. track as a section hand, and stepping off one track to allow an engine to pass, he stepped in front of the car, which was an instant later struck by an engine coming from the opposite direction, and he was killed instantly.

THE MANITOBA CROP.

If Present Prices Hold Farmers Will Do Better Than Last Year.

Ottawa, July 25.—Dr. Wm. Saunders, director of experimental farms, has returned from his tour of inspection of Manitoba and the west.

He says the area in which partial failure is expected, owing to drought, is a restricted one, and on the whole, after a careful review of the situation, he believes that there will be a three-fourths crop.

With wheat at its present price this will mean a larger cash return to the farmer than he received for the crop of last year.

Even should some of the late sown grain become frosted it will fetch a price almost as high as was obtained for good wheat last season.

Miserly Recluse Murdered.

Amsterdam, N.Y., July 25.—Wm. E. McLachlan, a recluse living on a small farm in Crane's Hollow, a few miles from this city, was found dead on the floor of his home by a neighbor with eight stab wounds in his body.

McLachlan, who was estimated to be worth $75,000, lived alone in a miserly way and made something of an income from repairing clocks and guns.

Boy Struck By Lightning.

SHOOTS FRIENDS.

Crazy New Yorker Slays Girl and Eludes Pursuers.

New York, July 24.—Miss Esther Norling, aged 27, was shot and almost killed early yesterday, it is alleged, by Charles Warner, her former employer, as she was entering an uptown haberdashery store, where she was employed as a bookkeeper. Warner, it is charged by the police, fired several shots at A. R. Spicer, the manager of the store, while affecting his escape. He fled to the sporting goods store of Spalding and Company, and although twenty policemen surrounded the building and searched it thoroughly no trace of him could be found.

A messenger boy saw Warner running with a revolver, and picking up a brick threw it at the fleeing man. The brick struck him in the back. Angered, Warner turned and fired at the messenger boy. The bullet went wild.

On the second floor of the Spalding building the fleeing man turned and fired his last shot at the policeman. His aim was bad. Then he stepped out on the fire escape and got down to the ground, walked to the rear of a building in West 43rd street and passed through the basement to the street.

Several hours later Warner appeared at the hat store of John C. Wilson at 2,465 Broadway and asked Wilson, whom he knew, for a loan of $10. When Wilson turned to get the money Warner shot him in the back and right arm.

Warner then fled from the store, brushing aside the employes who attempted to bar his way, but upon reaching the sidewalk he was intercepted by a truckman, who struck him over the head with a cotton hook. Warner fell insensible, and was turned over to the police.

Wilson's condition is critical, and Warner's injury may also prove fatal.

Warner, who is about 55 years old, had been calling almost constantly for Miss Norling each evening, and she had complained that his attentions had annoyed her.

Warner, it is said, was partly crazed from a business failure two years ago.

WRECKED AND BURNED.

Loss of Steamer Ptarmigan on Columbia River With 100 on Board.

Vancouver, B.C., July 24.—News has reached here of the wreck of the steamer Ptarmigan on the Columbia River between Golden and Windermere, with a hundred passengers on board.

The steamer collided with a rock or other obstruction, which was unknown to exist in the channel, tearing a hole in her hull, through which the water rushed. The steamer was beached, but a fire broke out and she was sunk. The passengers were saved.

HAVE LOST EVERYTHING.

Destitution Follows In the Wake of the Fire At Victoria, B. C.

Victoria, B. C., July 25.—The district burned Tuesday was yesterday being searched by those who have lost their homes, in a vain effort to locate valuables. In some instances owners are sifting the ashes in the hopes of finding the remains of jewelry.

The homeless are being cared for by friends. In some cases those who were burned out have lost everything they had in the world and are destitute. A subscription list has been opened and several thousand dollars is already subscribed.

Mayor Morley and the city council are being severely condemned for the inadequate facilities for fighting the flames, but the mayor is endeavoring to lay the blame on the fire department.

An investigation will be held on Friday evening, to consider the matter.

KILLED HERSELF WITH AXE.

Young Woman Commits Suicide While Delirious From Illness.

St. Catharines, July 25.—A strange death at Humberstone has been reported.

Anna Caroline Utz had been ill with typhoid fever, but declined to have any one sit up with her. Her father awoke early in the morning and sought his daughter's bedside to find that she was missing. The alarm was given and a search instituted and the missing girl was found in a semi-unconscious state in a close-by barn. Marks of violence were visible about her head and forehead and her hair was matted with clotted blood. A hatchet, with hair and blood upon it was found a few feet from the girl.

Dr. Neff was summoned and was attending the girl while on the way to her home when she expired.

It is believed the girl, while delirious, inflicted the wounds upon herself.

JAPANESE MAY ENTER.

Department Holds That It Is Powerless to Debar Them From Canada.

Ottawa, July 25.—In regard to the protest of R. G. MacPherson, M.P., of Vancouver, against the expected influx of Japanese from Honolulu, the Department takes the view that it is powerless to act in the matter.

Should any of the Japanese be found to belong to the criminal class or to be infected with disease they will be subject to the same penalties as other immigrants and liable to deportation, but so long as they are healthy and of good character there is no machinery under the law by which their entrance could be barred.

Redmond Will Oppose.

London, July 25.—In the House of Commons yesterday Premier Campbell-Bannerman presented a royal message proposing a special grant of $250,000 to Lord Cromer, who recently resigned the post of British agent and Consul-General in Egypt, in recognition of his services to that country.

William Redmond, Nationalist, announced the intention of opposing the voting of this sum.

Took Cramps While Swimming.

Brockville, July 25.—Claude, the second son of Charles Beyrl of Duane, contracted cramps while bathing in De Bat Pond and was drowned.

Three minutes after Claude sank from view the body was recovered. A doctor was immediately summoned, and for the next two or three hours every effort was made to revive the body, but without success.

Lighthouse on Clear Lake.

Young's Point, July 25.—The first lighthouse to appear in the Kawartha Lakes has just been erected on the western shore of Clear Lake and a short distance along Young's Point. The lighthouse has been placed here by the Government in order to protect steamboats coming down the lake on dark nights.

THE LONDON INQUEST

Searching Investigation Into the Cause of the Disaster.

Several of the Injured Represented by Counsel—Three Witnesses Placed Upon the Stand—Crown Attorney McKillop Has Mass of Evidence—Sole Purpose to Find Who Was to Blame.

London, Ont., July 25.—The inquest into the death of Willie Tambling, the Oxford street boy who was killed in the wreck of Reid's Crystal Hall, was begun in the court house here last night before Coroner MacLaren. A large crowd filled the room, showing the interest the people are taking in the all-important point of who is to blame for the wreck, the inquest being instituted solely for this purpose.

Every firm which suffered by the collapse, as well as the several people purchasing in the stores who were injured, were represented by legal talent.

Joseph Kerwin of Grand Rapids appeared for Peter Smirlies, the Greek who was the lessee of Reid's store. Maj. Judd appeared for McCallum & Westlake, photographers, whose premises were above the Brewster store and were destroyed, and David Mills for W. G. Wilson & Co., the contractors who were making the alterations to the Reid store.

Edgar Jeffrey was on hand for the Jeffrey estate, owners of the Brewster store; George A. Gibbons for W. J. Reid & Co., owners of the Crystal Hall; D. A. McDonald for the relatives of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tantum Howitt, killed in the Hamilton-Long store, and for Mr. and Mrs. Peters of St. John, injured with their baby in the same store, Ed. Weld, for the estate of the late W. T. Hamilton of Hamilton, Long & Co.

In the room were Alfred Gifford and F. Curran, both of whom were injured in the wreck.

The evidence was not important, only three witnesses being placed on the stand. Dr. George D. Wilson and Dr. A. V. Becher testified that young Tambling had died by being crushed to death, and F. H. Brewster, proprietor of the 5 and 10 cent store, swore that Tambling had been working for him the day of the accident and was killed in his store.

Crown Attorney McKillop then asked for an adjournment for a week and the request was granted. The jury will meet again in the court house next Tuesday night at 7.30.

Mr. McKillop explained that it will take fully another week to arrange his case from the mass of evidence which has been secured.

The first official notice of action for damages as a result of the Crystal Hall disaster was filed yesterday morning with the city clerk by Margaret Boyd, who was knocked down and injured while walking past the building.

MURDERED FOR HIS WAGES.

Englishman's Body Found In the River At Montreal.

Montreal, July 25.—That Peter Hemmans was done to death for his week's pay seems almost certain. He disappeared Saturday night and yesterday his body, with the mark of a blow on the forehead, was found in the river. He was paid Saturday, went straight to his boarding-house, where he opened his envelope and paid the landlady.

Then he called on a friend, and he left for home at 11 p.m., with some $12 on him, and was never seen again. When the body was found there was only nine cents in his pocket.

Deceased was an Englishman, recently arrived.

JAP CRUISERS IN FRANCE.

They Returned the Salute of the American Ships at Brest.

Brest, July 25.—The Japanese cruisers Tsukuba and Chitose, under the command of Vice-Admiral Ijuin, have arrived in this harbor. They returned the salute of the U. S. ships.

The crews of the Japanese cruisers are to be kept on board until further orders, and the American bluejackets also have been denied shore leave. Rear-Admiral Stockton explains that this restriction is customary on the day before warships leave port.

Drowning At Hamilton.

Hamilton, July 25.—Albert Stumble, 545 North Hughson street, aged 22, was drowned about 7.30 last evening in the bay. He went out in a rowboat with his brother and Thomas Garrett, 446 Mary street, and William Irwin, 548 Mary street. When a short distance out from the foot of Mary street, Stumble jumped into the water, saying he was going to swim to shore. After swimming a short distance he changed his mind and turned towards the boat. He sank. Two hours afterwards the body was secured by grappling irons.

A Gigantic Coal Strip.

Hazleton, Pa., July 25.—The Lehigh Valley Coal Co. has opened what is believed to be the largest stripping in the world. The coal is in a solid bed 1,200 feet wide, 30 feet in thickness and extends at least six miles.

It is estimated that were the company to take out 500 tons daily it would require 250 years to exhaust the supply.

Labor-Saving Device Illegal.

Pittsburg, July 25.—A long drawn-out dispute between the coal operators and miners over the use of the pate steam dump, a labor-saving device, has been settled. Judge Miller has decided that the introduction of the machine is a violation of the present scale agreement.

SEVEN TO ONE

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidentally killed as die of old age.

Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy.

FOUND IN THE DIGESTER.

An Employe of a Sulphite Mill Meets Horrible Death.

Brockville, July 25.—Speculation regarding the recent mysterious disappearance of Sylvester Makuski, aged 25 years, employed in the sulphite mill of the United Bag and Paper Co. of Ballston, is now at an end. A search revealed the bones and a piece of his shirt in the digester.

Makuski was employed shovelling chips into the 15-inch opening of the large digester in which the chips are mixed with sulphurous acid. He went to work at 7 o'clock in the morning as usual and continued to work until 11 o'clock at night for another employe. He did not return, and his father reported the disappearance at the mill.

BOYS DESTROY FLOWER BEDS

In Victoria Park While They are Looking for Fish Worms

A complaint has been sent to this office about boys hunting for fish worms in Victoria Park at night. In their enthusiasm to get the worms that are so tempting to the fish they tramp up and down the flower beds, destroying many plants and knocking off many blooms. The caretaker of the park says that if it is not stopped he will lay an information against the boys. This practice should not be permitted. The boys should know better than to destroy property, and if they do not know better the police court is a good school-house.

VULGAR MEN WERE BATHING

Without a Bathing Suit When Steamer Otonabee Was Rounding Burnham's Point

Many complaints are being made today by those who were on the steamer Otonabee on the trip to Burleigh Falls yesterday. When the big boat was making the turn around Burnham's point, there was some fifty men and boys in swimming, and very few of them had bathing suits on. This is strictly against the by-laws of the city, but aside from that it is the vulgarity and any man guilty of such a thing is unworthy of that name. Information was furnished the police force, and Constable Adams said this morning that he would watch the river and endeavor to bring some of the fellows before the Magistrate.

James Patterson, of Stamford, attempted to jump from the upper arch bridge at Majora Falls on Monday.

Fine Fat Fifty Dollar Fee Turned Out a False Alarm

Story of How a Local Lawyer Was Stung by Friends of His Clients—'Twas a Hard Blow to Stand.

There are rumors in the air that a prominent local lawyer was "stung" a few days ago, and stung in a manner that is bringing lines of care to the face of the aforesaid disciple of Blackstone. According to the tale unfolded to a Review representative by a friend of the gentlemen in question, the lawyer was engaged some time ago to act as counsel for some outside parties who had come within the grasp of the law in Peterborough. As the case progressed the lawyer worked diligently and pondered over the matter affecting his clients far into the stilly night. So far everything was lovely. But there came a day when two relatives of the parties who were in trouble and had come to Peterborough and had interested themselves in their behalf, made the announcement that they worre about to leave the city, and then the lawyer began to winder where his fee was going to come from. He had worked hard, and it pained him to think that sufficient remuneration might not be forthcoming. But at last his heart was made glad when one of the relatives of his clients called at his office and handed over a fine fifty dollar bill, telling him that it was "all for his own little self." A smile lit up the face of the gentleman of legal training as he shoved the paper that was good for a half hundred down into the pocket of his blue jeans. His labor had not been in vain. That fat fifty dollar fee was not to be despised.

But his exultation was short lived. High hopes were dashed to earth and it was demonstrated that that riches sometimes have stings as well as wings. Whisper it lowly, spring the tale slowly. When the barrister had occasion to spend his fifty dollar toadskin, to his intense disgust, horror, soreness bitterness and several other things too numerous to mention, he was informed that it was a counterfeit and not worth the price of a plugged Chinese cent. The lawyer's massive jaw dropped and has been dropped ever since. White hairs are finding their way among his auburn locks, and his friends are worried lest he should never smile again.

Doing Business Under Unusual Conditions at A. W. Cressman's

Thirty-Five Carpenters and Laborers Working on the Improvements to the Big Store—Every Flat is Up-side-down—Precautions Taken to Insure Safety

With the store upside down from cellar to garret, and with thirty-five carpenters, masons and laborers working in the building, the store of Mr. A. W. Cressman, is still open and the members of his staff are selling goods all the time. For several weeks the builders have been working on the extensive alterations to this large store, but this week the place is in perfect chaos. Walls are being taken down and large iron pillars put up; the old elevator has been taken out and a new one is being erected on the south side of the store. A new stairway is in course of construction on the south side, new shelving and fixtures are being put in; in fact, it looks as if the whole work of remodelling the four floors is being carried on at once. Mr. W. J. Johnston is the contractor and he is making things move as he wants to get his men out as quickly as possible and let Mr. Cressman get in shape for the fall trade.

In spite of the fact that old walls are being taken out and two stores are being thrown into one, the contractor has taken every precaution to prevent the slightest accident; as fast as a portion of the wall comes down a large iron pillar is placed under the ceilings to bear the weight. The building itself is very strongly built and when inspected was in the best possible condition. Therefore, the clerks are performing their duties without any fear and the public are flocking to the store as usual with no thought of an accident. Mr. Cressman has the confidence of the people and he selected a reliable man when he gave Ald. Johnston the contract.

As has already been stated business is being carried on just the same. The public have to put up with some inconvenience but the store is equalizing things by offering good values. The present condition will not last long. The carpenters are hustling and will get out as soon as possible. The Semi-Ready wardrobe is now being moved to its new quarters and Mr. Cressman expects it to be ready about Saturday of this week.

Lakefield Residents Also Annoyed by Weeds in Canal

And Have Something to Say on the Subject—Suit Against Village Constable Withdrawn—Old Resident Goes to Reward—Personal Notes.

Special to the Review.

Lakefield, July 23.—Mr. P. Unwin, of Cambridge University, England, arrived at Young's Point on Friday last, on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Hilton Jones.

Mr C S Tanner is greatly improving the property which he lately purchased from Mr. Gilbert Gordon. They are too many to mention. It will be sufficient to say that the place presents quite a renovated appearance.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Gilbert, who removed to Bobcaygeon this spring, is doing an excellent business in the boat building line at that point.

Miss Edwina Stubbs, of Peterborough, has been paying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gordon.

Miss Ruse, of Toronto, is in the village on a visit to her friend, Miss Clara Davis.

Rev. A. W. MacKenzie and his two young children, Kenneth and Wilfrid, are camping for a few days at the north end of Clear Lake.

Mr. C S Atwood went up to Stony Lake on Saturday last to pay a two days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lingwood, at "Kushagua."

Mr. E. R. Tate and party have been enjoying their visit so much at Burleigh that they extended their holiday for an extra week, returning to Lakefield on Monday last.

Miss Tate and Mrs. Hilliard took a round trip via Stony Lake one day last week, taking advantage of the moonlight to have a delightful drive home from Burleigh.

THAT WEEDY CANAL.

Something was said in The Review a few week sago about the bad state of the canal below Nassau. As the writer was one of the party who suffered disappointments by being unable to get to th elift lock on the occasion then referred to, he was interested in learning that others besides himself have suffered disappointments in the same way. Only a few days since, the son of a prominent Peterborough gentleman, who was trying to get his launch through to Stony Lake, was hindered from doing so by the weeds. Isn't it about time that the authorities moved in the matter, or is the canal meant only for the passage of larger craft than pleasure launches?

Messrs. Butchart, Casement, Bravender, Davidson and Strickland went up for a few days' outing round Stony Lake on Tuesday last.

SUIT WTIHDRAWN

The suit for slander, which was to have been instituted by Dr. J. N. Johnston, our local veterinary surgeon, against Mr. Wm. Doidge, the village constable, has been withdrawn, Mr. Doidge having made the "amende honorable," in the matter, and acknowledged that his judgment in regard to the physical condition of a horse is not strong enough to be pitted against that of experienced veterinary practitioners.

The St. John's church Sunday school excursion takes place per steamer Empress to Sand yPoint on Tuesday next.

Mr. Hazlitt an dMiss Hazlitt, of Peterborough, are spending a few days in the village, on a visit to Mr and Mrs. Roland Johnston.

Miss Beatrice Biewett, of Peterborough, is also in the village on a visit her aunt, Miss McKibbon.

Mr. Pratt, lately a master at the Grove School, passed through Lakefield on Saturday on his way to Bobcaygeon, where h eintends spending the remainder of his vacation. Mr. Pratt has bwen appointed to a position on the teaching staff of Trinity College School, Port Hope, and enters on his duties after the summer holidays.

Miss LeFevre left the village on Saturday for a visit to Toronto, where she will meet Mrs. Thomas Grieve, of Bracebridge, and Mr. Norman Grieve, who has just arrived from England, for a visit to his son, Mr. W. Grieve, at Vernon, B.C.

Mr. Leonard, of Des Moines, Iowa, who was a welcome visitor to Lakefield some six years ago, is again in the village on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. MacKenzie.

MORE LIGHT WANTED

Nothing is easier than to find fault with a party in power. Recognizing this, it is in no petty fault-finding spirit that we take expection to the action of the village council in persistently ignoring the wishes of residents living in the neighborhood of Mr Leggott's residence, for an electric light to be placed in that vicinity, as not only do Messrs. Leggott and Strickland pay a considerable amount of money into the village exchequer, but there is a cluster of houses immediately outside the village limites, whose owners benefit the Lakefield merchants largely, and whose comfort should certainly be considered in so paltry a matter. The mere non-payment of taxes on their part counts for very little against the amount that the village actually benefits by having their custom.

Those who take refuge in their antagonism to the requestf or a light at this point by saying that lamps should be placed where they do the greatest good to the greatest number, have nothing much to stand on this case, because the road and sidewalk are used as much or more than any of the other approaches to Lakefield. If some of the money that has been expended this year on one or two of the sidewalks that have been laid down, had been spent on the improvement asked for, more than one on the thoroughfares in question would have risen up and called the reev eand council blessed.

OLD RESIDENT GONE.

An old and respected resident of Smith, in the person of Mr. Stephen Nicholls, passed away on Sunday last. The funeral tookpl ace on Monday, July 22nd, the body being taken to the Lakefield cemetery for interment.

Mr. Bert Sherin, of the Baltimore News, is in the village visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sherin.

Mr. Gerald Fitsgerald is in Bobcaygeon visiting friends.

BIG CROWD WAS ON OTONABEE

Record Time Made on Trip to Burleigh Falls

The steamer Otonabee made a great run to and from Burleigh Falls yesterday. It was the first time the new steamer had been on the back waters and it carried about four hundred passengers. Necessarily the trip as far as Lakefield is slow on account of so many locks, but going through the lakes it made great time and the passengers thoroughly enjoyed the scenery. It is rumored that the Otonabee Navigation Company are contemplating running a weekly trip to Burleigh.

Excursion of the Durham Old Boys

It is understood that Messrs. Larkin & Sangster will put in a tender for the work. They had the contract for that section of the Trent Canal, between Kirkfield and the boundary road.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, July 25.—Stocks opened strong from 1-2 to 1 1-2 higher this morning. Southern and Union Pac. were the centers of activity, but B. R.T., Smelters and Reading were not far behind. London sent higher prices all around. The strength continued until about 11.30, when it was announced that the Southern Pac. dividend meeting scheduled for today had been postponed for a week and then the market reacted quite sharply. Conspicuous weakness was shown in the Eries, Steel and New York Central. S.P. lost over 3, but after noon the selling had subsided and when B.R.T. started upwards again to higher prices than before the market rallied as quickly as it sold off. It was expected the S. P. would be placed on a 7 percent. dividend basis and the postponement caused some disappointment and led to profit-taking.

During the last hour the list was disposed to sag again but another rise in B.R.T. firmed the rest up a bit and the close was firm but rather spotty.

It was their annual outing and they expected to have a jolly time.

BROKE THE LOCKS.

Mr. Moggridge got into a slight scrape at Fenelon Falls on Tuesday with the lockmaster. There was no one in sight when they wanted to lock through and they took the responsibility of engineering the Arrawanna through. In doing this a minor portion of the lock mechanism was broken, and it is said a diver had to be hired to remedy the break.

FORGOT FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Two girls were riding out Charlotte street on a street car. One said: "I wanted father to buy me a canoe, but he said no, that he would buy me a row boat because it was cheaper. I said it wasn't cheaper, because I knew that a canoe could be got for half as much. 'Oh,' but my father said, 'I know a canoe isn't cheaper because you must count the funeral expenses.'"

Much Building is in Progress In Township of Ennismore

Each School Will Have Neucleus of Library—Crops Are Looking Well—Stone Crusher Needed for the Township—Results of Entrance Exams—Other Notes

Ennismore, July 23.—Miss Gamble of Prescott is at present visiting Miss Winnie Young. Both are Knights of the Birch, having just completed their course at the Ottawa Normal school.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. John A. O'Donohue, teacher of the Continuation Class, who passed successfully his final exams at the Hamilton Normal College. Also to Misses C. Guiry, M. Young and M. M. O'Sullivan for fine success at the Ottawa Normal school and to the sixteen children who qualified themselves for High School standing, at the recent entrance exams.

Building seems to be all the rage just now and carpenters and masons are greatly in demand. Mr. Mich. Crough has just completed a barn 105 feet by 40 feet, which with the exception of John Young's is the largest barn in the township.

John Flood's new residence is nearing completion and will be a gem. Every modern convenience is provided—bath room, cistern, hot air, etc. John is one of the most progressive and earnest citizens and deserves all the comforts which his new home will afford.

The crops of the township never looked better and although the hay crop is somewhat lighter than last year the other crops will more than make up for any deficiency in the hay.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

A second floor is being added for Continuation Class work and will be used for the present in teaching chemistry and physics.

At a recent meeting of all the trustees of the township, it was decided to follow the advice and fully equip each school room. The neucleus of a library, worth in each case twenty dollars, maps, globes, dictionaries, scales, weights and measures, atlas, and geometrical forms will be provided, together with a suitable book case for each class room. The order has been placed, and all the necessary apparatus will be on hand before the re-opening of the schools.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. (Dr.) Moloney of Cornwall, and her three little children are at present visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Sollard.

Mr. Paul Costeue, jr., is enjoying a well earned holiday, having passed with honors his fourth year exam. at St. Michael's College, Toronto. This institution is rapidly coming to the front and the new rector, Rev. Father Roach, has already won golden opinions on all sides.

Mrs. Mich. Collins and daughter, of Ottawa, are spending their vacation at the home of Mrs. John Sollard.

The engagement is announced of Mr. John O'Gorman of Edmonton, Alta., and Miss Margaret O'Gorman of this township.

Next week, Mrs. John Carroll, and Misses Lottie Crough, and Loretta Kennedy, will leave on a trip to Chicago, to visit Mr. John Kennedy, Loretta's father.

STONE CRUSHER NEEDED.

What about a stone crusher for Ennismore? Our roads are bad, very bad, and broken stone is the only remedy, with a liberal use of the grader. Probably the council or some enterprising citizen would invest. No township should be without one. In respect to good roads we are behind our neighbors on all sides of us.

A large number left today on the annual pilgrimage to St. Anne de Beaupre.

Father McColl, rector of St. Peter's cathedral spent a few days last week, visiting Father Fitzpatrick and his former parishioners. Father McColl is a welcome visitor in Ennismore as his sterling work for nearly ten years is still remembered by all who knew him.

LAWN SOCIAL.

The annual excursion by water is a thing of the past, and in its place a lawn social will be held under the patronage and direction of the C.M. B.A., after the harvest has been garnered in.

RESULTS OF ENTRANCE.

The entrance examination on the whole, was most fair. However, the first question on the Written Reading, was to our way of thinking far beyond the capabilities of the ordinary entrance pupil, and should not have been considered. Here is the question, "The Poetry of earth is never dead, etc." Explain the above. Now no man, who pretends to understand the mental calibre of children of twelve or thirteen years should set such a foolish question. This is a fair question for advanced pupils, but for children it is arrant nonsense, especially when we consider that this passage is sight literature. Why sight literature at all? Is it fair to teacher or pupil? I fancy not. An examination should be a test of the work done, and the same work set for all, and the same proficiency demanded of each pupil. We have good public school readers, with admirable selections to choose from, and our pupils should be limited to these. We admire the few remarks on arithmetic made by Inspector J. C. Brown, after the list of successful candidates. We would like more such remarks on the other subjects. We thereby learn the weak points in our pupils. The examiners, after going through the work of nearly two hundred pupils, are in a position to give much valuable information to the teachers, and it should be done publicly through the press.

Our prospective butter and cheese factory remains in statu quo, with every prospect of continuing so.

NATIVE FLORIST.

A native florist, a great lover and student of botany, received some time ago a collection of flowering plants from Jordan Bros. Among the collection was a box of tomato plants, which our would-be botanist planted carefully, yet unconsciously, with the other plants in his flower garden. He is the only one in the township who does not suspect catsup.

The "Sailor Boy" brand of canned goods are the best that are put up. They never fail to please. Try a few cans.

Presentation to School Teacher

Miss Taylor of South Monaghan Remembered by Friends

On the eve of her departure from S. S. No. 5, South Monaghan, a number of friends assembled at the school to bid their teacher, Miss Taylor, farewell, and show their appreciation of her services by presenting her with a gold locket, chain and an opal pin, accompanied by a kindly-worded address.

Miss Taylor, although quite taken by surprise, made a very fitting reply, thanking the children and parents for their most handsome gift, and for the kind treatment received from the whole section. It would always be a pleasure for her to reflect on the years spent at S.S. No. 5, which were indeed the happiest and best in her life.

ADDRESS.

Dear Teacher,—It is with deep regret that we have learned that you are about to leave us. This school section, we feel, has enjoyed a signal advantage in having you as our teacher during the past three years and fully appreciate the kindly interest you have shown during your stay amongst us.

You have thrown yourself with untiring zeal into every department of the work and you have been eminently successful.

The young people of this community owe a debt of gratitude to you and feel that in your removal they have lost a friend.

For your many sterling qualities we have learned not only to admire but to love you.

It is therefore with feelings of sincere regret that we are assembled here this evening to bid you farewell. It is part of our pleasure on this occasion to ask your acceptance of this gift in token of the esteem in which you are held here.

In parting, we express the wish that Divine favor may follow you in your preparations for further service in the good work you are engaged.

Signed on behalf of S. S. No. 5.

Belleville to Have Isolation Hospital

Belleville has decided to build an Isolation Hospital, which will cost $10,350. Peterborough, a much larger city, has been talking of building one for several years, to cost $6,000 or $7,000. Belleville's hospital will be started at once, and after it is finished the committee in charge of the Peterborough hospital might go down and inspect. The Belleville Intelligencer, in reporting the Council meeting, says:—The special committee reported that it had had two sessions since the last regular meeting of the council, and, after consultation with the members of the Board of Health, and the architect, a modification of the plans of the proposed isolation hospital had been made. Mr. Dolan's contract price now was $10,350, and the committee recommended that it be accepted and a contract signed to that effect.

HER SKULL FRACTURED.

Miss Jennie Day of Cobourg Killed in a Runaway Accident.

Cobourg, July 25.—A distressing accident occurred near here, resulting in the almost instant death of Miss Jennie Day, for years a member of the public school staff.

Miss Day was one of a party of eight who had early in the evening driven to Coldsprings. On their return, about 10 o'clock, the horses became unmanageable in some way and ran away, throwing the occupants out and causing severe injuries to all the party. Miss Day tried to save herself by jumping. In alighting she struck on her head, causing a fracture of the skull, from which she died in a few hours.

DEATH AND DISASTER

It appears that half or more of the people do not live out their natural days, but meet with some untimely end.

Disaster seems to be walking through the land and finds victims on every side. Land and water each day claim a large quota of human lives. Accidents of an appaling nature are almost hourly occurring and sorrow is brought to an unusually large number of homes.

Within the past few days all have read of the collapse of a building in London the collision on the Pere Marquette railway in Michigan, and the steamship horror off the Californian coast. There have been numerous drownings fatal accidents deaths on the rail and other fatal risks. It seems that each day is a day of mourning for some, filled with heartrending tragedies and mishaps that take the beauty and sunshine out of many lives. Added to all this list casualties there are numerous suicides. The roll of death is increasing and the casualty chapter yearly growing longer.

When will there be a halt? When will deaths by violence cease? The list seems to be never ending. What causes so much suffering and sorrow? After all is it not due in a large measure to carelessness, lack of proper foresight and preventive measures?

Of course there will be accidents as long as the world lasts. There will also be indifferent and neglectful ones, who pursue a ship-shod course. There will be the fool who rocks a boat, the "smarty" who handles a gun carelessly, and the venturesome dare-devil fiend who loves to invite disaster.

Drowning, suicide and violent death are always with us and the long categories of catastrophies evidently awaken but little or merely passing interest on the part of those not directly effected or afflicted.

It is all very well to hold investigations and inquiries after the deed is done. These can prove of only small comfort in assuaging pain and grief.

All the recommendations and punishments in the world will not restore loved ones or bring the dead to life. The great mottoes still hold true that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and "forewarned is forearmed."

TRY SOMETHING NEW

When will foolish notices cease to appear in the daily press?

All the people are not gullible and the old ruses, which were successfully practised some years ago, must give place to the new.

In certain exchanges an advertisement of this character is frequently seen, "Will the person who took an umbrella or cane or something else, from such and such a place, kindly return the same and save further trouble as he (or she) was seen taking the article."

And sometimes the following is added, "If not returned within five days prosecution will follow."

Did anyone ever have an article returned by such an advertisement? If the person was seen taking it why on earth is that one not approached and told to hand over the purloined goods. The owner would be more apt to recover his lost property in this way than by inserting such a blind, thread-worn, farcical notice. It may have done service years ago, but it will not work today. Something more clever, more up-to-date must be adopted. Let a little detective ability be exercised and remember that people who will deliberately walk away with articles not belonging to them have ceased to be frightened by any dire mutterings that may appear in print. Yet such notices are inserted almost every week in certain papers, but history fails to record how many things have been restored to their rightful possessors by such means. The police state very few, indeed.

PEN POINTS

Another half holiday.

Did you see the eclipse of the moon?

The number of deaths by violence is daily increasing.

How quickly the summer is passing. This is the last Thursday half holiday in July.

Has the All-Red route been put to route?

Cheer up! Every cloud has its silver lining. The price of choice roasts of beef has gone down two cents.

If you cannot speak well of a person, do not malign that person. Content yourself by simply remarking, "The less said the better."

And still Inspector Ball has not had the results of the milk tests published. All things, they say, come in time, if you wait long enough.

Now the Canadian Premier will go to work and probably do a little cabinetmaking. He has plenty of material, but most of it is of very poor quality.

T. A. Young, of Hamilton, writes that the stationing committee of the Methodist Church is a hurt to the denomination. It certainly is to the feelings of some of the preachers.

Funeral processions when passing down the main streets of a city should not be extended at greater length than possible. All gaps should be closed. No one wants to deliberately cross while the funeral train is slowly winding its way yet if there is an opening there is great temptation on the part of some to do so. All respect and honor are shown the dead and the solemnities attached to last sad rites. If any disrespect is manifested it is perhaps the fault of those in charge of the arrangements—at least in many cases.

SAM WAINRIGHT CAN HAVE THE JOB

If He Will Accept $600 a Year—No New Telephones

In about an hour and a half the fire, water and light committee put through a lot of business, including a decision to engage Mr. Sam Wainwright as an engineer of the fire department again if he would be satisfied with $600 a year. If not, another man will be secured.

Those present were, Ald. Johnston, chairman; Ald. Bradburn, Duncan, Morgan and McIntyre and Mayor McWilliams.

A communication was received from Mr. Albert Wringer, the fireman hurt at the Peter Hamilton fire, asking for payment of $5.00 for medical expenses. On motion of Ald Duncan it was decided to pay the account.

The water commissioners wrote asking for a hydrant on the northwest corner of Bethune and King streets. The committee found that at Aylmer street and one at Stewart street, and considered that there was not sufficient necessity for placing one there.

Moved by the Mayor and Ald. Duncan, that the hydrant be not granted.

The police reported to the committee that lamps were out on several corners and the electric light company will be charged up with the cost.

COST OF WATER TOWER.

Some time ago the committee was instructed to ascertain the cost of a water tower, and last night Ald. Johnston received an answer. A 60-foot tower will cost from $5,300 to $[illegible], and a [illegible]-foot tower about $7,500. The matter will be reported to the council.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Ald. Morgan reported that the light on Hunter-st. at corner of Queen-st., was of little use for lighting purposes on account of the situation among the trees. The bridge, he said, on Hunter street, was badly lighted, and advocated an incandescent lamp in the centre. On motion it was granted.

The committee considered that the lights were not up to the standard in quality, and it was moved by Ald. Morgan and Mayor that Foreman Pakenham of the fire hall be asked to report as to whether lights of the Peterborough Light and Power Co. are according to contract or not.—Carried.

At the corner of Simcoe and Stewart street where the Board of Works is constructing a crossing, there is an electric light pole on the spot where the crossing is to be built. It was moved by Ald. Duncan and Bradburn that the Light & Power Co. be authorized to remove the pole to a place satisfactory to the city engineer.—Carried.

NO MORE TELEPHONES.

The question of telephones came up again. The chairman stated that Foreman Pakenham had placed a telephone in his house and wanted the city to pay for it. The committee however, decided that the city was not yet ready to put in more telephones and Mr. Pakenham will have to pay for his own telephone.

NEW ENGINEER.

The committee next took up the question of recommending the appointment of an engineer for the fire hall and steam road roller. Several applications were received, and after seriously considering them all it was decided on motion of Ald. Bradburn and Ald. Duncan that the chairman of the committee interview Mr. Wainwright and ascertain whether he will accept the old salary, $600. If he does, the committee will recommend his appointment to the council.

It was then suggested that the city clerk call up the fire hall and ask Mr. Wainwright about the salary. But Mr. Winwright was not there. The resolution was carried.

Moses Dupuis, of Windsor, a teamster, was killed by the wheels of his buggy passing over him.

C.P.R. May Build Foot Bridge Are Now Preparing the Plans

Trouble Again Between Dredge Foreman and Contractor Mahoney—But it Has Been Settled—Board of Works Deals With Several Little Matters

The Board of Works held a meeting last night after the Fire, Water and Light Committee adjourned. Several matters were put through and the business on the slate was cleaned up.

Those present were: Chairman Ald Duncan, Ald. McIntyre, Johnston, Morgan, Bradburn and Mayor McWilliams.

KICK FROM MR. SING.

Things have not been running smoothly with Contractor Mahoney, who is carting away the material from the dredge, and the foreman or superintendent of the dredging operations. It appears that one day Mr. Mahoney delayed the dredge 12 or 14 hours, and the chief engineer of the Dominion Public Works for Ontario, Mr. Sing, was informed, and he in turn complained to the City Council.

It appears that the time in question Mr Mahoney was in great trouble. A portion of the bank slid in and it took a long time to get the tracks straightened out again. Then more rails had to be secured, and the contractor hunted the city high and low, and finally secured enough to carry the cars from the derrick down to where the stuff is dumped. This is where the delay came in, and since then everything has been running all right, so far as the city contractor is concerned. On the other hand, Mr Mahoney has frequently been delayed for several hours, or half a day, by the dredge not supplying him with material. He has to pay his men by the day, and he is paid by the yard of material handled. Therefore, to lie around idle is not a profitable proposition, and on the whole the dredge foreman had, in the opinion of the Board of Works, little to complain about.

NEW FOOT BRIDGE

It will be remembered that in connection with the application received from the people of Ashburnham for a foot bridge over the river near the C.P.R. bridge, the city clerk was instructed to communicate with the C.P.R. and see if any arrangement could be made. A reply has been received from Mr. James Oborne, General Superintendent of the C.P.R., which makes things look much brigher. Mr. Oborne stated that he was having plans and specifications prepared for a foot bridge over the river on the south side of their bridge, and as soon as they were completed, he would again communicate with the city. This was very satisfactory to the Board of Works, and they will await further word from the C.P.R.

SMALL MATTERS.

A communication was received from Mr. Thos. R. Weir, of Stratford, asking the city if the street numbering and street names were satisfactory. The matter was left in abeyance for the time being. J. J. Turner & Sons and Mr. Cook also had similar communications in.—Received.

Mr Haywood, who was hurt on the diversion of the Ashburnham creek work, sent a bill to the city for $2.50 doctor's expenses, and the committee decided to pay it.

Ald. Johnston wanted the city encorner of Brock and George streets put into commission, as at the present time a pool of water collects on the walk every time it rains.

Ald. McIntyre moved that the engineer to have the drainage at the corner of London and Bethune streets, and have it repaired, if necessary.

Everyone is Sorry That The Camp is Nearly Over

Y.M.C.A. Camp,
Sandy Point, Clear Lake,
July 24th, 1907.

Editor Review,—

Dear Sir,—Just a few more lines to your estimable paper to tell you how we are getting along in our closing of camp life. There is just one more day ahead of us now, as we leave here for Peterborough on Thursday at 3 o'clock. A pleasant time has been spent by all and we are indeed sorry to break camp. But there is an end to all good things, and it usually comes all too soon to suit those concerned. To-day is field day here and as the sports are not yet finished the report will be seen in a later edition of your paper.

The baseball league which was organized at the beginning of camp was a great success. The Chippewas and Capitals battled in the final game for the championship Saturday night, and this was easily the best game of the series. The Chippewas won out by the close score of 4-3, thereby winning the championship, cup, and watermelon offered by Soap to the winning team. Yesterday an excursion came up the lakes from Lakefield bringing a baseball team with them to play the Y.M.C.A. team. The Lakefield bunch went to bat first and were put out in one, two and three order, Minnow doing the work in the box for the Y. boys. Then the campers came to bat, and although A. Bravender, of Peterborough City League fame, was doing the twirling for the Lakefield ball tossers, the Y. killed in two runs. The next innings for the Lakefields proved to be the same as the first and the Y. in their next again scored two runs. Then the visitors scored two, and from then on the game was evenly contested, both sides playing stellar ball, with very few misplays, until the Y. pulled ahead by one run from their opponents, who had caught up to them and at the end of the 9th the Y. was ahead 9-8, with an innings to spare. During the game the campers pulled off a few spectacular double plays which brought the spectators to their feet to applaud. The league has certainly shown up some speedy players among the boys, who will make good in bigger leagues before long. Last night, after dark, was serenade night. The Y.M.C.A. camp band, which has been practising under the able leadership of Soap with his clarinet, visited the cottages up the line and gave an up-to-date band concert, combined with some vocal music, consisting of solos, duets and quartettes by different members of the Y. and cottagers. The band consists of Soap, with his clarinet playing the lead, and directing the ceremonies. Bugler Booboo, and several kettle drums manufactured out of tin pans. Numerous selections were played and enjoyed by all present, and a pleasant evening was broken up by singing God Save the King. The campers wish to publicly thank the cottagers for helping them to pass the time pleasantly while at camp, and for the good things which they have sent in during camp life.

Sunday morning a service was conducted at the Y. camp, which some of the cottagers attended. Then in the evening a big song service was held in front of camp, and a large number were present to take part. The cabinet organ was again pressed into service, and was handled in able fashion by a gentleman present.

Well, Mr. Editor, this is a busy day here, so I must close for the present. To-night we are having our closing camp fire and big time, and I will send you an account in a later issue. Thanking you for your space, I am, yours and the rest of it.

Will Increase Paid Up Capital

Peterboro' Shovel and Tool Co. Directors Meet

A meeting of the directors of the Peterborough Shovel & Tool Co. was held yesterday morning and considerable business transacted. The paid-up capital of this concern is now $52,500, represented largely by building, machinery, patterns, etc.

The business of this industry is increasing to so great an extent that the company find it absolutely necessary to keep from $50,000 to $75,000 worth of manufactured goods and raw material on hand in order to keep space with their growing business. Therefore, at yesterday morning's meeting the directors and shareholders present agreed to increase their paid-up capital to $75,000, and an additional $10,000 was assured before the meeting adjourned. The balance of the $75,000 will be placed at the earliest possible moment.

The company have now on hand more orders for their goods than can be under existing conditions, manufactured in four months. Hence the necessity for increased capital.

Mr. Wm. Irwin's resignation as a director was accepted and he will be succeeded by Mr. James Davidson, who is one of the company's largest shareholders.

KAWARTHA LAKES' SUMMER SCHOOL

Registration Was 128—Chemong Park Praised

The Christian Guardian of this week contains an official report of the Kawartha Lakes Summer School held during the first week in July at Chemong Park.

The secretary is Mr. A. H. Foster, and the following is his excellent summary of the proceedings,—

Chemong Park was the home of the Bay of Quinte Conference Summer School for 1907. The park, the pavilion, the hotel, the grounds, all united to make this an ideal location for our Conference School. The weather was perfect, the registration 128. The programme was one of the strongest ever presented at any of our summer schools.

The Bible Study, "The Missionary Idea of the Bible," was led by Prof. J. F. McLaughlin, B. D., Victoria College.

The Mission Study Classes, subject, "China," were led by Mr. Thomas Keough, Toronto; Miss Edna A. Drewry, Smithfield, and Miss Ethel R. Patterson, B. A., Toronto.

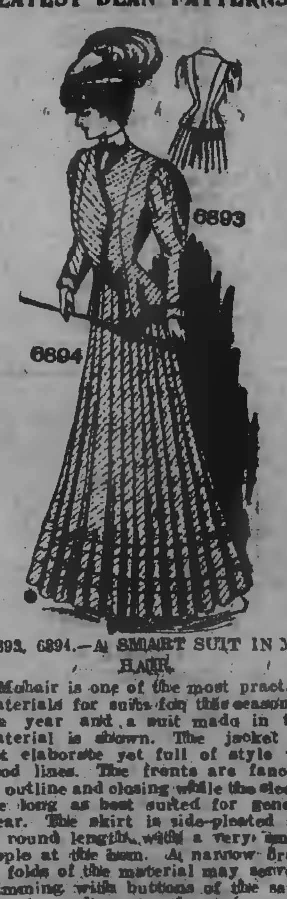
The methods of work in league and Sunday School were taken by Rev. Geo. J. Bishop, D. D., Lindsay; Rev. Prof. E. R. Doxsee, Albert College, and Rev. H. W. Foley, B. D., Bobcaygeon.

The returned missionaries who addressed the school were Rev. R. Emberson, B. A., Japan; Mr. Wm. Adams, M.D., D. D. S., China; A. P. Quirmbach, China.

The evenings mass meetings received inspiring addresses from Rev. Geo. J. Bishop, D.D., Lindsay; Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K. C., Lindsay, Dr. Elmer Crummy, B.Sc., Toronto; Dr. Adams, China; Rev. R. Emberson, B. A., Japan; Thomas Keough, Toronto; Geo. Henderson, Port Hope; W. G. Clarke, B. A., Stirling.

At the close of the preaching service on Sunday evening a consecration service was led by Prof. McLaughlin. Thus closed the helpful and inspiring school of 1907. The officers for the coming year are: Hon.-Presidents, President of Conference, Epworth League, Judge Deroche, Belleville; President, Rev. A. H. Foster, Smithfield; Vice-President, Rev. C. L. Cragg, B. D., Foxborough; Sec.-Treas., Rev. W. G. Clarke, B. A., Stirling; Assistant-Secretary, W. P. Rogers, B. A., Wooler.—A. H. FOSTER, Secretary of Summer School.

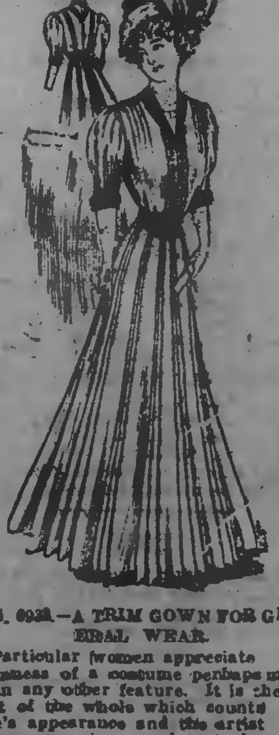
LATEST DEAN PATTERNS



6893, 6894.—A SMART SUIT IN MOHAIR.

Mohair is one of the most practical materials for suits for this season of the year and a suit made in this material is shown. The jacket is not elaborate yet full of style and good lines. The fronts are fanciful in outline and closing while the sleeves are long as best suited for general wear. The skirt is side-pleated and in round length with a very smart ripple at the hem. A narrow braid or folds of the material may serve as trimming with buttons of the same. For the medium size the coat requires 1 5-8 yards of 54 inch material and the skirt 7 3-4 yards of 44 inch.

Two Patterns.—6893—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6894—Sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.



6934, 6933.—A TRIM GOWN FOR GENERAL WEAR.

Particular women appreciate the trimness of a costume perhaps more than any other feature. It is the effect of the whole which counts in one's appearance and the artist in dress recognizes good taste here before anything else. The gown shown is especially attractive for afternoon or morning wear, for paying calls or wearing to church. The waist has its tucks becomingly placed in front and back and sleeves. A chemisette of lace or contrasting material lends a pretty touch at the neck.

Two Patterns, 6934.—6 Sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6933—7 sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.

The price of these patterns is 20c, but either will be sent upon receipt of 10c.

A GOOD COMPANY RESULT

Copy. Port Perry, Ont., April 15th, 1905.

My Dear Sirs, I yesterday received Bonus Addition Certificate from the Canada Life Assurance Company, amounting to the handsome sum of $962.65, being the profits on my $4,000 policy, and in writing you at the present time, I wish to express my gratification in having nearly $1,000 more insurance than when I took out the policy in 1889.

With only three more payments to make, I find the Limited Payment Life Policy ever so much more satisfoctory than any other, as under my policy all the premiums will be paid while I am yet under forty years of age, and I have an insurance in the Canada Life, which will be largely increased in amount, and particularly so, as life expectancy is nearly thirty years.

I think I have a right to feel pleased with the result of my insurance and investment in the Canada Life.

With best wishes
Yours truly,
W. G. MONET

CHALLENGE HAS BEEN ACCEPTED

Great Baseball Match Arranged for the Printers' Picnic, Civic Holiday

The "sassociety" editor of the Grit sheet which is inflicted on a long suffering and long forgiving public from a stand on George street, yesterday poked his head forth from his den long enough to grin defiance at the Review ball tossers, and murmur "We're game." Therefore be it known to all men that at the Printer's Picnic at Idyl Wyld on Civic holiday, August 12th, the Review artists of the ball and bat will collide with a nine of alleged swatsmiths from the Examiner staff and those who are present can expect to see something that has never been equalled since the memorable occasion when Greek met Greek—in a bootblacking establishment. There is a well-known law in dynamics that when two bodies of unequal size meet when travelling at the same speed the lesser one does a 23 stunt, or something to that effect. Students who are interested in this law will have a fine opportunity to see it worked out on a practical basis when the two newspaper teams meet at the Printer's Picnic. There is no doubt but that the lightweight Grit outfit, mentally and physically, will be knocked higher than the proverbial kite and will go up in the air so high that some of them will get soaked with milk by getting too close to the milky way.

Every man around the Review establishment is feeling his muscle and trying to figure out if he can catch a place on the team. There is all kinds of material available for a greased lightning nine and only those with a batting average of over 800 and who can go one hundred yards in ten seconds will be taken on.

Really now, we didn't mean to take advantage of the Grit journal when it was handicapped by a short staff. The Review has always tried to be charitable to its struggling competitor and to let them down as easily as possible on every occasion. "Jonah" Craig's return home will be welcomed.

CRICKET

One of the attractions offered the excursionists from Campbellford tomorrow will be a Cricket match between a team from that town and an eleven from Peterborough. The game will be called at 10.30 at Nichol's Oval, and promises to be a keen contest. The Peterborough team will be composed of the following,—Lovekin, Hill, Duggan, Edwards, Coleman, Bailey, G. Campbell, A. Campbell, Moore, Reaston and Hall.

SKIDOO NIGHT

At Charlotte street roller rink this evening. See the various events—23 prizes, 23 pieces in the band. Admission to skate 23 cents. Admission for spectators 10 cents.

Presentation of Review Cup

West Ends Will be Presented With Handsome Trophy

Attention is called to the meeting of the City Baseball League at the Y.M.C.A. tonight, when the Review cup will be handed over to the West Ends, champions of 1907. All the officers of the league, and the officers and players of the different teams are requested to be present at eight o'clock. The handsome silver trophy will be formally presented to the winning team, the officers and members of which are especially invited to be on hand.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

WE'LL ALL BE THERE

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Our citizens should not neglect the opportunity of giving Miss Thompson a royal send-off on her trip to Europe, and at the same time see the eleven popular ladies who are representative of our fair province, when they pass through on the 1st of August next.

Yours,
LOYAL CITIZEN.

A GOOD SUGGESTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—An enterprising trunk dealer in the city of Toronto has donated a trunk to each of the successful Toronto candidates in the World's contest for a free trip to London and Paris. Surely the other cities and towns who are sending representatives will not lag in the good work. Here is an opportunity for a dealer to get a cheap ad. and cover himself with glory. Who speaks first? One thing is certain, the trunk will be forthcoming, only it would not be wise to deprive our dealers of the opportunity afforded to the Toronto dealer. Peterborough will keep up her end in any event.

Yours, etc.,
PETERBOROUGH.

STRONGLY OBJECTS TO HIGH VALUES

Many Expressions Heard as to Increased Assessment in South Ward

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Permit me to endorse the communication which appeared in your issue of the 17th inst., dealing with the manner in which the taxes of the residents of the south part of the city are being increased by the assessor at present operating there. The actions of the said official are altogether unjustifiable and no language can be found too strong in condemning them. I am told that he desires to be appointed permanent assessment commissioner, when the office is created, hence his desire to ingratiate himself with a certain class by almost doubling the taxes of workingmen. Is it to be wondered that so few people of the artisan class desire to make Peterborough their place of residence?

I have personally heard from several people within the last few days, expressions of their determination to sell their effects and go elsewhere, as it was almost impossible for them to live here owing to the abnormal taxation, and the enormous cost of the necessaries of life. It is a matter of regret to all those who have the interest of our city at heart, that the prosperity and progress which we have recently been experiencing should be thus arrested while other cities and towns throughout the Province are prospering as they have never prospered before.

The present method of raising taxes is a crying grievance, as it puts a check on the thrifty and a premium on indolence and laziness. I am aware of course, that it is not within the jurisdiction of the municipalities to change the laws relating to taxation, but it is their duty to see that it is administered impartially, and that a public servant or official, does not arrogate to himself the authority of an autocrat; and imagine that he is the master instead of the servant of the people.

Thanking you in advance for your valuable space, I remain.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.
Peterborough, July 24th, 1907.

Band to-night at Jackson Park.

MOON HAD ITS PICTURE TAKEN

Dr. Marsh Secured Some Excellent Photographs — Much Interest in the Eclipse

Did you see the eclipse last night? Of course you must have unless you retired to your downy bed at ten o'clock or before. The heavens were clear and the eclipse was plainly visible. The event was of particular interest to those interested in astronomy, and to none more so than to Rev. Dr. Marsh of Springville. The doctor succeeded in getting six excellent photographs of the moon during the eclipse, the clearness of the heavens particularly favoring photographic work. The first photograph was taken at about 10.9, the exposure being 15 secs.; the second at 10.25, exposure 15 secs.; third at 10.48, exposure 17 secs.; fourth at 11.22, exposure 40 secs.; fifth at 11.53, exposure 17 secs.; sixth at 12.23, exposure 17 secs. The eclipse was at its height at 11.22, when the fourth photograph was taken.

Dr Marsh states that the pictures are splendid ones, among the best he has ever secured of a partial eclipse.

Greatest Lode of Low Grade Silver Ever Struck in Cobalt

Peterborough Man is President of the Company—The Vein is 18 Feet From Wall to Wall—Development Going on Night and Day.

Mr. R. G. Williamson, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, who is president of the Casey Mountain Cobalt Mining Co., is in the city, and reports his company have struck the greatest lode or vein of low grade silver ever discovered in the Cobalt region

This is what experienced mining men say. The lode is 18 feet from wall to wall, and was struck the other day. The shaft was sunk about fifty feet, and then the miners started following a drift. They came upon one or two promising cross veins of silver, and when about forty feet along the drift, came upon this immense lode.

Operations are being carried on at the mines night and day. Mr. Williamson says that the Casey Mountain properties are in Casey township, about 18 miles from the town of Cobalt. The miners' strike is not affecting them, as the unrest does not extend that far.

Mr. Williamson has made arrangements with a Montreal firm to install a complete air compressor plant at an early date. At present the drills are being operated by steam. The Casey Mountain Co. have recently bought two other properties, and now have some 360 acres in all. They have received several valuable and tempting offers for their claims, but Mr. Williamson states they have no intention of selling.

Cow Testing Associations Were Addressed by Mr. N. G. Somerville

Great Improvement in the Herds Around the Shearer and Pine Grove Cheese Factories—Farmers Delighted With the Association.

Much interest is being displayed by the farmers in the Cow Testing Association work, which is progressing most favorably wherever these associations have been formed. Mr. N. G. Somerville, of Brockville, who has always taken a deep interest in the work in this section, visited the Pine Grove and Shearer Associations on Tuesday and Wednesday night, and spoke of the advantages of the system.

There were good attendances on both occasions and a great deal of interest was shown in the discussion, which brought out many valuable points. All the farmers who have been connected with the Association expressed their delight with the system, as it gave them exact records of what each cow of their herds was doing every month. They believed they were getting more from their cows, and they had little work to perform.

Mr. T. H. Binnie, who has been attending to the work in the local district, was present at both meetings and gave a review of what he had accomplished.

Mr. Somerville spoke of the importance of the work of the Cow Testing Associations, and showed that the interest in Ontario and Quebec was on the increase. For the month of June Ontario was leading Quebec in the average production, but he advised the farmers to be on their guard lest the Lower Province should win out during the whole season with a larger yield per cow for the milking period.

The speaker then reviewd the dairy business for the last ten years, and drew comparisons between the interest taken by the farmers now and ten years ago, which showed a great improvement. The dairy schools of Ontario had greatly assisted in the education of the makers, and by the instruction of the makers as well as by the dairy instructors, the patrons had very largely benefitted. Great improvement had been made along this line wherever co-operation was carried out. If the dairy farmers continue in the work of cow testing, he predicted that in three years' time the average production would easily be raised 25 per cent.

In the matter of cool-curing, Mr. Somerville said by examining the cheese at this hot season of the year, the relative advantages of the two systems was easily demonstrated. He had examined the cheese on Tuesday in a Smith cool-curing room of the first half of the June make, which was close, of silky texture and sound flavor, which, if held in the ordinary room under those conditions, could not possibly have been such.

He was very pleased to see the interest taken by the members of the Association and to have their co-operation in the work.

The Movement for Cheaper Railway Fares is Growing

Universal Two-Cent Rate Discussed by Officials.

Agitation Has Aroused Much Interest and Some Ill-Feeling—Wall Street Is Watching — Views of Managements to Be Obtained at Future Conference — The Excursion Question—N.Y.C.'s Position.

New York, July 26.—Representatives of five eastern railroads met in the offices of F. D. Underwood, president of the Erie, and discussed the advisability of a universal two-cent passenger rate.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Underwood announced publicly that the subject under discussion had been that of fall excursion rates in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, where two-cent fare bills have been passed. It had been suggested that, in view of the Legislative action in reducing fares, the railroads do away with the customary cheap fall excursions. It is said that, whereas the cutting off of excursion rates had been expected to result in profit, it had been found it would produce loss, in the case of one road amounting to as much as $20,000 a month. It was decided to continue the fall excursions in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio on the same plan on which they have been run for many years.

Mr. Underwood objected to a statement published that a universal two-cent fare would be discussed.

Expressions of opinion on the subject were sought at the meeting. Invitations to participate in such a conference had been sent out by Mr. Underwood. So important was the issue considered by the Erie's president that he sought to bring into the conference no railroad officers below the rank of senior vice-president. All the eastern roads were asked to participate.

After the discussion of Wednesday it was decided to carry on the conference by correspondence and otherwise until the time was ripe for definite action. It is likely the campaign, with Mr. Underwood in charge, will consume two or three weeks or perhaps more before another personal conference is held.

Among railroad men the agitation for a universal two-cent fare has aroused much interest and some ill-feeling. It was predicted that the consequence of the movement might be the changing of the eastern railroad map, or at least a change of the personnel of at least one road's list of officers.

In Wall street the movement is being watched, and the final result will be looked for with considerable interest. It was freely admitted that such an agitation was in progress. One man said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the plan is based on the plea that a two-cent rate would be confiscatory so far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in the meeting was one of neutrality, as the charter rate of that road is two cents anyway and it has little to lose or to gain. W. C. Brown, senior vice-president, had been asked to represent that road, but was in Chicago and could not attend. Chas. F. Daly, vice-president, and Warren J. Lynch, traffic manager, represented the system. Mr. Underwood and George W. Cooke, traffic manager, appeared for the Erie. Others in attendance were: Joseph Wood, vice-president in charge west of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania road; Georgt F. Randolph, vice-president, Baltimore and Ohio; D. O. Ives, traffic manager, Wabash.

In the conference it was agreed that only that part of the discussion touching the excursion question in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio be given to the public. No date was set for another meeting. The work of bringing the universal two-cent rate question to a head will be taken up immediately by letter and another meeting called when responses are received which set forth with more definiteness the views of the managements.

In Pursuit of a Lunatic.

Galt, July 26.—Two guards from the Hamilton Asylum staff were here last night, having traced the escaped lunatic, Alexis Deroches as far as Rockton, where he worked for a farmer named Patterson. He left there night before last and came towards Galt. The guards continued on to St. George and Branchton.

Warrant For the Speaker.

Detroit, Mich., July 26.—Prosecuting Attorney Robinson announced yesterday, at the inquest into the death from an operation at a local sanitarium, of Miss Edith Presley, proofreader for the state senate, that he will issue a warrant as soon as it can be prepared for Representative Charles E. Ward, Speaker pro-tem of the House of Representatives, charging him with manslaughter in connection with the girl's death. A warrant had previously been issued for Dr. George A. Fritch of this city.

Painters Elect Officers.

London, July 26.—The painters of Canada concluded their convention yesterday afternoon and officers for the year were elected as follows: President, H. R. Reynolds, Guelph; vice-president, Ald. Richard Booth, London; secretary-treasurer, Alex. Mackenzie, Hamilton. The delegates to the international convention are Messrs. Reynolds, Booth and Mackenzie.

The Virginian's Record.

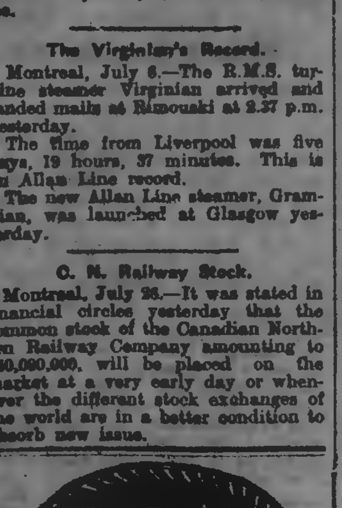
Montreal, July 6.—The R.M.S. turbine steamer Virginian arrived and landed mails at Rimouski at 2.37 p.m. yesterday.

The time from Liverpool was five days, 19 hours, 37 minutes. This is an Allan Line record.

The new Allan Line steamer, Grampian, was launched at Glasgow yesterday.

C. N. Railway Stock.

Montreal, July 26.—It was stated in financial circles yesterday that the common stock of the Canadian Northern Railway Company amounting to $40,000,000, will be placed on the market at a very early day or whenever the different stock exchanges of the world are in a better condition to absorb new issue.



THE CONVENTION SIGNED.

The Resident-General Becomes Real Ruler of Korea.

Tokio, July 26.—The new convention between Japan and Korea was signed after no small opposition by the Korean court. The provisions are briefly as follows:

Article 1. The Government of Korea shall follow the direction of the resident-general in connection with the reform of the administration.

2. Korea shall not enact any law or ordinance or carry out any administrative measure unless it has previously approval of the resident-general.

3. Judicial affairs of Korea shall be kept distinct from ordinary administrative affairs.

4. No appointment or dismissal of Korean officials of high grade shall be made without the consent of the resident-general.

5. Korea shall appoint to official positions such Japanese as are recommended by the resident-general.

6. Korea shall not engage any foreigner without the consent of the resident-general.

7. The first clause of the agreement between Japan and Korea, dated Aug. 22, 1904, is hereby abrogated.

The agreement abrogates the advisor system, especially affecting the finance department, under Adviser Metaga, who now becomes a Korean official.

Satisfies Japan.

It is felt among the well-informed that Japan might have been more exacting in her terms, curtailing even the Korean imperial authority by suggesting the réscript, subject to the approval of the Japanese resident-general. The avoidance of such a demand, it is believed, was purely out of consideration for the prestige of the Korean court. The extension of the power of the resident-general so that he may appoint his nominees to responsible positions in the Korean Government is especially welcomed in Japan as one of the surest means of preventing the adoption of any measure hostile to the Japanese or detrimental to the interests of Korea.

The Palace Looted.

Seoul, July 26.—A wave of great excitement crept over the whole peninsula yesterday when the new agreement with Japan was announced and the Emperor's proclamation published in the provinces.

All the privileged old ladies attached to the court arrived in crowds at the palace, condoling, weeping, wailing and incidentally carrying away in their customary loose clothing everything detachable and portable. The palace was looted of all possible souvenirs.

The ex-Emperor wept, saying that his efforts for many years had been a mistake, and that he should himself have taken the proposed course and was unable to continue his speech.

The National Council of Women re-elected its officers of last year Monday and closed its convention.

The man found dead on the mountain at Hamilton on Saturday has not yet been identified.

THE BRITISH ARTILLERYMEN.

Not One of Them Made a Miss-Move In Two Series At Petawawa.

Petawawa Artillery Camp, Ont., July 26.—The British artillerymen have become the marvel of the camp. Never has such precision been seen as was exhibited by the visiting team in its first practice here. The guns used were of 4.7 calibre and the range 6,000 yards.

The men have been trained by the instructors of the Royal Artillery of Great Britain. Not a man made a miss move during the two series fired. The commands were given by the officers in the fewest possible words, just sufficiently loud for the men for whom they were intended to hear.

The guns went into action with their detachments as though the men themselves were a part of the big machine, and were loaded, fired, manned, forward, swung into position, etc., with a speed, accuracy and perfection of drill that has never been equalled in Canada.

Nearly everything was done by signal. The series was fired in about one-half the time usually occupied by the Canadian team.

The competitions were against thirty Canadian companies of heavy artillery which have already completed their shell practice before Sept. 15. The actual results of the firing will not be made public until all the competitions are competed.

The British team and Canadian composite field artillery team, commanded by Major F. W. B. Morrison of Ottawa, fired their elementary series yesterday.

TO REGULATE FISHING.

Binding Agreement Between U.S. and Canada Advocated.

Erie, Pa., July 26.—At the closing session of the National Fisheries Society an International Congress was arranged for and the Governor-General of Canada, the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario, President Roosevelt and the governors of the various states bordering on the Great Lakes will be requested to send delegates.

The congress is to make a binding agreement between the United States and the Dominion of Canada regulating the catch of fish in the Great Lakes.

A resolution was passed authorizing such a congress and the sentiment was unanimous that some steps ought to be taken immediately to bring about more cordial and fairer relations between the two Governments relative to the fishing industry.

A paper bearing directly on the subject was read yesterday afternoon by A. Kelly Evans of Toronto, who maintained that it was absolutely necessary to regulate the size of commercial fish to prevent a possible prohibition of exports of the food varieties. Canada is now contributing 86 per cent. of the lake fish consumed in the United States, he said, and if this supply were cut off he believed it would be a severe blow to this country.

MUCH LUMBER DESTROYED.

Big Blaze at Ottawa Caused Loss Estimated at $300,000.

Ottawa, July 26.—W. C. Edward's planing mills and sash and door factory in the New Edinburgh section, the factory of the Library Bureau alongside, a mica warehouse owned by the Messrs. Blackburn, No. 6 Fire Hall, the club rooms of W. C. Edwards Co.'s staff, two million feet of lumber, and several small residences were destroyed by fire, which was started by lightning at 5.30 yesterday morning, with a loss of $300,000, of which $250,000 falls upon the W. C. Edwards Co. About 200 men are out of employment.

The Edwards Co. are covered by insurance to the extent of $200.000. Senator W. C. Edwards of Rockland was the principal owner of these industries, and was also largely interested in the Library Bureau.

Excitement In Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., July 26.—Rarely have such scenes of excitement been witnessed in legislative halls as has marked the efforts to pass the state prohibition bill by the lower branch of the Legislature. All day the fight was waged, and a filibustering minority prevented action on the bill which was adopted by the Senate more than a week ago.

Hundreds of men, women and children thronged the galleries. Women, singing and waving flags, added to the excitement. Those of several Atlanta churches prepared luncheons for the legislators and served them in the capitol. Late last night the prohibition bill had not been reported.

Centennial At Otterville.

Woodstock, July 26.—The centennial jubilee of the founding of the pretty little Village of Otterville, 16 miles from here, was fittingly celebrated. Hundreds of visitors, some from quite a distance.

There were many happy reunions. It is estimated that 2,000 people were on the grounds. An interesting feature was the celebration of the 100th birthday of Mrs. Mahoney.

Two Months For This Man.

Ottawa, July 26.—Frank Lee, who attempted suicide in Labelle some time ago, and who narrowly escaped with his life, was arraigned before Judge Talbot in Hull yesterday.

He pleaded guilty and was sent down for two months.

Cost of Conference.

London, July 26.—According to an official return the cost of the imperial conference was £10,400. The original estimate was £600.

The Admiralty expenses in conveying the remains of Hon. Mr. Prefontaine from Cherbourg to Halifax was £3,781.

Arrival of 1,200 Japs.

Vancouver, July 26.—Twelve hundred Japanese from Honolulu arrived at Vancouver yesterday on board the British tramp steamer Kumeric. The steamer lay out in the stream all day.

Mr. H. P. Elgar, a native of Belleville, has been appointed Dominion architect in Paris.

SMALLPOX SHOWS INCREASE.

Fifty-Five Cases Are Reported by the Provincial Board.

Toronto, July 26.—The report of the Provincial Board of Health for June, just issued shows that there were 1,623 cases of contagious diseases, with 240 deaths, as compared with 853 cases and 262 deaths in the same month last year.

Smallpox shows an increase, the number of cases reported being 55, with no deaths, against 30 cases a year ago and no deaths.

Other infectious diseases reported were: Scarlet fever 195, 10 deaths, against 98 cases and 3 deaths a year ago; diphtheria, 125 cases, 20 deaths, a decrease of 65 cases; measles, 376 cases, with 26 deaths, against 206 cases and 6 deaths; whooping cough, 165 cases, with 5 deaths, against 78 cases and 15 deaths; typhoid, 51 cases, with 17 deaths; consumption, 171 deaths, against 143.

Smallpox In Toronto Jail.

Toronto, July 26.—Smallpox has broken out in Toronto Jail. Dr. Sheard made the discovery yesterday afternoon that one of the inmates of the Chateau Chambers had developed symptoms, after a stay of 12 days, and removal to the Swiss Cottage followed.

Dr. Sheard stated that the jail being an entirely isolated community, the disease could not travel far and an epidemic could be more easily checked at the outset.

It will not be necessary to quarantine the jail, at least not yet.

Can't Convict a Lyncher.

Charlotte, N.C., July 26.—The efforts of the State of North Carolina to bring to justice the twenty odd citizens of Anson County who took J. V. Johnson from Wadesboro jail the night of May 20, 1906, and lynched him, came to an abrupt termination yesterday when the jury in the case of Zeke Lewis, the second of the lynchers to be tried, returned a verdict of not guilty.

Conditions Greatly Improved.

Winnipeg, July 26.—The C.P.R. weekly crop report shows that the grain conditions are greatly improved. In many sections the wheat is heading out.

Reports yesterday show that a thunderstorm Wednesday night reached almost cyclonic proportions. Reports from Saskatchewan particularly say that the damage from hail was very heavy.

The Moroccan bandit has forbidden Kaid MacLean to send letters to his friends. Fighting is in progress at Melilla between the troops of the Sultan and the Pretender.

The Haywood Trial Proceeds; Barrow Makes Strong Plea

Denounced Mine Owners In Last Word For Haywood.

Predicts That Labor Movement Will Live Despite Capital's Antagonism —Steunenberg's Actions Declared Unjustifiable — Jack Simpkin's Flight Explained — Tirade Against Orchard—Defence of Workingmen.

Boise, Idaho, July 26.—In resuming his address to the Haywood jury yesterday, Clarence Darrow, who is having the last word for the defendant, took up a defence of Jack Simpkins' flight after the arrest of Orchard. Mr. Darrow was very hoarse, the result of his five hours and forty minutes of speaking on Wednesday, and he spoke yesterday only with the greatest effort.

"They ask us why Jack Simpkins is not here," said Mr. Darrow, "and I will tell you. The reason he is not here is that he is afraid to be here. Hawley tells you that Simpkins' flight proves that he is guilty. If the fact that Jack Simpkins ran away proves he is guilty, then by the same token the fact that Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone did not run away proves that they are innocent.

"I don't know whether Jack Simpkins is guilty or not. Simpkins had reason to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. Orchard had reason, either rightly or wrongly, to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. Simpkins and Orchard had been together in Spokane for a month before they went to Caldwell. If Jack Simpkins went to Caldwell for the purpose Orchard has told, he went away without doing it. He did not raise a hand against Steunenberg.

The Labor Movement.

In a burst of oratory Mr. Darrow said presently: "You men of the prosecution, you men of the Mine Owners' Association, you men who are seeking the life of Bill Haywood, not because he is Haywood, but because he represents a class, don't be so shortsighted, so foolish as to believe that you will strangle the Western Federation of Miners when you tie a rope around Bill Haywood's neck; don't be so blind as to believe that when you make fresh new graves here in Idaho that you have killed the labor movement in this world. When Bill Haywood is gone, millions of other willing hands will carry on his work to victory in the end."

Quitting his tirade against Orchard and McPartland, Mr. Darrow began to discuss some of the evidence in the case, taking up the troubles in the Cour D'Alenes regions in Idaho in 1899. He declared Governor Steunenberg sowed the seeds of more strife than was ever sown by the governor of any state to the present time. "There was no justification for it," exclaimed the lawyer. "There is not a man living who can defend it."

Darrow denounced the state's attorneys for allowing William Dewey, who testified that he took part in the mob's attack on the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine, to return to Colorado unhindered after confessing to murder on the witness stand.

When Mr. Darrow reached the Colorado labor troubles he grew eloquent in his denunciation of capital and his defence of workingmen.

Clarence Darrow, after speaking for eleven hours, concluded the final plea for Haywood's life at 4.20 p.m., and at 7 o'clock last evening, United States Senator Borah opened the closing argument for the prosecution. He will speak for three sessions, or about seven hours. Judge Fremont Wood will instruct and charge the jury on Saturday morning.

Jap Toasts Roosevelt.

Paris, July 26.—Because of the conclusion of the recent Franco-Japanese entente the official entertainment of Vice-Admiral Sir George Ijuin and the other Japanese officers who arrived in this city from Brest yesterday morning is to be one on a somewhat elaborate scale than that which was arranged for the American naval officers last week.

At Brest, in the course of the dinner given by Rear-Admiral Stockton on the American cruiser Washington Wednesday night, Admiral Stockton proposed the health of the Emperor of Japan and of the Japanese navy. In reply, Captain Takamoutchi toasted President Roosevelt and the American navy.

Insists Upon Execution.

Paris, July 26.—There is a great and increasing popular clamor for the carrying out of the death sentence imposed last Tuesday upon a man named Soleillant for the murder of a little girl under particularly atrocious circumstances, especially as it has been discovered that the Chamber of Deputies has passed an appropriation of $5,200 for public executions.

Woman Falls Two Storeys.

Quebec, July 26.—Mrs. Michael McNichol of Havelock is lying in the Hotel Dieu Hospital in a serious condition. She fell from a two-storey window, and was picked up in a semi-conscious condition, suffering from a fractured limb and serious injuries to her head.

Cheesemen Must Work.

Kingston, July 26.—The Whitney Government gave the cheesemakers permission to work till five o'clock on Sunday morning for this year only, but the cheese board here intend trying to get permission to do so all along.

Canada's Trade Disputes.

Ottawa, July 26.—The total number of trade disputes reported to have been in existence in Canada during June, says The Labor Gazette, was 41, a decrease of eight compared with the previous month, but an increase of 11 compared with June, 1906.

About 262 establishments and 5,728 employes were affected by these disputes, those beginning during the month involving about 73 establishments and 3,724 employes.

MOST DEADLY ROADS

Those In United States Said to Rank First.

Fewest Travelers Are Injured In France—Forty Times As Many People Hurt On American Railways As On Russian Lines—A Prussian Statistician's Figures of the Principal Railways.

Berlin, July 26.—Herr Guillery of the Archive Bureau of the Prussian Railway Administration, who has prepared a comparison table of statistics of persons killed and injured by railways in various countries, finds the railroads in the United States the most deadly.

America has more railway mileage than all Europe, but even taking that into consideration the United States holds pre-eminence in proportional figures.

Out of every thousand railway employes the ratio of injured each year is: United States, 43.5; Switzerland, 25.3; England, 11.8; Belgium, 11; Germany, 2.4. Killed: United States, 26.1; England, 12.3; Switzerland, 8.2; Russia, 7.8; British India, 6.7; Belgium, 4.1.

In the fiscal year 1902-3 Herr Guillery finds that 76,500 persons were injured in the United States, of whom 60,000 were employes, and 9,800 were killed, of whom 3,600 were employes.

Fewest travelers were injured in France.

United States shows proportionately 40 times as many injured as in Russia, 22 times as many as in Italy, 28 times as many as in England, twice as many as in Germany.

ELOPING WIFE FORGIVEN.

Husband Secures Her Release and Takes Her Back Home.

Seattle, July 26.—Despite the fact that his wife eloped with Y. Sacamata, their Japanese servant, and was arrested in his company in the Japanese quarter, the Rev. H. C. Robinson, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, has forgiven her. He has signed her bail bond, secured her release from prison and taken her back to his home.

The scandal has almost wrecked the church, in which she was a leading worker. Sacamata was of even more than usual Japanese politeness. It is said it was the manner of the slant-eyed Chesterfield which won Mrs. Robinson's heart and caused her to desert her home.

The Rev. Mr. Robinson was formerly assistant rector of Grace Church, Chicago. She and her husband came originally from Canada.

Hail Destroyed Crops.

Lyleton, Man., July 26.—The most disastrous hailstorm ever witnessed in this locality completely destroyed crops in a strip many miles wide, especially to the north. The hail was accompanied by a terrific wind, which overturned many barns and granaries. The largest losers by hail are: Gould, 1,200 acres; Fenton, 800; Boyle, 400; Maitland, 400; Seeley, Murray, Scott, Walton, McNish, McCormick and Barrows, who are insured; Murray & Sons, 500 acres, and Gardner 400 acres, who had no insurance.

All the above are total losses.

Exporters.

Few exporters were offered, and those reported sold around $5 to $5.25 per cwt. But dealers stated that had there been cattle of good enough quality they would have brought $5.50 per cwt. Export bulls sold at $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. Murby reports large receipts of stockers this week, chiefly weighing from 500 to 800 pounds, and of an inferior quality. These kind sold at low prices, but will go considerably lower yet. The good feeders, 900 pounds up, were not too much in evidence, and they didn't decline so much in price. The shippers will do well to use great caution in their selection of stockers, as the common and medium light stockers will be hard sellers. Mr. Murby bought about 100 head to-day at prices ranging from 3¼c to 3⅝c for 700 to 850 steers with some quality, and $3.65 to $3.90 for steers 900 to 1000 pounds of good quality.

Milch Cows.

The demand for milkers and springers was a little better, but prices were not any higher. There is a fair demand for springers of good quality that will come in about October. Prices ranged from $35 to $57.50 each.

Veal Calves.

Prices for veal calves were lower, in sympathy with the beef cattle. Quotations ranged from $3.50 to $5 per cwt. Prime new milk-fed calves would bring $6.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export ewes sold at $4.00 to $4.15; bucks $2.75 to $4; culls $2 to $3.75 per cwt.; lambs $5.75 to $7.50 per cwt., or, in other words, 6⅝c to 7½c per lb.

SEVEN TO ONE

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidentally killed as die of old age.

Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy.

Delegates Had Splendid Time

Chief Roszel Home From Montreal—Constables in Annual Session

Chief of Police and Mrs. Roszel, who have been in Montreal, where Mr. Roszel was attending the annual convention of the Chief Constables of Canada, arrived home today. There were 45 delegates present.

Chief Roszel was elected Vice-President of the Association, which will meet next year in Quebec. Ottawa, Brockville and Belleville also sent invitations, but the Ancient Capital carried the day.

The Chief Constables meet for business, but incidentally the social side of the gathering is not overlooked, and Montreal civic authorities certainly were most hospitable.

After the morning session on Tuesday the delegates were driven, when the business was over, to the mountain, where a fine view of the city was obtained, and dinner enjoyed at the Montreal Club. The constables and their wives were then driven around the city and took cars to a point near Lachine, where a steam boat was boarded, the Lachine rapids run, and the return trip safely made to the metropolis.

On Wednesday a business session was held and officers elected. In the afternoon a special car ride around the city was taken, and the visitors attended the annual police games on the grounds of the Montreal Athletic Club. There entertainment of all kinds was afforded.

On the same evening the guardians of the law were given a banquet at the Windsor Hotel, while the ladies of the party spent the evening at Dominion Park.

On Thursday morning another business session was held, Chief Roszel presiding. In reference to the federal bill dealing with the treatment, trial and punishment of juvenile offenders, which requires many things to be provided, a resolution was passed asking the Dominion Government not to give the bill its second and third readings, as many of the clauses in the measure are now receiving attention. The ladies of the party were driven around the city on Thursday morning, and also had the pleasure of inspecting an ocean liner.

Chief Roszel is well pleased with the result of the convention, at which several valuable papers were read, and many profitable discussions took place.

They Picniced at Jackson Park

The First Church of Christ Scientist Sunday School and their friends held a picnic at Jackson Park yesterday afternoon. All enjoyed themselves very much. Some of the party remained for the evening entertainment.

Otonabee Passengers Scared; Valve on Feed Pipe Blew Out

People Were Soaked With the Escaping Steam and Water—Accident Happened Just Before Leaving for Home—Passengers Put on the Water Lily.

The many passengers on the steamer Otonabee yesterday afternoon, were given a bad scare. The boat was just preparing to start for home, when, with a report like a small cannon, a two-inch globe valve blew out of the feed pipe, connecting the boiler. At the time there was some 130 pounds steam pressure on and the steam and water rushed out until it was almost impossible to see anything. The people, not knowing what had happened, but hearing the bang and seeing the steam, were naturally frightened and everyone rushed for the wharf. After a time the steam in the boiler was exhausted and it was then that the boat hands found the defect.

As far as the boiler or the machinery in the Otonabee was concerned there was not the slightest danger as it was a defective valve, and it has been replaced by a new one. For a time, however, things looked serious from a passenger's standpoint and they did the only thing for them to do, get off the boat. It was lucky that the accident did not occur while out in the lake as the panic would have been great and it would have been impossible to handle the crowd.

As it was several people were soaked with steam and water, which ruined their clothes, and Mr. Harry Burridge of the Review staff, was scalded. He was going down stairs when the valve blew out and got the first steam and water. The force of the steam was so great that it threw him against a post and he struck his head a nasty blow. His right leg was also scalded and he will be laid up for a week.

Fortunately the steamer Water Lily was down at Rice Lake, and the passengers were put on board it and brought home, arriving here about eleven o'clock. The Otonabee arrived at the Wolfe street wharf an hour or so later.

Improvements to St. Joseph's Hospital Will be Made Soon

Plans Are Being Completed for a Large Addition on the North Side—New and Modern Operating Room—Other Improvements.

Plans are under way now for the enlargement of St. Joseph's hospital in Ashburnham. Architect John E. Belcher is preparing the drawings and in a few days will have everything ready to call for tenders. It is intended to carry the work out at once and have the new wards, etc. ready for use as soon as possible. The new part will be built to the north side and will be two stories high with a basement. The main feature will be the operating room. This department, will be when completed, one of the most modern in the province. All the latest and most modern implements, the newest operating table, a perfect lighting system and a perfect means of handling the patients, so that the danger from poor light or any other controllable cause will be reduced to a minimum. Besides the operating room will be different apartments for the nurses and doctors to prepare for an operation, also nurses' private rooms and several additional wards. Connecting the two floors will be an elevator of sufficient size to take patients up and down.

The demand for ward room and the increasing number of patients treated at St. Joseph's hospital, has compelled the management to take action and provide more room and more and modern equipment. The addition will be to the north side and will be fifty feet frontage, by thirty-two feet deep. There will be two storeys and a basement. On the ground floor will be the operating, sterilizing and nurses' rooms, doctor's room and anesthetic room as well as the new operating room. On the second floor there will be five new wards and a bath room. An elevator will run from the basement to the second floor and will be a great benefit and convenience to the hospital staff and the patients.

Harry Long Home From West; Crops Not Very Satisfactory

Some Places Farmers Are Plowing Seed Under—In no Place Will the Crop be Above the Average—Was Away Five Months and Saw Many People He Knew.

After an absence of nearly five months Mr. Harry Long arrived home from the west last night, and today was resting after his long trip. He is looking exceptionally well and says he has not felt better for many years. He left Peterborough on the 4th of March last and went to Strathcona, where he visited his brother for some time. Then he took a trip out to the coast and down to Portland and Seattle. When he went out, Mr. Long says the prairies presented a very dreary appearance, but it was quite the opposite when he came back. The fields are looking well and the crops will soon be ready for the harvest.

Asked as to how things were generally in the west, Mr. Long said that they were not altogether satisfactory and the crops would not be up to the average in spite of what the reports in the newspapers say. In some districts the farmers are plowing the seed under; in other sections the fall wheat is pretty fair, although the late grain will have to be cut for green feed, although this in limited quantities is profitable. In other districts, however, the crops will be very good. In Alberta the prospects are probably the brightest, but from Calgary to Moosejaw many barren fields are met with. From Moosejaw to Regina the outlook is middling. But in parts of southern Manitoba the fields are full of mus-

While away Mr. Long met scores of Peterborough people who were all glad to see him. The majority of them are doing well and some exceptionally well. At the coast he was a guest of Mr. Herbert Kent, an old Peterborough boy, who was well known and very popular here. Mr. Kent is the general superintendent of the British Columbia Telephone Co., and is doing remarkably well. His mother is now living with him, having arrived from Peterborough on June 23rd, while Mr. Long was there.

Mr. R. V. Winch, son of Mr. R. J. Winch, is one of the most influential men in the western city. He is a large land owner and is now erecting an immense business block on Hastings street, adjoining the new post office. When it is completed it will cost in the neighborhood of $250,000.

Mr Long made several investments in real estate in Strathcona, which should very soon turn out well. The people of that town expect the C. P. R. to do great things for them. They also expect the Canadian Northern and G. T. P. to go through there. Speaking generally, Mr. Long said he would not know the west as it has changed so completely since he was out twenty-five years ago. But with all the big boom on there he was glad to get back to his old town where the trees and flowers are at their best.

Two Excursions Arrive in City

Lindsay and Campbellford Presbyterians are Here To-day

About five hundred excursionists are in Peterborough today, about 350 coming from Campbellford, and 150 from Lindsay. The Campbellford contingent arrived about 9.30 on a special train. The excursion being under the auspices of the Sunday School of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church of which Rev. A. C. Reeves is pastor. The Lindsay excursion came in about a half hour later, being run by the Sunday school of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The special train consisted of four cars with about one hundred and fifty on board.

The excursionists from both places are spending the afternoon at Jackson Park and other points of interest about the city. They return home this evening.

Some Trouble at Lindsay Locks

Supt. McClellan of Trent Canal Was in the Thick of it

The sad inadequacy of Lindsay lock basin to accommodate the traffic centreing here was no doubt made fully apparent to Mr. J. H. McClellan, superintendent of the Trent canal, between 8 and 8:30 o'clock this morning says the Lindsay Post.

Mr. McClellan soon after eight o'clock boarded the government steamer Sovereign for a trip up Fenelon way, just as one of the frequent blockades of navigation occurred. The steamer Beaver had passed through the lock, leaving four or five newly laden cribs in the basin. Then the hoarse whistle of the Esturion, which leaves Sturgeon Point at 6.30, was heard, and Wellington-st bridge was swung. The big steamer got half way through before the tail end of the last crib blocked her progress. Passengers for the C.P.R. train scampered off and climbed the bridge railing with the skill of circus acrobats, all the while muttering things under their breath. Then the steamer Kathleen, also from Sturgeon Point, pulled up below the bridge with a large part of cottagers on board, and they were forced to flounder over a rough bit of ground and carry bundles and parcels a quarter of a mile farther than usual. More mutterings.

Then Supt. McClellan got busy. Hitching the Sovereign to the heavy cribs he managed to make room, in the course of half an hour, for the Esturion and Manita to approach the town wharf. "That's not going to do me any good," remarked Capt. Wee. "How in thunder am I going to turn 100 feet of boat in 30 feet of space?" The problem was left unanswered as the Manita was then about due. The Sovereign slipped away and headed for the north, leaving the tangle untangled.

We are informed that there is no truth in the report that the Sovereign is to be stationed here to help keep the river clear. Sam McGill will have to do it with his little pike pole.

JACK OLDHAM, Manager.
THOS. J. BEGLEY, President.
W. BUTCHER, SEc.-Treas.

Above will be found the names of the players of the West End Baseball Club, and also the manager of the team and the names of the officers of that young, but progressive athletic institution. To the West End Club belongs the honor of having won the Review Cup for 1907, and the right to be styled champions of the Peterborough City Intermediate Baseball League. They worked hard during the season, and are to be heartily congratulated on the success achieved. Credit is also due the runners-up, the Strathconas, who finished strong, although they had a certain amount of hard luck at the beginning of the season.

The West Ends were formally presented with the trophy at a meeting of the league at the Y.M.C.A. last night, when about twenty were present, including representatives from several of the teams that composed the league, and all the players and officers of the West Ends.

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS.

The President of the League, Mr. James Lang, presided, and, in opening the meeting, referred to the object for which it had been called—that the champions might be presented with the trophy—and also to wind up affairs for the season. He briefly reviewed the Intermediate League and spoke in glowing terms of the way it had prospered the first season. Great things could be expected next season. He congratulated the West Ends on winning the cup, and also the Strathconas for the fine showing they had made. Mr. Lang thanked the Review for having donated such a splendid trophy for competition in the Intermediate Baseball League. It had been given unsolicited, and it had certainly been a great stimulus to the teams. The president regretted that certain teams had dropped out at the end of the season and let their games go by default. This was not the proper spirit, and it was defeating the object of the league, which was the promotion of the game of baseball and clean sport generally, rather than the winning of a championship alone.

THE WEST END PRESIDENT.

President T. J. Begley, of the West Ends, alluded to the successful manner in which the league had been conducted during the season, for which thanks were due the officers. One of the reasons for the excellent manner in which the games had been run off was the fact that good umpires had been appointed. There had not been much kicking against their decisions, and he was of the opinion that they could not have done much better. The West End president regretted that several of the teams had not finished the series. He promised that even though the West Ends were at the bottom of the league next season they would stay right with it until the schedule was finished. However, they intended to win again next year. They had the cup for 1907, and their motto would be, "What we have we'll hold." Mr. Begley considered that it would have been well to have had a double schedule, and hoped that one would be arranged next year. He also spoke highly of the action of the Review in donating the cup; it had been a big encouragement to the young players.

THE CUP PRESENTED.

Mr. G. B. Van Blaricom, of the Review staff, then presented the cup to the victorious team, congratulating them upon winning the league championship, and also the Strathconas, who had made such a good showing. He believed that the donation of the trophy had given an impetus to baseball among the younger players, and he was glad to know that such good ball had been played.

Manager Jack Oldham, of the West Ends, made a neat response, thanking the Review for the cup, and stating that the West Ends would be heard from again next year.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Votes of thanks were passed the press for the way the games and meetings of the league had been reported, and to the Y.M.C.A. for the use of the rooms at the Association building for holding meetings. Suitable replies were made by the representatives of the press and by Secretary Williamson.

Several others matters in connection with the League were discussed before adjournment took place.

THE REVIEW CUP.

The Review Cup is one of the most handsome trophies that has been donated for athletic purposes in the city for a long time. It is of coin silver, beautifully engraved, and the cup proper is mounted on a handsome ebony base. When mounted the cup stands over 12 inches in height. It was purchased through Mr. C. E. Frost, the well known local jeweller.

The cup must be won two years in succession before becoming the permanent property of any club.

CRICKET

"Now that the international eleven is chosen," writes Mugwump, "let us be satisfied that the seven good men and true made the best of hard job. There is no doubt about the strength of the team now that Mike Bristow and Hal McGivern are back in the fold, and Hill, of Peterborough, the better known as of McGill University. Black is probably the best bowler in Canada today, though Hill, Bristow, McGiverin and Whittaker are all tried and known to be first class, while Wookey and Gausden are often effective. The team generally is a very strong one and will be hard to beat. The batting is of first class quality in Saunders, Whittaker, Lerry, Bristowe, Hill, Evans and Hill, and the other four often make good scores. It would be hard to find better fields."

GOLF

PORT HOPE COMING.

A team consisting of Rev. G. W. Henderson, Rev. Lee. Williams, Messrs. D. H. Chisholm, T. S G. Pepler, Seth Smith, J. L. Schwartz, Duke Perlery and Robin Haultain will play a golf match against Peterborough at that city on Wednesday.—Port Hope Times.

Convention Will Soon be Called

Conservatives Will Hold Gathering to Nominate Candidates

Mr. James Kendry, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the West Riding, of Peterborough, who has been absent from the city for some time on business will be home on Monday next. The date of the coming convention for this constituency to nominate a candidate in the interest of the Conservative party for the Federal House, will be announced at an early date. As to who will be the standard-bearer, several excellent and representative names are mentioned. There is an abundance of splendid material from which to make a strong and popular selection. The Conservative convention will be a representative one in every respect.

Three Quarter Crop in the West

But Farmers Will Have More Money Owing to Increased Price

An Ottawa despatch says:—Dr. Wm Saunders, Director of Experimental Farms, has returned from his tour of inspection of Manitoba and the West. Dr. Saunders does not share the pessimistic opinions recently published as to the crop shortage. He says the area in which partial failure is expected owing to drought is a restricted one, and on the whole, after a careful review of the situation, he believes that there will be a three-fourths crop. With wheat at its present price this will mean a larger cash return to the farmer than he received for the crop of last year. Even should some of the late sown grain become frosted it will fetch a price almost as high as was obtained for good wheat last season.

Salvation Army Songsters' Brigade

Will Make First Appearance on Sunday Night

The Salvation Army Songsters' Brigade will make their first appearance on Sunday night next, under the leadership of Jacob Dawson, who sang recently with such affect, Sullivan's "Remember Me, O Mighty One."

The band is composed of some sixteen or seventeen members of the Army, the majority being ladies. Miss Card is pianiste of the brigade, who render some excellent sacred songs, and will add materially to the musical attractiveness of the services at the barracks.

The "Sailor Boy" brand of canned goods are the best that are put up. They never fail to please. Try a few cans.

Will Not Listen to Their Stories

Mr. Fred Roy Will Not be "Taken in" Again by Strangers

The Toronto News last night, contains the following of local interest:

"I'll not be imposed on by a slick stranger with a hard-luck story any more," prophesied Mr. Fred Roy of Peterborough, who was largely instrumental in the formation of the employment bureau, in connection with the Photographers Convention. "My last encounter with one of these individuals cost me $25, for when my new-found friend had securely pocketed this trifle, he simply walked away, and that's the last I have seen of him."

MEETINGS AT GOSPEL HALL

Mr. Patterson of Detroit, Mich., is holidaying in the city and is spending a few days in Peterborough. He will assist in the Bible reading meeting at the Gospel Hall tonight. Mr. May of Bancroft will also be present and assist in the meeting.

Great interest has been taken in these meetings during the summer, the attendance being remarkably large. They have proved very profitable and have resulted in much good being done.

Old Time Barber is Reminiscent

Tells of Changes in Methods and in Prices Charged in Peterboro'

"It's simply wonderful how styles change," remarked a veteran Hunter street barber to the Review today. "Why when I first went into the business over thirty years ago we used a great deal of hair oil. Today we use none. Then men had their mustaches and whiskers dyed. Today we do little or nothing in this line. Then no man wanted the back of his neck shaved all around. At the present period nearly every man—especially every young man has it shaved all around once a week. Away back in the early seventies the price for hair cutting in Peterborough was 13 cents and for shaving 7 cents. We had to keep a bunch of coppers in the till to make change. I remember two or three years later when we had cards printed fixing the price for a shave at 10 cents and a hair cut 15 cents. Several of our old customers would come in and sit in the chair. Looking around they would observe the new price list and ask if we intended to charge those figures. "Yes" we would reply. "Well take off that towel. I will not pay it," was the frequent response. "I will shave myself first."

They bought razors some of them and started at the work of self-shaving, but in less than a month they nearly all grew tired of it, and were back with us again."

The price of a shave has remained the same here for thirty years—ten cents,—but hair cutting a few years ago was advanced to twenty cents, and there it remains."

All Saint's Choir At Gore's Landing

A Most Enjoyable Outing at an Attractive Summer Resort

One of the jolliest crowds that has gone out of the city this year was the one which went to Gore's Landing, Rice Lake, yesterday afternoon. It was the Sunday school teachers, officers and choir of All Saint's church, along with a large number of regular passengers. They left the Wolfe street wharf at two o'clock, and after stopping at Jubilee, arrived at Gore's Landing in good time for supper. The hotel at the landing and the large tract of property surrounding, make it one of the most attractive in the district. The scenery is very pretty and a beautiful view is had of the lake and islands. The hotel is a large one with splendid accommodation for guests and excursionists. The meals are excellent and everyone goes away feeling happy. The people from All Saint's picnicked among the trees where tables are provided. Coming home the time was spent very pleasantly with songs, the most popular one being.—

One night as I sat in the parlor
As happy as could be;
When the clock on the mantel
Struck the hour of twenty-three
Said the girl who sat beside me
Can't you take a hint or two?
Twenty-three doesn't mean eleven,
It's skiddoo! skiddoo for you.

Many Excursionists Here To-morrow

Polson Iron Works Employees of Toronto Will Picnic Here

The employees of the Polson Iron Works, Toronto, will run a big excursion to Peterborough tomorrow.

It is expected that about one thousand visitors will arrive in the city and spend the day here. They will view the various sights and during the afternoon there will be a league baseball match at Riverside Park, at three o'clock between the Cobourg team and Peterborough. Fast ball is promised.

DRINK IS HIS WORST ENEMY

Thos. Mahony Had a Costly Morning as a Result of His Misbehavior

Thomas Mahoney had a rather expensive morning of it today. For being drunk and raising a disturbance at his brother-in-law's house on Downie street yesterday, he was fined $5, and then, in order to get back at those who had lodged the complaint against him, he swore out a warrant of assault against his brother-in-law, but here he was up against it again, for City Clerk Armstrong, who presided at today's police court, dismissed the charge.

Thomas, who is a young man about 28 years of age, appeared in the box with his right eye in deep mourning. He pleaded guilty to the charge against him, that of being drunk and causing a disturbance near Downie street, and was fined $5, to be paid forthwith, and in default of payment, ten days in gaol.

Mahoney told the Acting Magistrate that he thought the fine was rather high for the first offence, and and wanted to lodge a charge of assault against his brother-in-law. He was accommodated in this respect, but was told that he would likely have to pay the costs. The brother-in-law pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault. Mahoney went into the box and swore that at dinner yesterday the accused had struck him in the face for talking to the children. The black eye was the result.

The evidence of the accused was to the effect that Mahoney has been residing with his brother-in-law, whose wife is a sister of Mahoney. Mahoney's aged father and mother reside in the same house, and also several children belonging to Mahoney's brother-in-law. According to the evidence of the brother-in-law Mahoney has been living in a loose manner for some time, and has been going down hill at a rapid rate. Drink has been his enemy, and several times he was asked to leave his brother-in-law's house, but did not go. Yesterday he came home drunk at dinner time and started to abuse the children, and also his mother. He derided his mother's religious work, and his language was of the worst kind and could not be repeated in the court. He continued to cut up, although he was warned and his mother wanted to send for the police. A climax was reached at dinner, when Mahoney commenced to abuse the children. He picked up the baby and let it drop to the floor, hurting its head and making it cry. He also used the worst kind of language to the little child, a boy of seven. The child's father hit Mahoney in the face, and this started the drunken man on a rampage through the house. He threw the furniture around and made threats as to what he was going to do. The police were telephoned for, and one of the officers met Mahoney on his way to the police station to lay a charge of assault against his brother-in-law. The blue coat was then on his way to arrest Mahoney and took him into custody.

Mahoney claimed that he did not remember much of what had happened, as he was drunk and not in his right senses. He stated that the children had annoyed him and spoiled some of his books, and that they did not behave properly.

The Acting Magistrate remarked that he could not fine the accused under the circumstances. It would have been better if the police had been called in before violence had been used.

Mahoney secured sufficient money to pay his fine from the establishment where he was employed.

This was the only case on the docket.

BOGUS $2 BILLS

Counterfeits of Dominion two dollar notes have recently been put in circulation in the Maritime Provinces. At St John they were offered to the ticket sellers of a circus, and were refused, but reported. They have been detected at other places in the East. The Lindsay counterfeiting gang are held responsible for these fraudulent bills.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D.C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick 59th and East Capitol Sts., Washington, D.C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

GET THE BOAT RIGHT

If the management of the steamer Otonabee expect the boat to be patronized some additional scrutiny will have to be made of the power fittings. Had the blow-out, that came off yesterday, taken place in mid-lake, it is quite possible amidst the panic that ensued that lives might have been lost. The reason given out for the trouble is stated as the blowing out of a valve spindle. Valve spindles do not blow out without taking the seat of the valve with the spindle, a thing unheard of. If, as is likely, a loose connection gave way, it is an evidence of careless workmanship. Threaded joints on two-inch steam pipe will not blow out if properly threaded and set up, and it is suggested that if the hands cannot get enough purchase on the pipe tongs, that a piece of gas pipe slipped over the handles will give the necessary leverage to do the thing up right. This is the second trouble in the same direction, and people will be chary of trusting themselves and members of their families on a craft that is likely to throw in the excitement of a blow-out, with a 50c. afternoon trip. Some one with authority, and sense enough to know what is right, should go over the machinery and fittings and get the outfit into proper and safe condition. The boiler of a craft may be tested, and may show ample strength, but if the fittings and connections are not subject to the same test, trouble will develop in some weak spot. To the management the advice is proffered—to get the boat right, and if this advice is neglected the general public will determine for themselves what to do. General statements about a $5,000 boiler are no solace to those who were scalded and had clothes ruined. The boiler is all right, it was made by competent men, but the fitting up has left opportunity for blow-outs. Get the boat right.

PURITY OF MILK SUPPLY

All cities are giving the purity of their milk supply strict attention. When it is considered that hundreds of young lives depend upon the quality of the lacteal fluid provided, the punishment of those who would resort to adulteration cannot be made too severe. The mere testing of milk is not enough. It should be delivered in a sanitary condition, and the surroundings of herds of dairy men should be clean and wholesome.

Discussing this important question the Montreal Star sensibly observes:—

It is an agreeable duty to record the judgment by Recorder Dupuis, fining a man convicted of selling milk from a filthy milk can, and promising a much heavier punishment for the next individual brought before him charged with this offence. When the plea was made for the milk seller that he was "poor," the Recorder retorted that we must remember how many poor children he may have sent to the cemetery" as the result of his carelessness. Recorder Dupuis has a soul for babies, even if he is a trifle callous on the subject of horses.

The only way to convince milk sellers that the people will have this food for the weak handled in a sanitary manner is to arrest on sight every "man Jack" of them found treating milk otherwise, and then to impose on them penalties so heavy that they will be severely felt. We must show the milk vendors that we are in earnest over this matter. When nearly two hundred children die in this city in one short week, it is no time for half-measures or anything approaching pity, for the men who assume the frightful responsibility of retailing the food of delicate infants without exercising the greatest vigilance in protecting it from dirt and contagion.

This milk problem is one that a city of the size of Montreal should take up in a serious and thorough manner. We ought to provide a system of inspection which will guarantee us against the careless handling of our milk from the milker to the milk-pitcher. This will be difficult; for it is impossible to watch all the people engaged all the time. But this weakness must be met by inflicting very heavy punishment upon those we do catch. If the penalties be made severe enough, every man in the milk business will be afraid to run the risk of being caught, and will keep his milk clean even if he only sees an inspector once a year. More crimes are stopped by making the punishment adequate than by exercising the greatest vigilance against their perpetration.

PEN POINTS

Have you paid your taxes?

Remember, on or before August 1st, is the date on which you should pay your taxes, and the early bird saves the discount.

"Do not forget to take a holiday. It will do you good and remove the impression that the establishment cannot move along without you," remarks an exchange.

Premier Whitney made a definite announcement when he came into power that hotel men must keep hotel, which implies that they must keep the license law under which they do business. Convictions for illegal sales of liquor serve to show that he meant what he said.

Port Hope is growing economical. The town council proposes to abolish the office of tax collector and allow the taxes to be received by the bank. The clerk will send out the notices and issue warrants while the bank will collect the taxes. The bylaw giving effect to the change has passed its first reading and the tax collector, who has been getting the munificent salary of $200 a year, will likely find himself out of a job.

Many men are Runners after every office that comes along, and they never get there. Now, the Inspector of public schools in Peterborough is only a Walker but he seems to outdistance all rivals. Last week he was honored with the appointment of D.D.G.M. of Otonabee District, A. F. & A.M., and this week he has been selected as one of the assistant principals of the Ontario Normal Schools. A better choice could not have been made in the whole pedagogical population of the province. Mr. Walker's work since coming to Peterborough has in every way bespoken his worth.

Some complaints are being made about the manner in which the assessment is being raised in the south ward. It is stated that values have been almost doubled in certain cases. Of course, few men like to have their assessments raised. This seems to be natural but the question looms up,—how very valuable almost any property is when some one desires to purchase it, but, alas, how rapidly it shrinks its worth when the assessor approaches. It all depends upon the view point. And, by the way, it is generally conceded that real estate in the south end has been assessed at too low a figure of late years, considering the steady expansion of that part of the city, the industrial development, the extent of building operations, and the price which lots are bringing and have advanced in value of late years. It is easy to abuse the city assessors but both of them are experienced, careful, level-headed men and are doubtless able to stand all the fault-finding and scolding that may be heaped upon their shoulders.

The Brantford Expositor (Liberal) in referring to the proposed tour of Canada by Mr. R. L. Borden, the Conservative leader in the Dominion Parliament, says;

There are many advantages to a political leader in appearing before the people and personally presenting the case.

With the growth and development of the press as a feeder of public opinion the power and prestige of the platform have declined somewhat.

But, in the face of the great problems which are forcing themselves to the front for solution, there will be abundant scope for discussions both in the press and on the platform.

Great political leaders are too seldom seen on the platform in this country. The public discussion of national issues should not be confined to the halls of parliament. The great speeches of the day should be delivered before the common people who constitute a tribunal from which there is no appeal.

Scavengers Should All be Licensed

Some of them do Their Work in Ship—Shod Fashion

"The city is in a better sanitary condition this season than it has been for some years," remarked Sanitary Inspector Ball to the Review today. "Generally speaking it is pretty clean although there are a few exceptions but I am getting after all offenders, and expect soon to have all causes of complaint removed. There is one matter that I would like to see carried out, and that is all scavengers should be licensed, then I could see that they do their work properly. If these men came under the control of the Board of Health, it would greatly facilitate me in my work. Some of them do their work in a half-hearted, ship-shod fashion, while others scarcely do it at all or collect an excessive amount for what they do. There are some reliable scavengers, however, and they do anything assigned to them in a satisfactory and prompt manner. The householder gets full value for the money he pays and after giving an order has it attended to at once. But all those who engage in scavenging do not fill the bill and it would greatly improve the situation if they were licensed by the city."

Milk Tests Will be Made Known

On Monday—Inspector Ball Has Received Analyses From Toronto

Sanitary Inspector Ball has finally received the analyses of all the milk tests made in Toronto and the results will be given out for publication on Monday next.

This will be the first time in the history of the city that the tests have been published. Two or three samples of milk have been taken at different times from each dairyman and forwarded to Toronto for analyses. The final report was received only a few days ago, by Inspector Ball. A meeting of the Board of Health has been called for Monday morning next, when he will lay the information before the members.

The public has been patiently waiting for some months for the publication of the tests.

BOMB. EDWARDS AT PETAWAWA

Writes Interesting Letter to Local Military Man

A local military man has received a letter from Bomb. T. J. Edwards, of the 24th Field Battery, who is a member of the picked artillery team that is to meet the British gunners in a shooting competition at Petawawa camp. Bomb. Edwards says in part, "We arrived at Petewawa on the same train as the Englishmen. They are a magnificent squad of men, physically. Of course we have yet to try them at the shooting. I think we are up against a hard thing as they are all old heads, and all non-coms at that."

"We certainly did not come down here on a picnic. Our programme every day so far, and what we are likely to have until Saturday is as follows,—up at 5.30; gun drill about 7; breakfast; gun drill again until about 12; dinner at one; gun drill from 2 to 6. So you see we haven't much time except in the evenings. However, if the work is hard, the messing is splendid. Our officers are, Major Morrison, in command; Capt. Brown, second in command; Lieut. Field and Captain Cloud, section commanders. We don't begin to fire in the competition until about Saturday. We are going to shoot the first preliminary tomorrow, Friday."

The Music Was Much Enjoyed

Salvation Army Band Gave Delightful Concert Last Night

The Salvation Army band played in Victoria Park last evening and contributed a splendid programme under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Greene. Several of the selections were encored, the applause being hearty and frequent. The bandsmen appeared in their new white summer caps, the appearance of which was much admired.

The band will leave in a few days on a week's tour and will visit many of the neighboring towns.

Copy. Port Perry, Ont., April 15th, 1905.

My Dear Sir—

I yesterday received Bonus Addition Certificate from the Canada Life Assurance Company, amounting to the handsome sum of $982.65, being the profits on my $4,000 policy, and in writing you at the present time, I wish to express my gratification in having nearly $1,000 more insurance than when I took out the policy in 1889.

With only three more payments to make, I find the Limited Payment Life Policy ever so much more satisfactory than any other, as under my policy all the premiums will be paid while I am yet under forty years of age, and I have an insurance in the Canada Life, which will be largely increased in amount, and particularly so, as life expectancy is nearly thirty years.

I think I have a right to feel pleased with the result of my insurance and investment in the Canada Life.

With best wishes
Yours truly,
W. G. MONET

Baseball News From Havelock

Havelock, July 25.—A meeting of all those interested in baseball will be held in the town hall on Friday night, 26th inst., when diverse important matters will be dealt with, and something done towards organizing the Havelock club. Havelock has some fine players in this line, as can be seen by the fact that they won out in the Trent Valley League two years, 1904 and 1905, and would have done the same last year had matters went on and they had been treated right.

On account of the objections raised last year to certain players on the Havelock nine, a team was not entered in the Trent Valley League this year. However, something will be done to satisfy the surrounding towns.

Suit for Slander is Withdrawn

Dr. Johnston Will Not Proceed Against Constable Doidge of Lakefield

The Lakefield News says:—We are informed that the suit for slander which was to have been instituted by Dr. Johnston, V.S., of Lakefield, against Mr Doidge, our worthy constable has been withdrawn without costs to the latter. Mr. Doidge regrets that owing to an error of judgment on his part he should have caused the arrest of a horse which had been under Dr. Johnston's care. As two veterinary surgeons have given an opinion regarding the ability of the horse to travel, in direct opposition to Mr. Doidge's ideas on the subject, he willingly defers to their superior knowledge.

PETERBOROUGH AND COBOURG

Fast Game Assured for Tomorrow—Burridge Will Play

Harry Burridge, the crack backstop of the local baseball nine, had one of his legs severely scalded in the accident on the steamer Otonabee at Idyl Wyld last night, but his injury will not keep him out of the game against Cobourg tomorrow. He will be able to do the receiving and to handle the hickory as usual, although he will not be able to run the bases. Some of the other speedy ones will make the circuit for him and the team will be as strong as usual.

Tomorrow's game with the Cobourg nine is attracting a lot of interest and a big crowd will see the contest. "Prunes" Quinlan will be on the mound for Peterborough and will endeavor to repeat his performance against Port Hope, when he pitched a no-hit game. The other members of the team are in fine shape and will put up the game of their lives.

Cobourg is bringing up the strongest team that can be mustered and they are determined to win. It is likely that they will use an imported battery as they intend winning at any cost.

Weeks of Bowmanville will umpire and the game starts at 3.30.

By Killarney's Lakes and Dells

Peterborough Gentlemen See the Sights in the Land of the Shamrock

A letter has been received in the city from Mr. R. J. Munro, who is on a trip to the Old Country, along with several other Peterborough gentlemen. Mr. Munro states that they had a fine voyage across the big pond and also had the pleasure of seeing some big icebergs. The party are attending the Dublin exposition and incidentally viewing the beautiful scenery in that part of Ireland, including the lakes of Killarney.

HAND CAUGHT IN MACHINERY

Chas. Cheverill, Baker, Had to be Taken to Nicholls Hospital

Chas. Cheverill, a baker, employed at Stock's bakery on Sherbrooke street, had one of his hands severely injured by having it caught in the machinery while at work this morning. The hand was drawn into one of the machines, but fortunately the belt was slack and the machine stopped. Had it not been for this Mr. Cheverill's injury would have been much more serious. He was taken to Nicholl's hospital, where the injuries were dressed by Dr. Frederick.

Mr. Cheverill's home is at 514 Water street.

"Pen Pusher" Sends Last Budget From Y.M.C.A. Camp

Big Camp Fire on the Last Night—Results of the Athletic Events—Accident to One of the Boys

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—The Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp is now thing of the past for this year. To say that all have had a good time is putting it mildly. All in camp from the leaders, down to the smallest boy, have enjoyed the outing, which has been one of profit as well as pleasure, a social as well as a physical success. Commencing each day with a dip in the lake, then breakfast, then twenty minutes Bible Study, usually led by the secretary. Then after a short rest, the regular day's sport was commenced — boating, bathing, swimming, fishing and baseball, being chief sports, but a number of the boys spent some time each day in picking berries to eat at meal time. Several events occurred during the camp which helped the boys to have a change in their fun. One was visitors' day. This was probably the biggest event as the boys were presented with all kinds of good things to eat by parents and friends, while the pleasure of seeing the people from home was very great indeed. Then came the excursion from Lakefield which gave the campers a chance to trim the Lakefield baseball team.

THE FIELD DAY.

But the last day and night was perhaps the crowning one of all. Wednesday, the last day, was field day, and the boys entered into the sports on land and water, with a will The results of the sports are as follows,—

Land, 60 yards run — D. Hatton, Mills.

Standing Broad Jump,—D. Hatton, Minorgan.

Wheelbarrow race—E. Hatton and V. Stevens, Minorgan and Fortye.

Boot race—E. Hatton, Mills.

Three legged race—Minorgan and Fortye, D. Hatton and Parks.

Potato race—D. Hatton, Minorgan.

Hop, step and jump — Minorgan, Perks.

WATER.

Single rowing—D. Layfield, D. Hatton.

Double rowing—D. Hatton and Stevenson, E. Hatton and Perks.

Crab race—D. Layfield, E. Hatton

War Canoe race — Mills, Fortye, Minorgan, Layfield.

Swimming—D. Layfield, Mills.

Results of first, second and third in points,—

D. Hatton, land 7, water 3, — 10.
Minorgan, land 7, water 1 — 8.
E. Hatton, land 4, water 2, — 6.
D. Layfield, land 0, water 7, — 7.

As Wednesday night was the closing night a big camp fire was built and enjoyed by everyone. Then later on in the evening, the boys commenced the night's proceedings by letting down tents, putting each other in the drink, etc. Some of the boys removed their bedding to the wood pile down near the ball field, but were discovered and blocked up by the rest. Soap, Gold-Tooth and Cheek removed their belongings to the verandah of Flinnigan's cottage, and also removed themselves with it. Then they spread it out on the floor and crawled into, or onto, the blankets to pass the night. No one in camp thought of disrobing but kept dressed, ready for any emergency, as no section knew when it would be called on to defend itself from one of the other sections. During the night some of those who fell asleep had their faces blackened by the watchful ones. But presently morning came, and with it breakfast to cheer the tired campers.

AN ACCIDENT.

One incident happened on Monday evening about 7.30, which put a damper on the boys spirits for some time. "Tige" Dean, one of the merriest boys in camp was in swimming and jumped in off the wharf. about two feet about the water. He struck a stone with his left foot and slipped on it, straining his ankle and knee. The physical director and G. Martin brought him out of the water, where he was standing on one foot and placed him on some blankets on the bank. Everything possible was done for him, and he is now rapidly recovering. No bones were broken and a doctor who was summoned said that rest would fix him up. "Tige" took the accident good naturedly and all the boys wish him a speedy recovery.

At about three o'clock Thursday afternoon the boat pulled in and carried off about as sleepy a bunch of campers as ever lived, and had their being on Sandy Point. But although they were sleepy from the night's fun, they were also well satisfied and a big camp is looked forward to by all for next year.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space, I am,

As Ever,
PEN-PUSHER.

Round the World Traveller Was in Peterborough To-day

Peterborough had an interesting visitor to-day in the person of Mr. W. H. Ponton, of England, who was a guest at the National. Mr. Ponton is an Englishman of wealth and leisure, who is travelling around the world and stopping at the principal points in the different lands through which he passes. He had heard of Peterborough and especially the hydraulic lift lock and stopped off here to see the big concrete structure with its big pontoons and fine working machinery

Mr. Ponton left England several weeks ago, travelling eastward. He spent some time in Japan and then crossed the Pacific, stopped at the leading British Columbia cities and also explored the wonders of the Canadian rockies. He has travelled across the continent in leisurely fashion, dropping off at the leading places. From Peterborough he will continue eastward until he reaches the Atlantic and will then take ship for Old England.

Young Lady Badly Injured, Trying to Stop Runaway Team

While trying to stop her father's team from running away, Miss Birdie Grey, daughter of Mr. J. Grey, Otonabee township, was knocked down yesterday evening and seriously injured.

One of the horses trampled upon her, and as a result she will be confined to her room for several days. Miss Grey, whose home is some distance this side of Hiawatha village, received a nasty cut over her right eye, the pinna of her right ear was nearly severed, and she was otherwise badly shaken up and bruised. A Peterborough physician, who happened to be in that vicinity, attending a sick child was hastily summoned. He had to put ten stitches in the opening over the eye and also several in the ear.

The accident happened about six o'clock. The team started to run away from the yard, when the young lady endeavored to stop them and received the injuries already mentioned.

DAN WHETUNG IN HOSPITAL

Mr. Dan Whetung of Chemong village, the well known postmaster of that place, was taken to Nicholls hospital this morning, in Belleghem's private ambulance. He is suffering from pleurisy and is seriously ill although it is expected that he will pull through all right. Mr. Whetung's many friends will hope for his speedy recovery.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Begley of Lindsay, were visiting friends in the city today.

Havelock School Board in Session

And Meeting Was Not Concluded Until 2 O'clock—Other Notes of Interest

Havelock, July 25.—A meeting of the village School Board was held in S. S. Joyce's store on Wednesday night, when the muddle of the meeting of the week before was cleared up. The meeting was called for 8 o'clock but did not get under way until 11.45 p.m., ending at 2 a.m next morning. Messrs. Joyce, Holdcroft, Herrington, Black and Patterson were present. In the absence of Mr. Mathison, Mr. Patterson was appointed chairman.

The motion of last meeting appointing Miss Buchanan as principal and the motion to build the new addition to the school of cement were both withdrawn.

After a long-winded discussion, the Board decided to build the new addition to the school of brick in place of cement, if the brick did not cost $300 more than the cement.

Mr McDonald of Toronto, who was engaged to teach High School in Havelock, has accepted a position out west and the secretary was instructed to advertise for another teacher to take charge of that department.

The question of principal was brought up next and a considerable discussion on the advisability of engaging Mr. Priddle, to which certain members of the Board objected on account of his actions in holding up the Board for $700 salary last term when he knew it would destroy the pupils' chances for their examination if another teacher was engaged as it takes considerable time for a new teacher to get started properly. A salary of $650 was offered to Mr. Priddle, who being present, declined the offer, but after carefully looking over the ground, it was decided to give Mr. Priddle what he asked for, $675.

Dr J. J. Wade has bought out the practice of Dr. Rich. Coughlan of Hastings and took charge on Saturday last. Dr. Wade has been assistant to Dr. Holdcroft for the past couple of years. His many friends will wish him every success in his new practice.

Master Cyril Barlow, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Barlow, whose death occurred on Saturday night from appendicitis, was buried on Monday at the Maple Grove cemetery. Services were held at the house at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. D. Balfour. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Waymark died on Monday after a short illness. The funeral took place to the Maple Grove cemetery on Wednesday, services first being held at the house. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

SEVERE STORM AROUND WARSAW

As far as Could be Learned, However, No Damage Was Done

A severe storm passed over the vicinity of Warsaw last night about 12 o'clock. Peterborough got a share of the downpour and of the lightning and thunder, but the storm was not severe here. At Warsaw, however, the lightning was very bright and the thunder sharp and frequent. A large amount of rain also fell. As far as could be learned today, however, no damage was done.

Alex. Deroches, who escaped from the Hamilton asylum on Saturday, is still at large.

In Corea a plot by the ex-Emperor to murder the whole cabinet has been discovered. The new Emperor has ordered the punishment of the delegates sent to The Hague by his father.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY'S HOME

House on Hilliard Farm Was Looked Over Yesterday and Might be Acceptable.

The new home for the Children's Aid Society is an interesting topic in some circles and yesterday Mr. W. H. Moore, chairman of the City Trust Commission; Ald. A. Stevenson, secretary of the Commission, and Mayor McWilliams visited the Hilliard farm and looked over the house there. This building was a short time ago divided into two houses. One-half is now occupied and the other half has been considered as a new home for the shelter. If it is acceptable to all parties, including the commissioners, arrangements could be made to give probably an acre of land with it. There is a great drawback to this site, however, as there is no water, sewer electric lights, or any modern convenience.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows

Orillia Expects to Entertain About 1200 Visters

The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, which met in Peterborough last year and of which pleasant memories still linger will assemble in Orillia, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 13, 14 and 15.

The northern town is making big preparations to entertain the visitors and expects about 1,200 in all. Some fifteen triple linked brethren will go up from this city and the Orillia News-Letter announces that an excursion will be run from Peterborough on Wednesday, August 14. The Orillia News-Letter also says: From reports sent from different parts of the province there will be a very large attendance at the sessions of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, to convene here on August 13, 14 and 15. At the meeting of Geneva lodge on Monday evening, the billeting committee brought in a most encouraging report. They have canvassed the west and north wards for sleeping accommodation for the visitors, and will this week, begin a canvass of the south ward. Should they have missed any place in the west and north, where two or more delegates could find sleeping accommodation, they would regard it as a favor if the parties having such accommodation would leave their names with either Mr. J. A. Cousins, chairman of the billeting committee, or Mr. D. L. McIntyre, secretary of the general committee. As to table board the hotels and restaurants will have no difficulty in meeting all demands made upon them.

"The assembling of the Grand Lodge delegates and their friends in Orillia for three days will be a notable event in the history of the town. All the principal towns in the province will have one or more representatives here. This is the first time the Grand Lodge has met outside the big cities, a fact sure to be appreciated by the citizens, who take such a pardonable pride in the attractions offered by our town to the sight-seer and pleasure-seeker.

The committee wish to thank the townspeople for responding so readily to their request for assistance in housing the visitors who will be made up of eight hundred delegates and four or five hundred friends. Excursions on the second day of the convention are already arranged for from Midland, Collingwood, Barrie, Toronto, Peterborough, and Lindsay, and others from the lodges up north, reports from which have not yet come to hand. In the afternoon of the 14th, a canoe regatta and list of water sports will be run off at Couchiching Beach Park, the famous Toronto war canoe crew being expected to participate. In the evening a monster parade will take place, the particulars of which are guarded with the closest secrecy by the local brethren, but it is expected that the visitors will "make Rome howl," and paint the town in vivid vermilion.

TAX COLLECTOR GREEN AT HOME

Monday Will be Merchants' Day and all are Invited to Attend —Mechanics To-day

Today is mechanics day at the city tax collector's office and Mr. Green is extending the glad hand to all the men and women who have accepted his kind invitation to call upon him at his office. The host is assisted by several of his friends and cold water is served in the city engineer's office. Mr. Green's costume is very becoming and quite comfortable for this weather. In addition to the light striped trousers, he wears a delicate mauve taffeta duster over a point d'esprit shirt front which is trimmed with white linen collar and cuffs, a yellow tie and old gold links and buttons.

The collector is very busy and can only spare a minute or two to chat with each friend and to give them a receipt for their money. Up to the present time he has taken in as many thousand dollars as most people have coppers, and by the way the glittering coin was being shoved under the wicket there will not likely be much left uncollected.

On Monday, all day, starting at eight o'clock in the morning, Mr. Green will be at home in his office to all the merchants and business men in the city. This will be a special day for them and everyone of them is urgently requested to avail themselves of the opportunity to pay their taxes and then smile at their friends who are climbing the stairs to follow suit. There are only a few more days left and anyone who has not yet paid up will be received with pleasure Monday or Tuesday.

Are You Strong?

Do You Eat and Sleep Well? —Or Are You Pale, Weak and Miserable?

Has your nerve given out? Have you lost confidence in yourself? Has work become such an awful burden that you look upon it with horror?

There's just one thing left to do, and that is to take Ferrozone and get your system into good shape again.

It's quite impossible for anyone to be weak or nervous that uses Ferrozone. It contains so many strength-giving properties benefit is bound to result from its use.

Ferrozone possesses the power to kindle new vitality and vigor where almost a dying condition of weakness exists.

It is an extraordinary and magical tonic, containing more actual nourishment and strengthening elements than you can get at in any other way. As a blood purifier, nerve strengthener and appetizing tonic there is simply no equal to Ferrozone. Of this we are positively sure.

It is crowned with the success of splendid cures; will restore anyone to health who uses it. The following letters from people who have actually experienced what Ferrozone can do will clearly show you just how beneficially it acts:—

No Medicine Ever Did So Much Lasting Good as Ferrozone.

"It would be difficult to express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Ferrozone," writes Miss Eva Wight, of Florenceville. "I was so weak and miserable that I could scarcely go around the house. My head ached, there was a dragging weakness in my limbs, and I felt as if every spark of life had left me. Ferrozone improved my appetite, toned up my blood, and soon made me well. Nothing I ever used did me half the good I got from Ferrozone."

The Great Tonic, Ferrozone, Brought Back Life.

"I am anxious to speak a good word for such a magnificent tonic as Ferrozone," says E. P. Gerow, of Yorktown. "I was wretchedly worn out. I was apprehensive, and lacked confidence. It was simply due to my very weak state. The only remedy that really did me lasting good was Ferrozone. It rebuilt my strength, has made me as vigorous and happy as a man could be. In the whole range of medicines I never used anything with half the merit I found in Ferrozone."

Though you spend a thousand dollars on doctors, you can't get a more vitalizing, strengthening tonic than Ferrozone. It is the best that money, combined with scientific research, can produce. If anything in this world will make you strong it must be Ferrozone. Others have proved its worth. You can easily do so for yourself. It will send new vital energy and renewed youth singing through your veins. It's nature's own remedy—a true food tonic.

Terrible Boating Disaster; Nine Men Lose Their Lives

Ten Young Men Upset From Launch in Humber Bay.

The Sole Survivor Dazed By His Experience—Homes of Toronto Junction in Mourning—Gasoline Engine Ceased to Work and the Boat Was At the Mercy of Turbulent Sea.

Toronto, July 27.—The hand of Death stretched out across the Humber Bay in the early hours of yesterday morning. Its cold fingers closed about nine young men in the black darkness and sorrow entered into eight homes in Toronto Junction.

The drowned are: Joseph Irwin, aged 20; John Irvine, aged 20; Walter Dundin, aged 20; Frank Kyle, aged 18 Glen Daly, aged 26; Frank Daly, aged 22; Dawson Mahrgang, aged 20; Gordon Lorce, aged 20; Reginald Miller, aged 19. All were residents of Toronto Junction.

Saved: George Shields, aged 19, Toronto Junction.

The bodies recovered yesterday were those of Walter Dundin, John Irvine, and Joseph Irwin.

Just as the 18-foot gasoline launch Dalvine, bearing its human freight of ten young men entered the Humber Bay the blinding storm struck her and her engine, which had been repaired but a week before, gave out.

The night, which had been dark, became darker; the wind rose to a gale and the little boat, heavily overcrowded and with her engine stopped, drifted into the trough of the waves.

Panic reigned on board and in a moment a wave greater than the others swamped the little boat and the ten were struggling in the water.

Six Gained a Hold.

When the half-drowned lads, clambered back upon the overturned boat, they numbered but six.

The boat was tossed about. From time to time this one or that was dashed from his hold by the waves.

Again a greater wave rolled the boat over and this time but three returned. These were George Shields, J. C. Irvine and Walter Dundin.

From this on the battle for life was desperate indeed.

The exhausted men clung to the trembling craft, dashed this way and that by the fury of the storm.

At last the battered boat was cast upon the wind-racked shore opposite the Sunnyside Bolt Works, but only two of the men were with her, and one lay buried in the sand inert and lifeless. This was Walter Dundin. The other was George Shields, the sole survivor.

Dazed and weary he reached his home at 4 o'clock in the morning, and explained the situation as best he could, and, staggering to his bed, fell into a deep sleep.

Meanwhile the news spread about the town from lip to lip, passed on by frightened men and women in the street from door to door until a pall of gloom spread over all the place.

Send Off to Friend.

The evening had opened with joy and laughter. The ten, with Collin Campbell of Quebec avenue in the Junction, gathered to give their friend, George Carson, McMurray street, a "send-off" on his departure. The 12 had boarded the launch at its moorings in the Humber River and proceeded to Toronto Bay, where Carson got out to catch his train at the Union Station. Campbell accompanied him, while the others put out for the island, which they reached at 9.30 o'clock. There they landed, and as a storm broke, sheltered until 12.30, when they put out for home.

They reached the Humber Bay about 1.45 o'clock, as ascertained by the stopping of a watch found upon J. C. Irvine, whose body was recovered yesterday afternoon, and from P. G. Lewis, who heard cries, as did Nightwatchman C. C. Pressy, who also heard the cries.

In explaining the cause of the accident, Geo. Shields, the sole survivor, stated that when about 200 yards from the shore at Sunnyside, just about opposite the west gate of High Park, the engine suddenly stopped, and before anyone had hardly time to think, a wave struck the craft broadside, overturning it, and pitching the ten of them out into the water.

Two Brothers Drowned.

St. Johns, Que., July 27.—Two brothers, Philip Meunier, aged 25, and Arthur Meunier, aged 20, from St. Alexander, met their death by drowning at Brabotte Creek, about two miles south of here, yesterday morning.

While out sailing one of them accidentally fell out of boat, and the other in attempting to rescue him also fell overboard, and both were drowned.

Drowning at Hull.

Ottawa, July 27.—Two Hull men started to row across the Ottawa Thursday night. In midstream they changed places, and the boat toppled over.

Joseph Girard made for the shore, while his companion held to the boat. Girard rowed back to the spot, but the man, Louis Bouthotte, was gone. He was [illegible] years of age.

No Bookmaking At Regina Fair.

Regina, Sask., July 27.—There will be no bookmaking at the Regina Fair this year, although one of the best race cards ever put on in the west is to be run, and every race will be filled. The Department of Agriculture of the province and the department of the Attorney-General have shut down on the bookmaking and those who desire to make the races more interesting by wagers will either have to buy the pools downtown or make private bets on the grounds.

To Oust Directors.

Windsor, July 27.—A new suit has been started by a faction of the Reuthal Mining Company of this city to void an election of directors. A temporary injunction restricting the directors from acting has been granted.

Strathcona Coming.

London, July 27.—(C. A. P.)—Lord Strathcona is a passenger on the Empress of Ireland, which sailed yesterday from Liverpool.

FOUR WERE SENTENCED

Two of the Lindsay Counterfeiters Set at Liberty.

Three Years for Burke, Two for Logie—Bouyeau and Wynn Get One Month Each—Eveleigh Released on His Own Bail—Miller Acquitted Upon the Evidence—Information Withdrawn Against Goslin.

Lindsay, July 27.—The Lindsay counterfeiters, and those accused with them, were sentenced yesterday as follows:—

Burke—Three years in the penitentiary.

Logie—Two years in the penitentiary.

Bouyea and Wynn—One month in jail, each.

Eveleigh, released upon his own recognizance.

Miller—Acquitted upon the evidence.

The crown had already withdrawn the information against Goslin.

The speeches by counsel for the various defendants, and the remarks from the bench occupied precisely one hour and a half.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the magistrates ascended the bench and called the case of George Miller.

Miller's case fell under Magistrate Moores' jurisdiction. It had been enlarged from Tuesday last, and little doubt existed as to how it would be disposed of. Nevertheless, his worship read a long opinion, in which he scored the testimony given by Burke and Logie as "tainted evidence." They had differed between themselves, he pointed out, as to the date of the "money-making," which they claimed young Miller had assisted. The information lodged by the crown had charged Miller with having counterfeit bills in his possession on Jan. 26, 1905. Logie's testimony fixed the time at March or April, 1904. Burke's recollection was still more astray. He had located the crime as being committed in the autumn, and he was uncertain about the year. The magistrate held that these discrepancies were fatal. The charge laid the crime as committed on Jan. 26, 1905. No witness could recall that date. But, apart from that, the court held that he could not convict upon the uncorroborated evidence of two accomplices.

Hence, Miller was discharged, amid loud applause, followed by handshakings and general congratulations.

Three Years for Burke.

Burke was next called for sentence. By common consent he was acclaimed as the ringleader of the gang when the counterfeiters were arrested, and picked upon for the awful example. It was known that his sentence would be severe.

He might have gotten 14 years, but Magistrate Jackson made it three.

Next came Logie. He is said to be 50 years old. He was mixed up with Burke and counterfeiting, as far back as 1905, and then again, in 1907. Magistrate Moore, however, found him less guilty than Burke, and gave him two years in the penitentiary.

Bouyea and Wynn came next, and each man got 30 days in jail.

Pleased the People.

The last defendant to be called was Eveleigh. The crown moved for sentence and suggested that a remand would be satisfactory. He left the court room a free man, upon giving his own recognizance. He was the first man to be arrested and likely led to the capture of the others.

The crowd, which cheered the acquittal of Miller, was no less enthusiastic when Bouyea and Wynn escaped with a nominal sentence, and Eveleigh with no sentence at all. Magistrate Jackson intimated that a higher power might reduce the sentence of Burke and Logie's attorney applied for a certificate that his client had been used by the crown as a witness, thus indicating that he would apply for commutation.

New Oil Area Opened.

Chatham, July 27.—The beginning of a new oil area in the district hitherto unknown in oil production was heralded with authentic news that a 75-barrel-a-day well was struck in Tilbury West Township, and a 40-barrel well in Mersea, adjoining, both in Essex County.

The records are according to official measurements.

Lightning Strikes Yacht.

Montmagny, Que., July 27.—The yacht Raoul, owned by Judge Simard of Baie St. Paul and occupied by himself and his family, was struck by lightning near Cone Island about 3 p.m. Fire caught the vessel, which sunk about 6 p.m. Judge Simard, his family and crew were saved by the lighthouse-keeper.

Incompetency Charged.

Ottawa, July 27.—Ald. Askwith at a special meeting of the fire and light committee last night demanded the resignation or suspension of Chief Provost for alleged incompetent handling of the fire at the Edward's lumber yards. No action was taken.

An enquiry conducted by the county judge is likely.

Belfast Strike Breaking.

Belfast, July 27.—Compromise has resulted in a partial break of the strike among the dock laborers of this port, that has been going on for a month or more, and yesterday morning a thousand men went back to work unloading coal steamers. The cart drivers are still out.

Admitted to Royal College.

London, July 27.—The following have been admitted as members of the Royal College of Surgeons: N. Allin and John Duncan of Toronto University, and F. W. Aris of Montreal.

Dead At 107.

Quebec, July 27.—Agnes Hunt, wife of the late William Hunt of this city, died Thursday at the Ladies' Protestant Home, at the age of 102.

The man found dead on the mountain at Hamilton on Saturday, has not yet been identified.

THE NEUTRAL STATES PROBLEM.

The United States Accepts the French Proposal.

The Hague, July 27.—Speaking yesterday before the committee which is considering the duties of neutral states during warfare on land, Brig.-Gen. Geo. B. Davis of the American delegation declared that the United States associated itself with the French proposal, which sets forth that a neutral state is only responsible for the acts of its subjects if these acts are committed upon its own territory; that the responsibility of a neutral state is not involved by the fact that some of its subjects take service with a belligerent, and that a neutral state is not bound to prevent its subjects from exporting arms and ammunition for the use of a belligerent. Gen. Davis accepted also the principle of the German proposal that a neutral state is bound to prevent its subjects from entering the service of a belligerent.

Aiamare Sati, the Japanese Minister to Holland and Denmark, has communicated to Dr. Tets van Goudrian, Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs, the signing of the Japanese-Korean convention replacing the treaty of 1905. All the Japanese diplomatic representatives abroad will make similar communications to the Government to which they are accredited.

JAPANESE FOR CANADA.

Ottawa Declines to Prevent 1,200 From Landing.

Vancouver, B.C., July 27.—Ottawa has declined to prevent the landing here of 1,200 Japanese, including twenty-five women and children on the British tramp steamship Kumeric, which arrived yesterday.

All but nineteen have passed the medical examination. Others will be permitted to land. All are from Honolulu, where hotelkeepers union in opposition to planters' association are engaged in shipping Japanese to this country.

They will continue to come until there is a law or head tax against them, says the agent in charge of the shipload yesterday. He denies that either the G.T.P. or C.P.R. are bringing them. He says they are drawn here by higher wages, and estimates that there are 75,000 Japanese in Hawaiian Islands.

Each Jap paid $20 passage and made a deposit of $25 with Hotelkeepers' Union Agent Chillingworth, a Honolulu Senator, this amount being required before entering the Dominion.

The Moroccan bandit has forbidden Kaid MacLean to send letters to his friends. Fighting is in progress at Melilla between the troops of the Sultan and the Pretender.

A GOOD COMPANY RESULT

Copy. Port Perry, Ont., April 15th, 1905.

My Dear Sir—

I yesterday received Bonus Addition Certificate from the Canada Life Assurance Company, amounting to the handsome sum of $962.65, being the profits on my $4,000 policy, and in writing you at the present time, I wish to express my gratification in having nearly $1,000 more insurance than when I took out the policy in 1889.

With only three more payments to make, I find the Limited Payment Life Policy ever so much more satisfactory than any other, as under my Policy all the premiums will be paid while I am yet under forty years of age, and I have an insurance in the Canada Life, which will be largely increased in amount, and particularly so, as life expectancy is nearly thirty years.

I think I have a right to feel pleased with the result of my insurance and investment in the Canada Life.

With best wishes

Yours truly,

W. G. MONET

THE JUDGE TO CHARGE

Closing Scene at Hand in the Haywood Case.

Senator Borah Sums Up for Prosecution—Impelling Force, He Declares, Came From Denver—Pettibone's Silence Significant—Judge Wood Addresses the Jury To-day—Haywood's Family in Court.

Boise, Idaho, July 27.—Senator Borah concluded his address at 7.20 p.m., and Judge Wood announced that he would charge the jury in the Haywood case at 10 a.m. to-day.

As early as 7 o'clock yesterday morning the court house doors were besieged by hundreds seeking admittance to the courtroom.

Inside the court, as the next to the last day of the trial began, Haywood sat, surrounded by his family. His invalid wife, whose helpless condition and pallid face have attracted so much attention and sympathy, sat immediately at his right, and next to her was the gray-haired mother, who, Thursday, could not restrain the tears which welled to her eyes as Clarence Darrow made the last plea for the life of her son. The prisoner's daughter and sister were also in the family circle.

Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, the wife of the murdered governor, and her stalwart son, Julian, were early in the courtroom, and when they had been shown to seats inside the attorney's rail found themselves within seven or eight feet of Haywood himself. Attorneys from many cities in the west constituted a large proportion of yesterday's big audience.

Senator Borah began by reviewing briefly the points made in the opening hour of his address to the jury Thursday night. He said he would go briefly over the trail of blood left by Harry Orchard, taking first the murder of Governor Steunenberg and harking back over some of the most important incidents developed in the testimony.

"I hardly need to tell you sensible men," declared the pleader, "that Pinkerton detectives had nothing to do with the assassination of Frank Steunenberg. That is one of the most absurd of the many absurd things brought into this case by the learned counsel of the defence."

Senator Borah, in laying the foundation for his argument of conspiracy, pointed out that Orchard went to Caldwell from Denver, and fresh from association with the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, who regarded Steunenberg as an enemy.

"Harry Orchard left Denver with crime in his heart," said the speaker. "The impelling, compelling force came from Denver. George Pettibone helped Orchard pack his utensils of murder in his trunk. Why is Pettibone not here to deny it? His silence is a confession of his guilt. Pettibone's absence is an absolute corroboration of Orchard."

Moulders to Help Haywood.

Philadelphia, July 27.—The convention of the Iron Moulders' Union of North America, now in session in this city, yesterday adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with Haywood and recommending that the executive board send circulars to all affiliated lodges soliciting financial aid for his defence.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Jack-the-Ripper in Berlin.

Berlin, Germany, July 27.—A fiendish and atrocious criminal made his appearance on the streets of this city yesterday, and five little girls are his victims.

The man approached the children on the streets, and by a deft stroke ripped open their stomachs with a knife. One of the children is dead.

Each crime was committed in a different locality, in the northern and eastern parts of the city.

The criminal approached his victims rapidly, one after another. He would seize a child with one hand and gash her rapidly with some sharp instrument held in the other.

Providing For Poor Years.

Ottawa, July 27.—An order-in-council has been passed relating to the British Columbia salmon fishery, providing that in 1907, 1908, 1910, 1911, and 1912, known as "off" or "poor" years, no one shall fish for salmon east of or above New Westminster Bridge, Fraser River, with nets of less than 7 inch mesh, from 6 a.m. Saturday to 6 a.m. Monday, during the period from July 1 to Aug. 25.

Had Adventurous Career.

Philadelphia, July 27.—Col. Philip Figyelmessy, Hungarian patriot and soldier of fortune, and friend of Kossuth and Garibaldi, is dead, at his home in this city.

While he was making a new record for himself in America, the Austrian Government set a price on his head.

Three Dead.

Brockville, July 27.—Grant Kilborn, a farmer residing near Brockville, discovered three valuable two-year-old heifers dead in his pasture. One had its throat cut and the other two are supposed to have been poisoned.

The matter will be made the subject of a searching investigation.

Lightning Exploded Dynamite.

Otter Lake, Mich., July 27.—Three persons lost their lives Thursday night when lightning struck the hardware store of W. S. Hemingway, exploding a quantity of dynamite.

Outbreak of Anthrax.

Quebec, July 27.—A herd of cattle at Charlesbourg has been found to be affected with anthrax. This is the first appearance of the disease in this district in 20 years.

Manitoba Judge.

Ottawa, July 27.—The appointment of Alexander Dawson of Winnipeg to be county court judge for the eastern judicial district of Manitoba was made official yesterday.

Information for Farmers.

London, July 26.—The Ontario Department of Agriculture will establish at Galt, Morrisburg, Collingwood, Perth, Essex and Lindsay, in connection with the high school work at those places, offices in charge of agricultural teachers, where farmers may meet for consultation. The reports and bulletins of the Department will be procurable at these offices.

Breakfast on One Burner.

A particularly convenient contrivance for housekeepers who get their breakfast over one burner stoves is a little toaster which costs 25 cents and holds on its sides four slices of bread.

On top of the invention a pot of coffee can be made or eggs cooked, and it may be stated that an excellent imitation of the poached egg of the chef may be had by boiling an egg soft, breaking it on top of a well buttered piece of toast slightly softened by hot water and sprinkling pepper, salt and tiny bits of butter over the egg, says Gas Logic. It does not look just like a poached egg, but tastes just the same and is far less troublesome.

Care of Brooms.

Brooms dipped for a few minutes in boiling suds once a week will last much longer than they otherwise would.

They should immediately afterward be plunged into cold water to stiffen the straw. This weekly bath is an excellent thing, for it so thoroughly cleans this dust gathering implement. If a housekeeper will take the trouble occasionally to clip the edges of the straws, the cleansing powers will be improved. This is because constant use sharpens the ends, and they do not gather the dust as well as when square, their first condition.

Mr. H. P. Bigar, a native of Belleville, has been appointed Dominion architect in Paris.

ELABORATE PLOT DISCOVERED.

Women Took Leading Part in Plot Against the Czar.

St. Petersburg, July 27.—While searching a house in this city, the police found a detailed plan of the Baltic Railway, which is an imperial line, and also a plan of the imperial yacht Alexandria.

The authorities will very soon be in a position, as a result of their investigations to issue indictments in the matter of the recent plot against the life of Emperor Nicholas. It is now known that women took the leading parts in this conspiracy.

The principals are Madame Fedossief, wife of a well-known St. Petersburg lawyer; a woman called "Comrade Nina," alias Petrova, who took the most prominent part in the activities, and who succeeded in making her escape to a foreign country; Boris Nikitenko, a retired naval lieutenant; Naounoff, a mail clerk; M. Emme, an instructor in the Imperial Lyceum, and three lawyers—Brussoff, Chiabroff and Zavadsky.

The man actually chosen to kill the Emperor is named Klossovsky.

The plan of the conspirators was to have this individual make his way into the presence of the Emperor while clad in the uniform of a sergeant of the Imperial Convoy.

The indictments detail the various stratagems employed by the plotters to obtain the desired information of the habits and movements of the Emperor, and show that espionage to this end was conducted in part through the medium of milk maids who supplied the royal kitchens.

Murdered By Soldier.

Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, July 27.—Col. Dobrowolsky, commander of the 21st Infantry, was shot and killed Thursday by a soldier of his own regiment, who is an ex-sailor of the mutinous battleship Tri Sviatitelia. The assassin fired three times from a rifle.

TWO MEN KILLED.

Wabash Freight Engine Explodes From Unknown Cause.

St. Thomas, July 27.—Two men were killed and a third will die as a result of the explosion of a boiler of a locomotive attached to a Wabash freight last night near Simcoe.

The dead are: Dennis Patterson, aged 28, and Louis Norton, brakeman, aged 35. Fred Calvert, the fireman, will die. All three men belong to this city.

The freight, eastbound, left Simcoe at 6.40 p.m., and was passing under the Schuyer bridge when the explosion occurred. The bridge was demolished.

Patterson was blown a considerable distance, and was terribly disfigured. He was killed instantly.

Norton, who was riding on the engine cab, was so fearfully scalded that he died half an hour after being brought to the hospital here by a special train. Dr. Stanton of Simcoe accompanied the train. Calvert, who was also brought here, has both legs broken and is badly scalded. He also inhaled so much steam that little hope is held out for his recovery.

The engine was wrecked and two cars of provisions were burned.

The cause of the accident is not known. Coroner McIntosh will conduct an inquest.

Passengers in a Panic.

Haverhill, Mass., July 27.—During an electrical storm yesterday lightning passed through a trolley car in which the New Bedford and Haverhill baseball teams of the New England League were riding, and in the stampede of passengers which followed, Edward Balaya of Auburn, N.Y., catcher on the New Bedford team, was thrown headlong to the pavement and suffered concussion of the brain. He was removed to the Hale Hospital and his condition last night is extremely serious.

Nearly all of the 75 persons on the car suffered bruises and some were seriously injured.

Rolled Over the Cliff.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 27.—William Burgess, who resides on Cataract avenue, went up to the river side at the foot of Queen street with his dog, and lay down on the grass. He must have dropped off to sleep and rolled over the precipice to the rocks, 100 feet below. His dog remained for some time and then picked up his master's hat in his mouth and returned home. Mrs. Burgess raised the alarm and men went below and found Burgess' lifeless body.

He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife, but no children.

Fire in a Tenement.

Ottawa, July 27.—In the height of a gale fire broke out in a wooden row of tenement houses on Lisgar street. Only by the prompt work of the department was a big part of the town saved, after some $2,000 damage was done. There was a period of excitement and anxiety for half an hour.

At Hull, too, prompt work by the fire department put out a threatening fire in Gilmour and Hughson's lumber yards, after some piles had been partially destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

First Philippine Elections.

Manila, July 27.—The approach of the first Philippine general election on July 30, when a Philippine congress will be chosen, is marked by apathy throughout the islands in spite of the strenuous efforts made by the party leaders to bring out the vote.

Reports received from the provinces indicate that less than ten per cent. of the entire voting population has registered.

Bottler Electrocuted.

Ottawa, July 27.—Philip O'Meara, fireman at Labatt's bottling establishment, was electrocuted late last night.

He was engaged in washing bottles, the brushes being worked by electricity.

He was 30 years of age and leaves a wife and two young children.

Cuban Elections Postponed.

Havana, July 27.—The Cuban elections, it is now generally conceded, cannot be held this year.

King Victor Emmanuel, it is announced in Milan, is to visit England with a fleet.

BLUEJACKETS FOR SEOUL.

Disarming the Koreans Is One of the Most Urgent Problems.

Seoul, July 27.—Arrangements have been made with the railway authorities to bring 4,000 Japanese bluejackets quickly from the squadron now at Chemulpo.

A mixed brigade of probably 7,000 Kiu Shiu troops began arriving at Fusan yesterday. Marquis Ito finally consented to bring Japanese troops to Seoul on account of two urgent problems: First, the disarming of the Korean army, and, second, the separating of the ex-Emperor from his troops and advisers, both of which the Cabinet is prepared to do as soon as there is a sufficient showing of troops to overawe any attempts at resistance and to quell any trouble that such action might occasion.

Evils Removed.

Tokio, July 27.—The members of the constitutional party holding seats in the House of Representatives passed a resolution yesterday expressing their belief that the nation would be satisfied with the speedy conclusion of the new convention with Korea, whereby the roots of existing evils would be removed.

Peace in the Far East would thereby be effectively secured, together with the advancement of Korea upon the pathway of civilization. They subsequently cabled the resident-general, Marquis Ito, the unanimous appreciation and gratitude of the meeting, at the prompt conclusion of the convention.

Is It the Holy Grail?

London, July 27.—The Express prints a story of the discovery, near Glastonbury Abbey, of a glass vessel of beautiful workmanship, and apparently of great antiquity, which the discoverers believe is the Holy Grail of the Arthurian Legend.

The Holy Grail is the cup which Christ is reputed to have drunk at the last supper, and, according to ancient British tradition, that was brought to England by Joseph of Arimathea after the crucifixion.

The vessel is of bluish green glass of some kind, cunningly inlaid with silver leaf.

French-Canadian Treaty.

London, July 26.—The Paris Figaro says that the negotiations connected with the French-Canadian commercial treaty are in an advanced stage.

The treaty ensures advantages to French cod fishers off the coasts of Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, while on the other hand, Canadian products imported into France will be subject to a special treaty.

My "Lady" Wins.

London, July 27.—The divorce court yesterday handed down a decree granting Lady Bagot of Rugely, formerly Miss Lillian May of Baltimore, the restoration of her rights as a wife. Lord Bagot was sued on the ground that his allowance of $4,000 to his wife was not sufficient.

Break the glass, remove the Key, and open the Box; pull the lever down, when the Alarm is at once transmitted to the Fire Hall, Pumping Station, and residences of the Firemen. ENJOYABLE TIME AT IDYL WYLD

The Bethany Tabernacle Sunday School Outing

An enjoyable day was spent by the members and friends of Bethany Tabernacle Sunday school yesterday on the occasion of their annual outing, when it was held down the river on the steamer Otonabee To Idyl Wyld.

About two hundred were on board. The popular resort on Rice Lake was reached shortly before noon and dinner was soon partaken of. Afterwards an interesting programme of races was run off and the events were closely contested. Among those who looked after the interest and welfare of all were Pastor Steuernagle, Mr. A. J. Johnston, Mr., Wallace Moore and others. The return home was safely made and Peterborough reached last evening about 7 o'clock. For the trip, pleasing musical selections were rendered by Messrs. Edmison and Redner. The outing was generally conceded to be the best ever held by the school. The winners of the races were,—

Boys under six—Harry Strain, Robert Moore, Percy Revoy.

Girls under six—Gladys Meredith, Beatrice Meredith, Lillie McCarthy.

Boys under nine—Charles Telford, Herbert Ross, Douglas Cunningham.

HOLD IT SOME OTHER NIGHT

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—You say that the Salvation Army gave a delightful concert last night. But it did not delight the many who are out of town when it plays on the half-holiday evening. Besides it is a travesty on the fitness of things to have two concerts on two successive evenings and then have none for the rest of the week. If we cannot have it half a week from the other concert, better to discontinue it and save our grant.

Yours, etc.,
MUSIC.

Electric Railways Radiating From the City Would Pay Well

This is the Opinion of a Local Citizen Who Points out What Has Been Done at Other Places—Peterboro' and District Have Many Natural Advantages.

"It beats me to understand why the street railway people don't extend their line to Lakefield, Chemong and Young's Point," said a local business man to the Review last night.

"If I had money to invest," he continued, "I wouldn't want a better investment than this street railway proposition. Why if this line was run to Lakefield, and then had two branches from there, one to Chemong and the other to Young's Point, I don't see how it could fail to make money. During the summer it is a sure thing that every car making this trip into the country would be crowded, especially if a moderate fare was charged for the round trip. Hundreds of people would flock to Chemong and Young's Point, for the boating and bathing at these places, while there would be countless numbers take the trip just for itself. The road could be run along the river from Peterborough to Lakefield, and would give one of the prettiest rides in Canada. Such a road would also give access to the Stony Lake region in a much more convenient manner and as the popularity of that district as a summer resort country seems to be increasing the cottagers and campers wishing to travel from Peterborough to the lakes would in itself furnish a large traffic."

"Then too the freight end of the project could be made to pay well," continued the Review's informant. At present the freight traffic between Peterborough and Lakefield is very large and there is no doubt but that an electric car service would get a large share of this, especially the transportation of cottagers' and campers' effects to the lakes."

As an example of the profitableness of electric roads radiating from the city, the gentleman referred to the case of Galt. When the electric line was first built between Galt and Preston, people thought the men behind the project were little short of crazy. Preston wasn't a particularly attractive spot, and the average man couldn't see how any money was to be made. The line was a success, however, and since then many miles of electric road have been built in that part of the province until at the present time there is almost a network of electric lines in the district surrounding Galt, And they are all paying well too. Very few places possess the natural advantages of Peterborough, and it seems strange that they have not been developed to a greater extent. A summer park at Chemong, or down the Otonabee river, with an electric line connecting it with the city would pay well. Jackson Park is so close to the city that when the band plays there, and the moving pictures are on, half the people walk out and walk home again, it is so convenient. The result is the street railway is not receiving the revenue it would if a summer park was operated five or six miles from the city. With a good car service thousands of people would flock to such a place every fine summer night and furnish good interest upon the money expended.

Perhaps some day somebody with money to invest will awaken to the possibilities of Peterborough and do something. There is very little doubt that if Peterborough was located in the United States the Yankees would soon make money from her many natural advantages and have electric railways radiating from the city to many points in the district

ABOUT THE BAND CONCERTS

Peterborough has two band concerts each week, one on Thursday night by the Salvation Army band and the other on Friday night by the band of the 57th Regiment. Both are high-class musical organizations and hundreds of people wend their way to Victoria Park, where the concerts are given to hear the excellent music that is always provided.

In connection with the band concerts the Review would make a suggestion which it believes would be appreciated by citizens generally if carried out. The concerts should be spread out over the week instead of being held as at present, one on Thursday and the other on Friday night. It would be better if the Salvation Army band played on Tuesday night and the 57th band on Friday night as at present. Furthermore Thursday afternoon is a half-holiday in the city and hundreds of people go out of town and are not back in time at night to hear the Salvation Army band play. Everybody wants to hear the Army band if the former organization played as well as the 57th band and on Tuesday night, many would be able to be present who cannot very well attend on Thursday evening.

A prominent citizen has also suggested to the Review that the band concerts should not always be held in Victoria Park. The people of the north end of the city would appreciate one of the bands playing in Inverlea Park. It is a pretty spot and it would be well if one of the bands played there occasionally instead of in Victoria Park.

These suggestions at any rate are worth consideration. An expression of opinion from citizens on this matter would be welcomed.

NEW POTATOES ON THE MARKET

Sales Made To-day at 40 cents per Peck

To-day's market was hardly up to the average and there was little of interest to note. Prices were much the same as last week with a few exceptions, Eggs went at 18c per dozen and butter sold at 24c and 25c pound, Chickens were quoted at the usual prices.

Outside the market hall there was a brisk demand for new potatoes and they sold rapidly. There was a fair supply on hand and the ruling price was 40c per peck. Last Saturday they sold at 50c. Other vegetables sold at the same price as last week.

A painful accident happened to Mr. Walter Woods yesterday, which will lay him up for several days. He was working on the sidewalks with Mr. Jack Thirnbeck's gang on Union street, and how the thing happened is somewhat of a mystery. He was taking the boards off the side of the walk with a crowbar, when the bar slipped through his hands and dropped on his big toe, inflicting a very nasty wound. He went to his home on Murray street, and Miss Matchett, trained nurse from Belleville, who is visiting at her home here, bound the wound up.

Many Heard Band Play Last Night

The 57th regiment band furnished an excellent programme at the band concert on Victoria Park last evening, and a large number of citizens gatherd to hear the good music. MUST NOT CARRY THE WATER AWAY

Constable Stopped Man Who Was Filling Pail at a Fountain.

Do you know that the only way you are allowed to carry water away from the public drinking fountains in this city is under your belt? It's true just the same. One afternoon this week P. C. Adams was sitting under the tree in front of the police station, when along came a man with a tin pail in his hand and started to fill it from the drinking fountain at the corner of Water and Simcoe streets. But it was no go. "No more of that," shouted the constable, and the man quickly turned off the tap, poured out the water he had in his pail into the brass cup, and drank it.

A person is entitled to all the water they can drink at the fountains but they mustn't carry it away in vessels. And it's a good rule too.

LOCAL OPTION FOR STIRLING

The News-Argus says;—There is talk of having a local option bylaw submitted to the ratepayers of that village at the time of the ensuing municipal elections in January next. A prominent citizen says that in his opinion such a bylaw can be carried if the churches take a hold of the matter in earnest. There is a likelihood that some action may be taken in the near future.

Oldest Resident of Peterborough Talks of Back Lakes 70 Years Ago

Mr. John Stone, of Burleigh Township, Aged 85 Years, Has Resided in the County Over Seventy Years—His Wife Walked from Lakefield to Toronto and Return in One Week Through Dense Forest—Only Survivor of Those Days Left—Cut Part of the Timber to Build the Market Hall—Saw the First Circus in Peterborough.

Mr. John Stone, who resides on a farm near Burleigh Falls, is one of the oldest pioneers in the county of Peterborough, and has lived nearly all his life around the back lakes. In the course of conversation the other day with a Review representative, he related many interesting stories of the early days at the lakes, when they were not the scene of so much gaiety and society, but were the haunts of the hunter and the trapper. "I have been over seventy years on these lakes," said Mr. Stone, "and I know every spot on them." He is now 85 years of age, and, considering his advanced years, is still hale and hearty. His son runs his farm and the old gentleman spends his time visiting his children. He is at present stopping with his daughter, Mrs. Sam Bryson, who resides on the east shore of Clear Lake.

Mr. Stone, in company with his parents and several brothers and sisters, came to this country at the age of six years, from Ireland. They took up land about a mile from Lakefield, although at that time Lakefield was unknown, and there was only a house here and there. It was not until many years later that the little cluster of houses was given the name of Lakefield. It was first known as "Silby." It was given this name by Mr. Thompson, a Scotchman, who started a sawmill there, and "Silby" was the name of the town he came from in Scotland, and his employers came from there also. Some years later the mills were burned and Mr. Thompson left the place, and the name was changed to its present one.

Mr. Stone's father was a great soldier and fought at the battle of Waterloo with Wellington, and also was engaged in the war with Egypt. He was entitled to a pension, which amounted to fifty cents per day. That was considered a great deal in those days and in this country. Mr. Stone related an incident which occurred after his father's death. The nearest place that the pension was sent to was Toronto, or Little York, as it was then called. Mrs. Stone, in order that she might get the money, undertook to walk from her home, near Lakefield, to Toronto, a distance of nearly a hundred miles. This was a most remarkable walk for a woman to accomplish, and it shows how much stronger and healthier the early settlers were compared with the people of the present day. She was just a week going and returning, which is exceedingly good time, considering that there were not fine roads that exist now, but only a blazed and rugged road by which she might find her way. She certainly could not have been very nervous or timid like most women, for to take that lonely road through a dense forest with its numerous wolves and bears that roamed through it, required a great deal of pluck.

There was no such place as Peterborough then, and Mr. Stone says when he first came but there was no a single house here. He recalled to memory the first small tavern that was erected in Peterborough, and remembers when George street was opened up, and it was the only thoroughfare in the place. Peterborough was then known as "The Plains." Mr. Stone said that George street was owned by a man named Deyell, who kept the tavern, and he gave the whole thing away for a fanning mill.

Mr. Stone also recalled the Mackenzie rebellion. His brother was among the volunteers who went to suppress it, but Mr. Stone was then only about fifteen years old and too young to go.

He remarked that he had had a good time in his day, although he had worked very hard. For over twenty years he had lumbered, and for thirteen summers in succession he drove the river. He worked for several lumber companies. For many years he was with the late Sam Jackson, and latterly for the late John Ludgate. He drove the river with logs right through to Quebec.

Speaking of the lakes, the old gentleman stated that there were many more islands on them then than at the present time. In the early days they were quite numerous. Mr. Stone is a great fisher and trapper, although the last three years he has done very little of it. He stated that with three other companions, who have since passed away, he always came back to the lakes and had a good holiday hunting and fishing. Deer were very plentiful then, and the lakes and rivers abounded with fish. "If we had fishing tackle that tourists now have," said Mr. Stone, "we would have got scores of fine fish. We had no tents to sleep in then, but we lay out on the ground and thought nothing of it. In those days I thought nothing of sleeping out in the snow, and never felt any the worse of it."

Mr. Stone, for the past forty years, has engaged in farming principally, but doing a little trapping and fishing as a pastime. He owns about the best farm in the township of Burleigh. He is still quite active, and a conversation with him is very interesting. He is well known around Stony Lake, and is very popular with the steamboat men, and whenever he wants to take a trip he jumps on the boat and his fare is never demanded.

Where he is at present staying there are the remains of an old log cabin, situated on a very steep rock. Many persons, climbing this rock, wondered who ever lived there. Mr. Stone said a man by the name of [illegible] lived there by himself. He was very wealthy, but was awfully stingy. He was known as "The Hermit." Mr. Stone told a yarn of how he pretended to have a toothache, in order that he might get some of the hermit's tobacco.

Mr. Stone says that he does not go to Peterborough very much. The last time he went was on circus day, but he did not go to the circus. Incidentally he remarked that he attended the first circus given in Peterborough. It was held on the market square. He also cut the timber that the present market building in Peterborough is built of, off some land in the vicinity of Sandy Point.

Mr. Stone is a very genial and obliging old gentleman. Although not as robust as in former years, he is not as feeble as one would expect for his advanced years. He still goes out fishing in his old punt, but now never ventures in a canoe. He is the only survivor of the family that came to this country in 1826. He also says that of all his fellow-workers driving the river, there is not one now living.

STIRRING CAREER OF BISHOP REEVE

Who Has Been Lately Appointed Assistant to the Archbishop

The following sketch of His Lordship Bishop Reeve, who was recently appointed to assist His Grace Archbishop Sweatman, taken from the Canadian Churchman, will be of interest to churchmen here as he has visited this city several times and may also confer the rite of confirmation on candidates presented here this coming November:—

The Rev. William Reeve was born in Lincolnshire, England, in a village which in his own day gave two other missionaries to the Church, the Revs. Roger and Robert Clark, of India. After a few years of agricultural life he entered into business, but he was soon influenced to offer himself to the C.M.S. for missionary work. Accordingly, he entered the C. M.S. training college at Islington, where he took an active share in college work and sport. Through the influence of Archdeacon Kirkby, a pioneer on the Mackenzie River, he was sent to Fort Simpson, then in the Diocese of Rupert's Land. With his young bride he set sail in April, 1869, for New York, from which through Minnesota he journeyed to Winnipeg. This part of the journey took two months. At Winnipeg he was ordained deacon by Bishop Machray and soon after started for Fort Simpson in a Hudson's Bay Co's supply boat. After a three months' journey he reached Fort Simpson. At that time the church had only two other missionaries in that vast territory, the Rev. R. McDonald at Fort Yukon, and the Rev. William Bompas, who had no fixed abode, but who wandered from fort to fort and from tribe to tribe by boat, canoe and dogsled. Fort Simpson is the oldest mission of the Mackenzie River country. Here a new life began for our missionary and his wife. So far were they from civilization that only twice a year could they receive letters from home. Their supplies, which came once a year, had to be ordered two years before. Sometimes they were two, and even three years in coming. In 1874 Bishop Bompas was consecrated for the See of Athabasca, and in that year he ordained Mr. Reeve to the priesthood. The next year a boarding school for Indian children was opened at Fort Rae, on the northern arm of Great Slave Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Reeve were placed in charge. Here in a fourteen feet square, which was both residence and school, for two years they taught. They then returned to Fort Simpson. In 1880 Mr. Reeve took over to England Bishop Bompas' translation of the Gospels for the Indians of the Mackenzie River district. Leaving some of their children in England, Mr. and Mrs. Reeve returned to Chipewyan in 1881, taking up there work similar to that which they had carried on at Forts Simpson and Rae. In 1883 Mr. Reeve was made Archdeacon of Chipewyan. When the diocese was divided in 1883 Chipewyan was included in the southern portion, which was called Athabasca and over which Bishop Young was placed. In 1891 Bishop Bompas gave up the supervision of the part of the diocese east of the Rocky Mountains, which retained the old name of Mackenzie River, and Mr. Reeve was chosen to succeed him. Bishop Reeve has since labored faithfully and incessantly to keep the Christian Indians under the influence of the church and to open up new missions. In 1891 the Bishop's house was burned, causing great loss and inconvenience, and in 1902 and 1903, he suffered serious illness, but he is now restored to health. When Bishop Young died in 1903, he was given episcopal oversight of the Diocese of Athabasca in addition to that of Mackenzie River and his home is at Athabasca Landing.

PAPER BLOWING ABOUT THE STREET

Alderman Says the Sanitary Inspector is Not Looking After the Business Places

With a good high wind blowing, yesterday was a fine day to judge whether or not the sanitary inspector is looking after the business houses in the central part of the city or not. That officer is, the Review has been informed by one of the aldermen, supposed to see that the back yards, lanes and alleys in the down town section are kept clean. It is strictly against the bylaw to allow paper and rubbish to accumulate at the rear of business houses, but the bylaw is not enforced as it should be, nor to the liking of the alderman. The Board of Works keeps men employed all the time picking up paper and other waste material on the streets, but it is impossible for him to accomplish very much when a gust of wind will sweep a cart load of paper out of the alleys and lanes and scatter it all over the city.

It is not right that such should be allowed, and yesterday lots of paper was blowing about, making a very unsightly spectacle for the hundreds of visitors from Campbellford and Lindsay, who were here. If the back yards of business houses were kept clean this objectionable feature would be largely overcome.

Victoria Mitchell, wife of William Mulligan, died in Omemee on Tuesday, July 16th, 1907. She was the youngest daughter of the late Samuel Mitchell, of Emily, and was 69 years of age. But two members of this family survive, Mr. Samuel Mitchell, of Cramahe, and Mrs. Richard Connell, of Emily.

Mrs. Mulligan was married on the 18th of July, 1857, to her now sorrowing husband, and if her health had permitted, intended to celebrate their golden wedding this year, says the Omemee Mirror. COUNCIL MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Appointment of Engineer for Fire Department—General Business to Come up

The council meeting on Monday night will probably be the last one until the first Monday in September. The Mayor and aldermen all want to get away for a time, and they want to let some of the city officials have a holiday, and it was decided to meet the last Monday in July instead of the 1st Monday in August, thus giving a clear month. The meeting will be an important one, too, as there are several matters to be taken up, one of which will be the appointment of an engineer for the fire department, the Board of Works and the Property Committee. Then there will be the usual committee reports, and a lot of general business, which will likely keep the city fathers going until about midnight.

James Harvey, employed on E. A. Smith's farm, Sparta, was struck on the spine with a hay fork on Monday.

MR. BORDEN'S TOUR

The announcement that Mr. R. L. Borden, the Conservative leader in the House of Commons, is going to make an extensive tour, practically covering all the Provinces, is one that should be welcomed by his followers. Indeed, there is no reason why his political foes should not be glad, as far as possible, to have an opportunity to hear Mr. Borden. If they do not desire to hear him it shows that their allegiance to their party is the outcome of blindness, prejudice and narrow bigotry, rather than of a broad, intelligent conception of the issues between the two parties. No man can lay claim to having an intelligent view of politics, whether he be Conservative or Liberal, who does not inform himself on both sides.

The better acquainted the people of the country become with those who lead in political affairs the better able are they to judge of their fitness for their positions. Mr. Borden has a policy distinct from that of the present Government at Ottawa, and one of its chief planks is electoral purity, and the adoption of stricter measures to prevent fraud in elections. His representations on this subject have hitherto met with refusal to act upon the part of the Government and ingenious devices to sidetrack Mr. Borden's efforts have prevailed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's followers in Parliament. Mr. Borden, too, stands for preserving the public domain for the benefit of the whole people, not for grafters in Parliament and their henchmen. The Liberal members and the Liberal press have not attempted to meet the charges made against their leaders, but have rather made light of them, laughed the whole thing off as if such transactions as have been brought to light were an exhibition of smartness rather than a cause for shame.

Mr. Borden has spoken ably in Parliament on these questions and made a forcible arraignment of the Government. His speeches have been read, and to many, no doubt, carried conviction, but it will bring what he has said home to the people with freshness and power when he appears before them. Mr. Borden has a pleasing personality, and has grown in the confidence and esteem of his fellow members since he assumed his duties of leader of the Opposition. The man who becomes a popular leader must come in contact with the people. To his being in touch with the masses the late Sir John A. Macdonald owed much of his success and power, and the same may be said of the present Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Mr. Borden has grown in favor throughout the country as he has become better known. There is every reason to expect that his strength will be added to by mixing with the electors at different centres as well as by presenting his views on the issues of the day. If objection may be taken to his addressing gatherings of the electorate this fall it can only be on the ground that the general elections for the Dominion are not likely to come on soon. There is practically no assurance of this. There seems every probability, at all events, that not more than one session will be held before an appeal is made to the country. When that appeal is made it will likely be made on short notice. Forewarned is forearmed, and a practical presentation of the issues of the day in the near future by the Conservative leader should have a beneficial effect whether the elections come sooner or later.

PEN POINTS

The short day movement is growing.

In the words of the poet, "have you paid your taxes?"

When Ottawa cannot furnish a political sensation it is good for a big fire at any time.

And it is so comforting to be told that the price of coal is advancing just as we are having a cool spell.

The results of the milk tests are to be published on Monday. We have waited long for the information, but it is now at hand.

Belleville is going to erect an isolation hospital. The date of the formal opening of such an institution in Peterborough is still unsettled.

Is it not about time that the formal opening of Peterborough's new fire hall took place. If it is delayed much longer, the station can scarcely be termed new.

Ottawa felt that it would be so crowded during the Old Boys re-union that it burnt up a few hundred square yards of lumber just to afford visitors ample standing room.

Why is it that the wicked, debasing and essentially vulgar practice of profanity and—worse, is so common amongst our young men, and men not so young, and mere boys?

A case of municipal indifference is furnished by the City of Calgary. A sewers bylaw was submitted to vote the other day for $56,000, at a cost of $53.25 for submission, but only 28 votes were polled. Of these the city officials cast 13.

The sentences meted out to those Lindsay counterfeiters was certainly very light. When the ring leader Burke got only three years, justice certainly did not err on the side of severity.

Peterborough is yearly growing to be a more and more popular excursion centre. The city is always glad to welcome visitors and send them away with a good impression of this thriving place.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier talks early and often nowadays, but not always consistently. Among other utterances in Montreal, he exultingly exclaimed; "One newspaper had suggested that he might end his career by Lord Laurier, but he only desired to remain a simple citizen of Canada.

"Simple citizen" sounds well. Simple must he be if he fancies people have forgotten that it is not many years ago since he indignantly declared, in reply to an elector, who at the time called him "Sir Wilfrid," that "he wanted no tin-pot titles—that he was a democrat "to the hilt," and shortly after accepted all the titles he could get. Vive la bagatelle!

Speaking of holidays an authority writes: But, of course, one man's work is another man's recreation. Possibly it is the condition of the stock market you wish to escape; and Buralhurst-by-the-Meadow, will do that for you better than Broadway-by-the-Sea. I like to be alone in a crowd of strange people, for I have a passion for humanity. Other people want to rough it in the loneliest wilderness; and that is what they should do on their holidays. No man can prescribe another man's holidays, but every man should take them. As some one has said we can do a year's work in eleven months but not in twelve, and it is equally true that we can do a week's work in six days, but not in seven. I venture to think that we would do even better in five, or five and a half.

Will Keep Watch On River Trent

Wild Ducks and All Other Game Will be Protected

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Campbellford and Seymour Branch of the Fish and Game Association held on Thursday evening last, it was unanimously resolved that the association should do everything in its power to protect wild ducks and all other game in this vicinity during the close season. Messrs. George Potts and Rod Keller, who are the government deputy game wardens in this vicinity, were re-engaged by the Association to keep a strict watch on the waters of the river Trent, with strict instructions to prosecute anyone they found on these waters engaged in hunting or killing ducks. The public must recollect that it is strictly against the law to be found in any waters or places where ducks abound, with any fire-arm, and the possession of such a firearm is prima facie evidence that such person was hunting. The penalty for being caught with a fire-arm in such places is that the boat, gun, etc., of the accused can be confiscated and destroyed, besides the person himself being liable to a heavy fine.

Messrs. Potts and Keller have accepted their appointments and have expressed themselves ready to make an example of the first case of illegal shooting or hunting that they can find. The award of $00.00 for information leading to conviction is still an open offer, and the Association ask that the public give them all the assistance possible.

Chinamen Never Use Their Right Names When in Business

The "Hops," "Sings," and "Lungs" are Only Nom de Plumes that are Adopted—Some Interesting Information About Peterborough's Chinese Population.

Peterborough has an interesting lot of citizens in its Chinese population. Not much is heard about the Celestials although they are steadily increasing in numbers here, and their business interests are extending. Peterborough must have an unusually good class of Chinamen for it is seldom that they get into trouble, and it has been a long time since any of them have appeared in the local police court in any extent. The Chinaman is naturally industrious and if left alone minds his own business and does not interfere with anybody else.

As in other cities and towns nearly all the Chinamen in Peterborough are knights of the iron and washboard. There are six Chinese laundries in Peterborough and two to three employes are found in each of them. Those who are running the local Chinese laundries and their location are as follows:—

Hop Lee, 553 George street.
Hop Sing, 194 Charlotte street.
Sing Lee, 232 Hunter street.
Sing Lung, 464 George street.
Sam Lung, 169 Simcoe street.
Charlie Way, 414 Water street.

There are two Chinese restaurants in the city, the Dominion Chinese cafe conducted by George Thomas, and the Canadian Chinese cafe of which Charlie Woo is proprietor. The Dominion was first established about seven months ago, and the Canadian has been running about 3 months. Both are doing a good business, especially the Dominion.

ABOUT NAMES.

It is a curious fact that the Chinaman never uses his right name for business purposes. Hop Lee, Hop Sing, Sing Ling, and other cognomens of this nature are not the right names of the persons who bear them. When a Chinaman comes out to this country and sets up in business he adopts a "nom de plume" as it were and uses it for commercial purposes. Why this is done is somewhat hard to find out but it's true in almost every case. The principal reason is likely that Chinese names are very often quite lengthy and an English-speaking person would run the danger of getting the jaw dislocated if he attempted to pronounce them. Therefore the shorter and more simple names are chosen and used for business purposes. For instance Hop Sing may have a name that would make the high-sounding title of an English lord look cheap but he would rather have plain Hop Sing.

Another strange fact is that in China laundries are not as plentiful as one would suppose. Not that the Chinese are not cleanly people but nearly every family of the middle and the poorer classes do their own washing, therefore there is not much call for a high-class laundry as collars and cuffs are not worn as much in China as in Canada. Why does nearly every Chinaman that comes to Canada start or work in a laundry? you may ask. The answer is not hard to find. The Chinese do not make good laborers at outside work. They do not excel in digging sewers and in street work generally like the Italians. The Chinaman prefers some indoor work. Apparently some Celestial discovered many years ago when the Chinamen first started to come to America that the laundry business was well fitted to his qualifications, and since then nearly every Chinaman that comes over has followed the original example and started a laundry or else started to work in one. The Chinese also make excellent cooks and domestics, and in British Columbia and the larger cities many of them are employed in these capacities.

Peterborough's Chinese population numbers about twenty. In addition to the proprietor there are five of them at the Dominion Chinese cafe. The Celestials of the city are quite sociable among themselves, and visit each other frequently. They mind their own business and are good citizens. The police would have little to do if everybody behaved as well.

The majority of the Chinese of Peterborough attend Sunday school and seem to be much interested in what they learn there. They have special teachers and pick up rapidly what is taught them.

Mining Industry at Blairton May Yet Prove to be Profitable

One of the local travellers returned yesterday from a trip through the mining district around Havelock and Blairton and he had caught a little of the mining fever that is raging there. He says that it looks as if some real mining was to be done in that district. Quite a number of local prospectors are at work and minerals are being taken out of some of the mines. It is the only thing the people are talking about and they will hardly take time to discuss ordinary business.

As yet the fever has not attracted any outside promoters and the stories that are circulated are not so fishy. Neither are there any big companies being formed which offer hundreds of thousands of shares at a few cents each. These people are not looking for a boom. They don't seem to want it. But they are working quietly by themselves and before they make any big noise they want to make certain that they have got the goods. The latest find reported is by a comparatively young man, who says he has a large deposit of lead in such a state that he can cut it off in slices with his jack knife.

Every resident of that district firmly believes that the mining industry will yet be a big thing there, and those who have money are buying up the property before any boom starts.

The other booklet is entitled "Is it Utopian," and furnishes many striking instances of the foresight evidenced by numerous persons in taking out policies in the Canada Life, how profitable these policies have been, not only as a protection, but an investment and how gratifying have been the results "Is it Utopian" tells in a most interesting and convincing manner how the company has looked after the welfare of its clients.

Mr Balls, the district representative will be pleased to present any one calling at his office or dropping him a card, with copies of these admirably gotten up and exceedingly instructive brochures.

GOLF

PETERBOROUGH LOST.

The Peterborough Golfers who went to Cobourg on Thursday were badly defeated, although they are not sorry that they went. The Cobourg club have beautiful links and a handsome club house. They are all jolly good fellows, and know just as much about giving a party a good time as they do about playing golf. The Peterborough players got home today but do not like to talk very much. There were only two men up viz., Messrs. Stuart and S. T. Medd. Those who were down were Messrs. Hatton, Roy, Neill, Hill, Moore, Burnett and Stratton.

Alex. Deroches, who escaped from the Hamilton asylum on Saturday, is still at large.

Photographers are Home Again

After Attending a Very Successful Convention in Toronto

The Canadian Photographer's Association closed its session in Toronto, on Thursday and the four local photographers, who were present, arrived home yesterday. They were in Toronto for two days, and every hour of that time was pleasantly and profitably spent. It is the first time the photographers of the Dominion have met and so successful was the convention that it will be made an annual affair. Those who went from here are Messrs. W. G. Lendrum, J. L. Richmond, Fred Roy and L. Mendel.

There were no prizes offered for samples of work and consequently there was no competition. A large number of the photographers, however, had samples of work on exhibition and every one of them was good. Next year there will be a competition for the Angelo Sepia trophy.

On Thursday morning there was a demonstration given by the local photographers in their studios which was greatly appreciated. On Wednesday night a complimentary banquet was tendered the delegates at Sunnyside Beach and the rest of the time was occupied with convention business. The convention will be held in Toronto again next year.

One of the prettiest of the new models in small coats is shown for the benefit of the home sewer. Natty turnback cuffs finish the sleeves and a collar to correspond, the neck. This coat is suitable to development in any of the seasonable cloths, taffetas, pongee or linen. For the medium size 3 1-4 yards of 54 inch material are needed.
